1 (MOTION TO SUPPRESS EYE WITNESS IDENTIFICATION ON 1/6/1999
2 WAS AS FOLLOWS:)

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have a Motion to Suppress
4 Eye Witness Identification.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, let's break until--
6 how long do you think that is going to take, Mr. Lumumba?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Counsel tells me it is going
8 to take 30 minutes.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay, why don't we break until 10 1:30, and in that time between 1:00 and 1:30, maybe y'all can 11 get together on your questions on the questionnaire. Maybe
12 you can get that thing faxed to you, and then we will proceed
13 and we will finish up. Court is adjourned until 1:30.

14 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS ON JANUARY 6, 1999,
15 MOTION PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT,
16 ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT BEING PRESENT:)

17 BY THE COURT: What did y'all decide about 18 your questionnaire?

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I didn't see them during 20 lunch. We were here, but apparently, they went out to 21 lunch. I just gave them the questions that I suggest. He 22 wanted to see the one actually from Hinds County. I called,
23 my secretary called the Public Defender's Office in Hinds
24 County, and they said they were going to fax it, and 25 apparently it hasn't been faxed yet.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: She is checking back. So we 28 can proceed with the hearing if you would like.

29 BY THE COURT: We will do that, and then we

1 will get, we will do something on that before we leave
2 today.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

4 BY THE COURT: I want to be in a position
5 where I can at least mail her the questionnaire by the first
6 of the week.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Our first, we are 8 going to proceed on-- our first witness is going to be--

9 BY THE COURT: Which motion is this that you
10 are going to call up? The Motion to Suppress Identification?

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Identification, yes.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Our witness would be Mr.
14 Collins, Mr. Porky Collins.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. Do you want to call all
16 the witnesses around that we are going to have on this and 17 let me swear them now? Somebody may want the rule invoked.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, yeah. The witnesses we 19 intend to call are Mr. Collins and the officers who were 20 present at the time that he made an identification.
21 Matthews, Mr. John Johnson, and one other gentleman.
22 Matthews and Miller.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. Where are they?

24 (Some witnesses came into the courtroom.)

25 BY THE COURT: I need one more and then we 26 will be ready. (Pause) Let's go ahead and swear y'all, and 27 we will swear Mr. Johnson when the time comes.

28 (Witnesses sworn by the Court.)

29 BY THE COURT: All right. Mr. Collins, if you

1 will have a seat up here. You two gentlemen, I will ask
2 y'all to step outside, and if Mr. Johnson is out there, y'all
3 just tell him to wait, don't come in the courtroom.

4 CHARLES "PORKY" COLLINS,

5 upon being called to testify as a witness by the Defendant on
6 the Motion to Suppress Identification, having first been duly
7 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9 Q. I believe they call you Porky Collins; is that
10 correct?

11 A. That's correct.

12 BY THE COURT: That was my fault. First state
13 your name for the record, please, sir.

14 BY THE WITNESS: Charles Collins.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, now.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Charles Collins; is that correct?

18 A. Uh-hum.

19 Q. But they call you Porky sometimes?

20 A. That's right.

21 Q. And Mr. Collins, if I'm not mistaken, you appeared
22 as a witness in this case at a trial which occurred some time
23 ago in Tupelo, Mississippi; is that correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And you testified at that time concerning an
26 identification that you had made; is that correct? Or you--
27 well, let me strike that. You testified at that time with 28 respect to some observations that you said that you had made;
29 is that correct?

1           A.    I don't understand what you are talking about.

2           Q.    Did you testify at that time concerning
3 observations that you said you made on July the 16th, 1996,
4 around and about the Tardy grocery-- Tardy Furniture store?

5           A.    That's correct.

6           Q.    And would it be safe to say, Mr. Collins, that when
7 you testified, you had indicated that you had on that day
8 gone downtown; is that correct?

9           A.    That's correct. I had several places to go
10 downtown.

11          Q.    Yeah, and in fact, you have indicated that you went 12 downtown to go to the cleaners; is that correct?

13          A.    That was one of the places; that is correct.

14          Q.    But you never really went to the cleaners; is that
15 correct?

16          A.    That's correct. Not at that time, no.

17          Q.    In fact, you went downtown several times to go to 18 the cleaners--

19                BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor, I object.  This 20 motion is strictly on one thing, and that is 21 identification.

22                BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.

23                BY THE COURT:  Well, I will let him lay a
24 predicate.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26          Q.    Okay, all right.  You testified that you went 27 downtown on at least two different occasions to go to the 28 cleaners; is that correct?

29          A.    That's correct.

1 Q. Did you go two or three different times?

2 A. I went three times.

3 Q. Okay, and at no point did you wind up at the
4 cleaners; is that correct?

5 A. No. The third time I couldn't go get to the 6 cleaners.

7 Q. Okay, well, at no point did you get there the two
8 times before the third time; right?

9 A. No, I did not.

10 Q. And would it be safe to say that you also testified
11 that you had gone downtown to go to the bank; is that
12 correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And you never got to the bank?

15 A. No, I did not because after this happened, they 16 closed the bank.

17 Q. I see. Okay, now and I think that you testified on 18 this day in question that at some point you went downtown,
19 and you saw a Miss, a lady who you knew that worked at 20 Tardy's; is that correct?

21 A. Carmen Rigby; that's right.

22 Q. Okay, and I think that you at some point followed
23 her from the post office to an area where you saw her going
24 into Tardy's; is that correct?

25 A. I followed her from the post office. We got into a
26 conversation in the post office. We followed, we walked out
27 talking to her car. She got in her car, and I pulled out
28 behind her going to-- she was going down Summit Street, and 29 she went to Tardy's. Yes, I was right behind her, and she

1 waved at me as she went through the door.

2 Q. Okay, you saw her at the post office at eight-- you
3 said around about 9 o'clock, did you?

4 A. There was a postal money order that I got at the 5 post office. They have got the correct time on it, and
6 that's when I saw her.

7 Q. Okay, was that--

8 A. --It was around 9 o'clock though.

9 Q. Okay. And did you also indicate or do you indicate
10 now that you actually saw her going into Tardy's around about 11 9:15?

12 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again I object.
13 This is not a preliminary hearing or a discovery
14 hearing. This is a motion on identification only.
15 He is attempting to go through his entire
16 testimony, and that is improper on this motion.

17 BY THE COURT: Well, it may be, but I need my 18 memory refreshed as to what went on so I can get
19 the context of what we are talking about. So I'm 20 going to allow him to testify to it as long as you
21 don't drag it out, Mr. Lumumba.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, I am getting right to it.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

24 Q. About 9:15, I think, is when you said you saw her
25 proceed into--

26 A. --I didn't say what time it was. I said it was 27 ever how long it took me and her to go from the post office
28 to the car and talk about two or three or four minutes, and 29 then ever how long it took her to go down there; that's when

1 I seen her go in. I never did give a time.

2 Q. Well, in any event once you saw her go in, I think
3 that you indicated that at that time you went back; you left
4 downtown. Is that correct?

5 A. That's right. I went to the cleaners, and there
6 was a lot of cars parked around the cleaners, and I can't 7 walk very far. I am handicapped. And what I had to get from 8 the cleaners was of no pressure. I mean I could have gotten 9 it any time. My wife just told me, she give me one of these
10 "honey do" lists of what to do that day, and that's what I
11 was doing.

12 Q. I see. But you didn't get into the cleaners?

13 A. Not at that time, I did not.

14 Q. I see. And in fact, you intended to go to the 15 cleaners, but you didn't because it was too many cars?

16 A. That's right.

17 Q. Okay. So you went back home?

18 A. I started back home, yes.

19 Q. All right, and--

20 A. I didn't go back home at that time.

21 Q. All right, and where did you go?

22 A. I went and paid my gas bill.

23 Q. Okay, then did you go home?

24 A. No, I did not. I was on my way home, and I got a
25 phone call. My wife called me on the car phone. I had 26 brought my other car down to a mechanic to have some plugs
27 and plug wires put on it. And I had picked up the wrong
28 plugs, and my wife called me and told me I had got the wrong
29 plugs. So I rode three or four miles south of Winona to Don

1 Mitchell's repair shop, picked up those plugs, and went to
2 Wal-Mart and swapped them and brought them back to Don
3 Mitchell's repair shop. Then I went home.

4 Q. Okay, let me just see. You got a call indicating
5 that Don Mitchell said he had the wrong plugs?

6 A. That's right.

7 Q. So you went all the way to Don Mitchell's; right?

8 A. That's right.

9 Q. And got the plugs he had?

10 A. Uh-hum.

11 Q. Then you went all the way back to the--

12 A. To Wal-Mart.

13 Q. --to Wal-Mart and swapped the plugs, or you got the 14 plugs you needed?

15 A. Got the right plugs; that's right.

16 Q. And then you went all the way back to Don
17 Mitchell's?

18 A. That's right. And they have got a copy of the 19 receipt from Wal-Mart. It'll tell you what time that was.

20 Q. Okay. And then after you went to Don Mitchell's
21 for the second time-- well, actually that was the third time
22 you had been to Don Mitchell's that day; right?

23 A. No, the second time.

24 Q. Hadn't you gone earlier that day to drop off your 25 car?

26 A. That's right. Went earlier that day-- well, the 27 third time; that's right. I went and picked them up; that's 28 right, the third time, yeah.

29 Q. Okay, and then after that, you went back to your

1 home?

2 A. That's right.

3 Q. Okay. Then at your home then you left again going
4 back to get the clothes; is that correct?

5 A. That's exactly right. I had left the money at home
6 for the clothes. The clothes was for my son, and he had left
7 the money there.

8 Q. Okay, you left--

9 A. --And I went back by there and got the money for 10 the clothes, and I went back to the cleaners, yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay. Well, so you had also forgotten the money
12 for the cleaners when you went downtown the first time;
13 right?

14 A. That's right. My wife told me-- it was laying on 15 the cabinet inside the house. I was at my wife's shop when 16 she give me the rest of the stuff, and she said go in there
17 and pick that stuff up. And I walked out of her shop, and I
18 was talking to a man outside the shop, and I forgot to get 19 the money.

20 Q. Okay, I see. So now, so without going into great
21 detail, it would be safe to say you really forgot to do, you
22 forgot quite a few things that day; is that correct?

23 A. I don't hardly think so.

24 Q. Okay. Well, you forgot to go to the cleaners. You
25 forgot to get the money for the cleaners?

26 A. Uh-huh.

27 Q. Isn't that right?

28 A. I forgot to get the money for the cleaners, but 29 that is nothing unusual. I imagine everybody does that.

1 Q. I see. Weren't you having some problems with your
2 memory because of some medication that you were on?

3 A. I take a lot of medication.

4 Q. Were you taking medication at that time?

5 A. I was taking medication at that time. I am taking
6 medication today.

7 Q. Okay, and medication affects your memory?

8 A. Well, I couldn't hardly say. I don't know how you
9 could-- a lot of times-- no, I wouldn't say it affects my 10 memory.

11 Q. Okay. One second here.

12 A. At the particular time I am taking that medicine at 13 times, but I hadn't just taken that medicine.

14 Q. Well, you testified at this point that you were 15 taking the medication at the time; isn't that correct?

16 A. I take the medication every day.

17 Q. One second. (Pause) Okay, we will come back to 18 the medication issue, and I will ask counsel to remind me to 19 come back to it. Okay, now it would be safe to say, Mr.
20 Collins, when you came back downtown the second time, this is 21 after you had gone to the Don Richards--

22 A. Don Mitchell.

23 Q. Don Mitchell, I'm sorry, on three different
24 occasions. This is after that; right. And this is after you
25 had come from Wal-Mart.

26 A. Uh-hum.

27 Q. And you went to Don Mitchell's once-- well,
28 actually twice before you went to Wal-Mart's and once after 29 you went to Wal-Mart?

1           A.    That's correct.

2           Q.    Right, okay.  And you had gone by your house to get
3 the money that you had forgotten?

4           A.    That's correct.

5           Q.    You went back downtown, and at the time you got 6 back downtown, what street did you turn on?

7           A.    Went down Summit Street and turned south on Main
8 Street.

9           Q.    Is Summit Street the street that the bank is on?

10          A.    That's right.

11          Q.    Did you go to the bank at that time?

12          A.    No, I did not because when I came to town, I came 13 up Church Street and turned down Summit Street.

14          Q.    Okay.  Did you stop anywhere else before you got in 15 the area of Tardy Grocery store-- Tardy Furniture store?

16          A.    No, I did not.

17          Q.    Okay, and when you came into the area of Tardy
18 Furniture store, you were just going down the street there,
19 and I think that you have indicated before that you saw a
20 couple of people; is that correct?

21          A.    That's right, correct.

22          Q.    Okay, now you have been down that street many 23 times; isn't that correct?

24          A.    Well, I have lived there all my life; yeah.

25          Q.    Okay, these people that you saw, you didn't see any 26 guns; right?

27          A.    Why no.

28          Q.    Okay, you didn't see anybody hitting anybody or any 29 physical, anybody physically--

1 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, again I'm going
2 to object. This hearing, this motion that we have
3 been noticed for is on one issue, and that is his
4 identification in the lineup of this Defendant.
5 That is the only thing he has filed a motion on,
6 and we are going through his entire testimony which
7 is ridiculous.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

9 BY THE COURT: Of course, part of his
10 identification is what it was, is what was the 11 basis he used to identify the person. I think it
12 is highly relevant. I'm going to allow him to go
13 into it.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Okay, you didn't see anybody pointing a gun at 16 anybody or anything like that?

17 A. No, I did not.

18 Q. You didn't see anybody hit anybody or anything like
19 that?

20 A. No, I did not. I never would have noticed them if 21 it hadn't have been for the motions they was making, that one
22 of them was making with his hands. I would have never 23 noticed them.

24 Q. Okay, so a person was making motions with his 25 hands?

26 A. Yeah, looked like they were arguing.

27 Q. And that was the only-- but you don't know that 28 they were arguing, do you?

29 A. No, I do not. I just told you the only thing that

1 made me notice them was the motion of their hands.

2 Q. Okay, now what--

3 A. --one of them's hands. It wasn't but one of them
4 doing it.

5 Q. Only one person was doing it?

6 A. That's right.

7 Q. And it would be safe to say you have seen people
8 move their hands in various different ways at various 9 different times; right?

10 A. Not just like this, no.

11 Q. Well, it was the first time you ever saw anybody
12 move their hands--

13 A. --No, that is not what I said. Not like this. It
14 looked like they were arguing to me.

15 Q. Okay, but you have actually seen people argue many 16 times?

17 A. Oh, sure, I have, yeah.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. That's the reason I said that.

20 Q. Okay, but that was not-- I mean that drew your 21 attention?

22 A. That's right. That's what drew my attention to 23 them. I probably never would have seen them if it hadn't 24 been for that.

25 Q. I understand, but that wasn't like, seeing somebody
26 argue wasn't like an exciting event for you or anything like
27 that, was it?

28 A. No, but that's what made me notice them.

29 Q. I understand that, and I'm not taking that away

1 from you. But that's what drew your attention?

2 A. That's right.

3 Q. Okay, and you notice people on the street for 4 various different reasons; right?

5 A. Yeah, and that's why I may have seen a whole bunch
6 of people that day I never noticed because, you know.

7 Q. I understand. But my only question at this point
8 so I can go to the next question is that seeing somebody who 9 you thought may have been arguing was not an exciting event
10 for you?

11 A. No, it just made me notice them.

12 Q. Okay. And actually all you did was glimpse in that 13 direction; is that correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. And you only got a glimpse of one man; is that
16 correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. The other person, you didn't even see his face?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. Okay. And it would be safe to say that you only
21 got a glimpse on one occasion. That was as you were passing
22 them going south; is that correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. You then turned around and went north, and you
25 didn't see that person's face at all?

26 A. No, I did not.

27 Q. Okay, and it would be safe to say, would it not,
28 that at least as far-- and you had no reason to believe that 29 that person that you got that glimpse of was somebody that

1 was doing anything wrong? You had no reason to believe that?

2 A. No, I did not.

3 Q. Okay, you had no reason to believe-- in fact, you
4 don't know; you never did see that person do anything wrong;
5 isn't that correct?

6 A. No, I did not.

7 Q. And you had never seen in your life before that
8 person that you got this brief glimpse at; isn't that
9 correct?

10 A. Not that I know of. As far as I know, I had not.

11 Q. Okay. And it would be safe to say, would it not,
12 that on your way back coming south-- I mean going north; you
13 were going north as you were coming; right?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. So that was about the second time you were going to 16 that cleaners; right?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. You didn't go in that time either?

19 A. No. The reason I didn't, I made the circle because 20 I was going to look and see what was going on.

21 Q. I see. So you made the circle, and then you just 22 saw two people walking away from the car; right?

23 A. That's right.

24 Q. Doing nothing; nothing eventful?

25 A. That's right.

26 Q. Nothing fantastic?

27 A. They was headed across the street.

28 Q. Right, and walking actually toward the side of the 29 street where Tardy's was; right?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. But actually walking away from Tardy's; right?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And also walking away from the car; is that
5 correct?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. So that wasn't exciting to you, was it?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay so nothing-- you really, you didn't see any 10 faces; right?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. So nothing fantastic about that?

13 A. I seen one. I just got a glimpse of one man's 14 face; that's all.

15 Q. I mean you got that the first time?

16 A. That's the first time.

17 Q. You didn't get that the second time?

18 A. No, I did not.

19 Q. So the second time you didn't get anything that 20 excited you in any kind of way?

21 A. No, I did not.

22 Q. Nothing that even drew your attention really the 23 second time; right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Okay. And so once you did that, did you remember
26 to go back to the cleaners?

27 A. I didn't go back to the cleaners then.

28 Q. All right, sir. Okay, now let me ask you this.
29 You at some point, and that's the only thing that you saw

1 that day concerning the two people that you have shared with
2 us here today; is that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And it would be safe to say that you never saw in
5 person-- well, let me ask you this. At some point you talked
6 to the police; is that correct?

7 A. It was after all this happened, yeah.

8 Q. Yeah, and it would be safe to say this was-- you
9 gave the police a description of the two black men; is that
10 correct?

11 A. Yes, I did.

12 Q. Okay. And the only thing you were able to tell
13 them-- you told them all you could tell them; isn't that
14 correct?

15 A. That's right.

16 Q. You didn't leave anything out?

17 A. I wouldn't hardly think so.

18 Q. Okay. And the only thing you were able to tell
19 them about these two black men is that they were two black
20 men with medium complexion; isn't that correct?

21 A. I don't think I ever said that. I told them they 22 had the complexion of Johnny Hargrove's because he was 23 sitting there. I don't think I ever said anything about 24 medium complexion, but that may be where that come from.

25 Q. Oh, I see. So you pointed to Mr. Hargrove; is that
26 right?

27 A. That's right.

28 Q. And you say, and Mr. Hargrove is the police chief?

29 A. That's right.

1 Q. He is a black man?

2 A. That's right.

3 Q. And so you don't remember saying two black men,
4 medium complexion?

5 A. I don't remember saying that. I told them he had
6 the complexion of Mr. Hargrove sitting there.

7 Q. Let me ask you this. Are you denying that you said
8 that, or you just don't remember, and I'm not trying to put
9 words in your mouth. Are you denying that you actually said
10 medium complexion, or are you saying you didn't, or you just 11 don't remember?

12 A. I don't think I said it.

13 Q. Okay. You don't think you said it. I'm not trying 14 to get picky with you, but we need to know for the record.
15 You don't think you said it, but could you have said it? I
16 guess that's my question.

17 A. I guess I could have, but I said he had a
18 complexion like Mr. Hargrove's. I think that's all I said,
19 but I mean I could have said it.

20 Q. Okay, is Mr. Hargrove to you a black man of medium
21 complexion?

22 A. That's right.

23 Q. Okay, now one second.

24 (Pause while Defense Counsel confer.)

25 Q. Okay, but in any event you remember saying that
26 there were two black men of medium complexion. You remember
27 two black men who had a complexion like Mr. Hargrove. That's 28 what you remember saying; right?

29 A. That's correct. Well, I said he looked like Mr.

1 Hargrove. Yeah, that's correct.

2 Q. Well, now let me ask you this. You didn't see
3 either one of these people that you got the glimpse at again
4 that day as far as you know; right?

5 A. As far as I know I didn't.

6 Q. You didn't see-- the police didn't show you any
7 pictures of anybody that day, did you?

8 A. No, they did not.

9 Q. And in fact, the police didn't show you any 10 pictures until sometime about August the 24th of 1996; is
11 that correct?

12 A. I don't know what date it was.

13 Q. You know it was over a month later?

14 A. I couldn't tell you that. It was some time had 15 passed. I couldn't tell you how long it had been.

16 Q. Okay, you don't know but you know a lot of time
17 had--

18 A. Some time had passed, yeah.

19 Q. Okay, all right. You wouldn't-- now just listen to 20 the question carefully. If I was to say that it was on 21 August the 24th or somebody else was to testify to that, you
22 wouldn't take issue with that? You wouldn't deny that, would
23 you?

24 A. No, because it was several, it was a time lapse
25 there. I couldn't say it was or it wasn't.

26 Q. Okay, I understand. I'm not trying to nail you
27 down, but I just wanted to make sure that that is something
28 that you didn't disagree with, and you wouldn't disagree.
29 You just wouldn't know for sure?

1           A.     That's right.

2           Q.     Okay. Now would it also be true that when you saw
3 these pictures, you had not seen as far as you know this
4 person -- I am focusing now on this person that you got this
5 glimpse at; right?

6           A.     Right, okay.

7           Q.     A person you had never seen before in your life;
8 right?

9           A.     Uh-huh.

10          Q.     A person you had only seen when you were moving
11 down the street driving; right?

12          A.     Okay.

13          Q.     A person you couldn't see his face when you came 14 back; right?

15          A.     Right.

16          Q.     You never saw that person when you got this brief
17 glimpse at again prior to the time that you saw the pictures
18 as far as you know; is that correct?

19          A.     As far as I know.

20          Q.     And so when you looked at those pictures, your
21 identification, you were looking, you were basing, when you
22 looked at the pictures, on nothing but this brief glimpse
23 that you got at this person for the first time in your life
24 as far as you know?

25          A.     That's correct.

26          Q.     Okay. Now would it be safe to say also--

27                     (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr.
28 Evans.)

29                     BY MR. LUMUMBA: Could I see that?

1           BY MR. EVANS: I don't know that I want this
2           one introduced into evidence today.

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, my problem here is we
4           never got a copy of the actual pictures. We just
5           got a xeroxed copy. They have a much better copy
6           than I have. They are concerned about their copy
7           being introduced into evidence. I'm not concerned
8           about marking it up or whatever. I just want to 9           use it, and if they want to introduce this in 10          evidence and let me use that to show you and the 11          witness, I have no problem.

12          BY THE COURT: Let me see what you have got.

13          BY MR. EVANS: I have no problem with doing
14          that, Your Honor, but this is his motion. He 15          should have had the Supreme Court petitioned for 16          the original. This is a copy which I do not want
17          marked up because it's the only copy we have got.
18          And if we don't get the one back from the Supreme 19          Court, that's the one we will have to use in the 20          trial.

21          BY THE COURT: How about this? You will agree
22          that that copy he has got is a copy of this?

23          BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

24          BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to let him
25          look at this and testify from this, but if you want
26          to introduce anything, it'll have to be that copy.
27          Well, I'm going to allow this or something like
28          this to go to the Supreme Court if that becomes 29          necessary. The original will have to go. At this

1 point in time I don't want it marked up as far as
2 evidence goes. We will put this in for that
3 purpose. My ruling is that if it is necessary that
4 this record go to the Supreme Court, that this go
5 or the original to this go.

6 BY MR. EVANS: We can stipulate that the copy
7 that he has got is a true and correct copy of it
8 and introduce that one as far as the Motion as far
9 as I am concerned and use this one just for 10 demonstration purposes.

11 BY THE COURT: Right, but I think if it goes,
12 I think the originals are better evidence for what
13 this is about than the copies are. So if it goes--
14 I have looked at the original. He is going to look
15 at the originals. If it goes to the Supreme Court,
16 they need to look at the originals rather than a
17 copy. So my ruling is I will grant your objection
18 to this point, but if it comes down to it-- unless 19 they already have this.

20 BY MR. EVANS: They have got the original.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, if they--

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Who?

23 BY THE COURT: The Supreme Court.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

25 BY THE COURT: If they have got the originals,
26 then we won't have to even do that. But for the 27 purposes of this hearing, I want to use it where he
28 can see. Let the record reflect that Mr. Lumumba
29 is going to show the witness the original lineup

1 pictures. There are six of them; is that correct?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's correct.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, they will not be, this
4 particular document will not be marked into
5 evidence. There will be a true and correct copy
6 entered into evidence for the purpose of this
7 hearing. If necessary, the originals will go to 8 the Supreme Court.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we have another copy?

10 BY MR. EVANS: You have got it. How many do
11 you want?

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He was shown two photographic 13 displays that day and picked people out of both of 14 them. I would like to be able to show him both if 15 I can.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Petition the Supreme Court and 17 get it. That's the one I have got here.

18 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute; wait a minute.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: You don't have the other
20 copy?

21 BY MR. EVANS: No, I don't. It's in the 22 Supreme Court.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Isn't that it?

24 BY MR. EVANS: No, that's the same thing you
25 are holding in your hand.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry. Okay.

27 Thank you. That was all that question.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. Now you recall, don't you, Mr. Collins, that you

1 showed, you were shown two different sets of photos; is that
2 correct?

3 A. I was shown some photos. I think it was two sets.
4 It may have been; I don't know.

5 Q. And it would be safe to say that when you were 6 shown the first set of photos, you pointed to one or two
7 different persons in that array; isn't that correct?

8 A. I remember saying one of them looked like him. I
9 don't remember pointing to two. I remember saying one of 10 them may have, looked like him.

11 Q. What you remember is that the first set of photos
12 that you looked at you said that one of the people looked 13 like the person; is that correct?

14 A. I don't remember exactly what I said. I am trying
15 to remember exactly what I said.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if he is going to 17 ask him questions about different documents, I
18 would like for him to be shown these documents and 19 asked about specific documents.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, let me say this.
21 First of all, the documents that we have are 22 documents where the police officers took notes in 23 their own hands. There is no reason why he should 24 need those to testify as to what he remembers.

25 BY MR. EVANS: He specifically--

26 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute; wait a minute,
27 Mr. Evans. One at a time.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is my comment.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Evans--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: So there is no reason why he
2 should need the police officers' documents. I want
3 to see what he said, not what the police officers
4 say he said.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is making
6 reference with this witness to two different
7 lineups. He is attempting to confuse him. If he 8 wants to ask him about each lineup, I ask that he
9 show him the lineups and ask him specific questions
10 about each lineup so that he knows which one he is
11 talking about.

12 BY THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

15 Q. Now, Mr. Collins, you realize that you were shown
16 two different lineups. Now I want you to do the best you
17 can. Now if you can't remember something, just tell me. I
18 don't have any problem with that; you understand? Okay?

19 A. Yeah, I understand what you are talking about.

20 Q. And okay, now the first lineup, I want you to focus
21 on the first one you were shown. Now by the way, were you
22 ever shown color photos, or were all the photos you saw black
23 and white?

24 A. Some of them were black and white, and the best I
25 can remember some of them... (Pause) They were, some of them
26 were colored, I think.

27 Q. All right, so some of them were black and white?

28 A. Uh-hum.

29 Q. Now the, were-- in the first lineup, first group of

1 pictures you saw, how many was it? About 6, if you can--

2 A. --I would say so. I don't remember exactly how
3 many was in there.

4 Q. Okay. Were all the pictures shown at that time
5 black and white, or were some of those in colors, or do you
6 remember?

7 A. If I'm not mistaken, I believe they were all black
8 and white; I'm not sure. I believe they were all black and 9 white.

10 Q. When you pointed to somebody and said something
11 about them-- strike that for a moment. Let me just ask you a
12 few questions about what you were told when you appeared
13 there. First of all, actually between the time that you
14 talked to the police on July the 16th when the, and the time
15 that you were pointing to different photos, you actually
16 talked to the police on several different days before you saw
17 any photos; isn't that correct?

18 A. Well, I talked to several different-- I talked to 19 the Sheriff's Department. I talked to the Police Department,
20 and I talked to the District Attorney's Office, yes.

21 Q. Okay, and you talked to the District Attorney's 22 Office on several different times before you actually were 23 shown any photos; isn't that correct?

24 A. I talked to them a couple of times. I don't 25 remember just how many times it was.

26 Q. A couple of times, okay. And then after a while,
27 not immediately, but after a while, you did get shown some 28 photos after some time as you have described it. Isn't that
29 correct?

1           A.    Uh-hum.  That's correct.

2           Q.    And you believe that the first set you saw, if I'm
3   not mistaken, I think you just told me that they were all
4   black and white; isn't that correct?

5           A.    I think so.

6           Q.    And in any event, did you, when pointing to a
7   person in the first photo, did you indicate that a hairline
8   like this may have appeared, a little darker, but it looks
9   like him.  Did you indicate that?

10          A.    I may have said something similar to that.  I may 11   have.

12          Q.    Okay, and I think you indicated that the face was 13   shaped the same way; right?

14                   BY MR. EVANS:  Your Honor, again I object.
15                   This particular lineup that he is referring to had 16                   nothing to do with this Defendant.  It was the 17                   other person that he had looked at out there that 18                   day, and again, it has nothing to do with this 19                   motion that we are here on.

20                   BY THE COURT:  Well, I am here and I'm going--

21                   BY MR. EVANS:  --We were not noticed of that.
22                   If he wanted to attack them, he at least should 23                   have noticed us so that we would have known what he 24                   was going to raise today.

25                   BY THE COURT:  Well, you should have 26                   anticipated he was going to raise this.  I'm going
27                   to hear this.  Go ahead.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:  Okay.

29          Q.    Just to reflect to make sure I am right, you only

1 saw the face of one person out there; isn't that right?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. I see. And you had told the police that; right?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Now the-- you indicated in this first lineup that
6 the face was the same shape; isn't that correct?

7 A. I think so and I think I also told them, I think he
8 has got more of a receding hairline. I believe that's what I
9 told them.

10 Q. Okay. And of course, and then when you-- you
11 looked at the second lineup. You pointed to a person again;
12 right? You pointed to another person?

13 A. (No immediate response.)

14 Q. Well, let me ask you this. Did you point to one of 15 the pictures in the second lineup? Or first of all, I guess
16 I should ask you, you saw a second lineup; is that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. Was it color or black and white?

19 A. It may have been colored. I don't know. I don't 20 remember that part of it. I saw the pictures. That's all I
21 can remember.

22 Q. Okay. And when you saw the second lineup, did you
23 point to a person in that lineup?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. Okay. And would it be safe to say that at no time
26 did you ever say that you were positive that that was the 27 person that you had seen on that day for the first time in 28 your life on July the 16th of 1996?

29 A. I told them, I said, "I think that's him. I

1 believe that's him." I said, "I am sure that's him." That's
2 the words I said.

3 Q. So you said you were sure that was him?

4 A. I said, "I'm sure that's him."

5 Q. Okay. Now this is a person that you had seen for 6 one time in your life; right?

7 A. That's correct. As far as I know.

8 Q. And based upon that one glimpse -- you glimpsed at 9 him once; right?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. You now are telling us that you told them that you
12 were sure that was him; is that right? Is that what you want
13 to tell us now?

14 A. I may not have told them that right at first there,
15 but after I looked at it, you know, for a little bit, I said,
16 "I believe that's him. I think that's him." I know I said
17 that the first time.

18 Q. Okay. You first said, "I believe that's him"?

19 A. I said, "I think that's him. I believe that's
20 him."

21 Q. Okay, you said you think that's him?

22 A. Uh-hum.

23 Q. Okay, then you think you said you believe that's
24 him?

25 A. That's right.

26 Q. Then you think you said you were sure that was him;
27 right?

28 A. That's correct.

29 Q. Now as you were looking at him, it would be safe to

1 say-- well, let me ask you first of all; I'm going to present
2 to you what is marked as Exhibit 1, and I will get the copy
3 marked as Exhibit 1.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, let's do that so we can
5 keep it in order. Let's mark the copy now.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, that's what I am doing
7 right now. In fact, I am going to mark both of 8 those, both copies. I'm not going to mark--

9 BY THE COURT: I understand that.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm going to mark both 11 copies.

12 BY THE COURT: Of the two different lineups?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay, go ahead and let her mark
15 those. Any objection to that?

16 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir, Your Honor.

17 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Is this for 18 identification or in evidence?

19 BY THE COURT: You can mark-- do you want them
20 admitted as exhibits?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes. I would only ask that 22 before you take them, let me run copies of the 23 copies, so I will have something still.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, you can do that before
25 you leave today.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, but I do, I wanted them
27 admitted.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. Another thing is 29 apparently you don't have the original of that, of

1 the other lineup.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

3 BY THE COURT: So when you are referring to
4 that lineup, make sure you refer to the exhibit
5 number so it will be in the record as to where you
6 are.

7 (COPIES OF PHOTO LINEUPS WERE MARKED AND
8 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBITS D-1
9 AND D-2 TO THE MOTION TO SUPPRESS IDENTIFICATION.)

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11 Q. First of all, I'm going showing you those copies.
12 Do you recognize either one of those sheets as a lineup that 13 you were shown that day? If you do, let me know.

14 A. To tell you the truth, I can't tell nothing about 15 neither one of these.

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I thought the whole
17 purpose of him getting the original, copy of the 18 original from me was so that we could use it.

19 BY THE COURT: Now I think we can.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I think we can.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. And the only other thing I want to ask you is that 23 prior to coming here today, how did you become informed that
24 you were going to be asked to come here for this hearing?

25 A. I got this thing right here from you day before
26 yesterday afternoon about 7 o'clock.

27 Q. Okay. Since you have been here or any time that 28 time, have you had a chance to look at any photos that are in 29 the possession of either the police, sheriff, state troopers,

1 or the District Attorney?

2 A. They haven't showed me anything today here.

3 Q. Okay, have they showed you any time before you came
4 here today? Let me say, let's -- you were shown this some
5 time after July 16th; is that correct? You were shown
6 photos?

7 A. Yeah, I was shown some, yeah.

8 Q. Have you been shown, have you looked at any photos
9 any time since that time that were in the possession of any 10 of these people I just named? The police, prosecutor, 11 anybody, anybody like that?

12 A. Not that I remember.

13 Q. Have they ever talked to you about what you would 14 be asked here today?

15 A. Not that I remember.

16 Q. Oh.

17 A. Because I didn't even know what I was being 18 summonsed down here for.

19 Q. I see. Have you talked to either the District
20 Attorney or anybody from the police department or anybody
21 from the DA's office?

22 A. I have here today.

23 Q. Okay, and when was that?

24 A. Today.

25 Q. When today?

26 A. All during the day. From the time I got here this
27 morning when I saw them up until the time when I walked back
28 in here.

29 Q. And prior to today, when is the last time you

1 talked to them?

2 A. I couldn't tell you that.

3 Q. When is the last time you have been at the DA's
4 office?

5 A. Last time I have been in the DA's office? I don't 6 think I have ever been there but one time. That has been 7 about a year or two ago.

8 Q. When is the last time the DA or anybody from his
9 office has been to your store?

10 A. I don't have a store. That is my son's store.

11 Q. When is the last time that they have come to visit
12 you at the store or in the house--

13 A. --I don't know if the DA has ever been to my son's
14 store. Now if he has ever been there, I don't know. Now
15 John has been there, but he lives-- he comes by there every
16 once in a while. But as far as discussing this, I mean, you
17 know. Now they may come in there when I'm not there because 18 I just go up there every once in a while. Like I said, the 19 store belongs to my son.

20 Q. John has never come by to discuss the photos with
21 you?

22 A. Not that I know of.

23 Q. He has never had a discussion with you since that 24 day that you identified these?

25 A. I was shown those photographs right there - I don't 26 know if they was those photographs - at Tupelo.

27 Q. Okay.

28 A. And they asked me to tell the truth, and I couldn't
29 have swore that them was the particular pictures that I

1 looked at. And I said I couldn't tell them that, and I think
2 I was shown the pictures after then and told that that-- said
3 this-- and would-- and said, you know, that that was them.
4 But now I couldn't swear that them right there is the 5 pictures I seen because them pictures could have been
6 changed. They may be copies; I don't know.

7 Q. I understand. Who told you that these were the 8 pictures you were shown after you testified?

9 A. I don't remember that.

10 Q. Was that at the Tupelo trial or afterwards?

11 A. You know, I really don't know. I really don't. I
12 really can't tell you that. I really don't know.

13 Q. Okay. Now I am showing you what is Exhibit number 14 2 and ask you if those are, in fact, the pictures you were 15 shown?

16 A. They are.

17 Q. Pardon?

18 A. They are.

19 Q. Okay. Now but when you were shown those at the 20 Tupelo trial--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, I object because 22 he was not shown that group at the Tupelo trial, so
23 that is improper.

24 BY THE COURT: Maybe you ought to ask him that
25 question.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay; yes, sir.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. Were you shown some pictures at the Tupelo trial?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Were these the pictures you were shown?

2 A. I do not know whether these are the pictures I was
3 shown or not.

4 Q. I see. And, but the pictures you were shown at the 5 Tupelo trial you have indicated that you had never seen those
6 before; is that right?

7 A. No. They asked me if that was the pictures I was 8 shown. I told them I couldn't tell you if that was the 9 pictures I was shown. I couldn't tell you if these right
10 here are the pictures I was shown.

11 Q. Excuse me, Judge. So you can't tell me whether 12 those are the pictures you were shown?

13 A. You could walk out of this room right here and swap
14 them right out there. I couldn't tell you whether these are 15 the same pictures I was shown. These are some pictures like
16 this.

17 Q. I see. So you don't know whether those are the 18 pictures you were shown or not?

19 A. It's like I told you, these are-- I was shown
20 pictures like this.

21 Q. Okay. Can you at this time see all the persons on 22 those pictures?

23 A. Can I do what?

24 Q. Can you see all the persons, all those pictures?

25 A. Yes, I can.

26 Q. Okay, and let me get a little closer to you so you
27 can make sure you can hear me.

28 (NOTE: Counsel's voice was very hoarse.)

29 Q. On that picture as depicted, who has the biggest

1 head on that picture?

2 A. This man right here. (Witness points.)

3 Q. That is man number what?

4 A. Number four.

5 Q. Four.

6 (Pause while Mr. Lumumba drinks a cup of 7 water.)

8 Q. Can I see that again, please?

9 (After Counsel looked at the exhibit, it was 10 again handed back to the witness.)

11 Q. Who has the darkest complexion in those pictures?

12 A. Well, to me it's about three of them on there that 13 is about the same.

14 Q. And who are those three?

15 A. Be this one and this one. This one, this one, and 16 this one.

17 Q. Give the Judge the numbers; what numbers?

18 A. 1, 6 and 4.

19 Q. And would you say that although you say those are 20 about the same, number 4 is actually darker than the other
21 two people; isn't that correct?

22 A. To me what appears darker is he has got a beard
23 right there.

24 Q. Okay. So that makes him appear darker than the 25 other two people?

26 A. But you asked me what complexion. You asked me the 27 complexion.

28 Q. Does the beard make him appear darker than the 29 other two people?

1 A. Well, naturally it does.

2 Q. And you didn't tell the officers on the 16th that
3 the person that you saw had a beard, did you?

4 A. I was never asked.

5 Q. Did you ever tell them when they asked you to 6 describe him that he had a beard?

7 A. I don't think so.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I don't remember that. I don't think so.

10 Q. Now would it be safe to say that number 4 from this
11 picture appears to be older than number 6?

12 A. I couldn't tell you that. I couldn't tell you
13 that. My son runs the store, and I see people like this 14 every day, and I can't tell you their age. I can't even near 15 about start telling you their age.

16 Q. I'm not asking you to tell me their age. Do I
17 appear to be older than Mr. Freelon?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't believe--

19 BY THE WITNESS:

20 A. --I don't have any idea, man--

21 BY MR. EVANS: --either one of them are on the
22 lineup--

23 BY THE WITNESS:

24 A. --I have no way of knowing. I mean I couldn't tell
25 you--

26 BY MR. EVANS: --and I object.

27 BY THE COURT: Overruled.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

29 Q. You can't tell me whether I appear to be older than

1 Mr. Freelon?

2 A. I sure can't. I can't tell you.

3 Q. Do I appear to be older than this young man sitting
4 right here?

5 (NOTE: Mr. Lumumba pointed to a man sitting
6 in front of the jury box from the Department of 7 Corrections.)

8 A. Well, that is obvious there. I mean, you know, but 9 as far as that right there, I couldn't tell you that.

10 Q. So I do appear to be older than him?

11 A. Well, I would say so, yeah. And I may be wrong
12 too, but I would say so.

13 Q. Okay. And number 4 in your view, you can't tell me
14 whether he appears to be older than 1 and 6?

15 A. I sure can't.

16 Q. Can you tell me whether he appears to be older than 17 1?

18 A. I sure can't.

19 Q. Okay. Does number 6 have a beard?

20 A. No, he does not.

21 Q. Does he have a mustache?

22 A. It doesn't look like it.

23 Q. Does number 1 have a beard that you can see?

24 A. It doesn't look like it.

25 Q. Does number 1 have a receding hairline?

26 A. No, he does not.

27 Q. Does number 6 have a receding hairline?

28 A. He has a slight receding hairline.

29 Q. Who has the most pronounced, who has a receding

1 hairline in these pictures?

2 A. What now?

3 Q. A receding hairline.

4 A. This one sort of has a receding hairline, this one,
5 and this one right here.

6 Q. Number 4?

7 A. Number 2, number 6 and number 4.

8 Q. Okay, but number 1 does not?

9 A. No, he does not. Not to me he doesn't, from what I
10 call a receding hairline.

11 Q. I see. So number 4 has the biggest head?

12 A. In these pictures here, yes.

13 Q. Right. Number 4 is darker than everybody except 14 for 6 and 1; right?

15 A. To me, yeah.

16 Q. Number 4 and number 1, who is the only person you
17 say is as dark as number 4, does not have a receding
18 hairline; right?

19 A. I told you number 6, number 4, and all of them had 20 the same complexion. Yeah, number 1 does not have a receding
21 hairline.

22 Q. Right, and he is one of the people you said that 23 was as dark as number 4?

24 A. That's right.

25 Q. Who doesn't have a beard?

26 A. He doesn't appear to have one. Part of the chin is 27 cut off there. I don't think he has got one. He hasn't got 28 one on the side of his face.

29 Q. Who you can't tell is younger than this man?

1 A. I sure can't.

2 Q. From this picture?

3 A. I sure can't.

4 Q. All right. And I see. Now number 5 does not have
5 a receding hairline; right?

6 A. Not really.

7 Q. He also has braids in his hair?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. The man you saw that day, you never told the police
10 that he had braids in his hair?

11 A. No, I did not.

12 Q. By the way, you have seen a lot of people who have 13 receding hairlines; right?

14 A. Well, sure.

15 Q. There is a whole, millions of people with receding
16 hairlines?

17 A. Sure.

18 Q. A lot of dark black people; correct?

19 A. Uh-hum.

20 Q. Millions of them; right?

21 A. What now?

22 Q. Thousands of millions of dark black people?

23 A. I would say so. I don't know.

24 Q. But there is a bunch of them?

25 A. There is a bunch of them, yeah.

26 Q. All right. A lot of people with big heads?

27 A. I would say so.

28 Q. But the only person in this lineup-- the biggest 29 head in this lineup is number 4?

2   These right here may have a big head; I don't know.

3           Q.    But at least the way they are displayed this head
4   looks much bigger than all the rest?

5           A.    That's correct. From this pictures, yeah.

6           Q.    From the way they are displayed?

7           A.    Uh-hum.

8           Q.    And that's what you were looking at is these 9   pictures; right?

10          A.    At his head? How big his head was?

11          Q.    You were looking at these pictures; right?

12          A.    Yeah, I was looking at these pictures. I guess
13   these are the pictures, yeah.

14          Q.    Yeah, and you, of course, have never seen number 1, 15   2 or 3 in life, have you?

16          A.    I don't know whether I have or not. If I have, I
17   don't know them.

18          Q.    And you have never seen number 5 and 6; right?

19          A.    If I have, I don't know them.

20          Q.    Okay. Now you were never shown a live lineup, were
21   you?

22          A.    That's correct.

23          Q.    I'm sorry. You were never shown a live lineup, a
24   bunch of men standing--

25          A.    I was not.

26          Q.    Okay. When you were testifying at trial, you never 27   said that you were sure that Mr. Flowers was the man that you
28   saw that day; right?

29          A.    I told them that day in the court up there the man

1 I seen didn't have glasses on. He was not that heavy.

2 Q. And then he took his glasses off; right?

3 A. He did, and it was dark in that courtroom.

4 Q. All right, and you never said when he took his
5 glasses off that he was the man, did you?

6 A. No, sir. I don't think I actually come out and 7 said that, no. I think you are correct on that.

8 Q. All right, let me see what you did say. On page
9 435, did you indicate--

10 A. Said, I think that's him.

11 Q. You didn't say you were sure it was him; right?

12 A. That's what I just told you.

13 Q. Okay. And in fact, and then on page 436 you say
14 it looks like him; right?

15 A. Uh-hum.

16 Q. Okay, and that was the same thing you said when you
17 saw the first set of photos. You indicated that you saw a
18 man that looked like him; is that correct?

19 A. Wait a minute.

20 Q. You said hair looked like this, may have appeared 21 a little darker, but it looks like him; right?

22 A. That's correct. That's what I told you while ago.

23 Q. Okay, now that's what you said when you saw the 24 first photos?

25 A. That's what I told you while ago.

26 Q. Right, that was the photos. Okay. Now let me make 27 sure I understand what you are saying now. You said that 28 about the man that you pointed to in the first set of photos
29 that you saw that day; right? That you saw when the police

1 were showing them to you; right? You got shown two sets?

2 A. I think that's what I said. I think I said
3 something like it has got the same, looked like the same
4 complexion. I think it looks like him. I think that is
5 basically what I said.

6 Q. But you said at that time that the man looked a
7 little darker; right?

8 A. I may have.

9 Q. Okay. And in fact, that's what you said in court
10 when you looked at Mr. Flowers after he took off his 11 glasses. You indicated, in fact, that was the last thing you
12 said about him is that the man appeared to be a little
13 darker; right?

14 A. That's what I said because like I told them up
15 there, that courtroom was dark, and I could not see very well
16 in there.

17 Q. You couldn't see very well in a dark courtroom;
18 right?

19 A. That's right.

20 Q. And then you told the people that the man that you
21 saw that day looked a little darker than Mr. Flowers; right?

22 A. I told them that the man didn't have glasses on,
23 and he looked a little darker.

24 Q. And that is after the man, Mr. Flowers, took off
25 his glasses in the courtroom?

26 A. I think that is right.

27 Q. Was any of your discussions-- who showed you these 28 pictures? Maybe I should ask you that first.

29 A. I think John Johnson was there. I think Wayne

1 Miller was there. It may have been somebody else there; I
2 don't remember. I know those two were there, I think.

3 Q. All right. When they showed you those pictures,
4 was your conversation being recorded?

5 A. I don't know. I don't remember. I don't remember
6 that. It could have been; I don't remember.

7 Q. When they talked to you on the 16th, was your
8 conversation being recorded?

9 A. I don't really remember. I know at times there I
10 was there and they was telling me I was being recorded. It
11 may have been; I don't know. I don't remember that.

12 Q. Do you remember how many different times you
13 actually were recorded?

14 A. I have no idea.

15 Q. Was it more than one, or do you know?

16 A. I have no idea.

17 Q. Do you remember if you were ever recorded?

18 A. Oh, I was recorded because they told me they was 19 going to record this. Now how many times, I don't know.

20 Q. Were you ever recorded before you made an 21 identification or-- strike that. Were you ever recorded
22 before you were shown the pictures, the two sets of pictures
23 that you were shown?

24 A. I don't think so, but I'm not sure. I don't think
25 so. I may have been; I'm not sure.

26 Q. Now at the time that you were shown pictures--
27 well, let me ask you this. Were you ever shown any pictures
28 of a car?

29 A. No.

1 Q. The police never showed you any pictures of a car?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Never asked you to identify a car?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. They asked you to identify a car?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And where was the car?

8 A. Behind the police department in Winona.

9 Q. Did you ever identify a car?

10 A. No, I did not.

11 Q. Okay, what kind of car did you look at? How many 12 cars did they show you?

13 A. One car.

14 Q. And what did it look like?

15 A. It was, I really don't know what kind of car it
16 was. It was a two-tone beige or two-tone brown or something;
17 I don't know.

18 Q. And you didn't identify it?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. And you didn't identify it because you knew it?

21 What car were they referring to when they wanted you to make 22 an identification? In other words, what was it that they 23 were asking you to identify or to compare the car to?

24 A. The one I seen them standing beside and in front
25 of.

26 Q. Okay. And by the way, when you were saying at the 27 last trial that the man looked a little darker than him, when 28 asked if that was the man, meaning Mr. Flowers, okay; do you
29 remember at the last trial you said the man was a little

1 darker? You were telling the truth, weren't you?

2 A. Do what?

3 Q. You were telling the truth; right?

4 A. I have been telling you the truth all day, sir.

5 Q. Were you telling the truth at the trial when you
6 said the man looked a little darker?

7 A. I just told you, I have been telling you the truth
8 all day, and I just told you that just a few minutes ago.

9 Q. Okay, but I wasn't at the trial. My question,
10 listen carefully. Were you telling the truth at the trial
11 when you said the man looked darker?

12 A. Yes, I was telling the truth.

13 Q. Okay. And you were asked several times if this 14 here was the man; right? At the trial; right?

15 A. I think so.

16 Q. And at no time did you say you were certain that he 17 was the man; right?

18 A. I told them I believed that was him.

19 Q. At any time did you say you were certain that was
20 him?

21 A. All I ever told them was I believed that was him.

22 Q. Well, actually you didn't say, "I believe it was 23 him"; you said, "I think"?

24 A. Well, maybe I said, "I think it's him."

25 Q. Okay, did you ever say that you were certain it was
26 him?

27 A. I don't think so.

28 Q. All right. And you were telling the truth all
29 those times when you answered that question?

1           A.    I told you I been telling the truth all through
2 then and all day today, sir.

3           Q.    All right. And you told the truth back then?

4           A.    I told the truth back then.

5           Q.    Okay. Now so when you saw this car that they
6 showed you and you didn't identify it; is that right?

7           A.    I did not.

8           Q.    Did you not identify it because you weren't sure
9 that it was the car, or did you not identify it because you
10 were sure that it was not the car? Do you understand my
11 question?

12          A.    No, I don't.

13          Q.    When you saw the car, did you know whether or not
14 that was the car, the car they showed you?

15          A.    It didn't look like the car I seen.

16          Q.    Okay. So you said it wasn't, didn't look like the 17 car you saw; is that right?

18          A.    That's exactly right.

19          Q.    And what did the car that you saw look like?

20          A.    The car I saw had taillights all the way across the 21 back, and it was filthy. It was completely covered with dust
22 and mud.

23          Q.    Was it a beige brown?

24          A.    It was a brown car, a brown car.

25          Q.    Was it a beige brown looking car?

26          A.    Well, it was sort of beige brown. It was brown.
27 That's all I could tell you about it because it had a lot of 28 dust and a lot of dirt on it.

29          Q.    And taillights went all the way across?

1           A.    Went all the way across it.

2           Q.    Now prior to the time-- when you were brought down,
3 when they brought you down to show you the pictures, did they
4 tell you you were coming down to watch, see pictures?

5           A.    I don't remember whether they told me that or not.
6 They didn't bring me down. They called me and asked me to
7 come up there, and I went up there.

8           Q.    Okay. You went up there?

9           A.    That's right.

10          Q.    Up where?

11          A.    To the police department in Winona.

12          Q.    Okay, and when you went down, did they tell you why
13 you were there?

14          A.    Do what?

15          Q.    Did they show you pictures, or did you have a
16 discussion first?

17          A.    I don't remember. I think we talked a little bit
18 there, and then I think they showed me the pictures. I
19 believe that's the way it was.

20          Q.    And they told you that they were going to show you
21 some pictures; is that correct?

22          A.    Uh-hum.

23          Q.    And they showed you some pictures?

24          A.    That's correct.

25          Q.    And when they were showing you the pictures, they 26 indicated that they were going to show you a picture of the 27 person that you saw out there that day; is that right?

28          A.    No, that is not what they said.

29          Q.    What did they say?

1           A.    They said they had some pictures they wanted me to
2   look at and wanted to know if I could look at it and see if
3   one of them would be the person that I looked at.  They
4   showed me some pictures.

5           Q.    I see.  And this was some time later; right?

6           A.    It was later than after the day that this
7   happened.  Yeah, it was-- I don't know how long it was.  It
8   was a while after that.

9           Q.    Prior to the time that you saw the pictures, had 10  there been discussion in the community about this incident
11  that occurred at Tardy's grocery store?

12          A.    Well, sure.  There was discussion.  That is a small
13  town.  Everybody in town knew it.

14          Q.    And was there discussion about who the people were 15  that the police were talking to or who may have been 16  suspected?

17          A.    Wait a minute.  Tell me that, ask me that again.

18          Q.    Was there any discussion about who the police had 19  been talking to about this case, who the suspects were?

20          A.    I never heard anything about any of it.

21          Q.    Okay, you never heard Doyle Simpson's name come up?

22          A.    Uh, didn't even know who Doyle Simpson was up until 23  that morning that the crime happened.

24          Q.    But you learned that morning?

25          A.    That morning.  That's when I heard that, that
26  morning.

27          Q.    Okay, so did you hear about his name again prior to 28  the time you saw the pictures?  Did you ever hear his name
29  mentioned again?

1           A.    Yeah, when he come down to my brother-in-law's
2 place and said his gun was stolen.

3           Q.    All right, I see. So you heard about his name
4 then; is that right?

5           A.    That's when I heard about him. Yeah, never even
6 knew he existed in this world. Didn't even know him.

7           Q.    Did you hear about him again after that day, after 8 that time?

9           A.    I am sure I did.

10          Q.    Okay. Did you hear Curtis Flowers' name mentioned?

11          A.    No, I did not.

12          Q.    You never heard that?

13          A.    Not then I didn't, no.

14          Q.    Did you hear after that time?

15          A.    It was a while after that time, yeah, because I
16 didn't even, I didn't know this fellow.

17          Q.    You heard about his name before or after you saw
18 the photos?

19          A.    You know, I really don't know. If I told you one
20 way or the other, I would be lying to you, and I'm not going
21 to lie to you. I don't know.

22          Q.    Okay. And so let me see. Maybe you answered this,
23 but let me make sure. Was the conversation that you had 24 prior to the time that you were shown the photos and at the 25 time you were shown the photos, was that conversation taped?

26          A.    When they showed me the photos?

27          Q.    (Counsel nods his head.) If you know.

28          A.    I really don't know, but I am sure it was. I don't 29 know. I really don't know. I couldn't tell you if it was or

1 wasn't.

2 Q. Okay, let me ask you this. You recall some time
3 ago I came to your store to talk to you; is that correct?

4 A. I recall you coming to my son's store and asking,
5 telling me you wanted to talk to me and made an appointment
6 to talk to me, and you never showed up. I remember that.

7 Q. You were at the store when I came?

8 A. That's right. I was sitting at the table with my 9 wife and my brother and my sister and her husband.

10 Q. Okay, and did you talk to me at that time?

11 A. No, I did not. You made an appointment with me for 12 the Monday morning at 10 o'clock you wanted to talk to me,
13 and you never showed up.

14 Q. And did I ask to talk to you the day that I came?
15 I asked to talk to you then, didn't I?

16 A. When? That day?

17 Q. Yeah.

18 A. Yes, you did.

19 Q. Did you talk to me that day?

20 A. That night at the store?

21 Q. Yeah.

22 A. No, I did not.

23 Q. Okay, you refused to talk to me that day?

24 A. I did not refuse--

25 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, what does this
26 have to do with the identification, Your Honor--

27 BY THE WITNESS: --to talk to you no such a
28 thing.

29 BY THE COURT: Wait a minute, Mr. Collins.

1                   This really doesn't have anything to do with the
2                   motion. Let's move on.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4           Q.    Okay. Did you later on tell me that you wouldn't 5 talk to me at all?

6                   BY MR. HORAN: Objection, Your Honor. Did you
7 not just sustain an objection--

8                   BY THE COURT: --It just doesn't have anything
9 to do with this motion. It may be at some other
10 point in time. Anything else, Mr. Lumumba?

11                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have nothing at this time.

12                   BY THE COURT: All right.

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

14           Q.    Mr. Collins, you live in Winona; is that correct?

15           A.    That's correct.

16           Q.    And the day of the Tardy murders you were downtown?

17           A.    That's correct.

18           Q.    And you happened to see things at that time that 19 you thought might be important to the law enforcement
20 officials; is that right?

21           A.    That's correct.

22           Q.    And that same day you went to different law
23 enforcement officials, and you told them what you knew in 24 case it might be important; is that right?

25           A.    That's correct.

26           Q.    Now the day that this happened you have given
27 detailed statements about where you traveled, who you saw,
28 what kind of clothing different people had on, like Roxanne.
29 I believe you described her clothing when you saw her going

1 back in the store; is that right?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. All of these things, all these details were from 4 your memory; is that right?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Nobody told you what to say, did they?

7 A. No, they did not.

8 Q. And when you saw these two people that you say
9 looked like they were arguing out in front of the store, did
10 anybody try to tell you what they looked like, or are you
11 basing what you remember on your own memory of seeing that 12 person in front of the store?

13 A. No, they did not. I told the people inside the 14 place that morning exactly-- I give them a description of it
15 right inside that morning just a few minutes after all this
16 happened.

17 Q. And when you were shown the lineup, this color
18 lineup which was marked on the copy D-2, you didn't have any 19 hesitation in pointing out photograph number 4, did you?

20 A. Did not.

21 Q. And the reason you didn't have any hesitation
22 picking that out is that is the person that you saw in front
23 of the store; is that right?

24 A. I believe it is; yes.

25 Q. And you told John Johnson and Wayne Miller, That is 26 the person that I saw in front of the store, didn't you?

27 A. I think so, yes.

28 Q. And you put your initials on the back of that 29 photograph on the original copy, did you not?

1 A. That I did.

2 Q. And both Wayne Miller and John Johnson witnessed
3 you doing that, didn't they?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And you have testified in a previous trial in this
6 same basic case, have you not?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And in that case you told on the stand about seeing 9 the two people in front of the store, looking at one of 10 them's face and identifying him in a lineup, did you not?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And you have described that the person you saw in 13 the courtroom in Tupelo had on glasses; is that right?

14 A. I said the one that I seen didn't have glasses on.

15 Q. I meant in the courtroom.

16 A. Oh, yes, sir; that's correct.

17 Q. And you had a chance to see him without his glasses
18 on; is that right?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. And the courtroom in Tupelo was darker in the front
21 part than this courtroom; is that correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. Do you see the Defendant sitting over here?

24 A. Yeah. He looks darker now in here than he did up
25 there that day.

26 Q. Is that the person that you saw in front of Tardy's
27 store?

28 A. I will always believe that's the man I seen.

29 Q. And you are basing that on your own memory and not

1 what someone has told you; is that right?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Did anybody in any way - John Johnson, Wayne
4 Miller, or anyone attempt to point out which picture for you
5 to identify on that lineup?

6 A. It wouldn't have done any good to have done that
7 because I wouldn't have listened to you.

8 Q. And opposing counsel has indicated that one of them
9 may have somewhat of a larger picture. Did anybody tell you
10 to pick out the one with the large picture?

11 A. No, they did not.

12 Q. Did anybody tell you to pick out the one with the 13 small picture?

14 A. No, they did not.

15 Q. Nobody tried to influence you in any way?

16 A. No, they did not.

17 Q. And you wouldn't have let them if they had, would
18 you?

19 A. No, I would not have.

20 Q. And you are only identifying this Defendant because 21 he is the person that you saw there that day--

22 A. --I will always believe that's the one I saw.

23 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Collins. You are
25 excused for now. I'm going to ask you to stay
26 unless y'all-- can y'all finally excuse him?

27 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

29 BY THE COURT: Mr. Collins, you can go home.

1 BY THE WITNESS: All right. Thank you, sir.

2 WITNESS EXCUSED.

3 BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would call John Johnson.

5 BY THE COURT: John Johnson.

6 JOHN JOHNSON,

7 upon being called to testify as a witness by the Defendant on
8 the Motion to Suppress Identification, having first been duly
9 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

10 BY THE COURT: Have a seat, please, and then
11 state your name for the record.

12 BY THE WITNESS: My name is John Johnson.

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. Mr. Johnson, when is the last time prior to this
15 hearing that you talked to Mr. Collins?

16 A. I spoke to him day before yesterday, I think it
17 was.

18 Q. Day before yesterday. Where was he at?

19 A. At his home.

20 Q. Okay, why were you at his home?

21 A. I stopped to check with him to see if he had been 22 subpoenaed to be here.

23 Q. Did you have a discussion with him?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. What did you discuss?

26 A. Just basically asked if you and your counsel had 27 asked him any questions beyond what had normally been 28 discussed, and he indicated that you had not.

29 Q. All right, so just the day before yesterday at his

1 home?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. Is that right?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. Okay. Now when you saw him there, did you tell him
6 what this hearing was going to be about?

7 A. No, I didn't know that much about it myself.

8 Q. I see; so you didn't say anything about pictures?

9 A. I know I probably mentioned to him there would be a
10 picture lineup, you know, the same picture lineup from 11 before.

12 Q. You said the same one from before. You told him
13 that; right?

14 A. I don't remember the exact wordings that were made.

15 Q. But as far as you can remember, you said something
16 like that?

17 A. I don't remember exactly what was said in that 18 regard.

19 Q. Well--

20 A. The picture lineup has to do with his testimony, I
21 know, and the picture lineup was probably mentioned, yes.

22 Q. Okay, and what you shared with me a minute ago, to 23 make sure I heard it right, you did say that you probably 24 told him it would be the same picture lineup that was there
25 before; right?

26 A. No, that is not what I said.

27 Q. What did you-- that is not what is on the record
28 here?

29 A. Well, that's not what I meant to represent. I

1 don't--

2 Q. Did you mean what you said?

3 A. Maybe not.

4 Q. Oh, maybe not, okay. Well, let me ask you this.
5 When is the last time to your knowledge that you gave him
6 these pictures to look at, or did anybody give it to him to 7 look at? And for the record, Judge, the witness is looking 8 at Exhibit number 2.

9 A. These are not the pictures I had. I don't know
10 when the last time I have seen these pictures.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, excuse me. Can I have 12 the other copy, please?

13 BY MR. EVANS: You have got a copy of them.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm talking about the small 15 ones that you have.

16 BY MR. EVANS: You have got them right up
17 there. They are introduced into exhibits.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: There is a clearer copy of 19 these, the ones that is in as exhibits that they 20 had on their desk. Can I ask to be shown that,
21 please?

22 BY MR. EVANS: He has got a copy of it right
23 there, Your Honor. I am tired of giving him copies
24 of something he has already got.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No--

26 BY THE COURT: Well, if it's the same thing,
27 I'm--

28 BY MR. EVANS: --It's the same thing.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's not the same.

1                   BY THE COURT: Well, let me see it, and I will
2 clear it up whether it's the same thing.

3                   BY MR. EVANS: This is getting ridiculous.

4                   (Folder of photographs and Exhibits D-1 and 5 D-2 were handed to the Court.)

6                   BY THE COURT: Well, it is obviously not the 7 same thing. This is clearer.

8                   BY MR. EVANS: That is not the copy that I
9 gave him either.

10                  BY THE COURT: Okay, well--

11                  BY MR. EVANS: The copy that I gave him is 12 identical to this one.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have never seen a copy like
14 that.

15                  BY MR. EVANS: I might as well do your work on 16 this too. I have done it on everything else. And 17 I want that back too, Your Honor, because that is 18 the only copy I have got.

19                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I have no problem with
20 that.

21                  BY THE COURT: Okay.

22                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23                  Q. I am showing you a copy of Exhibit number 2 and ask
24 you if you have seen that before?

25                  A. Repeat your question.

26                  Q. Have you seen that before?

27                  A. Yes, I have.

28                  Q. And when were you shown, when did you see that?

29                  A. I'm not sure. This is a photostatic copy, I would

1     assume, but I have seen one similar to this recently. I have
2     had one recently like that.

3             Q.     Recently, within the last several days?

4             A.     Yeah.

5             Q.     And did Mr. Collins recently see it?

6             A.     Yes, he did.

7             Q.     And where was he at when he saw it?

8             A.     At his house.

9             Q.     Was that the same day you went over there?

10            A.     Yes. You know, let me, if I could rephrase that.
11     I had it with me. Whether or not he actually looked at it or 12     not, I don't know, but I had it with me, and I indicated to 13     him that my initials were on there, and the date and all was 14     on there.

15            Q.     Mr. Johnson?

16            A.     Uh-hum.

17            Q.     You took it out at the police station--at the, was 18     it in the DA's office? Where was the picture at before you
19     picked it up?

20            A.     I got it from the file in the office in Grenada.

21            Q.     You picked it up, and you knew where you were 22     going; is that right?

23            A.     Yes.

24            Q.     You knew you were going to Mr. Collins' office?

25            A.     Yes.

26            Q.     You knew you were going to Mr. Collins' office, and 27     that's why you got it so you could go?

28            A.     In case he asked me questions, yes.

29            Q.     And you went to him, and just a few minutes ago you

1 just told us that he saw the pictures; right?

2 A. He probably saw the pictures, yes. I can't swear
3 that he did.

4 Q. I mean I know you can't look through his eyes, but 5 you knew that you showed him the picture; right?

6 A. I didn't, I don't know that I actually showed him
7 the pictures, but I had the pictures in my personal
8 possession when I talked to him.

9 Q. And you had them in your possession so they could 10 be seen?

11 A. If he asked to see them, yes.

12 Q. I see. Now let me-- now we have only been talking
13 for the last ten minutes or so; right. Me and you here?

14 A. I don't know exactly how long we have been talking.

15 Q. Well, I just gave you that picture just less than 16 six or seven minutes ago; right?

17 A. Probably.

18 Q. And I didn't tell you what to say when I gave it to 19 you; right?

20 A. No.

21 Q. I just gave it to you and asked the question. One
22 of the questions was did Mr. Collins see that picture.
23 That's all I did; right?

24 A. (Witness shrugs.)

25 Q. Is that right?

26 A. May have. I don't remember exactly but something
27 on that order, yes.

28 Q. Well, you do remember that you told me that he saw
29 it. You said that; right?

1           A.    I said he probably saw it.

2           Q.    No, but at first you said he saw it; right?

3           A.    Well, he may have seen it.  I don't know that he
4 saw it or he didn't see it.

5           Q.    So let me understand you.  You got this picture
6 from-- was it at the DA's office?  I'm sorry.

7           A.    Yes.

8           Q.    And you went all the way over to Mr. Collins'
9 house?

10          A.    I went through Winona.  He lives in Winona, yes.

11          Q.    And you are from Grenada?

12          A.    No, I am originally from Winona.  I live in Sallis
13 at this time.

14          Q.    Okay, but you had to go get the picture from 15 Grenada?

16          A.    I was already there.

17          Q.    And you brought the picture with you from Grenada;
18 right?

19          A.    I brought this with me from Grenada, yes.

20          Q.    Which one?  You just said this?

21          A.    I had, I'm not sure if this is the same one or 22 not.  It may have been a copy, but I had--

23          Q.    --You had one that looked like that?

24          A.    That looked like this, yes.

25          Q.    Right, and for the record when we say looked like
26 this, this is a copy of Exhibit 2, and on the back of it it
27 has HWM 8/24/96; right?

28          A.    Right.

29          Q.    And it has-- what is this?

1           A.    That is my initials.

2           Q.    And what date is on it?

3           A.    8/24/96.

4           Q.    And it has some spaces that appear to be blocked
5 out on the back; right?

6           A.    Right.

7           Q.    What is under there?

8           A.    That would be the back of the picture lineup as it
9 was, or the front maybe, I don't know. The pictures of the 10 people that were involved in the lineup.

11          Q.    And it has here initials "CC"; right?

12          A.    That's right.

13          Q.    And it has here a time and the date; right?

14          A.    Right.

15          Q.    And on the front of it, it actually has the same
16 pictures which are in this-- well, just for the record so we 17 can describe it, this appears to be a black and white copy;
18 is that correct?

19          A.    That's right. Well, it's a photostatic copy, yes.

20          Q.    Which is in black and white?

21          A.    It's not in color.

22          Q.    And this appears to be in color, what we have been 23 referring to as Exhibit-- is a copy, which we have been 24 referring to as the pictures which are in Exhibit 2, this 25 particular group are in color; is that correct?

26          A.    Those particular pictures are in color.

27          Q.    Right, and for the purpose of the record to 28 describe it, they are in a manila folder that you can open
29 up; right?

1           A.    Yeah.

2           Q.    And when you open it up, then it appears to be
3 what-- about what size would you say that is?

4           A.    Probably 18 by 12, something like that.

5           Q.    Okay, and this other copy of Exhibit 2, this other
6 depiction of the photos in Exhibit 2, this is a copy which
7 has at the top "photographic identification"; right?

8           A.    Yeah.

9           Q.    And it not only is in black and white, but it is on 10 an eight and a half by eleven sheet?

11          A.    Yeah.

12          Q.    And these pictures are clear.  You can see them
13 clearly; right?

14          A.    They are fairly clear.  I don't know.

15          Q.    Okay, well, let me ask you these questions.  And 16 it's that copy, the ones that is fairly clear that you told
17 me that you took with you over to Porky Collins' home?

18          A.    I'm not sure if this is the exact copy.  I took a
19 copy that represented this same information.

20          Q.    To Porky Collins' home?

21          A.    I had it with me, yeah.

22          Q.    And you brought it from Grenada?

23          A.    I did.

24          Q.    And it would be safe to say that you don't normally
25 carry around evidence with you from a capital murder case on 26 a day to day basis, do you?

27          A.    I don't remember having anything that was marked
28 for evidence, but I had a copy of something similar to this,
29 yes.

1 Q. Well, you don't carry copies around with you of
2 capital murder evidence on a day to day basis?

3 A. (No response).

4 Q. You seem to be having some problems with that
5 question. Let me withdraw it and make it a little simpler.

6 A. I carry copies of a lot of things with me.

7 Q. I understand. But you don't go to Porky Collins'
8 house all the time; right?

9 A. No, I don't.

10 Q. And it just so happens at this time you were 11 carrying a picture which has, or a copy of a picture which is 12 similar to what you have in front of you which has Porky
13 Collins' initials on the back of it; right?

14 A. Yes, that's true.

15 Q. And you happened to go over to his house. You
16 didn't happen to go. You called him and told him you were 17 coming; right?

18 A. That's true. I think he called the DA's office,
19 and I wanted to go by and check on him.

20 Q. And in fact, as far as you know, your phones are 21 not tapped by the Defense; right?

22 A. Repeat the question.

23 Q. As far as you know, your phone is not tapped by the 24 Defense in this case, is it?

25 A. I don't have any knowledge of such.

26 Q. But so I mean, and I don't want to be facetious,
27 but you could have talked to him on the phone and asked him
28 what he got; right?

29 A. I didn't know where Porky was. He is a friend of

1 mine. He works at a store. His home is right there. I was
2 going right through Winona, and I just stopped to check on
3 him.

4 Q. With this copy of this picture?

5 A. I did have a copy of the picture with me. I also
6 had copies of a lot of things that I carry.

7 BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, let me say this.
8 If you are trying to make the point that he took 9 the picture there and showed it and wanted him to 10 look at it, you have made that point with the
11 Court.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Thank you.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. How long have you been an investigator for the DA's
15 office?

16 A. About 7 years.

17 Q. And would it also be safe to say that before that,
18 you were chief of police?

19 A. I was.

20 Q. In Winona?

21 A. That's right.

22 Q. And during this period of a year, how long was that 23 for?

24 A. I was chief of police six years; assistant chief,
25 four years. I was a policeman in Grenada and Winona prior to
26 that.

27 Q. Okay, so you have been in law enforcement for what,
28 over 20 years?

29 A. About that.

1 Q. And the reason I ask you that, one of the things
2 that you do in law enforcement, you learn about the
3 presentation of photo displays and lineups; is that right?
4 You learn how you are supposed to do it?

5 A. Sure.

6 Q. Okay. And they tell you that one of the 7 fundamental concepts is to make sure that the lineup or the 8 photo display is not what they call suggestive; right?

9 A. True.

10 Q. When we say suggestive, what we mean is anything
11 that makes a particular, let's say photo display; all right?
12 You are not supposed to do anything that makes a particular
13 photo stand out; is that right?

14 A. True.

15 Q. Because the principle is that you really don't know
16 yourself personally whether or not the person you have as a
17 suspect is actually the person that committed the crime;
18 right?

19 A. True.

20 Q. But they teach you that if you do anything
21 suggestive to make the picture of the suspect stand out - you
22 understand what I'm saying - that that might, in fact,
23 influence the identification by the witness; right?

24 A. (Witness nods his head.)

25 Q. Is that correct?

26 A. True.

27 Q. And if you influence the identification of the 28 witness, they teach you that you might be getting the product
29 of the influence rather than the product of what the witness

1 actually knows; right?

2 A. True.

3 Q. And would it be safe to say that they tell you that
4 when you do the photo display, that all of the photos should
5 be similar or look alike. I don't mean-- let's not talk
6 about the persons in the photos. But for instance, you are
7 not supposed to get a photo, a bunch of photos with dark
8 backgrounds and then put the suspect in a photo with light
9 background.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. I have 11 tried not to, but this is on one particular photo
12 lineup. He needs to ask his questions about that 13 photo lineup.

14 BY THE COURT: I think that is true.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Now but it's true, you are not supposed to--

18 BY MR. EVANS: --I object again, Your Honor.
19 Apparently he didn't hear the Court's ruling.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am going right to it.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, but I have ruled now.

22 Let's move on.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. In this particular photo selection, you have one
26 man there who appears to be close up in the photo as opposed
27 to further back in the background; is that correct?

28 A. Not knowing the actual size of these other people,
29 I can't say that that is totally true, but I would admit that

1 Curtis Flowers looks a little larger in that picture if
2 that's what your question is.

3 Q. And it would be safe to say that his head is 4 definitely bigger than anybody else here; is that right?

5 A. (No response).

6 Q. In this photo spread?

7 A. Probably.

8 Q. It would also probably be safe to say that in this
9 photo display he appears to be darker than anybody else here
10 as it appears in this photo spread?

11 A. That is possibly true, but this is a photostatic
12 copy from a copy machine here. This hasn't been presented to 13 Porky Collins by me.

14 Q. Does it appear in this photo display that he
15 appears to be darker than anybody else?

16 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again, he cannot
17 ask him and I object to him asking him about a
18 photocopy of what is darker or lighter.

19 BY THE COURT: I think you ought to refer to 20 the actual photograph.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

22 Q. What photographs did you show Porky Collins?

23 BY MR. EVANS: And again, Your Honor, for the 24 record the originals of these photographs are in 25 the Supreme Court. All we have before this Court
26 today are copies.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge--

28 BY THE COURT: --Let me ask you this because I
29 don't know. Are these photographs that we have

1                   here the same photographs that the Supreme Court
2                   has?

3                   BY MR. EVANS: They are the same photographs
4                   but--

5                   BY THE COURT: What is the difference?

6                   BY MR. EVANS: They are a copy that are made.
7                   So whether they are the same darkness or lightness
8                   or exact same size, I don't know. And I want this
9                   Court to understand that this is strictly a copy.
10                  The originals could have been here today, but
11                  nobody got them.

12                  BY THE COURT: Okay, well.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, can I ask a couple of 14                  questions? I think it'll clear it up.

15                  BY THE COURT: Well. (Pause).

16                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I state this? We have
17                  never, we have asked for discovery. We have asked
18                  to see the exact evidence.

19                  BY THE COURT: But they don't have that 20                  though. It is with the Supreme Court.

21                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: He says it could have been 22                  here today.

23                  BY THE COURT: Well, it could. You could have 24                  filed a motion with the Supreme Court and gotten it
25                  here.

26                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, well, if you
27                  recall our last discussion in your presence, they 28                  said they were going to file, and they were talking 29                  about this hearing.

1                   BY THE COURT: But my problem right now is
2                   that they are not here, so let me think just a
3                   minute.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I ask one question?

5                   BY THE COURT: Wait a minute first. Let me
6                   think just a second. (Brief pause) What he needs
7                   to be asked is if those photographs are 8                   substantially the same as the ones that he was 9                   shown, that he showed at the lineup, and that's 10                  what the issue is. Then I will have to maybe make 11                  a ruling after that.

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13                  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14                  Q. Which-- do we have here in front of us the photos
15                  which Porky Collins was shown at the lineup?

16                  A. I can't swear that these are identical in size or 17                  if these are reproductions and do they actually show actual 18                  size to scale individuals. You know, I don't know who took 19                  the pictures or whatever. But the original photographs were 20                  color pictures similar to these.

21                  Q. Similar to the ones in the big exhibit?

22                  A. Right.

23                  Q. Those are similar to the ones that you actually
24                  showed to Porky?

25                  A. Right.

26                  BY THE COURT: Okay, let me make this ruling.
27                  Of necessity, because I don't have them, I am going 28                  to have to make my ruling based on those 29                  photographs here today. If this case should go to

1           the Supreme Court, I direct that the photographs
2           that were actually submitted that are now at the
3           Supreme Court be a part, they be made a part of the 4           record in this case so that the Supreme Court will
5           have the actual ones. They will have a little bit
6           more benefit than I do, but that's the best I can
7           do.

8           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Now just to be clear--

9           BY THE COURT: And this, we are talking about 10          Exhibit 2 here.

11       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

12           Q.   Exhibit 2 in the manila folder; right? And the 13           ones which are similar to the ones that he actually saw on 14           that day?

15           A.   Correct.

16           Q.   Exhibit 2, which is the 8 1/2 by 11 sheet, the 17           copy; right?

18           A.   Correct.

19           Q.   Is similar to what you had with you in your
20           possession when you went by to see Porky Collins?

21           A.   Right. Sure.

22           Q.   Looking at these two representations of Exhibit 2, 23           you have no difficulty -- first of all, the same number is 24           under Curtis Flowers in this copy of the exhibit that is 25           under him in this copy; is that correct?

26           A.   Correct.

27           Q.   Everybody else here is arranged in the exact same
28           order on both of these copies?

29           A.   Correct.

1 Q. It's no difficulty ascertaining by looking at these
2 that the persons situated in these positions on one copy are 3 the exact same persons situated in the same positions on the 4 other copy; right?

5 | A. They appear to be; yes.

6 Q. And looking at this exhibit that was shown to Porky
7 on the day or a similar copy of it, it is also clear here
8 that the head of Curtis Flowers is a lot larger than the head
9 of Mr., than anybody else on here; right?

10	A. Probably so.

11 BY THE COURT: Let me ask a question. Is it
12 significant or relevant at all as to what any of 13 these witnesses think in that regard, other than 14 maybe Porky Collins, since in the ultimate long
15 run, I have got to be the one to examine the 16 photographs and make that decision regardless of 17 what his opinion is and then ultimately, if it goes
18 to the Supreme Court, they have to do the same
19 thing? So his opinion as to whether they differ,
20 does it make any difference?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I would argue in two
22 regards, Judge. Excuse me. I would argue in two 23 regards. One, it deals with the question of 24 whether objectively, they place people in the 25 lineup in a way which was suggestive to the 26 witness. That is number one.

27 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he can simply ask
28 him--

29 BY THE COURT: --Let him finish--

1 BY MR. EVANS: --that question.

2 BY THE COURT: Let him finish, and I will let
3 you-- Go ahead.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And I should be allowed to 5 approach that not just by asking that directly, but
6 by breaking down the photos to show it. Secondly,
7 tests have been done and included in the appendix
8 of some of the cases which indicate that very often
9 a witness is influenced by something which is
10 different about the witness-- about the suspect
11 which is not in his conscious mind, that most
12 misidentifications are based upon subconscious
13 factors as opposed to conscious factors.

14 So any difference which appears-- and I
15 appreciate that the Court can look at it, and I
16 think that is good, and the reason it's good is 17 because if I say something, if the witness says
18 something which is obviously not true about those 19 photographs, and I'm not talking about whether the 20 Court can disagree with the witness or that kind of 21 thing. That is not what I'm trying. If he says
22 something that is obviously untrue about the way
23 that those things are depicted, then the Court can
24 take that into consideration. If he says something
25 which is different about the depiction that I bring
26 out and the Court doesn't think it's that relevant,
27 then the Court can also take that into
28 consideration. But this is my only way of pointing
29 out to the Court what dissimilarities and

1           similarities exist in a lineup which we know that
2           all the suspects must all be displayed, are
3           supposed to have similar characteristics. That is,
4           I mean that is true. Everybody should have similar
5           characteristics, or they shouldn't be in there.

6           So I don't want to belabor this, but there is
7           just a couple of other questions. This is the only
8           lineup that we are dealing with, and I would like
9           to ask this witness, and the Court can certainly
10          come to his own conclusion.

11          BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, you know, if Mr.
12          Johnson - and I'm certainly not admitting that he
13          did that, but if he intentionally put a photograph
14          in there that was suggestive, that doesn't make any 15          difference what his intent was. It's whether or 16          not when the Court looks at the photograph array
17          and when the Supreme Court looks at the photograph
18          array, whether they say that it is suggestive under 19          the existing case law. The photographic array of 20          pictures speaks for itself.

21          Mr. Johnson's display of it is done once Porky
22          Collins looks at it. And the question turns not on 23          whether or not Mr. Johnson thinks that the head is 24          bigger or that there is pony tails or one of them
25          has a mustache. That doesn't make any difference.
26          Once he makes the photographs available to Porky
27          Collins, he can't change what he has laid out in 28          front of him. All these questions don't mean
29          anything. Mr. Johnson's mind set means absolutely

1 nothing. It's whether or not the photograph array
2 of pictures, I mean the array of photographs is
3 suggestive in and of itself. And is there any
4 other inquiry that the Court has to look into when
5 they are trying to suppress an identification? I
6 don't know what it is.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He had a description in his 8 possession at the time that he put these 9 photographs together. One of the things that the 10 case law talks about is whether the people in this 11 display meet that description so, and whether the 12 alleged suspect meets that description. So I think
13 all these are factors to be balanced, and I think
14 these are questions which are customarily asked on 15 a regular basis at these kind of hearings.

16 BY THE COURT: I think you have done that 17 though, Mr. Lumumba. You put Mr. Collins on, and 18 he testified as to what his preliminary report was 19 to the officers as to what their description was,
20 and then this officer has testified, I guess, that 21 these are substantially the same pictures that he
22 was presented. You have gotten those facts before
23 the Court. Now it's just-- regardless of what Mr.
24 Johnson thinks about it or you think about it or 25 Mr. Horan thinks about it, it's up to me to decide
26 whether I think it is constitutionally imperfect.

27 So I think you have established what you are 28 trying to establish as far as getting it before the 29 Court. And I think you did that with Mr. Collins,

1                   and I think you have done it with Mr. Johnson.

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

3                   BY THE COURT: I don't want to limit you, but
4                   you have given me the information I need, I think.

5                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Well, can I ask just a
6                   couple of other questions, and I will move on?

7                   BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. If you will keep it
8                   to two.

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

10                  Q.    How many people in this photo display appear to be 11                  over 30?

12                  A.    I couldn't answer that. I couldn't-- by looking at 13                  that, I can't tell you their age.

14                  Q.    Can you tell me--

15                  A.    I would say that they are close to the same age, 16                  but I can't tell you how old they are by looking at those 17                  pictures.

18                  Q.    Who appears to be the oldest person in this
19                  display?

20                  A.    (Pause) I can't; I would just be guessing, and I'm 21                  not qualified to do that.

22                  Q.    I just want you to understand the question.

23                  A.    I understood your question.

24                               BY MR. EVANS: I think that is two questions,
25                               Your Honor.

26                               BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. You don't understand
27                               the question.

28                  Q.    I'm not asking you who is the oldest. I am asking
29                  you who appears to be oldest based upon this display?

1           A.    Based on that display, I don't think I can make
2   that determination.

3           Q.    Okay, well, let's go to another question.  Do you
4   have information on the persons that you put in that
5   display?  In other words, do you know their names and other
6   information on them, about their vital statistics?

7           A.    I don't have any names or vital statistics on those
8   individuals, but I didn't put them in that display.

9           Q.    Who put them there?

10          A.    That was prepared by the Highway Patrol.

11          Q.    And do they have that information?

12          A.    I couldn't answer that question.

13          Q.    And who prepared it?

14          A.    I couldn't answer that question.  I know that Mr.
15   Miller had that in his possession.

16          Q.    Okay.  Did you show Mr. Collins a picture of Mr.
17   Doyle Simpson?

18          A.    When?

19          Q.    On the day--

20          A.    --initially?  When this lineup, a similar, the 21   original lineup was shown to Mr. Collins?  Is that what you
22   are saying?

23          Q.    On the same day that you showed these pictures to 24   him which are in Exhibit 2, did you show him a picture of Mr.
25   Collins [sic]?

26          A.    A picture of Mr. Collins?

27          Q.    Or a lineup with Mr. Collins.  I'm sorry--

28          A.    --I don't think Mr.--

29          Q.    A lineup with Mr. Doyle Simpson in it?

1           A.    No.

2           Q.    You never showed him a lineup with Mr. Doyle
3 Simpson in it?

4           A.    I did not.

5           Q.    I am showing you a sheet of paper and asking you if 6 you can identify it?

7                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, could it be marked
8 for identification purposes, please?

9                   BY THE COURT: Yeah, let's do that.

10                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will have to copy this too
11 later on.

12                   (HANDWRITTEN NOTES CONCERNING INTERVIEW WITH
13 MR. COLLINS WERE MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-3
14 FOR IDENTIFICATION TO THE MOTION TO SUPPRESS
15 IDENTIFICATION.)

16                   (Exhibit D-3 ident. handed to the witness.)

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18           Q.    Do you recognize that exhibit which now is marked
19 as number 3?

20           A.    I do.

21           Q.    What is that?

22           A.    This is some original notes that I had that I made
23 on the date that Mr. Collins was shown a picture lineup.
24 This is back on 8/24 of '96 looks like it is dated.

25           Q.    Was he shown a lineup of Mr. Doyle Simpson?

26           A.    Yes.

27           Q.    And was the pictures that he was shown of Doyle
28 Simpson, were they in black and white or color?

29           A.    I believe they were color like these.

1           Q.    When is the last time you saw a copy of those
2 pictures?

3           A.    I can't recall really. I don't remember exactly.

4           Q.    Did you take a copy of those pictures with you when
5 you went over to Porky Collins' house?

6           A.    No, I didn't.

7           Q.    Did you take a copy of any other pictures with you?

8           A.    No.

9           Q.    When you went over to Porky Collins' house?

10          A.    No.

11          Q.    Is it true that in your experience in setting up a 12 lineup, do you attempt to get people in the lineup with 13 similar characteristics?

14                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this has been
15 covered several times. I object.

16                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: I haven't asked him that
17 question.

18                   BY THE COURT: What question was it? State
19 that question again.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

21          Q.    Is it true that in setting up a lineup, that you
22 attempt to get people in it with similar characteristics?

23                   BY THE COURT: But I have held that that is 24 not relevant. The question is whether or not that 25 was done in this case.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: So you are saying it is not
27 relevant to this hearing?

28                   BY THE COURT: Well, that is all that is 29 before me is at this hearing; yes, sir. Yeah, I'm

1 not excluding it down the road.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4 Q. Okay, now when you brought-- or did you tape, did
5 you audio tape or videotape Mr. Collins when you talked to 6 him on the day that he looked at these photographs?

7 A. On that day, 8-24-96?

8 Q. Yeah.

9 A. I don't believe I did. Well, wait a minute. I
10 will have to look at the notes on that. 8-24-96; probably 11 so.

12 Q. What notes do you need to look at? I will be glad 13 to show you.

14 A. Well, in the statements that you should have a
15 copy; if I took a statement from Porky Collins, it will be 16 dated and timed.

17 Q. Did you tape him more than once or just once?

18 A. Repeat that.

19 Q. Did you tape Mr. Collins more than once or just 20 once in all the times that you talked to him?

21 A. I have taped him twice.

22 (STATEMENT OF PORKY COLLINS WAS MARKED AS 23 DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-4 FOR IDENTIFICATION TO THE 24 MOTION TO SUPPRESS IDENTIFICATION.)

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Do you recognize what has been marked as Exhibit
27 number 4?

28 A. I do.

29 Q. What is that?

1           A.    It's a statement of Porky Collins made March 10,
2    '97.

3           Q.    Was that taped?

4           A.    Yes, it was.

5           Q.    And March 10th, '97 is not the date he was shown
6    the pictures; right? He was shown the pictures on 8-24-96;
7    is that right?

8           A.    8-24-96.

9           Q.    Right.

10          A.    So now--

11          Q.    Now do you have any other statement of Porky
12   Collins which is taped other than that statement?

13          A.    Yeah, on 8-24-96. I think there may be a--

14          Q.    You do?

15          A.    I'm not sure. I think maybe there was one.

16          Q.    Well, let me ask you this. Did you see a copy of a 17   subpoena when you came here to testify, before coming here to 18   testify?

19          A.    No, I didn't look at it, but I knew you had one.

20          Q.    You never looked at it?

21          A.    Yeah.

22          Q.    You never looked at it?

23          A.    No, I never looked at it.

24          Q.    So you never read here where it says to bring all
25   information related to procedures that were used by Porky
26   Collins to identify Flowers and Doyle Simpson, the photo
27   lineup?

28          A.    No, I didn't read that, but I am sure it is there.

29          Q.    Okay. Well, how did you know about it?

1           A.    One of the girls in the office told me that it was 2   sent in there.

3                   BY MR. EVANS:   Your Honor, for the record, Mr.
4   Johnson was not served a copy of that, but out of 5   courtesy to the Court, we brought statements. But
6   Mr. Johnson was never served a copy of that.

7                   BY THE COURT:   Well, I assume the question is 8   was there a transcript of the second tape.

9                   BY MR. EVANS:   We only know of one tape that 10   was taken, Your Honor. And we have the tapes and 11   the copies here as we have sat down on two 12   different occasions--

13                   BY THE COURT:   --I understand all that.

14                   BY MR. EVANS:   --and gone over with opposing 15   counsel.

16                   BY THE COURT:   But as far as you know, there
17   was just this March.

18                   BY MR. EVANS:   Just one is the only one that 19   we are familiar with.

20                   BY THE COURT:   Okay.

21                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:   Judge, I certainly have never 22   seen another-- I have never seen a copy of any tape
23   other than that one.

24   BY MR. JOHNSON:

25           A.    I can see here that the information that you were 26   asking about is in this statement.

27           Q.    All right. Well, do you have a tape-- that was 28   taped in '97; right?

29           A.    March 10, '97. Yes.

1 Q. Do you have a tape or was there a tape made of 8-24
2 of '96?

3 A. If it was, you know-- it would be, you would have
4 it if there was such a tape. I made notes here, and that may
5 be what I am referring to here, of Wayne Miller was present.
6 I made these notes. I went back and asked him to make a
7 statement in regard to the overall interest of the case, and 8 that was the purpose of this tape.

9 Q. And that was done in '97?

10 A. It was.

11 Q. So you never taped him in '96; is that right?

12 A. Apparently not.

13 Q. You talked to Mr. Collins on several occasions
14 prior to August of '96 or prior to the day that you showed 15 him the photographs; is that correct?

16 A. Repeat your question.

17 Q. Is it not a fact that you talked to Mr. Collins on 18 several occasions prior to the time that you showed him the 19 photograph?

20 A. Sure.

21 Q. All right. And when you talked to him on those 22 occasions, did you ever tape anything that he said about this
23 case?

24 A. No.

25 Q. And now when you, when he came in -- where was he 26 at when you showed him the photographs on August the 24th of 27 '96?

28 A. Inside the DA's office in the Police Department of 29 Winona, Mississippi.

1 Q. Inside of the DA's office?

2 A. Uh-hum.

3 Q. And the Police Department?

4 A. That's right.

5 Q. Is that two different places or the same place?

6 A. The same.

7 Q. All right. Did he come down on his own, or did you
8 go get him?

9 A. I don't remember that.

10 Q. How did he get down there? Did you call him, or 11 did he-- somebody else call him?

12 A. I don't know who called him. I may have called
13 him.

14 Q. So you talked to him?

15 A. I did talk to him on that day, yes.

16 Q. Before he came?

17 A. I don't know about that.

18 Q. Who notified him that you wanted him to be there?

19 A. I don't remember that.

20 Q. You don't know?

21 A. Uh-uh.

22 Q. Do you recall any conversations that you had with 23 him before he saw the photographs?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did you indicate to him at some point that you
26 wanted him to look at the photographs in order to determine,
27 in order to see if he could pick out the person, in order
28 that he could pick out the person who committed this crime?

29 A. Just before he looked at the pictures, yes.

1           Q.    So you told him to see if he could look at the
2 photograph and pick out the person who committed this crime;
3 right?

4           A.    Yes.

5           Q.    And you indicated that there were a number of 6 people in the photographs and to look at all of them; is that
7 right?

8           A.    Sure.

9           Q.    Thank you.

10                       (Pause while Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr.
11 Freelon.)

12           Q.    Did you, did you tell him at any time prior to 13 showing him the photographs that you had a suspect?

14           A.    No. That wasn't discussed with him.

15           Q.    Was it discussed-- who was it discussed with?

16           A.    I think I can clarify that with this statement that 17 is over in the back of that statement.

18           Q.    No. I am asking you.

19           A.    All right, ask me.

20           Q.    Who was the fact that you had a suspect discussed
21 with? Was it discussed with any civilian witness?

22                       BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
23 relevant who he discussed with other than Porky
24 Collins. He is the one who looked at the photo
25 lineup, and whether he talked with me or other
26 investigators or anybody else about who was a
27 suspect is not relevant to this Motion.

28                       BY THE COURT: It's not relevant unless he 29 made some suggestion that made Porky Collins make

1                   that identification.

2       BY THE WITNESS:

3           A.     There was no suggestion of anything to make him
4       make that selection, no.

5           Q.     There were other police officers in the room at the 6       time; is that right?

7           A.     No.   Well, Wayne Miller with the Highway Patrol was 8       present.

9           Q.     How about Mr. Matthews?

10          A.     I don't believe he was there.

11          Q.     Okay. Did have you a discussion with Mr. Miller 12       about having a suspect?

13                   BY MR. EVANS: I object unless he specifies
14       whether he is talking about in the presence of Mr.
15       Collins.

16                   BY THE COURT: Well, yeah. You need to lay
17       that predicate.

18       BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19          Q.     Did you have any discussion with Mr. Miller in the 20       presence of Mr. Collins?

21          A.     No.

22          Q.     Pardon?

23          A.     No.

24          Q.     Did you hear Mr. Miller say anything to Mr. Collins
25       in your presence?

26          A.     No.

27          Q.     Didn't say anything to him at all?

28          A.     Not about Curtis Flowers being a suspect, no.

29          Q.     I'm not asking you about Curtis Flowers being a

1 suspect. Did he say anything to him-- well, first of all,
2 did he say anything to him at all at the time of the photo
3 display? Mr. Miller.

4 A. The only conversation was made with Porky was to 5 ask him to tell us what he knew, and then we asked him to 6 look at a photo lineup and see if he could identify the man
7 that he saw in front of Tardy Furniture that morning.

8 Q. To see if he could identify the man he saw in front
9 of Tardy Furniture? Is that what you said?

10 A. We asked him that, yes.

11 Q. Okay. The man?

12 A. (Witness nods his head.)

13 Q. Okay. You have got to say yes or no.

14 BY MR. EVANS: What was the comment or 15 question, Your Honor? I didn't hear it.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, he has to say yes or
17 no.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I didn't hear the 19 question or comment that was made.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, the question--

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It was a question.

22 BY THE COURT: It was, and I have forgotten.

23 Go ahead.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. The question is you asked him to identify the man
26 that he saw in front of the store; right?

27 A. Correct.

28 Q. Okay. Now you did not show Porky Collins any 29 photographs prior on any of the dates that you talked to him

1 prior to 8-24-96; was that right?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Now you are aware, weren't you, that one of the 4 things that is important to identification is how soon the
5 person sees the lineup after the incident; right? You
6 understand that is important?

7 A. I understand that can be a factor, yes.

8 Q. And the longer time it takes, the more chance that
9 they can make a mistake; isn't that correct?

10 A. I think that would depend on the individual and--

11 Q. Well, I know, but you don't, you don't do your work
12 based upon individuals? You--

13 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, this is not
14 relevant.

15 BY THE COURT: That is a jury question that 16 you are asking for.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. When you talked with Porky Collins on 7-16-96?

19 BY MR. HORAN: Is that an exhibit? Is that 20 marked?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No. Do you want to mark
22 it?

23 (NOTES CONCERNING PORKY COLLINS' STATEMENT
24 WRITTEN ON 7/16/96 WERE MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
25 EXHIBIT D-5 TO THE MOTION TO SUPPRESS 26 IDENTIFICATION.)

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

28 Q. I am showing you D-5. Tell us what that is.

29 A. The basic note I made on the day of the murders,

1 July the 17th-- 16th, '96.

2 Q. Do those notes concern a conversation with someone?

3 A. Yeah, I guess they do, yeah; Porky Collins.

4 Q. Right. And does it indicate whether or not you
5 showed him a photograph display on that day?

6 A. No, it does not.

7 Q. When did the state police become involved in the
8 case?

9 A. Almost immediately.

10 Q. And when is the first time you asked them to make
11 up a photo spread for Porky Collins?

12 A. We worked jointly involved in this investigation,
13 and I don't know that I particularly asked him to do that,
14 but it was discussed and Mr. Miller furnished one.

15 Q. Do you remember when it was first discussed about a
16 photo spread?

17 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, is that relevant to 18 anything as far as Mr. Collins' identification?
19 When they discussed when they wanted the photo
20 lineup?

21 BY THE COURT: It's really not. Let's move
22 on. I think we have pretty well covered this 23 subject with both of these witnesses.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. I don't have any
25 further questions.

26 BY THE COURT: How long are you going to be,
27 Mr. Evans?

28 BY MR. EVANS: Brief.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay. I asked Mr. Freelon

1           that, and I didn't get a straight answer.

2           BY MR. EVANS: Of course, if the Court would
3           like to take a break--

4           BY THE COURT: --I'm not going to ask him to 5           estimate time any more.

6           BY MR. EVANS: If the Court would like to take
7           a break, I am definitely ready for one.

8           BY THE COURT: Okay, let's take about ten
9           minutes.

10           (FOLLOWING THE AFTERNOON RECESS ON 1/6/99,
11           PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH THE COURT,
12           ALL COUNSEL, AND THE DEFENDANT PRESENT AND WITH MR.
13           JOHN JOHNSON STILL ON THE STAND:)

14           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, can I ask the witness
15           a couple of short questions?

16           BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, make it two;
17           okay?

18           BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

19           CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20           Q. One question is when you went to visit Mr. Porky
21           Collins a couple of days ago as you said, were you by 22           yourself, or was anyone else with you?

23           A. I was by myself.

24           Q. Focusing on Exhibit 5--

25           A. Do what now?

26           Q. Focusing on Exhibit 5, pointing you to the 27           description that was given by Mr. Collins--

28           BY MR. EVANS: I can't hear, Your Honor.

29           BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry.

1                   BY THE COURT: I think that is as loud as he
2                   can talk. I think he said, "Focusing on Exhibit
3                   5," and in that about the description that Mr.
4                   Collins gave to, I assume, Mr. Johnson; is that
5                   right?

6                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Right.

7                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

8                   BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9                   Q. Did you write down precisely the description that 10                  Mr. Collins gave you?

11                  A. No, I don't think it was precise, but I wrote down
12                  roughly what he told me.

13                  Q. What was the difference?

14                  A. He indicated one man was taller than the other. He 15                  indicated that-- you know, that is basically all he told us
16                  that day.

17                  Q. Did he tell you, did he tell you both men had 18                  medium, both were black men and they had medium complexions?

19                  A. That is true. I wrote that down.

20                  Q. And did he say that precisely?

21                  A. Yes, he said that.

22                  BY THE COURT: Can I see that? Is that in
23                  evidence?

24                  BY MR. HORAN: Identified.

25                  BY THE COURT: I move to admit them.

26                  BY THE WITNESS: This was a--

27                  BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute, Mr. Johnson.

28                  BY THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

29                  BY MR. EVANS: I don't even know what it is,

1 Your Honor.

2 BY THE COURT: It's his notes.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would move to admit all the
4 exhibits that I marked. Those would be Exhibits 1
5 through 5.

6 BY THE COURT: Some of them are already in.
7 Some of them are just marked for identification.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. I would move to admit
9 all of them for the purposes of this hearing, 1
10 through 5.

11 BY MR. EVANS: I don't have any objection to 12 this one. I want to see which other ones you are
13 talking about.

14 BY THE COURT: Linda, hand me that one that he
15 put on the table.

16 (Exhibit D-5 handed to the Court.)

17 BY THE COURT: Okay.

18 BY MR. EVANS: All right, so we are talking
19 about-- what number did you have?

20 BY THE COURT: It's back down there. Those 21 two copies are already admitted. The copies of the 22 photographs are already admitted. Everything else
23 is admitted for identification, I think.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I make a request?

25 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Run off a copy of this.

27 BY THE COURT: Of that one?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

29 BY THE COURT: Yeah. We will put--

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And put that in. Is that
2 okay?

3 BY THE COURT: Yeah, and then he can have that
4 one back.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

6 BY THE COURT: Right. That will be a good
7 deal.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, also the back is 9 going to need to be run on this.

10 BY THE COURT: That would be okay.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I would like to substitute
12 this or make this the exhibit.

13 BY MR. EVANS: I don't have any objection to
14 that.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: 2A, because we talked about
16 both of them. It would be kind of difficult.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. Will somebody go make me
18 a copy of that real quick? Let's get that done.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Do you want me to do it now?

20 BY THE COURT: If you don't mind.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Fine.

22 (After Counsel returned from making a copy,
23 Mr. Horan looked at the copy and determined that 24 the back of it was turned wrong and needed to be 25 restapled.)

26 BY MR. EVANS: Is the copy on the back of it?

27 BY MR. HORAN: I turned it around. Let me
28 see. That is wrong.

29 BY MR. EVANS: That is not right. Are we just

1           going to swap and put it on the correct exhibit
2           numbers, or are we going to redo the numbers?

3           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Maybe we can just put them
4           together as a composite Exhibit 2.

5           BY THE COURT: That will work.

6           BY MR. EVANS: And that exhibit is already in 7           evidence; is that right?

8           BY THE COURT: This?

9           BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

10          BY THE COURT: It hasn't been, but he is 11          asking that it be admitted and I--

12          BY MR. EVANS: No objection. No objection to 13          D-1 being in evidence. No objection to D-4 being 14          in evidence. No objection to D-3 being in
15          evidence.

16          BY THE COURT: And they are all marked now,
17          aren't they? Linda, have you marked them all?

18          BY THE COURT REPORTER: Not those.

19          (WHEREUPON, THE NOTES CONCERNING CHARLES
20          "PORKY" COLLINS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S
21          EXHIBIT D-3, THE STATEMENT OF PORKY COLLINS
22          PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-4, AND
23          THE NOTES MADE ON 7/16/96 CONCERNING MR. COLLINS'
24          STATEMENT MARKED AS EXHIBIT D-5 WHICH WERE EACH
25          PREVIOUSLY MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION TO THIS MOTION
26          WERE NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE. THE NEW COPY OF THE 27          PHOTO LINEUP THAT WAS JUST RUN OFF WAS ATTACHED TO 28          DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-2 MAKING IT A COMPOSITE 29          EXHIBIT D-2.)

1                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Lumumba, are you through?

2                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

3                   CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS: (SPECIFIED BY THE COURT AS 4                   NOT ABLE TO ASK LEADING QUESTIONS).

5                   Q. Mr. Johnson, on the day that these murders occurred
6                   in Winona, I believe Mr. Collins came to law enforcement
7                   officials and volunteered that he had seen something down
8                   there; is that correct?

9                   A. That's correct.

10                  Q. I think that initial day he said he saw the face of 11                  one of the two people standing in front of the store; is that
12                  right?

13                  A. That's true.

14                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can I raise an objection, 15                  please? I object to the leading nature of the
16                  questions.

17                  BY MR. EVANS: No, this is cross-examination.

18                  BY THE COURT: Oh, he would have to be 19                  classified as your witness.

20                  BY MR. EVANS: On cross-examination? It can't 21                  be my witness on cross-examination. Cross-
22                  examination is clear.

23                  BY THE COURT: That's right, but he is your 24                  witness, and that makes him a hostile witness-- I
25                  mean--

26                  BY MR. EVANS: --It doesn't matter if he is 27                  hostile. All that means is that they can get, use
28                  direct questioning which I did not object to.

29                  BY THE COURT: You can't lead him. You are

1                   going to have to not lead him.

2                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, under what rule?

3                   BY THE COURT: Under the rule that he is your
4                   witness, regardless of whether he is up here after 5                   he testifies or not. He has got him on cross. He 6                   is your witness. He is called-- he would be 7                   adverse to him where he could lead him with 8                   questions, but you can't.

9                   BY MR. EVANS: Under that theory, he could 10                  call any witness he wanted to, and I couldn't 11                  cross-examine--

12                  BY THE COURT: --Well, that is my ruling, so
13                  just ask him a question.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15                  Q. Mr. Johnson, let's just go through it step by step
16                  then. Do you remember the day that you went to Tardy
17                  Furniture?

18                  A. The day of the murders; yes, sir.

19                  Q. Do you remember approximately what time that day
20                  you saw Charles "Porky" Collins?

21                  A. I don't remember the exact time, but I would say,
22                  I'm going to guess at approximately 12:30. It would have 23                  been-- I don't remember the exact time.

24                  Q. Do you remember basically what he said at that
25                  time?

26                  A. Basically, that he had seen two individuals in the 27                  median area of Front Street, the median in front of Tardy
28                  Furniture store; that one of them he indicated had rounded
29                  features, his face. He estimated his height at 5 foot 10, I

1 think. He indicated they were standing near a car, but one
2 of the individuals had his head turned to him, and he didn't
3 get a good identification on him. He said he may could
4 identify one of the individuals.

5 Q. And what was that based on?

6 A. Just based on the description or the view that he
7 got of that person in front of Tardy's that morning.

8 Q. All right. We have seen two different photo line-
9 ups that were shown; is that correct?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. All right. And in evidence is the statement that 12 you took from Mr. Collins; is that correct?

13 A. There is a statement in there; yes, sir. I did 14 take that.

15 Q. Let me hand it back to you, Exhibit D-4?

16 A. (Pause while witness looks at exhibit.)

17 Q. Have you had an occasion today to go back through 18 that statement?

19 A. I haven't read it in detail, but I am basically
20 familiar with it.

21 Q. On the day that the photo lineup was shown to Mr.
22 Collins, who was present?

23 A. Myself and Wayne Miller, Captain with the Highway
24 Patrol.

25 Q. Where was this lineup shown?

26 A. In the District Attorney's Office in the rear of 27 the Winona Police Department.

28 Q. Did you or what, if anything, did you or Wayne
29 Miller or anyone else do to influence Charles "Porky" Collins

1 on who to pick out in the lineup?

2 A. There wasn't any influence, conversation to ask him
3 to pick anyone out other than we asked him to see if he could
4 identify the person he saw in front of Tardy's that morning.

5 Q. And how many different photos spreads was he shown
6 that day?

7 A. Two.

8 Q. And after he had been asked to see if he could 9 identify the person he saw, in the first photo spread did he 10 identify anybody?

11 A. No.

12 Q. In the second photo spread, did he identify 13 anybody?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. I will hand you the copy that has been made of the 16 second photo spread, which is D-1. This is the color copy.
17 I will first ask you if that is substantially the same as the 18 one that was shown to him that day?

19 A. Yes.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I see that, please. I
21 haven't seen it.

22 BY THE COURT: This? Yes, sir. You have seen
23 that.

24 BY MR. EVANS: If he hasn't, something is
25 wrong.

26 BY THE COURT: You have seen all of them.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He said D-1. Maybe he meant
28 D-2.

29 BY THE COURT: Of that?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

2 BY THE COURT: You can look at it, but you
3 have seen it. You are the one got it up there.

4 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I'm sorry. He used--
5 what I'm saying that is confusing me, he used the
6 number D-1. For the record, that is actually D-2.
7 Remember, Judge--

8 BY THE COURT: --Well, it was Exhibit number
9 2.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

11 BY THE COURT: It was Exhibit number 2.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I was just correcting
13 that; I'm sorry.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15 Q. All right, but you have seen that exhibit; is that
16 correct?

17 A. This one or one similar, yes, sir.

18 Q. All right. And the original of that exhibit, who 19 did you say prepared it?

20 A. Wayne Miller with the Highway Patrol. He furnished
21 it; I assume he prepared it.

22 Q. Are you familiar with how long it was after this
23 crime occurred before you or Mr. Miller were able to come up
24 with a photograph of the Defendant?

25 A. I don't remember the exact time, but it was, it
26 wasn't immediate. I mean it took some days to get it.

27 Q. Okay, to your knowledge did anyone have a 28 photograph that could be used in a lineup the day of the 29 crimes?

1           A.    Not that I'm aware of.

2           Q.    In this photo spread, I would like for you to look
3 at it. As far as the parts of the body that are shown in 4 there, are any of those any different?

5           A.    I think they have the basic facial features.

6           Q.    None of them are full body shots and some head
7 shots; is that correct?

8           A.    That's correct.

9           Q.    Are all of those people used in those photographs
10 as far as it appears basically the same age?

11          A.    They look to be approximately the same age.

12          Q.    Are all those people in those photographs black
13 males?

14          A.    They are all black males, or appear to be.

15          Q.    And is there anything that points out any 16 particular person in that lineup?

17          A.    Not that, not to me.

18          Q.    Was the Defendant used as number one?

19          A.    No.

20          Q.    What number was he in that lineup?

21                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would have to raise 22 the same objections that were raised to my
23 questions.

24                BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the Court let him
25 go deep into this. I just want to go briefly in it
26 to make sure there is a clear record.

27                BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, that is my objection.

28                BY THE COURT: Okay. Your objection is 29 overruled.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

2 BY MR. EVANS:

3 Q. What number is the Defendant?

4 A. Four.

5 Q. When the second photo lineup that included the 6 photograph of Curtis Flowers was shown to Mr. Collins, what
7 was Mr. Collins' reaction?

8 A. Can I refer to this?

9 Q. Yes, sir.

10 A. To be-- he pointed to number four and said, "I
11 think that is him. He was about my height. I am 5 foot 10.
12 Complexion is also right. I believe that's him. It looks
13 like him." And after he made the identification, I asked him
14 the question, "Do you know Curtis Flowers?" He said, "I
15 didn't know Curtis Flowers then. I don't know Curtis Flowers
16 now." And he went on to say that the man, "The picture that 17 I picked out in that lineup right there was the man that I
18 seen in front of Tardy Furniture Company that day."

19 Q. Okay, and that is in the statement that he gave 20 you; is that correct?

21 A. It is. It's recorded.

22 Q. Did you or Wayne Miller or anyone else tell him to 23 say that?

24 A. Absolutely not.

25 Q. Did anyone in any form or fashion even hint to him
26 who he should pick out in any way?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. Was there any hesitation in him when he saw the 29 second lineup in pointing to the Defendant's picture?

1           A.    No, sir.

2           Q.    You have been asked about the date on this being
3           March 10th, '97, being some time after the initial interview
4           with Mr. Collins. Is this statement substantially the same
5           as what he told you he saw happen on that day?

6           A.    It is.

7           Q.    Do you remember approximately-- now I'm not trying 8           to be exact, but approximately how long after the call came 9           in that the people were killed before Mr. Collins told you
10          what he told?

11          A.    If I could, I don't know if-- in my notes I should 12          have the time, but it would have been a short time. As soon
13          as he heard about what had happened, he came to Tardy
14          Furniture store and volunteered that information to us on the 15          chance that it would be helpful.

16          Q.    Would you say that it would be probably more or 17          less than two hours?

18          A.    I'm going to say less.

19          Q.    Now for the record on this, I want you to describe 20          the front of Tardy Furniture and the road there in front of 21          Tardy Furniture.

22          A.    Tardy Furniture was located on the south end of 23          Front Street, downtown Winona. Like most small towns, this,
24          the store fronts face the railroad track. In the middle in 25          front of the store there was a sidewalk and a small median
26          that used to have parking meters and allowed parking both 27          diagonally in front of the store and in the median on both 28          sides, and also some parking next to the railroad when it was 29          available.

1           Q.    All right. Did Mr. Collins tell you in which
2 direction he was driving when he saw this person's face?

3           A.    As I remember it, Mr. Collins indicated he came
4 down south Front Street, saw the individual, and turned and
5 it got his attention, and he noticed the people as he went
6 back up the street. So to exact angles, I don't know. I
7 know that one individual he did not get a good facial view,
8 but on one he did.

9           Q.    All right. I show you Exhibits D-1 and D-2.

10          A.    Okay.

11          Q.    How many photographs are there on those two 12 exhibits?

13          A.    Six each.

14          Q.    For a total of twelve?

15          A.    Yes, sir.

16          Q.    When you talked with Mr. Collins - and I am
17 referring to both right after the crime occurred and at the 18 time that this statement was taken - what was his abilities
19 to recall?

20          A.    I thought they were extremely good to detail. You
21 know, he described Ms. Rigby's flipping of the keys--

22                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Objection.

23          A.    --her hair.

24                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection.

25                   BY MR. EVANS: Wait until the Court rules.

26                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. I believe that it
27 would be impossible for him to sit up here, even if 28 he was an expert, to say that his ability to recall
29 is good. I don't have a problem with him asking

1           what kind of detail he gave him. But that calls
2           for a conclusion which he is not competent to make.
3           First of all, it calls for a conclusion that what
4           he was telling him is actually a recall of what Mr.
5           Collins saw, and I don't think he can make that
6           conclusion. I don't have any problem with him
7           talking about what kind of detail Mr. Collins gave
8           him, so that's my objection. I don't think-- it
9           calls for an opinion which this witness is not 10          competent to make. In fact, no witness is 11          competent to make except Mr. Collins himself.

12                 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response, he has 13          definitely attempted to impeach Mr. Collins on his 14          ability to remember. What I am asking specifically
15          of Mr. Johnson, and he does have the ability to 16          answer this in his opinion; he talked with the 17          witness very briefly after the crime was committed,
18          within two hours. He talked with him again and 19          took a statement on March 10th, 1997, and if these 20          facts that he gave on those two occasions are the 21          same, then his ability to recall is very good. And 22          that's what I am asking.

23                 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well--

24                 BY THE COURT: Well, I am ready to rule on 25          this. I take that to be a lay opinion which he is 26          entitled to make, and he can give his opinion.

27                 BY MR. EVANS: All right.

28          BY THE WITNESS:

29                 A. I think he was very accurate and very descriptive.

1 Q. And Mr. Johnson, to make my question a little
2 broader, I have asked you already about whether anyone
3 attempted to influence Mr. Collins in the photo lineup. Mr.
4 Collins has testified in the previous trial too; is that
5 correct?

6 A. He has.

7 Q. And he has testified here today too; is that right?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Has anybody ever tried to tell him who committed
10 this crime?

11 A. Absolutely not.

12 Q. Has anybody ever tried to tell him what person to 13 identify?

14 A. No.

15 BY MR. EVANS: One moment, Your Honor. That's 16 all, Your Honor.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I just have a couple.

18 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

19 Q. Mr. Johnson, if I understood it correctly, that 20 when you saw Mr. Collins at this time that you said his 21 recall was perfect. You did take down--

22 A. I don't--

23 Q. I'm sorry. You are shaking your head no. I don't 24 want to say anything that is incorrect?

25 A. Go ahead, sir.

26 Q. What you said, you were impressed by his ability to 27 recall?

28 A. I was.

29 Q. Now at the time that you were talking to them, you

1 were also taking down notes of what he was saying?

2 A. I was.

3 Q. And you are a trained police officer, trained in 4 the art of taking notes of what witnesses tell you?

5 A. True.

6 Q. And you know that it's important when you are a
7 police officer to take down as closely as possible precisely
8 what they tell you when they tell it to you; right?

9 A. It's important; yes, sir.

10 Q. And the reason it's important-- well, first of all,
11 this was a-- this case you were investigating couldn't be any 12 more serious. Not only was it a case that you were 13 investigating and taking down notes on witnesses, but it was 14 a capital murder case; right? Well, it was a murder case.
15 Somebody had been killed; right?

16 A. Four people, yes.

17 Q. Yes. So this was an extremely important case that 18 you were investigating; right?

19 A. Sure.

20 Q. And as an officer, you have been trained that it is 21 extremely important to take down what witnesses tell you
22 about the description of the person who could have been
23 involved with the crime; right?

24 A. Sure.

25 Q. And so if the witness tells you something about 26 that person, you write it down; right?

27 A. Not all the time.

28 Q. Well, let me understand this. If a witness tells--
29 you sometimes tape it; right?

1 A. Sometimes.

2 Q. Did you tape it on 7-16-96?

3 A. No.

4 Q. You sometimes take a videotape?

5 A. Sometimes.

6 Q. Did you take a videotape on 7-16-96?

7 A. No.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is improper
9 redirect.

10 BY THE COURT: It really is. It is improper
11 redirect.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. You were asked about, you were asked about a
15 picture of Mr. -- you were asked about a picture of Mr.
16 Flowers; is that correct, by your counsel when he stood up
17 here?

18 A. There has been a lot of questions about pictures.
19 I'm not for sure which one you are talking about.

20 Q. Okay. Well, let's venture back and I'm going to 21 try to ask you a proper question. The Court can tell me if 22 I'm wrong. You have recorded a description because you just 23 were telling the Court about the recall of Mr. Collins and 24 how good it was in your opinion; right?

25 A. That's true.

26 Q. Usually when a witness has good recall, then one of 27 the things that you judge that by is whether they can recall
28 precisely the details of the description of the person they 29 saw; right?

1           A.    That can be a judge--

2                   BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor, again, that is
3                   improper redirect.

4                   BY THE COURT:  No, it's not.  You asked him
5                   specifically that question.

6  BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7           Q.    Okay.  Isn't that true?

8           A.    That can be a judgment of it.

9           Q.    Yeah, well, in fact, as far as a description of a
10           person who possibly committed the crime, at that time you
11           didn't know who had committed the crime; right?

12          A.    That's correct.

13          Q.    And so as a police officer, one of the most
14           important things that you take down details on is a
15           description that might lead you to apprehend a person you are 16           looking for; right?

17          A.    It can be true.

18          Q.    It was true in this case; right?

19          A.    It could be.

20          Q.    No, no, no.  I mean I don't want to quibble with 21           you, but in this case weren't you trying to find out who had 22           committed this crime?

23          A.    At the time this was going on, there were many
24           other things continuing to go on at the same time.

25          Q.    No, I'm not asking--

26          A.    --I knew Porky Collins.  Do you want me to--

27          Q.    No.  Let me--

28                   BY MR. EVANS:  --Your Honor, may he answer the
29                   question?

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Look, I just -- Judge, all I
2 am asking is to answer my question.

3 BY MR. EVANS: And he is trying to if he will
4 be quiet and let him answer it.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I wish he would let me ask
6 the questions.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All I want is an answer, and 9 then an explanation is fine. I haven't gotten the 10 answer yet.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, ask him-- let him
12 answer it yes or no, and then he can explain it.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

14 Q. Okay. The question is that it was very important
15 on this occasion to get as complete a description as possible
16 of the person who could have been connected to the incident;
17 is that correct?

18 A. At that time--

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, could--

20 BY THE COURT: --You have got to answer it yes
21 or no; then explain it.

22 BY THE WITNESS:

23 A. Repeat your question.

24 Q. It was important on this occasion as you sat there
25 talking to Porky Collins to get as complete a description as 26 possible of the people that he had saw and particularly, of 27 the man that he said he saw the face of, got a glimpse of?

28 A. No.

29 Q. That wasn't important?

1           A.    It is always important, but it wasn't completely
2 important at that time. Can I explain my answer?

3           Q.    Go ahead. Certainly, I think you can.

4                    BY THE COURT: Yes, go ahead.

5 BY THE WITNESS:

6           A.    Plenty of things were going on. I'm not even sure
7 all the bodies had been carried out of that building at that
8 time. And at that point because two men had been seen in 9 front of the store didn't mean that those two men had 10 committed any particular crime or any one of them. We were 11 talking to many witnesses, and people were coming in. I just 12 scratched down their names, how I could get up with them as 13 who I knew.

14          Q.    I understand.

15          A.    Well.

16          Q.    I understand. Go ahead and finish.

17          A.    I am finished.

18          Q.    Okay. But I understand all that and, in fact, the 19 fact that two men were in front of the store doesn't mean
20 today that those two men committed any crime; right?

21          A.    Not in itself.

22          Q.    Okay. But you asked Porky Collins to describe
23 these people to you; right?

24          A.    He gave us a rough description and, yes.

25          Q.    And he gave you a description?

26          A.    Yes.

27          Q.    And you wrote it down?

28          A.    Part of it.

29          Q.    Now this description was given to you way back on

1 7-16-96; right?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And you are going to tell us today three or four
4 years later that you can remember what you wrote down and
5 what you didn't write down about what he said? Is that your
6 testimony?

7 A. It's pretty obvious. I can remember it if I can
8 look at it.

9 Q. Well, let me show you. No, I am asking you can you
10 remember - and you can use this or anything else you need. I
11 am showing you Exhibit number 5. You are telling us you can 12 remember today what you wrote down and what you didn't write
13 down?

14 A. Yeah, because I have got what I wrote down.

15 Q. On this paper?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay, this is-- okay, can you tell us what he
18 said? You can tell us what he said about the description
19 that you didn't-- you remember that today?

20 A. These were just my personal notes. Just my general
21 notes, yes.

22 Q. Can you remember today?

23 A. I can remember what I testified to.

24 Q. On these notes that you took--

25 A. Right.

26 Q. --the only thing it says about a description is a
27 black male, medium complexion.

28 A. It says two black males.

29 Q. That's all it says.

1           A.    That's all that says, yeah.

2           Q.    And that's the only description you got from him at 3 that time; isn't that correct?

4           A.    No, it's not.

5           Q.    Okay. Well, what other description did you get
6 from him at that time--

7           A.    --Like I testified--

8           Q.    --that you remember four years later?

9           A.    Like I testified earlier, he described one man as 10 having rounded features in his face. Obviously, he mentioned
11 two with medium complexion. I wrote that down. He said one
12 looked a little taller than the other, and that's basically
13 all I remember about that.

14          Q.    So that was that complete description that he gave 15 you about, that made you feel that he had good recall, and 16 the only thing that he told you was that the men were both
17 medium complexion, that one had rounded features, and that 18 one was a little taller than the other?

19          A.    I didn't say that that in itself was the reason I
20 felt he had good recall.

21          Q.    But as to the description, that's the only thing he 22 told you?

23          A.    Basically, yes.

24          Q.    And you remember today even though that you didn't 25 write it down four years ago, you can remember that he 26 actually told you at this time that the man had rounded
27 features?

28          A.    Exactly.

29          Q.    Well, rounded features, you have got space here;

1 you could have put that down here; right?

2 A. I have got space there, yeah.

3 Q. My final question is when you write a report of 4 what a witness is telling you, you don't know if the witness
5 is going to remember from the day that he tells you to months
6 or maybe years later when he is called upon to recall what he
7 told you that day. You can't say that, can you?

8 A. I don't think anybody can say that.

9 Q. And that is one of the reasons that they teach you
10 to write a good report and put it down; right?

11 A. When it is available, yes.

12 Q. And you don't really recall, or you may not know
13 when you write the report what you are going to remember?

14 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. This is 15 not relevant.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, yeah. I don't understand
17 the point you are trying to make. If you are 18 trying to make the point about his statement about
19 the fellow's recall, that point has been made
20 significant to the Court to understand where you
21 are going with it.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right, I will withdraw--

23 BY THE COURT: With a jury maybe you could go
24 ahead. With me you're just wasting your time.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will leave it alone. Let 26 me just make sure I have got all the exhibits.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am making sure I don't
29 leave one of my copies up here. That's what I am

1           doing.

2           BY THE COURT: Well, you might want to give
3 all the exhibits that are marked that you have got
4 up there back to the Court Reporter so she has got
5 them. Okay, thank you, Mr. Johnson. You can
6 step--

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: --I do have one question.
8 Let me admit to you, let me admit something from 9 this Court. This may be considered not to be 10 proper redirect, but it's something I forgot to 11 ask. And it is just one question, and I have no
12 objections to them standing up behind me and re-
13 asking and asking whatever they want about this 14 particular area. Let me ask the question, and then
15 the Court can decide.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17           Q. The question is at any point in time did you
18 attempt, did you ask Porky if he could identify a vehicle?

19           BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's the question. I don't 20 know if you will allow it to be asked.

21           BY THE COURT: My response to that is it's not 22 relevant because that is not what the Motion is 23 about.

24           BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

25           BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Johnson, thank
26 you. You can go outside. Who will you have next?

27           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Mr. Miller.

28           BY THE COURT: Would you send Mr. Miller in, 29 please, sir.

1 BY THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

3 WAYNE MILLER,

4 upon being called to testify as a witness by the Defendant on
5 the Motion to Suppress Identification, having first been duly
6 sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

7 BY THE COURT: State your name for the record.

8 BY THE WITNESS: Horace Wayne Miller.

9 M-I-L-L-E-R.

10 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Miller.

12 A. How do you do, sir.

13 Q. Quite possibly you won't be able to hear everything
14 I say. If you can't hear something, please just ask me to 15 repeat it.

16 A. All right.

17 Q. Okay. You work, I take it, for the state police?

18 A. I am an investigator with the Mississippi Highway
19 Patrol; that's correct.

20 Q. Okay, and you were working in that capacity back in 21 July of 1996?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. In fact, how long have you been working in that
24 capacity?

25 A. At the investigative level, I have been working for 26 12 years.

27 Q. Okay.

28 A. For the Mississippi Highway Patrol, I have been 29 working 32 years.

1 Q. Did there come a time when you were called in to
2 help with the investigation of this case, this case being
3 State versus Curtis Flowers?

4 A. Yes, I was.

5 Q. Okay, this was an investigation of some deaths that
6 occurred at Tardy Furniture store?

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. And when was it that you were called in?

9 A. I probably received the call something around 11
10 o'clock on the 16th of July of '96.

11 Q. Did you become involved immediately?

12 A. Yes. I did become involved in that investigation
13 at that time.

14 Q. Did you have a chance on that day to speak with a
15 gentleman by the name of Collins, sometimes called Porky
16 Collins--

17 A. --I did not myself.

18 Q. You never saw him that day?

19 A. I did not talk to him that day.

20 Q. Okay. Did you see him at all, if you know?

21 A. I probably did see him because I know Mr. Collins
22 and I did probably see him, and I knew who he was.

23 Q. How do you know Mr. Collins?

24 A. Just, I have been in and out of Winona, you know.
25 I am originally from Winona.

26 Q. Is he a friend of yours?

27 A. No, you know, just an acquaintance.

28 Q. Okay.

29 A. Not an enemy, not a friend; just I know him.

1 Q. Okay. Now you had-- did you talk to-- first of
2 all, I'm going to jump ahead a little bit and then go back
3 just a step. At some point you showed him some pictures; is
4 that correct?

5 A. I did, the 24th day of March.

6 Q. The 24th of March?

7 A. I'm sorry. Let me correct that. 24th of August,
8 I'm sorry. 24th of August.

9 Q. Now Investigator Miller, would it be safe to say
10 that the reason you remember that is because prior to coming
11 to testify, you had a chance to look at a report to see--

12 A. I looked over the reports to verify the date and 13 all of that.

14 Q. And one of the reports referred actually to 15 something that happened in March of '97; right? That was 16 when you took a statement from him?

17 A. I was not present at that, no.

18 Q. But in any event, in reviewing your reports, you
19 realized it was on the 24th--

20 A. Of August, right.

21 Q. --of August that you showed some pictures?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Now who was present besides yourself at the showing
24 of these pictures?

25 A. District Attorney Investigator John Johnson and Mr.
26 Collins.

27 Q. Okay. And where did you see Mr. Collins at?

28 A. At the Winona Police Department.

29 Q. Was he there when you arrived, or did he come after

1 your arrival, if you remember?

2 A. I can't remember. I don't know whether he was
3 already there or not. I do not know.

4 Q. Did you have any conversation with him? Let me
5 tell you what my question is directed to.

6 A. All right, sir.

7 Q. Normally - and you correct me if I am wrong -
8 normally when you show a witness any kind of photographic
9 display or live lineup, somebody has got to make contact
10 with the witness to let him know to come down and see one;
11 right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. So this is where my inquiry is directed. Do you of 14 your own knowledge know who made contact with Mr. Collins to 15 get him to come?

16 A. I did not make contact with him.

17 Q. So it would have had to have been someone else?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. Okay, and it would be safe to say you don't know
20 what him and that somebody else talked about?

21 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
22 relevant.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The suggestion is very
24 relevant.

25 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. He doesn't know what 26 I was doing at that time, but it has nothing to do
27 with this case.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, that is--

29 BY MR. EVANS: --The only thing that is

1           relevant is his knowledge about this case.

2           BY THE COURT: It's really not. His knowledge
3           about this lineup and all, anything that would
4           suggest that something had been suggested to Porky
5           Collins.

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Now, so you
7           sustained the objection?

8           BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

10          BY MR. LUMUMBA:

11           Q.    Okay, now so was Mr. Collins in the presence of the 12           other officer you mentioned, Mr. Johnson, at the time you
13           first saw him on the 24th of August?

14           A.    I don't recall if I arrived before Mr. Collins or 15           he came in later. I don't know.

16           Q.    Okay, I see. Now you do recall that you had 17           gathered some pictures to show him a display?

18           A.    That is correct.

19           Q.    Do you also recall-- let me back up a little bit.
20           Did you talk to Mr., did you talk to Mr. Flowers on the 16th
21           of July of 1996?

22           A.    Yes. I was-- yes, I did.

23           Q.    Who else was present at that discussion?

24           A.    Investigator Matthews.

25           Q.    Would it be safe to say - I am asking this for 26           purposes of this hearing - that he was a suspect almost 27           immediately?

28           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
29           relevant.

1 BY THE COURT: Well, it might be. It might
2 be. I will let it in.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

4 Q. Isn't that true?

5           A.     Mr. Flowers was developed as a suspect very soon
6     into the investigation.  He was.

7 Q. Would it have been safe to say, if you remember,
8 that actually on the very first day?

9 | A. I wouldn't say the very first day, no.

10 Q. Okay, do you remember how long it was?

11           A.    The more things that started developing, the more,
12   more things that caused him to become a suspect.

13 Q. Okay, well, so you can't give me a day?

14           A.    I can't give you a date that it actually, you know,
15   that he was the main suspect.

16 Q. Would it have been within the first week or two?

17	A. Pretty much so.
----	--------------------

18 Q. And it would be safe to say when you talked to him
19 on the 16th, you allegedly read him his rights; right?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. And you had him sign it?

22 | A. He was read his rights, and he did sign.

23 Q. Which is something that you often do for suspects?

24 A. That is correct.

25 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that has nothing to 26 do with--

27 BY THE COURT: --Let's move on from this
28 point.

29 BY MR. EVANS: --this motion.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

3 Q. Now let me ask you this. Do you recall, where was 4 Mr. Collins-- not Mr. Collins; I'm sorry, but Mr. Flowers at 5 when you saw him on the 16th?

6 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, what relevance does
7 that have to whether or not the lineup is
8 suggestive in any way?

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am leading directly to 10 questions about pictures.

11 BY MR. HORAN: Ask him whether or not he took 12 a photograph on that particular day, Your Honor.
13 That is the only relevant question.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am the examiner here. I
15 can ask questions--

16 BY MR. EVANS: --only if they are relevant.

17 BY THE COURT: I will let you ask it. Go
18 ahead.

19 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

20 Q. Okay, go ahead.

21 A. Ask the question again.

22 Q. Where was Mr. Flowers when you saw him on the 16th?

23 A. There at Greenwood-- I'm sorry. There at the 24 Winona Police Department.

25 Q. Did you ever see Mr. Collins on that day or shortly
26 thereafter in Carroll County?

27 A. No, I did not.

28 Q. Okay. Are you aware of whether or not a picture
29 was taken of Mr.?

1 BY THE COURT: Mr. who?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I'm sorry, Mr. Flowers.

3 BY THE WITNESS:

4 A. There was probably some photographs taken of him
5 that day or the next day, and I don't know exactly which day.

6 Q. Either the 16th or the 17th?

7 A. Or maybe a day after that. I don't really know
8 exactly, but within those first two or three days.

9 Q. Early in the investigation?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Were they taken by you or were they taken by the 12 people in Montgomery County, if you know?

13 A. I did not take the picture.

14 Q. Do you know what department took them?

15 A. I can't answer that.

16 Q. Did you at some point become in possession of that 17 picture?

18 A. Right; I did.

19 Q. And--

20 A. I would say that Investigator Matthews took that 21 photograph.

22 Q. I see.

23 A. Or some photographs.

24 Q. Was this a picture taken on, I assume a 13
25 millimeter camera. Was it a 13 millimeter camera?

26 A. I can't answer that.

27 Q. But it was a camera?

28 A. It was a camera.

29 Q. Did the pictures have to be developed or were the

1 pictures--

2 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor. We need to know
3 whether or not this is a photograph that they
4 took. That is the only relevant question that we
5 have here. Whether or not they were developed or 6 not doesn't really--

7 BY THE COURT: --If it's the photograph in the 8 lineup, it has got relevance. If not, it doesn't.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, they have argued that
10 there was no picture available. It doesn't make 11 any difference whether it's the photographs in the 12 lineup or not. Their argument was--

13 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that has nothing
14 to do with this motion.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me.

16 BY THE COURT: --Wait, wait. Let him finish
17 and I'm going to give you your chance.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I know I am hoarse, so maybe
19 Counsel thinks he has some liberties.

20 BY THE COURT: No, wait a minute. Just talk
21 to me.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, look, let me say
23 this. Judge, here is my position. They asked the 24 question of the previous witness-- can we approach
25 the bench on this? I don't want to bias his 26 testimony in any way. Can we approach the bench?

27 BY THE COURT: Uh-hum.

28 (COUNSEL APPROACHED THE BENCH BUT WENT BEHIND
29 THE BENCH TO CONFER WITH THE COURT:)

1 BY THE COURT REPORTER: I'm not going to be
2 able to hear.

3 BY THE COURT: She is not going to be able to
4 hear. (To the witness) Would you step just outside
5 that door? Let's do it that way.

6 MR. WAYNE MILLER LEFT THE COURTROOM.

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: The question asked of a
8 previous witness, Mr. Johnson, was whether they had
9 any photographs available, or did it take them a
10 while to develop the photograph for this case. And 11 apparently and clearly that was raised to explain
12 why they got a man allegedly saying on the 16th of 13 July that he may be able to identify a person, and 14 they don't show him a lineup until a month later
15 and so, which has a lot to do according to the case
16 law with the reliability of the identification.
17 The question that was asked to Mr. Johnson elicited
18 response that no photograph was immediately
19 available. Now irrespective of whether or not they 20 used it, if they had one that was available, then 21 it is relevant to the inquiry. I'm not going to 22 stay on it forever, but I would just like to know
23 if they had one available. Then he can explain
24 either in my questions or through his why they
25 didn't use it if they didn't. Okay. Why they used
26 another one when it took a long time to develop.
27 Do you understand what I'm saying, Judge?

28 BY THE COURT: I do, but here is the answer to 29 it is. There are different stages, of course, in

1 the trial. There is a stage where that may be
2 relevant. But that, the reliability of the
3 identification, as you know, is a jury question
4 which is not what we are here on today. It's a
5 question of whether or not there was an
6 unconstitutional suggestive lineup and whether they
7 did anything with Mr. Collins to influence him to 8 make that. And this question, those questions in 9 relation to that photograph may very well be
10 relevant at trial, but they are not relevant here
11 today for the determination I have to make.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. Y'all can get him if you
14 don't mind. So the objection is sustained.

15 WITNESS RETURNS TO THE COURTROOM.

16 CONTINUING DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Did you at some point put a photograph display
18 together with Mr. Flowers in it?

19 A. I did.

20 Q. And did you have a number of pictures to choose 21 from?

22 A. A number of?

23 Q. A large number of photographs of people to put in 24 the display?

25 A. I had several photographs. I don't know whether it
26 would be what you would call a large sum.

27 Q. Well, about how many?

28 A. Probably 15, 20.

29 Q. Okay, and these were all black males?

1           A.    Yes.

2           Q.    All right.  Were you given any direction as to what
3 description had been provided by the witness who was going to 4 look at the display?

5           A.    Had I been given any description?  No, I had not at 6 that time.  No.

7           Q.    Okay.  When you put the display together, was it
8 your effort out of what you had to get people who were as 9 close in characteristics to Mr. Flowers as possible?

10          A.    Of what I had, but I was very limited in what I
11 had.

12          Q.    I understand.

13          A.    I was trying to stay within the same age groups
14 and...

15          Q.    Okay.  The pictures that you put together, they 16 have been preserved; is that correct?  They have been
17 preserved.  We have them?

18          A.    Yes.  Yes, you do.

19          Q.    And I'm going to show you what Exhibit 1, copy of 20 Exhibit 2 which is in a manila folder.  Do you recognize it?

21          A.    Yes, I do.

22          Q.    And did you or was that the photograph display that 23 was shown to him, one of them?  Is that one of the ones that 24 was shown to him?

25          A.    These are copies of it.

26          Q.    Okay, of the one that was shown to him?

27          A.    That's correct.

28          Q.    Okay.  Do the copies look like the originals?

29          A.    As well as I can remember, and I don't have the

1 originals to go by but.

2 Q. All right. It's true that in that photographic
3 display one man's head--

4 BY MR. HORAN: --Your Honor, I'm going to
5 object to this line of questioning on the grounds
6 it's not relevant. We have gone over this. The 7 Court can look at these photographs, and the 8 Supreme Court can look at these photographs. This 9 is a question of admissibility, not credibility or 10 reliability of a particular photograph. It's only
11 whether or not these photographs are admissible.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: If a picture is in a lineup
13 where one person is distinct amongst the rest and 14 that is the suspect, that is a constitutional
15 question.

16 BY THE COURT: Absolutely, it is and those
17 photographs depict that so I can determine that,
18 and this line of questioning would be cumulative
19 since you have already gone into it with two other
20 witnesses.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23 Q. Did you maintain, do you have a record somewhere of 24 who those people are in the lineup?

25 A. Yes. There should be a record in the file.

26 Q. Oh, really? Did you supply that?

27 A. But I don't know. I haven't seen it. I thought it
28 was with the original.

29 Q. Where it lists the people in the lineup; right?

1                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I know this is out
2                   of line, but I might can clear something up. I
3                   think the originals at the Supreme Court have the 4                   names on the back of the original pictures.

5                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

7                   Q. Do you have records, the records that you are 8                   speaking of, do they indicate anything about the age and the 9                   height and the weight of the people in the lineup?

10                  A. I can't answer that. I don't recall. I don't have 11                  that before me, and I can't answer it right now.

12                  Q. Do you have such records?

13                  A. It should be with that original file.

14                  Q. If it's not, would you have a copy of it somewhere
15                  else, not necessarily here but somewhere?

16                  A. It should be in some of the files that is already
17                  here.

18                  Q. So that is something that would have been supplied
19                  to the investigator?

20                  A. As far as I know, yes.

21                  Q. Okay, did you tell-- who talked to the witness when 22                  he came to look at the photos? Was it you or was it Mr.
23                  Johnson?

24                  A. I don't know what you are asking now. I'm not 25                  understanding you.

26                  Q. Was there any discussion with Mr. Collins when he 27                  appeared to see the photographs?

28                  A. I did not discuss anything with him other than 29                  produce the photographs for him to look at.

1 Q. You didn't say a word?

2 A. No. I produced those and let him mark the one and
3 initial the one that he described as, or the one that he
4 picked out.

5 Q. How did he know what to pick out?

6 A. How did he know what to pick out?

7 Q. Yeah. Anybody--

8 A. --I mean he was told that this was a photo lineup.

9 Q. Right. And he was told to look for the person?

10 A. Yeah, but I didn't tell him that. I produced the 11 photos.

12 Q. I'm sorry, but I'm just trying to understand. Did
13 somebody tell him to look for the person that he saw out
14 there that day on the 16th?

15 A. Right. But I was not that person.

16 Q. Who was that person?

17 A. I produced the photo lineup.

18 Q. Who was that person?

19 A. Mr. Johnson was present at that time.

20 Q. And he told him that in your presence?

21 A. That this was, yes. And I produced the photo
22 lineup.

23 Q. All right. And he told him that same thing with 24 two different lineups; right?

25 A. Right. There were two different lineups produced,
26 and this is not the first one. This was the second one.

27 Q. Right. And with the first one he was told that,
28 and with the second one he was told that; right?

29 A. Yes. He understood what he was looking at these

1 photographs for, to determine if any of these people in this
2 photograph resembled the person that he had seen in front of
3 Tardy's on the 16th.

4 Q. Whether they resembled the person; right?

5 A. Yes. There was--

6 Q. And he was trying to pick out the person he had 7 saw; is that right?

8 A. The one he had seen.

9 Q. And that's what he was asked to do?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Now he actually picked out somebody in both 12 lineups; right?

13 A. I'm not hearing you.

14 Q. I'm sorry.

15 A. And I'm really, I am trying to hear you.

16 Q. I understand. I understand. He picked somebody
17 out in both lineups; is that right?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. So in both lineups he picked a person out?

20 A. Out of the first one he picked out a possibility of 21 two.

22 Q. Right, well, okay. Go ahead.

23 A. Out of the first lineup he said, well, this one
24 looks like one of the guys, one of the guys, but he wasn't 25 sure. Then he said, but this guy looks like him, and he 26 wasn't sure about that. So he didn't identify anybody of 27 being the second person.

28 Q. Well, in the second lineup, what he initially
29 said--

1           A.    --Now we are referring to this as the second line-
2 up? (Holds up exhibit.) Okay.

3           Q.    Yeah. What he initially said is that--

4                   BY THE COURT:  --Let the record reflect that
5 Exhibit 2 is the second lineup. Is that right?

6           BY MR. LUMUMBA: That's correct.

7           BY THE COURT: Okay.

8 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

9           Q.    What he initially said, what initially came out of 10 his mouth is that the person he pointed to looked like the 11 person; isn't that right?

12          A.    That's, I think that's correct.

13          Q.    So he didn't say it was the person. He said it
14 looked like him?

15          A.    He said that looked like him, and then he initialed
16 that as saying that was the person that he had seen out
17 front.

18          Q.    So he first said it just looked like him?

19          A.    That's correct.

20          Q.    All right. I will show you another copy of Exhibit
21 2. Do you recognize that sheet?

22          A.    I do.

23          Q.    You recognize--

24          A.    --Well, I recognize this as being a copy--

25          Q.    I understand.

26          A.    --of something.

27          Q.    Does it have initials on it?

28          A.    Right. It has my initial and the date on it.

29          Q.    Does it have the witness' initial?

1           A.    Yes.

2           Q.    Does it say that he is sure that that is the
3 person? Is that what it says there?

4           A.    No. It says, this reflects his initials, the date
5 and the time.

6           Q.    All right. He initialed the first lineup he saw
7 too. Didn't he?

8           A.    I don't know. I don't have the first lineup.

9           Q.    We are told we don't have a copy of that here.

10           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, the copy is right
11 up there. I don't know how many times we are going
12 to have to go through this.

13           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have the back of the 14 copy.

15           BY THE COURT: Don't have--

16           BY MR. EVANS: --Yes, sir; we do. The back
17 was blank.

18           BY THE COURT: Okay, well, okay.

19           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't have the back of
20 it.

21           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is the back
22 right there.

23           BY THE COURT: Is that of 1?

24           BY MR. EVANS: That is the front. The front
25 has his initials and John's initials. The back is 26 blank.

27           BY THE COURT: Is that number 1? When I say
28 number 1, is that the first lineup?

29           BY THE WITNESS: It is, Your Honor.

1 BY MR. EVANS: And I do need that copy back
2 also, Your Honor. I keep giving him my copies, and
3 I don't have any.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, I think you are supposed
5 to be getting them all back, are you not?

6 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, but--

7 BY THE COURT: --Okay, then you have got them--

8 BY MR. EVANS: --so that this one doesn't get 9 introduced.

10 BY MR. LUMUMBA: This is a much clearer copy.
11 We have never received a copy this clear.

12 BY THE COURT: Well, whatever; I don't think
13 it says on the back, anything on the back though.
14 If you have got no use for it, let him have it
15 back.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right. Can I get a copy
17 of this?

18 BY THE COURT: Yeah. We will see that you get 19 a copy.

20 BY MR. EVANS: He has got about four of them,
21 Your Honor. How many do I have to give him?

22 BY THE COURT: Well, if it's--

23 BY MR. EVANS: --He has gotten that; yes, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: That is that good?

25 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. Then you don't have to 27 give him any more.

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have one that good.

29 BY THE COURT: All right.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's not true, not true.
2 There would be no reason for me not to use it.

3 BY MR. EVANS: If the Court would like, I will
4 give him another copy, but if he is going to sit up
5 there and start saying untrue, we are fixing to 6 have a battle in here--

7 BY THE COURT: --Well, no, wait a minute.
8 Wait a minute. No, we are not going to have that.
9 It's too late in the day for that. The Judge
10 doesn't want that. There is an original of that,
11 isn't it?

12 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir; there is. It's in 13 the Supreme Court.

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: All right.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay, let's move on. Let's
16 go.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. When was the picture taken in Exhibit 2 of the, of
19 Mr. Flowers?

20 A. Well, I think, as I answered while ago, I am not 21 exactly sure when it was taken because I was not the one that
22 took that photograph. But that may have been just a Polaroid
23 that was taken, and I think by one of our investigators, you
24 know, like Mr. Matthews, but I'm not positive of that.

25 Q. But, so the same photograph that you indicated
26 could have been taken on the 16th, 17th, or the 18th is the 27 same photograph that was ultimately used in that display?

28 A. That's correct. That is correct that this was Mr.
29 Flowers at the time that we took the photograph, and I don't

1 know exactly where that was taken, and I can't tell you
2 whether it's a photograph, it's a Polaroid or not because I'm
3 not looking at the original. If I saw the original, I would
4 know.

5 Q. Did anybody make notes of what Collins said at the 6 time of the lineup?

7 A. Mr. Johnson was taking notes.

8 Q. All right, did you take any notes?

9 A. I did not.

10 Q. Was it being recorded?

11 A. With a tape recorder? I did not tape record that.

12 Q. Did he?

13 A. I can't answer that, but I don't think so.

14 Q. Did you have any other conversations with Mr.
15 Collins prior to that day?

16 A. Prior to that day?

17 Q. The 24th of August.

18 A. At some point I did talk to Mr. Collins. He had 19 told myself and Mr. Matthews where he had been prior to 20 seeing these people in front of Tardy's, and that he had gone
21 to the Wal-Mart store to buy some type of something for his 22 automobile or something. He had been by the cleaners. He 23 produced the receipt for the Wal-Mart purchase that he had 24 made, and I asked him for that to establish the time, and he 25 did produce that.

26 Q. Was this conversation prior to August the 24th of 27 the '96?

28 A. Yes, it was.

29 Q. Anyone else present?

1 A. I'm sure that probably Mr. Matthews, and I don't
2 know whether Mr. Johnson was present or not.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No further questions.

4 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN:

5 Q. Just a few questions, Captain Miller. You made
6 reference to August 24th. That would be 1996; correct?

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. Some time after, a month and a half after these 9 murders; right?

10 A. That is right.

11 Q. And I believe at some point in time between the 12 16th and that particular day, y'all were attempting to get up
13 with Mr. Collins, were you not?

14 A. That is correct.

15 Q. And did he have some sickness in the family or 16 something like that where he was not available?

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Your Honor, excuse me.

18 Leading.

19 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase the question.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading.

21 BY MR. HORAN: I will rephrase the question.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay, he is going to rephrase.

23 BY MR. HORAN:

24 Q. Was there any particular reason why y'all were not
25 able to get up with Mr. Collins?

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It is still leading.

27 BY MR. HORAN: That is not leading.

28 BY MR. HORAN:

29 Q. Was there any particular reason they were not able

1 to get up with him?

2 BY THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

3 BY THE WITNESS:

4 A. We had attempted several times to get Mr. Collins,
5 and he had a brother-in-law that was near death at one of the 6 hospitals in Jackson. He was having to travel back and forth
7 to Jackson, and we were just unable to get with him.

8 Q. Okay, and if you could have, would you have 9 presented this photo--

10 A. --We would have done that at least two and a half,
11 three weeks earlier.

12 Q. Okay, and that explains the time span?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Okay. The two photograph lineups, I understand the 15 first one which is marked for identification, which is 16 actually the second photograph that was shown to him, that 17 includes the Defendant, does it not?

18 A. It does.

19 Q. Okay, and Mr. Collins identified that photograph
20 after it was presented to him; right?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading. Leading, Judge.

22 BY THE COURT: Don't lead him.

23 BY MR. HORAN:

24 Q. Did he identify anybody in that?

25 A. Ask--

26 Q. --Did Mr. Collins ever identify anyone out of that 27 photo array?

28 A. Mr. Collins looked at the photo spread and picked
29 out number 4. I initialed the back of that. Mr. Johnson

1        initialed the back of that, and Mr. Collins initialed the
2        back of number 4 photograph, which is of Curtis Flowers.

3            Q.    Okay, and then you testified that the first
4        photograph display or array that was given to him, he noticed
5        some characteristics that were the same?

6            A.    Right.

7            Q.    He never did positively identify anyone?

8            A.    No, he did not.

9            Q.    So the photograph lineup of the Defendant was shown
10       to him second?

11          A.    That is correct.

12          Q.    At any time did you or Mr. Johnson say anything or 13       point to any of the photographs or suggest that he ought to 14       identify the Defendant in any way?

15          A.    No, did not.

16          Q.    And was the purpose of this particular lineup for 17       Mr. Collins to look at those photographs to see if he could 18       identify the persons that he had seen outside that store?

19          A.    That is correct. It was a very simple, look at 20       this photograph and.

21          Q.    Procedurally, did you do anything differently on 22       this particular photographic lineup than you had done in the 23       past 12 years or 16 years that you have been a Highway Patrol
24       investigator?

25          A.    No, I did not.

26          Q.    And I want to clear something up. Did y'all ever
27       tell Mr. Collins that the suspects that y'all had, or if 28       y'all had any suspects, that the suspects were actually in 29       those photographs?

1 A. No, did not.

2 Q. So it wasn't a situation where y'all were saying,
3 We want you to identify the persons in the photographs that
4 were outside the store. You just showed him the photo
5 lineup?

6 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Leading.

7 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

8 BY MR. HORAN:

9 Q. Is that right?

10 A. That is correct.

11 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

12 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

13 Q. I'm going to show you a copy of Exhibit D-3, the 14 second page. Have you seen that before?

15 A. I think these are some notes, I think that Mr.
16 Johnson took.

17 Q. Does your initials appear on them?

18 A. Yeah, I think my initials are on the top up here.

19 Q. All right. Now would it be safe to say that that 20 is a record of what Mr. Collins allegedly said during the 21 time of the identification or notes?

22 A. These are the notes that were taken by Mr. Johnson,
23 yes.

24 Q. At the time that you were looking, that he was 25 looking--

26 A. --that he was looking at the photographs.

27 Q. At the photographs, okay. Is it anywhere on there
28 where it says, "Positive identification made"? Do those 29 words appear on there anywhere?

1           A.    When it says--

2           Q.    Listen to my question. Does it anywhere appear on
3 there, "Positive identification made"?

4           A.    Not the exact words of "positive," no.

5           Q.    Well, "positive" doesn't appear anywhere. Does
6 "positive" appear there anywhere?

7           A.    No, it does not.

8           Q.    Does "certain"? I'm certain that's the man. Does
9 that appear anywhere?

10          A.    "Certain" does not.

11          Q.    Okay. Now, in fact, you would agree that the first 12 words that appear there with relation to number 4 express
13 some equivocation, lack of certainty. The first words, the 14 first phrase in quotes, read that first phrase to me as it
15 relates to number 4.

16          A.    All right. "I believe that is him. It looks like
17 him"--

18          Q.    --Okay, well, let's stop there. "I believe that's 19 him." You wouldn't call that a positive identification,
20 would you, at that point?

21                   BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, again, first of 22 all, this is improper, incorrect, improper redirect
23 examination. I just asked him did they do anything
24 to suggest an answer. That's all I went into.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: No.

26                   BY THE COURT: Let him finish.

27                   BY MR. HORAN: That is a procedural matter.
28 Second of all, this has been covered on direct
29 examination, and whatever Mr. Miller's

1 interpretation of what that means means absolutely
2 nothing. That is things he can present to a jury.

3 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, Judge. They keep asking
4 Mr. Miller over my objection and Mr. Johnson if
5 they may, if he made a positive identification.
6 And at least twice we have gotten the answer yes.
7 Now if they can interpret it as a positive
8 identification, I can go into why they are making
9 that interpretation, so I can--

10 BY THE COURT: --It's not relevant to this
11 hearing. That is a jury question, and that is not
12 what is before me. So the objection is sustained.
13 It's not proper redirect either, but on the 14 substance of it, it's not relevant to this
15 hearing. It may be later.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any further
17 questions, Judge.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Miller.
19 Who will you have next?

20 WITNESS STEPS DOWN.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
22 witnesses on this.

23 DEFENDANT RESTS ON MOTION.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. Has the State got any?

25 BY MR. EVANS: None, Your Honor.

26 BOTH SIDES REST ON MOTION.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay. Argument?

28 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, sir.

29 BY MR. MILLER: Your Honor, are we excused?

1                   BY THE COURT: Well, how about it, gentlemen?
2                   Are they excused?

3                   BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

4                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: We need to discuss time. Can
5                   we do that now?

6                   BY MR. HORAN: They need to--

7                   BY THE COURT: --Well, wait a minute. Just 8                   wait a minute, Mr. Horan. Let me see what he has 9                   got to say, and then we will go -- why do you want
10                  them here?

11                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Because we have also need to 12                  have a discovery hearing. This witness has 13                  indicated that at least one thing exists that we 14                  have never received.

15                  BY THE COURT: Have you filed a motion to 16                  compel?

17                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Filed a motion to compel?
18                  Yes, actually we argued it before the Court that we
19                  didn't get everything, and they claim we did. I
20                  didn't know we didn't have everything. I thought
21                  we had. But he has just told me, told us both that 22                  they have pictures which appear with the names and 23                  the vital information, some of it, of the people in 24                  the photographs.

25                  BY THE COURT: No, no. What he said was that
26                  he thinks that exists, and the District Attorney
27                  said they are in the Supreme Court. That is what 28                  he said. So they are available to you right now.

29                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I don't know that until

1 I see them.

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor--

3 BY THE COURT: --If they are not, then you can
4 file a motion to compel at that time.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Judge, let me just
6 explain. Let's not lose the sequence of this. We
7 raised to the heavens the issue at the last hearing
8 that we needed the specific photographs and the 9 information that was all used relative to the 10 identification. We were told that we were going to 11 be shown of it, and we barely saw some old copies
12 that you can hardly see. And then they said that 13 there was something with the Supreme Court, which 14 the gentleman here indicated that he was going to 15 get back from the Supreme Court.

16 BY MR. HORAN: I never indicated that.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA: He specifically said that in
18 your presence.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay, but here is the point.
20 If they are not here and you haven't got them and 21 it's at the Supreme Court, you are entitled to get 22 them, and you are entitled to go look at them. If 23 I have to furnish an order to get that where you
24 can do that, I'm going to do that. But I can't 25 produce them today.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, no. All I'm saying, I'm
27 not asking the Court-- I hope they are not here
28 today or else they would give them to me. All I'm 29 saying is we need to get a clear statement before

1           this gentleman leaves on what the record with the
2           Supreme Court says. Does it, in fact, have names,
3           addresses, date of births, and that kind of 4           information with it?

5           BY THE COURT: He has testified that he has at 6           some place, it's either on the back of those
7           photographs or in his possession, a record
8           somewhere that he has information concerning those 9           individuals that are in the lineup. Would the 10          State agree that that is true?

11          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, whatever we have 12          got is the original photo lineups. They were 13          introduced into evidence, or they were introduced
14          at least for identification. The Supreme Court has 15          them. They were brought back to Tupelo last time.
16          We had so many days we had to get them back to the 17          Supreme Court. Whatever is on the back of them is 18          what we have got.

19          BY THE COURT: Okay, so you don't know; is 20          that your answer?

21          BY MR. EVANS: I can't remember. It seems 22          like there may have been some names on the back of 23          them, but I cannot remember.

24          BY THE COURT: If they are not on that item,
25          do you have them at all?

26          BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

27          BY THE COURT: Does Mr. Miller have them at 28          all?

29          BY MR. EVANS: Not to my knowledge.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, Mr. Miller has just
2 told us they exist.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, let's get Mr. Miller back
4 up here just a second.

5 BY MR. HORAN: Your Honor, can I say
6 something?

7 BY THE COURT: I hate to get out of order.

8 BY MR. HORAN: If they will look at the 9 supplemental report of Mr. Miller on the photo
10 lineup, I think in the discovery material that 11 stuff is in there in the typed report.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay, well, that's fine. If
13 they have got it, I'm not going to make you produce
14 it again. I have just got to know what's what.

15 BY MR. HORAN: I'm not sure.

16 (MR. MILLER RETURNS TO THE COURTROOM.)

17 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Miller, I have got a
18 couple of questions I want to ask you.

19 BY MR. WAYNE MILLER: All right.

20 BY THE COURT: You have indicated that there
21 does exist a record of these people describing who 22 they are, what their physical characteristics are,
23 and stuff like that available to the people that
24 were in that lineup; is that right?

25 BY MR. MILLER: Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: Do you know where those records
27 exist?

28 BY MR. MILLER: I thought it was on the back
29 of those photographs.

EXHIBIT _____

ELECTRONIC DISK _____

Case #2010-DP-01348-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : Joseph H. Loper Jr.

Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Kathy Gillis, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 2003-0071-CR

1                   BY THE COURT: Do you have those records other
2 than that?

3                   BY MR. MILLER: No. I do not have any records
4 with me today.

5                   BY THE COURT: No, do you have those records
6 other than that?

7                   BY MR. MILLER: I probably would have a copy
8 some place of that same photo spread that should 9 have that. I don't know. I will have to look.

10                  BY THE COURT: Okay, you think they are on the 11 ones at the Supreme Court?

12                  BY MR. MILLER: Right. I think that's
13 correct.

14                  BY THE COURT: Okay. Here is what you have 15 got to do. If you need an order to this effect, I
16 will give you an order to this effect. You are to 17 check with the Supreme Court within the next week
18 and see if that exhibit is there, examine that 19 record or have somebody from your office examine 20 that record, and see if those items exist on that 21 thing. If they are not there, then you need to 22 contact the Court. I will give you an order
23 directing Mr. Miller to find those records and 24 supply them to you. Is that fair enough?

25                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, that is good, Judge, on 26 that issue.

27                  BY THE COURT: Now.

28                         (Phone or beeper of some sort was going off in 29 the courtroom.)

1           BY THE COURT: You have got me. It's probably
2 the alarm telling us we have got to go.

3           (Laughter.)

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: We were told that-- and,
5 Judge, I don't want to, I just wanted to state for 6 the record we are getting a lot of noise from the 7 audience. I'm not objecting to it, but I'm saying
8 it has been going on the entire hearing. And I
9 think I recall the Court scolding some of the 10 Defendant's relatives at a prior hearing for that.

11           BY THE COURT: Well, there has been nothing
12 here to disrupt this court. Let's go ahead and 13 argue.

14           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, I wanted to make a
15 record in case it happens again.

16           BY THE COURT: I understand. Okay.

17           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, now--

18           BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, can this witness
19 leave?

20           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Counsel-- let me just say
21 Counsel is telling us that there was a supplemental 22 report filed by Mr. Miller with that information in
23 it.

24           BY MR. HORAN: I'm not saying that, Your 25 Honor. I said if they will look at it, I think
26 there is a reference to the photo lineup in a
27 supplemental report, and it names the names, I
28 believe, of the individuals. I'm not positive.

29           BY THE COURT: Okay, I made a ruling that

1           ought to cover this already on that, and Mr.
2           Lumumba, it's on you if you need the order, to get
3           an order directing that. As to any other motion
4           for discovery, there is, I have granted at least
5           two orders ordering them to discover stuff to you.
6           If you have specific items that you know that they
7           have not produced and you want to file a motion to 8           compel, I will hear that at that time.

9           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

10          BY THE COURT: But if it's not anything, if 11          there is not a motion to compel this afternoon, we 12          are not going to hear it this afternoon.

13          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Can we have an order to 14          review their entire file and all the exhibits that 15          they have in their possession? I would like to do
16          that to make sure that we have everything. I don't
17          see why we can't do it. I'm not asking to review
18          their questions or attorney work product, but
19          everything created by the investigation itself, I
20          am asking to have an opportunity to review.

21          BY THE COURT: Well, I have got discovery
22          orders already in place on that, and if they have 23          complied with those, then they have complied with
24          them.

25          BY MR. LUMUMBA: We don't know, Judge, unless 26          we can see the file.

27          BY THE COURT: Well, you had opportunity to 28          see it because I have given you two orders giving 29          you the right to see anything that is

1 discoverable.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

3 BY THE COURT: If you didn't see it, that is
4 not my fault. All right, you are free to go.

5 BY MR. MILLER: Thank you.

6 BY THE COURT: So are the others. Now I will
7 hear argument.

8 BY MR. MILLER: The others are free?

9 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

10 (Mr. Millers leaves the courtroom.)

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We have a case of Stanley Ray
12 Ellis v. State of Mississippi, which is located at 13 667 So.2d 599, Mississippi, 1995. And we also have 14 the case of, we have an en banc decision in 125-
15 96. I would have to get the actual cite as it
16 appears today, but what we have is a published
17 opinion. We don't have the actual publication. We 18 have the copy that comes from the Court before it
19 is published.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, what is the style?

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Slip opinion, slip opinion.
22 It is called Rodney Gray v. State of Mississippi.

23 BY THE COURT: Is that G R E or G R A?

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: G-R-A-Y.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It's 96-- in the Supreme
27 Court, it's 96 DP00241SCT. It was entered--

28 BY THE COURT: Is there a hyphen in there?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes, a hyphen, yeah.

1 BY THE COURT: After 96?

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah.

3 BY THE COURT: All right, let me see if I have 4 got it--

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --a hyphen after D P.

6 BY THE COURT: It's 96-DP-00241SCT?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Hyphen S C T.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay, all right.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: And then you have got the 10 date of judgment is 1-25-96. The date of judgment is 11 1-25-96. In the Gray case it indicates the reliability has 12 been deemed the lynch pin of determining the admissibility of 13 identification testimony. And they cite Manson v.
14 B-R-A-T-H-W-A-I-T-E at 432 US-98 114, and it's a 1977 case.
15 They also cite a Mississippi case, Nathan v. State, 552 So.2d
16 99, a 1989 case.

17 Several things they look at in determining whether 18 an identification is reliable. Now first of all, we would 19 point out to the Court that the photo display is suggestive
20 on its face. The photo display is suggestive in looking at 21 Exhibit number 2 because Mr. Flowers is put at number four 22 spot, and in number four spot his photo makes him stand out
23 from all the other persons on this sheet. His head appears
24 to be much larger. His face seems to be closer to the front
25 of the photo, lacks the depth that the other photos have, and 26 with respect to several of the photos - I would suggest all
27 of them, with the possible exception of one - he looks older
28 than the other people displayed. His complexion is darker,
29 and that is one of the things that the witness claims he was

1 focusing on, the darkness of the complexion, than everybody
2 in this spread with the exception of maybe one other person.
3 And it's probably easier to see there than it is on this, but
4 that is the case.

5           There is no way and I would be-- that the people
6 displayed in exhibits 1, 2, or 6 are anywhere close to the 7 age of Mr. Flowers. Now when I say close, five to ten years
8 I don't think is close. I mean I guess, you know, the 9 question becomes what you consider as close. But when you
10 start getting those kind of differentiations, clearly a
11 person is going to stand out over somebody else.

12           Moreover, what we have here is people in five and 13 three are totally different than anything described,
14 allegedly described by the witness. He is looking for a 15 receding hair line. Neither one of those people have it. He 16 is looking for a dark skinned person. Neither one of those 17 five or three are dark skinned, and yet still their hair is,
18 both of them may be braided. One of them clearly is braided,
19 and here again, they are pushed to the front. He is pushed
20 to the front. They are in the back.

21           Now I don't know -- well, and so those are the 22 characteristics which make it a suggestive display. I would 23 also argue that I really don't think any of these people have 24 a round face, but since the Defendant's face is bigger in 25 this photo, it would have to look rounder than any of the 26 other people in it. Actually, to be honest, neither one of 27 them have a round face. But the Defendant's is clearly the 28 rounder than anybody else.

29           So what we look at is the questions which have to

1 do with the reliability of the identification. The case law
2 said one of the things to be considered is the opportunity to
3 view the accused at the time of the assault or the alleged,
4 person who is alleged to be the accused at the time of the 5 assault. You have cases where they have seen a person 10
6 minutes, 15 minutes, all that kind of stuff.

7 In this particular case, they saw him for 15
8 minutes in the Ellis v. State case. In this case you are 9 only talking about a glimpse is all the witness saw.

10 Degree-- and I also point out that there is no history of 11 seeing this man, and there is no history of seeing him even 12 after the incident.

13 Degree of attention. The description, the degree
14 of attention, I'm sorry; degree of attention refers to 15 whether there was a spectacular event which drew the 16 attention. It would be one thing if he testified that he saw
17 somebody running out of the place with guns. The testimony
18 here is that he saw somebody doing something which he thought
19 was an argument. When he glimpsed at them and then bothered
20 to turn around, which apparently he was trying to get a good
21 look according to him, he never saw the face again. The 22 degree of attention does not help the identification here.

23 Accuracy of prior description. I don't know how
24 accurate the description-- I mean I don't know many black men
25 there are who are medium complexion. And in fact, this is 26 one black man that is not medium complexion. He is dark.
27 But I don't know how many black men you have who are medium
28 complexion. There is an officer in here who is medium
29 complexion sitting to my right. There is other black men

1 here who are darker than I. But this man is clearly not
2 medium complexion. He is of dark skin by anybody's
3 understanding.

4 But in any event, accuracy of prior description -
5 no eyes, no bone structure, no height in the original notes,
6 no-- and then according to officer, he didn't give a height
7 in the original notes he said. One man was taller than the 8 other. If you notice, as Johnson said, one man was taller
9 than the other one. I don't know how that is supposed to 10 help. But, and no other indicia of identification, no other
11 description that really helps.

12 The round face. There has got to be at least a 13 million faces rounder than the one, than any of those 14 actually on that, including the Defendant's.

15 Level of certainty, that's a good one. "I think,"
16 "I believe"; also the duration of time between the incident,
17 the viewing and the identification, over a month. It doesn't 18 really matter why it took that long. It's still a factor to 19 consider. Like the Court has said, this is not an inquiry,
20 and we will accept that for purposes of this discussion, into 21 whether they intended to call something. It's just an
22 inquiry into whether the circumstances presented problems
23 with identification: Over a month to identify a person that
24 you have never seen before in your life, who you have got a
25 very vague description of, who you have never seen since or 26 before the incident, and it takes a month for them to show
27 you a display. And we have got allegations here that even 28 when he saw him, he didn't express certainty. He never said
29 he was certain, never said he was positive.

1           And in fact, even though the last statement which
2           is allegedly recorded, after they said that he made an
3           identification or after they put down, pointed to 4, said
4           something about do you know Curtis Flowers, a name which has 5           been bandied about by that time, but even forgetting that,
6           No, I don't know Curtis Flowers, but I know the man that I
7           saw is the man that was outside. After he had done said, "I 8           believe," "looks like," and expressed on various levels of 9           uncertainty, uncertainty which not only gripped him then, but 10          uncertainty that gripped him at the time of the initial 11          incident.

12           He said at that time, according to the officer, may 13          be able to make an identification, not that he could or that 14          it was positive or certain. And then finally, up until the 15          last trial, the man was "looked like," and even here he has 16          never said he is positive. He left here saying, I believe he 17          is the person. Asked several times whether he was positive 18          by his own, by the attorney on the other side, who he 19          pretends to be testifying to and who he will talk to out of 20          the courtroom and won't talk to me; his best response is "I 21          believe." "I will believe it," and the question is, is he 22          certain of it? He may believe it for a number of reasons.
23          It might have nothing to do with what he perceived.

24           And he didn't say that at the time of the trial,
25          and all the incidents that I quote, "look like," "man was a 26          little darker," and various other kinds of descriptions which 27          did not say that he could positively identify the person.
28          This person's identification reeks with uncertainty, and just 29          because the question tries to dress it up by making it an

1 identification when virtually the same language is used in
2 the first lineup when he identifies somebody else, that
3 doesn't change the character of what actually occurred.

4 So what I would say to the Court is that this is
5 not an identification which should come before a jury.
6 Perhaps the gentleman has other things to testify to, but not
7 to identification lawfully and legally, and I don't think it
8 will pass the legal threshold of being worthy to be accepted
9 as a reliable identification. So that is my objection.

10 I would suggest this too - is that after one of the 11 things that you see used to determine whether the lineup is 12 suggestive, suggests something that wasn't there prior to the 13 time of seeing the lineup is whether the lineup makes him
14 more certain than he was before. There is absolutely no
15 certainty expressed by this gentleman, and the description
16 does not bear forth any certainty prior to the time of the 17 lineup.

18 He sees a lineup of a big headed individual, the 19 only one in the lineup; darker skin, older person. Then what 20 he does, he expressed equivocation as he is standing there,
21 and not until another question is asked him about the 22 Defendant's name at the end of the display does he express
23 anything that even says I know it is the person, still 24 without using the words "positive" or "certain." So I think
25 it is bolstered. It's-- so a degree, the degree of his 26 identification was bolstered by the lineup which was 27 suggestive.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Evans.

29 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

1           Your Honor, to start with, I think it is very
2 obvious that this witness attempted to make absolutely sure
3 that everything he said was exactly right. He has explained
4 in detail to both the officers and to the Court at a previous
5 trial exact details of where he was that morning, who he saw,
6 what he saw them doing. He specifically went through details
7 about all of that.

8           He has testified and give statements that at the 9 time he passed by Tardy Furniture, he saw two black males
10 standing outside arguing. That's what brought it to his 11 attention is that they appeared to be arguing, so he paid
12 attention to them. Not only did he pay attention and look
13 and see the face of the one that he has identified, but it
14 got his attention to such an extent that he made the block
15 and came back to get another look at them. He was paying 16 attention. He was looking because they had gotten his 17 attention because it appeared that they were arguing.

18           He didn't know what has fixing to happen at the 19 store. All he knew was that there were two black males out
20 there that appeared to be arguing, and he was paying 21 attention to them. He said he thought he could identify the 22 person. He wasn't coming up there saying, Oh, I know I can 23 identify somebody. He said, I think I can identify the 24 person.

25           I think it is very important that they showed him
26 two separate photo lineups. If this were a person that was 27 attempting to come in and just say I saw who did it, when 28 they showed him that first lineup, he would have picked
29 somebody out and said, that is him. He didn't do that. He

1 looked at one and said, this person has some of the same
2 characteristics. He did not say that was the person. He
3 said they had some of the same characteristics.

4 He was shown the second lineup which had this
5 Defendant's picture in it, number 4, a random number in 6 there. He wasn't put number one or anything like that to try
7 to draw attention to him. Mr. Collins went straight to that
8 picture, and he said, "I think that's him. It looks like
9 him," and he later said, "That is the person that I saw in 10 front of Tardy Furniture." And he told this Court that that 11 is the person, and he will always believe that that is the 12 person that he saw in front of Tardy Furniture. If that is 13 not positive, I don't know what could be.

14 The courts on many occasions in reference to photo
15 lineups have said that there is no such thing as a perfect
16 photo lineup. We have even had cases where we had one person
17 in a photo lineup that had initials carved in the back of his 18 hair. You can't find somebody identical to that to put in a 19 photo lineup. So as Wayne Miller attempted to do, he took 20 the photos that were available to him, attempted to get black
21 males that were similar in as much characteristics as he
22 could put them, and of basically the same age, which if there
23 is any age difference in these people, I can't tell it by 24 looking at it because I can't tell what any of the ages of 25 the people in these photographs are. It's not something
26 obvious where you have got a 20 year old and an 80 year old.
27 It's not anything that would bring attention to any one
28 person in there.

29 As a matter of fact, if you wanted to, you could

1 say that any one picture in that might could bring attention
2 to somebody else. One may be a little closer up. One may be
3 a little further away. Nobody indicated you are supposed to
4 pick out the one that is the closest. Nobody in any way
5 attempted to influence him, which John Johnson testified that
6 they never in any way attempted to do that. Wayne Miller
7 testified that they never attempted in any way to do that,
8 but what is the most important is that Porky Collins, Charles
9 "Porky" Collins testified that they never tried in any way
10 to influence him on who to pick out. As a matter of fact, as 11 he specifically said up here today, it wouldn't have done any 12 good if they had because he wasn't going to do what somebody
13 else told him to do. He was going to do what he saw, and 14 that is exactly what he did. He, as he explained today,
15 identified this Defendant from being able to see his face in 16 front of Tardy Furniture.

17 That is just one element. He is not sitting up
18 here testifying I saw him kill four people. He is saying
19 this is the person, one of the two people I saw in front of 20 Tardy Furniture, and that is all that he is testifying to.
21 He is not trying to add anything to what he saw. There is
22 absolutely nothing in this trial, either from the photo
23 lineup or the testimony, that even indicates remotely that 24 anyone tried to influence him on who to pick out of that
25 lineup.

26 Almost immediately, while the investigation was 27 still going on - and it was while the bodies were still in 28 the store - Porky Collins told law enforcement officials what 29 he had seen. They made some notes of it at that point, but

1 as Mr. Johnson testified, at that point nobody knew what was
2 relevant and what wasn't. They were trying to get bits and
3 pieces to put together a picture and see who the suspect
4 would be. Nobody was trying to point a finger at this
5 Defendant. Nobody was trying to point the finger at anybody,
6 just trying to find out what happened.

7 This was one piece of evidence that they followed
8 up on. They showed him the photo lineup as soon as they
9 could, and he identified this person. And in the courtroom
10 today he has identified this Defendant. He has said that 11 that person is the person that he saw in front of the store,
12 and he will believe that for the rest of his life. And 13 there is no indication that anybody has influenced him.
14 There is no indication that that identification is from 15 anything other than his ability to observe the Defendant and 16 see his face at that time. There was a high level of 17 certainty in that.

18 There was also an indication that he had a reason
19 to be paying attention. We are not talking about somebody
20 just driving down the road and glancing and saying, well, I
21 saw somebody out of the corner of my eye, but I didn't pay
22 any attention to what was going on. He noticed them because 23 of a specific incident. If they had not been arguing or what
24 he thought was an argument, he may have not paid enough
25 attention to be able to identify him, but he did.

26 As he clearly testified and given statements all
27 along, he did not see the face of the other person. He did
28 not identify the other person, and he is not sitting up here
29 trying to tell us who the other person was. All he is

1     telling us is what he knows.

2             I think it is very clear that as far as what we are
3     on here today, the elements of attempting to suppress a
4     statement are clear. Was this identification made because of
5     some undue influence? Did somebody, as some cases show, did
6     somebody say, that's the person right there? Did somebody
7     put a black male in a lineup with five white males? Is there
8     anything that would stand out that would point to him? And 9     this was not an in person lineup, but if it was, was one of 10    them six feet tall and the rest of them three feet tall?
11    None of this is there, and the photos, I have seen plenty of 12    photo lineups where they could not find all head shots. Some 13    of them would be full body shots. Some would be head shots.
14    That I don't think is anything that would hurt, but in this 15    case all of these are head shots. I think this was a very 16    fair photo lineup. He was shown two separate photo lineups, 17    and the key to the whole thing is his testimony that he is 18    identifying him because of his ability to observe him, that 19    that is the person that he saw.

20            Thank you, Your Honor.

21            BY MR. LUMUMBA: Counsel made no reference to 22            any of the points that the case law indicate need
23            to be considered and satisfied. I already listed
24            those: Opportunity to view the person at the time
25            of the event, degree of attention, accuracy of 26            prior description, level of certainty, and time
27            elapsed. Now he may, time elapsed-- I don't know
28            if I mentioned time elapsed, but it makes a
29            difference.

1                   BY THE COURT: Let me see that. I'm going to 2 give it back.

3                   BY MR. HORAN: What is the cite on that? It's
4 the same elements. What is the cite?

5                   BY THE COURT: Well, I just want to take a
6 look at it.

7                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: 667 So.2d.

8                   BY MR. HORAN: It's Gray?

9                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, it's not Gray. That is 10 not the Gray case. This is Gray right here.

11                  BY MR. HORAN: All right. Let me see it.

12                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: May I go to the rest room?

13                  BY THE COURT: Go ahead because I'm going to 14 read this real quick.

15                  (Off the record while the Court read cases
16 furnished by Mr. Lumumba.)

17                  BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Lumumba, I'm ready.

18                  BY MR. LUMUMBA: That is essentially my 19 argument.

20                  BY MR. HORAN: Is that all you have?

21                  Your Honor, I have one thing I wanted to point
22 out to the Court's attention. Those factors that 23 he is considering and he is talking about aren't 24 factors that this Court is to consider as to 25 whether or not a photo lineup is suggestive or 26 not. Those are factors that the Court has to 27 consider if the Court were to find it was a
28 suggestive photo lineup and determine whether or 29 not the in court identification would be proper or

1 not.

2 BY THE COURT: But doesn't one lead to the
3 other?

4 BY MR. HORAN: No, not necessarily. Whether
5 or not the time, the amount of time that he had to
6 look at this individual, all of that kind of stuff
7 has absolutely nothing to do with whether or not
8 there is a constitutional problem with the photo
9 lineup. The Court could hold that it was an
10 impermissible photo lineup and still not suppress 11 the in court identification based on those five 12 factors. That's what those factors are for. In 13 fact, some courts allow jury instruction as to 14 those particular factors. That has nothing to do
15 with-- that law has something to do with an in 16 court identification.

17 BY THE COURT: You are correct in that.

18 BY MR. HORAN: Whether or not it was an 19 illegal show or something like that. That is not 20 what we are here about today.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. The Court finds that 22 there has nothing been done by the officers
23 involved, Mr. Johnson or Mr. Miller, which are the 24 only officers who have testified. There is no
25 evidence either from them or Mr. Collins that would 26 indicate that they influenced this identification
27 at all, and so there has not been that type of 28 influence on it. Mr. Collins was presented with 29 two lineups which amounted to, I believe, a total

1 of twelve people. In that, on the first lineup
2 which did not include the Defendant, he found that
3 there was a person of, that he had said had some of 4 the characteristics. And then on the second lineup
5 he, according to the testimony, immediately
6 identified Mr. Flowers as being the person that he
7 thought was the one that was at the scene.

8 The second lineup consisted of six
9 individuals, five of which are of lighter skin
10 complexion than Mr. Flowers, so he is distinctive 11 in that regard. However, the description that was 12 given to the officers was of one of a light
13 complexion, and therefore, if there was any 14 suggestion in this lineup, it would be a lineup
15 that would suggest that Mr. Flowers was not the 16 one.

17 So there is nothing by these pictures that 18 suggests that. And therefore, I don't place any 19 credibility on that. The other things about his 20 head, the facts are just not, they are not borne
21 out by the exhibit or by the photographs that I
22 have got.

23 He obviously had an opportunity to view this 24 person as about the time the event occurred. He 25 not only viewed him once; he rounded the corner and 26 viewed him twice. His degree of attention was 27 certainly such-- when he made the second trip
28 around, that answers the degree of attention
29 question.

1           I don't know if he had any prior
2           identification. I don't think that may be relevant
3           to this hearing anyhow, but he had no prior 4           identification. His level of certainty was that he
5           immediately picked out this person when he saw the 6           second lineup as opposed to what he did when he saw
7           the first lineup. And the length of time, I don't
8           think is a factor in this particular case.

9           Based on these, on the evidence that is before
10          the Court, the Court finds that the Motion to 11          Suppress the out of court identification is not 12          well taken and should be overruled. And there is 13          certainly a question as to whether or not his 14          credibility or reliability which can be presented
15          to the jury, and that certainly will be opportunity
16          for the Defendant to do that at trial. But I
17          overrule that Motion, and the State can submit an 18          order to that effect.

19          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have got--

20          BY MR. EVANS: Is that all?

21          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, just a short, short.

22          BY THE COURT: Okay.

23          BY MR. LUMUMBA: I do have the jury
24          questionnaire from Hinds County.

25          BY THE COURT: Okay. Would y'all, could y'all
26          quickly look at that and see if y'all can agree on 27          that? And we will be through. Mr. Freelon, I will 28          give you that back.

1 (THE FOLLOWING IS A MOTION TO SUPPRESS STATEMENTS
2 HEARING ON MARCH 26, 1999, DURING THE TRIAL OF FLOWERS II IN 3 GULFPORT, MISSISSIPPI, WITH THE STYLE AND APPEARANCES AS 4 HEREIN NOTED:)

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen,
6 this is a matter I have to hear outside y'all's
7 presence. You will need to go to the jury room.

8 JURY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

9 BY THE COURT: State your objection for the 10 record, Mr. Lumumba, if you will.

11 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, my problem was that we 12 have raised a Motion to Suppress statements that 13 they allegedly took from the Defendant, and we
14 were, the Court indicated that we would have a
15 hearing. So that is what I would like to have is 16 a, an admissibility hearing.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay, and you filed a written
18 Motion to Suppress, and that written Motion to 19 Suppress based on the illegality of the arrest; is 20 that correct, or if there was an arrest, that it
21 was illegal?

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right. Right.

23 BY THE COURT: Did I misstate that?

24 BY MR. EVANS: I can't even remember what the 25 grounds of the Motion were.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: It was the arrest for sure.

27 BY THE COURT: Well, isn't there a debate as 28 to whether there was an arrest when this took 29 place?

1 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Right.

2 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, that's what I am saying.

4 If there was an arrest, you say it was illegal.

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

6 BY MR. EVANS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

7 BY THE COURT: Yes.

8 JACK MATTHEWS,

9 a white male previously called to testify as a witness by the 10 State and having been previously sworn, now testified on 11 behalf of the State on Defendant's Motion to Suppress with 12 the JURY OUT as follows, to-wit:

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS ON MOTION TO SUPPRESS: JURY
14 OUT.

15 Q. Mr. Matthews, at the time that you talked to Curtis
16 Flowers, was he under arrest?

17 A. No, sir. He was not.

18 Q. Was he free to leave?

19 A. Yes, sir; he was.

20 Q. Did he, in fact, leave after you interviewed him?

21 A. Yes, he did.

22 Q. Now at the time that you talked to him, did you, in 23 fact, advise him of what is commonly called his Miranda
24 rights?

25 A. Yes, sir. He was brought to the Winona Police
26 Department at our request. He came voluntarily, but because 27 he was at the police department, we told him that we were 28 going to read him his rights and that we wanted to talk to 29 him about his employment at Tardy Furniture Company.

1 Q. I will hand you Exhibit 67 and ask you if you can
2 identify this, please.

3 A. That is his warning and his waiver of rights that
4 we gave to him on the 16th of July. This waiver was signed
5 at 1:30.

6 Q. At the time he was asked to come to the police
7 department, was he even considered a suspect?

8 A. We knew that, we had had information that he had 9 been employed at Tardy Furniture Company and had been 10 recently let go, and we wanted to talk to him about that.

11 Q. But he was not under arrest and was not even 12 officially considered a suspect at that time; is that
13 correct?

14 A. No, sir, not at that time.

15 Q. The rights form that is in front of you, is that 16 the same rights form that you used to advise the Defendant of 17 his rights?

18 A. Yes, it is.

19 Q. And who was present when you advised him of those 20 rights?

21 A. I was present and John Johnson.

22 Q. Is that form in the same condition now as it was in 23 at the time you advised him and as y'all-- other than the 24 fact that it now has y'all's signatures to it?

25 A. Yes, sir.

26 BY MR. EVANS: I offer this form into
27 evidence, Your Honor.

28 BY THE COURT: Any objection to that?

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir.

1 BY THE COURT: Let it be marked into
2 evidence.

3 (WARNING AND WAIVER OF RIGHTS SIGNED ON
4 7/16/96 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-67
5 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

6 BY MR. EVANS:

7 Q. Mr. Matthews, did you, in fact, advise the 8 Defendant of the rights that are contained on that form?

9 A. Yes, I did.

10 Q. Did he appear to understand those rights?

11 A. Yes, he did.

12 Q. Did you use any pressure or any type of coercion to 13 get him to talk to you?

14 A. No, sir. I did not.

15 Q. Did you make any force or use any threat of force
16 to get him to cooperate with you?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. Did it appear to you that he understood that he was 19 free to go and that he had a right to talk to you if he would 20 like to, but he didn't have to talk to you?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. Once he had signed that form stating that he wished
23 to waive his rights and talk to you, did he, in fact, talk to
24 you?

25 A. Yes, he did.

26 Q. Did he, in fact, make a verbal statement to you
27 that day?

28 A. Yes, he did.

29 Q. And did he on another day come up there on his own

1 and make another statement?

2 A. Yes, sir; he did.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Tender the witness.

4 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA: JURY OUT.

5 Q. Mr. Matthews, my understanding is that Mr. Curtis
6 Flowers was taken into the, or that he was, you saw him-- did
7 you go to his home, or did you see him somewhere else that
8 day on the 16th?

9 A. The first time I saw Mr. Flowers was at the Winona
10 Police Department.

11 Q. Okay. So he was at the police department; is that
12 correct?

13 A. I was already there when he came.

14 Q. Okay, and did some officers come with him?

15 A. I believe that's correct.

16 Q. In fact, the highway patrolman by the name of 17 Dennis Woods and Officer Townsend were with him. Is that 18 true?

19 A. I know Mr. Woods was with him. I don't know about 20 the other officer.

21 Q. So you don't know what Mr. Woods and Mr. Townsend
22 told him prior to him coming, do you?

23 A. (No audible response.)

24 Q. Do you know what Mr. Woods and Mr. Townsend told
25 him?

26 A. No, sir.

27 Q. But they are the ones that escorted him to the 28 police department?

29 A. Yes, sir. I know what he told me but-- I mean I

1 know what Officer Woods told me but.

2 Q. All right, but you don't know what he told Mr.--

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. Mr. Flowers; is that correct?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. Okay. Now let me ask you this. So you really
7 don't know what he was told that caused him to leave his home
8 with them; is that true?

9 A. (No response.)

10 Q. You don't know what he was told to cause him to 11 leave his home with them?

12 A. I know that they asked him to come up to the police
13 department.

14 Q. Well, you don't--

15 A. --I know that part.

16 Q. You weren't there, so you don't know.

17 A. Well, that is true.

18 Q. Okay. So but you do know that they came in, and he 19 didn't come in by hisself. He came in with two officers;
20 isn't that true?

21 A. I know they drove him up there; yes, sir.

22 Q. And now as far as the facts that you had under your 23 disposal at this time, this was on July the 16th, 1996. Is 24 that true?

25 A. That's true.

26 Q. At that time you had not gathered any kind of 27 physical evidence which in any way pointed to Mr. Flowers,
28 had you?

29 A. No, sir.

1 Q. It would be safe to say that you didn't have any
2 witnesses who were saying that Mr. Flowers was involved;
3 isn't that true?

4 A. Not at that time, no, sir.

5 Q. And in fact, that never changed. You never did get
6 a witness that said that they saw Mr. Flowers in the store
7 doing anything on that day, did you?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Now in fact, you never did get a witness that said
10 that they saw Mr. Flowers--

11 BY MR. EVANS: --Your Honor, that is not
12 relevant to this motion.

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I think it is.

14 BY THE COURT: State your question again.

15 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Maybe a word of explanation
16 might help him. Me and the counsel were talking,
17 and we thought that maybe we would deal with -- I
18 think they may tend to-- they may want to introduce 19 more than just one statement, and maybe if we can
20 cover all the statements--

21 BY THE COURT: Yeah, if we are into more than 22 one statement, I want to cover them all with this
23 motion at one time.

24 BY MR. EVANS: That is still-- that is fine,
25 Your Honor. That's what I thought we were doing.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, well, that is why my 27 question is the way it is.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay, I did not understand your 29 question. Restate it.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

2 Q. My question is at this time, first of all which
3 would have been the 16th, you didn't actually have any
4 witness who said that they actually saw Mr., Mr. Flowers
5 doing anything wrong anywhere, either in Tardy's or anywhere
6 else, did you?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. And you never did come up with a witness that
9 actually said that they saw Mr. Flowers doing anything wrong
10 in Tardy's or anywhere else, did you?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. Now and you never came up with any physical
13 evidence that, like fingerprints or anything which positively
14 placed him in the store. Isn't that true?

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. Now let me ask you this. At the time that you--
17 you didn't even have a shoe box at the time that you sat down
18 with him on the 16th; is that correct?

19 A. I didn't understand that question.

20 Q. On the 16th of July, you didn't even have a shoe
21 box; is that correct? You hadn't taken any shoe boxes from 22 his home, had you?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Okay, and you hadn't taken any, any other kind of 25 evidence from his home at that point?

26 A. The first time I saw Mr. Flowers that day was at 27 the Winona Police Department. I never did go to his home.

28 Q. Okay. When I said you, I'm talking about as far as 29 to your knowledge, the police hadn't taken anything to his

1 home at least -- no police agency had taken anything from his
2 home which they had brought to your attention?

3 A. On the 16th I wasn't aware that anybody had been to 4 his home.

5 Q. Well, you knew somebody went to his home to talk to 6 him to bring him up there; isn't that correct?

7 A. I don't think they located him at his home.

8 Q. Okay. Okay, now let me ask you this. So you
9 pretty much told us what you had or basically what you didn't
10 have on the 16th. Now by the way, did you do anything to 11 record electronically the advice of rights on the 16th?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. Did you do anything to record anything he told you
14 on that date?

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. At the time that he was there, was he the only 17 person that was there, or were there other people who were 18 being taken in as suspects?

19 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. He said
20 he was not taken in as a suspect, and that is an 21 improper statement.

22 BY THE COURT: Well, the jury is not here. Go
23 ahead.

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Right.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. Were there other people there?

27 A. There were-- Mr. Johnson was there, and I was 28 there, and Mr. Flowers was there. There were some other
29 people in the police department there.

1 Q. Was Mr. Doyle Simpson there?

2 A. I don't know that he was there at that time.

3 Q. Did he get there before Mr. Flowers left?

4 A. We talked to him some time, and I'm not sure as to 5 the sequence of when he got there as compared to when we
6 talked to Mr. Flowers.

7 Q. At that moment in time he didn't say anything to
8 you which suggested that Mr. Flowers had done anything
9 illegal; isn't that right?

10 A. Who are you referring to?

11 Q. Doyle Simpson.

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. And they could have been there at the same time is 14 what you are telling me; is that correct?

15 A. It's a possibility they could have been in the 16 building; yes, sir.

17 Q. Okay, now that was the first date. Now when is the 18 second date that you-- did you do anything to record what
19 your conversation or your interview or interrogation with Mr.
20 Flowers included? Did you do anything to record that on the 21 16th?

22 A. On the 16th?

23 Q. Yeah.

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did you do-- you didn't write it down or anything?

26 A. No, sir.

27 Q. Now on the next day that you were present that he 28 actually was interviewed or interrogated, what day was that?

29 A. The next time I talked to Mr. Flowers was on July

1 the 18th.

2 Q. And were you the only one that was talking to him?

3 A. No, sir. Myself and DA Investigator, John Johnson,
4 and the MHP Investigator, H. W. Miller.

5 Q. About what time was that?

6 A. I don't remember the exact time.

7 Q. And do you know at that moment in time on the 18th,
8 would it be safe to say that you didn't have any other
9 physical evidence that you didn't have, that you hadn't --
10 you didn't have any more physical evidence than you did on 11 the 16th. Isn't that true?

12 A. We had done some investigating, and we had talked 13 to some people, and we wanted to talk to Curtis again, and at 14 that time we recorded his statement.

15 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this. First of all, I
16 don't think that, and I'm not complaining but I would just 17 like to get it. That is interesting to know also, but had 18 you any other physical evidence other than what you had on--
19 you already stated you didn't have any physical evidence that 20 implicated him on the 16th. You have already said that;
21 right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Did you have any physical evidence that implicated
24 him on the 18th? That was my question.

25 A. No, sir. We didn't have any physical evidence.

26 Q. Now how did he get to the station on the 18th?

27 A. I'm not sure.

28 Q. You didn't bring him?

29 A. I didn't bring him myself; no, sir.

1 Q. And was he advised of any rights on the 18th?

2 A. Yes, sir. We advised him of his rights.

3 Q. And you have that in writing?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. And let me ask you this. On the 16th when he was 6 advised of his rights, did he sign that?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. Okay, can I see it, please?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Now you said that on the 16th that he was supposed
11 to be free to leave. That's what you said; right? You just 12 testified to that?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay, well, let me ask you this.

15 A. He did leave when we got through talking.

16 Q. He left when you got finished talking; right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Which does not necessarily mean that he would have 19 been free to leave before you talked; right?

20 A. He was free to leave at any time.

21 Q. But the fact that he left when you got finished
22 talking and a person leaves when you get finished talking
23 does not mean that you haven't told them that they have to 24 stay until you talk, does it?

25 A. I never told him that.

26 Q. Well, do you understand my question?

27 A. No, sir.

28 Q. Well, leaving at the end of the conversation does 29 not prove that he was free to leave at the beginning of the

1 conversation, does it? In and of itself?

2 A. I don't follow that.

3 Q. Okay. You didn't record what you were telling him,
4 did you? Did you record anything that you said to him that
5 day?

6 A. When?

7 Q. On the 16th. That's the day we have just been
8 talking about.

9 A. No, sir. I told, I answered that while ago. I
10 didn't, we didn't tape record anything, and we didn't record
11 anything. I didn't.

12 Q. When he walked in the door, you didn't say, "You
13 are free to leave," did you?

14 A. No, sir. I didn't say that.

15 Q. And you don't know of your own knowledge what the 16 other officers had told him. So you didn't tell him he was 17 free to leave; isn't that correct?

18 A. I know no officer in the room that was there said
19 anything, made that statement.

20 Q. But you were in-- no officer who was in the room
21 made the statement, "You are free to leave." That's true;
22 right?

23 A. We told him, we read him his rights, and it says in 24 here that, you know.

25 Q. In the rights?

26 A. That he could, that the rights form, that he could
27 stop talking at any time.

28 Q. The rights form doesn't say, You are free to leave,
29 does it?

1 A. No, sir. It doesn't say that, but it says you can
2 stop talking at any time.

3 Q. And in fact, the rights forms are usually read to
4 people who are suspects; right?

5 A. Well, we made it clear that he was there
6 voluntarily, that we wanted to talk to him and what we wanted
7 to talk to him about.

8 Q. All right, did you tell him he was free to leave?
9 That's what I'm trying to get to, this voluntarily stuff?

10 A. We told him that he was, that we would like to talk
11 to him. We would like to talk to him about his employment at 12 Tardy Furniture, and if he would agree to talk with us, and 13 he voluntarily agreed to talk with us.

14 Q. Right. And that is all he voluntarily agreed to 15 do, right, is to talk to you; right?

16 A. He talked to us; yes, sir.

17 Q. Right. And so you tell people who are there and 18 locked up and who can't leave, you read them the same rights
19 form, don't you?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. And it says the same thing about they can
22 voluntarily stop talking to you?

23 A. At any time they want.

24 Q. So it's nothing in the rights form that tells him
25 he is free to leave and not under arrest? That is nothing in 26 there that says that; right?

27 A. We told him in the beginning he was not under 28 arrest.

29 Q. Okay. Oh, you said that, did you?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Okay, who said that?

3 A. I said it.

4 Q. You said, "You are not under arrest"?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. And you said, but you didn't say you were
7 free to leave?

8 A. I don't remember that I said that.

9 Q. Well, when he came into the door, how did you
10 confront him? Did you say anything to him or approach him or 11 greet him in any way?

12 A. I introduced myself to him.

13 Q. Did anybody else there introduce themselves?

14 A. Mr. Johnson.

15 Q. Okay, how many of them-- there was three. I think
16 you have already said it was three of them; is that right?

17 A. I know Mr. Johnson and I were there on the 16th.

18 Q. Okay. But you didn't greet him in any kind of way
19 other than just say hello?

20 A. I just, I introduced myself to him. I told him
21 who I was, and I told him why, you know, that I wanted to 22 talk with him, and I asked him if he would agree to talk with 23 us.

24 Q. Now normally when you-- did you make him at home to 25 the extent that you shook his hand?

26 A. No, sir. I did not shake his hand.

27 Q. And Mr. Johnson didn't shake his hand?

28 A. Not that I know of.

29 Q. Okay, so you didn't greet him? You didn't make him

1 feel that welcome, did you?

2 A. Well, no.

3 Q. Okay, and would it be safe to say that the others
4 didn't, or you didn't see that either?

5 A. I didn't see anybody shake hands with him; no, sir.

6 Q. Okay, and you don't know whether or not the other
7 people let him know that they weren't arresting him, Mr.

8 Townsend and Mr. Woods. You don't know that they shook--

9 A. --I don't know; no, sir.

10 Q. That wouldn't be unusual to shake a person's hand
11 that you are getting ready to interview, would it?

12 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is not
13 relevant to what we are here on.

14 BY THE COURT: Well, you have established that 15 point. Let's move on.

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay.

17 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

18 Q. Now let me ask you this. So in any event, you were 19 in the police station?

20 A. Sir?

21 Q. You were in the police station?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. What room were you in in the police station?

24 A. They have a room there that DA investigators
25 occupy, and that's the room we were in.

26 Q. About how big is that room?

27 A. Probably, maybe 15 by 15, I would say.

28 Q. Okay.

29 A. Approximately.

1 Q. And he didn't have anybody in there with him other
2 than, that was not a police officer?

3 A. There was Mr. Johnson, myself and Mr. Flowers.

4 Q. On the 18th -- did you talk to him on the 17th
5 also?

6 A. No, sir. I didn't talk to him.

7 Q. Were you advised as to whether or not he had been
8 talked to on the 17th?

9 A. No, sir. I don't know that he had been talked to.

10 Q. On the 17th where did you interview him at?

11 A. I didn't interview him on the 17th.

12 Q. On the 18th where did you interview him at?

13 A. In the same place.

14 Q. Same room?

15 A. Same room.

16 Q. Same people?

17 A. Same people. Officer Miller was there that day
18 also.

19 Q. You interviewed him again on the 23rd; is that
20 correct?

21 A. No, sir. I didn't interview him on the 23rd.

22 Q. Okay. Did anybody interview him on the 23rd in 23 your presence?

24 A. No, sir.

25 Q. On the 23rd-- do you recognize this document here?
26 It has your name on it?

27 A. (Pause while witness looks at document.) This is on 28 the 16th.

29 Q. I am just asking you do you recognize the document?

1 It has your name on it.

2 A. It's the first time I have seen it.

3 Q. Okay, so you don't, you also don't recognize then
4 this page here which says July 23rd at 12:12 hours at the 5 Winona Police Department? The Defendant was given his
6 Miranda warnings which were signed at 12:15, and he further
7 signed the rights form at 12:15. The waiver was witnessed by 8 Jack Matthews. Are you Jack Matthews?

9 A. I am Jack Matthews.

10 Q. So you don't know anything about being on the 23rd,
11 witnessing that?

12 A. I don't know what this document is. It's the first
13 time I have seen it.

14 Q. Okay, so if there is a waiver form signed on the 15 23rd, you don't know anything about it; is that right?

16 A. No, sir.

17 Q. And you didn't see him on the 23rd to the best of 18 your knowledge?

19 A. I might have, but I don't remember if I did.

20 BY MR. HORAN: Mr. Lumumba, can I see the 21 document?

22 (Document handed to State's Counsel.

23 Defendant's Counsel confer briefly.)

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

25 Q. On the 16th, do you recall who supplied the 26 instrument in which he signed the rights waiver form with? A
27 pen or a pencil or whatever it was. Was it a pen or pencil,
28 or do you know?

29 A. It appears to be a pen. I'm not, I don't know who

1 supplied it.

2 Q. You do have pens at the station for that purpose?

3 A. I am sure they do.

4 Q. So how long did you spend with him on the 16th
5 before you, before he left that building?

6 A. We were there probably somewhere in the 7 neighborhood of thirty minutes.

8 Q. How much time was he in that room on the 18th?

9 A. Probably about the same amount of time, maybe a
10 little bit longer.

11 Q. Was he taken anywhere else by you or by anybody
12 else on the 18th other than the police station?

13 A. Seems like on the 18th we gave him a ride back to 14 his house.

15 Q. There was a guy by the name of Robert who conducted
16 some kind-- Jennings who conducted some kind of exam on the 17 18th; is that correct?

18 A. Yes, possibly so, yeah.

19 Q. Pardon?

20 A. I think so; yes, sir.

21 Q. Did you take him to that Robert, or did Robert come
22 to him?

23 A. He was there at the police department.

24 Q. And who is he?

25 A. He is an investigator with the DA's office.

26 Q. Did you talk to Mr.-- did you talk to Mr. Flowers
27 on any other days other than the days that we have talked
28 about to this extent, to this point?

29 A. I talked to him on the 16th and on the 18th.

1 Q. Any other days?

2 A. Possibly I did, but I don't recall.

3 Q. And on neither one of those days are you the one
4 that actually escorted him or carried him into the station;
5 is that true? On neither of those days did you actually
6 bring him to the station?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. And on neither of those days do you have any 9 personal knowledge as to whether or not the person who 10 brought him to the station, you don't know what they said of 11 your personal knowledge?

12 A. I was not there with them; no, sir.

13 (Defense Counsel confer briefly.)

14 Q. Okay, a final question at this time, when he came 15 in on the 16th, did you have any gloves on?

16 A. On the 16th?

17 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that hasn't got 18 anything to do with what this motion is about.

19 BY THE COURT: No, it's not. You can get into 20 that later. I know where you are going with it.

21 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

22 Q. Did you have any, did you have a weapon?

23 BY MR. EVANS: That also has nothing--

24 BY MR. LUMUMBA: --Well, that does have 25 something to do with it because it has something to 26 do with whether--

27 BY THE COURT: --That could be. I will allow
28 that.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

1 Q. Did you have a weapon?

2 A. Was I wearing a weapon?

3 Q. Yes. Did you have a weapon in your possession on
4 the 16th?

5 A. No, I did not.

6 Q. Okay, where was it at?

7 A. In my vehicle.

8 Q. And had you at any point in time had that weapon in 9 his presence?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. How long had it been in your vehicle?

12 A. Years.

13 Q. I'm talking about that day. You don't ever carry a
14 weapon on your person?

15 A. Sometimes. I didn't that day.

16 Q. Okay. And do you know whether Mr. Johnson had a 17 weapon?

18 A. I don't know.

19 Q. And do you know whether Mr. Miller had a weapon?

20 A. I don't know either.

21 Q. He was there though; right, at some point in time?

22 A. He was there on the 16th, but I don't think he was 23 at the interview that we conducted that day with Mr.
24 Flowers. I think he was in the area or may have been in the 25 police department.

26 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I don't have any other
27 questions of this officer at this time.

28 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS: JURY OUT.

29 Q. Mr. Matthews, you did, in fact, advise the

1 Defendant before you started that he was not under arrest; is
2 that correct?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And in fact, he did leave at the end of that
5 interview?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. He came back to the police department several times
8 on his own, did he not?

9 A. Yes, he did.

10 Q. And in those times, sometimes y'all talked to him--
11 and Your Honor, for the record I want to make sure the record
12 is clear that the jury is not present. One of those times he 13 came in--

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Excuse me. Can we get a
15 question instead of leading questions, please?

16 BY THE COURT: The jury is not in here. I
17 want to hear what is going on. Go ahead.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 BY MR. EVANS:

20 Q. One of those times he even voluntarily came up
21 there on his own and submitted to a polygraph test, did he 22 not?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. And these occasions he knew and none of these 25 occasions he was under arrest; is that right?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. And on all these occasions he was free to go after 28 that was over?

29 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And it was approximately a year later before he was
2 arrested?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, at this point...

5 (Pause while State's Counsel confer.)

6 Q. Just to make sure that the record is clear and that
7 the Judge knows what is going on, the 23rd-- wait, let me get
8 this other document too so you can look at it.

9 BY MR. EVANS: May I have this item marked for 10 identification, Your Honor?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes.

12 (CONSENT FOR POLYGRAPH TEST WAS MARKED AS
13 STATE'S EXHIBIT S-106 FOR IDENTIFICATION. NOTE:
14 JURY IS STILL OUT.)

15 (Exhibit S-106 shown to Mr. Lumumba.)

16 BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q. I show you Exhibit 106 and Exhibit 66. And I will
18 just ask you if the 23rd is, in fact, the day he voluntarily
19 came in and took the polygraph test?

20 A. Yes, sir. I was under the mistake that he had 21 taken it on the 18th, but it was the 23rd.

22 Q. And the 18th was the day that he came back in on 23 his own, and you took the taped statement; is that correct?

24 A. That's correct. Yes, sir.

25 Q. And actually in neither the initial interview that
26 you just interviewed him or the statement did he incriminate
27 himself, did he?

28 A. No, sir. He did not.

29 BY MR. EVANS: That's all, Your Honor.

1 TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE STATE ON MOTION WAS 2 CONCLUDED, BUT WITNESS REMAINED ON THE STAND.

3 BY THE COURT: Do you have any other witnesses
4 on this point?

5 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yes.

6 BY THE COURT: Well, I am asking him.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Not at this point. We would 8 like for him to proceed at this point, and we 9 will--

10 BY THE COURT: Well, I hold that the State has 11 established a prima facie case to this point. Do
12 you have any witnesses on this?

13 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, I have one at this 14 time. Let me ask you; these two officers who the 15 officer claims transported him to the station, they 16 are not here right now, are they?

17 BY MR. EVANS: No.

18 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. Yeah, we do have a
19 witness on this point, but I also want to submit an
20 exhibit. Do you have the-- I know it's an exhibit
21 in evidence here already, I believe. It's the test
22 - what do you call it? - residue test done.

23 BY THE COURT: It is there. I remember him
24 having it on the--

25 BY MR. EVANS: --Gunshot residue?

26 BY THE COURT: Yeah.

27 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Yeah, where is that?

28 BY MR. EVANS: It's right here.

29 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay, is this it? I believe

1           there is a document that comes with this that is
2           signed by the Defendant. Do we have that?

3           BY MR. HORAN: It may be inside.

4           BY MR. LUMUMBA: May be inside?

5           (Pause while Mr. Lumumba examines Exhibit
6           S-86.)

7           BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, I would recall Mr.
8           Matthews in my case to start off with on this issue
9           and just ask him a couple of questions.

10          BY THE COURT: Yeah, but we are on the 11          statement now. We are not on the--

12          BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, this is just the 13          statement. This is the statement. And it's 14          definitely, this has to do with the statement of 15          whether he was-- can I ask the questions?

16          BY THE COURT: Sure.

17                   JACK MATTHEWS,

18          a white male again called to testify, this time on behalf of 19          the Defendant on his Motion to Suppress, having been 20          previously sworn, testified further with the JURY OUT as
21          follows, to-wit:

22          DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA:

23                Q. You indicated that Mr., Mr. Flowers was not a
24                suspect on that day; is that correct?

25                A. No, he was not on that day.

26                Q. Okay. Now let me see. I'm going to show you a
27                document which is actually marked. I don't think we have to 28                have it remarked. It is part of Exhibit S-86, and ask you 29                what date that was?

1 A. That is on the 16th.

2 Q. Who is that signed by?

3 A. That is signed by me.

4 Q. Okay, and I want to refer you to this line here in 5 this document, and what that is is an official document about
6 the gunshot residue test, but it was taken on that same day?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Okay. And you indicated he left and he wasn't a
9 suspect; right?

10 A. (No response.)

11 Q. I am asking you what you indicated before. You
12 just told me he wasn't a suspect?

13 A. Yes, sir. He was not a suspect.

14 Q. Right here it says, "Suspect was at his residence 15 prior to questioning. Activities unknown." Isn't that what 16 it says?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. And the suspect you were talking about, isn't that 19 the same as Curtis Flowers?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. And then right up here it says, "Suspect is living"
22 or I guess this is supposed to be living or dead, but you
23 checked "living"; is that correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. "Suspect is right handed." Is that correct?

26 A. That's correct.

27 Q. Now the thing where it says suspect up here, it
28 also says "Suspect's full name." And whose name did you put 29 in there?

1           A.     Curtis Flowers. This is the only form that comes 2 with this evidence kit, and this is the only thing that we
3 have to go by to--

4           Q.     --Okay, well, you know more, you know how to use
5 more words than "suspect." You could say Flowers. You know
6 how to write "Flowers" as opposed to "suspect" yourself;
7 right? You know how to do that?

8           A.     I just filled in the blanks on the form; yes, sir.

9           Q.     Well, yes, but you wrote the word "suspect," didn't
10 you?

11          A.     Yes, sir.

12          Q.     There is nothing about the form that requires you
13 to write the word "suspect" here, does it?

14          A.     Well, it asks for suspect information. So.

15          Q.     But if he wasn't a suspect, you certainly could
16 have just said Flowers; is that right?

17          A.     I guess I could have.

18          Q.     Did you?

19          A.     No, sir. I believe I wrote "suspect," didn't I?

20          Q.     Okay. And if he was not a suspect, there is 21 nothing also that required you to use this form; isn't that
22 correct?

23          A.     Well, I had to use that form. It's the only form
24 we have for gunshot residue.

25                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: Is this in evidence?

26                   BY MR. HORAN: Look at the tag.

27                   BY THE COURT: I don't think it is.

28                   BY MR. LUMUMBA: For purposes--

29                   BY THE COURT: --The fact is I know it's not.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: For purposes of this hearing,
2 I would move for its evidence admission, just for
3 purposes of this hearing.

4 BY MR. EVANS: No objection.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay.

6 BY MR. EVANS: We can go ahead, if you don't
7 have any objection, we can go ahead and just mark
8 the whole thing into evidence anyway.

9 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Well, I do have--

10 BY THE COURT: --He is going to have another
11 objection to that.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I will have an objection to 13 that, okay. Okay, so I have--

14 BY THE COURT: --Wait a minute. Let's mark it
15 as evidence for this hearing. Did you do that?

16 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Put another sticker on
17 it?

18 BY THE COURT: It needs a sticker showing it
19 has been marked as an exhibit to this hearing as an
20 exhibit on the Motion to Suppress.

21 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Give it a new number?

22 BY THE COURT: Well, your sticker should read
23 that it is a D-1 on the Motion to Suppress would be 24 my idea how it ought to be.

25 BY MR. EVANS: It might be a little simpler,
26 Your Honor, if she would just put this sticker on 27 the form he is talking about instead of the 28 package. That way we won't have a different
29 sticker on the package.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: That would be okay. It
2 doesn't really matter to me, Judge. I don't have
3 any problem.

4 (GUNSHOT RESIDUE TEST WHICH WAS ALSO MARKED
5 AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-86 FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS 6 REMARKED AS DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT D-1 IN EVIDENCE TO
7 THE MOTION TO SUPPRESS. HOWEVER, AS WILL BE SHOWN
8 DURING THE NEXT DAY OF TRIAL, THE DEFENDANT'S
9 EXHIBIT STICKER WAS REMOVED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE 10 JURY SEEING THE PACKAGE AND SHOULD BE REPLACED UPON
11 APPEAL.)

12 BY THE COURT: Well, it is marked. Now let's
13 go on. Any more questions for him?

14 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no other questions of 15 this witness.

16 BY THE COURT: Do y'all have any questions of 17 him at this time?

18 BY MR. EVANS: No.

19 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Matthews you
20 will have to go back to the witness room right now.

21 WITNESS LEAVES COURTROOM.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: We would call Mr. Flowers.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Flowers, I can't 24 remember; were you sworn at the first of this
25 trial?

26 BY THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

27 BY THE COURT: Raise your right hand.

28 (Defendant was sworn by the Court.)

29 BY THE COURT: Have a seat up there. Can I

1           see y'all at the bench first. This is on an
2           administrative matter. It has nothing to do with 3           this. I don't need this on the record.

4                   (Off the record.)

5                   BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Lumumba you may 6           proceed.

7                               CURTIS GIOVANNI FLOWERS,
8           a black male called to testify as a witness in his own behalf
9           on Defendant's Motion to Suppress, having first been duly
10          sworn, testified with the JURY OUT as follows, to-wit:

11          DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LUMUMBA: JURY OUT.

12               Q. Mr. Flowers, I just want to ask you a few questions
13          here. I want to call your attention to July the 16th, 1996.
14          At some point in time did you see any police officers that
15          day?

16               A. Yes, I did.

17               Q. And where were they at?

18               A. At my home.

19               Q. And tell me who they were?

20               A. Highway Patrolman Dennis Woods and Officer Townsend
21          with the Winona Police Department.

22               Q. With the Winona Police Department?

23               A. Yes, they were.

24               Q. And you were at home when you saw them?

25               A. Yes.

26               Q. And could you tell me if they -- what happened?

27               A. Well, they pulled up in the Highway Patrolman's
28          car, and they come up and knocked on the door, and I let them
29          in, and we spoke and shook hands. And Dennis Woods, Officer,

1 State Highway Patrolman Dennis Woods told me that I needed to
2 come with them.

3 Q. He said you needed to come with them?

4 A. Yes, he did.

5 Q. Did he give you any options or tell you you didn't
6 have to come?

7 A. No, he didn't.

8 Q. And so did you interpret that as, that you had to
9 go?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Did you go?

12 A. Yes, I went.

13 Q. Did you ever arrive at the police station?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. And at any point in time did anybody at the police
16 station tell you that you didn't have to stay or you could 17 leave?

18 BY MR. HORAN: Objection, Your Honor. He is 19 leading his witness.

20 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Okay. I have no problem with
21 that.

22 BY THE COURT: Sustained.

23 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I am just trying to get right
24 to the point.

25 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

26 Q. But at the police station did you-- was anything
27 said to you at the police station?

28 A. Yes. They took me in the back room where Mr. John 29 Johnson came out and spoke to me, and we shook hands. We

1 went back in the back, and he introduced me to Mr. Matthews
2 and Mr. Miller. Well, Mr. Matthews because Mr. Miller wasn't
3 there that day, and I shook his hand, and we went on in the 4 room and sat down.

5 Q. At any point in time did any of these gentlemen
6 indicate anything to you about whether you could be, whether 7 you had to stay there or not?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. Was it your-- what was your view about
10 whether you had to stay there or whether you could leave?

11 A. I felt that I had to be there.

12 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
13 at this time. Hold it one second.

14 (Mr. Lumumba confers with Mr. Freelon 15 briefly.)

16 BY MR. LUMUMBA:

17 Q. Okay. I just want to move to the 18th quickly
18 because we are supposed to be dealing with all this. How did 19 you get to the police station on the 18th if you did get
20 there?

21 A. Well, I went to the store in my sister's car, and
22 by the time I come back by the house, Officer Jerry Yates
23 come by the house in K-9 truck, and he told me that I needed
24 to come down to the station. They wanted to talk with me. I
25 told him I was baby sitting, and he told me that I had to 26 bring the kids with me, but I needed to come down.

27 Q. Did you go?

28 A. Yes, I did.

29 Q. And on that time on the 18th, did anyone at the

1 station say anything one way or the other as to whether you
2 had to remain?

3 A. No, they didn't.

4 Q. Okay. And did you have an opinion as to whether
5 you had to be there?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. What was your opinion?

8 A. That I had to be there.

9 Q. Okay. On the 23rd, did you ever go to the police
10 station or anywhere else?

11 A. Yes, I did.

12 Q. And where was that?

13 A. At the Winona Police Department.

14 Q. Okay, and at any time on the 23rd-- how did you get 15 there on the 23rd?

16 A. Uh.

17 Q. You had already been there twice; right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. At least. Did you go more than twice or just 20 twice?

21 A. I was, I was dropped off down there on the 23rd by 22 Troy Yates.

23 Q. Okay, and why did you come?

24 A. They wanted to talk to me and give another
25 statement, and then they took me to Carrollton to do a
26 fingerprinting.

27 Q. Okay. And how did you get to Carrollton? What 28 kind of transportation?

29 A. Mr. Matthews and Mr. Miller.

1 Q. Okay. What was your feeling as to whether or not
2 it was in your discretion to refuse to come down there for
3 the fingerprinting?

4 A. Well, I was told I had to come.

5 Q. And on the 23rd, was there at any time when someone
6 was asking you questions about whether you went to, had been
7 by Anguilla-- what do you call it? Anguilla?

8 A. Angelica.

9 Q. Yeah, Angelica factory.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And who was asking you those questions?

12 A. Mr. John Johnson and Mr. Matthews.

13 Q. Okay, and at that particular time on the 23rd, did
14 either one of them indicate to you that you didn't have to be 15 there or you were free to leave?

16 A. No, they did not.

17 Q. Were you in the police station or somewhere else?

18 A. In the police station.

19 Q. Then when you went to Carrollton, were you also in 20 a law enforcement facility?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have no further questions
23 on that issue.

24 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HORAN: JURY OUT.

25 Q. Mr. Flowers, you admit here today that when the two 26 officers arrived, that they did not read you your rights, and 27 they did not arrest you at that time, did they?

28 A. Well, they did not read me my rights.

29 Q. They didn't tell you that you were charged with

1 murder or anything like that--

2 A. They just told me that I had to come with them.

3 Q. They asked you to come down there, did they not?

4 A. They didn't ask me. They told me I had to come
5 with them.

6 Q. And when you got down there, you say you greeted
7 some people there?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And Mr. Matthews and Mr. Johnson are two of those 10 individuals that--

11 A. --That's correct.

12 Q. And they told you you were not under arrest. At 13 that time you were not served with a warrant, were you?

14 A. No, they just told me they wanted to talk with me.

15 Q. And after they talked to you, they let you go?
16 They told you you could leave?

17 A. Yes, they did.

18 Q. Did they inquire as to whether or not you needed a
19 ride or not?

20 A. No, they didn't. I walked back home.

21 Q. Okay, well, you didn't ask--

22 A. --I asked for a ride. But he told me they had to 23 go somewhere else, that I had to walk.

24 Q. And on the 18th -- you went home and two days later
25 they called your residence or got up with you; right?

26 A. On the 18th?

27 Q. On the 18th.

28 A. No, they did not.

29 Q. How did they get up with you?

1 A. Jerry Yates. Officer Yates came by.

2 Q. Jerry Yates, was he an officer at that time?

3 A. Yeah, he was in the K-9 field for that time.

4 Q. And yeah, that's right. Jerry Yates, and that is
5 Troy Yates' brother; right?

6 A. That's right.

7 Q. And your daddy at that time worked for Troy Yates?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. You knew Jerry Yates; right?

10 A. I knew Jerry, yeah; Troy too.

11 Q. And it would be safe to say that Jerry would know
12 your whereabouts at that particular time. If he got up with 13 Troy and said--

14 A. --no, he wouldn't--

15 Q. --you know where Curtis is, don't you?

16 A. They don't know my whereabouts. They just know me.

17 Q. But Jerry, it would be safe to say that Jerry would 18 have some information about you that some of the other
19 officers may not have because of--

20 A. --well, Jerry--

21 Q. Please let me finish, and then we will go from
22 there?

23 A. Okay.

24 Q. Jerry is Troy's brother. Troy employed your 25 daddy. I mean it is quite possible that they contacted
26 Jerry Yates because they felt like - that is not uncommon -
27 that Mr. Yates may have more information where you were on 28 that particular date?

29 A. No.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: Objection. I don't think he
2 could read anybody else's mind.

3 BY MR. HORAN: I said safe to say, and this is
4 cross-examination.

5 BY THE COURT: I will allow it.

6 BY THE WITNESS:

7 A. Repeat the question.

8 Q. I mean it's not, it wouldn't be unusual for, if I
9 was trying to get up with you, that I would find someone that 10 may know your whereabouts on that particular day; right?

11 A. Well, yes, if they knew my whereabouts, but Jerry
12 didn't know my whereabouts. Neither did Troy.

13 Q. Okay. But on the 18th, they told you that you
14 would have to bring your children with you?

15 A. That's correct. That's what Mr. Yates told me.

16 Q. And you did that?

17 A. And he said, "I will watch them." Yes, I brought 18 my stepson with me.

19 Q. And you didn't think that you were under arrest at 20 that time, did you?

21 A. I didn't know what was going on. All he was doing,
22 he just told me they needed me down at the station.

23 Q. And they let you go on that particular day, did
24 they not?

25 A. Yes, they did.

26 Q. And on the 23rd, they let you go?

27 A. Yes, they did.

28 Q. And you were not arrested until what day? What day
29 were you actually picked up and served a warrant?

1 A. January the 13th of '97.

2 Q. And these two officers, they greeted you there at
3 your residence. That's your testimony?

4 A. Which two officers?

5 Q. The two officers the first day.

6 A. Yes, they did.

7 Q. Who were they?

8 A. Officers Woods and Officer Townsend.

9 Q. And they did not handcuff you?

10 A. No, they didn't.

11 Q. You did not get handcuffed on the 18th?

12 A. No, I didn't.

13 Q. And you did not get handcuffed on the 23rd?

14 A. No, I did not.

15 Q. The officers did not threaten you in any way on the 16 16th, did they?

17 A. No, they did not.

18 Q. And you are not telling this Court that that was 19 not a voluntary statement that you made. I mean you signed 20 that waiver?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. You read that waiver?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. You understood that waiver?

25 A. Yes, I did.

26 Q. You were not coerced at that time. It's your 27 testimony that you weren't coerced into making the statement?

28 A. No, I was not.

29 BY MR. HORAN: No further questions.

1 BY MR. LUMUMBA: I have none.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay, you may return to your
3 seat.

4 DEFENDANT RETURNS TO COUNSEL TABLE.

5 BY THE COURT: Have you got any further
6 witnesses on this Motion?

7 BY MR. LUMUMBA: No, sir. I just have a brief
8 argument. The only one who would know what
9 happened when he was confronted by police officers
10 on the 16th for the first time has testified that 11 he was told that he needed to come to the station
12 by a person who is a law enforcement officer who
13 then proceeded to take him to the station.
14 Actually, he said it was two of them. He said that 15 he had no-- his view was that he had to come.

16 Miranda does not require that you be formally
17 put under arrest. It requires that you be in 18 police custody, and many cases have held that a
19 formal arrest is certainly not necessary in order
20 to bring about the rights that you have not to be 21 subjected to an illegal arrest. I think that he 22 was arrested even though-- if you are not free to 23 leave, you are arrested, and he was not free to 24 leave. He was told that he had to-- in one
25 instance he was even told that he had to bring the 26 children with him. So in neither situation was he 27 free to leave or given the impression that he was
28 free to leave.

29 As to what was said at the police station, one

1 officer has just testified, Mr. Matthews - who
2 can't remember that he was there on the 23rd
3 although we have just seen evidence that he was 4 present on the 23rd, so his memory apparently is
5 failing him a little bit on this issue - has 6 testified that he was told that. However, the 7 Defendant has clearly said he was not.

8 It is the State's burden whenever we challenge
9 a constitutionality of any particular arrest or 10 evidence or any other kind of procedures to prove,
11 it is their burden to show this Court that the 12 challenged evidence was taken legally. I think 13 they have failed this burden given the evidence in
14 question.

15 And then a final thing I would say is I wanted
16 the Court to keep in mind Brown v. Illinois which I
17 have a book here that cites, but Brown v. Illinois
18 says that the giving of Miranda rights, even if 19 they are voluntarily given and the statement is 20 voluntarily taken, does not vindicate or does not
21 alleviate the illegality of the arrest. Brown v.
22 Illinois is a very, is a case that made a pretty
23 clear pronouncement on the old fruit of the 24 poisonous tree doctrine which has been generated
25 long ago, I think in Wong Sun and all those other
26 cases that you read about in law school. But Brown
27 v. Illinois is a case of vintage sometime in the 28 60's or the 70's - I can't remember-- no, actually
29 -- no, I was practicing law when it came out. So

1           it had to be in the, like in the 70's or the 80's.
2           And Brown v. Illinois clearly states, and it's a
3           case where a person was given Miranda rights, no
4           question that he was given them, that he gave a
5           statement. And because the arrest was illegal, -
6           they didn't have enough information to arrest him
7           on at the time - they ruled that the, in the Brown
8           v. Illinois case, that the case, that the statement
9           had to be suppressed.

10           And one final thing I would point out. What 11           officers used to do a lot of times is they would 12           arrest you for an investigation of murder or 13           investigation of this and investigation of that.
14           And what they have-- and there was a ruling that 15           arresting somebody for the investigation of 16           something was totally illegal. And so what-- but 17           the same thing is accomplished if you take somebody
18           into custody, tell them they have to go or need to 19           go and that you are going, and you don't give them
20           a right or tell them that they have a right to 21           leave. The same thing is accomplished, so at that 22           point whether they arrest him for investigation or 23           not officially, it's still the same effect. And no
24           case has ever ruled that they have to officially
25           arrest you.

26           In fact, I'm not even sure; I think the 27           Miranda case is to the contrary. I don't even
28           think the person was arrested in the Miranda case
29           officially. If it was arrested officially in the

1           Miranda case, I know that there are several other
2 cases in the Miranda progeny where people were not
3 arrested. They were just detained.

4           BY THE COURT: Right. "Arrest" is not a magic
5 word. I understand that.

6           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, to start with, in 7 this particular case the evidence is clear from 8 Jack Matthews that this Defendant was not under 9 arrest. He was not in custody. As a matter of 10 fact, the officers said that he specifically told
11 him that he was free to leave at any time he wanted
12 to. He was not under arrest.

13           Now the law is clear in this state that when a
14 person is not in custody, his rights do not have to 15 be advised to him at all. Of course, we are not 16 even on rights because he has freely and 17 voluntarily admitted in open court under oath that 18 he freely and voluntarily waived all of his 19 rights. He freely and voluntarily made these 20 statements. So to start with, he is not under 21 custody. He is not under arrest. He is free to 22 leave at any time. He is told he is not under 23 arrest. He was only there for a short period of 24 time, and all we had was a situation where officers
25 were trying to gather information from anybody
26 around town that they could that morning that had 27 any information that might point them in the right
28 direction. He happened to be one of the people
29 they talked to. He was not under arrest.

1           Even assuming, which he was not, but even
2           assuming the other things, the statements that he
3           gave are non-incriminating. Conner itself says
4           that if a statement is non-incriminating, none of
5           these apply anyway. But the main issue and the one
6           that I think is the one here before the Court today
7           is he was not under arrest.

8           He was not in custody. He was free to leave.
9           I think that is clearly proven by several facts.
10          One, the officer told him that; the other he was 11          only there for a few minutes. He left and he came 12          back several times on his own and talked to them at 13          different times and left after those times.

14          BY MR. LUMUMBA: Judge, my other rejoinder is 15          I also want to remind the Court that although the 16          officer says that he was free to leave and that he 17          wasn't suspect, the form that he signed says he was 18          a suspect. And there is no magic requirement to 19          use that form, and whenever I use a form which is 20          inapplicable to what I am doing, I just scratch out
21          the term that is inapplicable for the record and 22          put down what is applicable. And what would have 23          been applicable at that time is Curtis Flowers did
24          this; Curtis Flowers did that.

25          I have often seen polygraph tests where they 26          don't put the term in suspect. What they do is 27          they put in the term reflecting what the person's 28          name is or examinee or something of that nature.

29          But in any event, so I think that that is

1           where we have contrary evidence. So as to the
2           16th, I think it is a very powerful indication that
3           he was not free to go. And I don't know of any law
4           that says -- if they are using, if they are using
5           the statements against him in this trial, that is a
6           pretty good indication that they are
7           incriminating. Now they may not have been
8           statements of what we have termed quote, unquote
9           confessions, but any statement is privileged and is 10          not-- and the Fifth Amendment doesn't just protect
11          things that where you are consciously incriminating
12          yourself. The Fifth Amendment protects all
13          statements because the Fifth Amendment, as you well
14          know, the police can use statements in a variety of 15          ways in order to create the impression of guilt.
16          And for that reason it is pretty comprehensive in 17          that regard. I don't know of any law which has 18          said that that has been compromised.

19                BY THE COURT: All right, in the Court's 20          opinion this is not really a close call. The 21          Defendant has taken the stand and admitted that his 22          statement was, statements were freely and 23          voluntarily given. Even if the arrest were 24          illegal, Brown holds that that does not necessarily 25          automatically vitiate the confession. It goes into 26          the officer's misconduct. It has to take the test
27          of whether he was given his rights, and you go into 28          a lot of tests. Just the fact that an arrest is 29          illegal or a custodial thing, being taken into

1 custody was illegal, an illegal detention does not
2 in and of itself throw it out. There are other
3 factors that have to be considered.

4 I hold that one, he was not in custody. They
5 asked him or maybe told him to come to the police
6 station and picked him up, took him there. He was 7 only there 30 minutes. They let him leave after he
8 talked. He did not make an incriminating statement
9 on that day according to the testimony that is 10 before this Court. He was read his rights. Two 11 days later he was read his rights again. He also 12 made another statement. I don't recall there being 13 any testimony as to how long that statement took,
14 but anyhow apparently it was not incriminating.
15 And he himself testified that nobody told him he
16 could not leave, and apparently when it was over,
17 he left. And he apparently did that a third time
18 on the 23rd when he took a polygraph test. And 19 after that was over and I assume after the results
20 were read, he was once again released. And then he
21 was not arrested until, I believe the testimony -
22 y'all correct me if I am wrong - about 18 months
23 later. It was a substantial time after that.

24 So I hold he was not in custody. But I also
25 hold that if, in fact, he was in custody and if it
26 was illegal, the statement was still freely and 27 voluntarily given, and there is no law enforcement
28 misconduct that would invalidate the confession.
29 So the Motion to Suppress is overruled.

1 BY MR. EVANS: Before the jury comes back in,
2 Your Honor, I know you had ruled that you were
3 going to take another expert out of order.

4 BY THE COURT: No, I didn't.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Oh, okay.

6 BY THE COURT: We are going to do it Monday.

7 BY MR. HORAN: Is he available Monday?

8 BY THE COURT: Yes. That's what he has told

10 BY MR. EVANS: Okay.

11 BY THE COURT: Let's take a break.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT
(FOLLOWING THE AFTERNOON RECESS ON NOVEMBER 29,

2007, TESTIMONY CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH ALL COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT AND THE JURY ALL PRESENT.)

BY THE COURT: Who will you have next?

BY MR. HILL: Melissa Schoene.

BY THE COURT: Melissa Schoene.

(Witness enters the courtroom.)

BY THE COURT: She has not been sworn.

BY MR. HILL: No, sir. She has not been. She didn't arrive until just a little while ago.

MELISSA SCHOENE,

upon being called to testify as a witness by the State of Mississippi, having first been duly sworn, testified as
follows, to-wit:

BY THE COURT: State your name, please, ma'am.

BY THE WITNESS: My name is Melissa Schoene. My last name is spelled S-C-H-O-E-N-E.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HILL:

Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Schoene.

A. Good afternoon.

Q. If you don't mind, we will start out with you telling the ladies and gentlemen of the jury where you reside, what you are doing now, where you are and what you are doing if you don't mind.

A. Currently, I live in Atlanta, Georgia. I teach chemistry and forensic science at Georgia Perimeter College.
Prior to that, I was employed by the Mississippi Crime
Laboratory in the capacity of a forensic scientist and crime scene analyst.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 Q. Ms. Schoene, if you will, would you tell the
2 ladies and gentlemen of the jury about your educational
3 background, please.

4 A. Sure. I earned a Bachelor's degree in criminal
5 justice from the University of Alabama and a Master's degree
6 also from the University of Alabama in the field of organic
7 chemistry.

8 Q. And would you tell us how you were employed back
9 in July of 1996?

10 A. Yes, sir. In July of 1996, I was employed as a
11 forensic scientist and crime scene analyst with the 12 Mississippi Crime Laboratory in Jackson.

13 Q. How long in July of '96, how long had you been 14 working with the crime lab?

15 A. In July of '96, I had been with the crime lab for 16 approximately five years, and prior to that, I was with the 17 Alabama Department of Forensic Science and Medical Examiners
18 Office for approximately two years.

19 Q. And what was your area of expertise in July of '96
20 at the Mississippi Crime Lab? What was your duty assignment
21 and specialty there?

22 A. I was assigned to the trace evidence section, and 23 I was also assigned to, as a member of the violent crime
24 scene response unit.

25 Q. And had you had any training and on the job type
26 training, seminars and that stuff? In addition to your 27 formal education, had you had any specific training in the 28 area of crime scene response and trace evidence? And if so,
29 would you kind of lay that out for us, please?

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1           A.    Yes, sir. My training consisted of an
2 apprenticeship type training program where I worked very
3 closely with a senior scientist in the crime laboratory,
4 somewhat on the job training. In addition to that, I was 5 required to pass a series of proficiency tests in various
6 areas of evidence collection and evidence examination. I
7 have also attended numerous seminars and workshops
8 specifically geared toward evidence documentation,
9 collection and preservation.

10           Q.    Now back in July of '96 as a member of the violent
11 crime scene response unit, had you participated in death
12 investigations before that time?

13           A.    Yes. Prior to 1996, in addition to my crime
14 scenes and death scenes worked with the Alabama Department
15 of Forensic Science, that combined with my experience with 16 the Mississippi Crime Lab, I had worked approximately 500
17 violent crime scenes.

18           Q.    Have you ever been qualified as an expert in the 19 area of forensic science and in crime scene investigations?

20           A.    Yes, sir. Numerous times.

21           Q.    Could you just give us a smattering of where, what
22 state-- courts in Mississippi, I take it?

23           A.    Yes.

24           Q.    Circuit Courts in the State of Mississippi?

25           A.    Yes, Circuit Courts in Mississippi as well as in 26 Georgia.

27           BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, at this time I would 28 tender this witness as an expert in crime scene
29 investigation and forensic science.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

BY MR. CARTER: One moment, Your Honor. No

objection.

BY THE COURT: The Court accepts her as an expert in that field.

BY MR. HILL:

Q. Okay, Ms. Schoene, would you tell us whether or not you recall receiving a request to come to Winona,
Mississippi, on July 16, 1996, to assist in an investigation
here?

A. Yes, sir. I do. It was on a Tuesday. It was before lunch time. The Director of the crime laboratory at the time had called me from my office and asked if I could respond and offer assistance to the Winona Police Department and the Mississippi Highway Patrol criminal investigators.

Q. Okay, and I took it you traveled by automobile up here from Jackson?

A. Yes.

Q. About what time did you arrive, please, ma'am?

A. I left the crime laboratory at 11:55 and arrived on scene in Winona, I believe, approximately 1:15.

Q. And would you tell us what you did first when you got here?

A. Yes. Upon arrival to this particular crime scene,
I did what is standard procedure which is speak with the investigators that are on site and that have been there. I spoke with Police Chief Johnny Hargrove briefly, and he escorted me into the Tardy Furniture store past the crime scene barrier. He had told me that, given me the number of people who had been in the crime scene at that time. Then I

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 walked through the furniture store, and he pointed out
2 various items of evidence, specifically footwear impressions
3 and casings and projectiles that they, that he had already 4 spotted.

5 Q. Okay, you talked about Chief Hargrove escorted you
6 in through the crime scene tape, and I'm going to direct
7 your attention to a -- if I can find it. Ms. Schoene, I am
8 putting a chart up on the board. Can you see that?

9 A. Yes, sir. I can.

10 Q. This is State's Exhibit 2A. Can you tell the 11 ladies and gentlemen of the jury if you recognize that store
12 front?

13 A. Yes, this is the exterior of the Tardy Furniture
14 store.

15 Q. Now you indicated that when you got there, it had 16 a crime scene barrier up?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is it, if you see in that photograph there,
19 that would be what you would refer to as crime scene
20 barrier?

21 A. The yellow crime scene tape that you may be
22 familiar with that was on the outside of the store as well
23 as on the interior of the store.

24 Q. Okay, and you remember that being up when you got
25 there?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. Also, there is a front door apparently, what 28 appears to be a front door there. Do you recall that as 29 being an entrance way into the store where you were escorted

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 in?

2 A. Yes. The store was large, and it was divided into
3 two large areas. The north side or the side to the right
4 where you see these doors was where it looked like the 5 majority of business took place. And the other side, there
6 were not front doors that accessed that, and it also
7 contained furniture, but it did not seem to be as available
8 to customers.

9 Q. What else -- you said that Chief Hargrove escorted 10 you in, and he pointed out to you some trace or physical
11 evidence?

12 A. Uh-hum.

13 Q. Did you see anything else in the store? What, if 14 any, victims, crime scene victims did you see there?

15 A. Upon my entry into the store, I could see one
16 white female at the very back of the furniture store. As I
17 proceeded onward towards the center island where the cash
18 register or the cash counter and where the business appeared
19 to be transacted, there were a series of partial bloody
20 footwear impressions, another white female lying on her
21 stomach and a black male lying on his side with his back up
22 against the counter. There was a pool of blood between 23 them. There was also another pool of blood where it
24 appeared that there was at one time a victim, but there was 25 no one there upon my arrival. So I saw three, three 26 deceased victims.

27 Q. Do you recall seeing an article of clothing at the 28 spot where you said it appeared that somebody had been?

29 A. I'm not quite sure. There was, there was a shoe,

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 and there was various other items of physical evidence, but
2 in particular, a loose item of clothing.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. I'm not, I don't recall.

5 Q. I'm going to show you another set of photographs.
6 I'm going to put this up on the board, on the easel, and you
7 may need to -- I'm not sure if you can see it from where you
8 are sitting. If you can't, let me know. I may have to turn
9 this around.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Do you mind stepping down just a little bit?

12 A. No. (Witness steps down in front of jury box.)

13 Q. Let me check and make sure.

14 A. Would you like me to tell you what I see in these?

15 Q. First of all, do you recognize those photographs?

16 A. Yes. These appear to be enlargements of crime
17 scene photographs that I took upon my arrival at Tardy
18 Furniture. This was probably a good place to start. This
19 is the counter that I had mentioned. May I turn it this way
20 where they can see?

21 Q. Feel free to turn that around.

22 A. Can y'all see that okay? Okay, sorry. This is 23 the counter that I had mentioned. This is the second female
24 victim that I had mentioned. This is the black male with 25 his, lying with his back up against the counter. This is 26 Carmen Rigby and Robert Golden. This is the pool of blood,
27 and this is the baseball cap that presumably came from the 28 fourth victim who was not present when I arrived.

29 Q. That was the article of clothing--

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1           A.     Okay, this is the article of clothing. What you
2 can see is you can actually make out a portion of the bloody
3 footwear impression right here. The picture above this,
4 which is State's Exhibit 15A, is a set of car keys that we
5 believe belonged to Carmen Rigby. They were about 6 inches
6 or so from her hand. Here is the pool of blood also.

7                     Here is another picture of Carmen Rigby with her
8 keys. You can see the reference there, and these are the 9 feet of Carmen Rigby. This is her, one of her shoes near the 10 pool of blood and the baseball cap.

11           Q.     Now you have made reference to this enlargement,
12 State's Exhibit 12A?

13           A.     Yes.

14           Q.     And you have made a reference to State's Exhibit
15 14A?

16           A.     Yes.

17           Q.     And I'm going to show you -- I'm going to let you
18 get back on the stand there.

19                     BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, this witness has 20 identified State's Exhibit 12A and 14A, and I would ask
21 that they be admitted. I don't think I did that 22 earlier. If we did, they haven't been marked, and I
23 would ask they be now marked for evidence.

24                     BY MR. DE GRUY: No objection.

25                     BY THE COURT: Okay, let them be marked.

26                     (ENLARGEMENTS OF PHOTOGRAPHS MARKED PREVIOUSLY AS 27 STATE'S EXHIBITS S-12A AND S-14A FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW
28 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

1 BY MR. HILL:

2 Q. Ms. Schoene, I'm going to hand you some additional
3 photographs and ask you to look at them. This is State's
4 Exhibit 11, State's Exhibit 12. This is State's Exhibit 25.

5 A. Would you like to keep these in order?

6 Q. It's not necessary.

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. State's Exhibit 21. This is State's Exhibit 22,
9 and I am also going to hand you State's Exhibit 24, 19, 18.
10 And that is 14; you have already identified that. I'm going
11 to hand you State's Exhibit number 17, State's Exhibit 23.
12 That is 10, State's Exhibit number 10. Do you recognize
13 what is shown in those photographs? As I handed them to you
14 and you looked at them, were you able to recognize them as 15 accurate depictions of the scene that you saw that day?

16 A. Yes. All of the photographs that you handed me
17 are true and accurate depictions of the scene as it appeared
18 in July of '96.

19 Q. Well, the reason I handed that to you, the 20 photographs that we have exhibited there, I don't think they
21 show Ms. Tardy, and I was going to ask you--

22 A. There are some here that do.

23 Q. Right. I was going to ask you about those. I'm 24 going to ask, if you will, to look at the photographs that 25 I'm putting up here for you now, and I will ask you if these 26 photographs show anybody that you were able to identify at 27 that time. And if you would describe if they show-- who 28 they show and where she is located in the store. Would you
29 tell us who those photographs are, what is depicted--

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1           A.    -- These five photographs depict Bertha Tardy.
2 She was in the back of the store. As I showed you, the
3 front doors that you walk in, if you were to walk in the 4 front door of the store, if you continued in a straight line
5 back to the back of the store, Ms. Bertha Tardy was located
6 very closely to an office that is back there. And she is 7 lying on the ground face down.

8           Q.    Okay. Now I believe you took a majority of those 9 photographs yourself, did you not?

10          A.    Yes, sir. I did.

11          Q.    Did you do any, what they call a crime scene
12 sketch or a crime scene diagram while you were there to take 13 note of the way the scene looked when you originally 14 observed it?

15          A.    Yes, sir. I did. Generally we document crime
16 scenes in three ways. We write a narrative of what we see.
17 We take photographs as you have seen, and the third and 18 final way that we document crime scenes is to draw a sketch.
19 And when we are on scene, we typically draw a fairly rough
20 sketch, the best that we can do there without using 21 templates. We draw what we see, take measurements and 22 reference evidence that is documented and collected on our
23 rough sketch, excuse me, at the crime scene. We document
24 those on the rough sketch.

25          Q.    Okay, and you said you prepared one of those?

26          A.    Yes, I did.

27          Q.    And I believe you have previously furnished us
28 with that; is that correct?

29          A.    Yes, I have.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 BY MR. HILL: Let me show this to Counsel over
2 here.

3 BY MR. HILL:

4 Q. Ms. Schoene, I'm going to show you State's Exhibit
5 39 and State's Exhibit 51. I'm going to ask you about
6 State's Exhibit 51 first. Would you look at those and tell
7 us if you recognize them and if so, how you recognize them
8 and what they are?

9 A. I do recognize them. State's Exhibit 51 is the 10 rough sketch that was prepared at the crime scene. State's 11 Exhibit number 39 is a more polished sketch that was 12 recreated once I returned to the crime laboratory.

13 Q. Okay. And are those your original drawings or 14 accurate reproductions or copies of them?

15 A. Yeah, these are photocopies of my original
16 drawings, yes.

17 Q. And are they completely accurate as if you had, as 18 when you drew them or had them drawn at that time?

19 A. Well, they are not to scale. Other than that,
20 they are an accurate representation.

21 Q. But you didn't intend them to be to scale when you
22 drew them; is that correct? I mean you just drew them to 23 refresh your memory?

24 A. That's exactly right.

25 BY MR. HILL: All right, Your Honor, this is
26 State's Exhibit--

27 Q. Tell us which one is which here?

28 A. State's Exhibit 51 is the rough sketch. State's 29 Exhibit 39 is the polished sketch.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 BY MR. HILL: We would ask that they be received
2 into evidence at this time, Your Honor.

3 BY THE COURT: Any objection?

4 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

5 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

6 (ROUGH SKETCH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT
7 S-51 FOR IDENTIFICATION AND POLISHED SKETCH PREVIOUSLY MARKED
8 AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-39 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW BOTH
9 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

10 BY MR. HILL:

11 Q. Ms. Schoene, I'm next going to hand you State's 12 Exhibit number 40 and ask you to look at that and see if you
13 recognize that, please.

14 A. Yes, I recognize this. State's Exhibit number 40
15 is the key or legend that I typed up to go with the polished
16 sketch.

17 Q. And when you say a key or a legend, that lists out
18 what you had drawn on the sketch?

19 A. Right. For example, when I drew the sketch for 20 the victims at the time, I might have numbered the victims
21 or numbered the evidence. And here I more, have a more
22 descriptive explanation of what the items of evidence are 23 typed up on this piece of paper as they correspond to the 24 sketch.

25 Q. And I also have, I'm going to put this up, I
26 believe, if that won't knock you--

27 A. -- well, we will see.

28 Q. --over. This is State's Exhibit 39A. Can you
29 tell us what 39A is, please?

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 A. State's Exhibit 39A is an enlargement of my
2 polished sketch.

3 Q. Other than just being enlarged, it's the same as
4 the one the Court just admitted?

5 A. Yes.

6 BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, we would ask that 39A be 7 received.

8 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

9 BY THE COURT: With no objection, let it be
10 admitted.

11 (ENLARGEMENT OF POLISHED SKETCH PREVIOUSLY MARKED
12 AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-39A FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED
13 IN EVIDENCE.)

14 BY MR. HILL:

15 Q. Ms. Schoene, if you don't mind, I'm going to ask
16 you if you will, and I apologize; ask you to step down one
17 more time over here to the charts.

18 A. (Witness complies.)

19 Q. I'm just going to hand you this little marker and 20 use that for a pointer if you will, if you need to.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. While you are there, we have got, we have these
23 enlargements as well. This is State's Exhibit number 40A,
24 and I have a 40B. Would you look at that, Ms. Schoene, and 25 tell us if you recognize that?

26 A. Yes. State's Exhibit 40A is an enlargement of the 27 first page of the key that goes with the polished sketch.

28 Q. Okay, and I have State's Exhibit number 40B.
29 Would you tell us what that is?

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1           A.     Yes.   State's Exhibit number 40B is the second
2 page of the two pages of the key that go with the polished
3 sketch.

4           BY MR. HILL:   And Your Honor, before I go further
5 into her testimony about the sketch and legend, I would
6 ask that State's 40A and B be received.   That is just 7 simply blow ups.

8           BY THE COURT:   Let them be admitted.

9                   (BLOWUPS OF PAGES ONE AND TWO OF STATE'S EXHIBIT
10 S-40, WHICH IS THE KEY AND LEGEND FOR THE SKETCH IN EXHIBIT
11 S-39, THAT HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE 12 NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-40A AND 13 S-40B.)

14          BY MR. HILL:

15           Q.     Ms. Schoene, I'm going to ask you and you can 16 have -- I don't know if you have a copy, but here is your 17 legend that you can hold in your hand.   I would ask you, if
18 I could, if you would just describe what this is and what it
19 shows.   You have got different numbers on it, and you have 20 got some body figures on it numbered.   Would you just kind
21 of go through that.

22           A.     You can see this okay?   Certainly; I will.   What
23 you are seeing here is the north side of Tardy Furniture
24 store.   I had said earlier that when you walk in the store,
25 the store is somewhat divided.   There is a portion on the 26 left and a portion on the right.   This is the portion on the 27 right.   This slope downward connects the two portions to one
28 another.   Now this crime scene tape here, this crime scene
29 tape barrier is the first thing that you would come to if

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 you were walking in the front door. Okay, so if you walk in
2 the front door, you will come into the crime-- you will hit
3 the crime scene tape. If you continue onward, there is 4 three partial bloody footwear impressions that I have
5 labeled A, B and C here.

6 Victim number 1 is Robert Golden. Victim number 2
7 is Carmen Rigby. Victim number 3 is Bertha Tardy. Now the 8 other numbers and symbols that you see on the sketch -- 5, 1,
9 2, 3, 4 and 5, those correspond to casings that were 10 collected, casings that ejected from some type of gun. The 11 other -- let's see. 2B, I believe 1B and 2B are projectiles
12 or bullets. The location of 1C and 2C here indicate the 13 position of projectile fragments or pieces of bullets.

14 What else you might, what I have mentioned here, if
15 you continue on back here, this open door, that was the door
16 to Bertha Tardy's office in the very back of the building.
17 And this area here was the white counter that you saw earlier
18 in the photograph. There was a purse, an open purse here in 19 the middle and various, you know, paperwork and drawers and 20 that sort of thing that were located behind the counter.

21 Q. Now you indicated that you saw some footwear
22 impressions. What is a footwear impression?

23 A. Well, a footwear impression is left on a surface.
24 You know, you have positive impressions or negative
25 impressions. This was actually a positive impression. What 26 that means is that I saw evidence of someone walking through 27 a substance, which I believed to be blood, and when they put 28 their foot in that substance, lifted it and placed it back
29 down, then they left a footwear impression. Well, this was

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 actually a partial footwear impression. None of these were
2 entire, entire impressions. What I mean by partial is it
3 might be half of a shoe impression, but I could distinctly
4 make out at least three different partial footwear
5 impressions.

6 Q. And you labeled those on your diagram?

7 A. Yes, sir. I labeled those A, B and C, with A
8 being the footwear impression that is the closest to the 9 front door, and C being the partial footwear impression that 10 is closest to the pool of blood.

11 Q. Now you have numbers I see circled 1, 2, 3, 4 and 12 5.

13 A. Uh-hum.

14 Q. Can you tell us what those represent, please?

15 A. Yeah, as I said previously, those correspond to 16 casings that were ejected from--

17 Q. --Could you tell us what is a casing?

18 A. A casing is, if you think of a cartridge or a live
19 round, a live round is something that -- the casing holds a
20 bullet. And so if you fire a gun, a casing can be 21 injected-- ejected, excuse me, ejected from the weapon and
22 the bullet or projectile is what I have labeled here, bullet
23 or projectile comes out of the barrel of the weapon.

24 Q. It may be inaccurate, but some people might call
25 those a hull?

26 A. Hull, yes. Hull.

27 Q. And you found five of those?

28 A. Yes, I did. I found five and again, they are 29 labeled here: 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 Q. Now you indicated, I believe, that you found a
2 live round or an unspent cartridge or bullet, a live bullet?

3 A. Yes, I did. And that's, I call that a cartridge
4 or a live round. It's a bullet that hasn't been fired, so
5 it has the bullet and the casing with it. That is on this 6 sketch 1A located close to Bertha -- excuse me, close to
7 Carmen Rigby.

8 Q. All right. Thank you, ma'am. You can get back on 9 the witness stand.

10 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.) If I could point
11 something else out that I forgot on this?

12 Q. Yes, ma'am.

13 A. All the evidence that you see here that is on this
14 sketch, I collected it as a part of my analysis of the crime
15 scene. So each of these pieces of evidence that I have
16 labeled on this sketch corresponds to an item of evidence
17 that I placed in a box and sealed, or in the case of the 18 footwear impressions, that I photographed. So all of the 19 evidence that you see here was collected by me and brought 20 back to the crime laboratory for analysis.

21 Q. Okay. Speaking of your work in photographing the 22 footwear impressions, I want to show you another series of 23 photographs if I may. Let me show them to Defense Counsel
24 first.

25 (Pause while Defense Counsel looks at photographs.)

26 BY MR. HILL:

27 Q. Ms. Schoene, first of all, I'm going to show you
28 two small black and white photographs. They are marked
29 State's Exhibit 45 and State's Exhibit number 46 for

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 identification. Would you look at those, tell us if you
2 recognize them, and what they are, please?

3 A. Yes. Those are both photographs that I took at 4 the crime scene after the victims had been removed. What
5 they depict are the footwear impressions from two different
6 angles of, excuse me, the partial footwear impressions that
7 are on the sketch there as A, B and C. State's Exhibit 46
8 was taken from this ramp so you, to get a reference there.
9 And State's Exhibit 45 was taken from the front of the store
10 where you can see the opening of Bertha Tardy's office in 11 the background.

12 BY MR. HILL: May we have these -- we offer them
13 and ask they be received into evidence, Your Honor.

14 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

15 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

16 (PHOTOGRAPHS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS
17 S-45 AND S-46 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW RECEIVED IN
18 EVIDENCE.)

19 BY MR. HILL:

20 Q. Ms. Schoene, these are black and white
21 photographs. Is there a reason that you took black and 22 white as opposed to a color photograph of these?

23 A. Yes, there is. Actually I took both. Color
24 photographs are used for general crime scene documentation.
25 When it is necessary to document evidence for comparison
26 purposes, we use black and white film because it's, when 27 you enlarge black and white film, there is much more
28 contrast, so you can see small defects. For example, we 29 would use black and white photography if we were going to

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 photograph footwear impressions, also bloody fingerprint
2 impressions and any other type of evidence that you can't
3 actually cut and remove and take back to the crime
4 laboratory. So black and white film is used for examination
5 quality photography.

6 Q. And I see that in State's Exhibit 45, you have got
7 these numbered markers or perhaps I should say lettered
8 markers on the floor. And what was the purpose of the white
9 markers at A, B and C?

10 A. The white markers correspond to the three 11 different partial footwear impressions that I observed
12 there.

13 BY MR. HILL: May I have these passed to the jury,
14 Your Honor?

15 BY THE COURT: Yes.

16 (State's Exhibits S-45 and S-46 were passed to the 17 jury.)

18 BY MR. HILL:

19 Q. Ms. Schoene, I'm now going to hand you a series of 20 four exhibits. They are numbered State's Exhibit 47, 48, 49
21 and 50, and I'm going to hand them to you and ask if you
22 would just take a minute to look through them, see if you
23 recognize them?

24 A. Yes. These are all enlargements of the 25 photographs that I had taken of the bloody footwear
26 impressions.

27 Q. Tell us, are they different footwear impressions,
28 all of the same one, or--

29 A. Well, this State's Exhibit 50 corresponds to, I

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 believe this is footwear impression C. And State's Exhibit
2 47 is impression A.

3 Q. And did you, is there a reason that you took --
4 you took several of these photographs; is that right?

5 A. Yes. Actually, and I did not make these
6 enlargements. These enlargements were made by Joe Andrews,
7 who actually did the footwear comparison.

8 Q. But those are photographs that you took?

9 A. Yes. Well, these are enlargements of photographs
10 that I took.

11 Q. Enlargements of photographs that you took?

12 A. Right. Right.

13 Q. Okay, and do these 48, 49-- I'm sorry; let me see
14 the numbers. 47, 48, 49 and 50, do they correspond to 46
15 and 47 that we just showed, the little back and whites that 16 we just passed to the jury?

17 A. Oh, yes. Yes, they do.

18 Q. These are enlargements of those footwear
19 impressions or some of those footwear impressions?

20 A. Those are enlargements of the same footwear
21 impressions, but those aren't enlargements of the same
22 photographs.

23 Q. Yes, ma'am. Same impressions?

24 A. Right. Yes.

25 Q. So this is, when you look at this, you can see the 26 footwear impression that you photographed in the small
27 photographs?

28 A. Right. These enlargements are used for comparison
29 purposes. This is the result of the examination quality

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 photography that I had mentioned earlier for using the black
2 and white film so the enlargements, the examiner can see
3 more of a contrast. So that is what these are. Yes, these 4 do correspond to the footwear impressions that are on that
5 sketch.

6 BY MR. HILL: May we have these received into
7 evidence, Your Honor?

8 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

9 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

10 (BLACK AND WHITE ENLARGEMENTS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS 11 STATE'S EXHIBITS S-47 THROUGH S-50 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE 12 NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

13 BY MR. HILL:

14 Q. Okay, Ms. Schoene, you also, you further indicated
15 that in addition to the footwear impressions that you
16 photographed, that you recovered some items of physical 17 evidence. And I think you said there were some casings that 18 you collected if I recall?

19 A. Right. I collected casings, projectiles and 20 fragments.

21 Q. I'm going to hand you, these are five small white
22 boxes. They are numbered for identification as State's 23 Exhibit 88, 89, 90, 91, and 92. I guess I will put them
24 there. If you would examine those, please, ma'am; see if 25 you can identify them, and we will ask you one at a time
26 about them.

27 A. Yes, I can identify each of these by my initials,
28 my handwriting, the Mississippi Crime Laboratory seal, and 29 the Mississippi Crime Laboratory case number.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 Q. Okay, and just tell us what they are, the five of
2 them as a group.

3 A. Individually?

4 Q. No, what are they? They are the five casings you
5 recovered?

6 A. Yes. These are, contained in these boxes are the 7 five casings that you see depicted on the sketch -- 1, 2, 3,
8 4, and 5. These five casings correspond to those.

9 Q. Okay. Now I suppose what I need to get you to do
10 is to tell us, is to take, say for instance, let's talk
11 about State's Exhibit number 88. I would like for you, if 12 you can, just to tell us if you would, to come over here to 13 this board, and I will hand these exhibits to you.

14 A. Okay.

15 Q. And just let you point out where you found them if 16 you would.

17 A. Sure.

18 Q. And I'm going to start with 88. I will try to do
19 them in numerical order so we don't get them confused.
20 State's Exhibit number 88.

21 A. So your State's Exhibit 88 is my, is Mississippi
22 Crime Laboratory number 25. This is casing number 1 that 23 was collected from near Robert Golden. This box is this 24 casing.

25 Q. Now did you look at those casings? Could you tell
26 by looking at it what caliber it was?

27 A. What I have written on the box is what the base of 28 the casing says, and it is CCINR .380 automatic.

29 Q. I'm going to hand you next State's Exhibit number

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 89. I ask if you can tell us what casing that is, please?

2 A. Yes. State's Exhibit 89 corresponds to crime
3 laboratory case number 26. This is casing number 2, which
4 is this casing, that was collected from near Robert Golden
5 as well.

6 Q. So you found two casings near Robert?

7 A. Yes. Well, near Robert and also the missing
8 victim here. There was a fourth victim that was already 9 gone.

10 Q. Right.

11 A. Yes. So in this general area right here, 1 and 2.

12 Q. They are actually though on your map, they are 13 actually closer to Robert?

14 A. Yes, they are.

15 Q. Thank you. That was 88 and 89. I hand you
16 State's Exhibit number 90.

17 A. State's Exhibit 90 corresponds to Mississippi
18 Crime Laboratory case number 27, and this is, this box
19 contains casing number 3, which was this casing. Casing
20 collected from near Ms. Carmen Rigby.

21 Q. Okay. State's Exhibit 91?

22 A. State's Exhibit 91 corresponds to crime laboratory
23 exhibit number 28, and it is on this sketch, casing number
24 4. That was also collected near Carmen Rigby and Bertha
25 Tardy.

26 Q. I hand you, this is State's 92.

27 A. State's Exhibit 92 corresponds to crime lab case
28 number -- I actually can't read that. It looks like 29, and 29 it, this box contains casing number 5 which was collected

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT
1 near the victim of Bertha Tardy.

2 Q. Now you referred to in your testimony about your
3 crime lab numbers. That is just the way y'all numbered them
4 when you got them into the lab; is that right?

5 A. Right. Every item of evidence that we collect and 6 submit to the crime lab receives its own exhibit number.

7 Q. So our numbers and your numbers are a little off?

8 A. Your numbers correspond to their trial, and our
9 numbers correspond to the crime laboratory.

10 Q. Okay, so you have showed us where you found all 11 those casings. Now you found some other trace evidence as 12 well; right?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And I'm going to take these up, and before you sit 15 down, if you don't mind, I will hand you some of these 16 others.

17 BY MR. HILL: I would ask at this time, Your 18 Honor, that these 5 exhibits be received into evidence,
19 the 5 casings that the witness has just testified
20 about.

21 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

22 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

23 (FIVE SHELL CASINGS IN SMALL WHITE BOXES PREVIOUSLY
24 MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-88, S-89, S-90, S-91 AND S-92
25 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW ALL RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

26 BY MR. HILL:

27 Q. Ms. Schoene, if I could ask you now about, you
28 mentioned that you recovered some projectiles?

29 A. Yes.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 Q. I'm going to hand you State's Exhibit number 83,
2 and see if you can identify that for us, please?

3 A. Yes. Your State's Exhibit 83 corresponds to crime
4 lab exhibit number 31, and this box contains projectile 1-B.

5 Q. Would you point out projectile 1-B, where that is
6 located on the chart?

7 A. It's located closest to victim Robert Golden.

8 Q. And as we can see, that is directly across from 9 Ms. Rigby.

10 A. Right. On the other side, that's correct.

11 Q. I hand you State's Exhibit 84 and ask you if you
12 recognize it, please?

13 A. Okay. Your State's Exhibit 84 corresponds to 14 crime laboratory case exhibit number 32, and what is 15 contained in this box is what is labeled as projectile 2-B.
16 It was the projectile that was collected from this position.

17 Q. Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

18 BY MR. HILL: We would ask that these two
19 projectiles be received into evidence, Your Honor.

20 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

21 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

22 (FIRED BULLET PROJECTILES LABELED AS 1-B AND 2-B
23 PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-83 AND S-84 FOR

25 BY MR. HILL:

26 Q. Ms. Schoene, I'm going to hand you a couple more
27 photographs. These are photographs -- this one is marked
28 State's Exhibit 98. This one is marked State's Exhibit 41.

29 A. Okay.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 Q. Would you just look at those and see if you
2 recognize -- do you recognize those?

3 A. Yes, I do. State's Exhibit 98 corresponds to this 4 projectile, 2-B, and State's Exhibit 41 corresponds to 5 projectile 1-B.

6 Q. We would ask--

7 A. -- I believe both of those are photographs that I
8 took.

9 BY MR. HILL: We would ask that these photographs
10 be received, Your Honor.

11 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

12 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

13 (TWO SMALL PHOTOGRAPHS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S 14 EXHIBITS S-41 AND S-98 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW BOTH
15 RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

16 BY MR. HILL:

17 Q. Ms. Schoene, I'm going to just leave this
18 photograph right there, and I'm going to put this chart
19 here. And I guess that's the way we have got it oriented.
20 State's Exhibit 41 that you just testified about while ago?

21 A. Uh-hum.

22 Q. We have this blow up. Is this an enlargement of 23 State's Exhibit 41?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And that is not exactly the same, okay. While I
26 have got this up here, State's Exhibit 28; do you recognize 27 that? Do you recall that photo?

28 A. Yes. This is a photograph of Bertha Tardy's
29 glasses. What you see here are four, excuse me, three

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 enlargements of victim Bertha Tardy, of the victim that was
2 in the back of the store. What you see here are, I believe
3 it's her glasses.

4 Q. And tell us about if you recognize the
5 photographs; I am showing you 23A, 22A, 21A, and 20A. So
6 it's 20, 21, 22 and 23, and I'm going to just see if that 7 will ride like that.

8 A. This is a photograph of Bertha Tardy's shoulder
9 and head. This is her skirt with her feet. One of her
10 shoes was partially off, and this is an orientation
11 photograph so you can see the location of her body in 12 reference to the rest of the store.

13 Q. Okay. Is that the way it looked when you saw it?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. When you were working the crime scene?

16 A. Yes.

17 BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, we would ask for the 18 introduction of State's Exhibit 20 and 20A,
19 corresponding 21, 22 and 23.

20 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

21 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

22 (PHOTO ENLARGEMENTS ON ONE LARGE BOARD PREVIOUSLY
23 MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-20A, S-21A, S-22A, AND S-23A FOR 24 IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW ALL RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

25 BY MR. HILL: Also, Your Honor, we previously
26 mentioned, this is State's Exhibit 41A. I think we 27 have already asked that it be received. It is simply 28 an enlargement of 41.

29 BY THE COURT: Let it be admitted.

BY MR. HILL:

Q. Ms. Schoene, this is State's, I believe Exhibit number 85 for identification. Could you tell us if you recognize that, please, and what it is?

A. Yes. State's Exhibit 85 is crime laboratory exhibit number 33, and this is the fragment collected near the area of Carmen Rigby. This is fragment 1-C.

Q. Would you point that out on the chart, please.

A. Right here.

Q. And so this fragment was actually found very close to Ms. Rigby?

A. Yes.

Q. I want to hand you State's Exhibit 93 and ask you what that is, please?

A. State's Exhibit 93 corresponds to crime laboratory case number 30, and this is a cartridge on this sketch that corresponds with 1-A or an unfired round.

Q. And you collected both of these?

A. Yes, I certainly did.

BY MR. HILL: We would ask that these also be marked, received into evidence, State's Exhibit 85 and 93.

BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

3 BY MR. HILL:

4 Q. Okay, there is-- I'm going to point to the middle
5 of this chart, State's Exhibit 39A, point to the middle of 6 that. Tell us what that represents, Ms. Schoene, please.

7 A. Did you want this admitted? Fragment 2-C?

8 Q. Yes, I do. I think I just overlooked that. We 9 will get to it in a minute.

10 A. Okay.

11 Q. Let's talk--

12 A. --Certainly. Here in the middle of the store,
13 again what you are looking at is the half, the top half of 14 the store. This is the counter. This is the counter that 15 was located in the center of the store where people would go
16 pay.

17 Q. Okay, and what did you say that was in the middle 18 of the counter?

19 A. Well, this is actually floor. It's a two leveled
20 counter. And what you see here in the middle is the floor,
21 and this is where people can walk in and conduct business.
22 This is the purse that had the identification belonging to
23 Carmen Rigby.

24 Q. Was that purse on a table or a counter, or was 25 it -- it looks like it's in the center?

26 A. Yeah, I believe that it was on the floor.

27 Q. Did you take some photographs of that?
28 Specifically, let me refer you to State's Exhibit 28 for
29 identification.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 A. Yes. This is the photograph that I took.

2 Q. What is it? A photograph of what?

3 A. This is a photograph of the open purse behind the
4 counter taken from the perspective, I was standing back
5 here. So if you would look at this photograph, you would
6 see this purse and then also the front of the store.

7 Q. Okay. Now again, we are talking about this center
8 aisle and where the, I call that the main desk for the point
9 of reference?

10 A. Main desk is good.

11 Q. Okay. I want to show you State's Exhibit number
12 29 and get you to look at that if you would. Tell us if you
13 recognize what is State's Exhibit 29?

14 A. State's Exhibit 29 is a color photograph of the 15 cash drawer that was behind the desk area. It's in the open
16 position. There is three paper slots in this cash drawer,
17 two of which are empty. One contains white paper.

18 Q. Okay, now when you say paper slots. Is that like
19 when you open a cash register drawer and there is currency,
20 places for different denominations?

21 A. Yes. These are the size of U.S. currency paper,
22 and there is three slots.

23 Q. All right. Now I'm going to hand you State's 24 Exhibit 28 back, and with regard, would you look at State's 25 Exhibit 28 and the cash drawer, and would you just generally
26 indicate on the diagram where that cash drawer is located?

27 A. The cash drawer is located approximately here.

28 Q. And that would be on the inside; is that right?

29 A. On the inside, yes. It's not actually -- there is

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 not a cash register per se. It's actually more of a cash
2 drawer. It's a drawer that contained cash, but on the top
3 of it there wasn't buttons. It was just the drawer.

4 Q. All right, now let me refer back to State's
5 Exhibit 29 again. You indicated that the first two slots
6 are empty?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And the third one has a white paper. Was there
9 any paper money, any currency in the cash drawer?

10 A. There was no paper currency in the drawer. There
11 were several coins in the drawer, but there was no paper
12 currency.

13 BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, we ask that State's 14 Exhibit 28 and 29 be received.

15 (Pause while Defense Counsel looks at the 16 photographs.)

17 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

18 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

19 (SMALL PHOTOGRAPHS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S

22 BY MR. HILL:

23 Q. Ms. Schoene, I believe for your convenience, I'm 24 going to let you get back on the stand for just a few
25 minutes. We have got a few more questions.

26 A. (Witness resumes witness stand.)

27 BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, I have an enlargement of 28 State's Exhibit 29, just a blowup. I would ask that it
29 be received.

BY THE COURT: Let it be admitted.

(ENLARGEMENT OF PHOTOGRAPH OF CASH DRAWER
PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-29A FOR IDENTIFICATION

BY MR. HILL:

Q. Ms. Schoene, I'm just going to refer you once again to State's Exhibit 29A, an enlargement of the cash drawer. That is a photograph that is good enough almost that you can count the change in the coin slots almost,
isn't it?

A. (Witness nods her head.)

Q. Okay, thank you, ma'am.

A. This-- okay.

Q. Go ahead.

A. I was just going to say this is the cash drawer.
These are the two slots that I referred to that were empty,
and this one just contained white paper.

Q. Next I have 28A, Ms. Schoene. I draw your attention to this, please. This is an enlargement of the inside area. I think we decided to call it the main desk.
Is that the purse that you labeled in your drawing over
here?

A. Yes, this is the purse on the floor. It contained identification for Carmen Rigby. The cash drawer is located here. This is the cash drawer. And again, this is from the back of the store toward the front of the store.

Q. And you gestured that that is the front door?

A. Yes, that is the main entrance.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

2 BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, we ask that 28A be
3 marked for evidence.

4 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

5 BY THE COURT: Let it be admitted.

6 (BLOWUP OF PHOTOGRAPH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S 7 EXHIBIT S-28A FOR IDENTIFICATION WAS NOW RECEIVED IN
8 EVIDENCE.)

9 BY MR. HILL:

10 Q. Ms. Schoene, how long were you -- just generally
11 speaking, was this a ten minute job for you to diagram,
12 photograph and collect evidence, or about how long did this 13 take you? I am being somewhat facetious. It's not a ten
14 minute job. Tell us about how long that that took you, that 15 you and your team worked there on the premises?

16 A. I arrived on the scene at 1:15. I began
17 documentation at 1:30, and then I left this crime scene at 6
18 o'clock that evening.

19 Q. In addition to working this, were you also asked
20 to process an automobile?

21 A. Not process the automobile per se, but to examine
22 a particular area of the automobile.

23 Q. Okay. I have some photographs I want to show you.
24 I want to show you these photographs right here. These are 25 the photographs that have been marked State's 99, State's
26 99, 100 and 101.

27 A. Okay.

28 Q. And I would ask if you would just look at that and 29 if you could tell us I think kind of just in general terms

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 what those photographs are, and refer to them by number if
2 you would, please.

3 A. Yes, sir. Both Polaroid photographs which are in
4 State's Exhibit 99 and 100 depict the older model brown
5 vehicle that I was asked to look at. And State's Exhibit
6 101 depicts the glove box of this vehicle.

7 Q. Okay. Who asked you -- do you recall who it was 8 that asked you to take a look at the car, or who you talked
9 to about your examination of that car?

10 A. Investigator Wayne Miller is who initiated the 11 request.

12 Q. Okay, he was with what agency?

13 A. Mississippi Highway Patrol Criminal Investigations
14 Bureau.

15 Q. Okay, did at his request you take a look at that 16 car?

17 A. Yes, sir. He had asked that as soon as I finished
18 at the furniture store, if I could come to this vehicle and 19 process the area around the glove box for latent prints.

20 Q. So you, part of your expertise as a crime scene
21 investigator and crime scene specialist, is knowing how to 22 take latent prints off of objects?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And that's what they were kind of asking you to 25 do?

26 A. Yes. He actually requested -- may I read my 27 notes--

28 Q. Yes.

29 A. --from what he requested? My notes reflect that

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 Wayne Miller requested that uh, that there was a vehicle
2 that, from which there might have been something stolen from
3 the glove box. The windows were down. The individual came
4 back out to the car and found the glove box ajar.
5 Investigator Miller requests us to process the glove box for
6 prints, for fingerprints when we finish here.

7 Q. Now what kind of car was that?

8 A. An older model brown Pontiac.

9 Q. And this particular car, I take it that you had a
10 chance to observe the car as you were walking up to it, the 11 paint job on it and all of that? Did you make any 12 description or take any notes about the condition of the 13 exterior of the car?

14 A. Yes. I arrived at the Winona Police Department at 15 6:04 to dust that portion of the vehicle. The vehicle was 16 sitting outside under a tree. The windows were rolled up.
17 It had been raining that day. The exterior of the car was 18 wet from the rain. I set out to dust the dry areas around
19 the passenger door and the glove box, the latch around the 20 glove box and the console.

21 Q. Okay. So you were going to work the interior?

22 A. A portion of the interior.

23 Q. A portion of the interior. The car was outdoors,
24 and it had been raining.

25 A. Yes.

26 Q. Were you present working the scene when it was 27 raining?

28 A. I was inside for the majority of the time. I
29 really don't know if it rained. I just know the exterior of

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 the car was wet.

2 Q. The car was wet, okay. And what about the paint
3 job on that car? Did you make any notes as to what the 4 condition -- was it two toned--

5 A. No, it was not two-toned. It was a brown vehicle,
6 just an older model, but it was brown.

7 Q. Do you recall what -- did you take in your notes
8 what make and model the car was?

9 A. Older model brown, white Pontiac-- I mean, excuse
10 me, older model brown Pontiac.

11 Q. And I don't guess you knew whose car it was, did
12 you?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. And were you able -- I guess I need to ask this.
15 Were you able to lift any latent prints?

16 A. I did dust the vehicle for latent prints, but I
17 believe that I recovered one lift card. However, the 18 surface, the surface of the interior of the vehicle was 19 somewhat old and dusty, and the vinyl was sort of a rough
20 surface. So it would have been very difficult to -- the 21 best place to get prints in that situation would have been 22 the exterior, which is very shiny and hard and glossy. But 23 I collected what I could off of the door, the latch.

24 Q. Now why did you mention the surface, the type of 25 surface? What difference does it make what kind of surface
26 it is?

27 A. Well, we all leave fingerprints on things that we
28 touch. Some of the receiving surfaces are more appropriate
29 to recover a latent print or fingerprint than others. For

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 example, if the surface is clean, if it's hard, if it's
2 non-porous like glass or plastic, those types of surfaces
3 are the most conducive to receiving fingerprints and
4 retaining fingerprints.

5 Q. And on this particular glove box, what kind of 6 surface was that?

7 A. The surface of this glove box was rigid and
8 somewhat textured. And it was an older model vehicle, so
9 portions of it were cracked, and it was also fairly dusty.
10 And it is almost impossible to collect a fingerprint off of 11 a dusty surface because when your fingers come in contact
12 with that dusty surface, what you end up doing, instead of 13 depositing your fingerprint, you pull off the dust. You
14 might notice that in the pollen season when you go outside
15 and perhaps touch your car, or you might touch some other
16 dusty surface. And this was a dusty surface, yeah.

17 Q. So that was not a good surface to try to get any 18 prints?

19 A. No, but I like to be optimistic, so I did try, but 20 I was not able to recover. I believe I might have recovered
21 a partial print, but the results were not good.

22 Q. I want to show you also State's Exhibit number 38.
23 I failed to show you this while ago when you were talking
24 about working in the store. Tell us what that is if you
25 know, please.

26 A. This is State's Exhibit 38, and it is a color
27 photograph of the safe which was in Bertha Tardy's office at 28 the back of the furniture store. And the position of the 29 door on the safe is closed. It's not locked, but it is

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 closed.

2 Q. And how do you know that it wasn't locked?

3 A. Because I could open it.

4 Q. Did you do that?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Open it?

7 BY MR. HILL: I offer State's 38.

8 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

9 BY THE COURT: Let it be admitted.

15 BY MR. HILL:

16 Q. Ms. Schoene, I'm just going to ask if you would,
17 you have already testified about State's 46 and 47, the 18 black and white photography that you did to show the 19 footwear impressions. And this is State's 45A and 46A, an 20 enlargement of those. Can you tell us simply what is back
21 in this area back here, the back?

22 A. That is the office of Bertha Tardy. That's where 23 the safe was located.

24 Q. And that's the safe that you just identified in 25 State's 38, I believe it was?

26 A. Yes. This photograph was taken of the footwear
27 impressions after the victims' bodies had been removed.

28 BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, we ask that State's 45A
29 and 46A be received.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

2 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

3 (ENLARGEMENTS OF FOOTWEAR IMPRESSIONS PREVIOUSLY
4 MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS S-45A AND S-46A FOR IDENTIFICATION
5 WERE NOW RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE.)

6 BY THE COURT: Your Honor, I ask that 99, 100 and 7 101, these are photographs of the car and the 8 photographs of the glove box; ask that they be--

9 BY MR. CARTER: Let me see those.

10 (Pause while Defense Counsel views photographs.)

11 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

12 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

13 (PHOTOGRAPHS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS
14 S-99, S-100 AND S-101 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW RECEIVED IN
15 EVIDENCE.)

16 BY MR. HILL:

17 Q. Ms. Schoene, you just testified about State's 18 Exhibit 99, 100 and 101.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. This is 99A, 100A and 101A, the blowups of the 21 car?

22 A. Uh-hum.

23 Q. Now do you see this open glove box right there?
24 Did you notice on the lid there a couple of small
25 imperfections on the lid of the glove box above the key way?

26 A. Yes. This picture depicts the state -- is that 27 okay? The state and the condition of the glove box when I
28 arrived to process this area for prints. This is where I,
29 this was where I made the lift from this vehicle. The lip

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 here of the glove box appeared to have been pried open with
2 some small cylindrical object. I'm not sure, but it does
3 appear to have been pried in that some way.

4 Q. And why did you, how did you reach that
5 conclusion, ma'am?

6 A. You can see the impression marks there, and it was 7 ajar.

8 Q. Now also this car -- this is a picture of the car
9 that you dusted, and you said that it was noted that the 10 windows were down when the officers told you, that they
11 reported the windows on the car were down?

12 A. Yes. When it was reported to them and reported
13 that I requested that I come process the car, they had said
14 that this car had been found and that the windows had been 15 down at the time. Whoever drove the car left the car window
16 down.

17 Q. Now you also said that this car was only a single 18 color. It was not a two tone car; is that correct?

19 A. Right. It was a brown Pontiac Phoenix LJ is the 20 model with the license plate that you see displayed here.

21 Q. Okay. And what, do you have an opinion about why
22 that is -- there appears to be a dark stripe there on the 23 car?

24 A. Well, it is certainly one brown, but the way that
25 this picture is taken with, you know, the curve of a car,
26 with the sun being overheard, it appears, the reflection
27 makes it almost look like there is a white stripe or 28 something there. But no, it's a mono tone brown vehicle.

29 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

8 BY MR. HILL:

9 Q. Ms. Schoene, when you, when you scouted this crime
10 scene, did you look at any possible entryways? In other
11 words, I know you went through the front door, you told us.
12 Did Tardy Furniture have any other access ways into the 13 building?

14 A. Yes. There were other doors to the building, and 15 the main entryway appeared to be that front door that came 16 to this portion of the store. Now there was a door in the 17 back of the store, the more warehouse portion that I
18 photographed from the alley way behind the building, and I
19 also photographed that same door from the inside.

20 Q. Okay. Speaking of the inside, did that door
21 appear to be secure to you?

22 A. It was most definitely. The back door -- the only
23 door that was operable was the front entryway. The back
24 door, which I am describing that I photographed from the 25 alley way, had a large wooden--

26 Q. Bar? Board?

27 A. Board, a large wooden board that latched the door
28 shut. You couldn't close it from, you could not -- you had 29 to close it and lock it from the inside.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 Q. Okay. I show you State's Exhibit 6 for
2 identification. Is that a picture of what you were just
3 talking about?

4 A. This is clearly and accurately depicts the
5 interior of the back door for the Tardy Furniture store.
6 It's State's Exhibit S-6.

7 Q. And I show you State's Exhibit S-7 inside the side
8 door. Do you recognize that photograph?

9 A. That is the other door. That is from the inside,
10 the side door.

11 BY MR. HILL: I ask that these be received. That 12 is State's 6 and 7.

13 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

14 BY THE COURT: Let them be admitted.

15 (PHOTOGRAPHS PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBITS
16 S-6 AND S-7 FOR IDENTIFICATION WERE NOW RECEIVED IN
17 EVIDENCE.)

18 BY MR. HILL:

19 Q. Now these are the last photographs, Ms. Schoene.
20 I want you to, if you will, just look at these. You have 21 mentioned that you photographed the exterior of the 22 building; is that right?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. The back, which would I guess be the alley behind
25 the building?

26 A. Uh-hum.

27 Q. I want to show you State's Exhibit 8 and 9 for 28 identification. Would you look at those and tell us if you
29 recognize them, please?

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1           A.     Yes.   State's Exhibit 8 and 9 are both photographs
2 that I took of the alley way or the exterior of Tardy
3 Furniture.   This is the back door from the outside.

4           BY MR. HILL:   I would ask that they be received as 5 well, Your Honor.

6           BY MR. CARTER:   Could I look at them?

7           BY MR. HILL:   Yes.

8           (Pause while Defense Counsel looks at exhibits.)

9           BY MR. HILL:   We offer S-8 and 9.

10          BY THE COURT:   With no objection, let them be
11 admitted.

12          BY MR. CARTER:   No objection.

13          BY MR. HILL:   And Your Honor, we may can-- if 14 Counsel has no objection, we would offer 31, 32, 33 and
15 State's Exhibit 27.

16          BY MR. CARTER:   No objection.

17          BY THE COURT:   Let them be admitted.

23          BY MR. HILL:   Your Honor, I am also going to offer
24 into evidence at this time State's Exhibit 98A and 41
25 that the witness has already testified about as 26 enlargements.   I think Counsel has no objection.

27          BY MR. CARTER:   No objection.

28          BY THE COURT:   They will be admitted.

3 BY MR. HILL:

4 Q. Ms. Schoene, I wanted to show you State's Exhibit
5 number 38A. This is the photograph that you talked to us
6 about just a minute ago about the safe in the back office I
7 believe; is that correct?

8 A. Yes. This is the safe that was closed in 9 Ms. Tardy's office at the back of the store.

10 Q. And what is this?

11 A. This is her desk area. Her seat was pushed back
12 as if maybe she had been doing paperwork. There are several 13 various neatly stacked piles of paper of various sizes and 14 sorts on top of her desk. The phone was on the hook. Her
15 adding machine, I believe, was on. And that's a clear, a
16 true and accurate representation of what I saw that day.

17 Q. Thank you, ma'am.

18 BY MR. HILL: This is 38A for identification. I
19 ask that it be received.

20 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

21 BY THE COURT: Let it be admitted.

26 BY MR. HILL:

27 Q. Ms. Schoene, I have got one other picture I would 28 just like to ask you. I'm not sure that you will recognize 29 this or not. This is State's Exhibit 95, and would you just

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 look at that for a minute, and then I will ask you about it.

2 A. I do recognize this photograph. State's Exhibit
3 95 is a color photograph showing a defect to a pillar, a
4 brick pillar that was painted white. This was near
5 Ms. Bertha Tardy's body in the back of the store.

6 Q. Could you point this out to us on the -- I don't 7 know if you can or not.

8 A. I believe it was this pillar, but I'm not certain.
9 But what this shows is a defect as if something hard and
10 fast moving hit this wall, excuse me, this pillar.

11 Q. And what is this-- we will show, we will pass this 12 to the jury in a minute if the Court allows us, but what is 13 this object right beside there?

14 A. It's a mattress wrapped in plastic.

15 Q. And the defect, is there an object pointing to 16 that defect?

17 A. There is a wooden ruler that is pointing to the 18 defect.

19 Q. And you saw that that day when you were there?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. This is State's Exhibit 95.

22 BY MR. CARTER: Let me see it.

23 BY MR. HILL: We offer it.

24 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

25 BY THE COURT: Let it be admitted.

26 (PHOTOGRAPH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT

28 BY MR. HILL:

29 Q. Ms. Schoene, when you were processing this crime

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 scene, could you tell the ladies and gentlemen of the jury
2 at that time that was, I think you testified that was July
3 the 16th, 1996, and that you worked there until about 6
4 o'clock that day?

5 A. I was at the furniture store until approximately 6
6 o'clock that evening, yes.

7 Q. Had you had any report of autopsy results? Did
8 you have a complete autopsy report at that time before you
9 left?

10 A. No, sir. I did not know what type of projectiles
11 might be in the bodies that were removed at about 3 o'clock
12 that afternoon. I did not know the autopsy results at that 13 time, and we had communicated to the officers when we left
14 to please, that they should keep the scene secure until they 15 obtained the autopsy results.

16 Q. Okay. And so you were looking for any projectiles
17 that might have been in the store, but you didn't know
18 exactly how many you were looking for?

19 A. Right. Right. We had collected five casings, but 20 four projectiles or fragments, and I wasn't sure if there --
21 there perhaps could have been one more projectile still at 22 the scene, or it could have been inside of a victim. And we 23 wouldn't know that until the autopsy results were completed.

24 Q. I take it that y'all did look around on the floors
25 and on the surfaces?

26 A. Yes, sir.

27 Q. Without finding a fifth projectile?

28 A. Right. Right.

29 BY MR. HILL: All right. Your Honor, I need just

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT

1 one more minute if I may. I think I am about to wrap
2 this up.

3 (AN ENLARGEMENT OF A PHOTOGRAPH MARKED AS STATE'S 4 EXHIBIT S-95 WAS MARKED AS STATE'S EXHIBIT S-95B FOR
5 IDENTIFICATION.)

6 BY MR. HILL:

7 Q. Ms. Schoene, I want to show you what has been 8 marked State's 95 B. This is an enlargement of the 9 photograph that you just testified about.

10 A. Uh-huh.

11 Q. All I would ask you to do, please, is just to 12 point out the defect or the nick on the brick column that 13 you were talking about so that everybody can see it.

14 A. Now this is a nick on the brick column. I don't 15 know what caused this nick, but what I can tell you from 16 observing it and what it looked like at the scene was that 17 something did hit this wall which, excuse me, the pillar
18 which caused the paint to be removed there.

19 BY MR. HILL: This is 95B, an enlargement of 95,
20 Your Honor. I ask that it be admitted.

21 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

22 BY THE COURT: Let it be admitted.

23 (ENLARGEMENT PHOTO PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S

26 BY MR. HILL: Your Honor, I failed to offer
27 State's Exhibit 40. This is the, I guess you would 28 call it a legend for the diagram that the witness
29 testified to while ago, and I simply failed to offer

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - DIRECT
1 it. I would do so now.

2 BY MR. CARTER: No objection.

3 BY THE COURT: Let it be admitted.

4 (KEY FOR SKETCH PREVIOUSLY MARKED AS STATE'S

7 BY MR. HILL: Court indulge me one minute, Your
8 Honor. I am trying to make sure before I sit down that
9 I don't leave anything undone.

10 BY THE BAILIFF: Your Honor, the juror needs a
11 break.

12 BY THE COURT: We will take a short break.

13 (Off the record briefly until the juror returned to 14 the courtroom.)

15 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Hill. You ready.

16 BY MR. HILL:

17 Q. Ms. Schoene, all of this evidence that you have 18 testified about, the casings that you recovered, the 19 projectiles, the fragments, the live rounds, all of that 20 stuff you carried back to the crime lab. Did you transport
21 it?

22 A. Yes, I carried it back with me that evening and 23 submitted it into evidence at 8:15 that night.

24 Q. Okay. Are you the one that put it in these little 25 boxes and sealed it up and everything?

26 A. Yes.

27 BY MR. HILL: Okay. I think that's it, Your 28 Honor. Tender the witness for cross.
29

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS
CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. CARTER:

Q. Okay, now with respect to this car, it certainly looks like it is two colors to me, and I could be wrong. So you are telling me--

A. -- It's one color. It's one; it's brown.

Q. That the shade or whatever is perfectly making it appear that there is a darker color underneath there?

A. That the shade is making it appear as such?

Q. Well, maybe not the shade, but what is it that is making it appear perfectly darker underneath here from here--

A. Yeah, as I said, the sun up is here, and the surface is curved, right? So what you see here is actually a reflection, and this is actually in the shade. So the true color is probably-- this is a flat portion. You know, the back part of a car is flat; it is not curved. This is probably the best representation of the color of the car.

Q. Do you have any other pictures that shows the brown color without the reflection? Did you take this picture?

A. Without seeing the small picture, I don't know if I did take that picture or not. The pictures that I took on the back have the Mississippi Crime Laboratory case number, exhibit number and my initials. And since those are enlargements, I don't know if those actually came from my photographs or somebody else's. But that is the vehicle. That is the tag number, and that is the same vehicle that I processed, and that's the glove box.

Q. Okay, thank you. Were you able to tell what

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 direction those footprints were going? Were they going
2 outside or inside the store?

3 A. Was I able to tell which direction?

4 Q. Right. The so-called bloody footprints were, what
5 direction the person who made those footprints was going.
6 Were they going inside the store or outside the store?

7 A. They were made inside the store.

8 Q. Right. But based on, I guess the ridges, the 9 characteristics, can you tell whether the person who made
10 them had come from outside the store inside the store, or 11 was leaving inside the store going outside the store?

12 A. I would imagine they came inside the store and 13 then left the store.

14 Q. Okay. The three bloody footprints, you found
15 three; is that correct?

16 A. I found three partial footwear impressions; yes,
17 sir. That's correct.

18 Q. Okay, and of those three partial footprints, are 19 you able to tell -- and I'm trying to be as clear as I can,
20 and if I'm not being clear, it's because I am not able to --
21 can you tell what direction the person who left them were 22 heading?

23 A. After they left the impression, which direction
24 they were going?

25 Q. Right.

26 A. I cannot make that determination without having 27 the shoe. The footwear impression examiner, the person who 28 examined this, could give you that information, but I can't
29 because I didn't perform those examinations.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 Q. Thank you. Did you look for fingerprints on the 2 front door?

3 A. Which front door? Oh, to the store?

4 Q. Yes.

5 A. I did not dust the business door for fingerprints,
6 no.

7 Q. And why not?

8 A. Well, that is a high traffic area. The 9 fingerprints, let's see. That area -- so many people touch
10 the entrance of a business similar to the doors that you see
11 here that people coming in and out and the door here, so
12 many people touch it that there is a high likelihood that
13 any finger-- that any impressions, the finger impressions
14 that are there or fingerprints that are there are 15 obliterated due to the presence of so many other
16 fingerprints.

17 Q. So is it customary to just rule out checking the 18 front door, that you just on instincts or training decided 19 not to?

20 A. For high traffic areas such as that, it is 21 customary not to.

22 Q. Okay. You didn't do any tests to determine
23 whether the footprints were, in fact, made by blood, did
24 you? Did you personally do it? Is that something you do?

25 A. Is what something I do? Test footwear
26 impressions?

27 Q. Yeah, to see if-- you said you believed earlier, I
28 believe, that the footprints were left; that substance is 29 blood?

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 A. Yeah, I suspected it to be blood. It was a very
2 close proximity to two large pooling areas of blood, but I
3 do not know if that is, in fact, blood.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. If I may offer one of the reasons that I did not 6 collect any of that blood for testing is that it would
7 obliterate -- as an investigator, crime scene analyst, I had
8 a fairly good idea based on what was at the scene that that 9 was indeed blood that the partial footwear impressions were 10 in. But by testing it, by taking a sample, I would have 11 obliterated those footwear impressions.

12 Q. Were all three footwear impressions of the nature
13 that they would be of some kind of value to you? Were you
14 able to get some use from all three?

15 A. Well, at the crime scene, again my task was to 16 document and collect the physical evidence that was there.
17 At the crime scene the value -- the value of those 18 particular footwear impressions or partial footwear
19 impressions are determined by the examiner at the time that 20 the evidence gets back to the crime laboratory in a much
21 more controlled environment where they could be enhanced.

22 Q. Did you ever try to get fingerprints from the 23 safe?

24 A. I did. The surface of the safe, we discussed good
25 surfaces for fingerprints. The surface of the safe was 26 fairly rough, almost like sandpaper but not quite that 27 course. I did dust the safe and the area around it and did
28 not recover any latent prints.

29 Q. Okay, you said earlier that the safe was unlocked.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 A. Yes. Well, the door was actually closed, but it
2 wasn't shut all the way, and it wasn't locked.

3 Q. And you have no idea who unlocked it, do you?

4 A. I had have no idea that it was ever even locked.

5 Q. Okay, thank you. Now did you make a list of 6 everyone who came in and out of the crime scene?

7 A. I have a list of investigators that were there
8 while I was there, yes.

9 Q. Okay. Did you receive a list from anyone of who 10 was there before you got there?

11 A. I'm not sure what you mean.

12 Q. Did anyone make a list of what persons had entered 13 the crime scene and exited the crime scene before you got 14 there and actually passed it on to you?

15 A. I believe I was the third person inside the crime
16 scene, if that's what -- Chief Hargrove was there. The 17 gentleman who discovered the bodies was there. Actually,
18 I'm incorrect about that, and also the EMT's were there.
19 And I know this because of those partial footwear
20 impressions. At the time we didn't know who those partial 21 footwear impressions belonged to. The first person on the 22 scene, Chief Hargrove, indicated that they were there when 23 he arrived. But however, I'm not one to just take 24 somebody's word for that. I want to make sure that I have 25 firsthand knowledge of everybody that was wearing shoes that
26 was there before me.

27 So as a result of that, I requested that the EMT's
28 that were on scene before I arrived return so I could look at 29 the tread pattern on their shoes. And if they were even

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 remotely similar, then I would have collected the EMT's shoes
2 into evidence. I have done that before at crime scenes.
3 It's not a popular move, but it is necessary to include or
4 exclude the EMT footwear, their footwear. I also requested
5 that the gentleman that discovered the bodies return to the 6 scene, and I drew rough sketches of his footwear impressions
7 as well in my notes, in my notes, and his footwear
8 impressions were horizontal bars. And what you see here is 9 somewhat of a, like an enlarged "M" or a Chevron pattern.

10 Q. So did you check the police officers' soles of 11 their shoes also?

12 A. I had checked, yes, sir. I had checked Chief
13 Johnny Hargrove, and to my knowledge, that is all that had 14 been in to the crime scene before I arrived.

15 Q. Now did you seek to get latent prints from the 16 window of Doyle Simpson's car?

17 A. The window was rolled-- it was reported to me that 18 the window was rolled down at the time that it was accessed.
19 So no, I did not.

20 Q. Did you attempt to get some from the counter
21 inside Tardy's where the cash box was?

22 A. Yes. Yes, I did. I dusted that entire surface
23 for latent prints. When I say dust for latent prints, you
24 may have seen this procedure done on television where we
25 take a brush, a long fiberglass brush and dust it in black
26 powder and quite literally just dust the surface. And any 27 recent latent prints, and I say recent because it has to be
28 a fairly moist, somewhat left behind. At any rate I dusted
29 the entire surface. The surface of that counter was not

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 highly polished. It was fairly scratched. It was a white
2 surface, and I did recover, collect some latent prints from 3 that area.

4 Q. Okay. And you just collect; you don't analyze or 5 do anything at the crime lab with them after that?

6 A. I do examine evidence at the crime lab, but my job
7 at that point was as a crime scene analyst, just simply just
8 to collect the evidence and get it back to a more controlled
9 environment inside the crime laboratory.

10 Q. Now when you went to -- you found Doyle Simpson's
11 car, and by the way, where did you find this car?

12 A. It was at the Winona Police Department under a 13 tree.

14 Q. And you checked the passenger door area, I believe
15 you said; is that correct?

16 A. Yes, the passenger door area. It was reported
17 that -- well, that's what I was asked to examine from the 18 investigator.

19 Q. Isn't the passenger door area a pretty common area
20 where you would find a multitude of different prints?

21 A. If the exterior of car was dry, yes, sir; it
22 probably would have been possible. But the exterior, as I
23 mentioned, was wet. It had rained, and so the rain will 24 likely obliterate any viable prints that were there. The 25 interior of the car, we did do -- the interior of this older
26 model Pontiac was -- it was cloth seats. So we can't dust
27 for prints if there is cloth seats. Also, I had mentioned
28 the dust, the dust issue. That was the majority -- that was 29 my major hurdle as far as dusting for prints in that vehicle

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 was that dusty console, and also the cracked, rather
2 textured surface of that glove box.

3 Q. Okay, now the passenger door area; I assume you
4 are talking about -- I could be wrong; correct me. You are 5 talking about like the door handle area where you open the 6 door to get in, or are you talking about some other area?

7 A. In regard to what?

8 Q. With respect to Doyle Simpson's car.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. Did you actually dust near the area where the door
11 handle is, where you open the door?

12 A. On the outside?

13 Q. On the outside; right.

14 A. Yeah, it had been raining, and so I can't. I
15 can't dust the car if it has been raining. It would have 16 washed away the fingerprints.

17 Q. I'm sorry. I understand.

18 A. Oh, that's okay. And then the interior, I did
19 attempt to get some prints from the interior but was not
20 very successful, in my opinion, based on the surface.

21 Q. Now with respect to that wall or what did you call
22 it? A column inside Tardy's.

23 A. Yeah, the defect?

24 Q. Right. Now you are not telling us you have any 25 idea when that defect was made, are you?

26 A. No, sir. That could have been there for a few
27 years. I don't have any knowledge of when that occurred,
28 and I really don't have a test that I can perform to 29 determine what caused it.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 Q. Now I just want to make sure I am sure of
2 something. Are you saying that there were three doors to
3 Tardy's Furniture store? There was a front door, a back
4 door and a side door?

5 A. And a side door, yes.

6 Q. That picture that showed the defect to that
7 column, did you take that picture?

8 A. I really again would have to look at the original
9 to make that decision. It does truly and accurately depict
10 the column that was there, but as to whether or not I took 11 that, I truly don't know. There was also other 12 investigators taking photographs after we removed the 13 bodies. So it could have been any number of the 14 investigators.

15 Q. Now did you look for fingerprints also on the cash
16 drawer? Was it the type of surface that you could possibly 17 lift prints?

18 A. Unfortunately not. The cash drawer was painted
19 gray and somewhat worn. And wood is a very porous surface,
20 and the worn wood -- highly polished wood is a good
21 receiving surface for fingerprints. You might think about 22 your dining room table, that if you clean that and you put
23 your hands on there, you get great fingerprints. But if you
24 might think of an old door, an old wooden door that does not
25 have a polished surface, you really won't leave fingerprints
26 there. And unfortunately, that was the surface; that was 27 the way that the drawer was constructed. It was wooden, and 28 it was fairly worn as well.

29 Q. Okay, are you familiar with Dr. Henry Lee?

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 A. Yes. I have a book signed by him. Yes.

2 Q. You have a book signed by him?

3 A. I certainly do.

4 Q. Have you taken classes that he taught?

5 A. I believe that I have attended a workshop where he 6 spoke.

7 Q. Okay, tell the jury who he is.

8 A. He is a criminalist.

9 Q. One of the renowned and foremost one in the 10 country; is that correct?

11 A. If you follow pop culture, yes.

12 Q. If you follow pop culture?

13 A. Uh-huh.

14 Q. Well, you lost me. What does that mean?

15 A. What does pop culture mean?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. Popular culture, watch a lot of TV.

18 Q. Oh, okay. I thought you were talking about the 19 music.

20 A. No. He might be that too; I don't know.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. He is a forensic scientist though, and he teaches
23 at a school in Connecticut.

24 Q. Now is it fair to say that documentation and 25 photographing of imprints or impressions must be done
26 properly and at an optimum or best capability?

27 A. Could you say that again? It sounds right. But I
28 don't want to agree unless I am sure.

29 Q. Okay, is it fair to say that documentation and

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 photographing--

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. -- of imprints or impressions must be done
4 properly and at optimum or best capability in order to be, I
5 guess the most accurate or reliable?

6 A. Do I agree with that statement?

7 Q. Yes.

8 A. To some extent. I have made positive
9 identifications on footwear impressions that weren't
10 collected under optimal conditions. It would be best, yes.
11 But I mean it is possible, it is possible to go, to 12 accurately perform a forensic investigation even if the 13 evidence that you have is not optimal.

14 Q. Okay. But you would say that it is critically
15 important to do so if you can, to document and photograph it
16 as perfectly as possible in order for it to have the best
17 and most reliable use?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now let me ask you a few things about -- you took 20 the pictures. You took them in black and white?

21 A. I only took, the only impressions that I took in 22 black and white were what are called examination quality
23 photographs. So the black and white photographs only
24 correspond to the suspected bloody partial footwear
25 impressions. The evidence, the general scene documentation
26 is done in color photography. And the reason that I mention
27 that we do use black and white photography in that instance
28 is because once it is enlarged, the greater contrast. If 29 you use black and white film, there is many more-- it is

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 kind of hard to fathom this, but there is many more shades
2 of gray between pure black and pure white that make
3 examination quality photography, well, to make the use of 4 black and white film necessary for examination quality
5 photography.

6 Q. Did you use a tripod?

7 A. I certainly did. I also used a scale which you
8 see in there and a detachable flash for oblique lighting
9 enhancement, the enhancing the footwear impressions using 10 different angles of oblique light.

11 Q. Did you set the camera up in a way so that the 12 film planing was parallel to the plane of the surface?

13 A. Yes. That's the only reason that we do use a
14 tripod. And the reason for that, if you can imagine, if you
15 have a flat surface, if you don't use a tripod to take
16 examination quality photographs, if you try to -- and you
17 see this on TV; it's not true. If people just stand over it
18 and click, what you are doing, once that is enlarged is what 19 you would create is a footwear impression that is severely
20 distorted. And what I mean by that, if you can picture, if 21 you are driving down the road, and you look way off down the 22 road, it looks like the road gets smaller. Right? It
23 doesn't; it's just your perception. And that's what occurs
24 if you attempt to take examination quality photographs not
25 using a tripod.

26 Q. Did you take only three pictures, or did you take
27 more?

28 A. Of the footwear impressions?

29 Q. Yeah.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1           A.    I took about two rolls of film of just those three
2 footwear impressions.

3           Q.    Did you take them from several different angles?

4           A.    No, I took --well, I took them from different
5 heights. Now again, angles is not something that's --
6 angles is not something that you can alter when you are
7 taking examination quality photographs. Remember, that's 8 the reason for the tripod. You don't want to take the 9 angle, the camera to different-- excuse me. You don't want
10 the plane of that film to be at a different angle than the 11 surface of the impression, or you will, once it is enlarged,
12 the impression will be distorted.

13          Q.    Did you use any kind of chemical or enhancement
14 reagents?

15          A.    I have used chemical enhancements in the past.
16 With footwear impressions and bloody footwear impressions
17 and fingerprints, the main chemical enhancement is amido
18 black. What that does is reacts with the protein in the 19 blood and makes that blood a lot darker. So chemical 20 enhancements would have been something that I most 21 definitely would have used if the surface was not black
22 linoleum. Since this was already black linoleum, if I had 23 enhanced it, it would actually probably have decreased the 24 effectiveness of the evidence.

25          Q.    In this case all you did was photographed them and 26 sent them to the crime lab? You didn't have any additional 27 responsibility with respect to that, did you?

28          A.    With respect to the footwear impressions?

29          Q.    Yes, ma'am.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS

1 A. No, sir. I am a certified footwear impression
2 examiner. I have had training, and I have also been court
3 qualified as a footwear impression examiner. I have 4 testified as a footwear impression examiner, but in this
5 case my role as far as regarding these footwear impressions
6 were only documentation and collection. Another examiner
7 performed the comparisons.

8 Q. Now did you tell me a few minutes ago you had a
9 list of persons you saw come in and out of the crime scene
10 area?

11 A. I have seen a list. I do not have a list in my 12 notes, but there should have been a list submitted in to --
13 there is a list.

14 Q. Okay. One moment. Did you do the diagram? Do
15 you recall whether you did the diagram of the sketches?

16 A. One of -- I supervised the diagram process, but I
17 did not actually do the diagram, draw the diagram.

18 Q. One moment. Now the damage to the glove box in 19 Mr. Simpson's car, you said it looked like pry marks?

20 A. It looked like to me to be pry marks; yes, sir.

21 Q. Now you don't have any idea when those were made,
22 do you?

23 A. Absolutely no idea.

24 Q. And you don't have any idea who made them, do you?

25 A. No.

26 Q. So it very well could have -- those pry marks
27 could have been made prior to July the 16th?

28 A. I would ask the person that owned the car. I
29 don't know.

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS
BY MR. CARTER: One moment.

(Defense Counsel confer.)

Q. Ms. Schoene, you testified earlier that you found some casings, and I think you found a live round, at least one?

A. Yeah, one live round, five casings, two projectiles, and two fragments.

Q. With respect to the casings and the live round, isn't it possible to find fingerprints on those in some situations?

A. Yes, it is. Well, it is possible to find fingerprints on those. Those were submitted to the crime laboratory and requested that they be examined for fingerprints.

Q. But you didn't examine them for fingerprints yourself?

A. No, sir. Again, my role at this crime scene was to document the evidence and collect the evidence.

Q. Would dusting them for fingerprints have done any damage?

A. Dusting them, the optimal way to develop fingerprints on casings, hard metal surfaces like that is probably to use super glue, cyanoacrylate fuming. That would be the super glue fuming to raise the fingerprints on casings. That's the way that I have done it in the past. And that is a procedure that is done in the crime laboratory under controlled conditions.

Q. Okay, so you don't do that ordinarily at the crime scene?

11/29/07 Melissa Schoene - CROSS - REDIRECT

1 A. They do it on CSI at the crime scene, but we
2 really don't. (Laughter.)

3 BY MR. CARTER: Okay.

4 BY THE COURT: Anything further, Mr. Hill?

5 BY MR. HILL: Just one question.

6 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HILL:

7 Q. Ms. Schoene, do you happen to know the examiner
8 that did look at the footwear impressions that you took back
9 to the lab and developed?

10 A. I believe that was Joe Andrews.

11 Q. Was he a certified footwear--

12 A. -- Oh, he certainly is. He is very good, yes.

13 BY MR. HILL: Nothing further, Your Honor.

14 BY THE COURT: Is she finally excused?

15 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

16 BY THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Schoene. You are
17 free to go.

18 BY THE WITNESS: I appreciate that.

19 WITNESS EXCUSED.

COURT REPORTER'S CERTIFICATE

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

COUNTY OF MONTGOMERY

I, Mrs. Linda F. Burchfield, Official Court Reporter for the Fifth Circuit Court District of the State of Mississippi, do hereby certify that to the best of my skill and ability, I have reported the proceedings had and done in the proceedings concerning the STATE OF MISSISSIPPI V. CURTIS GIOVANNI FLOWERS, presently being No. 2003-0071-CR on the docket of the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, Mississippi, and that the foregoing pages 3 through 284 contain a true, full, and correct transcript of my stenographic notes and tape taken for the two Motion to Suppress hearings held in cause number B2401-98-00960 in the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Harrison County, Mississippi, on the 6th day of January, 1999, and on the 26th day of March, 1999, and the testimony of Melissa Schoene taken during the trial of Flowers IV before a jury in Montgomery County, Mississippi, in the current cause number which resulted in a mistrial.

This is to further certify that I have this date filed the original and one copy along with one CD electronic disk of said transcript in PDF language, for inclusion in the record on appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, Mississippi, and have notified the attorneys of record, the Circuit Clerk, and the Supreme Court

1 Clerk of my actions herein.

2
3 I do further certify that my certificate annexed
4 hereto applies only to the original and certified transcript
5 and electronic disk. The undersigned assumes no
6 responsibility for the accuracy of any reproduced copies not
7 made under my control or direction.

1           (THE FOLLOWING WAS HEARD IN OPEN COURT ON SEPTEMBER 12,
2 2008, IN THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY COURTHOUSE. MR. EVANS, MR.
3 HILL, MR. CARTER, MR. DEGRUY AND THE DEFENDANT WERE PRESENT.
4 PROCEEDINGS WERE AS FOLLOWS:)

5           THE COURT: We have some motions pending in the 6 State of Mississippi versus Curtis Giovanni Flowers,
7 Cause Number 2003-0071-CR.

8           I know the defense has submitted several motions.
9 And I don't know if the State has got any. If they have,
10 I haven't gotten...

11           Are both sides ready to proceed?

12           MR. EVANS: Yes, Your Honor.

13           MR. DEGRUY: Yes, Your Honor.

14           THE COURT: Which would be the first motion?

15           I will take up the defense motions first. Which one
16 do you wish to call up first?

17           MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, do you prefer us from 18 the podium or is right --

19           THE COURT: Wherever you want to stand is fine
20 with me.

21           MR. DEGRUY: Okay. Thank you.

22           We will start with the Motion to Bar the Death
23 Penalty Based on Prosecutor Vindictiveness.

24           THE COURT: You may proceed.

25           MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, the history of the 26 case and how we got here is set forth in, in the motion.
27 I am not going to go back through that.

28           This -- quickly, prior to the fourth trial in this
29 matter, the State announced that it was not going to seek

1 the death penalty. We proceeded to trial in that case.
2 We impaneled the jury. Heard testimony.

3 During the testimony phase a state witness, Melissa
4 Schoene, who was the crime scene analyst, gave some 5 testimony that she had never given previously that was
6 inconsistent with the report she had provided 12 years
7 ago.

8 It was by the end of the trial conclusively proven
9 that Miss Schoene had given false testimony. And she 10 also -- it wasn't just limited to the issue of the color
11 of the car. And I understand this -- the Court has not 12 been on this case as long as, as we have and certainly 13 not as long as Mr. Evans has.

14 The issue of the color of the car is critical
15 because -- or actually, whether it is a two-tone car or 16 monotone car is critical, because from the beginning a
17 defense witness has identified the car, seeing the car at 18 a critical time.

19 And she maintained that that was a two-tone car,
20 which is the description in Miss Schoene's report when 21 she was there present at the car. Her testimony which 22 was -- counts in terms of expert testimony, attempting to
23 explain pictures that clearly indicate a two-tone car.

24 They -- we proceeded on. The end of the trial, it
25 was a centerpiece of our closing argument that this woman
26 came in here and lied. And the jury hung.

27 Had the jury convicted and the case been appealed,
28 there is no question that the Mississippi Supreme Court
29 would have had to have reversed this case, because this

1 is the knowing introduction of false evidence on a
2 material issue.

3 Had that been the case and Mr. Flowers lost his
4 trial, rather than a hung jury, there is no question that
5 at that point the only punishment would have been -- the 6 only crime that could be prosecuted would have been the 7 capital murder with life without parole as the maximum
8 punishment.

9 Mr. Flowers is now in the unique position because he
10 got a hung jury. So he -- to allow the death penalty at 11 this phase, at this stage, would punish him because a
12 significant number of the jurors rejected the State's 13 evidence. Had he lost, he would have clearly won on 14 appeal and never faced the death penalty. That is the 15 argument that we are making in this case.

16 It is clearly set forth again in the motion. And 17 this is obviously -- once this issue is decided, that may 18 answer many of the other motions we have pending.

19 MR. EVANS: That is about as ridiculous a
20 motion as I have ever heard.

21 Melissa Schoene was an expert on crime scene
22 identification or the testimony from the crime scene.
23 The evidence in this case -- and since this Court did not 24 sit on the other cases, I'm sure the judge would not be 25 aware of it.

26 The car that the gun was stolen out of that was used
27 to murder the four people in Tardy Furniture belonged to 28 Doyle Simpson. It was a brown or tannish -- dark,
29 tannish-looking car. There were pictures taken of that

1 car.

2 When Melissa Schoene was testifying at trial, she
3 was shown a picture of that car and specifically tried to 4 be entrapped by the defense by asking her the color of
5 the car. There has never been a question about the color
6 of the car. Doyle Simpson has testified it's his car.
7 He has testified it's a solid-color car.

8 They tried to show her a picture that because of the 9 glare of the sun made it look like a two-tone car. And 10 she testified 12 years later, looking at the picture,
11 it's a two-tone car. That wasn't an issue in question.
12 It has never been in question. The owner of the car says
13 it's one color, and we have always said it was one color.

14 So they are trying to make an issue out of nothing.
15 This case is new before the Court. It is a capital
16 murder case. There was no question. You know, defense
17 has known for a year that we intend to seek the death
18 penalty. We intend to seek the death penalty on this
19 case.

20 There is no prosecutorial misconduct there. I will
21 let him plead today if he wants to plea. I'm not trying
22 to get him the death penalty. But it is a death penalty
23 case. And if we have to go to trial on it, we intend for 24 the jury to determine what the proper punishment should 25 be.

26 MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, that is a
27 categorically false representation of the record.
28 Whether the car was monotone or two-tone has been at 29 issue since trial one. The sheriff has testified that

1           this was a monotone car in trial number three.

2           Miss Schoene wasn't entrapped into anything. She
3           was asked the questions on direct. She gave her expert
4           explanation for why a picture appeared to be two-tone
5           when, in fact, it was monotone despite the fact that in 6           her original report she said it was monotone. That 7           question was asked by the district attorney, not by the 8           defense. There was no way that she was entrapped. They 9           presented that evidence intentionally to say they always 10          knew.

11          Now, when we asked Doyle Simpson in trial number
12          four the color of the car, he said that it was two-tone
13          brown car. We have pictures before that, I believe, came 14          from Mr. Lumumba that clearly indicated the car was a
15          two-tone car.

16          But in every trial, one through four, the State
17          maintained it was one color. The State asked the 18          questions of Miss Schoene knowing she was going to 19          falsely testify, contradict her own report. That is --
20          that is the true record in this case.

21          THE COURT: I actually have tried to get myself
22          at least up to date on the facts of the case as much as 23          possible, because there are other motions pending today
24          that I felt like I needed to read.

25          So I've read the transcript of Flowers IV, and I do
26          have the testimony. And defense is correct that the 27          question about the color of the car was asked by the 28          State of Mississippi.

29          However, I think it would be totally speculative as

1 to what the Supreme Court of this state would have done
2 if this case had gotten -- if there had been a verdict in
3 this case of guilty. I don't know. It just seems like
4 it was a very minor, immaterial issue as far as her
5 testimony goes.

6 But I don't think it is anyway that you can say with 7 any total certainty that the State of Mississippi, the 8 prosecution, would have been reversed had this case gone
9 to trial. I have seen the Supreme Court a lot of times
10 hold something harmless that if I would have been sitting
11 there, I would have said was reversible. And I have seen
12 a few times when they have reversed things that I would 13 have considered to be harmless. So I can't speculate at 14 all as to what they would have done if this issue had 15 been down there in front of them.

16 I have looked at some law. I know the case of 17 Sattazahn versus Pennsylvania. It was a case that was 18 cited by the U.S. Supreme Court in 2003. In that case
19 there was a situation where defendant was tried for 20 capital murder. He was tried and convicted but the jury
21 could not agree on the death penalty.

22 Then Mr. Sattazahn appealed the conviction. The 23 conviction was reversed. Pennsylvania then sought to 24 again seek the death penalty. U.S. Supreme Court said
25 jeopardy did not attach, and therefore they could go
26 forward with seeking the death penalty again.

27 In this case there was not even a verdict on the 28 guilt phase so I do not think jeopardy has attached. And 29 I do not think that I can -- that there is any way to

1 know whether the Court -- the Supreme Court of this state
2 would have reversed this case because of this testimony
3 of Miss Schoene concerning the color of the car.

4 So I am going to deny the motion that is pending
5 that is titled Motion to Bar the Death Penalty Based on 6 Prosecutor Vindictiveness and Misconduct.

7 MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, I understand the 8 ruling of the Court, and I respect that. But just for 9 the record, I'd like to make two requests.

10 One, that the testimony from the earlier trials is 11 obviously going to be key on any appeal in this issue.
12 And at this time we would move, and certainly when we 13 issue a Notice of Appeal, if we get to that point, and 14 Designation of Record, we would so designate these. But 15 the transcripts of the testimony portion of trials one
16 through four we would like made part of this record for 17 appeal purposes.

18 THE COURT: Well, now you are going to have --
19 if you do that, you are going to have to provide the 20 clerk of this court with what you want made as a part of 21 the record. Because as far as I know, the -- I obtained 22 the transcript of the previous trial, Flowers IV, that 23 was held in November from the court reporters that were
24 here.

25 But as far as I know, those have not been filed with 26 anyone this point. So if there is something that needs
27 to be made a part of the record, then it's going to be 28 your responsibility to make sure the clerk has that,
29 because she would not have it otherwise.

1                   MR. DEGRUY: I understand, Your Honor. We will
2 tender a copy from the court reporters in Flowers IV.
3 And of course, one through three are in the clerk's
4 possession.

5                   And I would just briefly like to -- I think
6 Sattazahn has no application here because when you look
7 at the issue in Sattazahn, the State of Mississippi --
8 Pennsylvania was trying him for a death penalty offense.
9 They proceeded. They pursued the death penalty
10 throughout and simply didn't get a conviction on the
11 death penalty.

12                  Under the Ring, Apprendi paradigm capital murder
13 with the death penalty is a different offense. It is 14 additional element of aggravation that isn't in capital
15 murder life sentence. The State in our case was pursuing 16 the lesser capital murder and not the greater capital
17 murder.

18                  So in Sattazahn's case it wasn't that the State
19 elected not to. And clearly, everyone agrees had 20 Sattazahn had a jury unanimously agree he wouldn't get
21 death, then it would have been barred. In this case it
22 was never presented to the jury. Of course, it never 23 would have been had they been seeking death.

24                  The distinction between the Sattazahn situation and 25 our situation is the crime that we were proceeding on was 26 capital murder life without parole and not capital murder
27 death, which involved an extra element.

28                  THE COURT: Well, I, I understood there is a
29 difference.

1                   MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, the second motion we
2 raise is essentially a Motion in Limine. It was filed
3 prior to the last trial. And we, we agreed that it was 4 moot at that point, because the State announced that they
5 were not seeking death. The motion is the Motion to 6 Determine Admissibility of Testimony from an Expert on
7 Eyewitness Identification.

8                   As we conceded a year ago in our motion and, and the 9 law has not changed on this. Eyewitness identification
10 expert testimony has not been accepted in Mississippi.

11                  Because we are talking about the use of, of public
12 funds to potentially bring an expert witness in is the 13 reason why we filed this as an in limine motion. And we
14 simply -- what we are asking for is the Court to make a
15 ruling on whether or not expert, expert testimony on the 16 problems with eyewitness identification is admissible
17 testimony.

18                  Not whether or not -- you know, the jury ultimately 19 will decide whether or not to believe anything the expert
20 has to say, but this is -- the key witness in this case
21 will be -- there is numerous witnesses who identify Mr.
22 Flowers and have done so in past trials and will be
23 called to do so. A key witness is a man named Charles
24 "Porky" Collins, who is the key identification witness,
25 who, who claims to have seen Mr. Flowers and made -- and 26 did a photo line-up selecting Mr. Flowers outside of 27 Tardy furniture store. So he's, he's the key witness.

28                  The State we are -- the case we are relying on to 29 secure admissibility is out of the state of Tennessee.

1       Very similar facts. Tennessee changed their previous law
2       on not allowing such testimony and reversed that case and
3       said the trial judge should have allowed the testimony.

4               THE COURT: Are you seeking funds from this
5       Court to bring this witness, or are there funds you have 6       got available of your own? I was not clear on that from 7       what you were just...

8               MR. DEGRUY: We, we are not seeking funds from 9       Montgomery County from the Court to do this. We have 10      funds. But if, if a witness -- if the witness is going
11      to come and be allowed to testify and I'm spending public
12      money, it's one thing. If I'm --

13              THE COURT: Well, when you are referring to 14      public money, you --

15              MR. DEGRUY: It is state funds.

16              THE COURT: Money that has been appropriated to 17      your office.

18              MR. DEGRUY: Right. Money appropriated to us
19      specifically to hire expert witnesses. However, this is 20      a unique situation in that this witness has never -- not 21      only this witness, this expertise has never been
22      recognized in the state of Mississippi. And before I
23      spend state funds on that, I -- that is why I'm raising
24      that as an in limine matter.

25              THE COURT: Well, explain to me why as far as
26      the guilt phase of the trial, the -- it's, it's the same
27      whether the death penalty comes at the end or not,
28      whether there is a possibility. So why is it that it
29      would be necessary for this witness now, when in the

1 previous trial you withdrew that motion?

2 MR. DEGRUY: My position is it would be
3 necessary either way. However --

4 THE COURT: Well, you withdrew it last time.

5 MR. DEGRUY: The Tennessee case specifically
6 relied -- the Tennessee Supreme Court relied specifically
7 on the fact that that was a death penalty case and that
8 the heightened scrutiny, the constitutional standards
9 that apply in death penalty cases mandated the admission
10 of this evidence.

11 And, and concededly, if it were not the death
12 penalty, if it were simply a murder case in Tennessee,
13 you wouldn't be entitled to this expert. Since we are 14 asking this Court as a matter of first impression to 15 follow the Tennessee Supreme Court, we are not asking to 16 go a step beyond. And we weren't asking the Court a year
17 ago to go a step beyond the Tennessee Supreme Court. We 18 were asking to simply follow the Tennessee Supreme Court.

19 The reason we -- we, we didn't withdraw the motion.
20 We agreed it was moot, that the only law we had to 21 support it said the only reason we are doing this is 22 because it is a death penalty case.

23 THE COURT: You did withdraw your motion,
24 because I have got the transcript of that too. And the 25 Court asked are you withdrawing your motion. You said we 26 are not calling it up. Yes, we withdraw it.

27 MR. DEGRUY: We clearly have refiled it.

28 THE COURT: Well, what part of this -- I mean I
29 understand. And I've read Copeland, read it more than

1       once. But I still don't see where in Copeland it made a
2       distinction between whether it was a death penalty or
3       not. I mean as I just mentioned previous, the guilt
4       phase of the trial is the very same, whether the death
5       penalty is a possibility of possible sentence or not.

6               And I don't -- you know, I'm kind of -- this will be
7       the fifth time this case has been tried. And I'm trying 8       to understand why this witness would be helpful to the 9       fact finder, the jury, when in the previous trials, and
10      especially Flowers IV, it was something that you
11      obviously decided would not be helpful to the jury.

12             MR. DEGRUY: We absolutely didn't decide that 13      it wouldn't be helpful to the jury.

14             THE COURT: Well, you withdrew your motion.

15             MR. DEGRUY: This is where we are, Your Honor.
16      This -- I believe Copeland is based on the fact that it's 17      a death penalty case. You are telling me I am wrong in 18      that and that it would apply anyway. And that's fine.

19             It doesn't no longer matter because you've just --
20      if it is a death penalty case and Copeland clearly
21      applies, we are clearly entitled to call this expert. If 22      it's not a death penalty case and the Court believes that
23      Copeland still applies, then we get to call the expert.
24      And we will accept that ruling.

25             THE COURT: Mr. Evans.

26             MR. EVANS: May I, Your Honor?

27             THE COURT: (Nodded.)

28             MR. EVANS: Your Honor, to start with, Copeland
29      would not even apply to this case. Copeland is a case

1       where there was one eyewitness, no other testimony, no
2       other evidence. And in that case that eyewitness had
3       given conflicting statements.

4               Copeland does not stand for what the defense says.
5       And that -- the defense has failed to bring out the 6       Dotson case. That was an August of 2008 case which
7       specifically says Copeland does not require the admission
8       of the testimony of eyewitness identification expert, but
9       instead holds that such testimony is not per se
10      inadmissible. We are not asking --

11              THE COURT: Which case are you citing? Is that 12      from the Tennessee Supreme Court?

13              MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. This is Dotson v. State.
14      It's 2008 Tennessee. It is Court of Criminal Appeals of 15      Tennessee decided August 26 of 2008.

16              Your Honor, what it boils down to, there are some 17      courts in this country that will allow under proper
18      circumstances an expert to be used. Every case that I've 19      ever seen has been one where the whole case relied on one
20      witness. There has never been a case that I know of that 21      the discretion of the Court has been reversed if they 22      find it is not necessary for the jury.

23              In this case there were, as the defense admitted in 24      our previous motion, at least 18 different eyewitnesses
25      which we furnished. And in this case, in the transcript
26      of that particular motion where they withdrew it, Mr.
27      deGruy specifically states in the case of Tennessee there
28      was one eyewitness.

29              As the Court, from the various trials, there could

1 be in this case up to as many as 18 eyewitnesses, some of
2 which knew Mr. Flowers. There has never been a study or
3 any expert that I'm aware of that can say that people
4 that knew the person they were identifying could be
5 attacked through this method.

6 In this case there is corroborating evidence other
7 than this large number of eyewitnesses by many other
8 factors. You have got a confession that this defendant
9 made to an inmate in the jail. That came out at the last
10 trial. You have got gunshot residue on his hands. You
11 have got bloody shoe tracks at the house that are 12 consistent with a pair of shoes that would have come out
13 of a box that was recovered in the search from his house.
14 There is very much evidence there other than one
15 eyewitness.

16 They want to say that this expert could say that 17 cross-racial identification a jury cannot make a
18 determination. There is a specific case out of Florida
19 the Green case, cited October, 2007, where they were 20 claiming ineffective assistance. And the court in that 21 case ruled that it wouldn't have been admitted anyway
22 citing McMullen v. State.

23 What they are attempting to do is surpass the 24 ability of the jury to decide what weight and credibility
25 to give witnesses. They want their expert to be able to 26 come in and tell the jury you can't believe any of these 27 mass number of witnesses that are appearing before the
28 court.

29 Another thing that I think is very important in this

1 case, Your Honor - and I don't know if the Court has read
2 the entire transcript or not - but in this case we are
3 not talking about one person that can say they saw a
4 person at a individual place. We are talking about being
5 able to map out his path for that whole morning.

6 We have as many as eight witnesses that have
7 testified about his path from the point he left his house
8 that morning, to how he got to the car that the gun that 9 was used was stolen out of, to him standing beside the 10 car the gun was used out of, to his path going away from 11 the car that the gun was stolen out of, to going back to 12 his house. We can map the entire circle of that route.

13 We also can map the entire circle of the route from 14 him going from his house to the store, to being seen in 15 front of the store, to being seen running away from the 16 store.

17 So it would be absolutely no benefit to the jury to 18 try to put somebody on to say that a witness that sees
19 somebody can't identify them. That, to me, is the same
20 as going in in a chancery matter and saying well, just 21 because the wife or the husband walked in the bedroom and 22 saw their spouse in the bed with somebody, they can't
23 believe their eyes. If you know somebody specifically,
24 you are going to know who they are.

25 In this case, with all of the evidence that's
26 there -- and I'm not going to go through all the list,
27 because I am sure the Court is aware of them. But there
28 are numerous federal cases. There are numerous state
29 cases. None of which go along with the facts of this

1 case. In this case it would be improper for them to be
2 allowed to introduce an expert to try to surpass the duty
3 of the jury to determine what weight and credibility they
4 could give these evidence witnesses.

5 And as the Florida case specifically cited, the jury
6 is fully capable to assess witnesses' ability to perceive
7 and remember, given the assistance of cross-examination
8 and cautionary instructions. And there has been plenty
9 ability for the defense to try to attack these witnesses.
10 As this Court knows, three different juries did not
11 believe them. Three different juries convicted and gave 12 the death penalty based on these same witnesses.

13 THE COURT: Response.

14 MR. DEGRUY: Nothing further.

15 THE COURT: Well, Rule 702 of the Mississippi
16 Rules of Evidence is the rule that the Court has to look
17 at. And basically, if scientific or specialized 18 knowledge will assist trier of fact to understand the 19 evidence and determine the fact in issue, a witness
20 qualified as an expert by skill, experience, training or 21 education may testify to the form of the opinion.

22 There are certain things that must apply though.
23 The testimony is based on sufficient facts and data. The 24 testimony is the product of reliable principles and 25 methods. And the witness has applied the principles and 26 methods to the case.

27 And the Daubert case from the U.S. Supreme Court
28 gave additional five factors to look at - whether the 29 technique can be and has been tested; whether it's been

1 subject to peer review and publication; whether there is
2 high known or potential rate of error; whether there are 3 standards controlling the techniques, operation; whether 4 theory or technique enjoys general acceptance in the 5 relevant scientific community.

6 It is kind of difficult for this Court to make
7 preliminary rulings on testimony that has not been
8 proffered. Most of the cases that I have seen such as 9 the Edmonds, Tyler Edmonds case that was ruled on earlier
10 this year, the Court had the benefit of the proffered
11 testimony of the expert witness. And I do not have this.
12 So it is somewhat difficult. But I do have the benefit
13 of the transcripts of the prior trials of the testimony
14 of the witnesses that would testify.

15 In fact, I mapped out a list on my own notes.

16 James Edward Kennedy was an eyewitness that had 17 known Mr. Flowers. He saw him near Angelica on the day
18 of the murders. And the gun was stolen out of Doyle
19 Simpson's car while parked at Angelica. Catherine Snow,
20 somebody that knew Mr. Flowers, and she saw him near
21 Doyle Simpson's car when it was parked at Angelica.

22 Clemmie Fleming testified that he had known Curtis
23 Flowers all his life and saw him near the Tardy furniture
24 store on the morning of the murders. Mary Janette
25 Fleming, known Mr. Flowers for many years. She saw him
26 near the Tardy furniture store on the morning of the 27 murders. In fact, she spoke to him as they passed each
28 other on the street.

29 Patricia Hill lived next door to Mr. Flowers. So

Motion to Determine Admissibility of Testimony...

1 she had known him for a long time. She testified that
2 she saw him wearing Fila Grant Hill tennis shoes on the
3 morning of the murders. And, of course, that was 4 important, because the shoe print found at the scene of 5 the crime was found to be of that type shoe.

6 Edward Lee McChristian, known Mr. Flowers and saw
7 him near Angelica on the morning of the murders. Beneva
8 Henry knew Mr. Flowers, saw him walking toward Tardy
9 furniture store on the morning of the murders.

10 And then Porky Collins is the only person that 11 testified that did not actually know Mr. Flowers. And 12 after reading his testimony, I do not think that he made
13 an emphatic eyewitness identification. He did not make 14 an unequivocal one. He stated throughout that was 15 someone he believed to be Mr. Flowers. And he said he --
16 I believe his testimony was I'll always believe that was
17 Mr. Flowers.

18 But, you know, here we are dealing, with the 19 exception of Mr. Collins, individuals that had known Mr.
20 Flowers all of his life or had known -- not necessarily
21 all of his life, but they had known him for an extended
22 period of time. Collins was the only one that had not
23 known Mr. Flowers previously.

24 But I read the transcript, and Mr. Collins'
25 testimony will be by transcript. I understand that he 26 died somewhere -- I guess it was after Flowers II, but 27 I'm not really sure on that.

28 But I know that his prior testimony will be what
29 will be offered. And he was extensively cross-examined,

1 even into the most minute detail about issues concerning
2 what path he took driving around town that morning. He
3 stated in his testimony that he had a brief glimpse of 4 who he believed to be Mr. Flowers.

5 There was -- he was cross-examined about his ability
6 to remember things. He was cross-examined about whether 7 he had had difficulty with memory problems in the past.
8 I mean I do not think there could be a more thorough
9 cross-examination of a witness than was done with Mr.
10 Collins.

11 So I think given extensive cross-examination of Mr.
12 Collins and because all other witnesses knew Mr. Flowers
13 on sight, I do not believe an expert on witness
14 identification would assist the jury in the least bit in
15 this case.

16 I'll also note that some of the things that Mr. --
17 this witness, Dr. Neuschatz, would testify about are so
18 common sense things, such as if you are wearing a cap it
19 is harder to identify you; or if you see somebody, the 20 longer you see somebody, the more likely you are to 21 identify them, are such common sense things that that
22 certainly wouldn't assist a jury in anyway.

23 And again, I'll come back around to the idea that I
24 was questioning counsel about earlier that, you know,
25 that this wasn't important enough a witness to call when 26 it was just strictly a non-death penalty case. And so
27 I'm of the opinion the defense didn't value the testimony
28 of this witness very much or they would have sought to 29 call him in November.

Motion to Determine Admissibility of Testimony...

1 Further, though, I think aside from the fact that I
2 do not think this would assist the trier of fact, I do
3 not think all the Daubert principles have been shown to
4 the Court to apply to this testimony.

5 The defense has not offered to this Court this idea
6 that the theories the defense would testify to or the 7 area of expertise proffered are generally accepted. I do
8 not know whether the testimony has a potential or known
9 high rate of error. I do not have anything about that.
10 I do not know anything about the principles and methods
11 used to come to conclusions.

12 And basically, the witness did not apply the 13 principles and methods to the facts of this case. He 14 made broad generalizations in the document that was 15 submitted, but he did not specifically apply those 16 principles and methods to the facts of this case.

17 So for all these reasons, I do not think that this 18 witness testimony would be appropriate, and I am going to 19 deny the testimony of this witness.

20 MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, just for clarity of 21 the record, the report from Dr. Neuschatz that the Court
22 was referring to, of course, we disagree on whether or 23 not it meets the standards; however, it is a, a sworn 24 affidavit. So just as in the Edmonds case where there
25 was testimony, there is testimony in this case.

26 THE COURT: Well, I got the impression from 27 reading Edmonds that the witness had actually been
28 present in court and subject to cross-examination before
29 the witness was, was called.

1           MR. DEGRUY: That, that is correct, Your Honor,
2 but we produced testimony. The State hasn't produced
3 anything in rebuttal. Simply argued; that is not our...

4           But I, I understand the ruling of the Court, and I
5 respect it. As long as the record just needs to be
6 clear, we're -- if I am mistaken that, that I am not --
7 that I was still entitled to this expert if this was a
8 non-death penalty case then that was an error on my part
9 that would now be moot in that we both going back for it
10 at this point as if this case is, is in original motion.
11 So the fact that we withdrew is of no consequence.

12           THE COURT: Okay. What would be the next
13 motion?

14           MS. STEINER: If the Court please, the next 15 motion we would call up is our Motion to Bar the 16 Prosecution from Exercising Peremptory Strikes at all or
17 at Least From Exercising Them Against Non-White Venire
18 Members During Jury Selection or in the Alternative to 19 Bar the Seeking or Imposition of the Death Penalty in the 20 Event of Conviction. Mr. deGruy has asked that I argue
21 this, because I did the research upon which it is based.

22           We are not dealing with a case here where we are 23 looking at first impression. We are not looking at what 24 Tennessee would say or what Florida said or what some 25 federal court said. We are looking at black letter
26 Mississippi Supreme Court law that is not only black
27 letter Mississippi Supreme Court law, it is the law of 28 this particular case. And that is the decision in 29 Flowers III reversing one of the three convictions,

1 again, on shortcomings of the prosecutor not corrected by
2 the trial court.

3 I mean I have to say that it's rather bold to argue
4 that juries that convicted or entered a death sentence
5 that the Supreme Court has found prosecutorial misconduct
6 was sufficiently prejudicial that that conviction and 7 sentence was a product of that is not, I think,
8 appropriate here. And I think we are on the high ground
9 here.

10 Not only did the Supreme Court in Flowers III find
11 Batson misconduct, they found that after Judge Morgan in 12 Flowers II had already found two jurors as to whom 13 pretextual reasons had been offered and actually did not
14 permit -- and forced the seating of one of those jurors
15 specifically because of a Batson violation. And that 16 ruling apparently had no effect on the prosecution,
17 because Flowers III was ultimately reversed by the 18 Mississippi Supreme Court for that same violation.

19 And the black letter law in that case, I think it is 20 clear. And, you know, I have to say, when I got involved
21 in this case the first thing I did was read the prior 22 decisions.

23 And I was struck by the fact that the plurality
24 basically said we are very troubled by the whole pattern
25 here, not just the prima facie case. But we are 26 concerned that even some of the things we decided the 27 trial court had the discretion to rule on, if we had been
28 trial judges we might have found differently,
29 particularly abusing the information that comes out in a

1 death penalty voir dire.

2 And in the last case the patterns that so troubled
3 the Supreme Court in Flower three persisted. Every
4 single strike that the State exercised was exercised
5 against an African American juror.

6 Now, as I've set forth in some detail in the -- in
7 the motion, the luck of where the order in which people
8 were drawn really had made it improbable that unless
9 everybody in that panel who had already passed
10 qualification became disqualified that that the jury was 11 going to look pretty much what it looked racially. And I
12 don't believe -- I don't believe a Batson was even
13 imposed. Because I think it is interesting --

14 THE COURT: That is Flowers IV you are --

15 MS. STEINER: In Flowers IV. I mean it is very 16 interesting. I spent the first 25 years of my law
17 practice practicing employment discrimination law and 18 notions of, you know, there are some things that are just 19 so self-evidenced that this back and forth and pretext
20 and, and everything doesn't happen.

21 And the other thing, the other black letter law that 22 I think is the law of this case, as well as the 23 Mississippi Supreme Court, has basically said judges who 24 hear this case need to look at this history and that the 25 job of judges, and they call it a very difficult and 26 sensitive area, because, you know, proving, proving this
27 sort of thing is never pleasant or easy.

28 And they have basically said we have to put a stop
29 to this. The remedy is difficult. We are not going to

1 take extreme actions of precluding use of peremptories.
2 But they have said if this continues to be a problem and
3 I believe, Your Honor, if there is a case in which this
4 has continued to be a problem, this is the case. And
5 that this Court certainly is empowered in its ability to 6 regulate this courtroom.

7 And I think that the duty of us all as officers of 8 this court -- and, of course, you're the chief. You're 9 the person who makes the decisions when it's the 10 Fourteenth Amendment, when it's racial discrimination,
11 that our duties here are when there is a basis for 12 predicting that it is going to happen again and 13 particularly, when the death penalty is sought, because 14 it is the excuses about feelings on the death penalty and 15 apparently differential treatment of white and black
16 venire members with respect to peremptory strikes that 17 this Court has the power to and should exercise its power
18 here to restrict the State from employing peremptory
19 strikes.

20 The only statutory thing in the state of Mississippi
21 regarding peremptory strikes in capital cases is that a
22 certain number are accorded. I think the Fourteenth
23 Amendment could trump the applying that statute or not --
24 or letting him have it.

25 But even if this Court were to feel that the State
26 had to have its 12 peremptories, it could as a narrower
27 remedy say that the State simply cannot peremptorily
28 challenge African-American venire members. The State --
29 the Court has done -- in the past has done individual

1       voir dire.

2               I am understanding the Court is planning to do
3 individual voir dire prior to peremptories that can root
4 out genuine cause-based type things, particularly with 5 respect if the death penalty were permitted. And that in 6 this instance this Court can prevent misconduct that has 7 happened in the past, has happened in the past despite 8 judicial orders and findings that it has happened and 9 cautions to this very state prosecution team that they
10 shouldn't do it anymore. And it has continued doing it.
11 And I think it has to stop here.

12              And particularly with the Court's ruling that there
13 is no legal impediment to their seeking the death penalty
14 that either they need to be constrained from abusing this
15 again or the Court can then determine that the death
16 penalty is not at issue. At which point death penalty
17 voir dire won't happen.

18              We won't have the opportunity, as I think the Court
19 calls it, for pretextual and discriminatory
20 justifications. And we would therefore move under the 21 state and federal authority cited and the facts cited
22 that this case, as a remedy for the discrimination that 23 has occurred and persisted, despite judicial review, that
24 the State be precluded here from either exercising
25 peremptories or certainly from exercising peremptories
26 against persons of color, or in the alternative that the 27 death penalty be barred. And then should a Batson
28 problem arise, it can be dealt with at the time. But we 29 are bringing up pretrial, because we think it is so

1       important in the death penalty context.

2               MR. EVANS: Your Honor, it is very difficult to
3       be respectful to a response to something like that, but I
4       am going to try. To start with, as defense counsel
5       knows, there was nothing like what the Supreme Court
6       found that happened in Flowers III.

7               Part of the problem has always been that we try to 8       do things as fast as we can in this district. I think we 9       were given maybe 20 or 30 minutes after four days of voir
10      dire to go through our notes and find our reasons for our 11      strikes.

12              One juror, it's very possible that we may have 13      written a comment down on the wrong list. But as the 14      Court is aware, and apparently some people are not, we 15      don't have the luxury of spending months or years trying
16      to go through voir dire and trying to mark down exactly
17      which juror says what.

18              It is very possible that one of us may have written 19      down that a different juror said something than did. But 20      if it happened -- and I still think that that juror did
21      say that. Because if it did happen and it was a mistake,
22      not only did I have it wrong, but the Court had it wrong,
23      and the defense had it wrong, because nobody pointed that 24      out. It was only after a transcript was prepared and 25      going through the record.

26              As this Court well knows, there are comments. There
27      are gestures. There are things that jurors do that no
28      attorney is going to leave them on the stand. We had 29      jurors in this case that were making facial gestures,

1       that were doing different things that I will never leave
2       any juror that's doing that on a case.

3               Now, in this particular case there has never been
4       any attempt to strike any juror other than the ones that
5       there was a reason for. Now, are there going to be more
6       strikes by the prosecution of blacks? Possibly. But not 7       for non-racial reasons.

8               This witness -- this defendant is related, as the 9       prior voir dire showed, to probably over half of the 10      black community of Montgomery County. For that reason, I
11      don't think no matter what color, what race he is any
12      prosecutor would want to allow his relatives or friends
13      on a jury. I mean that -- I guess the defense could not 14      only argue they don't want any blacks struck off the 15      jury, but they don't want any of his family members
16      struck off the jury.

17              The whole purpose of a trial and a voir dire is to 18      attempt to get a fair jury. I know that this Court is 19      not going to allow either side to improperly strike
20      jurors. The law is clear in this state. And I, I
21      respectfully, highly disagree with the justice that wrote
22      the opinion in Flowers III.

23              I think if the Court had seen what went on in trial
24      and understood, that ruling would have been completely
25      different. But when you coldly get a record and don't 26      see what goes on, it is easy to be mistaken about what
27      happened.

28              The law is clear in this state as to what is
29      permissible, what is not. All we intend to do is follow

1 the law and use the strikes that there are reasons for.
2 And I think that because of this case, it's going to be
3 necessary to have a more thorough and more written list
4 of what the jurors say so that no error can occur from 5 any side.

6 THE COURT: Response.

7 MS. STEINER: If the Court please. I take
8 seriously that accusation of, of even discourtesy in a
9 courtroom. And I don't believe I said anything here with 10 respect to the facts of this case, with respect to jury
11 selection that have not already been determined by 12 judges. However much we may agree or disagree with their 13 determination, those are black letter law in Mississippi
14 and the law of this case.

15 THE COURT: Well, I think Flowers III was very
16 clear that the prosecutor engaged in misconduct. You
17 know, they had the transcript of what happened. I am not 18 going to speculate about what happened in that prior 19 trial, but it is clear from the opinion that the Supreme
20 Court found prosecutorial misconduct. So that is beyond
21 question, and I don't really think the prosecutor should 22 be arguing otherwise now.

23 The -- your motion, you know, eludes to the fact
24 that there was misconduct in Flowers IV. I really don't
25 believe that could have occurred. I don't believe it --
26 or let me back up and say, I think counsel that 27 representing Mr. Flowers are very capable and competent 28 counsel. And if there had been a Batson problem in 29 Flowers IV, I have no doubt whatsoever that issue would

1       have been raised to the Court.

2               So I don't think there is any way that anyone could
3       seriously argue that defense counsel would just ignore a
4       Batson problem in Flowers IV, after Flowers III had been
5       reversed on a Batson problem. So it seems the last trial
6       the prosecutor did learn their lesson about not using
7       racially -- strikes for racial reasons.

8               I want to caution the State of Mississippi at this
9       point, because you made a comment about facial
10      expressions or something like that in the jury panel. If 11      there is not something this Court can look in the record
12      and see, it is not going to be allowed to be used as a 13      strike.

14              If counsel for either side sees a witness out there
15      that they believe is being -- I mean a juror that is 16      being inattentive, that is not making eye contact, that 17      is doing things of that nature, your responsibility is to 18      come forward to this Court right then and make the Court
19      aware of it. Because if you can't read it in the record
20      and see it, then it's not going to be allowed to be as a
21      strike -- be a strike.

22              If there is a situation where, you know, somebody's
23      supposedly got a family member that's been involved, you
24      know, or convicted or something like that, if you --
25      you've got opportunity to voir dire jurors on those 26      issues. And if it's not something that I can look in the 27      record and see, it's not going to be considered to be 28      race-neutral reason. It has got to be something I can 29      see in the record.

1           So that is the limits the Court is going to place.
2           I do not think that it would be appropriate to say the 3           State cannot exercise any peremptory strikes, because
4           there are situations -- in fact, I mean, you know, I know
5           what Flowers III said. And obviously, Judge Morgan in 6           Flowers II did order that one of the black jurors be
7           placed on the panel.

8           But it's also -- obviously, a number of jurors were 9           stricken for non-racial reasons, because there were 10          very -- you know, one was one too many. But 11          nevertheless, there are valid race-neutral reasons for 12          striking jurors. And so I am not going to preclude the 13          State from having peremptory challenges. But again, I am
14          going to caution the State of Mississippi that I am going
15          to look very closely at this case.

16          You know, once a case gets reversed, even though it
17          wasn't me that was presiding at the previous trial, I
18          think any court is going to be very cautious of what 19          happened to cause reversal in the past, is going to be 20          diligent in making sure that type error does not occur
21          again.

22          So if it's not something that I can see in the 23          record that happens in the courtroom that is not called 24          to my attention then it's not going to be considered to 25          be a valid excuse. So I'm going to deny the motion. But 26          I am going to keep a watchful eye on the proceedings and 27          on the State of Mississippi's use of their challenges.

28          What's the next one?

29                 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, we would call up the

1 Motion to Preclude Death Qualification of Jurors or in
2 the Alternative to Preclude the Imposition of the Death
3 Penalty.

4 This goes less to and in particular sanctions or
5 findings of the law of the case and more to -- it is case
6 specific, it appears as the Exhibit A to this motion,
7 shows that as the Court observed in Flowers, in the 8 fourth trial, where the death penalty was not being
9 sought, a jury that was representative, was proportional
10 racially, proportional to the venire drawn, which itself
11 as observed in Flowers III was proportional to the 12 general racial makeup of the county, that we had a venire
13 that looked like the county in both III and IV. And in 14 III we didn't have a jury that looked like the county,
15 and in IV we did. And what's the difference between 16 those two cases? The difference is that there was no
17 death penalty.

18 Death qualification per se tends to do two things.
19 One, in it can -- it can whiten as it were -- or it takes 20 certain groups out of the, the pool. People with 21 religious scruples tend to be members of similar churches
22 and people without religious scruples about the death
23 penalty tend to be in different churches. That sort of 24 thing.

25 Witherspoon says that is okay. But what Lockhart
26 versus McCree says is that that's okay, but only if the 27 result and the effect of death qualification isn't to 28 exclude identifiable groups, women. Lockhart identifies 29 racial groups and those sorts of things.

1           The Mississippi Supreme Court interestingly enough
2 has added religion into a suspect category. We are no
3 longer permitted to cite religion itself as the basis for
4 a strike, neither the State or the defense. It applies
5 to both. And so I would argue that we may be in question
6 as to whether Witherspoon-type death qualification is --
7 that excludes people on the base of religion might even 8 be at issue.

9           But simply put here, I think the numbers are as 10 articulate as they can be in Exhibit A, that in Flowers
11 III where the death penalty was sought the -- in a 50, 45
12 percent African-American and 54 percent white. I did
13 double check. The population of Montgomery County is 14 still almost entirely out of those two groups, and it
15 persists with these numbers.

16           In Flowers III we ended up with 30 points difference
17 from the distribution in the actual jury. In Flowers IV
18 we were within ten points after -- even after what I have 19 argued was use of ten peremptories on, on African 20 Americans by the State. But I -- you know, we have a
21 jury where there wasn't a death qualification.

22           That is not statistically significant with divergent
23 from the venire summoned and from which it was drawn in 24 spite of the fact that this is the county where this 25 happened. There -- and probably there are numerous
26 people who are the friends or relatives, not only of Mr.
27 Flowers and his family, but also of Mrs. Tardy, Mr.
28 Golden, Mr. Stewart and Mrs. Rigby.

29           I mean that -- the fact is when a death penalty

1 wasn't being sought, we got a jury that was -- that
2 looked like what the Supreme Court told us in Flowers III
3 a jury should look like drawn from this county. And I
4 believe that either -- and that death qualification is
5 the reason that this happened.

6 And so either this Court could preclude
7 imposition -- I mean precluding imposition of the death
8 penalty may or not using death qualification to draw the 9 jury, if the death penalty is sought, is the solution to
10 the Fourteenth Amendment problem that arises, that I
11 think under Witherspoon remains good law, that in this 12 particular case the Lockhart issue that wasn't decided in 13 Lockhart about racial discrimination resulting from death
14 qualification.

15 And certainly if the jury was deciding guilt or 16 innocence should not -- it would be a Sixth and 17 Fourteenth Amendment violation for such a jury to be 18 drawn and that therefore the death penalty imposition --
19 imposition of the death penalty should be banned.

20 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't think this even 21 requires much argument. The law is clear of what
22 questions are proper. The law is clear of what the Court
23 is to do on these. I don't even see a need in arguing
24 this.

25 THE COURT: As defense counsel notes,
26 Witherspoon is still good law, and I do not feel like I
27 could overrule the U.S. Supreme Court. It works the 28 other way.

29 And so it -- you know, and I don't -- of course, I

1 didn't have the benefit of four previous trials. So I
2 don't know what questions were asked. Or let's say I
3 don't know what the race of the jurors that, that were
4 that said that they could not even consider the death
5 penalty. I've tried several death cases and I've had --
6 you know, I don't know that I've really noticed that
7 there is a great deal more of one race than another that
8 says they can't consider the death penalty.

9 But basically, Witherspoon is good law still. And I
10 don't think I have any authority to, to decide on my own
11 that it's not good law. I think the Witherspoon question
12 will be asked.

13 Also, well, in fact, we have the jury questionnaires
14 had the Witherspoon question. It also had the question
15 that defense counsel wanted about, you know, the 16 consideration of life without parole.

17 But I am going to deny the motion on death
18 qualifying based on the fact that I think Witherspoon is 19 good law still.

20 What is next?

21 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, maybe you will be 22 relieved to know this is the last one I'm going to be 23 arguing.

24 I -- earlier this week, I called the sheriff. We 25 talked about the bailiffs. And he indicated to me that 26 although I didn't know if the bailiffs went with the 27 judge or if the sheriff -- what the thing was. And he
28 did inform me that, I think, three of the jury bailiffs
29 that the sheriff has arranged to sit with this jury when

1       it's sequestered are bailiffs that have, in fact, served
2       in at -- some of them have, I think, served in all four
3       previous trials.

4               I gave the sheriff a courtesy copy of this, and he
5       is here today and can tell the Court about what, what is
6       and isn't possible. And I don't want to mischaracterize.
7       He said that he basically -- as a new sheriff has
8       basically relied on the people who have been recruited
9       before. I do not minimize the kind of sacrifice it
10      requires of the people who are going to serve as 11      bailiffs.

12              THE COURT: Why don't we, since the sheriff is 13      here, just have him come around and state on the record
14      who is going to be bailiffs.

15              MS. STEINER: That, that will --

16              THE COURT: And so, if you will. Because I --
17      obviously, I am new to this case. So you can sit on the 18      witness stand. That would probably be easier for the 19      court reporter to hear you, if you just...

20      (THE WITNESS WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

21              THE COURT: Sheriff, who have you got lined up
22      to be bailiffs on this trial?

23              THE WITNESS: I have Mary Browning and Richard 24      Whitfield, Bud Knight, Mattie Hall, Pat Haynes and Ronald 25      Bennett.

26              THE COURT: The second one. Mary Browning.
27      Richard.

28              THE WITNESS: Whitfield.

29              THE COURT: The next one.

1 THE WITNESS: Mattie Hall.

2 THE COURT: Mattie Hall. Okay. Pat.

3 THE WITNESS: Pat Haynes.

4 THE COURT: Ronald.

5 THE WITNESS: Bennett.

6 THE COURT: And what was the...

7 THE WITNESS: I am trying to think which ones I
8 left out.

9 THE COURT: The initials starts with a "B", but 10 I didn't get --

11 THE WITNESS: Bud Knight.

12 THE COURT: And of those, I am sure Miss
13 Browning, because she has been a bailiff over here longer
14 than I have been judge. I don't know these others. So
15 who served as --

16 THE WITNESS: Mary Browning. Bud Knight. And
17 Mattie Hall.

18 THE COURT: And, of course, I am sure you will 19 have bailiffs staying at night. Some of them will be 20 here for the day, and some will be at night.

21 So who are going to be the ones that will be staying
22 at night?

23 THE WITNESS: Night time will be Bud Knight and
24 Mattie Hall.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Unless y'all have got some
26 question, I just wanted it here in the record, because I
27 didn't know who the sheriff had lined up.

28 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Sheriff.

29 Yes, Your Honor. I think certainly day jury

1       bailiffs that are in the courtroom, in the public world,
2       you know, that, that I'm less concerned. Although, I
3       think the same considerations apply.

4               But certainly the night bailiffs. The jury is
5       expressly forbidden from communicating with anybody
6       except these bailiffs. And in the course of a
7       sequestration, the Supreme Court case I have cited, it
8       was a eight-day sequestration, which is more or less like
9       what we have here.

10              The relationship between the bailiffs and the jurors
11       is a very close one. It is often one of great intimacy,
12       because if something very personal happens that you might
13       just tell your spouse about that needs attention, you
14       have to go to this juror -- this bailiff and tell them.
15       It's a close relationship.

16              And this is a case where, you know, the key is that 17       this jury hear this case and decide guilt or innocence,
18       and if it comes to sentencing, sentencing on the basis
19       only of what was before it and admitted by Your Honor in 20       this case. I think that even inadvertently things that
21       might have been evidence in another case, in another
22       trial can be eluded to in ways that are of significance
23       to one of these jurors and that the possibility of 24       cross-contamination.

25              We are not suggesting there has been any affirmative
26       misconduct. I believe Mr. deGruy and Mr. Carter said
27       there was some question. I think while one of the cases
28       was on appeal, someone who had worked as a bailiff had 29       conversed in the community about the facts.

1           But no -- I'm saying this again is a move to prevent
2 things from happening. I, I don't think I read a single
3 case in Mississippi or elsewhere. I looked today at all
4 our annotations where the first thing the Court says when
5 it finds an improper contact not to be prejudicial, it --
6 but we wish it hadn't happened in the first place. And 7 we caution -- Mississippi Supreme Court has said this.
8 We caution Courts to make sure the opportunity for this
9 happening doesn't happen and that we condemn any kind of 10 potential communication of anything other than -- to a
11 juror, other than what might happen.

12           And I believe that jurors who -- the bailiffs who 13 have been familiar with other testimony and are not 14 forbidden from looking at papers -- in fact, I think they 15 have to look at papers to make sure there is nothing when
16 they pass them on to the jurors. That certainly people
17 who have had multiple exposures to this case, in multiple 18 trials, their service to this court is immeasurably
19 valuable.

20           But in this case they should not be the sole point
21 of contact with the world and the Court for jurors who 22 are trying -- we are going to have to look for jurors who 23 can promise us they can hear only what is said in this 24 courtroom. And I think it's an opportunity for even 25 inadvertent error, much less deliberate misconduct.

26           And that we would request that the sheriff look in 27 the community for -- I'm sure there are lots of people in 28 the community who, if approached, would be honored to do
29 this kind of civic duty, and could be trained in the ten

1 days on what might be expected of them. And I would
2 respectfully request that that be done with respect to
3 the jury bailiffs in this case.

4 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, as a general rule, I
5 don't care who the bailiffs are, because neither side has
6 any say in that. It is nothing that is an issue.

7 As this Court knows and all the attorneys know, this
8 Court is going to advise the jurors to start with not to 9 talk to anybody about the facts of the case. The 10 bailiffs are going to be under oath not to do that.
11 There has never been an accusation that any bailiffs have 12 talked to any jurors about the case.

13 And to me it's even -- if I had any say in it, I
14 would prefer having bailiffs that did know how to be a
15 bailiff instead of just going and getting somebody off
16 the street that might not realize how important it is not 17 to talk to the jurors. But to start with, I think that 18 is the sheriff's call. And I think that neither side has 19 any say as to who the sheriff picks.

20 And the Court is the one that controls the fact that
21 nobody - attorneys, bailiffs, witnesses or anybody else -
22 try to influence the jury improperly. And I think that 23 has always been done. I am sure it will be done in this
24 trial.

25 THE COURT: Well, I agree with the State on one
26 statement that was made. I want people around that know
27 what to do, how the process works and have been around
28 before. I will go on -- I will -- of course, the 29 bailiffs are sworn in on a capital case too. They are

1       given an oath.

2               But I will go further. When their oath is
3 administered, I will advise them that they cannot discuss
4 the facts of the case with the jury, and they cannot
5 mention to the jury a prior trial or anything about the 6 case. And the jury, obviously, is cautioned about not 7 discussing the case with anyone or among themselves, but
8 I'll also give that same caution to the bailiffs.

9               I think that that -- I don't think there is a
10 problem. This is one area where there is not a problem
11 at all. But, you know, to head off any potential
12 problem, I will certainly go on record and advise them,
13 the bailiffs, not to discuss the case with anyone and not
14 to discuss the fact that there has been previous trials.
15 And I think that will take care of any problem that might 16 arise.

17              Are there any of the other defense motions to call
18 up at this time?

19              MR. DEGRUY: Yes, Your Honor.

20              There are several motions that were litigated in 21 earlier trials that we specifically would like to bring
22 up today. Actually, I have, I think, six or seven that,
23 that we will renew for the sake of this case.

24              The first is we filed a Motion to Prohibit Victim
25 Impact Evidence. The, the argument we have and this,
26 this motion has been ruled on before. It's been -- we 27 have been ruled against on this. Flowers III, the 28 Supreme Court in Justice Cobb's concurring opinion made
29 reference to this issue; although, the case was reversed

1       for other grounds and no one else joined her.

2               The issue on the victim impact evidence is -- our,
3       our first argument is while the constitution allows it,
4       it only allows relevant evidence. And under the
5       Mississippi scheme, unless it goes to an aggravated
6       circumstance it can't be said to be relevant to anything,
7       because the only thing the State can and must prove are
8       aggravating circumstances. And so we, we are objecting
9       to it primarily on that ground.

10              The, the other, as an alternative, is the limit
11      to -- under the statute, which is one, in the past, one
12      of the grounds. We have a victim rights' statute that 13      allows victim impact statements that I request is that,
14      that statute is written in the singular. It only allows
15      for one victim representative. And we would ask, without 16      waiving our argument, that it shouldn't come in at all,
17      it's irrelevant, that we at least ask that it be limited
18      to one witness per victim.

19              MR. EVANS: Your Honor, there has never, that I
20      know of, been an issue where our Supreme Court has said
21      victim impact is not appropriate. This issue has been 22      raised numerous times.

23              Matter of fact, there was never anything that said
24      that these victims should not have been allowed to 25      testify about the impact it had on their families. That
26      is definitely relevant. Even the one justice that had a
27      problem with it, did not have a problem with the victim
28      saying how this had influenced their families.

29              There was one witness that gave an opinion as to

1        what the sentence should be, and that was what I think
2        Justice Cobb went off on.

3                Now, as far as limiting it, we have never put on, I
4        don't think, over two per victim. You know, we don't ask
5        that the defense only be able to allow to put on one
6        witness in that phase of the trial. And I think for the 7        Court to specifically try to limit the number of 8        witnesses would be unreasonable.

9                I -- we, we -- as the Court can see from the 10       previous trials, we are not going to try to parade a long
11       list of witnesses in. We are just going to try to follow
12       the statute and present just enough so that the jury can
13       see what type of impact, that is allowed by law, there
14       has been because of these four murders.

15               THE COURT: Well, the victim impact testimony
16       has been allowed by the Mississippi Supreme Court. That 17       is still the law. I am going to deny the, the motion to 18       exclude victim impact. I'm also going to deny the motion
19       to limit it to one per victim.

20               However, I will say that if testimony becomes 21       cumulative, that the defense certainly may object, if the 22       case ever gets to that point. And the Court will 23       consider that objection at the time. But I am not going
24       to rule ahead of time that the State's limited but to one
25       witness on victim impact. So I am going to deny that
26       motion.

27               MR. DEGRUY: The next motion, Your Honor, is a
28       Motion for Disclosure of Evidence to -- of the State's 29       snitch, Odell Hallmon.

1           Again, this motion was raised before the Flowers III
2 and renewed before Flowers IV. And specifically, we have
3 gotten the criminal history on Odell Hallmon. What we
4 have not gotten are jail records, pen pack, the records,
5 everything that the prison and jails -- that the numerous
6 prisons and jails he has been housed in have.

7           As well as Mr. Hallmon testified at the third trial
8 that he had been administered a polygraph exam. Of 9 course, the mention of a polygraph and admission of any 10 polygraph is inadmissible in court. However, if he took 11 one, then there are statements that he made during that 12 polygraph, and that we do believe we are entitled to.

13           THE COURT: Well, now, I -- you know, I read
14 the transcript of the previous testimony of Mr. Hallmon
15 at Flowers IV, but I -- give me more specifics about 16 exactly what it is you are asking for.

17           MR. DEGRUY: He has been housed in the 18 Department of Corrections at different facilities and in 19 jails. He claims that he was contacting the district
20 attorney at different times. He claims he was in 21 proximity to Mr. Flowers at different times.

22           There are also his, his -- questions of, of his 23 mental state. He is saying -- he has admitted that he 24 committed perjury. What we would like is all of the 25 files that the sheriffs and the Department of Corrections
26 have on this witness be given to us so we can go through
27 and see if there is, in fact, exculpatory impeachment
28 evidence in there and specifically his, his polygraph,
29 the questions and answers on the polygraph exam.

1           MR. EVANS: Your Honor, one thing that I think
2 is very important. Of course, to start with let me say
3 this. The State has given the defense everything that
4 they are entitled to on any witness. On Odell Hallmon
5 though, one thing that I think is very important, this
6 was not a state witness until the last trial. This is a
7 witness that the defense coached, that the defense went
8 to Parchman or wherever. I think he was in Greenwood.

9           They met with him on numerous occasions. They
10 worked with him. He testified as a defense witness in 11 Flowers III. He was a key defense witness in Flowers
12 III, because he tried to impeach the testimony of his 13 sister, Patricia Hallmon, by saying that she had lied and 14 was trying to take up for Curtis Flowers.

15           It was only after that that he contacted me, and he
16 told me that he had lied. He went into detail about why
17 he had lied, because this defendant had asked him to. He
18 testified. And the first trial that he testified in, I
19 may have the numbers wrong as far as the trials, I think 20 it was trial two that he testified in. It was the 21 Gulfport trial that he testified for the defense in.

22           It was brought out through questioning of the 23 defense about the polygraph. We did not bring that out.
24 In Flowers IV we specifically made sure in open court,
25 without the jury here, that the Court told him that no
26 matter what either side asked him, that could not be gone
27 into. We have tried hard to make sure that only the 28 proper questions were asked.

29           But this is a witness that was a defense witness.

1 And he has specifically testified that he did lie. Yes,
2 he committed perjury. But he committed perjury at the
3 request of the defendant.

4 And I think that is very important. I think that is
5 a key issue in this case. As a defense witness, they
6 know more about him than I did. He has been convicted.
7 He has several convictions.

8 He testified he didn't particularly like me, because 9 I had sent him to the penitentiary. All of that has been
10 furnished. Everything has been gone into. They were not 11 limited on cross-examining him. They went into all of
12 it.

13 As a matter of fact, they elicited, I think -- so
14 much has happened, it's hard to say exactly who did what.
15 But I think they were the ones that elicited from him in 16 the last trial that it was a prior defense attorney that 17 had specifically asked him to lie. All that was gone
18 into, because they brought it up. But this is their 19 witness that we have brought into court to show how the 20 defense has asked him to lie, Your Honor. And everything
21 that has ever been asked has been furnished.

22 Now, as far as some of the things they are asking,
23 there are things that I have no access to. And I think
24 the prior Court in this has ruled that it was just things
25 that were not relevant that had not -- that we did not
26 have access to and were not necessary.

27 THE COURT: What is it that -- why would you
28 need these items that you are requesting?

29 MR. DEGRUY: Because it is the only way to

Motion for Disclosure of Evidence of the State's...

1       impeach Mr. Hallmon on his, his claim of who made first
2       contact, when he talked to people, where he saw people.
3       There, there are records of this in the -- in the 4       Department of Corrections and in the various jails. And
5       the, the polygraph, we didn't even know until he blurted
6       out on the stand. And I agree it was not sought by
7       either side. We didn't even know he had been given a
8       polygraph until he claimed to have taken the polygraph.

9       And so that is -- the State has all of this
10      information that we are asking for. We can't get to it.
11      And we need to look at it to determine whether or not it
12      is of any impeachment value.

13               THE COURT: Well, has the criminal history of 14      Mr. Hallmon been provided?

15               MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, it was.

16               And Your Honor, that was a complete misstatement of 17      the facts in this case. It was furnished in discovery
18      that he had taken and failed a polygraph test. They did
19      know about that. But we had assured them we were not and 20      we will not attempt to elicit that. And we will do
21      everything humanly possible to make sure that it is not
22      done, including ask the Court to help us make sure that 23      it is not done.

24               But this is not -- this is, you know, they want to 25      say well, we need to know what cell he was in. They know
26      what cell he was in, because they went -- the defense
27      went and talked to him. They are the ones that went and 28      met with him when he was in jail. The only time I met
29      with him is after he had gotten out of jail when he came

1 to me and solicited that he wanted to make sure that we
2 knew that he had lied because they had requested him to.

3 THE COURT: As to the issue on polygraph, it's
4 apparent that you already knew about that. So I don't
5 see that there is anything more to be gained from that.
6 And polygraph -- no mention of polygraph is to be made at 7 all anyway. So absolutely -- it's, you know, that is 8 totally off limits, any mention of a polygraph.

9 I do -- apparently, you have got a criminal history
10 of him, and I don't know what more is required under the 11 rules that you be provided. So it appears to me that you
12 have got all you are entitled to.

13 Certainly, of course, on cross-examination you
14 certainly have the right to cross-examine him about why
15 he is in jail, what he has been convicted of and things
16 like that. But I don't see that there is anything more
17 the State has to provide that hasn't already been 18 provided.

19 What is the next...

20 MR. DEGRUY: Again, just for clarity, we
21 have -- we know that he took a polygraph. We don't know
22 what questions were asked and what answers were given.
23 The answers given we, we maintain are statements of his.

24 THE COURT: Is there some recorded writing or 25 is there some recording of anything that he -- statements
26 that he has given that has not been furnished?

27 MR. EVANS: I don't remember if the actual 28 questions and answers were given. And I'd like to 29 correct myself, because there have been a couple of

1 polygraphs in this case.

2 This witness that he is referring to did pass the
3 polygraph, I think. A minute ago I said it was submitted
4 that he failed it. I thought we submitted the questions
5 and answers to the defense, but that I cannot remember
6 for sure.

7 THE COURT: Well, review --

8 MR. EVANS: I have no problem with doing that
9 if we didn't, but I think we did.

10 THE COURT: Review your files. I am sure both
11 of you have very thick files in this case.

12 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have been advised
13 that we were going to submit it, but Mr. Hill stated that 14 he couldn't say whether we were able to file it.

15 I will say this. If it is available, I have no
16 problem with submitting that. Even though I don't think
17 it is relevant, because we can't go into the polygraph.
18 I think if we get into those questions, then we get into 19 the polygraph.

20 THE COURT: Well, this is a prior statement of 21 a witness though, and they would be entitled to it. So I
22 want you to search your files, and if you have got it --

23 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. If we have got it, I
24 would be glad to give it to him, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: If you don't have it, then I want
26 some notification to be made to the defense that you
27 don't have it as well. So I want them to have some 28 notice of it either way.

29 MR. EVANS: I know on this case there have been

Motion to Produce Information Gathered by the Law...

1 statements, and I think even a tape that was -- I'll look
2 back through, and we will make a record in there of
3 exactly what was furnished. I am pretty sure there was 4 even a taped interview with him that was furnished.

5 THE COURT: Just file something with the clerk
6 advising what has been provided on Mr. Hallmon. If there
7 is something that has not -- that you do not have
8 possession of, I want that noted in the filing as well.

9 MR. DEGRUY: The next motion, Your Honor, is
10 again, brief history on this case, the Motion to Produce 11 Information Gathered by the Law Enforcement Agencies on 12 Other Suspects.

13 This case -- the killings occurred in July of 1996.
14 Mr. Flowers was initially arrested in July. He was then
15 released. And we believe the law enforcement agencies,
16 both local and the state highway patrol, investigated,
17 looking for other suspects. And we, we would like all of 18 that information.

19 It goes directly to Holmes versus South Carolina,
20 third, third party guilt evidence. If they have got 21 other suspects, investigation that points to other
22 suspects, we are entitled to review that and make a
23 determination on it, whether or not it's exculpatory.

24 MR. EVANS: And we've covered that on, I think,
25 every trial, Your Honor. We have furnished them
26 everything that's there.

27 THE COURT: Have you received any --

28 MR. DEGRUY: We, we --

29 THE COURT: What have you got?

1 MR. DEGRUY: Any report about any other
2 investigation.

3 MR. EVANS: As far as I know, he was the key
4 suspect from the beginning. And everything that I'm
5 aware of pointed to him.

6 THE COURT: If the State has any information on
7 other suspects, that's to be provided. But I am taking
8 it by what is being stated here that that, that you do
9 not have any information about --

10 MR. EVANS: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: -- other suspects; is that correct?

12 MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, we have also
13 previously made a Motion for Criminal History, either
14 N.C.I.C. -- both N.C.I.C. and Mississippi Crime
15 Information Center on the State's lay witnesses. The,
16 the defense cannot access N.C.I.C. or Mississippi Crime
17 Information Center information.

18 They have numerous witnesses, lay witnesses in this 19 case. Perhaps as many as 18. We are just asking that 20 they, with the capacity to run these searches, to do so.

21 This, this matter was somewhat addressed just in the 22 last two weeks or so in the Marlon Howell post-conviction
23 case where the Court said in post-conviction Howell was 24 claiming that a general discovery request should have 25 entitled him to have the State run these searches. And 26 the Court said no, you didn't make a specific request.

27 So, so the record is clear, we are specifically
28 requesting the State to do what only the State can do.

29 MR. EVANS: They have had those for years, Your

1 Honor.

2 THE COURT: Are you asking for updated or --

3 MR. DEGRUY: Certainly. This case has gone on 4 for 12 years. What was produced in original discovery or
5 even to Mr. Lumumba would need to be updated.

6 THE COURT: If there is something that has
7 changed on prior witnesses -- or I guess it wouldn't hurt
8 to go ahead and do these again and provide them again. I
9 don't -- so if you will, State will do a new --

10 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have no problem
11 requesting it. We do not have access to N.C.I.C. We 12 have been trying -- through the attorney general's 13 office, we have been trying to get N.C.I.C.'s for the 14 D.A.'s office. It is proper now to do. They are saying
15 we can set it up, but we do not have the funds to pay for
16 it.

17 THE COURT: I believe the local sheriff's 18 office can do that.

19 MR. EVANS: We, we will request it.

20 THE COURT: So if you will do that in
21 coordination with them and provide it to the defense.

22 MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, we had in the past
23 filed a motion for the -- and I think the Court covered
24 it when we were discussing Batson. In past cases the 25 State has done investigation on certain jurors, gotten 26 information on jurors from either law enforcement sources
27 or by doing N.C.I.C. And we would ask that any evidence
28 that the State gets on this jury, on the jury panel, any 29 investigation made on particular jurors be provided to us

1 as well.

2 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this has been settled
3 several times also. The defense does not have to furnish
4 to us what they find about jurors and who they want, and
5 there is nothing in the law that says that we do. If we 6 find a reason that a juror should not sit, then we have 7 an obligation to bring it to the Court's attention if we
8 want that juror struck. There is absolutely nothing in 9 the law that says our work product has to be provided to 10 the defense.

11 THE COURT: I agree with the State on this. I
12 would -- I would assume that both of you have probably 13 looked over the jury list and tried to find out as much
14 as you can about the potential venire. But this is not 15 something that is required to be provided in discovery.

16 And I will say if the State attempts to strike
17 someone based on some criminal violation or something
18 they are -- or something of that point, trying to show a
19 race-neutral reason, that the State is going to be 20 required to show proof to this Court of that. But as far
21 as providing information that the State may have on 22 potential jurors, that is certainly work product.

23 It is -- in fact, I guess under the reciprocal
24 discovery, if the State provided it to the defense, the 25 defense would have to provide any information on jurors
26 to the State. And I don't think that is appropriate. So
27 that one is denied.

28 MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, the final motion we 29 would renew, prior to the third trial we moved based on

1 speedy trial grounds to prohibit the prosecution in the 2 cases involving Miss Rigby and Mr. Golden because they
3 were not -- the State in Flowers I sought -- prosecuted
4 only the case of Miss Tardy. In II, only Mr. Stewart.
5 The argument then and we are renewing the argument now,
6 the State chose not to prosecute for eight years the 7 cases involving Mr. Golden and Miss Rigby and that under 8 speedy trial and due process rights that today the 9 prosecution of those cases should be prohibited.

10 MR. EVANS: All of these issues have been
11 argued and raised several times, Your Honor. I don't see
12 any need in trying to go back through them.

13 THE COURT: I do not see there to be speedy
14 trial violations on those issues. It was my 15 understanding based on what I know about the -- about the 16 proceedings, Flowers I was -- I'm not sure who the victim
17 was, but I know that originally the State had indicted
18 four separate indictments. And it's my understanding
19 that there was a -- basically two were tried, and they
20 were waiting on decisions from the Supreme Court before
21 others were tried. So I certainly think any delay was a
22 reasonable delay.

23 Also, I don't see how there is going to be any 24 possibility of prejudice to the defendant on speedy trial
25 issue, because all four murders occurred at the same
26 time. So, you know, whether he is convicted of one or 27 four murders, ultimately, you know, if he is convicted of 28 one and gets the death penalty or convicted of all four 29 and gets it or if he is convicted of all four and does

1 not receive it, there is still no -- consequences of one
2 conviction or four convictions would be the same.

3 But I do not see there to be any valid speedy trial
4 issues. I am certain if there had been, the Supreme
5 Court would have so found in the appeal in Flowers III.
6 But in Flowers III all they found was a violation of 7 Batson, except for Justice Cobb, who I really, after 8 reading, never quite figured out what her concern was 9 passed Batson.

10 Is that all from --

11 MR. DEGRUY: That, that is, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: And I don't know. I want --
13 because I had prepared this list, and I don't know how it
14 was dealt with in the past. But I have gone back and 15 tried to see who was on the petit juries and also, the 16 venire on previous cases.

17 Sheriff, if you will hand these to counsel. At 18 least I think it is worthy of discussion on the record.
19 I don't know exactly...

20 The first group are people that actually served as 21 jurors, actually sat on the jury. And I would assume 22 that y'all can agree that maybe the clerk needs to 23 contact these people ahead of time.

24 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. I agree that ones that 25 have served on prior juries should not even appear.

26 THE COURT: Does --

27 MR. DEGRUY: Yes. Yes, Your Honor. We agree
28 with that.

29 THE COURT: And I don't -- do not know how it

1 was handled on people that were on previous venires that
2 went through voir dire but did not serve. I've got those
3 people's names here, but I do not know how that was
4 handled. And I do not ordinarily -- obviously, in most
5 cases if you were retrying a case you would not want
6 anybody on the jury panel to have any knowledge of a
7 prior trial. But in this instance I don't think there is 8 going to be very many people probably that are not aware
9 of previous trials. So I don't know exactly how, how
10 this should be handled, and I'm open to hear both sides.

11 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, before we get to that,
12 may I bring something to the Court's attention?

13 THE COURT: You may.

14 MR. EVANS: There is another prospective juror
15 on here, Sherry Welch. And I don't know that it's going 16 to appear. That is why I want to make sure the Court is 17 aware of it. She was not on one of the jury panels, but 18 she was on the grand jury that indicted this defendant.
19 And just as much as the ones that have actually served on
20 juries, I don't think she can properly serve on this jury
21 either since she was on the grand jury that indicted him.

22 THE COURT: I would assume --

23 MR. DEGRUY: We would agree. Yes.

24 THE COURT: -- you would agree with that.

25 I'll have the clerk contact E.C. Gary, Elsie Rebecca
26 Holifield, Tracie Moore, Patricia Ann Tierce, Larry Wood
27 and Sherry Welch and advise them that they do not have to 28 appear on, on that date -- on September 22.

29 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I'm sorry. I need to

1 correct. Instead of Peggy Welch, she was a juror on the
2 last one. The juror that needs to be struck that was on
3 the grand jury is Peggy Gooch. She was on the grand
4 jury.

5 THE COURT: What was the name again?

6 MR. EVANS: Peggy Gooch. What we probably need
7 to do is pull a list of the grand jury from that case
8 just to make sure that there is nobody else on it.

9 MR. CARTER: How do you spell the last name,
10 Doug?

11 MR. EVANS: G-o-o-c-h.

12 THE COURT: Now, this Welch. What was -- was 13 that just --

14 MR. DEGRUY: Welch did serve on the jury. I
15 think she was called --

16 MR. EVANS: But I don't think she is on this --

17 MR. DEGRUY: She is not on this panel.

18 THE COURT: Okay. She is not on the list then.

19 MR. DEGRUY: She is not on the list.

20 THE COURT: So Peggy Gooch then was the name.
21 So I will have the clerk contact her as well.

22 Now, how are -- I mean I don't know if prior venire
23 members that were not selected, I don't know -- I'm 24 certain there were probably in Flowers IV some that had 25 been voir dired that appeared, but I do not know how that 26 was handled. As I say, I want to hear input on whether 27 these should be reporting or not.

28 And incidentally, and I was not clear on this
29 either. I know there was some -- an additional 100 group

1 was called after. I don't know how many were pulled to
2 start with. And I do not know if that last group of 100
3 that served in Flowers IV were ever voir dired or not.

4 So what, what -- see, I have got a list here from 5 the clerk that advises the first 500 that were pulled in 6 November. And then there was an additional 100 that was 7 pulled sometime maybe the week of trial. And it was my 8 understanding that they were not necessary.

9 MR. EVANS: I think they were just pulled out
10 of precaution, Your Honor. I don't remember voir diring
11 any of those, but I can't say for absolute sure on that 12 right now.

13 MR. DEGRUY: I don't remember. I remember it
14 was -- I think we were talking about like Wednesday night
15 we were running out of jurors and the sheriff went out to 16 round up another 100. I can't tell you for sure whether 17 or not we got to that, that panel or not.

18 MR. EVANS: I don't think we did. I think we 19 ended up having enough, but we can probably go back and 20 look at some notes and find out for sure.

21 THE COURT: At any rate, how do y'all want
22 these jurors handled that were on previous venires but 23 did not actually serve on the jury? Do you want them
24 part of the group?

25 MR. DEGRUY: Yes, Your Honor. I think they
26 should be part of the group. We can question them
27 individually whether the -- just being voir dired would 28 have any effect on, on them. I think the problems with 29 the jurors who have actually heard evidence --

In Open Court

1 THE COURT: Well, I definitely agree on --

2 MR. DEGRUY: They obviously have to go. But I
3 think these jurors -- and there is a considerable number
4 of them. I think if they have a particular problem, we
5 can take it up at that point. But I, I think -- I don't 6 think it would be proper to excuse them just because they
7 had been impaneled.

8 THE COURT: As I say, my concern, you know, in 9 most instances would be if somebody sat through a voir
10 dire of one trial and then next time they were sitting
11 through the voir dire again, they would have known a
12 previous trial took place. But I assume here that there
13 is not going to be many people who don't know about
14 previous trials.

15 MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, I think even back in 16 2004, there were -- I don't know that there was more than 17 one or two people who packed into this courtroom that 18 didn't know there had been previous trials.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. DEGRUY: I think, you know, certainly it
21 would be improper for either of us -- for anybody to be 22 pointing that out, but just the reality of it is the 23 reality of Montgomery County.

24 THE COURT: And the last group here, I noticed
25 Johnny Hargrove, chief of police. And obviously, he is a
26 witness, and the circuit clerk, who I very much am going
27 to have to have, and Mr. -- I assume this Miller is the 28 same individual that the State has subpoenaed as a
29 witness. And then Mr. Piner was a bailiff at previous

Motion of the State

1 trials and sat through and heard all testimony. I know
2 he was -- well, I don't know for a fact, but I assume in
3 Flowers III that he was a bailiff. I don't remember -- I
4 know Mr. Piner at some point quit being a bailiff. So I
5 don't know if he was a bailiff in Flowers IV or not. Do
6 y'all --

7 MR. EVANS: We agree, Your Honor, that those
8 three could not be jurors in this particular case.

9 THE COURT: There is four because I've got
10 Hargrove --

11 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

12 MR. DEGRUY: We agree with that.

13 THE COURT: Okay. I'll notify the clerk to 14 advise these individuals not to appear that day as well.

15 Do we have any other matters that need to be taken
16 up?

17 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. The State has one motion
18 that needs to be taken up, Your Honor.

19 As the Court knows, the last couple of trials we
20 have had to introduce the testimony of one witness
21 through reading the transcript, because that witness is 22 deceased.

23 I've been advised that there are two more witnesses
24 that we are probably going to be required to do that. I
25 think in this particular trial Sam Jones, who was the 26 elderly man that worked at the store that found the 27 bodies, I think he was 87 in the last trial. It's my 28 understanding that he has had a stroke and is probably 29 going to be unavailable.

Motion of the State

1           Also, Miss Beneva Henry. She was one of the 2 witnesses that knew the defendant real well and spoke
3 with him and saw him coming by her house that morning.
4 In the last trial she had very great difficulty in coming
5 into the courtroom, walking. And she was almost 6 completely blind. It is my understanding now that she is 7 physically not able to come into the courtroom at all.

8           MR. DEGRUY: We understand that, Your Honor,
9 that these witnesses are unavailable.

10          THE COURT: So you agree these are unavailable.

11          MR. DEGRUY: We agree that they are 12 unavailable.

13          THE COURT: Well, I'll allow them to testify --
14 or their testimony from previous trials to be presented
15 just like Mr. Collins.

16          MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, before the trial in 17 Flowers III where we first introduced Mr. Collins'
18 testimony, the State advised which of the prior two 19 testimonies of Mr. Collins that they were -- well, we 20 reached an agreement that it should have been -- it was 21 the testimony from the Gulfport trial where he was 22 extensively cross-examined by Mr. Lumumba.

23          So we, we just ask the State if they just intend to 24 call -- I don't know. I tried looking at it last night.
25 There are not significant differences in the testimony of 26 these witnesses in any of the four trials. So if the 27 State is going to elect to use one of the prior trial
28 testimonies as their direct, if they would just let us
29 know that.

Motion of the State

1           MR. EVANS: I, I just kind of assumed. I think
2 we did agree that that one went more into what
3 cross-examination the defense wanted. So I have no
4 problem with going back through the same one what we have
5 done before.

6           THE COURT: So on Collins it will be the one
7 that was used actually in the November trial, which was 8 the one that occurred, I think, in Flowers II; is that
9 correct?

10          MR. DEGRUY: That's correct.

11          THE COURT: As to these, Mr. Jones and Miss 12 Henry.

13          MR. HILL: Miss Henry.

14          MR. EVANS: Miss Henry. I haven't even looked 15 at them, Your Honor, because I haven't even thought about 16 that. We can probably get with defense counsel and try
17 to agree on which one.

18          MR. DEGRUY: I think it would be easier if we 19 were able to do just testimony and cross from one trial.

20          MR. EVANS: I agree.

21          MR. DEGRUY: It would make more sense.

22                 So we will try to reach an agreement on that. If 23 not, there may be a question if they are using Trial III,
24 there may be a cross-examination question from Trial IV
25 that we would want to present and versa. We can work
26 that out before they are actually presented.

27          THE COURT: That will be fine then. If y'all
28 will proceed to do that.

29                 Anything else? If not...

In Open Court

1                   MR. DEGRUY: Your Honor, we just have a
2 question. We received from the clerk a, a list of jurors
3 that were excused.

4                   THE COURT: Right.

5                   MR. DEGRUY: And just for these jurors that --
6 I assume these age jurors -- I guess I shouldn't assume.
7 Are these jurors who have claimed their age exemption?

8                   THE COURT: They are. That have -- in the 9 letter that was sent out with the jury questionnaire,
10 which, you know, you were not present, you know, that
11 day. But it was stated in that letter that, you know,
12 you had to appear unless you had some -- over age 65 and 13 claimed that exemption or if you had some medical 14 problem.

15                   So these are people that have notified the clerk
16 that they do not choose to serve but want to exercise
17 their exemption based on age. And the others are 18 individuals that doctors have given them excuses.

19                   Now, the last -- the other group is -- you know, I
20 mean these are clerk's notice, I guess, just basically
21 for our benefit to know that there are certain people
22 like that are in the nursing home probably that are not
23 going to appear for trial that day or for the voir dire
24 that day or people that have moved out of the county.

25                   They haven't been excused by the Court but, you
26 know, I don't think that if they -- if they fail to 27 appear on the day of trial, I'm not going to send the 28 sheriff to pull somebody out of the nursing home, because 29 they didn't -- you know, because they didn't appear. And

In Open Court

1 if somebody has moved to another county, they are not
2 eligible. And I do not know if they have even received
3 notice that they were called to begin with.

4 So I think she just gave those individuals to us to
5 let us know ahead of time that there was a possibility
6 that these would not be here.

7 And then the three listed under postponement, you do
8 have the right now to postpone jury service if you choose
9 to do so. And these three individuals that she has got 10 listed that, that have notified her that they chose to 11 postpone to a later time.

12 MR. DEGRUY: I understand, Your Honor. I just 13 really wanted to make sure that these were that --
14 because moved to another county, disqualifies you as a
15 juror. Being 82 doesn't disqualify you.

16 THE COURT: Right. Well, these are not people
17 the clerk went through and looked at their age --

18 MR. DEGRUY: Right.

19 THE COURT: -- and decided --

20 MR. DEGRUY: We just wanted to make sure.

21 THE COURT: These are people that she has had 22 contact her and advise that they were claiming age as an 23 exemption. Well, I am sure you have too, but there is 24 several people over age 65 still on the list that have 25 not claimed age.

26 MR. DEGRUY: I just -- I wanted to make sure
27 the record was clear that these were people who were 28 affirmatively claiming age and not just based on their
29 age. And the -- you know, our position is that doctor

Special Venire Drawn

1 medical excuses, whether they bring them in the day they
2 come or whether they present them to the Court prior to
3 coming is, is the call of the Court on whether or not
4 that person has a hardship.

5 THE COURT: Well, by statute, you know, the
6 clerk can excuse people if they bring medical proof
7 without them having to appear. So that is what those 8 individuals have done.

9 Anything else?

10 MR. DEGRUY: I believe that is all, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: If not, we will stand this matter
12 recessed until September 22 and resume at that time.

13 (THE PROCEEDING ON THIS DATE WAS CONCLUDED.)

14 (THE FOLLOWING WAS HEARD IN THE CIRCUIT CLERK'S OFFICE IN
15 THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY COURTHOUSE ON APRIL 20, 2010. MR.
16 EVANS, MR. HILL, MRS. STEINER, MR. CARTER, THE DEFENDANT,
17 CIRCUIT CLERK LANELLE MARTIN, DEPUTY CHANCERY CLERK PATSY
18 BARTON, AND SHERIFF BUBBA NIX WERE PRESENT. PROCEEDINGS WERE 19 AS FOLLOWS:)

20 THE COURT: First off we are going to draw a
21 special venire for the trial that is to commence in June.

22 For the record, we do have representatives, Deputy
23 Chancery Clerk Patsy --

24 What is the last name?

25 MRS. BARTON: Barton.

26 THE COURT: Lanelle Martin, circuit clerk.
27 Sheriff Bubba Nix. And the prosecutors and the defense
28 attorneys and Mr. Flowers.

29 So Madam Clerk, if you will now draw a special

1           venire for us.

2           While the computer is submitting the names, I went
3 back and looked at the questionnaire we did last time,
4 and I assume we will send it out again unless there is
5 some changes that need to be made.

6           MR. EVANS: I think it would be fine.

7           THE COURT: Do y'all --

8           MR. CARTER: Whatever you say.

9           MRS. STEINER: I think...

10          THE COURT: I will let y'all also -- this is 11 just a little letter that I wrote to the jurors, kind of 12 explaining about -- but I want you both to read it before
13 I sign it and have the clerk include it with the 14 questionnaire.

15          MRS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor. I don't 16 even recall if we had any objections on the 17 questionnaires that was issued before. But to the 18 extent --

19          THE COURT: Well, the last time -- the last 20 time we added a question, Number 24, and that was 21 suitable and acceptable. And there weren't any other
22 objections to the questionnaire.

23          MS. STEINER: That's fine, Your Honor. I just
24 didn't have a recollection. I just want to preserve --

25          MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I actually have one.
26 I have one that has a whole lot more questions on it. Of 27 course, I have some concerns about whether or not I could 28 ever get it passed getting Mr. Evans to accept it or get 29 it passed the Court.

1           You think it's worth presenting?

2           I guess I'll just -- is the Court open to my
3 presenting another one to see if it can?

4           THE COURT: Well, I mean our situation is the 5 clerk is going to just, like, within -- I mean very 6 quickly, as soon as she can get the addresses and
7 envelopes done, going to be sending this out.

8           MR. CARTER: Well, that's okay. We will pass
9 on presenting a new one and just accept what we already 10 have. We will just ask whatever additional questions we 11 have got during voir dire.

12          MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, would it be 13 appropriate to raise an issue that has not been a motion
14 just yet? It just arose. While the computer is doing
15 this selection, while we are in recess waiting on the --

16          THE COURT: That's fine.

17          MRS. STEINER: We were called last week and 18 informed that Mr. Flowers had been transferred up to the 19 Leflore jail as a detainee. You know, ordinarily, it is 20 neither the Court nor the defense counsel's job to make
21 security decisions, Your Honor.

22          MR. EVANS: May I see it, Your Honor?

23          MR. CARTER: I'm sorry, Doug.

24          MRS. STEINER: But given that his defense team
25 is Jackson-based and given that we are now running up in 26 the last six months preparing for trial, this actually
27 adds a half hour each way if we want to go up and see him
28 and do trial preparation work. Under the Sixth Amendment
29 and his right to counsel and our obligations under

1       Wiggins and its progeny, his being housed at a further
2       distance than Vaiden is actually going -- you know, is
3       not without impact.

4               And we would move that the Court direct that he be
5       housed back in Vaiden during this period of trial
6       preparation time. And I have no notion of why he was
7       moved. I know there may be other witnesses coming in. I
8       have no idea if that is it. But if it has to do with 9       this trial that he has been moved, that if it deals with 10      housing of other witnesses, that we would move that 11      that -- he be asked to house him in Vaiden and place the 12      other witnesses in alternative places. Because it really
13      is -- it does affect our ability to do our final trial
14      preparation.

15              MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I was also advised by 16      the sheriff of Carroll County that he had moved the 17      defendant. I asked why and was informed that part of it
18      was that Marcus Moore, who may end up testifying for the 19      State in this case, is housed in Vaiden also, his 20      stepson, when this occurred. They have been trying to 21      house them separate. That has been causing a problem.

22              Also, I was advised by the sheriff that part of the 23      problem is the special treatment that this defendant has 24      been receiving in Carroll County jail. Basically, we 25      have been advised of him having free run of the jail,
26      using cell phones when he wants to, having sexual contact
27      with guards, things like that down there. I think one
28      guard ended up confessing and was fired because she was 29      in love with him and was visiting him in the jail.

1           And he felt that it would be safer and a more
2           appropriate place to house him where he didn't have to
3           put up with all of these. And since he had been in 4           Leflore County jail for two years before, he thought that 5           would be an appropriate place to house him since it is 6           close to here.

7           MRS. STEINER: Well, Your Honor, I think my
8           point would be that Mr. Moore could as easily be housed -
9           I believe he is a state prisoner there - MDOC facility at 10          Greenwood. And if there are disciplinary problems with 11          Mr. Flowers, this is a jail fully capable of imposing
12          discipline, I would think.

13          THE COURT: Well, at this point I don't know --
14          I don't know -- I don't know anything, because I didn't 15          know he was moved at all. So I don't know what is going 16          on with the jail at Vaiden, and I don't really know that 17          I have got enough information in front of me to override
18          what the sheriff has done at this point. If what Mr.
19          Evans is saying is true, then I think there was a valid
20          reason why Mr. Flowers would have been moved, not just 21          from Mr. Moore being there, but from these other
22          allegations. You know, I can revisit the issue later.
23          But I feel like I would have to have some sworn proof of 24          some kind to, you know, override the sheriff.

25          And I don't think that being housed in Greenwood is 26          a great burden anyway. It's not -- you may be talking
27          about 35, 40 minutes extra drive. And, you know, I don't 28          think that is unreasonable. And for the record, I'll say
29          Montgomery County has no jail at all, because that's why

1 he is being housed out of county.

2 And now, getting back on the letter that was going
3 to be included with the questionnaire, has anybody got
4 anything they want to change or is it acceptable?

5 MR. CARTER: It's acceptable.

6 MR. EVANS: It's acceptable.

7 THE COURT: Okay. I'll sign it and then have
8 it included with the questionnaire. The questionnaire,
9 was no objection to it either; is that correct?

10 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

11 MR. EVANS: (Nodded.)

12 THE COURT: Also, we do have the special venire
13 now. And you know, I mean there is 600 names. What's 14 this going to be the -- how many time -- is this going to 15 be -- I mean is this the third trial in Montgomery
16 County?

17 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Do I have an agreement from the 19 parties that if the clerk looks through the list and 20 finds anybody that actually sat on the previous juries to 21 just exclude them? Obviously, they are not going to be 22 able to sit on this case if they sat on a prior trial.

23 MR. EVANS: That would be fine from the State's 24 side. I think it would be the appropriate thing to do,
25 because if they were actually brought up here and sat
26 with the other jurors I think it could taint the panel
27 either way.

28 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, we have no objection
29 to the clerk excusing any people that have actually

1 served as jurors.

2 And the other thing, I believe the clerk herself
3 ended up in the venire in the last case. And we have no
4 objection to the Court excusing the clerk herself should
5 she be in this array.

6 THE COURT: Well, that's good.

7 And so Miss Martin, you are directed to go through
8 and if there is anybody on this list that actually sat on 9 the previous two juries, you can just mark by their name
10 that they previously served and not send them a summons
11 out because --

12 MS. MARTIN: Okay.

13 THE COURT: -- because they couldn't serve.

14 I do have concern if they were to show up it might 15 tend to taint the rest of the panel. We do have the 16 venire drawn now. And the clerk will make copies for 17 both of you or print additional copies out.

18 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, is that a random
19 array?

20 THE COURT: It is a random array. I think she 21 can actually print out for you alphabetically, if you
22 want it done both ways.

23 MRS. STEINER: Right.

24 THE COURT: That is the random list that I just 25 have.

26 MRS. STEINER: Both ways would be good,
27 especially since there may be over lapse from before.
28 It's easier to compare that way.

29 THE COURT: Right.

1           Now, we had some other motions. And, of course, I
2           didn't know there was going to be a civil trial going on
3           in the courtroom. We can sit here or did you --

4           CIRCUIT CLERK: The room is available across
5           the way in the extension office, if you need it.

6           THE COURT: We might move just because the 7           clerk's office has got to keep functioning, and we are 8           sitting here. If anybody has business in the clerk's 9           office, it's going to be difficult for them to come in 10          with us actually having court inside the clerk's office
11          right now.

12          So let's just adjourn to the annex across the street
13          and hear these motions.

14          (COURT RECESSED TO RELOCATE TO THE EXTENSION OFFICE.)

15          (COURT RESUMED IN THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY EXTENSION OFFICE.)

16          MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MS. STEINER, MR. CARTER AND THE DEFENDANT
17          WERE PRESENT. PROCEEDINGS WERE AS FOLLOWS:)

18          THE COURT: We will come back to order now.

19          I know there were a few motions that defense counsel
20          had, had filed. We will take those up now.

21          And normally lawyers are required to stand when they 22          are addressing the Court. But I will not require that,
23          because of the cramped quarters and the tables in front
24          of us. I think it would be probably more convenient for 25          everyone to just remain seated when you are speaking,
26          unless you just have some overwhelming desire to stand
27          up.

28          So Ms. Steiner, I don't know which motion you want
29          to take up first. Proceed.

Motion Hearing on April 20, 2010

1 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I have only -- well,
2 I have two motions on which I propose to offer evidence
3 from the four individuals subpoenaed here today.

4 I believe Chief Hargrove, Mr. Johnson --
5 Is Mr. Matthews and Mr. Thornburg here?

6 THE COURT: I have not seen them.

7 MS. STEINER: All right. But we have Chief
8 Johnson -- Chief, Chief Hargrove and Mr. Johnson. I have 9 --

10 Is the sheriff here?

11 Do you know if Mr. Thornburg or Mr. Matthews got 12 their subpoenas served?

13 SHERIFF NIX: I haven't seen them.

14 MS. STEINER: Did you -- did you notify them of
15 them?

16 SHERIFF NIX: I didn't know anything about
17 them.

18 MS. STEINER: Okay. I had given them last week
19 to be served and John got his.

20 Well, in any event --

21 (MONTGOMERY COUNTY CIRCUIT CLERK, MS. LANELLE MARTIN,
22 ENTERED THE ROOM.)

23 THE COURT: Hold on. The clerk has got the 24 file. She is bringing in the file now. We can see if 25 the --

26 MS. STEINER: I can go ahead and start
27 proceeding, and we can answer these questions later.

28 The first thing I want to do is mark as defendant's
29 first, or hopefully only motion exhibit, a C.D. marked

1 Defendant's Exhibit 1, 4-20-10 motions, which is a C.D.
2 of everything that we have been able to locate in our
3 files from the discovery served over the past few years,
4 and also some crime lab master files that were served
5 upon us.

6 And I'd like to have that marked as defendant's
7 exhibit to the Motion for Disclosure and Supplementation
8 of Discovery, which is what I would call it now.

9 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, as far as it being
10 introduced on the motion, I have no problem with it being 11 introduced as her version of what has been furnished.

12 I think she came in today and stated that she had 13 found some more stuff since she had last compiled the 14 disk on it that had been previously furnished in 15 discovery. And I have not had time to go through the 16 list and see if it was everything that we furnished.

17 So I have no problem with her using the disk. But 18 as far as us stating it is everything that has been 19 furnished in the past, I can't state that at this point.

20 MS. STEINER: Thank you. I, I understand that.

21 This is simply what we found. The last, I think,
22 eight pages are the additional pages we found that are
23 actually redundant pretty much of some other materials,
24 but that's part of why I, I called witnesses today
25 because we need to figure out what might be out there.

26 Since last October when we set this Mr. Evans said
27 he would -- did not want to invite us to come have a look
28 for ourselves. So in any event --

29 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if I may, I would like

1 to comment on that last comment that was just made by
2 defense counsel before we go further.

3 This case has been going on for many years. When we
4 first started it the defense attorney, Johnny Gilmore, in
5 this case came to our office. We let him go through 6 everything in the file. It was thrown completely in
7 disarray. We had to spend weeks putting it back
8 together.

9 After this group of defense attorneys got into the 10 case, two different times their office has sent people to 11 Grenada. We have let them go completely through 12 everything in the file, everything that is there. I know
13 Mr. Carter has personally been there twice looking 14 through things in the file.

15 And again, everything that they said that they did
16 not know for sure that they had at that time, we allowed
17 them to go up front, use our copy machine, make copies of 18 anything that they wanted. There has to be a limit at 19 some point.

20 And I agree with her to the point that I have told
21 them they will not come back to our office and go through 22 the files for the fourth time. If they can't get what 23 they needed out of it out of three times, something is 24 wrong.

25 THE COURT: I will say this, Mr. Evans.

26 The last thing I am going to have happen is this
27 case come back to this court again from the Supreme Court
28 because of some discovery issue. So I am going to take 29 the motion up. But if there is some discovery that is

1 out there that is needed, it will be provided. Because,
2 as I say, preliminary matters are not going --

3 MR. EVANS: If there is discovery that is
4 needed, we will gladly provide it.

5 We have told every defense attorney that has been
6 involved that they are welcome to go to the crime lab,
7 get full copies of everything. Ms. Steiner has furnished
8 me a copy this morning of everything the state crime lab
9 has furnished. There is no more discovery. This case
10 has been tried so many times it's pitiful already with 11 the same evidence. And the evidence is clear.

12 THE COURT: Miss Steiner, what -- I mean if you
13 want to go specifically now, what is it that you are --

14 MS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor. I have to say
15 that, you know, this was a huge and disorganized file
16 and, you know, at the point it -- you know, spending
17 three hours with it, as Mr. Carter did back in 2003, I --
18 what I have the officers here for is to talk about, to 19 make sure there is no piece of a police agency file that 20 somehow either didn't get to us or didn't get to the 21 State that I think might be relevant, and it's, it's 22 based on that.

23 And we have also requested some -- that the Court
24 order production of the radio logs for a larger period
25 than they were originally done.

26 And let me say that Chief Hargrove had asked --
27 there has been a death in Winona that is being 28 investigated by his office, and he had asked if he might 29 be taken first and then excused. And perhaps if, if I go

1 -- let me examine Chief Hargrove and then the Court can
2 decide if things are irrelevant.

3 THE COURT: Chief, if you will come around.

4 (THE WITNESS CAME FORWARD.)

5 MS. STEINER: And I would like the rule invoked
6 with the other witnesses who are here.

7 THE COURT: Okay. If there are other witnesses
8 that are going to testify...

9 MS. STEINER: And the witnesses who are going
10 to testify on discovery are just Mr. Johnson, and then if 11 Mr. Thornburg or Mr. Matthews appear.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson is not in here.

13 MS. STEINER: I think he is in the hall.

14 THE COURT: Either tell Mr. Johnson to step out
15 where --

16 A DEPUTY: He stepped into the side --

17 MS. STEINER: Okay. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: I need you to raise your right hand
19 and take the oath.

20 Do solemnly swear or affirm the testimony you give 21 in this case will be the truth, the whole truth and
22 nothing but the truth so help you God?

23 THE WITNESS: I do.

24 THE COURT: If you will have a seat, please.

25 THE WITNESS: (Complied.)

26 THE COURT: For the record, state your name.

27 THE WITNESS: Johnny Hargrove.

28 THE COURT: You may proceed.

29 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

1           JOHNNY HARGROVE, Called on behalf of the Defendant,
2           having been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

3           DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MS. STEINER:

4           Q.    Chief Hargrove, you are the chief of police of
5           Winona; is that correct?

6           A.    Yes, ma'am.

7           Q.    And that was the office you held at the time the 8           four people were found dead at Tardy Furniture on July 16,
9           1996; is that correct?

10          A.    Yes, ma'am, I was.

11          Q.    When had you become chief?

12          A.    '95.

13          Q.    All right. So you had been chief for two years. So 14          you were at the time and continue to be fully familiar with 15          the kind of records your office keeps on criminal
16          investigations; is that correct?

17          A.    Yes, ma'am.

18          Q.    All right. When -- what kind of file or files does 19          your office maintain when a crime -- when it begins to 20          investigate a crime?

21          A.    On, on that crime, what we did, we called in the 22          state investigators and, you know, people from the crime lab
23          and all that. And they done the paperwork on it.

24          Q.    Okay. So you are saying your office maintained no
25          specific --

26          A.    No, ma'am.

27          Q.    -- file --

28          A.    No, ma'am.

29          Q.    -- on this crime.

1 A. No, ma'am.

2 Q. When you or your officers investigated something or
3 prepared a report, to whom did you give it?

4 A. What I'm saying is we, we called in investigator
5 from the state.

6 Q. Okay. So none of your --

7 A. And they, they worked it up.

8 Q. So none of your officers took any statements that 9 weren't done in companionship with the state, which you had 10 called in.

11 A. Not to my knowledge.

12 Q. Okay. So your office has no case file per se on 13 this.

14 A. No, ma'am.

15 Q. I noticed that one of the crime lab orders, Miss
16 Schoene's evidence --

17 A. Um-hum.

18 Q. -- was told to be report -- the requesting officer
19 was your office and was to be returned to you.

20 A. Um-hum.

21 Q. And also to Wayne Miller of C.I.D. Did you actually 22 get a copy of that or did it all just --

23 A. I'm not for sure, but I know the state did.

24 Q. All right. Thank you.

25 Now, I believe -- I just want to make sure I'm right
26 about this.

27 A. Um-hum.

28 Q. Your testimony is that you yourself did not do any 29 questioning of people at or around the scene the day this

1 happened; is that correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And to your knowledge, did any of your officers do
4 any such questioning?

5 A. What we did, we waited on the investigators to come.

6 Q. Okay. But at any point did you deploy any of your 7 officers to do any investigation other than just securing the 8 crime scene and waiting --

9 A. Securing the crime scene.

10 Q. All right. So I'm assuming that you, you never 11 yourself prepared or had your officers prepare any sort of 12 summary of the investigation that was conducted by the police.

13 A. Not to my knowledge.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. You know, right offhand.

16 Q. Okay. And I believe your testimony is you sent 17 anything you gathered off to the state. By that you mean
18 the --

19 A. They came --

20 Q. -- the highway patrol.

21 A. They came into my office, and they worked it up.

22 Q. Okay. And they did not file copies with you of what 23 they did.

24 A. No, ma'am.

25 Q. All right. Let me just go over some specific things
26 that came up in this. One of the items in discovery -- and 27 let me say for the record that I'm just going to use the Bates
28 numbers that are on the disk. It's at Page Number 662. It's 29 preceded by the words February 2010, and it's in the folder on

1 the disk that is called C.D. filed with motion.

2 And I have to apologize. My copy machine broke down
3 yesterday evening, and I didn't make a duplicate.

4 MR. EVANS: I believe this was furnished in
5 discovery.

6 MS. STEINER: Yes, it is.

7 MR. EVANS: Page 136 of the discovery.

8 THE COURT: What, what number is it on the 9 C.D.?

10 MS. STEINER: On the C.D. it's Page 662 in that 11 first folder, Your Honor, that's labeled C.D. filed with 12 motion.

13 For the record, it's the offense report dated July
14 8, 1996, by a Winona Police Department officer of a
15 break-in at the Tardy place. And I'm not going into the 16 details of what's in it. I'm just going to ask the chief
17 to identify it.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 Q. I'm handing you a document, which I have not yet
20 identified. But can you tell me what kind of document that 21 is?

22 A. That's a offense report from a B and E.

23 COURT REPORTER: Judge, would you ask the 24 witness to --

25 THE WITNESS: Offense report from B and E.

26 Q. Now, is that a form that you had your officers using 27 any time they received a criminal complaint --

28 A. Yes, ma'am.

29 Q. -- that occurred in the city of Winona?

1 A. Yes, ma'am.

2 Q. Okay. And this is, in fact, the one -- your
3 officers received a complaint of a break-in at Miss Tardy's
4 store. The complaint was received on --

5 A. Yes, ma'am.

6 Q. -- July of 1996.

7 A. Yes, ma'am.

8 Q. And so that's the form that your officers used --

9 A. Offense report.

10 Q. -- when filing this report.

11 All right. Did, did you have -- did you or any of your 12 officers fill out an offense report like this on the tragedy
13 at, at Tardy?

14 A. (Unintelligible.)

15 COURT REPORTER: Judge, I'm sorry. I can't 16 hear him.

17 THE COURT: If you will, speak up a little 18 louder. She --

19 THE WITNESS: I haven't said anything yet.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 A. Most likely it, it was. But right offhand, I can't 22 sit here and say it's there.

23 Q. Okay. You think that such a report would have been 24 prepared by one of your -- on one of your forms; is that
25 correct?

26 A. Just like I said, right offhand, I can't tell you if 27 it was or if it wasn't, because we sat there and secured the 28 crime scene. And then all the investigators came in and all
29 that.

1 MS. STEINER: Let me state for the record that
2 in Exhibit 1, we don't have a copy of any offense report
3 for the tragedy at Tardy's.

4 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) Do you know --

5 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, for the record on that,
6 I would like to make a statement that this chief has been
7 asked these same questions on every trial. And he has 8 specifically stated, if I'm not mistaken, on at least
9 several of those trials that he did not think that they
10 did prepare one. If it had been, it would have been 11 furnished to the investigators.

12 MS. STEINER: I, I appreciate that. Since we 13 haven't had access to go back and make sure we actually
14 copied everything out of your file, I just want --

15 MR. EVANS: Yes. Yes, you have.

16 THE COURT: You won't interrupt. Ms. Steiner
17 has the floor right now.

18 Any other questions for the chief?

19 MS. STEINER: Yes.

20 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) Similarly, do you know whether or 21 not anybody in -- well, was the theft of the gun at Angelica
22 from the parking lot, from the car of Doyle Simpson ever
23 reported as a criminal matter to the Winona Police Department?

24 A. That's in the county.

25 Q. Say again.

26 A. That's in the county.

27 Q. Okay. So that would not have been --

28 A. Angelica is --

29 Q. So there wouldn't be a report from you in any event.

1           Now, can you tell us -- we have received -- and I am now
2 alluding to Pages 667, 668 and 669 on the document collection
3 in evidence as one, labeled radio logs. And I am going to 4 hand these to the chief to look at.

5           Can you tell me -- that appears to be radio logs from two 6 different dispatching agencies. Can you tell me what the 7 difference is?

8           A. One of them is from highway patrol, M.H.P.

9           Q. And that's the one that says M.H.P. on the top of
10 it.

11          A. Yes, ma'am.

12          Q. And what is the one that says radio log on it?

13          A. That is going to be from E.O.C., if I ain't
14 mistaken.

15          Q. All right. Now, does your -- does the Winona Police
16 Department use the E.O.C. --

17          A. Yes, ma'am.

18          Q. -- as its dispatch log?

19          A. Yes, ma'am.

20          Q. And there are several entries from you, yourself, on 21 those where you have called in, I believe.

22          A. Yes, ma'am.

23          Q. You are W-1.

24          A. Yes, ma'am.

25          Q. Now, this log that you use appears to begin at 9:21
26 in the morning, and the last entry on it appears to be at 27 11:32 in the morning, both of July 16. Did you mean -- does 28 E.O.C. maintain radio logs for the day, say, the weekend of 29 July 6 and 7 --

1 A. Yes, ma'am.

2 Q. -- as well?

3 A. Yes, ma'am, it should.

4 Q. And are they kept 24 hours?

5 A. Yes, ma'am.

6 Q. And similarly, there should be radio logs at the 7 E.O.C. for the traffic that went on that dispatch --

8 A. Yes, ma'am.

9 Q. -- starting the midnight before this happened and 10 really, extending -- we have asked to have the logs --

11 A. Yes, ma'am.

12 Q. -- start the midnight previously and extending
13 through midnight on the Thursday following --

14 A. Um-hum.

15 Q. -- this event. Those logs should exist; is that
16 correct?

17 A. Yes, ma'am.

18 Q. And you and your officers when you are reporting
19 what you are doing, what you found, you would call in and --

20 A. Yes, ma'am.

21 Q. Entries like this.

22 A. Yes, ma'am.

23 Q. So we can tell what your officers have found and 24 what they were doing.

25 A. Yes, ma'am.

26 Q. Does any other agency use E.O.C. dispatch to your 27 knowledge?

28 A. Yes, ma'am. You have got Duck Hill and Kilmichael.

29 Q. Duck Hill and Kilmichael. Does the sheriff's

1 department use it, or does it have its own?

2 A. Yes, ma'am. The sheriff's department use it.

3 Q. Is it just Montgomery or does Carroll --

4 A. It's Montgomery. Carroll, Carroll used to use it
5 too. They, they got our frequency. They can come across and
6 use the same --

7 Q. In 1996, July of 1996, was Carroll using this?

8 A. Carroll could use it, yes.

9 Q. What about Leflore?

10 A. Leflore. They don't use our unit.

11 Q. Do you know about Grenada? Did they use this too?

12 A. Grenada, no, ma'am.

13 Q. All right. Thank you, Chief.

14 And do you -- the M.H.P one, you don't use --

15 A. We don't maintain those.

16 Q. All right. Thank you very much.

17 Did you -- one of the documents we were furnished, it
18 appeared to be a summary of investigation. Appeared to be --
19 it's a document entitled information obtained by district
20 attorney regarding statements made by Curtis Flowers and 21 observations from investigators, which has been in our file
22 for, for as long as I have been on the case. It is on the 23 disk in the record located at Pages 265 through 272. It was 24 also furnished by the district attorney's office with a D.A.
25 Bate statement Pages 41 through 48.

26 And I am going to ask you to inspect it, look at it and 27 tell me if - this is not signed - if you contributed any of 28 the information to that on the basis of your participation in 29 this or your officers' participation in this investigation.

1 A. I didn't.

2 Q. Pardon me.

3 A. I said I didn't.

4 Q. All right. Thank you, Chief.

5 And, Your Honor, I'd -- ordinarily I wouldn't try and 6 take testimony on two motions at once, but since the chief has
7 a time -- I have one, a couple of questions that would go to 8 the bail motion.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MS. STEINER: With the Court's permission.

11 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) Chief, in 1996 during the course
12 of the investigation of this case, did you have occasion ever
13 to interact with Mr. Flowers, either as a witness or once he 14 was arrested in January of 1997?

15 A. No, I didn't.

16 Q. All right. You never transported him to or from,
17 statements or anything like that?

18 A. No, I don't recall that I did.

19 Q. All right. Did you as the chief law enforcement
20 officer of the city ever have any law enforcement complaints
21 about Mr. Flowers fleeing or making any attempt to make his 22 whereabouts unknown or otherwise behave uncooperatively with 23 the investigation in this matter?

24 A. Only thing I had heard, he had went to Texas.

25 Q. Okay. And were --

26 A. Some part of Texas.

27 Q. And were you aware that once he was notified that he 28 was in indictment, he waived extradition -- which is charged,
29 he waived extradition and returned here to custody as soon as

1 he learned he had --

2 A. See, I didn't have any knowledge of that.

3 Q. Thank you.

4 A. Sure.

5 Q. Have you received any information to indicate Mr.
6 Flowers during the times he has been here in Winona for trial,
7 at least, has been disruptive or violent or made any attempt
8 to flee custody or fail to appear for court?

9 A. No, I haven't.

10 Q. All right. Thank you.

11 That's all I have of the chief, I believe.

12 THE COURT: State have any questions?

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. EVANS:

14 Q. Chief, very simply. Do you know of anything that 15 defense counsel has not been furnished that anyone had in this
16 case?

17 A. No, not to my knowledge.

18 MR. EVANS: Nothing further.

19 THE COURT: You are excused, Chief, and you are
20 free to go.

21 MS. STEINER: Is Mr. Matthews here? Jack
22 Matthews.

23 Mr. Johnson is here. I would call John Johnson.
24 (JOHN JOHNSON ENTERED THE ROOM.)

25 THE COURT: If you will come around, Mr.
26 Johnson.

27 Do you solemnly swear or affirm the testimony you
28 give in this case will be the truth, the whole truth and
29 nothing but the truth, so help you God?

1 THE WITNESS: I do.

2 THE COURT: Have a seat, please. And for the
3 record, state your name.

4 THE WITNESS: John Johnson.

5 JOHN JOHNSON, Called on behalf of the Defendant, having
6 been duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

7 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MS. STEINER:

8 Q. Mr. Johnson, good morning.

9 A. Good morning.

10 Q. What, what position do you presently hold
11 professionally?

12 A. I'm an investigator with the district attorney's
13 office.

14 Q. And on July 16 of 1996, what position did you hold?

15 A. The same.

16 Q. Are you the chief investigator?

17 A. I've been there longer than the rest of them.

18 Q. How many investigators are there?

19 A. Three of us.

20 Q. And it's yourself. And who are the other two?

21 A. Robert Jennings. William Blackmon.

22 Q. All right. Were both Mr. Blackmon and Mr. Jennings
23 employed on July 16, 1996?

24 A. No, I was the only one at that time.

25 Q. All right. Did Mr. Jennings do work for the 26 district attorney's office during that time?

27 A. He started. Yes.

28 Q. Okay. The reason I'm asking is there are some 29 documents that indicate he participated in interviews,

1 conducted some other interviews, and there are documents
2 relating to his work.

3 A. He started --

4 Q. And, and they talk about him as a D.A. investigator.

5 A. He was a district attorney's investigator. I'm not
6 sure that he actually went to work for us that day. But right
7 on the day of that happening, he went to work with us, and he
8 did work with us on occasions with this case. Yes.

9 Q. And it looks to me like you were the person who did
10 the documentation of almost everything that was done by D.A.
11 investigators; am I correct?

12 A. That may be so. I don't know.

13 Q. All right. But he is not -- he is not with some 14 other agency. He is with your agency if he is participating.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Now, ordinarily -- well, I had one other question.
17 Are -- for radio call purposes, are you DA-1 or is Mr. Evans
18 DA-1?

19 A. Mr. Evans.

20 Q. All right. And then do you all have call numbers,
21 the investigators?

22 A. We do but we don't talk on the radio very often.

23 Q. Okay. You were referred to -- D.A. number people
24 were referred to in the radio logs we have, and I just need to 25 know if you recall what was your number at the time.

26 A. Either DA-2 or DA-3.

27 Q. All right. And then --

28 A. It changed. It was either DA-2 or DA-3.

29 Q. Did the assistant district attorneys also have call

1 numbers?

2 A. They did. And I can't remember. Theirs may have
3 changed also.

4 Q. But there is no way to tell from the call number
5 whether it was an investigator or an assistant district
6 attorney who's being referred to, other than to know whose 7 number was whose.

8 A. I don't know that I could tell you that right now.

9 Q. All right. You all don't talk on the radio. Do
10 you -- to your recollection, did you in the course, at least
11 the first couple of days, of this investigation use the radio
12 log as a law enforcement officer would?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. You had previously been chief of police of Winona so
15 you are familiar with those --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- procedures. And as I understand it, did you use
18 the E.O.C. city radio dispatch when you were making dispatches
19 when you were D.A. investigator on this case?

20 A. We worked with them and through them on occasion.
21 Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Did you also use the frequency for the 23 Mississippi Highway Patrol in the course of investigating this
24 case?

25 A. I think -- I think the frequencies would be limited
26 that I would use with the highway patrol, but I can't say
27 that. We have a statewide frequency that it's possible that 28 we used, yes.

29 Q. Okay. I, I noticed both from the testimony in the

1 trial and from the discovery that is here that you
2 personally -- a lot of the interviews you personally either
3 conducted yourself or you conducted in companionship with
4 highway patrol. My question is did you all use each others'
5 frequencies to communicate on or did you just use phones and 6 that sort of thing.

7 A. Both. And somewhat -- it's kind of a vague area,
8 you know. I mean it's hard to know sometimes what 9 frequencies, but we did share statewide frequencies on 10 occasion.

11 Q. All right. And would that show up?

12 A. I'm not sure.

13 Q. You have been so involved in this. I am going to 14 hand you pages --

15 (THE WITNESS PUT ON HIS GLASSES.)

16 I have to put mine on too.

17 I am going to hand you Pages 667, 668 and 669 of 18 discovery that has been furnished, and they appear to be radio
19 logs - one with M.H.P. on it and one that has been -- already 20 been previously identified by Chief Hargrove as being the 21 Winona and Montgomery County E.O.C. dispatch log. And are you
22 familiar with what those look like?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. All right. And then the third page says M.H.P. on 25 the top. Are you familiar with what that is?

26 A. Yes.

27 Q. All right. Chief Hargrove testified that the E.O.C.
28 log is perpetual, and they would have this sort of record from 29 the entire time period I have requested. Do you have any

1 knowledge about the highway patrol dispatch log? Is theirs
2 also perpetual? If I wanted to get a few hours before this or
3 a few hours after that, would that be in existence?

4 A. I think that is what this is, this third page starts
5 at 0854 and stops at 1358, I think.

6 Q. But if I wanted what happened at 0600 and --

7 A. I think --

8 Q. -- the next day --

9 A. I don't know how long they keep their records. I
10 don't know the answer to that, but --

11 Q. But --

12 A. -- for some time you would. But at this date, I
13 don't know.

14 Q. All right. But you certainly as a D.A. investigator
15 sometimes called on the highway patrol to produce larger than 16 a single days worth of records.

17 A. Sure.

18 Q. Would it surprise you to learn I counted it up? I
19 have -- in the material on Defendant's 1, I have handwritten 20 witness interview statements, either with J.M.J. -- that is 21 your initials; is that correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Either with that on it or what appears to be the 24 same handwriting for 82 different people. Is that a fair
25 characterization of the number of people you interviewed in 26 this matter?

27 A. Very well may be.

28 Q. And actually, about 105 separate kinds of contacts.
29 You not only interviewed; you showed photo arrays. You

1 personally collected evidence and that sort of thing. Is that
2 correct?

3 A. I was involved. Yes.

4 Q. All right. And again, as I assembled what is on
5 Defendant's Exhibit 1 in this, apart from a report of an
6 interview written up by some officers in New Orleans of a
7 witness from New Orleans, the larger transcribed taped
8 statement taken on July the 18 from Curtis Flowers, and the 9 statement of one of the Mary Flemmings. And I can't remember
10 which one off the top of my head. And maybe -- well, those 11 are the only transcribed statements or written reports I have 12 that either do not -- your initials don't appear on the report
13 of them or you -- what appears to be the same format for 14 report taking in your handwriting.

15 Would that be safe to say that you were able to 16 participate in all but three or four at most of the witness
17 investigation interviews and interactions in investigating
18 this case?

19 A. I, I can only -- as for the ones that have my 20 initials on it, that is the ones I participated in.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. But yes, I participated in all of those.

23 Q. All right. Well, let me ask you about that.

24 May I hand the district attorney something?

25 THE COURT: You may.

26 MS. STEINER: Again, I am going to hand him a
27 packet of what I think are just a selection of his 28 different notes that I'd like to show the district
29 attorney.

1                   MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if, if all we are going
2 to do on this hearing is her show different things that
3 we furnished in discovery, I don't think that is relevant
4 to whether or not discovery has been furnished. I think
5 this is just a complete waste of time and not relevant.

6                   MS. STEINER: Your --

7                   MR. EVANS: Now, if she has some something that
8 she does not think she has been furnished in discovery, I
9 have no objection to going into it. But as far as just 10 going over and over and over things that have come out at 11 every trial and things that have been furnished in 12 discovery, that cannot be relevant to a Motion for 13 Discovery.

14                  MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I am simply 15 attempting to ascertain that what I -- that I do have 16 everything. I, I just -- he has just now testified that 17 his initials need to be on a paper for it -- me to be 18 confident that I have his notes.

19                  And if they are not, I really need to know if there
20 might be other officers whose notes or summaries I might 21 need to request from the D.A. I just want him to look
22 through these pages and tell me if I am mistaken.

23                  Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) Let me hand you, Mr. Johnson, 24 some pages that I have been assuming in the years I have been 25 involved in this case were interview notes taken by you, but 26 they have no initials. And if I -- if you answer this 27 question that these aren't your notes, then I obviously will 28 have to ask for more of a specific discovery.

29                  But I'm handing you -- for the record, these are Pages

1 905 --

2 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, just for the record,
3 the Court never ruled on the motion.

4 THE COURT: Well, if there are some notes, I
5 think she can ask Mr. Johnson whether these notes are 6 his. Because if they are not his, then, then there might 7 be somebody who's, who's -- well, she would need to find
8 out whose notes they are.

9 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) All right. So let me repeat
10 again.

11 And I'm not sure if I ever offered that disk into
12 evidence --

13 THE COURT: It was.

14 MS. STEINER: -- and it was admitted.

15 All right. So this is Pages 905, 977, 904, 707 and 16 916. And I'm going to ask you to review these and tell
17 me if despite the absence of initials these are, in fact,
18 notes taken by you in the course of the investigations in 19 which you participated.

20 A. They are.

21 Q. All right. Thank you.

22 I have one other unsigned item. It is Page 6. Which,
23 again, in my amateur way I, I classed with notes you had 24 taken.

25 A. I took those.

26 Q. Those are -- that was a summary --

27 A. Um-hum.

28 Q. -- that you made of people who had seen a certain
29 event; is that correct?

1 A. (Nodded.)

2 Q. All right. Let me ask you. Some of these -- I am
3 going to hand you Page 979. That happens to be an interview
4 with a lady named Catherine Snow. And I note -- I take it
5 these are, in fact, notes you took. Are these all
6 contemporaneous if they are handwritten.

7 A. I took these.

8 Q. Okay. Now, I notice on this one that there is 9 initials J.M.J. There is also a J.M. Is that Jack Matthews?

10 A. Yeah. I put that there.

11 Q. All right. You would write -- would you write
12 everybody present at the interview?

13 A. I tried to do that. But, you know, it was just a
14 policy on keeping up with my daily events. And then if I was 15 talking to a witness that felt uncomfortable when you picked
16 up a pen or something, I may alleviate -- you know, not do any 17 writing at the time. And I would scratch this down, moving or 18 whatever. I mean it is just something for me to keep up with.

19 Q. So it's possible that if, if it were those 20 circumstances, even your initials might not be on the paper --

21 A. That's true.

22 Q. -- or there might be people there who weren't
23 shown --

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. -- to be there.

26 A. That's true.

27 Q. I also believe -- I think we know from the testimony
28 the first conversation with Miss Snow on 7-16 occurred at her
29 place of employment at Angelica. And across the top it says

1 Angelica. Does that designate that that is where the
2 interview took place?

3 A. Not necessarily. I might have been just noting for 4 myself that she worked at Angelica.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. I'm not -- I know that we -- I think we went to 7 Angelica there but that we also may have talked to her in 8 another location.

9 Q. All right. And then you have got a time there, 3:36
10 p.m.

11 A. That would be the time that we did that interview.

12 Q. And again, some of the papers I already handed you
13 have a time stamp, some don't. What would be the reason you
14 wouldn't --

15 A. Just people talking, interruptions or whatever.

16 Q. All right. And so you personally, obviously,
17 preserved and kept and turned over to the D.A. to turn over to 18 defense all these notes.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you ever prepare any sort of investigative
21 summary? Well, let me step back.

22 When you were chief of police in Winona and you had a
23 crime that was investigated by several officers, would you
24 appoint an officer in charge? You know, if there were two
25 different --

26 A. There would usually be a senior officer.

27 Q. Senior officer. And would he or she at the 28 conclusion of the investigation write up a final report for 29 the prosecuting authorities?

1           A.    Some times.  Not always.  But some times, yes.

2           Q.    And would your officers typically preserve their raw
3 notes?  Or would they make a report and then destroy them?

4           A.    It, it depended on the time, when this timeframe --
5 a lot of things.  I, I don't have a clear answer to that.

6           Q.    Okay.  But now at this time you are working for the 7 D.A.'s office.  Did the D.A. have a practice of having his 8 investigators write up final investigative summaries and 9 either keep or destroy their notes?

10          A.    I don't think there was an overall summary --

11          Q.    Do you --

12          A.    -- from, from myself.

13          Q.    Okay.  And did you supervise any other officers --

14          A.    No.

15          Q.    -- who were doing this?

16                Did you turn your notes or any of your documentation that 17 you made of your own investigative efforts over to any other
18 law enforcement agencies?

19          A.    To my knowledge, everything that we have would have 20 been in our file that I had.

21          Q.    All right.  And did you service a repository for 22 reports of other -- of like if the sheriff's department had a
23 file or M.H.P. had a file.  Did they turn everything over to 24 you, or would they have their own files?

25          A.    They would have their own files.

26          Q.    Okay.  Thank you.

27          A.    We shared information.  But as far as a documented
28 report outline as to everything they did, I don't have 29 anything like that.

1 Q. Okay. And on this case I believe you've testified
2 that this was the -- sort of the worst crime you had ever had
3 the misfortune to have to be investigator on; is that correct?

4 A. That's true.

5 Q. Did you -- can we rely that if there is something in
6 your handwriting about a witness interview that you did
7 interview that witness or you did do what was said there? And 8 if we don't have it, there -- either there was -- it was never
9 done or you didn't write it down when you did it.

10 Let me strike that. Did you write down notes on every 11 witness or suspect interview you had in this matter to the 12 best of your recollection that you participated in?

13 A. I'm not familiar with another suspect if that is 14 what you are --

15 Q. Oh, no. I'm sorry.

16 A. I mean you threw me off when you mentioned --

17 Q. I wanted to make sure to include -- have you -- did
18 you -- do you think that you kept and turned in for disclosure
19 in discovery all the notes you took in your capacity as a fact
20 investigator on the facts of the murders at Tardy Furniture?

21 A. I don't know that I would swear that every note I
22 took -- I am just like any other human being. In addition to
23 being an officer, I tried to record, document everything as I
24 went through the case.

25 But riding down the road if I made a note on a piece of 26 paper or something like that, I wouldn't -- you know, I mean
27 that kind of thing, I tried to be responsible and record
28 everything that related to this case and -- does that answer
29 the question?

1           Q.   That's fine. I was looking through the discovery.
2 I note that the district attorney's office received an undated
3 letter that was produced, a three-page letter from Mr. Odell
4 Hallmon. And it was produced in December of 2001 to a prior
5 counsel.

6           Were you the investigator in the office who handled
7 processing that letter and developing Mr. Hallmon as a
8 witness? And if not, who was?

9           A.   I would have been involved. I have heard Mr.
10 Hallmon's statements before.

11          Q.   And I believe that he both gave that letter and then
12 we were notified there were two tape-recorded statements taken
13 from him in the course -- I'm not sure if it is tape or video.
14 He gave two statements sometime in May of --

15          A.   I don't remember the dates, but I know he did make 16 some statements.

17          Q.   Okay. Do you recall the date that Mr. Hallmon's
18 three-page letter that was disclosed in December of 2001 came 19 into the office?

20          A.   No, I don't.

21          Q.   Okay. And other than the tape recordings and this
22 written statement from him, do you recall having interviewed
23 him and made the kind of notes that you made that you've 24 identified earlier with other witnesses?

25          A.   I don't recall that.

26          Q.   So they could exist, but you don't know one way or 27 the other.

28          A.   I don't know.

29          Q.   It's only been 13 years. Or actually, it's only

1    been eight years on him.

2           I'm handing you the documents, Pages 265 through 272,
3    with the D.A. Bate Stamps 41 through 48 and ask you - it's
4    entitled Information Obtained by District Attorney - and ask
5    you if you prepared that or participated in the preparation of
6    that.

7           A.    Yes, I was -- not in preparing this statement, but I
8    was a witness to that interview.

9           Q.    I appreciate that. That actually -- let me describe
10   that. That actually appears to be some sort of summary of the 11   investigation made at some point. And I just didn't know if 12   that was -- as D.A. investigator that might have been a
13   document you had prepared or collated as your final report.

14          And if so, if you knew when that was put together and how 15   it was done and who else participated in the preparation of 16   the document.

17                   MR. EVANS: May I see which document we are 18   referring to, Your Honor?

19                   MS. STEINER: It's document entitled
20   Information Obtained by District Attorney, Re:
21   Statements.

22                   MR. EVANS: I --

23                   MS. STEINER: I'm happy to have you --

24                   MR. EVANS: I can clearly state where that came 25   from if, if the Court would like. This is documents that 26   are our work product that we prepared, that we didn't
27   even have to furnish in discovery. But we did because it
28   was out of the items that were furnished. It is work
29   product is what it is that was prepared by the

1 investigators -- not the investigators, the D.A. and the
2 assistants that were working this case.

3 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Doug. I appreciate
4 that.

5 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) I didn't know if you -- well,
6 would you say that in the beginning of this investigation you
7 were one of the on-the-ground law enforcement officers
8 investigating what had happened and hopefully identifying and 9 bringing the evidence to prosecute a suspect? You went out
10 the gate as a fact investigator.

11 A. Yes, ma'am.

12 Q. And then by the time it was getting ready to go to 13 trial, you put on your other hat which is to be the 14 investigator who assists the D.A. in developing the case and 15 making sure the evidence gets there for court and that, that 16 sort of thing.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. So you wore two hats. And I just didn't
19 know if this was something you wore in your investigator hat
20 or if this was something that you helped with once you became 21 the D.A.'s assistant, investigator for purpose of preparing 22 for trial.

23 The D.A. has just said he prepared that with your 24 assistance but you didn't --

25 MR. EVANS: No, I did not say I --

26 MS. STEINER: Oh, I'm sorry.

27 MR. EVANS: -- prepared it with his assistance.

28 I said that it was me and one of my assistants prepared
29 this.

1 MS. STEINER: Oh, I thought you said you
2 prepared it with your investigators.

3 MR. EVANS: No.

4 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) Okay. So that was prepared by 5 the D.A. You didn't prepare that.

6 A. No, I didn't.

7 Q. I know your name isn't on this, but I'm handing you
8 Document 775 from Exhibit 1 that appears to be standard
9 Miranda waivers, Criminal Investigation Bureau, which would be 10 the highway patrol. And it's signed by Jack Matthews, who was 11 -- was he the chief, chief person for C.I.D.?

12 A. I think so.

13 Q. All right. Pertaining to Mr. Willie James
14 Hemphill -- and I didn't know. Are we missing a statement
15 from a Mr. Willie James Hemphill? Did you ever -- of Memphis,
16 Tennessee.

17 A. I'm not familiar with this.

18 Q. Okay. You did not interview Willie James Hemphill.

19 A. No. No.

20 Q. To your knowledge, when you sat down with -- this 21 was taken on July 21, 1996, and I'm assuming that was in the 22 height of everybody investigating. And you were talking
23 frequently with Mr. Matthews and the other investigators to 24 decide what to do next.

25 Did anybody ever mention having interviewed a Mr. Willie
26 James Hemphill?

27 A. I don't remember that name myself.

28 Q. And then there was also some evidence submitted to 29 the crime lab from Ellisville, Mississippi, some clothing and

1 other things collected from someone named Jeffery Hudson. Do
2 you have any -- did you ever interview or process or do any of
3 the investigation that lead to a Mr. Jeffery Hudson having 4 evidence taken from him and submitted in connection with this
5 case?

6 A. No, ma'am.

7 Q. All right. Now, I believe that on July 16, a
8 gunshot residue kit was collected from Mr. Curtis Flowers.

9 A. That's right.

10 Q. Did you know that was happening then?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Did you request that it be done?

13 A. It was discussed. I know Mr. Matthews collected it.

14 Q. At that time you and Mr. Matthews were both talking
15 back and forth about what needed to be done right away. And 16 he wouldn't do anything without telling you and you wouldn't 17 do anything --

18 A. No, that, that wasn't lined up.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. I mean he worked for the Mississippi Highway Patrol.
21 I worked for the district attorney. And we tried to work in 22 cooperation as much as possible toward the same goal. But you
23 know, I don't know all that they did or didn't do.

24 Q. Do you know -- did you request that this be done?

25 A. I think Mr. Matthews requested that.

26 Q. Okay.

27 A. Now, when you say requested, you talking about
28 requesting from the crime lab?

29 Q. No. As an investigator saying one of the things we

1 need to collect here is a G.S.R. on Mr. --

2 A. I can't recall. We may have all discussed it, but
3 Mr. Matthews collected it.

4 Q. Did you collect a G.S.R. off of anybody else? I
5 know Mr. Simpson had reported losing a gun, Doyle Simpson.
6 Emmitt Simpson himself reported as having been accused of 7 stealing a gun by Mr. Simpson.

8 Did you request anybody or you yourself perform a gunshot
9 residue collection kit? And I'm not trying to get at the 10 testimony that people have given that they didn't. I am
11 asking you did you request it.

12 A. I, I don't remember that. But you know, you were 13 stating that Mr. Simpson's brother was a suspect --

14 Q. I'm not saying he was a suspect.

15 A. -- of stealing a gun; did you say?

16 Q. I'm saying as I understand the testimony and the 17 evidence collected, at some point Emmitt Simpson said my 18 brother accused me or my cousin accused me of stealing a gun.
19 And I didn't know --

20 A. Right. That, that was suggested by Doyle Simpson.
21 He confronted his brother --

22 Q. Right.

23 A. -- thinking he might have gotten it at first. Yes.

24 Q. Right. But you did not -- so far as you know,
25 nobody took --

26 A. I'm not familiar of anyone else doing a G.S.R. kit.

27 Q. Okay.

28 A. I'm not saying there was not. I am just not
29 familiar with it.

1 Q. One of the reasons I'm asking is in the -- when we
2 came on the case, the D.A.'s office gave us all -- everything
3 that had been filed and included a very large master list of 4 everything that had been previously served that had actually
5 been attached to the service. And one of the things attached
6 to that list was something about something dated -- a report
7 dated August 27, 1996, from the state crime lab.

8 And I have now gone through both what had been produced
9 to us and what I've gotten from the crime lab, and there is no
10 report with that date. And I'm trying to sort out, is this a
11 typo or might there have been something else.

12 And this was at or around the times that we were getting,
13 I think, the other -- the immediate trace evidence stuff was 14 coming back during that, before that part of the year. And I
15 just didn't know if that might have been something --

16 A. I don't know. I would have to guess and would have 17 to suspect it to be a typo, but I wouldn't start to even guide
18 it there.

19 Q. Okay. But it might be worth at least asking --

20 A. I'm not familiar with it.

21 Q. -- to look and see if there is such a thing in 22 y'all's office.

23 A. I don't think our office has anything to do with 24 anything like that.

25 Q. All right. And let me ask you this. In October of 26 1996, and I'm handing you Page 541 on Exhibit 1. And I know
27 that you are not -- are neither the delivering or submitting
28 or requesting officer. But on October 1 of 1996, there is an
29 evidence submission form for something labeled Exhibit 77,

1 .380 caliber Lorcin automatic. It says pistor, but it's
2 apparently pistol.

3 And I was wondering if you, in your capacity as being so
4 involved in the investigation or talking with Mr. Matthews and
5 Mr. Miller, who submitted this, if you know from whom that gun
6 was collected and why it was submitted to the crime lab.

7 A. I don't know the answer to that.

8 Q. All right. Do you know -- you didn't have anything
9 to do with requesting any of the tests on this.

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. I'm handing you Page 800 from that disk. And 12 it is a letter addressed to Lieutenant Wayne Miller, and it is 13 from your colleague Robert Jennings. And it's referring to 14 two interviews that Mr. Jennings had -- one with Doyle Simpson
15 on July 22 and one with Curtis Flowers on July 23 of 1996.

16 And in it he refers to copies of the questions he asked
17 and some charts that were associated with responses to those 18 questions. I'm going to let you inspect that.

19 I will say for the record that in Defense 1 there
20 appeared to be two, three handwritten lists, that were 21 furnished in association with this, of questions that I'm 22 satisfied from prior discovery are what is being referred to 23 there, relating to the interview with Mr. Flowers, one with 24 notations of plus or minus on it. And one with Mr. Simpson,
25 also with notations of plus or minus on it.

26 My question is I think it uses the words charts. And he 27 uses an and. So I don't think those lists are charts. Are 28 you aware of whether or not what he calls the charts are in 29 existence? I would state for the record that they are not --

1 I don't have anything that I would associate as charts on
2 that.

3 A. I would not be involved in that.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. That would be Mr. Jennings.

6 Q. Okay. He would have acted independent. He wouldn't 7 have gone through you --

8 A. No, ma'am.

9 Q. -- for that.

10 All right. But do you recall ever having charts come in 11 to your position --

12 A. No, ma'am.

13 Q. -- as an investigator?

14 There was in, again --

15 THE COURT: Weren't the charts you were talking
16 about polygraph?

17 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir, they were.

18 MS. STEINER: Yes. And as I say, I will say
19 that on what I am furnished there is not anything that I
20 would associate -- that looks like that. And I just was 21 wondering and possibly, you know, I was going to ask. I
22 just didn't -- we don't have those. If they are in 23 existence, I think they need to be furnished.

24 THE COURT: Are there any?

25 MR. EVANS: No, sir. We have looked for the 26 charts, the results. I think the report is in existence.
27 It has been furnished. The Court has ruled that we 28 cannot go into it. They know what was there, and we have 29 talked about it numerous times.

1 MS. STEINER: I, I understand that. I mean and
2 its value is as an interrogation but...

3 MR. EVANS: Well, it would be to me.

4 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) Now, according to the district
5 attorney summary that we were discussing, there were, in
6 addition to the interview with Mr. Jennings, at least three
7 interviews with Mr. Flowers conducted by law enforcement; is
8 that correct?

9 A. As I understand that, yes.

10 Q. And I believe according to Page 1037 in the summary
11 and the Miranda waiver, you participated in a conversation
12 with Mr. Flowers on July 13 --

13 A. 16th.

14 Q. -- 16th, excuse me, at about 1:30 in the afternoon.

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. I am going to hand you Page 801 and Page 1037. And 17 let me confirm that those are both documents you prepared or 18 participated in the preparation of.

19 A. I participated in them, yes.

20 Q. All right. Now, the second page, Page 1037, is a 21 single page handwriting. That is your handwriting; is that
22 right?

23 A. Um-hum.

24 Q. And you've noted you were there and the time. Is 25 that the only page of notes from that conversation you had?
26 It appears to end very abruptly, and I was wondering if there
27 might be a second page of those.

28 A. No. I think, to my knowledge, that is it.

29 Q. Did you prepare that as you were having the

1 conversation? Or was this one of those conversations that you
2 felt you should probably just not have a pen in your hand and
3 prepare later?

4 A. I did this while it was going on.

5 Q. My only question was you put approximately 1:30 up
6 there.

7 A. I always do that. I don't get specific, you know,
8 for my watch may be off or whatever, a lot of different
9 reasons. Just like not to give a documentation on a specific 10 location not to scale. You just put not to scale there to 11 keep from being pinned down in case there is a conflicting
12 problem there.

13 Q. Now, the longest interview, as I understand it from 14 the testimony and the discovery, with Mr. Flowers actually
15 occurred on July 18 of 1996.

16 A. Um-hum.

17 Q. And at Page 802 Mr. Matthews and his colleague Wayne
18 Miller administered Miranda warnings at 1455.

19 A. Um-hum.

20 Q. And then at 1502, excuse me, took a statement that's 21 located at Pages 781 through 799, district attorney's Bates
22 numbers Page 90 through 108.

23 A. Um-hum.

24 Q. And that's in a slightly different format than the 25 recorded statements you took. Was that statement transcribed
26 by someone at C.I.D.?

27 A. I, I don't know the answer to that.

28 Q. Okay. Did you sit in on that statement?

29 A. No.

1 Q. All right. Was there -- to your knowledge, was
2 there any reason why you didn't at that point?

3 A. I think one thing, you know, if you have got three 4 people in a room, you didn't want him to feel intimidated and
5 be comfortable in his conversation. You know, a lot of times
6 that's the answer. But on that particular case, the 7 situation, I don't know for sure. I don't know for sure.

8 Q. And then there's a third statement in the summary
9 and a third Miranda warning dated July 23 in which Wayne
10 Miller and Jack Matthews also report in the D.A. summary as 11 having been present and had a conversation and taking a pair
12 of shoes. Did you participate in that conversation or event?
13 I am handing you -- will you read the page numbers at the 14 bottom?

15 A. 803. And is it 270?

16 Q. 270. Yeah. 271.

17 A. I don't think I -- I may have been there, but I
18 didn't participate. And I don't know that I was in the room
19 when he was actually --

20 Q. As far as you know, you didn't take any --

21 A. No.

22 Q. -- notes as you did in that first conversation.

23 A. No.

24 Q. All right. Thank you.

25 The discovery refers to a recorded statement by Troy
26 Yates taken from Curtis Flowers in the master list. Who is 27 Troy Yates? Is he a police officer?

28 A. He was a citizen here that when the sheriff, former 29 sheriff, become disabled from an accident or whatever, he was

1 a friend to the sheriff or auxillary deputy or something on
2 that order. Specifically, I don't know the answer to that.

3 Q. Okay. You don't know --

4 A. That's as much as I know about it.

5 Q. -- how he came to be taking a recorded statement
6 from Mr. Flowers.

7 A. No. I'm not directly involved with that.

8 Q. I, I didn't ask if you were directly involved in it.
9 But you were the chief investigator for the D.A.'s office or 10 you were doing a lot of work for the D.A.'s office. Were you
11 aware of that statement and the circumstances under which it
12 was taken?

13 A. I read the statement later, but I was not involved
14 with it.

15 Q. So there is a written transcript of that statement.

16 A. I heard Troy and them talking about it. And I, I
17 don't know that I read one, but I know that Troy and the 18 sheriff, former sheriff, had talked about it. I don't know.

19 Q. But there is a tape recording of that statement if 20 that is what is disclosed.

21 A. I don't know. There may be. I don't know. If it
22 was, I didn't have anything to do with it. I don't know
23 anything about it.

24 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if I may, for the 25 record, I think I can explain this point. This was not 26 done by law enforcement. This was done by a friend of 27 the defendant, and it was done at their dealings. We had 28 nothing to do with it.

29 So once we got information that it was there, even

1           though it was not something that we prepared, it was done
2           at his own doings, we furnished what we had to defense.

3                     MS. STEINER: All right.

4                     MR. EVANS: But it was not done by law
5           enforcement. It was not done by the D.A.'s office. It
6           was not done in furtherance of the prosecution. It was 7           done by the defendant and his friend.

8                     MS. STEINER: And you still have the recording.

9                     MR. EVANS: I have no idea if I ever had a
10          recording. Whatever we had was furnished.

11                    MS. STEINER: Well, the problem, as it turns
12          out, as I went through this, it appears that we do not 13          have any tape or video recordings, except possibly the 14          Odell Hallmon interviews, physically in our office from 15          these interviews that happened during that first few 16          months. And I am at the conclusion going to ask that we 17          do have the right to come and make copies of those.

18                    MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think this we got 19          from one of the former defense attorneys.

20                    MS. STEINER: Okay.

21                    THE COURT: Troy Yates. Was he doing anything?

22                    MR. EVANS: No, sir. He was not working in the 23          capacity of law enforcement at that time.

24                    MS. STEINER: But he did turn something in to 25          you and you were --

26                    MR. EVANS: Not to me. No.

27                    MS. STEINER: Somebody. A defense attorney
28          turned it in to you.

29                    MR. EVANS: That is the best I can remember. I

1 think it was Gilmore that had furnished it to us.

2 MS. STEINER: All right.

3 MR. EVANS: And at some point -- it may have
4 been Chokwe Lumumba did not have what we had. We told
5 him what we had.

6 MS. STEINER: Okay.

7 MR. EVANS: I think that is the way it went.

8 MS. STEINER: It is just on a list that has 9 multiple updates --

10 MR. EVANS: Yeah.

11 MS. STEINER: -- from the time when the 12 Gilmores were doing it, from the time when Mr. Lumumba
13 was doing it. And I think a new list was started after 14 we got involved. So there may be that tape recording and 15 possibly --

16 MR. EVANS: If it is, y'all saw it. I don't
17 know.

18 MS. STEINER: I'm saying for the record we 19 don't have it. And certainly we are going to ask for 20 access to come and make copies of those.

21 MR. HILL: Your Honor, I don't know how it
22 could be much plainer. This is something that the 23 defendant went to Troy Yates and gave voluntarily. It
24 was not furnished to us. We don't have any tape
25 recording to the best of my knowledge.

26 MS. STEINER: The disclosure indicates that
27 there was a tape-recorded statement. I didn't know if it
28 was a tape recording or a written statement.

29 MR. EVANS: You can ask your client.

1 MS. STEINER: We have neither.

2 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) Now Mr. Johnson, you did actually
3 take tape-recorded statements from several of the people you
4 personally interviewed; is that correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 MS. STEINER: I've got to reach in my bag.

7 Excuse me. I am going to turn my back on you, Your
8 Honor.

9 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) I'm handing you, just for example
10 purposes, Pages 868 and 869 of the discovery on the disk
11 entitled statement of Beneva Henry. You don't have to talk
12 about the substance of it.

13 I am asking you to look at that format. It is a
14 uncaptioned, typed statement that says whose statement it is 15 and introduction with who was there and then a "Q" and "A"
16 with the questioner and the responder.

17 Is that the format of any tape-recorded statements you
18 took that were transcribed?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So if I find statements that look like that and in 21 that typeface...

22 A. I can answer for this one.

23 Q. Yeah.

24 A. That is Miss Henry.

25 Q. Okay. Did you send these out to be transcribed, or 26 did you have someone in the D.A.'s office who did this for
27 you?

28 A. I don't know. I don't remember that. Sometimes our 29 secretary will do it, and sometimes the police department will

1 have it done. But I don't know the answer to that.

2 Q. All right. To your knowledge, are the tape
3 recordings from which these transcripts made still in the 4 possession of the district attorney's office?

5 A. I'm sorry.

6 Q. Are the actual tapes in the possession of the 7 district attorney's office?

8 A. I would assume so.

9 Q. Are they small scale tapes?

10 A. Yes. Microcassette.

11 Q. Microcassette tapes. All right. So that is what I
12 need to be digging through my boxes to see if we have 13 microcassette tapes.

14 A. You should have all those. We made copies of all of
15 them.

16 Q. Did you make them for this office, or did you make 17 them for Mr. Lumumba or Mr. Gilmore?

18 A. I think two different times we made copies of the 19 tapes.

20 Q. Okay. But do they still exist if for some reason
21 they didn't end up coming to us? If we want to come up with a
22 small scale, they are still there to be copied if we need to.

23 A. As far as I know, I think so.

24 Q. Thank you.

25 Excuse me, Your Honor. I'm used to a bigger table.

26 I showed you a Miranda form without a statement. There
27 is a transcribed statement of Doyle Simpson that was taken -
28 and I can't remember the exact date - in which there was also 29 a note dated the same date in your hand, in which it says

1 Miranda warnings were given by someone. And there is no
2 actual Miranda waiver form attached. And I think it's from a
3 numbered-thing, and there is no page before or after it
4 missing.

5 Do you have a recollection of whether or not a written
6 Miranda form was ever obtained from Doyle Simpson?

7 A. I don't know. It may have been just read to him
8 from a card. I, I don't know the answer to that or which 9 interview you are talking about or day and time.

10 Q. All right. Let me find this then. This is what I
11 was looking for before. I am handing you pages marked 917 and
12 then 921 through 920 -- well, I'm handing you Pages 921
13 through 923, which appears to be the first three pages of the 14 statement taken August 14, 1996, from Doyle Simpson.

15 And the first page is a date of same date with a similar
16 time stamp and asking you to review those and see if you can
17 tell me whether or not you can tell from that whether or not a
18 written waiver was taken.

19 A. It says here mirandized and says from card. That is 20 why I --

21 Q. Okay. Okay. So that means it was done orally --

22 A. Um-hum.

23 Q. -- but not written.

24 There is a little -- looks like a tear out of the corner
25 of that piece of paper at the bottom. It is about a third
26 generation photocopy. Do you recall if there was -- did you
27 tear that off or did it just get --

28 A. If it was a full size, it wouldn't have been a tear.
29 It could have been just a note or something that got stuck on

1     there.  I don't know the answer to that.

2             Q.    You don't recall if you --

3             A.    No, ma'am.

4             Q.    -- tore that off for any reason.

5             A.    No, ma'am.

6             Q.    I have asked you, you don't know anything about an
7     August 27 forensic report from the crime lab.

8             A.    Forensics on what?

9             Q.    That is what I don't know.  We talked earlier about 10    whether this was a typo.

11            A.    The only way I would know is if, you know, when you
12    send something to the lab, you have a submission form showing
13    the request of what you want analyzed and why.  And you know,
14    unless I saw that and who signed it in, I wouldn't know.

15            Q.    Were you the officer who assisted Mr. Carter and 16    Miss O'Flaherty the first time they came and requested 188
17    pages of documents from the file back in August of 2003?

18            A.    I don't remember.

19            Q.    So you wouldn't --

20            A.    It very well could be.

21            Q.    Okay.  Do you know --

22            A.    Or somebody else at the office could have been
23    there.  I don't know.

24            Q.    To your knowledge, the D.A.'s office preserved
25    copies of everything of that particular 188-page submission.

26            A.    I would think we have preserved everything that we
27    have on that case.

28            Q.    So that would be available if --

29            A.    As far as I know, everything is available.

1 Q. -- we have missing pages from that.

2 Your Honor, may I proceed with the questions that would
3 be pertinent to the motion for bail as well, rather than
4 recalling Mr. Johnson or making him wait?

5 THE COURT: That will be fine.

6 Q. You, I believe, signed the affidavit once you had
7 determined that Mr. Flowers -- you had the evidence to charge
8 Mr. Flowers. You signed the affidavit and obtained the 9 warrant; is that correct?

10 A. I was -- yes.

11 Q. All right. One of the things that for whatever
12 reason isn't in our file is the warrant itself. The general
13 affidavit was signed, I think, on January 9. Did you obtain 14 the warrant the same day that you submitted the affidavit or 15 was there a delay?

16 A. That's been some time ago, but I think it would have 17 been done the same day.

18 Q. It was done in front of Judge Morgan.

19 A. Morgan.

20 Q. Do you ordinarily get felony warrants signed by the 21 circuit judge?

22 A. Well, you can. I mean it's not an undone practice.
23 It's not a common practice, but we did choose to go before
24 Judge Morgan on that.

25 Q. Do you -- was it just the officers who -- did you
26 submit any kind of further statement of probable cause other
27 than just the warrant? It's the last -- just the affidavit,
28 the general affidavit. Those are the last two pages.

29 A. The general affidavit is all I remember.

1 Q. Okay. And did that warrant get issued? And you
2 think that --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- warrant got issued that day.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. When did you first attempt to serve that warrant?
7 Did you make any investigation to find him?

8 A. We, we knew that he had -- was in Pilot Point,
9 Texas. And you know, we watched as far as comings and goings
10 here. I knew he had been here on a weekend or two. But we 11 were able to confirm that he was there, and we just had him
12 picked up there.

13 Q. Okay. And you were satisfied that you knew his 14 whereabouts and if he was in Texas that you could get him
15 there on a phone call and notification of warrant.

16 A. Well, I don't know that. I think we were concerned
17 about his stability. I mean to leave here and go out there
18 would have been unusual.

19 Q. But he would come back visiting several weekends
20 during that time.

21 A. Well, I don't know that he was public with that.

22 Q. Winona is --

23 A. I would get word that he might have come home on the 24 weekend, but he wasn't out in the public like we thought he 25 normally would be.

26 Q. He didn't have a job here, of course.

27 A. That's right.

28 Q. He was well aware that he was under suspicion --

29 A. Yes, ma'am.

1 Q. -- and that people in the neighborhood --

2 A. Yes, ma'am.

3 Q. And, you know, he could go downtown and there were 4 people who had already decided he was a murderer who just
5 hadn't been arrested, probably wasn't a very pleasant place
6 for him to be out in public.

7 A. Well, I don't know what he felt like. I am just 8 saying that we were concerned about his mobility there.

9 Q. All right. But he had not disappeared from where 10 you knew where he was at any time between when you first
11 questioned him and the time you picked him up.

12 A. He, he didn't report to me that he was moving to 13 Texas. I don't know what else I can say.

14 Q. Had you requested that he do so?

15 A. I think we had.

16 Q. Okay. But you knew where he was and you went and 17 got him when you needed him.

18 A. Well, we did some checking and found where he was.
19 Yes, ma'am.

20 Q. And he signed a waiver of extradition and returned
21 home within 24 hours of having been detained in Texas; is that
22 correct?

23 A. I think so.

24 Q. And every time you participated in calling him in to 25 be interviewed or give anything he came and cooperated; is
26 that correct?

27 A. That's right.

28 Q. And he, to your knowledge, has not -- you have had 29 no reports that he has ever attempted not to show up for a

1 court appearance or to leave or escape from custody on this
2 court appearance during the time -- these 13 years he has been
3 in detention.

4 A. I have no knowledge of that.

5 Q. Okay. You certainly don't have any knowledge he 6 has.

7 A. No, I don't.

8 Q. I have one other question, and this really is one
9 other area.

10 I believe that in the trials there are two witnesses, a
11 Mrs. Catherine Snow and a Mr. Charles Collins, who is now
12 deceased, and who we are using prior testimony from, who were 13 shown photo arrays in which Mr. Flowers was allegedly 14 identified.

15 And did you participate in both of those photo array
16 show-ups, per se?

17 A. I did.

18 Q. Are the original sleeves and envelopes of the actual 19 arrays, are they still in existence?

20 A. To my knowledge they are.

21 Q. All right. I, I really don't know what's what. Let 22 me give you the pages I'm handing you and see if you can maybe
23 talk to me about who was shown what and what they represent.
24 And I'm handing you Pages 710, 712, 713, 714, 981, 982, 983
25 and 984. And let me show these to Mr. Evans.

26 If you want to look at that.

27 (MS. STEINER SHOWED THE DOCUMENTS TO MR. EVANS.)

28 MS. STEINER: Thank, you Doug.

29 MR. EVANS: All right.

1 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, may I stand next to
2 the witness, because I have very specific questions?

3 THE COURT: You may.

4 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) If you review all of these and if
5 you could sort out for me, if you can recall, which show-up,
6 which photo arrays were shown to which witness? And then also
7 tell me which was the first and which was the second photo
8 array shown to Mr. Collins.

9 A. I would have a difficult time doing that from this,
10 because these are just photostatic copies of the originals,
11 number one.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. But I know that on the originals, in the 14 photographs, when they were identified, whatever they 15 identified, such as Catherine Snow saying that's him, I had 16 her to initial the back of the photograph, and I initialed it.

17 Q. All right.

18 A. Or the back of the deal in order to identify that on 19 the original. That wouldn't show on here.

20 Q. Okay. Just a second. Let me --

21 A. I can't tell from looking at that unless I
22 remembered the dates and got that straight in my mind which 23 one was shown to which person.

24 Q. All right. I'm showing you -- I'm showing you four
25 pieces of paper that appear to be front and back of the same
26 pictures. One of which has the name Catherine Snow written
27 somewhere on it. And these are pages in no particular order,
28 981, 982, 983 and 984. I have to say I arranged these on my 29 best guess of what was what.

1 MR. EVANS: Your Honor --

2 Q. And I am going to ask you --

3 MR. EVANS: -- if I may object, Your Honor,
4 before she continues. Every witness that has testified
5 from these has testified from originals.

6 The originals have been in the court files on 7 several trials. They are available. There is no need in
8 trying to reproduce something here in court and have a
9 witness testify that is not even in the same order it was 10 furnished.

11 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, that is why I'm
12 asking this, because, unfortunately, we have yet -- I
13 mean some of these are defense exhibits. We have yet to 14 have absolutely gotten this, and I would like to ask him
15 questions about --

16 First, I want to identify that this is as best you
17 can tell photographs --

18 THE COURT: Wait. Have we not had those in the 19 other trial?

20 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. We have. A good place
21 for her to look would be in the court file.

22 THE COURT: The exhibits are going to be in the 23 possession of the clerk. Everything that is --

24 MS. STEINER: All right.

25 THE COURT: And as far as Collins, his 26 testimony is, you can rest assured, one witness whose 27 testimony is not going to change.

28 MS. STEINER: That's true. That's true.

29 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) I am -- can you tell me just from

1 looking at that that is the one that was shown to Miss Snow?

2 A. I can't tell.

3 Q. You can't tell that.

4 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think the Court has
5 ruled that this was not relevant.

6 THE COURT: If we have got -- I mean we have
7 got the photos in the file. We have got I don't know how
8 many trials of testimony about this. So I really don't
9 know...

10 If you will be specific about the question.

11 MS. STEINER: Um-hum.

12 Q. (By Ms. Steiner:) Yes. I'm -- let me say for the 13 record, that I'm fairly confident that 712 and 713 are copies
14 of the actual -- are fairly clear copies. They are the front
15 and back of something that is in evidence.

16 There is also Page 710, which all I have is an unclear
17 copy. And I can't even tell. Is that the same line-up as is 18 on 712?

19 A. I, I honestly can't answer that.

20 Q. You don't know whether Curtis Flowers is in either
21 of those.

22 A. No, I can't answer that.

23 Q. All right. Thank you.

24 As far as you know, Doug, the physical originals have not 25 been taken back to your office for safekeeping. They are in 26 the clerk's office.

27 MR. EVANS: I would have to check to be sure.

28 This is the same exhibits that have been in trial. This 29 is the same exhibits y'all have come and looked at

1 numerous times at the office and in the courtroom.

2 You know, I don't know what else I can do.

3 MS. STEINER: I appreciate that.

4 THE COURT: I have not signed an order allowing 5 anything to be withdrawn from the court file that was 6 introduced in the last trial. So I assure you they are
7 in the court file. Because I have every confidence that 8 our clerk has got them in her possession, because she
9 wouldn't release them without my authority.

10 MS. STEINER: Okay. While we are on this, the 11 clerk, since she came in after the first and second
12 trials, Your Honor, do we know, are the exhibits that
13 were introduced in the first few trials, the trial in Lee
14 County and Harrison County, that were not re-introduced
15 in subsequent trials, are those -- should those be here
16 in this clerk's office or did the --

17 MR. EVANS: Those are in our office.

18 MS. STEINER: In your --

19 MR. EVANS: They are the same exhibits that 20 y'all have looked at. They haven't changed.

21 MS. STEINER: I appreciate that. We do not
22 appear to have copies.

23 THE COURT: All I know is where the exhibits
24 from the trial -- I mean I didn't try it the first
25 several times. The only exhibits I'm aware of are the 26 ones that were introduced at the last trial. And they 27 are going to be in the office of the clerk.

28 MS. STEINER: I appreciate that.

29 What I've discovered is some of this discovery and

1 some of the trial transcripts refer to exhibits that were
2 introduced in the first and second trials that have not
3 been introduced. And I would like to see those.

4 And we have yet -- Miss, Miss Martin didn't know
5 whether she had those or if those would have been stored
6 elsewhere. And I just am trying to determine that so
7 that I can go to the correct clerk's office to look at
8 them.

9 THE COURT: Well, I'm going --

10 MS. STEINER: Or if the D.A. has them to ask
11 that we be allowed to view them.

12 THE COURT: Miss Martin is a very efficient
13 clerk, and I am sure that she will be glad to look with 14 you and see if she has got these. If she doesn't, you
15 will know to start looking elsewhere.

16 MS. STEINER: Yes, sir. I am just trying to 17 figure out where else to look - if I go to Lee County or 18 if I go to Mr. Evans' office.

19 THE COURT: Well, I am beyond the ability to 20 assist you on that since I didn't have anything to do
21 with the previous trials. But I would assume that you
22 could even look in the record in the Supreme Court if you
23 had to because those cases were appealed to the Supreme
24 Court. And I am sure there is a complete record. And I
25 don't know if the record of the prior trials are on file
26 here or on file in Lee County or Harrison County. Is 27 that where it was?

28 MS. STEINER: Yeah, that was the -- no, Your 29 Honor. I have checked with the archives in the Supreme

1 Court. And typically, the actual exhibits are not
2 retained in the archives record. And I am just trying to
3 figure out before I give Miss Martin asthma going through 4 her files.

5 THE COURT: What are you looking for
6 specifically?

7 MS. STEINER: I think there were some documents
8 in the first trial introduced by the defendant pertaining 9 -- there were some defense exhibits that were not 10 re-introduced in the second or any of ours. And I feel 11 that we have to see what those are as part of our
12 investigation.

13 THE COURT: That is kind of like the needle in 14 the haystack. If you can't tell us what it is you are 15 looking for, the clerk is not going to be able to look.

16 MS. STEINER: Well, it was Defendant's Exhibit
17 1. And I can't remember why I thought it was significant
18 in the trial held in Lee County.

19 And it's -- I'm sorry, Your Honor. I had a cold and 20 some allergies all week. And I'm blanking on what it
21 was. It was a defense exhibit.

22 THE COURT: Are you through with Mr. Johnson by 23 the way testimony?

24 MS. STEINER: I believe so, Your Honor.

25 Do you have anything else?

26 Thank you, Mr. Johnson. That is all I have.

27 THE COURT: Do you have any questions for Mr.
28 Johnson?

29 MR. EVANS: No, sir.

Discussion

1           THE COURT: We will recess and you can go look
2 during the recess in the clerk's office and see if what
3 you might be wanting is there.

4           And we will resume at 1:15.

5           (COURT RECESSED FOR THE NOON HOUR.)

6           (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MS. STEINER, MR. CARTER AND THE 7 DEFENDANT WERE PRESENT. PROCEEDINGS WERE AS FOLLOWS:)

8           THE COURT: We will come back to order.

9           MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

10           I am assuming since they wouldn't just refuse to 11 show up on a subpoena, that the subpoenas I had on Mr.
12 Matthews and Mr. Thornburg didn't get served. And I had 13 a brief conference with Doug.

14           Mr. Matthews has testified several times in this 15 matter and will undoubtedly testify again. All I was 16 trying to establish with him was what the content of 17 the -- make sure we actually had the full content of the 18 highway patrol investigative file.

19           Which at the time I filed the motion, I was missing
20 six pages that had been mentioned. And let me just state
21 on the record that we've been informed that the only
22 notes that constitute summaries or C.I.D. Mississippi
23 Highway Patrol reports prepared by -- as part of the file
24 of the highway patrol, are the following pages in Exhibit
25 1, Pages 59, 60, 61, 62 and 63 and then Pages 1287, 1288,
26 1289, 1290, 1291 and 1292, that I'm satisfied we have the 27 handwritten notes of the various investigators who worked 28 for the highway patrol to the extent that they were 29 taken.

1 But I wanted to state that the only thing I was
2 going to ask him about was that -- was this, the
3 investigative file. I have to say those last six pages
4 contain something I had been expecting to find, and I now
5 have my answer to that.

6 So I'd like to mark those pages that I've actually
7 identified as our second exhibit on -- and go ahead and
8 rest on the discovery motion.

9 MR. EVANS: If I understand right, this is 10 prior discovery that you had received that you just 11 couldn't find, and then you found it.

12 MS. STEINER: Yes. Yes. I had -- it was 13 referred to in the tender, but this wasn't attached to 14 the tender. I had -- I dug through a box of stuff that 15 at least three other attorneys had been through, and I
16 think it was in the box of the appellate attorney, which 17 was not where we had looked before. It's actually two 18 page, two documents, and I'd like them to be collectively
19 Exhibit 2.

20 THE COURT: I have seen this. What is the 21 other one?

22 MS. STEINER: The other one, Your Honor, is -- 23 it appears to be the handwritten draft for some of the --

24 THE COURT: That is fine. You can for benefit
25 of your motion. It looks like you have a copy of the 26 affidavit that you were asking about earlier too that 27 Judge Morgan had signed or that they had signed.

28 MS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor. That is not
29 going into evidence, the affidavit I had. What I don't

1 have is the warrant that was issued on it. And I, I
2 don't think that is in the circuit court file since it
3 was not already in this case number. And if the State
4 has a copy of that, if they wouldn't mind faxing me a
5 copy of it, the warrant itself.

6 Are you willing to furnish that?

7 THE COURT: Do you even have it?

8 MR. EVANS: I doubt it very seriously.

9 THE COURT: I don't know what --

10 MR. HILL: It was probably sent to Texas.

11 MR. EVANS: If I had it, then it would be
12 listed on discovery. If it wasn't listed on discovery --

13 MS. STEINER: It was listed on discovery.

14 MR. EVANS: Okay. If it is listed on 15 discovery, I had it.

16 MS. STEINER: I am just saying I, I have been 17 through all the boxes and for some reason it isn't there.

18 MR. EVANS: It's probably in one of those other
19 boxes y'all haven't looked through.

20 MS. STEINER: No, I have looked through every 21 single one of them.

22 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I do not object to what
23 she wants to introduce as to what she is representing it
24 as. I am not saying that that is everything that Jack
25 Matthews did. I am saying that everything that Jack
26 Matthews did and recorded was furnished in discovery.
27 Now, whether this includes all of that or not, I don't
28 know. But I have no objection to her having it
29 introduced with that stipulation in there.

1 THE COURT: I understand, and that will be
2 fine.

3 (THE DOCUMENTS WERE MARKED DEFENDANT'S EXHIBIT NUMBER 2
4 AND ADMITTED INTO EVIDENCE ON THE MOTION.)

5 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, in response, and I
6 don't know that I ever on the record answered you. You
7 asked me a minute ago if we had that warrant if we would
8 send it. We will. And if -- and you know, I think I
9 have made myself very clear to defense all along, through
10 all these trials. If they can give me any specific thing
11 that we have furnished that they have lost, I will 12 furnish it to them again.

13 We are not trying to keep them from having evidence.
14 We are just trying to save going through everything that 15 we have already gone through so many times. But if it is 16 something that they can show me and say this particular
17 page or this exhibit we have lost, I will furnish it to 18 them again.

19 MS. STEINER: I appreciate that, Doug.

20 I was going to sort of sum up what in the motion,
21 because I had specified some very specific things that I
22 had wanted. And I was going to specify what I think
23 remains outstanding and get His Honor -- get you to 24 respond and ask His Honor to rule on them.

25 MR. EVANS: I do -- I do think the proper
26 procedure would have been for you to call me and say we 27 have lost these pages, would you reproduce them for the 28 fourth time, instead of filing a motion.

29 MR. CARTER: We haven't lost anything.

Discussion

1                   MR. EVANS: I beg your pardon, but opposing
2 counsel just testified you had.

3                   MS. STEINER: Well, we don't have it. It is
4 not there. Let me -- let me say --

5                   THE COURT: Are these things you have had at 6 the previous trials?

7                   MS. STEINER: Not as far as I know. I mean
8 that's --

9                   THE COURT: Well, go forward with what -- I
10 mean --

11                   MS. STEINER: Let me go forward with what I
12 think remains on the basis of testimony here today. The 13 original photo arrays, either they are in a court file or 14 they have been put with the D.A.'s office for 15 safekeeping.

16                   THE COURT: Actually, that is fine. But why do
17 you need it? Mr. Collins is dead, and his testimony is 18 not going to change. So I don't see anything under the 19 sun that that would -- how is that going to benefit you
20 even if you do get it?

21                   MS. STEINER: Well, I'm -- I, I just can't tell
22 who's in the photo arrays. If the originals are in 23 evidence, that's no problem. If I -- if we have to 24 examine, I just wanted to know what I'm looking at.

25                   THE COURT: I mean he is not going to be 26 looking at them.

27                   MS. STEINER: Well, I appreciate that. Mrs.
28 Snow will be. Mrs. Snow will be looking at hers.

29                   THE COURT: If they have got the original photo

Discussion

1 array in the court file or if you have got it in your
2 office, Mr. Evans, if you will, turn that over.

3 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Again.

4 MS. STEINER: The second item -- and I am now
5 on Page 3 of my motion. The recorded statement of Curtis
6 Flowers to Troy Yates. Let me say that I, I assumed that
7 we had all these statements in the file. We had -- and I
8 have been through every box and everything, and we don't.
9 We apparently never -- apparently, our office was never
10 made separate copies. And for whoever they were made,
11 didn't get to us. I, I realize that. But if we wish to 12 come with recording, copying devices to look at those 13 originals, could they be tendered?

14 MR. EVANS: No. Not without the Court ordering
15 me too.

16 I specifically, Your Honor, the last time Ray
17 Charles Carter was in my office and tore the box up
18 looking through it, it took us two weeks to go back
19 through it and straighten it up.

20 That particular time I asked him specifically. I
21 pulled out every one of those tapes. I said is there
22 anything here that you don't have. He laughed and said
23 no, I have got every bit of it.

24 THE COURT: Well, I thought Troy Yates was the 25 one that --

26 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, she is talking about --
27 there are probably 30 or 40 tapes that they are wanting 28 to come copy again. I don't even know where they are at 29 this time. We have got this file scattered over about

1 three counties.

2 MS. STEINER: Doug, let me say for the record.
3 I only came into this late. As far as I know, those
4 tapes, if they were copied, were not copied by the Office
5 of Capital Defense counsel, because we didn't have the 6 technology to copy mini-tapes.

7 THE COURT: Copies. Are we just talking about
8 Troy Yates, or are we talking about other things?

9 MS. STEINER: Well, Troy Yates is one. And
10 then I will also say that I have a list - and I can 11 certainly provide that to the D.A. - of all the witnesses
12 who it appears the tape-recorded statements, there have 13 been transcripts, and we have never been furnished the 14 actual tapes of the statements. And these are witnesses
15 who may testify. Some of these are witnesses who 16 testified differently from trial to trial.

17 THE COURT: Well, I will do it like this. I
18 will allow somebody from your office to go to the D.A.'s
19 office and sit there with a tape recorder and listen to 20 every one of those tapes if they want to.

21 MR. EVANS: Your Honor --

22 MS. STEINER: May we copy them?

23 MR. EVANS: -- I would ask that we come to 24 either open court and do it or go to the circuit clerk's
25 office.

26 THE COURT: Well, I am not going to sit and 27 listen.

28 MR. EVANS: Well, I am not either. I have --

29 THE COURT: No, you don't have to. But I mean

1       you can make available a space for them, and they can sit
2       there and listen to the tapes if they choose to do that.

3               MR. EVANS: It will be the same thing every
4       time they come. They laugh and say they don't want to 5       look at anything.

6               THE COURT: If they do that, then --

7               MR. EVANS: That is why I would like to have a
8       court reporter transcribing what they do and don't do.
9       Because it gets aggravating, them coming up and doing the 10      same thing every trial, and then acting like they don't 11      have it.

12              To start with, Mr. Carter ought to be the one
13      arguing this motion, because he is the one that has been
14      coming to look at the evidence.

15              THE COURT: Again, if they want to come listen
16      to the tapes, they can listen to them. You know, they 17      can bring their own recording device and listen to them
18      in your office. That way you maintain possession of 19      them. And I don't see any need for anybody in your
20      office to sit there and listen with them. If they want
21      to, that's fine.

22              MS. STEINER: Your Honor, may we bring our own
23      tape recorder and record the recordings if that is what
24      we want, make our own copies of them? I, I don't want
25      them --

26              THE COURT: As long as -- I mean, you know,
27      they are -- I'm not suggesting that it would be an 28      intentional thing, but I mean tapes can easily -- push
29      the wrong button and it is going to be recorded over.

Discussion

1 MS. STEINER: No, I wouldn't even put it in the 2 machine.

3 THE COURT: I mean if while somebody from your
4 office is listening to the tape, if you want your own
5 tape made while it is being played by, you know --

6 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 7-C, I believe the answer is they don't exist.

8 7-D, the -- there were three parts of that. The 9 general affidavit and the criminal investigation six-page
10 report have been located.

11 The actual warrant itself I will simply say was not 12 with those papers, and we would like to be provided with 13 a copy of the actual warrant.

14 THE COURT: If you have got the warrant, I
15 don't know what --

16 MR. EVANS: I don't know if we do or not.

17 THE COURT: Usually once a court issues a 18 warrant, there is a return made and returned to some
19 court.

20 MR. EVANS: We normally don't have the 21 warrants.

22 THE COURT: I don't know what --

23 MS. STEINER: It was Judge Morgan's court, and 24 the warrant is not in the case file on -- that was part
25 of the record that went to the Supreme Court on either
26 the first or second trials. It does not appear to be in 27 the clerk's record on this case number either.

28 THE COURT: Well, are you suggesting the 29 warrant was not a proper warrant? How is -- I don't

Discussion

1 really see what -- whether you get the warrant or not,
2 what that accomplishes, what it's going to show. And you
3 have been able to go to trial four other times or five,
4 however many it has been, without it.

5 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I didn't decide the 6 Wiggins line of cases that put all of professional
7 investigation on the line under the Sixth Amendment and
8 can get -- lead to a reversal if we do not do a complete
9 investigation. This is part of the entire thing that 10 deals with him. There is also the bail motion. And 11 therefore, I believe it's relevant to this, and I'm 12 asking for it.

13 If the State says they don't have it, and there is
14 no court in which it is returned to, then, then the State
15 can say what they want. But if it is there, I would 16 request the Court order that they have someone review the 17 files, and if they have a copy of it -- it was apparently 18 originally attached to discovery served back to one of 19 the prior attorneys, and it just has not physically made
20 it into our files.

21 And very specifically, when I found that I made
22 those last few pages I thought well, great, that is off
23 the list too and it wasn't there either.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Evans, if you will check with 25 your -- look in your files and also check with -- I would 26 assume if it was -- the warrant was done by Mr. Johnson,
27 Mr. Matthews. So it may have been returned to the 28 sheriff here --

29 MR. EVANS: I don't know that I have ever even

1       seen a warrant other than the fact she says it was
2       furnished in discovery, but we will look, Your Honor.

3               THE COURT: If you will double check and see if
4       it's --

5               MR. EVANS: It is going to take awhile, Your
6       Honor, because we have this file now in about five or six
7       different boxes, some in Grenada, some in Winona, some in 8       different locations. It is going to take awhile to sit 9       down and go back through every bit of this like we have 10      had to do before.

11              THE COURT: As I say, I have confidence y'all
12      can look through it. And if it's there, provide it.

13              MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we will arrange some 14      place. I just -- I just don't feel comfortable with them
15      coming in my office anymore, but we will arrange some 16      place to meet with them.

17              I do not trust them to the fact that I can just turn
18      them loose with the evidence. So we will have to have 19      somebody that can sit there and play the tapes and make 20      sure that nothing happens to them.

21              MR. CARTER: What about our office?

22              THE COURT: Well, y'all can meet here at the 23      courthouse in Winona.

24              MR. EVANS: That will be fine with me.

25              THE COURT: In the board of supervisor's room
26      or the extension service may be gracious enough to let 27      y'all continue using this room. I am sure you can find 28      some --

29              MS. STEINER: I would say if security or the

1 fact that he believes that we would risk our livelihoods
2 by committing felonious tampering with evidence is strong
3 enough, we would certainly stipulate that if he does not
4 wish us to even handle those, if he would like to arrange
5 to have recorded copies made of each item, we will take
6 his word for it that he has accurately copied the tapes
7 and --

8 MR. EVANS: Like he has in the past.

9 MS. STEINER: -- he can just give those to us.

10 THE COURT: Well, I don't care how it is done,
11 don't care when it is done. It has to be done. If you
12 want to have the sheriff or some law enforcement officer
13 sitting here running the recorder, that is fine. I, I
14 don't care. That is not a concern. But I want it to be 15 done.

16 MS. STEINER: So Paragraph 7-E, at the bottom
17 of Page 3, we don't -- we have the waiver of proceedings.
18 We do not have an arraignment certificate, but I kind of 19 agree with, Your Honor, that we know when he was 20 arraigned and that's of record. So they don't need to 21 look for that.

22 On Page 4, Subparagraph 7-F, the additional pages
23 from the C.S.I. investigator, those were in what I've got 24 from the crime lab. So that's moot.

25 Let me just, Doug, give you the page numbers that
26 are missing from the 188 pages that were labeled
27 inclusive from the State's file and request that Pages 9, 28 10, 41, 42, 68 through 70, 109 through 115, 126, 157 and 29 -58, 172 and 175 to -78. They are all located in

1 Paragraph F, ii at Page 4 of the motion.

2 I would request that copies of those be made and
3 furnished to us. I will send a postage, self-addressed
4 envelope if that's necessary. It probably is, what, less
5 than 20 pages.

6 THE COURT: And that's from...

7 MS. STEINER: The district attorney has said
8 that he made a copy -- copied 188 pages for Mr. Carter
9 back in 2003. I am saying that in this --

10 MR. EVANS: It was --

11 MS. STEINER: -- those pages are missing. And 12 I just want to have other copies, because I don't even 13 know if I might have those pages somewhere else in the 14 file. But if, if it's a page that's just gone, I'd like
15 to be able to assemble the file and be confident if I am
16 ever questioned about whether or not I provided adequate
17 representation to this man. I want to be able to say
18 well, I investigated and I got the D.A. mad at me and 19 the -- everybody irritated at me, but I made him give me
20 copies of everything he says I have when I have
21 represented I don't have it.

22 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, when the defense
23 attorney himself has signed that he has received these 24 items in the past, it is absolutely ridiculous that we 25 are going back through these things.

26 I would ask to put Mr. Carter on the stand and ask
27 him some questions, Your Honor.

28 THE COURT: I am not going to allow that and 29 the State can furnish these again. As I said from the

1       outset, I don't -- if this case gets appealed, if there
2       comes the time when it is, the last thing I am going to
3       have this case reversed on is because discovery wasn't
4       provided.

5             If it has to be provided more than once, I am going
6       to have it provided more than once rather than to have
7       some argument that it wasn't provided the first time.

8             MR. EVANS: That is exactly why I think it
9       needs to be done in open court so that there can't be any 10      dispute of what was done.

11            THE COURT: I don't think I have got time
12      between now and the time the trial takes place with the 13      other terms that I have got to sit here for days on end
14      going through the discovery to the items. And making
15      copies of ten pages, I don't think is going to be 16      extremely burdensome.

17            MR. EVANS: But no disrespect to the Court, but 18      we don't have time either, Your Honor. We need to be 19      preparing for trial.

20            THE COURT: Well, I am sure somebody in the 21      office can find a few minutes to make these copies.

22            Now, what else?

23            MS. STEINER: Your Honor, the following
24      Paragraph, 7-G, was a catchall. I am fairly satisfied
25      that with the explanations given by Mr. Johnson that I
26      can reconstruct most of those attachments.

27            The only thing being the statement that there was an 28      August 27, 1996, report of some sort from -- it's under 29      crime lab reports. It just says report dated August 27,

1 1996. The place where it's disclosed is, is set forth in
2 the motion.

3 If there is an August 27, 1996, crime lab report
4 that is in the possession of the State, it has never been
5 produced to us. And if they have something that that
6 refers to, I would like that produced.

7 I will say that there is nothing in the crime lab to 8 indicate that they actually issued a report that day.
9 They did issue one on August -- ballistics report on
10 August 26. But it's there and if -- since I haven't seen
11 it and apparently the State's investigator hasn't seen
12 it, we don't know what it contains.

13 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, she has got the entire 14 crime lab report. If there was no report issued on that 15 date, there is no report, period.

16 I can't go out and manufacture something, because
17 you would like to look at it.

18 THE COURT: I mean we have got the assurance
19 that there is no report on August 27.

20 MR. EVANS: It is not in the crime lab report.

21 THE COURT: So I would assume, as you discussed
22 with Mr. Johnson when he was testifying, it is 23 probably --

24 MS. STEINER: Right.

25 THE COURT: Dates are close enough in time, I
26 can understand how somebody might have put the wrong date
27 on it.

28 But there has been a search of the files and this 29 does not -- there is no report; is that correct?

Discussion

1 MR. EVANS: No, sir.

2 MS. STEINER: Okay. Your Honor, the next thing
3 that we are looking for is in Paragraph 8, Subparagraph
4 A. We are asking for the dispatch logs.

5 I think we have established there is the highway
6 patrol and the local E.O.C. for a slightly expanded
7 period. The first one is from 3:00 p.m., Friday, July 6,
8 through 6:00 p.m., Monday, July 8. That would be the 9 time of the break-in to Tardy's and the report.

10 And frankly, for the first time ever, at the last
11 trial there was discussion about investigations and back
12 and forth. And I realized that we don't have anything
13 from that. They have made -- they have always attempted
14 to connect Mr. Flowers to that. And no one, as far as I
15 know, the State, nor us, have had that period to see
16 whether or not there were any reports within 20/20
17 hindsight that might be relevant to this case one way or 18 the other.

19 The second subset is for the reports starting at the 20 beginning of that day in which this occurred through 21 midnight on Thursday, January 18, of those --

22 THE COURT: I think you mean July maybe. I
23 don't know.

24 MS. STEINER: Through January -- July. That is 25 a type -- yes, I'm sorry. That should be Thursday, July
26 18. Oh, actually, I did go through, 1997, but let me
27 just --

28 MR. HILL: Judge, I --

29 MS. STEINER: July 1996. Because what's become

1       evident on this is that what, what -- before -- you know,
2       again, if there was anything in the reports that had been
3       reported and not associated both before and in the 4       immediate aftermath, I think that would be relevant. And
5       I think it's within our investigation obligation.

6               THE COURT: Well, I am not even sure. I, I
7       don't understand what you are asking for right now, and I
8       don't know --

9               MS. STEINER: Just an expanded version of --

10              THE COURT: Of what?

11              MS. STEINER: -- of radio logs.

12              THE COURT: From what date to what date?

13              MS. STEINER: From July 16 -- two dates. From 14       July 6, 3:00 p.m., July 6, 1996, through 6:00 p.m., July
15       8, 1996, and then commencing at 12:01 a.m. on July 16,
16       1996, through midnight, Thursday, July 18, 1996. That's 17       another day, two days on -- around the time of the crime,
18       most of it afterwards and the weekend of the --
19       apparently of what the State contends is the related 20       break-in.

21              THE COURT: Which -- I don't know. I have 22       never even heard any mention of a break-in before. Was 23       there some break-in a few days before?

24              MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. But nothing that came
25       out as far as in this trial.

26              THE COURT: What dispatch logs are of -- I mean
27       I don't even know if E.O.C. keeps them.

28              MR. EVANS: I doubt it very seriously.

29              MS. STEINER: If they don't exist anymore, they

Discussion

1 don't. The chief said he thought they did keep them in
2 perpetuity, and he is the chief of police.

3 MR. EVANS: There has got to be some relevance.

4 THE COURT: I'm kind of -- kind of like, okay,
5 why is this suddenly something that is needed when it
6 hadn't been needed in any -- since 1996 it hasn't been 7 needed.

8 MS. STEINER: Well, for the first time in 2008
9 officers were talking about a systemic canvas, and it
10 appears that that was of sufficient importance to the 11 State, that there were consequences not only in this case
12 but in others. And I think that the -- certainly the 13 second round of these tapes would cover the time that any 14 officer testified to about that --

15 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, all the --

16 MS. STEINER: -- to determine whether reports
17 were made.

18 MR. EVANS: -- radio logs shows is when
19 officers check out at different locations. It doesn't
20 have anything else in it.

21 MS. STEINER: It --

22 MR. EVANS: I can't see anything that could be 23 relevant about this case other than when people checked
24 out at this scene.

25 MS. STEINER: Well, it --

26 MR. EVANS: Now, we did try to look at that 27 time at others and see if any more was relevant. You
28 know, frankly, I don't care what they have on the radio
29 logs if they are available, but I can't see any possible

Discussion

1 way that any of that is relevant to this. It is sure not
2 relevant to who they may have talked to and things like
3 that, because that is not on the radio log.

4 MS. STEINER: Well, Your Honor, there is a
5 great deal on the radio logs about very specifically the 6 events of this case on what we do have, and it ends at 7 11:30. And what the investigation shows is they were 8 still discovering things about this case and identifying 9 possible witnesses and, and it's not even clear that the 10 theft of the .380 was officially reported or there was 11 any kind of police entry during -- that it even happened
12 during this time. I think there is many relevant things
13 that -- and this is not an unreasonable scope if they are 14 in existence to ask that they be produced.

15 THE COURT: Well, if you want to go to the 16 E.O.C. I think that you certainly can look at their logs.
17 If there is something -- and Mr. Evans, if you will 18 direct them to allow the, the defense counsel to look at 19 their logs if they have got them from that point. I
20 don't think that --

21 MS. STEINER: I have no problem with doing it
22 myself, Your Honor. I would also include the highway
23 patrol frequency that - which, again, if the Court would 24 direct - that the surrounding times within this that are 25 requested for the highway patrol frequency, as well.
26 Since I think the testimony was they were --

27 THE COURT: You know, we have got -- you are 28 going to have to limit that in scope a little bit since
29 we have got 82 counties. And you are not -- I mean I

Discussion

1 don't know which highway patrol.

2 MS. STEINER: It appears that the log that was
3 given us was just the Greenwood office log. I'm just 4 asking for a few hours before, before and a couple of 5 days after on that same log. Just, just more of -- the 6 pages that came before and after that log, and I think
7 that was just Greenwood. And I just want more of the 8 pages that have already been produced.

9 THE COURT: From the Greenwood office?

10 MS. STEINER: Or whatever the office that
11 created the log that's in evidence.

12 THE COURT: Well, there might not be anything
13 else. That is why we have got to find out.

14 MS. STEINER: Okay.

15 THE COURT: You know, you can't find something
16 if it is not there, and you have got to be specific about 17 what --

18 MS. STEINER: I will furnish one of the 19 documents that people were looking at today.

20 Let me find the page. Here it is. It says Page
21 2010, Page 669, and it actually says M.H.P., Page 2,
22 which leads me to believe that there may even be another
23 page of this.

24 But it starts -- it just says M.H.P. radio station
25 log, and it starts at 854 and ends at 1356 on the copy we
26 have. I'm asking that we go -- do it for the July 6
27 through 8 dates that are specified. And again, on this
28 to start at 000 on July 16 and end at 1159 on July 18,
29 for whatever this log is that's contained in Page 669.

1 THE COURT: Does the highway patrol have
2 anything to do with investigation of a burglary back --

3 MR. EVANS: No, sir, they did not.

4 THE COURT: I don't see --

5 MS. STEINER: Okay.

6 THE COURT: -- how they could. You know, they
7 are not generally called in on a burglary.

8 MS. STEINER: Okay.

9 THE COURT: You know --

10 MS. STEINER: Well, I guess --

11 THE COURT: Now, the later times, I mean, you
12 know, if they have got any dispatch from the July 16 to 13 the 18 timeframe, I can see that might be at least
14 remotely material.

15 So Mr. Evans, if you will have somebody contact Mr.
16 Johnson or the sheriff or somebody and ask Greenwood to 17 let them look at their log back, if they have got logs
18 that exist back at that time.

19 MR. EVANS: I don't know about them. I know
20 Grenada -- I think they keep theirs for one year. I
21 don't know about Greenwood.

22 THE COURT: Well, I don't. I have heard,
23 actually, trials here about 911 tapes, and I know they
24 are not kept for a long period of time. And I don't know
25 anything about logs of something from that long ago.

26 And I can see since it wasn't relevant any time in 27 the past how they might could have gone ahead and cleaned
28 house. But if they have got them, I want them to allow 29 counsel to look at them.

Case #2010-DP-01348-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : Joseph H. Loper Jr.

Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Kathy Gillis, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 2003-0071-CR

1 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, Paragraph 8B on Page
2 5, our conversation with Chief Matthews disposed of that.

3 "C", well, we haven't had Mr. Matthews here, but
4 I'm -- I introduced what I'm going to on the M.H.P.
5 C.I.D. file.

6 Montgomery County Sheriff's Office, I don't think --
7 you know, I'll contact them directly and see if they say
8 there is something there. If they won't release it, I
9 will come back and make a specific request.

10 And then other law enforcement agencies. I think
11 Mr. Johnson was very forthcoming about who he worked
12 with. So Paragraph F is investigative notes concerning
13 the canvassing the area. I -- Chief, Chief Hargrove said
14 he didn't have any of his men do it. If there are such 15 notes from -- in the possession of the State from Mr.
16 Matthews, they are the two that testified they did it.

17 It came up only for the first time at the last
18 trial, and I just -- if they exist, I would like to look
19 at them.

20 THE COURT: Is the State aware of anybody
21 making notes about canvassing the neighborhood or the 22 immediate area around the store?

23 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have no idea what's 24 in the notes that we furnished before. I know that 25 everything that's in the file has been furnished. But as 26 far as what's in about different parts of the 27 investigation, I don't know.

28 THE COURT: But is there anything related to 29 this that was not turned over?

1                   MR. EVANS: No, sir. Everything has been
2 turned over.

3                   THE COURT: You've contacted the Winona Police
4 Department and others about all notes that --

5                   MR. EVANS: I have asked them to give us
6 anything that is there so that we can furnish it, Your
7 Honor.

8                   THE COURT: Well, it sounds like -- I mean
9 sounds like there is nothing left. I mean there is 10 nothing there to furnish.

11                  MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

12                  The next one is Paragraph -- Subparagraph G, the 13 oral, written or recorded statement taped obtained from 14 Willie Hemphill pursuant to the Miranda waiver dated 15 7-21-96. Mr. Johnson testified that he was aware of that 16 waiver but that he knew of no statement. If the district
17 attorney says there is no statement --

18                  MR. EVANS: I don't even know at this point who 19 that is.

20                  MS. STEINER: Okay.

21                  MR. EVANS: If there is a statement, it was 22 furnished. If, if, if in your discovery it shows that we 23 furnished you a copy of a statement from him, then we 24 have got one. If it's not in your discovery, we don't
25 have one. It's that simple.

26                  MS. STEINER: All right. And then "H" is any
27 oral, written recorded statement obtained from Jeffery
28 Hudson in the course of investigation of the incident
29 matter.

1           That is on CD. Page 301 refers to the crime --
2           evidence request to the crime lab pertaining to matters
3           collected from him at the Forrest County jail. And I
4           will represent that there is no -- nothing that mentions
5           him other than that report.

6           So if there were written or recorded statement,
7           there is nothing listed in the master list furnished
8           either. But again, since none of the attachments to it
9           were also furnished, I didn't know if it was something in 10          there with some other name. And that's all I'm asking.

11          MR. EVANS: Best I can remember about him, he 12          was a lead that they were going to follow up on. They 13          found out real quick that it was a dead lead. Nothing
14          there to do. So they didn't follow up on it. That's 15          best of my memory on it.

16          MS. STEINER: Is that possible that is what Mr.
17          Hemphill was also?

18          MR. EVANS: I can't even remember that name.

19          MS. STEINER: Or was this some other case y'all
20          were prosecuting and it just fell behind the wrong file
21          cabinet? Is that a possibility?

22          THE COURT: We, we don't -- I mean --

23          MS. STEINER: That's fine.

24          THE COURT: The State does not have anything --

25          MR. EVANS: No, sir.

26          THE COURT: -- in the file on Hudson or 27          Hemphill and you are not aware of anybody, agency that 28          does as it relates to this case.

29          MR. EVANS: Anything that we have was

1 furnished. Now, right now I can't tell you what is in
2 there and what was furnished. But if we had it, it was
3 furnished and listed on discovery. If it's not furnished
4 and listed on the discovery, we have never had it.

5 MS. STEINER: And then, you know, I appreciate
6 that Doug does not want us in there polluting his office
7 or destroying his files or whatever else he thinks we are 8 going to do with them. And that is his privilege, Your 9 Honor. We are happy to send someone to look at them yet
10 again.

11 But under the circumstances, since he does not wish
12 to have that done, I would request that the Court order
13 the district attorney to review, make a visual review of 14 all of the documents itemized by page number in Exhibit 1
15 and 2, Exhibits 1 and 2 to this hearing and would like 16 him ordered to have a review made of those and be able to 17 make a statement, not come back into court, just send a
18 statement yay or nay, yes, that appears to be everything
19 we have furnished or no, as it turns out, these are 20 documents that are not in it.

21 I mean if we don't -- if he doesn't trust us to make 22 our own inspection and comparison, then I feel there is 23 no alternative except to ask him to do that or have the 24 requested presumption that anything that is not on that 25 document is a document that is both favorable to the 26 defendant or impeaching to the State's case and have a
27 presumption that its failure to furnish is the 28 withholding of such favorable Kyle's Brady evidence and 29 presumptively prejudicial to the defendant if it is ever

1 discovered that it wasn't furnished.

2 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is at the point of
3 being ridiculous. We have let them come through our
4 office. I know defense attorneys have been in there at 5 least three times going through everything that is there.
6 They have been in the trials every time. Everything that
7 is there was sent in discovery.

8 We used to could send discovery to attorneys and 9 just hand it to them. Now we have to get them to sign
10 for it to make sure that they received it. And now
11 apparently, that is not good enough. I guess we are 12 going to have to start videotaping them going through 13 everything that is in discovery.

14 We do not have time to do that. I do not have time
15 to sit down and review this file. We have already given
16 it to them. I can't prove the negative. I can prove
17 that what I gave them, I gave them, because they signed
18 for it. But I can't prove a negative.

19 MS. STEINER: If the Court please, there is a
20 statement handwritten by someone other than Mr. Carter
21 that he was there for -- from 11:00 to 4:00 p.m. on 22 August 29 of 2003. We do not dispute that fact.

23 But as far as I know, we have never signed for any 24 particular item. In fact, the discovery says that even 25 the documents that Mr. Carter requested were not copied
26 on the spot and were mailed and Bates numbered and that 27 is it. So there may be other attorneys who have signed
28 for things in this case. And I would say very frankly --

29 THE COURT: I don't think he was referring to

1       this case. I think he was saying as a general rule you
2       used -- they used to. Because I'm familiar with seeing
3       them in court files and other cases where defense counsel
4       signs something acknowledging they have received
5       discovery.

6             Do I have the State's assurance that everything you
7       have had in your possession from an investigative
8       standpoint in this case has been provided?

9             MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Everything.

10            THE COURT: Well, as far as I'm concerned, I
11       think that is sufficient. I mean I don't know that he 12       needs to go through his files for half a dozen new times.
13       You know, if it's not there, it's not there. If you have 14       got something specific that you -- like you have on these 15       other items where you listed a few pages of things that 16       you don't have that you need, then I -- you know, but...

17            MS. STEINER: It's a little difficult for me to 18       specify something that's not there if I don't have it.
19       And that, Your Honor, is very frankly why I think the two 20       choices are either to let us come in under whatever kind
21       of armed guard they wish and review everything they think
22       they have given us so we can compare it to our disk.

23            And, and if he declines to do either, that the Court
24       order the presumption I requested in the motion in this 25       hearing.

26            THE COURT: Well, if this was the first time
27       this case had been tried or maybe even the third time it
28       was being tried, but by now, you know, the State has 29       assured that everything that they have got, you have got.

1       So I don't see any need for them to go back again and
2       look through the files when, when they have already
3       provided the things to you out of the file that they --
4       and I have got Mr. Evans' assurance on his oath as a
5       licensed attorney in the state of Mississippi and under,
6       you know, sanction if he didn't provide it, because the 7       bar would sanction him if he has made some statement to 8       the Court that was not true.

9               And he has told us that he does not have anything
10       else, that you have got everything that he has got. And 11       so I don't see any need for him to go back and look at 12       the file again, to come back again and say that you have 13       got everything.

14               MS. STEINER: I appreciate that's your ruling,
15       Your Honor. And that's why you are here to make rulings.
16       And I --

17               MR. CARTER: Your Honor, part of the problem is 18       we, we came along during the third trial. At that point
19       this case had already been tried twice. And perhaps 20       discovery was -- complete discovery, perhaps, was 21       provided to Mr. Gilmore and perhaps to Mr. Chokwe
22       Lumumba.

23               Once we came along, Mr. Chokwe Lumumba passed his,
24       his entire file, as far as I know, and Mr. Gilmore passed
25       his entire file, as far as I know, to us. We had no way
26       of knowing whether that was a complete copy of the 27       discovery.

28               THE COURT: Well, this is going to be the third
29       time that your office has had the case.

1 MR. CARTER: I know, Your Honor.

2 Upon my getting it, upon our office getting the
3 case, I asked for a complete copy of the discovery so I
4 could be sure we actually had it.

5 If my memory is correct, I was told by Mr. Evans
6 that the case has been tried twice, and I think the 7 judge, Judge Morgan, might have agreed. And therefore,
8 the facts were a part of the record. I certainly wasn't
9 confident I had a complete copy of the discovery.

10 And I did, in fact, go to Mr. Evans' office one day,
11 and he came out, or maybe it was Mr. Hill, with several 12 boxes of files. It had all kinds of things in there.
13 And I couldn't distinguish, quite frankly, the time I was 14 there, whether all the discovery was there or discovery
15 for motions and various other things. I did, in fact,
16 receive some copies that I think Mr. Hill might have made
17 that day, if I'm not mistaken.

18 But I mean, to be perfectly honest, we never 19 received the complete copy of the discovery from the 20 district attorney's office with Pages 1 through whatever
21 number they went. And we have been left with trying to 22 put together a file based on what we received from other
23 people.

24 Now, Mr. Evans knows and Mr. Hill knows that they 25 never, ever provided us with a complete copy of their 26 discovery, and maybe they can't. Maybe their file is 27 kind of just like ours.

28 MR. EVANS: Your Honor --

29 MR. CARTER: It's tattered and nobody can put

1           it together.

2                   MR. EVANS: It is impossible to go back and
3           give him what he has asked for, because this case has 4           been tried. As the Court knows, most of the pieces of
5           evidence and exhibits are in the court file. We don't
6           have them. This case is in court. It's very simple.
7           And everything that we ever had, they have been
8           furnished. But they can go look at any transcript and 9           tell every piece of evidence that's there.

10                  MR. CARTER: That might be true.

11                  THE COURT: I mean everything, I would assume,
12           that the State's intended to admit this time has already 13           been admitted in the past. Now, and I -- I'll say --

14                  Has the State got any exculpatory evidence --

15                  MR. EVANS: No, sir.

16                  THE COURT: -- at all, or have you ever had any 17           that has not been provided?

18                  MR. EVANS: We have never had any evidence that 19           showed anything other than this defendant's guilt.

20                  THE COURT: To me, I mean y'all have tried the 21           case twice already. You were able to come to court twice
22           already and try the case and --

23                  MR. CARTER: Three times, Your Honor.

24                  THE COURT: Okay. Well, I've lost count, but
25           I've only had it for the second time.

26                  You know, you have obviously -- in prior trials were 27           thoroughly prepared for the case. So you obviously had 28           all this discovery in previous trials, because I don't
29           think you would have come in and announced ready had you

1 not had it. And the State has said they don't have
2 anything that you don't have.

3 So I don't see the necessity of, you know,
4 reinventing the wheel, going back and doing what they
5 have already done. And I have asked them on these, you
6 know, few items that, you know, your file is incomplete
7 on, either you never got it or -- and I mean I can see
8 how ten pages out of something may be misplaced, you
9 know, because we are talking about huge volumes of 10 documents.

11 But I have instructed them to go back and to provide
12 these items that, you know, were missing from your file.
13 I have advised them to make sure that E.O.C. here in the 14 county, M.H.P. makes their logs available. And I don't 15 know -- I mean I just do not see any need to -- you know,
16 you can't provide anything that is not there.

17 And you know, the court files, also, you know, the 18 exhibits that were admitted in the previous trials are 19 still in evidence. And I don't think there is going to 20 be anything new in this case that you haven't seen
21 already.

22 In fact, the last case, y'all both -- both sides
23 were obviously much more thoroughly knowledgeable of the 24 evidence than I was, because I had not tried it before.
25 But you both showed at the last trial how knowledgeable
26 you were of the facts of the case. And so I don't see --
27 I am not going to order the State to go back and look for 28 something that they have already provided.

29 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

1           Should we draw a proposed order?

2           THE COURT: On these items that --

3           MS. STEINER: Yes.

4           THE COURT: That would be fine.

5           MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

6           THE COURT: Are there any other discovery
7 items?

8           MS. STEINER: No, Your Honor. We can move on 9 to the rest --

10          MR. EVANS: Excuse me, Your Honor.

11          (MR. EVANS LEFT THE ROOM.)

12          MS. STEINER: There is the bail motion, and 13 then four motions that are disposed of entirely as a 14 matter of wash. Why don't I just call them up in the 15 order they were filed?

16          The first -- the next motion would be the Motion to 17 Bar Retrial Under the Double Jeopardy Clause of the 18 Mississippi Constitution. Anticipating that we were 19 doing this within six weeks of trial, these were matters
20 of law. We incorporated into the motion the legal 21 authority and what we -- and to the extent there were
22 fact issues, we have put into the record the transcripts
23 of the prior trial where these factual issues arose.

24          And basically state that our theory is here that 25 this is under the Mississippi Due Process Clause. We 26 agree that there is no per se double jeopardy attaching
27 it in this trial, has yet been found by the United States
28 Supreme Court. We had just observed that issue under the 29 Sixth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

1           But this is, again, to construe the Mississippi
2           Constitution as other states have construed similar
3           provisions to, to bar this just by virtue of the fact
4           that this is a sixth multiple trial per se. And then
5           sort of the other claims are that both the state and
6           federal constitutions, the Double Jeopardy Clause. This 7           is not a typical double jeopardy case.

8           And this is the sixth time a valid conviction has
9           been tried to be obtained. Three times invalid
10          convictions obtained. It was held by the Supreme Court
11          of Mississippi through various forms of improper evidence
12          being introduced by the prosecutor and/or by racial
13          discrimination in the seating of the jury. There is no 14          manifest necessity under the federal constitution to 15          retry Mr. Flowers.

16          The State has simply been unable to obtain a valid
17          conviction in 13 years and six -- five trials, excuse me,
18          and that eventually the due process clause of both the 19          United States and state constitution say enough is 20          enough, as does the Due Process Clause as has been 21          previously argued.

22          The second reason we would assert that both the Due
23          Process Clause is of the United States Supreme Court and 24          the Mississippi -- United States and Mississippi
25          Constitutions is simply that this is not sort of a
26          run-of-the-mill, several mistrials. Every reversal for 27          this case has been based on some form of prosecutorial
28          misconduct - either in the presentation and argument of 29          the evidence or in the selection of the jury.

1           It's been three attempts, right?

2           We are on our fourth attempt right now. The three
3 attempts had improper prosecutions. Three had mistrials.
4 And the -- either two mistrials. Two were mistrials, and
5 one was the racial discrimination reversal.

6           And that at this point, this is the product -- the 7 only -- there is just no way that we can establish and --
8 step back. The exhibits to this motion also establish 9 places at which apparent prosecutorial misconduct or 10 inconsistent treatment on the basis of race has been 11 occurring are documented there. I won't argue them, in 12 particular.

13           So with the judicial misconduct, this becomes more
14 like a speedy trial argument. We have made a speedy
15 trial motion and renew it.

16           THE COURT: Did you say judicial misconduct?

17           MS. STEINER: I'm sorry. Excuse me, Your 18 Honor. Prosecutorial misconduct.

19           No, I have not -- there has -- no one -- we did -- a
20 motion to recuse was presented to the Court, but it was 21 not on the basis of misconduct in any fashion. I
22 apologize, Your Honor.

23           THE COURT: Well, I wanted to make sure that
24 wasn't --

25           MS. STEINER: If you had said defense attorney
26 misconduct, I would have lept up and said exactly the 27 same thing. And I do apologize.

28           No, the recusal motion that the Court considered and 29 declined to grant was based entirely on perfectly

1 above-board conduct by the Court and different
2 interpretations as to whether it required recusal.

3 Just overall, that this is a case where even if the
4 federal constitution doesn't make this double jeopardy,
5 the Mississippi Constitution ought to. And under both
6 the state and federal constitutions, the due process --
7 the Double Jeopardy clause under the unique circumstances
8 of this case, with repeated inability to obtain a valid
9 conviction render this what the founders were trying to 10 protect against, continuous government holding someone in 11 jeopardy.

12 Mr. Flowers is a third of the way into his second
13 decade of incarceration for a crime of which he has never 14 been validly convicted. And the time has come to say
15 enough and pray that the State finds the evidence of who 16 really did this, whether it is Mr. Flowers or somebody
17 else, and then can proceed to get a valid conviction.

18 But now this prosecution on Mr. Flowers ought to be 19 barred under the Double Jeopardy Clause and the Due
20 Process Clause as was previously argued in prior motions.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Hill.

22 MR. HILL: I would just -- I think the best
23 answer to that, Your Honor, is this has been previously
24 argued in prior motions, and it is just as improper now
25 as it was when the Court ruled on it in past.

26 Mr. Flowers was convicted in the first three trials.
27 After he was convicted in the first two trials, in 28 different venues, by different juries, with different
29 counsel, it was nothing about those first juries being

1 anything improper.

2 Then he was brought back up here at his insistence
3 in Montgomery County to be tried. On motion by the 4 defense, as well as by the State, it was agreed that he
5 should be tried on all four together, to consolidate
6 them. He was. He was convicted.

7 There were some issues about Batson rule, which the 8 Supreme Court caused the Supreme Court to reverse. But 9 at the trial level all of those -- all our strikes were 10 found to be race neutral by a judge. So of course -- and 11 in that case there was dissent, even on the Supreme
12 Court.

13 And the defense counsel -- I've noticed by reading
14 her brief and motion that we were lambasted consistently
15 with prosecutorial -- charges of prosecutorial
16 misconduct.

17 But I would say that we have -- this is probably the 18 greatest crime in this county, in this part of the state.
19 Four completely innocent people were murdered in a
20 heinous fashion, you know, by this defendant. So there
21 is a great interest in getting to the bottom of this, and 22 we have been striving to do that.

23 The fact that defense counsel has been able to 24 impede that up to this point is a credit to them.
25 They -- Mr. Flowers has had very able counsel. But as 26 far as Mr. Flowers not being tried again, this Court is 27 very much aware of some of the things that happened at 28 the last trial. That was absolutely through no fault of 29 the State. That was collusion, if anything, on people

1 associated with the defense.

2           So Your Honor, the claim that he cannot now be
3 tried, in my view, is just simply without merit. The 4 Court has already ruled on it once, and I don't see any
5 reason now that because he was able to thwart justice
6 last time that he should not be able to be tried again.

7           MS. STEINER: If the Court please, I believe, I
8 would wish that Mr. Hill hadn't spoken as I had earlier.

9           There were two people indicted. One was convicted
10 on guilty plea. One the charges were dismissed on for 11 misconduct.

12           Nobody associated with the defendant or his 13 associates or the defense was ever charged. And what 14 happened is no more the fault of the defense than it is 15 of the State - other than the State, with knowledge of a 16 possible perjury by a juror, did not alert the Court to 17 it until after the Court and the defense had permitted
18 the juror to be seated.

19           But beyond that, let me just simply say our 20 constitution, the Sixth and Fourteenth -- Sixth and --
21 Fifth and Sixth Amendments that the founders put in, and
22 the Fourteenth Amendment that adopted them to the states,
23 is not founded on the State gets to try as often as it
24 wants to win. It is founded on saying if the State wants
25 to deprive somebody of life or liberty, they have the 26 burden of proof to prove and convict that person and 27 they -- and if it's a tie, the defendant wins.

28           That is the presumption. That is why this country
29 was founded. That is why the Bill of Rights exists.

1 That is why and how our -- for 200-and-xy years, I can't
2 remember, we have operated under that system. And we are 3 the model and example for the world of saying that the 4 State has to do it fairly. It has to do it right. And
5 it has the burden to do it. And if it can't do it
6 fairly, if it can't do it right, it can't keep trying
7 forever. And this is such a case.

8 This is the case that -- the federalist in Thomas
9 Jefferson even agreed on the State has the burden to 10 prove it. And if it can't, ultimately the courts say
11 enough is enough, and that time has arrived now.

12 THE COURT: Well, do you have any case law that 13 says after a case is reversed "X" number of times it
14 can't be retried?

15 MS. STEINER: No. Well, Your Honor, there are 16 some case -- non-binding case law from other states and 17 the federal government, both in this and our prior 18 vindictiveness motions, that have been cited where they
19 have found on the base of Due Process Clause that enough
20 is enough.

21 There is no binding precedent from the Mississippi
22 Supreme Court or Mississippi Court of Appeals, which
23 isn't binding but would be very persuasive. Nor is there
24 any Mississippi -- United States Supreme Court construing
25 that, that it must happen.

26 We are saying that under the -- this is one of those 27 instances where the State cannot prove its case. It's 28 not a strong case. It's a case in doubt. The State has 29 had plenty of chances, and it simply cannot prove its

1 case and that someone who has been incarcerated for a
2 decade and a third needs finally to be able to go free
3 and let, let him be judged perhaps elsewhere than in the 4 courts.

5 The State of Mississippi has done its best. It does
6 not have a case it can prove, and it is a violation of 7 Mr. Flowers' due process and double jeopardy rights to 8 keep him incarcerated and facing and having to defend
9 this.

10 And Ted Stevens might agree with me. But no, the 11 Ted Stevens case was not dismissed on the base of double
12 jeopardy. It was because the prosecution finally 13 admitted that despite having obtained a tainted
14 conviction, it did not have the evidence to proceed
15 further.

16 So no, there is no direct precedent binding you,
17 Your Honor. All the precedent we have that suggests that 18 you should rule in our favor is cited in our motions and 19 in our prior motions seeking similar dismissal under the 20 Due Process Clause.

21 THE COURT: When, when Flowers III was sent
22 back, it was reversed and remanded. And so I feel
23 confident if the Supreme Court had felt there was a due
24 process double jeopardy they would have reversed and 25 rendered, rather than reversed and remanded to this
26 court.

27 I know there have been cases where there were two
28 hung juries, and then there was another trial. I think
29 Mr. Beckwith was one that was tried twice and then a

1       third time he was finally convicted.

2               And so I don't think there is any case law or any
3       authority to say that under the Due Process Clause of the 4       constitution of this state or double jeopardy that it
5       would bar another trial. And you know, I know I read
6       your motion.

7               You know, you argue that the third and fourth trials
8       had -- I'm sorry, the fourth and the fifth trials had 9       prosecutorial misconduct. When in the fourth trial the 10      only thing that you could come up with was Miss Schoene
11      was having trouble looking at a picture and telling what 12      color a car was. And you are making it out to be a
13      material issue.

14              When, in fact, that was an immaterial issue as there
15      was in the entire trial, because everybody testified
16      whose car it belonged to. And whether it was a two-tone
17      brown car or single-tone car was totally irrelevant. So
18      I certainly don't see that, that was prosecutorial
19      misconduct in trial four when the State was asking the 20      witness what color the car was.

21              And then in the last trial you argued prosecutorial
22      misconduct because people who committed perjury to get on 23      the jury were prosecuted. I think the prosecutor would 24      have been derelict in his duty had he not prosecuted
25      people who lied to get on the jury.

26              The foundation of our jury system is based on the 27      belief that jurors will tell the truth when they are 28      being questioned by the Court and by the attorneys. And 29      if they ever get the idea that they can lie willingly and

1       openly and suffer no consequences, then our entire
2       justice system is going to break down.

3               We are not going to have a justice system if you
4       have got jurors that will come into court and lie about
5       it, lie in order to get on a jury. And that is what we 6       had with Mr. Bibbs and Miss Purnell.

7               And then you want to point out, you know, you say
8       well, there was some white juror that wasn't prosecuted.
9       Well, the fact that you have got this transcript here
10      shows that we did get complete answers eventually from 11      that juror. And he also didn't end up on the jury. He,
12      he didn't sit on the trial.

13              So we have got two people that perjured themselves
14      to get on the jury that were prosecuted. And they both 15      happen to be African-American, but that -- you know, if
16      there had been a white juror that lied to get on the jury
17      and sat, I have every confidence that they would have 18      been prosecuted as well.

19              So I do not see anything that would remotely
20      resemble prosecutorial misconduct in trials four or five.

21              And you know, you kind of weave it around. Say
22      well, the first three were reversed and the last two
23      prosecutorial misconduct; therefore, we can't have a
24      sixth trial. As I noted a minute ago, the first three 25      trials were reversed. But the third trial, when it was 26      reversed, they didn't reverse and render. They reversed
27      it for a remand for new trial. We have got two hung
28      juries. You know, we have got case law that says after 29      two hung juries that does not result in a dismissal.

1           So I do not think Mr. Flowers' due process rights
2           are being violated. I do not see that it would be a
3           jeopardy. Jeopardy attaches once there's a conviction or 4           an acquittal. You can't be tried twice if you have been
5           acquitted previously. He has not been acquitted; so
6           there is not a double jeopardy problem here.

7           So I am going to deny the Motion to Bar Retrial
8           Under the Constitution of the State of Mississippi.

9           MS. STEINER: Your Honor, if the Court please,
10          before we proceed with the other motions that I've
11          noticed for today, I would like to re-urge that the Court
12          reconsider its ruling on the Motion for Recusal of 13          Circuit Judge in light of its comments today.

14          I think the record is clear that one perjurious
15          juror was seated. She was charged. She was indicted,
16          and she was convicted when she pleaded guilty. There is 17          no doubt that that perjurious juror was seated. That was 18          Miss Purnell.

19          You also referred to Mr. Bibbs as having committed 20          perjury. Your Honor, he was charged with perjury. Your 21          Honor, as you said, you saw it. You called it. You
22          ordered that he be arrested. And the D.A. investigated
23          and charged and went to the grand jury.

24          However, that prosecution has been nol prossed.
25          That man now stands unconvicted of these charges. We 26          can't say -- it is certainly going too far to say he did
27          do it.

28          If the -- the Court was present. The Court did with 29          its judicial knowledge order him arrested. And at the

1 time the Court was considering recusal, both prosecutions
2 were still pending. The Court had no reason to assume
3 that a jury or another prosecutor would disagree with its
4 assessment that, in fact, both these people had committed
5 perjury.

6 However, now that at least one independent
7 prosecuting agency has disagreed with this Court's view
8 and that a -- there is, in fact, no pending prosecution
9 on this person, and no stain on his character, the fact
10 that the Court continues to characterize this person as 11 having definitively convicted perjury leads us to 12 re-urge, not out of any subjective misconduct or 13 unwillingness by the Court, but the Court is a human
14 being and was eminently involved in these proceedings,
15 and that the subjective use of the Court, I would urge 16 for all the reasons in the original Motion for Recusal of 17 Circuit Court Judge revisit its decision with respect to 18 its own recusal and change it now and order that -- grant
19 the Motion to Recuse and submit this to the Supreme Court
20 for the appointment of a special judge for the purpose of 21 presiding, assuming he or she agrees with the Court's 22 order that this is not bound by double jeopardy at any 23 subsequent trial.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Bibbs was not truthful during 25 voir dire. I think that is in the record. Whether he --
26 for whatever reason the attorney general of this state
27 saw fit not to go forward with the prosecution. It
28 certainly is not an indication that Mr. Bibbs was 29 innocent. And it was, as I understand, not pressed or

1 dismissed without prejudice, which means they can go
2 forward still if they choose to do so on the case.

3 But it was clear from the last -- from the Court's
4 questioning that Mr. Bibbs did not truthfully testify
5 during voir dire, that he was present on the scene of the 6 murder at the time the crime was committed. After the 7 trial -- well, actually, early in the deliberation we had
8 jurors sending notes to the Court, as you are aware, that
9 said that someone on the jury was bringing information
10 out that was not presented during trial, which was a
11 violation of his oath as a juror.

12 So I think the characterization this Court made
13 about Mr. Bibbs is correct. There is no doubt in this 14 Court's mind but that he was not truthful when he was 15 questioned during voir dire.

16 And my view on Mr. Bibbs has no bearing on any 17 ruling this Court will make in the subsequent retrial of 18 Mr. Flowers. There is no indication that Mr. Flowers had 19 anything to do with Mr. Bibbs being untruthful with the
20 Court.

21 Now, as to Miss Purnell, you know, there was 22 testimony that she had talked to Mr. Bibbs, visited him
23 at the jail and had phone calls from him. But again,
24 there is no indication that Mr. Flowers put Miss Bibbs --
25 Miss Purnell up to that. There has been no evidence ever
26 to that effect.

27 With no evidence to the contrary, this Court
28 considers that Mr. Flowers did not have anything to do
29 with that and that Miss Purnell was a free agent and for

1       whatever reason decided to commit perjury. The same with
2       Mr. Bibbs.

3               So my views in the retrial of this matter, what they
4       did, does not have anything to do with how this case -- I
5       mean how this Court views this case and Mr. Flowers.
6       Right now Mr. Flowers stands innocent before the Court,
7       and he will stand innocent until proven guilty beyond a
8       reasonable doubt. That is how the Court looks at all
9       cases. That is how the Court will look at this case.
10      And I do not feel that my view on Mr. Bibbs would 11      necessitate a recusal in this case.

12             So I am going to deny your oral Motion to Recuse.

13             MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

14             It's not a happy motion ever to make and I -- not
15      have to have to renew it.

16             THE COURT: The Court does not take any offense
17      to the motion. I want to assure you of that. I told
18      somebody a long time ago, you have to have a thick hide
19      to sit where I sit.

20             MS. STEINER: Where I sit too, Your Honor.

21             THE COURT: Well, I agree. Anybody that is 22      practicing law - defense, prosecution or any other type
23      law - is not for the -- is not for the weak-hearted nor 24      for the thin-skinned.

25             MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

26             I'll submit a motion, or I guess it's on the record.
27      Do you want an order on that again, Your Honor?

28             THE COURT: We have got everything. I mean --

29             MS. STEINER: Thank you.

1           THE COURT: I don't see -- I mean we have got
2 the court reporter here and everything that is being
3 spoken is being taken down.

4           MS. STEINER: All right. I will move on.

5           Having not recused yourself, Your Honor, I would
6 like to call up my Supplemental Motion to Preclude Death
7 Penalty Procedures.

8           This motion -- this is a motion to -- assuming the 9 State can go forward, double jeopardy and due process
10 don't bar trying to hold Mr. Flowers in, in danger of 11 deprivation of liberty, that holding him in danger of 12 deprivation of life violates the Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and 13 Fourteenth Amendments of the Mississippi -- of the United
14 States Constitution and the corresponding constitutional
15 provisions of the Mississippi Constitution.

16           We have made a prior motion which we call
17 Vindictiveness Misconduct Motion with respect to seeking
18 the death penalty in the fifth trial after having elected
19 to forego seeking it in the fourth. And we are now
20 adding an ulterior purpose and a due -- even if it were 21 not purposeful, a violative of due process and equal
22 protection and the Sixth Amendment effect of death -- of 23 seeking this death penalty for one of two purposes.

24           Either under Pearce it's punishing Mr. Flowers for 25 having successfully deflected or prevented a conviction
26 and the death penalty is being now sought just in 27 vindictive retaliation for that in a trial where there
28 would have been a reversal and Pearce would clearly have 29 barred it.

1           But this motion goes to the fact that the -- for the
2 reasons stated in both the cases and the extensive
3 scholarship cited in this motion, one of the accepted
4 sociological facts is that death qualifying a jury not
5 only gets a jury that can consider the death penalty, it
6 also gets a jury that completely associated with that is 7 more likely to convict. The attitudes of jurors who are 8 excluded -- who are permitted under Witherspoon are 9 sociologically demonstrated to be more prosecution prone
10 is the term of art.

11           And that under these circumstances, especially where 12 there is a component of vindictiveness and the State has 13 withdrawn the death penalty once, it should be precluded,
14 not only for the reasons in the prior motion, which we 15 renew in subsequent motion here, but under this simply 16 because of the -- either the purpose or effect of 17 creating a jury that does not represent a fair cross
18 section and is with respect to attitudes is, in fact,
19 prosecution prone for the tactical advantage and to the 20 prejudice of the defendant.

21           And therefore in light of the Court's ruling that
22 the Double Jeopardy Clause does not permit -- does not 23 prohibit further retrial of Mr. Flowers, that we would at 24 least request that the Court bar the seeking of the death
25 penalty which will make this trial a whole lot easier, as 26 well for the Court.

27           The interest of judicial economy, I think, here is 28 completely in favor of doing so as well. But the 29 constitutional issues are what this motion is about.

1       That's a policy argument supporting them.

2               THE COURT:   Mr. Hill.

3               MR. HILL:   Your Honor, this is -- this is a
4       death penalty case.  It always has been.  There is
5       certainly no retaliation.  It started off as a death
6       case.  It was tried three times as a death case.  The 7       district attorney did make a decision on the fourth trial
8       to try to seek a conviction without it.  But that 9       apparently availed us nothing.  We tried this case the 10      last time as a death penalty case.

11              We have the same opinion now that basically we have 12      always had; it's a death penalty case.  This is one of 13      the unique cases in my career that if this isn't a death
14      penalty case, there is no such thing.  So absent a
15      showing of any retaliation or any such thing as that,
16      those are mere allegations by defense counsel.

17              I don't think there is any shred of evidence that we 18      have not always considered this a very, very, very 19      serious, the most serious of cases.  And I don't know of 20      any rule that prohibits us from going forward as a death
21      penalty case under the indictment.  So that is my -- that
22      is my brief and simple response, Your Honor.

23              THE COURT:   The Pearce case that was cited does
24      not mention anything about prosecutorial misconduct or 25      anything else.  It -- or vindictiveness on the part of 26      the prosecution.  It dealt specifically with whether a
27      judge could sentence somebody on a retrial to a greater
28      sentence than had previously been imposed.

29              Throughout the Pearce case it talked about

1 vindictiveness against the defendant from the trial
2 court's perspective for, I guess, having successfully got
3 the trial court reversed. And the Supreme Court did say
4 in that case that there had to be reasons stated in the 5 record why a sentence was increased from, from a previous
6 sentence.

7 But here we don't have that situation, because Mr.
8 Flowers did not get -- did not get to the second phase of 9 either -- I mean in the fourth trial, there wouldn't have 10 been a second phase. Certainly didn't get to the second
11 phase in the trial in the fifth case.

12 But I don't think Pearce stands for the proposition
13 that the State cannot seek the death penalty on 14 subsequent prosecutions because it did not do so
15 previously. And I have not been able to find any case
16 that says that anywhere. And I assume that if defense
17 counsel had such case, it would be presented to me. And 18 I have every confidence, because I have confidence that 19 the defense counsel is skillful in the knowledge of the 20 law in this area. And so --

21 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I assure you we would 22 not sandbag the case if you were unfavorable --

23 THE COURT: Well, I, I --

24 MS. STEINER: -- preference, precedent but 25 there is --

26 THE COURT: I --

27 MS. STEINER: We have given you everything we
28 have, and we believe it makes a persuasive case for why
29 you should rule in our favor.

1           THE COURT: As I say, I just do not think
2       Pearce stands for the proposition that you are arguing.
3       I understand the argument, but I don't think it's -- I
4       don't think there has been any showing that, that he is
5       facing the death penalty because somehow the previous
6       jury hung up.

7           Mr. Hill said, and I assume, probably the fourth
8       trial was done for the purpose of expediting the trial
9       and getting it over with. As you said, it could make it
10      quicker if the death penalty weren't on the table. And 11      yet when they took it off the table, it didn't have any 12      effect either way. So they decided on the fifth one to 13      go back and seek the death penalty, but I don't think
14      jeopardy ever attached.

15          The death penalty is part of the indictment. It was 16      never dismissed as far as I can see. So you know, it's 17      not a situation where jeopardy ever attached.

18          And I, I even think there is a U.S. Supreme Court
19      case that I didn't get my hands on, because I really just 20      thinking about it now. And it's been one within the last
21      few years where someone got their capital murder
22      conviction set aside. And then the Supreme Court of the 23      United States said they could seek the death penalty even 24      though they had not gotten the death penalty previously.
25      Because again, jeopardy did not attach, because the jury
26      did not acquit when they found somebody not deserving the 27      death penalty. So it did not bar the death penalty being 28      sought again.

29          So I don't -- I don't see any -- I don't have any

Notice of Renewal and Adoption of Motions from...

1 case law to guide me to say that it has to be dismissed
2 or that there is some violation of his constitutional
3 rights by going forward with the death penalty.

4 And so I am going to deny the motion.

5 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 The next one we shall call up is our Notice of 7 Renewal and Adoption of Motions from the Previous Five
8 Trials, which includes within it making any objections to 9 evidence that would be continuing, you know, continuing
10 into this trial.

11 This is -- we filed this trial before the --
12 certainly before the fifth trial for the other four. We 13 rely on the prior Court's rulings and on our own
14 arguments, the defense arguments, all of them, with one
15 exception, on Page 2 of 4. In the second trial, there
16 was a motion to suppress statement that, that was heard
17 by Judge Morgan in the course of the trial outside the 18 presence of the jury. We have nothing factual to add to
19 that.

20 But I would add here that with respect to Mr.
21 Flowers, the case of Missouri versus Siebert had not yet
22 come down when Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Evans argued the law
23 on suppression of statements. And the Siebert case is 24 the case where if there is questioning, unmirandized and 25 unadvised questioning of a defendant prior to then
26 administering Miranda warnings and obtaining statements,
27 it's not the same as fruit of poisonous tree. But it is 28 still improper under Miranda to use any statements that 29 are the product of the prior interview.

1           In this case I believe the testimony is that when
2           Mr. Flowers was initially called in, he was questioned
3           fairly extensively about his whereabouts that day before
4           ever being questioned with respect to a particular
5           suspicion. And that therefore on the facts as they exist
6           in that case, which I -- we think that Missouri versus
7           Siebert would make a different outcome. And since you
8           didn't preside, Your Honor, just in the interest of speed
9           --

10           THE COURT: I think --

11           MS. STEINER: -- I think they testified that he 12           wasn't arrested at the time that happened but --

13           THE COURT: I think the best thing is if you
14           want to renew this motion do so --

15           MS. STEINER: Separately.

16           THE COURT: -- separately, because I didn't
17           hear the motion before. And I don't -- I don't -- I
18           can't sit here with any degree of knowledge about what 19           transpired. So if you want to renew that motion and be 20           heard on it during the trial, then I would prefer that it
21           be renewed at that time.

22           MS. STEINER: May we have that heard prior to
23           voir dire so if the Court alters the ruling, in light
24           of --

25           THE COURT: We can.

26           MS. STEINER: I mean I can't do it today,
27           obviously.

28           THE COURT: Well, no, I was going to suggest we
29           are -- the jurors are going to be brought back on Friday.

1 MS. STEINER: Okay.

2 THE COURT: I mean the jurors are going to be
3 brought in on a Friday to go through the legal
4 qualifications, and voir dire is going to start on
5 Monday. So I think we could have time on that Friday
6 before the actual voir dire starts on Monday to take the 7 motion up if we need to.

8 MS. STEINER: Okay, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Just, you know, without having any
10 knowledge about what took place. And honestly, the only 11 motion, the only rulings that I feel comfortable in 12 ruling on are the ones that I ruled on that are listed on 13 Page 3 of 4.

14 You know, I mean I see -- I mean there are a number
15 of these motions that were done in previous trials that,
16 that obviously -- like Assertion of the Right to be 17 Present, I don't ever intend to have Mr. Flowers not 18 present when something is going on. We did have a
19 special venire, you know.

20 I mean there is a number of cases of, of these
21 previous motions that, you know, would be just granted
22 without much thought by the Court because they are 23 appropriate. But unless -- you know, if there is 24 anything specific about these previous motions listed as 25 54 in the previous four trials, I would like the 26 opportunity to be -- to, to hear them before I just 27 re-adopt what previous judge may have ruled on them.

28 But as I say, most of the -- you know, the vast 29 majority of them are things that just to me are just

1 standard operating procedure for any, any court to
2 follow.

3 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, with respect to the 4 ones that you heard prior to the fourth trial in the 5 fifth trial, this is just a matter of preserving that we
6 made those objections and incorporate them in here. I
7 have nothing to add or detract from what was previously
8 ruled, but I do want to have any issues raised so we 9 don't have to laundry list them all.

10 THE COURT: Well, I -- you know, without 11 argument further on, you know, what's listed on the 12 motions as 55 through 61, the previous motions, I will
13 readopt the rulings that I made on those particular 14 motions.

15 MS. STEINER: I believe you also were the judge
16 who ruled on 47 through 54, Your Honor, prior to fourth
17 trial. You presided at the fourth and fifth trial.

18 THE COURT: No, I didn't.

19 MS. STEINER: Oh, that's right.

20 THE COURT: I only presided over the fifth
21 trial.

22 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor. I wasn't
23 here for the fourth trial either.

24 THE COURT: But I mean most of them, you know,
25 like 47, Motion for Complete and Update Criminal
26 Histories, you know, there is a number of things that --
27 I mean all of this is pretty well standard anyway.

28 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I will before we
29 commence on the 4th have a list of any motions that I

1 would seek an independent ruling on.

2 THE COURT: That will be fine.

3 MS. STEINER: And not accept as law of the
4 case.

5 THE COURT: And I just think also for the 6 benefit of anybody trying to put a record together, if it
7 should get to the point where a record has to be made and
8 sent to the Supreme Court, it would be a lot easier to 9 have rather than to go back through five previous trials
10 and try to resurrect rulings from each of those issues
11 from the previous trials.

12 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And the Reservation of the Right to 14 File Further Motions, I have got that before me.
15 Certainly, I don't ever cut off any right to file
16 motions. If something comes up, then, you know, the 17 Court is always open to hear any motions that, that need
18 to be presented.

19 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 As I understand it, your ruling on the Request for 21 Adoption of Motions from Previous Five Trials is from the 22 fifth trial you readopt. And we maintain those as 23 continuing objections to the extent that that is -- they 24 are objecting to the introduction of evidence.

25 And the other four, before you rule, you would want
26 the opportunity to articulate it and independently visit
27 them; is that correct?

28 THE COURT: Correct. Because you know, I
29 don't -- I don't know what those rulings were in those

1 prior four trials. I mean I feel certain most them were
2 like the right to be present and things like that were
3 granted. But I don't want to -- or maybe put it this
4 way. Any motion from the four previous trials that was
5 denied maybe you might want to revisit at some point.
6 You know, because if something has been previously
7 granted then I don't --

8 MS. STEINER: We have been acting on anything

9 --

10 THE COURT: Right. Been acting on that.

11 MS. STEINER: -- that has been granted.

12 THE COURT: But if there is something that was,
13 was denied from a previous trial that needs to be 14 reconsidered, then I am open to hearing that.

15 MS. STEINER: Okay.

16 THE COURT: And --

17 MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And I want to make this clear on 19 the fifth. You know, most -- these motions that were 20 listed were all preliminary matters before the trial took 21 place. So I mean if there is issues that come up during 22 the course of the trial, you still have to make a
23 contemporaneous objection to it.

24 MS. STEINER: On the motions in limine, there
25 were -- I think they have been litigated several times.
26 And the parties have been complying with, you know,
27 certain rulings made with respect to like using 28 transcripts, --

29 THE COURT: Oh, yeah.

Reservation of Right to File Further Motions

1 MS. STEINER: -- hearsay, and things like that.
2 And I think some of the photos were --

3 THE COURT: I think y'all --

4 MS. STEINER: -- stickered over.

5 THE COURT: -- probably agreed. I mean it was 6 my -- during the trial that I did preside over, there was 7 a general agreement among the counsel on a number of 8 issues. And I would assume that those things that you've 9 agreed on in the past will not be disagreed on this time.

10 MS. STEINER: Right. No. I mean there were 11 things, for instance, after the second trial there was 12 fairly -- in the second trial, there was fairly
13 considerable litigation on gruesome photographs. Judge
14 Morgan ruled on what he thought was and wasn't gruesome.

15 THE COURT: What I was trying to say is if 16 there is an objection like that where -- to the 17 admissibility of some piece of evidence, then it needs to 18 either be heard by me before the trial or either a
19 contemporaneous objection needs to be made during the 20 trial.

21 Of course, you know, we -- the second trial wasn't
22 reversed on evidentiary issues. So I would assume that,
23 that probably every issue that could possibly have been 24 raised was raised in the Supreme Court. I mean that's,
25 that's generally what is done.

26 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I will see if the 27 State 1, a gruesome photo that has been routinely used,
28 and I will try and note for the Court either before trial
29 or at the time that we are renewing that objection.

1           But some of these, I think, we live -- just because
2 we live with what we know the evidence is doesn't mean we
3 agree with it if it's coming in over an objection.

4           THE COURT: Well, I mean I would hate for -- I
5 mean we have got to have the record clear on what takes
6 place in each of the trials. And it would be really
7 difficult to go back and say okay, well, in trial two I
8 objected to this, but in trial six I didn't, because the 9 judge ruled in trial two that it was admissible.

10          That is why I am saying the contemporaneous
11 objections have to be made, because you would have 12 transcripts of five previous trials that might have to be
13 looked at. And I don't -- that would be a cumbersome
14 thing for any reviewing court to do.

15          MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

16          And the final motion for the Court is the Motion for 17 Setting of Reasonable Bail. And for that, in addition to 18 the declaration under penalty of perjury of Mrs. Lola
19 Flowers, which was filed in support of the motion, the 20 testimony from Chief Hargrove and Detective Johnson
21 regarding Mr. Flowers as largely cooperative behavior and 22 immediate surrender at time he was notified. I would 23 like to incorporate that in the record of this, and 24 simply state this is a motion for granting bail.

25          We agree this is a capital case. We agree that
26 especially in a capital case this Court has -- this Court
27 and its predecessors have to date denied any sort of 28 bail. But under the constitutional provision under which 29 this Court is exercising its right to deny bail, Article

1       III, Section 29 of the Mississippi Constitution says,
2       "Excessive bail shall not be required, and all persons
3       shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient
4       sureties, except for capital offenses when the proof is 5       evident or presumption great."

6       And in this instance, for the reasons set forth in
7       the motion, the case itself after five trials, I do not
8       think there could be any notion of presumption that the 9       evidence is going to ultimately result in a conviction.
10      It has not yet done so in a valid conviction.

11      There are four, five transcripts, all of which show
12      there are -- the material facts with respect to guilt are 13      hotly disputed. It is entirely circumstantial with the 14      exception -- the only direct testimony is the jailhouse
15      informant, who is amply impeached.

16      We have no idea if the reason there was so much
17      disagreement about guilt had to do with whether or not --
18      the believability of that testimony. This is not a case
19      where you have somebody connected by DNA to a particular
20      murder at a particular time. So that prong of the bail
21      constitutional provision is not met.

22      Moreover, there is nothing to indicate in this
23      instance and in this case that Mr. Flowers is a danger or 24      is a flight risk or would be a danger to the community to 25      let out as there was a seven-month lapse between these 26      crimes and his arrest. No other crimes or like crimes
27      were committed in the community. Mr. Flowers was not
28      arrested for anything.

29      He is -- you know, I appreciate any law enforcement

1 officer who suspects someone may know more than that,
2 someone knows about whether he has been targeted. But
3 there is nothing to indicate that Mr. Flowers didn't do
4 -- didn't keep in touch. He returned.

5 He was living with -- I think some of the discovery
6 in Exhibit 1 shows that not only was Mr. Flowers
7 interviewed, but all kinds of members of his family were
8 interviewed. The addresses of the relatives in Plano
9 were there. There were many opportunities to flee.
10 There were many opportunities to demonstrate
11 dangerousness to the community. There is nothing.

12 Mr. Flowers has no prior felony convictions or even,
13 as far as I know, accusations. He is -- if this were any 14 other crime probably up to and including simple murder,
15 he would as a matter of routine be admitted to bail given
16 his character and conduct with respect to his behavior
17 while a suspect and then in prison, except for today's 18 allegations that apparently some guard fell in love with 19 him and he succumbed to -- allegedly succumbed to 20 temptation.

21 There is nothing to indicate any escaping behavior,
22 attempt to escape or flee. There is nothing to indicate,
23 even apart from these last allegations, any kind of 24 violence or disruption that would predict bad behavior in 25 the community as a whole.

26 Given, you know, he is going to be 40. He is going 27 to be -- his mother -- and this is, everybody knows, the 28 community in which people named Flowers are no longer
29 popular. And yet Mrs. Flowers, who is retired, and

1 certainly has no obligation to support a grown son, is
2 willing, not only according to her declaration to provide
3 him home, but to subject herself, in addition to
4 whatever, if she were standing surety or putting her
5 property as surety for a bail, if there were conditions
6 of release, if the Court were to do that, you know, up to 7 and including ankle bracelets and reporting.

8 And she has made herself available to be subject to 9 conditions as a custodian. That could include reporting.
10 That could include -- you know, as I say, we understand
11 this is an extraordinary case. Mr. Flowers has not been 12 convicted of these crimes, validly convicted of these 13 crimes. He has been incarcerated for 13 years.

14 In the Court's ruling, which I read to be not only
15 to go forward with this trial but that it sees no double
16 jeopardy impediment to continued retrial, that even if 17 prosecution is not enough is enough, incarceration of Mr.
18 Flowers pending trial is.

19 It is not like he's indicated he doesn't want to 20 stand trial and be vindicated on these trials. In fact,
21 he seems -- he waived extradition and has been 22 cooperative in investigation up to the point he was 23 actually charged. And there is nothing to indicate he 24 would be a flight risk or a danger or the standards for 25 bail or that this is -- there is a great presumption that 26 conviction will ensue. And we would therefore ask that 27 he be admitted to a reasonable bail under the 28 circumstances by the evidence.

29 THE COURT: I'll hear from the State.

1           MR. HILL: Your Honor, I don't understand how
2 anybody could know the facts of this case and not believe
3 or not understand the proof is evident and the 4 presumption great. Three different juries from three
5 different parts of the state have found beyond any
6 reasonable doubt that the defendant murdered these four
7 people. I mean it looks to me like that argument doesn't
8 pass the laugh test.

9           Since I can't remember anybody else around here
10 murdering four people, I would say that that would
11 indicate that the defendant is an extremely dangerous
12 individual, and the best place for him is behind bars.

13           I realize also that he went to Texas. And, and 14 counsel's questioning earlier indicated whether or not he 15 was asked to report if he was leaving. I don't think he 16 did. But he disappeared from these parts without telling 17 anybody where he was going. And he didn't just leave and 18 move from one place -- one small town to another in 19 Mississippi; he went to Texas.

20           State's position is that he is certainly a extremely
21 violent person. If he was getting mad and his emotions
22 overwhelmed his ability to, to control his temper, we
23 don't know what would happen. We do know what happened
24 one time. And because the state constitution itself
25 says that -- makes a special exception for people charged
26 with capital offenses, we think that bail should be
27 denied, and he should remain where he is. Trial is only,
28 what, a couple of months away at the most?

29           THE COURT: Well, Mr. Hill's correctly stated

1        what the constitution of the state says about proof
2        evident or presumption great. The case has been tried
3        three times where a conviction happened and the Supreme
4        Court took each of those up. They did not reverse and
5        render. They had an opportunity to look at the evidence
6        and obviously felt like there was very sufficient
7        evidence to go forward with trial. So I think based what 8        they've done, you could say presumption would be great or 9        proof evident.

10       Also, this was, you know, a very violent crime. Mr.
11       Flowers has gone to Texas in the past. With previous 12       juries having had convicted him, he, I think, would be a
13       greater flight risk now than he would have been in the 14       past, because when he went to Texas previously he was not
15       under indictment. Now he is under indictment, and as I
16       say, has been convicted previous times.

17       And also, I'll also note that trial is just about 18       six weeks away. So it's not a great burden to be in jail
19       for six more weeks. You've noted he has been in jail for 20       13 years. So I don't think six more weeks is going to be 21       a real hardship.

22       So for these reasons, I am going to deny bail
23       pending trial.

24       I think this is all the motions that you have
25       presented to the Court; is that --

26       MS. STEINER: That is all the presently pending
27       motions the defendant has. The State didn't notice any.

28       THE COURT: The State didn't notice any. I
29       assume there are none.

1           If there is motions that need to be heard in the
2 future, I can certainly be available before the day the
3 jury is qualified to rule on -- I mean I don't have my
4 calendar with me. I don't have a specific date. But if
5 we have got other matters that, that need to be taken up
6 prior to the jury being qualified or prior to the day of 7 actual voir dire, I will certainly be back over here to 8 do it.

9           You know, a lot of times if you take matters up
10 preliminarily before the evidence begins, it can make the 11 trial flow much smoother. So if there is anything that I
12 need to take up previous to trial, please let me know,
13 and I will certainly be back over here to do so.

14           MR. HILL: Yes, sir.

15           THE COURT: But at least for this time, this
16 Court stands adjourned or recessed in this matter.

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

(THE FOLLOWING PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD IN
OPEN COURT ON JUNE 4, 2010, WITH ALL
COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT, THE COURT, THE COURT REPORTER AND THE CIRCUIT COURT CLERK
PRESENT, TO-WIT:)

(Potential Jurors Called)

BY THE COURT: The Court will come to order. Ladies and gentlemen, the order of business we're going to be conducting today is we're going to go over the jury qualifications and jury exemptions with those of you today.

We will, actually on the case that we're going to be handling, will start questioning you Monday morning about specific facts of the case. So today, what we're going to be doing is just making sure you do
meet the legal qualifications to serve on a jury and also take any exemptions that you might have.

And the case is going to be the State
of Mississippi versus Curtis Giovanni
Flowers, Cause Number 2003-0071-CR.

Ladies and gentlemen, these questions that I'm going to be asking you now are to make sure that you meet the legal qualifications to serve on a jury. These questions are not asked for the purpose of embarrassing anybody, putting you on the spot

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 about anything. It's strictly to make sure
2 that you do meet the legal qualifications to
3 serve on a jury.

4 If you do not meet one of the
5 qualifications, then you would need to speak
6 up and let me know that. Also, if an
7 exemption that I go over with you should
8 apply to you, then you could possibly claim
9 that exemption and be excused from jury
10 service. And I know that the clerk's already
11 given you an oath and this is your oath --
12 that was your oath that you will answer these 13 questions truthfully.

14 The first qualification you've got to 15 meet is you've got to be at least 21 years of 16 age in order to serve. So do I have anyone
17 that was summoned for jury duty for today who
18 is not at least 21 years of age?

19 Also, you have to be a qualified
20 elector of Montgomery County or a resident
21 freeholder of this county for more than one
22 year. Once again, a qualified elector or a
23 resident freeholder of this county for more
24 than one year. So do I have anybody that 25 would not be a qualified elector or resident
26 freeholder? Yes, sir, what is your
27 situation?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live in Greenwood
29 now. I lived with my grandmother in Stewart

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 a couple of years back. I live in Greenwood
2 now. I'm registered to vote in Leflore
3 County.

4 BY THE COURT: So you have abandoned
5 Montgomery County as a place of residence?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

7 BY THE COURT: And you have not maintained
8 a legal residence here?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: What is your name?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Chase Gates.

12 BY THE COURT: All right. I'll let you
13 go. And if you would, just go right into the 14 clerk's office there and you might fill some 15 paperwork out so they can take you off the 16 voter rolls of this county, as you were 17 apparently still listed as a voter in this
18 county, but I will let you go. But, as I
19 say, if you will, please, go and have your
20 name taken off the voter rolls here. And I
21 think -- yes.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live in Hinds
23 County.

24 BY THE COURT: And you have moved?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We did live in French
26 Camp, but we have moved as of February from 27 Montgomery County but I haven't changed my 28 voting yet.

29 BY THE COURT: But you have abandoned this

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 county totally as a resident and you have no
2 ties to here anymore?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Wendy Thomas.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Thomas, and if
7 you'll do like the gentleman I just said --
8 just asked him to do and if you'll just go in 9 there and fill out the paperwork to have your
10 name removed the voter rolls here. And I
11 believe I saw -- yes.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Chris Harbin, and I
13 stay in Greenwood now.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. And you no longer
15 maintain any residency of any kind here; is
16 that correct?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

18 BY THE COURT: You may go. Mr. Harbin,
19 you may go and if you'll go in and have your
20 name taken off the voter rolls there. Yes,
21 ma'am.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Brandi McClain. I'm
23 currently live in Ocean Springs.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. McClain, you may 25 go and -- well, I assume you don't maintain
26 any residency of any kind here now; is that
27 correct?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

29 BY THE COURT: Now, you may go and go do

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 like these others and if you'll just go in
2 there and have your names taken off the voter
3 rolls so that, you know -- well, obviously
4 you don't live here you're not qualified to
5 vote here and also you won't be called again
6 in the future in any jury proceedings here.
7 All right. Yes, ma'am.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live in DeSoto
9 County.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay. What is your name?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Adriane Brown.

12 BY THE COURT: Ms. Brown, you've abandoned
13 Montgomery County as the place of residence
14 and no longer have anything to do with here;
15 is that correct?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll let you go. If 18 you will, as I say, follow these others and 19 have your name removed from the voter rolls
20 of the county.

21 There are some items also, ladies and
22 gentlemen, that would disqualify you from 23 serving on the jury. If you have been 24 convicted of a felony crime, that would
25 disqualify you from serving on a jury. It
26 would not necessarily disqualify you from 27 voting but it would disqualify you from being 28 able to serve on a jury.

29 So do I have anybody -- and let me

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 explain what a felony crime is. I think most
2 of you probably know, but a felony crime is a
3 crime that if you were convicted of that type
4 crime, you could serve time in the state
5 penitentiary. Even if you were convicted of 6 a felony crime but were on probation or 7 received suspension of sentence, that would
8 still be a disqualification from being on the 9 jury. But with that in mind, do I have
10 anybody that's been convicted of a felony
11 crime that would disqualify them from 12 serving? Yes, sir. And what is your name?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: James Willie Hill.

14 BY THE COURT: And Mr. Hill, you've been
15 convicted of a felony; is that correct?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: And what was that
18 conviction?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A grand larceny
20 charge.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I appreciate
22 you being here this morning and you can go.
23 Yes, sir.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: James Bell.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Bell, I
26 appreciate you being here, and you may go.

27 BY MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, what --

28 BY THE COURT: James Bell.

29 If you are a common gambler or

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 habitual drunkard, you would not be qualified
2 to serve. And I hope we don't have any, but
3 if I have any common gamblers or habitual
4 drunkards, this is time to speak up. And I
5 take it by your silence and your responses
6 that we do not have any common gamblers or 7 habitual drunkards present this morning and
8 that's good.

9 Also, you could not serve if you've
10 been convicted of the sale of intoxicating
11 liquors within the past five years. So if 12 any of you have been convicted of the sale of 13 intoxicating liquors within the past five
14 years. I think that dates back to the old
15 bootlegging days and stuff like that, but 16 it's still one of those things that would 17 disqualify you. So if you have been
18 convicted of the sale of intoxicating liquors
19 within the past five years, that would be 20 something that would prohibit you from 21 serving. So do I have anybody that would be 22 disqualified for that reason?

23 Also, the law requires that you be
24 able to read and write. And, basically, if
25 you were able to complete that jury
26 questionnaire that was sent with your jury
27 summons and if you could complete that and 28 read it, then you were deemed to be able to 29 read and write enough to serve. So have I

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 got anybody that could not read and write
2 well enough to -- and what is your name?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Bobby Palmertree.

4 BY THE COURT: Bobby Palmertree. And did
5 somebody else fill it out for you?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am. I mean,
7 yes, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: I know I'm wearing a robe,
9 but it ain't a dress. But that's fine. I
10 understand you're nervous, Mr. Palmertree.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can read a little.
12 But I can't take notes and all that stuff.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll let you go, and
14 I appreciate you being here.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I appreciate it.

16 BY THE COURT: Do I have anyone else that 17 could not read and write well enough?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

19 BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Deborah
21 Butts. My husband filled mine out.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay. So you could not
23 complete that or read that; is that correct?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. What was your name
26 again?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Deborah Butts.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Butts, I
29 appreciate you being here and you may go.

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

Ladies and gentlemen, those are the legal qualifications --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Judge.

BY THE COURT: I'm sorry. Did I miss someone?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can't read and write.

BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Arthur Easterwood.

BY THE COURT: Okay. And did somebody else fill that -- and so you were not able to read that and fill it out; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you go then, and I do appreciate you being here.

And now, ladies and gentlemen, those are the legal qualifications that you have to meet in order to serve on a jury. There are also some exemptions that I'm going to go over with you at this time. These exemptions that I'm going to go over with you are personal exemptions. You do not have to claim one of these even if it applied to you so I want you to understand that. Even if it applied to you, you would not have to claim it if you do not wish to do so. However, if one of these exemptions does apply to you, then you could claim it and possibly be excused or exempt from jury service.

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           The first exemption is any person
2           over age 65, that's a privilege that the law
3           recognizes. Certainly, the Court encourages
4           persons over the age 65 to serve. But if you
5           are over 65 and you don't want to serve, then
6           that is a privilege that comes with being
7           that age. So have I got -- yes, sir, what's
8           your name?

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Rochester Ratliff, 68.

10          BY THE COURT: Well, you look good for 68,
11          but you may go if you wish, Mr. Ratliff, and 12          I appreciate you being here. Yes, ma'am.

13          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Zelma Mae Forrest.

14          BY THE COURT: Zelma Mae Forrest?

15          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eighty-one.

16          BY THE COURT: You make 81 look good.
17          I'll tell you that. But if you want to go,
18          I'll allow you to go and appreciate you being
19          here today, and you're excused.

20                 Yes, ma'am.

21          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm 66.

22          BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sarah Holmes.

24          BY THE COURT: Sarah Holmes? Well, I
25          appreciate you being here, Ms. Holmes.

26                 (PAUSE)

27          BY THE COURT: You may go at any time you
28          wish.

29          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Her ride is gone.

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 She's going to have to wait.

2 BY THE COURT: Oh, okay. Okay. Well,
3 that's fine. I just didn't want her to be
4 here if she didn't want to be.

5 Also, ladies and gentlemen, if you've
6 got an illness and on account of an illness,
7 you're incapable of performing jury service,
8 then that could be an exemption. But, again,
9 if you've got some kind of medical condition
10 and because of that, you're not capable of 11 performing jury service. Do I have anybody
12 that's got some kind of illness of some kind
13 where you're not physically able to serve?
14 Yes, ma'am, over here.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm under the
16 treatment for kidney stones, and I have to go
17 to Greenwood to have them removed.

18 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. And what is
19 your name?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Emma Hargrove.

21 BY THE COURT: Ms. Hargrove, I have heard
22 that's an awful painful thing, and I'm sorry
23 that you're suffering that right now. I hope
24 you feel better soon, but I will let you go.

25 All right. Yes, sir.

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I take a lot of
27 medicine. I have weak kidneys.

28 BY THE COURT: So you're on a lot of 29 medication and that would affect you in your

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 ability to function and serve as a juror?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: And you feel like you could
4 not serve because of these medical problems;
5 is that correct?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have to use the 7 bathroom too much.

8 BY THE COURT: Right. I -- what's your
9 name?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Roy Roberts.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
12 go, and I appreciate you being here. Yes.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My blood pressure
14 medicine makes me sleepy and use the bathroom
15 all the time.

16 BY THE COURT: And so you've got bad blood
17 pressure problems and not able to serve.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

19 BY THE COURT: Are you able to work?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. And so you're 22 basically disabled because of your --

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I ain't disabled.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I mean, you're not
25 able to work because of your blood pressure?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm working but my 27 blood pressure makes me feel bad and use the 28 bathroom all the time. I won't be able to 29 sit on the jury and have to go back and

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1       forth.

2               BY THE COURT:   Okay.   I'll let you go.
3       What's your name?

4               PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Annette Berry.

5               BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Yes, ma'am.

6               PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   I'm Allie Sue
7       Scarbrough, and I have a lot of -- take a lot
8       of medicine myself and I'm disabled.

9               BY THE COURT:   Are you like drawing
10       disability or --

11              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Yes, sir.

12              BY THE COURT:   And these medications
13       affect you where you don't feel like you
14       could function and serve as a juror; is that
15       correct?

16              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Yes, sir.

17              BY THE COURT:   And what's your name again?

18              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Allie Sue Scarborough.

19              BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Well, I appreciate
20       you being here, and I'll let you go.   And I
21       see a hand here in the back.

22              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   I have problems with 23       my legs, and my arteries will close up.   And 24       I've had five or six surgeries on my legs.
25       And I just had surgery recently, and I can't 26       sit for a long period of time, plus I'm 27       taking prescription for depression and
28       anxiety, and I am disabled.

29              BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Well, I'll let you

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 go. And what is your name?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Juanita Butts.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Butts. And I
4 hope you get to feeling better from this
5 surgery you just had.

6 I see a gentleman over here. Yes,
7 sir.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've got a COPD and
9 emphysema. I have to take breathing
10 treatments four to six times a day.

11 BY THE COURT: Well, I think you couldn't
12 serve and do that, too. So I'll let you go.
13 What's your name?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Claude Marlow.

15 BY THE COURT: Mr. Marlow, I appreciate
16 you being here, and I'll let you go. And 17 yes, ma'am. Here.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a lot of 19 medical problems and take a lot of medicine
20 and I have sleep apnea and have breathing
21 problems. I don't feel like I could sit very 22 long at a time.

23 BY THE COURT: You feel these would affect
24 you --

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would, it
26 definitely would.

27 BY THE COURT: -- to the extent you could 28 not serve? What is your name?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Carolyn McCoy.

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. McCoy, I
2           appreciate you being here, and I'll let you
3           go. I saw a gentleman standing here at the 4           back of the courtroom.

5           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I'm Kenny Britt.
6           And I just went to the doctor yesterday, and
7           I have colon problems and they've got me on
8           medicine now. I can't stay still very long
9           period of time because I hurt so bad.

10          BY THE COURT: And Britt is your name?

11          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Britt.

12          BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
13          go, Mr. Britt. And I hope you get better
14          soon. I think I saw another hand. Yes,
15          ma'am, right here, the second row.

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have medical
17          problems, and I'm on medication. I can't sit
18          for long periods of time. I have chronic
19          back pain and other medical problems.

20          BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

21          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Claria Henson.

22          BY THE COURT: Ms. Henson? Well, I
23          appreciate you being here, and you may go.
24          And I think I saw another gentleman, yes,
25          sir.

26          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I take a lot of
27          medicines and I'm disabled.

28          BY THE COURT: Are you drawing disability
29          now?

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

2           BY THE COURT: And you're not able to --

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I take a lot of
4 medicine for back and neck surgeries. And
5 just sitting here a long time, it would be
6 hard on me.

7           BY THE COURT: Okay. And what's your
8 name?

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: John Hancock.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay. That's a nice name.
11 You may go.

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

13          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

14          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is
15 (unintelligible), and I have sleep apnea.

16          BY THE COURT: What -- what -- I didn't 17 hear your name -- what's --

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Nick Davis
19 Coach, and I have sleep apnea.

20          BY THE COURT: And that would affect you
21 where you couldn't function and serve; is
22 that correct?

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

24          BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
25 go, and I appreciate you being here.

26          BY MR. CARTER: What was that last name?

27          BY MRS. STEINER: Coach. .

28          BY THE COURT: Coach. Yeah, that's it,
29 okay. Yes, sir.

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mario Townsend. I
2           just been diagnosed with adjustment disorder
3           and PTSD, and I take medicine for depression
4           and anxiety.

5           BY THE COURT: Posttraumatic stress?

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

7           BY THE COURT: And you feel like you could
8           not function or serve as a juror; is that
9           correct?

10          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

11          BY THE COURT: Okay. And what is your
12          name?

13          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mario Townsend.

14          BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Townsend, you
15          may go. Yes, sir.

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Donald Thompson. I've
17          got some kind of bug. I don't whether I've 18          got the flu or what but I feel awful, weak as 19          water.

20          BY THE COURT: Well, we probably need to 21          let you go because I don't want anybody else
22          to get it. So what's your name again?

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Donald Thompson.

24          BY THE COURT: Yes, near the back there.
25          Yes, ma'am.

26          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have back problems.
27          I'm taking a lot of strong medicine. I done
28          had three back surgeries.

29          BY THE COURT: Okay. And what's your

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 name?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Perine Eskridge.

3 BY THE COURT: What's your last name?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Perine Eskridge.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. Eskridge. Okay.

6 Ms. Eskridge, I appreciate you being here,
7 and you may go. And I see another hand back
8 here at the back. Yes, ma'am.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just injured my back
10 at work, and I'm on medication now, and I'm 11 under doctor's care. I'm supposed to go back
12 to him tomorrow.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay. And what's your name
14 again?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Denise Young.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll let you go, Ms.
17 Young, and I hope your problem gets better
18 soon. Yes. I'm sorry.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm James Mann, and I
20 think I will exercise my age exemption.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. And you're over age
22 65; is that correct?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Mann, I
25 appreciate your being here and you may go.
26 The next situation is if jury service would
27 cause an undue or extreme physical or
28 financial hardship to you or someone under 29 your care or supervision, that would will

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 result in an exemption. It's got to be a
2 situation where you would have to abandon a
3 person under your personal care or 4 supervision due to the impossibility of
5 finding substitute care for them or if you
6 would incur a cost that would have a
7 substantial adverse impact on the payment of
8 your necessary daily living expenses or
9 someone to whom you provide the principle
10 means of support for or somebody under your
11 care or supervision would possibly suffer
12 physical hardship that could result in an
13 illness or disease. That's the subcategory
14 that comes under this heading of the undue or 15 extreme physical or financial hardship. So
16 does anyone have anything that they would 17 feel would rise to the level that I've just 18 given to you that would necessitate you being
19 excused or exempt from jury service? Yes,
20 ma'am.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm Sandra Hamilton,
22 and I work night shifts at Grenada Lake
23 Medical Center. I'm a respiratory therapist,
24 and we care for the patients on life support
25 equipment and part of my problem.

26 BY THE COURT: Well, now, what happens if 27 you miss work, if you're sick or you go on 28 vacation?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, then somebody

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 has to work an extra shift to cover mine.

2 BY THE COURT: Well, they've had six or
3 seven weeks to know that you're going to be
4 out, so I feel like they can find somebody
5 else to take your place. Because they
6 have -- you know, we sent these out in mid
7 April. What's your name though?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sandra Hamilton.

9 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Tabitha Williams, and 11 I'm a single parent of an eight-year-old.

12 BY THE COURT: Of an eight-year-old. Do
13 you have anybody that could look after this 14 child if you were to be up here for --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, his father is 16 disabled so, and he lives with me.

17 BY THE COURT: And the child lives with
18 you --

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: -- and you don't have any 21 substitute caregiver or anything like that?
22 Okay. What is your name again?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Tabitha Williams.

24 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Williams, I'll
25 let you go. Yes, sir.

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Dwight Stewart. I'm
27 self-employed. If I don't work, there's no
28 money coming in and no bills get paid.

29 BY THE COURT: What type work is this?

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I move dirt and do
2 trackhoe work.

3           BY THE COURT: What happens if you go on 4 vacation or anything like that?

5           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't take
6 vacations.

7           BY THE COURT: So you just work all the 8 time? Okay. What's your name again?

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Dwight Stewart.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Stewart, I'll
11 let you go. Yes.

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Theresa Graves. I was 13 keeping my grandbaby this morning for my
14 daughter-in-law to go to college.

15          BY THE COURT: Does she have anybody else
16 that could --

17          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's no one.

18          BY THE COURT: So she doesn't have any 19 relatives or friends or anyone?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's from Missouri
21 originally.

22          BY THE COURT: And does the child -- is it
23 staying with you during, I guess, most all
24 the time?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's started Monday.

26          BY THE COURT: From -- okay. Well, I'll
27 let you go. I appreciate you being here. I
28 think I saw another hand. Yes.

29          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm Gloria Welch, and

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 I am self-employed. I have a wedding and
2 catering business, and there's no one else.
3 We have several weddings scheduled like this
4 weekend and forward, and there's no one else
5 that can do what I do.

6 BY THE COURT: I think June is one of the 7 big months for weddings. I'll -- and you
8 absolutely don't have anybody that could --
9 this would shut down and mess a bunch of 10 weddings up, I assume?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir. There's no
12 one else that can do what I do. We have
13 part-time help, but no one does what I do.

14 BY THE COURT: And what's your name?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Gloria Welch.

16 BY THE COURT: I'll let you go then,
17 Ms. Welch. I believe I see a gentleman's
18 hand back here.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Jason
20 Simmons, and we have a heating and cooling
21 business in Grenada. I do have a partner,
22 but he'll be completely overwhelmed. There's 23 no way he can keep up with all the air
24 conditioning we have going on.

25 BY THE COURT: And what kind of hardship
26 is this going to be? Is this going to create 27 a substantial hardship for -- and you own the 28 business, correct?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, me and

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 another man own it. However, once we miss
2 the customer, we've lost their business.

3 BY THE COURT: And you're Mr. Simmons?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll let you go,
6 Mr. Simmons. I see one more hand, maybe two
7 more hands. Yes, ma'am.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't have any child
9 care. My mother usually does, but she's out
10 of town for the rest of the month.

11 BY THE COURT: And so you don't have 12 anybody else that could come in?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't.

14 BY THE COURT: It looks like you brought
15 your excuse with you. What is your name?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Glenda Bennett.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Bennett. And I
18 saw one hand back here. Yes, sir.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Lloyd
20 Chism, and I have a trucking business. I
21 have 22 truck drivers that depend on me to 22 dispatch them.

23 BY THE COURT: And you are the owner of 24 the business?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am.

26 BY THE COURT: And do you have anybody
27 that could fill in for you?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir, I do not.

29 BY THE COURT: And what happens -- you

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 probably don't ever take any time off either,
2 though?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir. I keep a
4 cell phone with me all the time.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
6 go, Mr. Chism.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

8 BY THE COURT: And the next situation is 9 have I got any nursing mothers. That's 10 another exemption that I think might have
11 come up already on the previous exemption,
12 but if I've got anybody that's like a nursing
13 mother that has small children.

14 Also, if you've served as a petit
15 juror within the past two years where you
16 actually came up here and you sat in the jury
17 box and you tried a case or if you served on 18 a grand jury within the past two years.
19 Either of these things, grand jury service or 20 petit jury within the past two years. Yes,
21 ma'am.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Robin Cummings.

23 BY THE COURT: And when was that?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The term before last.

25 BY THE COURT: So that's been within two
26 years. Okay. You may go. Yes, ma'am.

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I served on a grand
28 jury with Ms. Cummings.

29 BY THE COURT: And when was that?

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was with Robin
2           Cummings.

3           BY THE COURT: Okay. And what is your
4           name?

5           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Wanda Huggins.

6           BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Huggins, I'll
7           let you go, and I see somebody right here.

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Grand jury in Oxford
9           this year.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay. And what is your
11          name?

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Robert Kemp.

13          BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Kemp. Well, I
14          appreciate it, and you may go. Yes, ma'am.

15          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's Ruby Robinson
16          Clark. I served on grand jury last year.

17          BY THE COURT: Your name is Clark?

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ruby Robinson Clark.

19          BY THE COURT: Okay. Ruby Robinson Clark.
20          Okay, Ms. Clark. Well, I'll let you go, and 21          I appreciate you being here. Yes, sir.

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Tommy Adkins. I
23          served on the grand jury.

24          BY THE COURT: And when was that?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not sure. It was 26          recently, but I'm not sure.

27          BY THE COURT: Okay. It has to have been
28          within the past two years, so I'll let you
29          go. What's your name again?

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Tommy Adkins.

2           BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Adkins.

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Lula Brown, served on
4 the grand jury.

5           BY THE COURT: And when was that?

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe it was with
7 that gentleman. It was September.

8           BY THE COURT: Okay. You have September
9 2008, so that's been within the past two 10 years but you may go. At the back there in 11 the green.

12           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Richard McKee. I
13 served on I think 2008.

14           BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

15           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Petit jury 2009.

16           BY THE COURT: 2009? And you actually
17 were on a trial jury that went -- jury went
18 to trial and that was last year.

19           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was.

20           BY THE COURT: Okay. And what is your
21 name?

22           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Octavious Topps.

23           BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Topps, I
24 appreciate you being here. Yes, sir.

25           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Served on a grand
26 jury, but I don't know if it was two years
27 ago.

28           BY THE COURT: Okay. And what's your
29 name?

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jessie Crawford. I
2           said I served on the grand jury, but I don't
3           know if it's been two years.

4           BY THE COURT: It's been further back than
5           two years, apparently. Anything, anyone
6           else? All right. I'll ask you to think over
7           the questions that I've gone over with you
8           now because we have now completed the 9           questions process as far as your 10          qualifications go. But, you know, some of 11          you may have had something you thought about 12          you didn't bring up earlier. If you have 13          thought about something now that you realize
14          you should have spoken up about previously,
15          then this is that last opportunity. So do I
16          have anybody? Yes.

17          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Larry Sims,
18          and I'm a minister.

19          BY THE COURT: And you're what?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a preacher.

21          BY THE COURT: That's not in itself an
22          exemption.

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe in 24          judging nobody.

25          BY THE COURT: Okay. We'll have to take 26          that up next week when we have to get into 27          it, because that's not a disqualification.

28          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. I'm in 29          dental school in Jackson. I'm in school 40

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 hours a week. I'm already getting behind
2 being here today.

3 BY THE COURT: And would that have a real
4 substantial adverse impact on your education
5 and your means of support if you miss for a
6 week?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. What's your name?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Justin Dyre.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
11 go. And I believe that's all. Yes, sir.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Robert Harris. I'm a
13 youth pastor, and we've got Bible school next
14 week.

15 BY THE COURT: Is there anybody that can
16 fill in for you?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've got an intern,
18 but she's only been working for several
19 months now. She's never had Bible school.

20 BY THE COURT: I understand if you don't,
21 but I was going to say something so I'm going 22 to let you go because that that type work and 23 that goes on one time a year. What's your
24 name?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Robert Harris.

26 BY THE COURT: And I see one person back
27 here.

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: William Bryan. I've 29 got a cattle operation, farming operation and

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 nobody but me to take care of it from day to
2 day.

3 BY THE COURT: And what kind of operation
4 is this you have and what do you do?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a cattle and
6 farming operation, hay operation and stuff
7 like that.

8 BY THE COURT: Would that create a
9 substantial adverse impact on the operation
10 of the farm if you are not there?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nobody there to take
12 care of it.

13 BY THE COURT: So everything would -- 14 nothing would get done. Is what you're
15 saying?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: What's your name?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: William Bryan.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
20 go then. I appreciate you being here.

21 Yes, sir.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a claims
23 supervisor for a crop insurance company over
24 Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi.
25 29 people that work for me. I wouldn't be so
26 bad concerned with it, but I'm supposed to go
27 to Texas in a week for a training meeting.

28 BY THE COURT: For what?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For work?

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           BY THE COURT: Well, I feel like they've
2           had seven weeks to know that you were going
3           to be up here so I --

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I mean, that's
5           true. I'm just --

6           BY THE COURT: Thought you'd bring it up?

7           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I thought I'd
8           bring it up. But there are a lot of people
9           that work for me but, I mean, if you don't
10          think that's good enough.

11          BY THE COURT: Well, as I say, I feel like
12          it's going to be a hardship for your bosses
13          probably but -- you know, a company you work
14          for, but it's got to be a personal hardship
15          for the individual and not the place where 16          you work and that's, you know, the difference
17          here. And as I say, they've had a number of 18          weeks to prepare for you to be gone. Yes,
19          sir. I see another.

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm John Newman. We
21          do landscaping, and I'm the only machine
22          operator he got.

23          BY THE COURT: Well, is it your business
24          or somebody else's?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's somebody else's.

26          BY THE COURT: Well, again, if it's a
27          hardship to them, they're just going to have
28          to make do without you.

29          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I'm related to the

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 Flowers -- Curtis.

2 BY THE COURT: Now, how are you related to
3 him?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: On his daddy's side.

5 BY THE COURT: If you'll stick around a
6 little while longer, we might can take
7 another matter up with you a little bit later
8 when we address it. What is your name?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: John Newman.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay. Yes, ma'am.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Lawanda
12 Duren, and I don't think that I would be 13 actually physically -- mentally and 14 physically able to serve on the jury. I have 15 a sick daughter that's going through a lot of 16 stuff right now, anxiety and depression and 17 stuff, and she's on medication and she is 18 sick.

19 BY THE COURT: And are you saying -- are 20 you her primary caregiver?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I mean, I am for 22 the top priority of seeing to her, yes.

23 BY THE COURT: And how old is this child?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She is 17 years of 25 age.

26 BY THE COURT: And have you got anybody
27 else?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I am the number
29 one key for her getting her medical

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 assistance.

2 BY THE COURT: And what you're saying is
3 you've got this sick child that you would
4 provide care to and you're not able to take
5 care of her if you were up here; is that
6 right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, Your Honor.

8 BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Lawanda Denise Duren.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Duren. Well,
11 I'll let you go.

12 And now, ladies and gentlemen, if you
13 would, please stand and raise your right
14 hand --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm taking summer
16 school that I can't get out of.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. Did you say -- you
18 were saying you were in summer school?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I need them, and I
20 can't get out of these classes.

21 BY THE COURT: Are you going every day?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir. They're
23 online, and I have stuff to do every day.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I know if you were on 25 a jury you can't be using a computer. And is 26 that going to have a substantial bad adverse
27 impact on your education and on your future
28 ability to earn a living and things?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1           BY THE COURT: Okay. And what is your
2 name?

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Kacey Vanderlip.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
5 go. All right. Now, if the remainder of you
6 will stand and raise your right hand.

7                               (Oath Given)

8           BY THE COURT: Now, Ladies and gentlemen,
9 as I told you as we first began -- and you
10 can sit down for a minute -- this is a case
11 where we're actually going to start the 12 questioning process which is referred to as 13 voir dire on Monday morning. So I'm going to 14 let you go for now, and I'll ask that you be 15 back here on Monday morning.

16                           Now, if you are actually selected to 17 serve on the trial, you will be sequestered
18 for the duration of the trial. That means
19 you will kept together as a group once
20 selected and you would not be allowed to 21 return home until the trial is concluded. So
22 in order to ensure that you have adequate
23 clothing and other personal items that you
24 night need, you probably need to bring these
25 items to the courthouse with you on Monday.
26 This could save you the trouble of having to 27 have somebody like family or friends bring 28 the items to you that you might need while 29 you are serving.

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 Also, I need to advise you that you
2 are not permitted to have cellular telephones
3 or any other electronic means of
4 communication with you, so please do not pack
5 something like that with you and bring it to
6 the courthouse with you on Monday.

7 Also, from now until your jury
8 service is concluded, I'll ask that you do
9 not talk about this case with anyone. Do not 10 listen to anyone discussing the case. Do not
11 discuss it yourself with anyone. Do not
12 communicate in any manner about this case
13 with anyone.

14 Additionally, do not read any
15 newspaper articles, Internet articles or any 16 other written forms of communication about
17 this case. Do not listen to any radio,
18 telephone, Internet or other type broadcast
19 about this case. Also, you're not permitted
20 to view any scenes or locations involved in 21 the case or go out and make your own
22 investigation over the weekend.

23 Again, if you will report back Monday
24 morning at nine o'clock, and we will proceed
25 at that time.

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work at the justice
27 court here in the office in the courthouse.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. If you'll hang
29 around a minute. I've got this gentleman

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 over here, and we might can take some matters
2 up with you, too.

3 Yes.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am a sister-in-law
5 to Curtis.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. If you'll just hang
7 around, too, and we'll try to take this up.

8 Yes, sir. What's your name?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Howard Richardson.

10 BY THE COURT: I didn't hear what you
11 said.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Howard Richardson.
13 I'm kin to him.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, if you'll have 15 a seat for a few minutes. And the remainder
16 of you can go, but so, if you four will come
17 forward.

18 (PROSPECTIVE JURORS LEAVES THE
19 COURTROOM)

20 (ALL COUNSEL APPROACH THE BENCH FOR A
21 CONFERENCE HELD OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE 22 REST OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS:)

23 BY THE COURT: It looks like we got maybe
24 four people that have got situations where I
25 suspect will eventually they would be excused 26 for cause. I don't know if y'all want me to 27 take these up and save them from having --
28 because one of them said she was a
29 sister-in-law of Mr. Flowers, and I think he

JURY QUALIFICATIONS

1 said -- two other relatives out there, and
2 this is the justice court clerk, and I don't
3 know if y'all want me to take them up today
4 and go ahead and let them go if they say that
5 would affect them from being a fair and
6 impartial juror or if you want me to wait til
7 Monday.

8 BY MR. EVANS: The Court could do it today
9 as far as a we're concerned --

10 BY MR. CARTER: We don't have any
11 objection.

12 BY MR. EVANS: -- if they say it would
13 affect them.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll just when 15 everybody clears out, I'll just take those 16 matters up. And they may say it would not
17 affect them. If they are saying that it
18 would be something where they couldn't be 19 fair and impartial, then I will go ahead and 20 excuse them. I'll just wait til everybody
21 clears out before I take those.

22 (BENCH CONFERENCE CONCLUDED)

23 (A PROSPECTIVE JUROR APPROACHES THE 24 BENCH)

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a guilty plea
27 that was nonadjudicated.

28 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, you don't have 29 a conviction right now then.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

2 BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Christi Bartlett.

4 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, then you're
5 not a convicted felon.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just wanted to make 7 sure.

8 BY THE COURT: Well, I appreciate you
9 mentioning that.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Is that -- so I need
11 to be back?

12 BY THE COURT: Counsel, if you'll approach
13 again on some other issue.

14 (COUNSEL APPROACH BENCH FOR A
15 CONFERENCE HELD OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE
16 AUDIENCE IN THE COURTROOM)

17 BY THE COURT: Yeah. I just had a lady,
18 Christi Bartlett, came up and she advised --
19 of course, now she does not -- she does not 20 have a conviction. She pled guilty to some 21 crime somewhere but was nonadjudicated. So,
22 you know, if they're nonadjudicated, that
23 means you're not a felon. I mean, she could
24 be if the plea was accepted at some later
25 point. But at this point, she's qualified
26 still as far as -- as far as the law goes,
27 because it's only if you've been convicted a
28 felon. And a nonadjudication is not
29 conviction. But I wanted to still make clear

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 that that was on the record.

2 BY MRS. STEINER: That's juror Christy
3 Bartlett.

4 BY THE COURT: And apparently the bailiff
5 advised I've got a few people -- I don't know
6 what their situation is, that want -- that
7 are eventually going to want to come up and
8 say stuff, but they're going to be saying
9 whatever they say on the record.

10 BY MRS. STEINER: Do you want to do that 11 at the bench since we're going to have 12 several people hanging around?

13 BY THE COURT: I think what I'll do is
14 just have everybody step out that wants --
15 that feels like they need to bring something
16 to my attention because it's so much easier.
17 It gets crammed up here when everybody else
18 gets close and it's probably more convenient
19 for the court reporter. So I'll just have 20 everybody step out that felt like they needed
21 to bring something up.

22 BY MRS. STEINER: And what about the other
23 venire members?

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll just take them
25 up -- have them step out and call them in 26 individually.

27 (BENCH CONFERENCE CONCLUDED)

28 BY THE COURT: I know that we had four 29 people that I asked to hang around and then

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1       apparently there's a few others that the
2       clerk and the bailiffs notified me that maybe
3       needs to say something to me. So if all of 4       you will step out of the courtroom and I'll
5       have the bailiffs bring each of you in
6       individually, and we'll take up any matters
7       that you might have.

8               Those first four, if you'll bring
9       each one of them in individually.

10              (JUROR HOWARD RICHARDSON ENTERS THE
11       COURTROOM)

12       BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. If you'll come
13       on forward. You can just come on up here to 14       the bench. And what is your name?

15       PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Howard Richardson, Jr.

16       BY THE COURT: And, Mr. Richardson, you
17       indicated there was some --

18       PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Kinfolk.

19       BY THE COURT: Okay. And how are you
20       related to Mr. Flowers?

21       PROSPECTIVE JUROR: His grandmother and my
22       grandmother are two sisters.

23       BY THE COURT: So you're third cousins?

24       PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

25       BY THE COURT: Well, now, are you in a
26       situation where you feel like because of your 27       kinship you could not be a fair and impartial
28       juror?

29       PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           BY THE COURT: So you would not be able to
2 sit in judgment on him because you are a
3 relative of his; is that correct?

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

5           BY THE COURT: And so family pressures and 6 family ties and all of that would just keep
7 you from being able to serve?

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, we were close.

9           BY THE COURT: And y'all were close to 10 each other?

11          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

12          BY THE COURT: Well, I guess still are but
13 he has been locked up for a while. But you
14 were close and had a really close
15 relationship with him; is that correct?

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

17          BY THE COURT: Well, I'm going to go ahead
18 and let you go and I will not require you to 19 be back Monday. What's your name again,
20 first name?

21          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Howard.

22          BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Richardson, I
23 will let you go, and I appreciate you going
24 ahead and bringing that up and, as I say, you
25 may go.

26                       (JUROR VICKY ADAMS ENTERS THE
27 COURTROOM)

28          BY THE COURT: Who are you?

29          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm Vicky Adams. My

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 dad served as a witness on this trial, Porky
2 Collins.

3 BY THE COURT: And, of course, I assume 4 you've got a lot of facts about this case; is
5 that correct?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Of course.

7 BY THE COURT: And did you ever actually
8 listen in on any of the trials when he was 9 testifying?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

11 BY THE COURT: So you actually sat through 12 court proceedings?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

14 BY THE COURT: Would the fact that you're 15 his daughter affect you in being a fair and
16 impartial juror in this case?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

18 BY THE COURT: And so you've fixed your 19 mind up on -- you've got a fixed opinion and 20 could not be changed; is that correct?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I just -- I
22 don't feel like I have any business being
23 here.

24 BY THE COURT: So you feel like you could
25 not be a fair and impartial juror in this 26 case then?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

28 BY THE COURT: Is that correct?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY THE COURT: I'm just going to go ahead
2 and excuse you. What's your name?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Vicky Adams.

4 BY THE COURT: Vicky Adams.

5 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

6 BY MRS. STEINER: Well, I had some
7 questions that I had.

8 BY THE COURT: I mean, Counsel, if
9 somebody comes in and says they had the 10 relationship she had, you know, with her
11 father -- but if somebody comes in that you
12 think does not need to be excused for cause I
13 want you to speak up. But, I mean, I think
14 most of them will be so obvious that it's not
15 any real question about it.

16 (JUROR JOHN NEWMAN ENTERS THE
17 COURTROOM)

18 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir, and what is your
19 name?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: John Newman.

21 BY THE COURT: And, Mr. Newman, I believe
22 you were advising that you were related to
23 Mr. Flowers; is that correct?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. But I'm still 25 the only person on my job that can run the 26 machine, too.

27 BY THE COURT: How are you related to
28 Mr. Flowers?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Third cousin.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           BY THE COURT: Third cousin? And did you
2 have a pretty close relationship with him?

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Back in the day when
4 we were going around.

5           BY THE COURT: When he was out?

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The family, yeah.

7           BY THE COURT: And, now, what side of the 8 family are you?

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: His father's side.

10          BY THE COURT: His father's side? So
11 you're related -- your, I guess, grandparents
12 were probably related to each other or
13 something?

14          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Something like that.

15          BY THE COURT: Would that affect you in
16 being a fair and impartial juror?

17          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would.

18          BY THE COURT: So you feel like you could
19 not serve and sit in judgment of Mr. Flowers
20 because you are his cousin; is that correct?

21          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

22          BY THE COURT: And you feel like those
23 family ties and things would just prevent you
24 from being able to serve?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do.

26          BY THE COURT: Counsel, does either side
27 have any questions?

28          BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

29          BY THE COURT: I'll let you go then and

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 you're excused. Thank you, sir.

2 BY THE BAILIFF: Your Honor, I know you
3 had four that you told to wait around and
4 they're still waiting for some of them to
5 come in, but I've got oodles of folks out
6 there waiting, saying they want to come in.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, bring that -- I think
8 the lady was a justice court clerk, and I
9 think the --

10 BY THE BAILIFF: We want to do them that 11 you told to wait.

12 BY THE COURT: Right. And then we can
13 bring these others in.

14 BY THE BAILIFF: Okay. We're going to do
15 the ones that the judge told you to wait
16 first and then we're going to see everyone
17 else.

18 (JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS ENTERS THE
19 COURTROOM)

20 BY THE COURT: And what is your name,
21 please?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Christi Harris.

23 BY THE COURT: And you work in the justice
24 court office; is that correct?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: And you felt like you
27 needed to bring something to our attention
28 about potential --

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You know, we see

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 everybody, both sides. And they just kind of
2 come in and out. And not necessarily that
3 they talk about the case, but I just wanted
4 to make that known, that is something you
5 said that I just don't need to have any part
6 of any of the --

7 BY THE COURT: Well, has anything up to 8 this point caused you to form an opinion on 9 the facts of the case or anything?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, I would be
11 willing to stick around if I feel --

12 BY THE COURT: So you can lay aside
13 anything --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, yes, sir.

15 BY THE COURT: -- and base your decision
16 only on the evidence? So you're not, right
17 now, telling us that you would be
18 disqualified from this jury?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at this time.

20 BY THE COURT: And I guess what you're 21 saying is you could see some of the lawyers
22 coming in and out of the office and might see
23 witnesses. But can you ignore any -- well, I
24 mean, just from now til Monday, do not have 25 any discussion with anyone about the case or
26 have any contact with the -- I mean, you
27 might pass one of the lawyers out in the hall
28 or something today, but they're not going to 29 speak to you.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

2           BY THE COURT: And they're not going to be
3 intending to offend you by not doing that.
4 But I appreciate you bringing that up. If
5 you'll just come back in on Monday.

6           (JUROR HARRIS LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

7           JUROR VOTRICE FLOWERS ENTERS THE
8 COURTROOM)

9           BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. And what is 10 your name, please?

11          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Votrice Roshell Huffin
12 Flowers.

13          BY THE COURT: You're Mr. Flowers'
14 sister-in-law; is that correct?

15          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm married to his
16 brother, Archie.

17          BY THE COURT: And I would assume that 18 would affect you in being a fair and
19 impartial juror?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It wouldn't. To be 21 honest with you, it wouldn't.

22          BY THE COURT: You feel like you could sit
23 as a juror on the case and you could sentence
24 him to death if the facts justified it?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I don't believe
26 in the death penalty.

27          BY THE COURT: Well, could you --

28          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I could still sit on 29 the jury, though.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           BY THE COURT: You feel like you could
2 judge --

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I wasn't married to 4 Archie at the time.

5           BY THE COURT: How long have you been
6 married to Archie?

7           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Going on three years.

8           BY THE COURT: And I think his daddy's
9 name is Archie, too?

10          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, Archie Sr., but
11 I'm married to Archie, Jr.

12          BY THE COURT: Yeah. I just wanted to 13 make everything clear for the record, because 14 everything that's spoken in the courtroom, if 15 we don't clear things up, it might be
16 confusing later and that's why I was making
17 sure of that.

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

19          BY THE COURT: But if you were to convict
20 Mr. Flowers, would you feel like you owed
21 your husband, your daddy-in-law, your
22 relatives any explanation for the way you
23 ruled on the case?

24          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

25          BY THE COURT: So you are telling me that
26 you could be a completely fair and impartial
27 juror. Have you heard this case discussed in 28 the family?

29          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's been a while.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 I'm going to be honest with you, yes, I have,
2 but it's been a while.

3 BY THE COURT: And you're saying even
4 after all this family discussion?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, even after all
6 those family discussions.

7 BY THE COURT: Well, at this point, you
8 can report back on Monday, and we'll proceed
9 from there.

10 BY MR. EVANS: What was her name, Your
11 Honor?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Votrice Roshell
13 Huffin.

14 BY MR. EVANS: Huffin, okay. Thank you.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. You may go.

16 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

17 BY THE COURT: Now, obviously as things
18 progress, that might be one that I take up
19 for cause at some point in the future. But,
20 you know, I don't feel like I've got enough
21 right now to justify any excuse.

22 (JUROR CHARLES CURRY ENTERS THE
23 COURTROOM)

24 BY THE COURT: And what is your name and 25 what's your situation?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Charles
27 Curry, Your Honor, and my situation is I had 28 a previous incident with the Flowers case.
29 My wife was a potential lone juror that was

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 struck off the jury back on another case that
2 went before the Supreme Court, and it was
3 mentioned that she had worked with his sister
4 and her husband had disregard for the law,
5 which I feel like I could serve but because
6 of that incident -- that was Vicky Curry --
7 and because of that incident, I don't want to
8 prejudice the jury. And I want to see a fair
9 trial carried out, and I would -- so whereby
10 it won't be any bias. I just want to bring
11 it to the Court before I take up all this
12 time with this Court.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, now, have these --
14 and I'm not totally -- because I, you know,
15 some of the trials I didn't -- and this is 16 obviously one of the trials I did not
17 conduct. But you're saying that your wife
18 was a potential juror that was struck?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right, and that the 20 Supreme Court overturned --

21 BY THE COURT: Right.

22 PROSPECTIVE JURORS: -- and why he was
23 granted a new trial.

24 BY THE COURT: Because her or somebody
25 else should not have been struck from the 26 jury?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. Vicky Curry,
28 she was that sole potential juror. Right.

29 BY THE COURT: And there were things that

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 were said about you during the --

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. It was some of
3 why she was struck was that it was stated by
4 the defense that her husband had disregard
5 for law, which is not -- I don't feel it's
6 true. But since the incident did occur, then
7 I'd rather not prejudice the jury.

8 BY THE COURT: Well, has anything that --
9 have those things caused you to reach a
10 conclusion in your mind that you just could
11 not be a fair juror in the case?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

13 BY THE COURT: I mean, can you lay that 14 aside and just listen to the evidence if
15 you're selected and base your decision only
16 on the evidence in court or would you hold
17 that against someone and feel like you just 18 could not be fair because of that?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, Your Honor, I
20 feel like really -- it's kind of hard to 21 explain. I just feel that with me not being 22 there, it would be better for the State and
23 better for Curtis Flowers to get a fair
24 trial.

25 BY THE COURT: So you're feeling like
26 you've got some problems that would affect 27 you in being fair?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because of this
29 situation with me, I just -- because of the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 way the situation went that she was struck
2 and it was overturned like that, I'm just
3 kind of having a little doubt about how the 4 justice is being put out as is it all across
5 the board and --

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Does either State or 7 Defense counsel want to ask a question?

8 BY MR. CARTER: Yes, I have a question. I
9 get the impression you're saying you have 10 some question about whether justice that have 11 already been meted out was done fairly.
12 However, you know, with a trial, people take
13 the witness stand and you make the decision
14 as to guilt or innocence or life or death
15 based on the witnesses that take the witness
16 stand. Can you put aside whatever misgivings
17 you may have about the defense or about the 18 prosecution and make a decision as to 19 Mr. Flowers' guilt or innocence based totally 20 on what you hear witnesses say in the
21 courtroom?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I feel -- I feel that
23 I can do that, but -- I feel like I can do
24 that without any prejudice but the only thing
25 about it, since I was -- since it happened
26 like that, then I'd rather -- you know, if
27 I'm going to really have a chance to be a
28 potential juror, I'd rather not come back for 29 the next three days and then find out this is

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 Curry -- this is Vicky Curry's husband that
2 we had the problem with that the statement
3 was made by him by part of the defense lawyer
4 team, prosecutor's lawyer team, then I don't
5 want to sit here three days and then not get
6 a chance to serve. That's my feeling on
7 that.

8 BY THE COURT: Well, Mr. Curry, there will 9 be a num- -- there will be lot of people that
10 will be up here for, you know, several days
11 that won't end up serving because your 12 name -- I don't know where it will fall on 13 the jury list and sometimes people -- just 14 because they're far down on the list, they
15 don't end up serving. And it's nothing that 16 they've done that caused them not to serve.
17 It was just strictly because of where they
18 happened to fall on the jury list.

19 So you might be up here for a couple
20 of days and not serve, but it won't be 21 because of anything you did or said that was 22 wrong. So, I mean, I want you to understand
23 that that -- you know, you may not end up
24 being selected but it might be for any number
25 of reasons including, as I say, where your 26 name happened to fall on the jury list at so,
27 you know.

28 So I guess I'm trying to make a point
29 that nobody right now is looking and saying,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 Well, we're not going to have Mr. Curry on
2 that jury. You know, nobody is looking at
3 you that way today. They're -- you know,
4 right now you're going to strictly, you know,
5 we're going to -- you know, when we start
6 asking questions on Monday morning, they're
7 going to be a bunch of questions from both
8 sides and from the Court, because what we do
9 want ultimately is 12 people who can sit over
10 in that jury box and be fair to both
11 Mr. Flowers and the State of Mississippi, and 12 we want them to not come in with any ideas
13 about the case ahead of time or anything like
14 that. And so, you know, with that in mind,
15 do you feel like you could sit up here and be
16 a fair juror if you were selected?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I do.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I appreciate
19 you bringing these things to the Court's
20 attention, and if you'll be back here Monday
21 morning. Thank you, sir.

22 BY THE BAILIFF: Your Honor, the rest of 23 the ones out there -- there's a good many 24 more out there that raised their hand that 25 want to come in.

26 BY THE COURT: Well, I guess we can bring 27 them in.

28 (JUROR JAMES DANIELS ENTERS THE
29 COURTROOM)

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY THE COURT: And what is your name, sir?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: James Daniels.

3 BY THE COURT: Mr. Daniels, you indicated
4 that you may had something you needed to
5 bring up about your jury service?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

7 BY THE COURT: And what is that?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, at the time in 9 '96, the Flowers and they was employed at the 10 same company with me.

11 BY THE COURT: So you worked with the same
12 company as somebody in Mr. Flowers' family?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Brother and sister.

14 BY THE COURT: And where did y'all work
15 together?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: At Anel Corporation.

17 BY THE COURT: And what was --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mr. Golden used to 19 work there.

20 BY THE COURT: One of the victims of the 21 shootings, Robert Golden worked at Anel with 22 you at some point?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. Couple of 24 years prior. And now me and Mr. Golden's
25 brother, we are --

26 BY THE COURT: What is Mr. Golden's
27 brother's name?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Willie Golden.

29 BY THE COURT: Willie Golden?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. We in the same
2 hunting club.

3           BY THE COURT: So y'all are in the same
4 hunting club?

5           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

6           BY THE COURT: So you know basically some 7 of the victim's family and then you knew some
8 of Mr. Flowers' family?

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

10          BY THE COURT: So you know people on both
11 sides of this issue?

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

13          BY THE COURT: Now, is that going to in 14 any way affect you in being a fair and
15 impartial juror in this case?

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, you know, on 17 both sides, we're still pretty close, still
18 pretty close on both sides, the family.

19          BY THE COURT: Well, I understand, but can 20 you lay aside these factors and if you were
21 selected and sitting over there in that jury
22 box, could you lay those factors aside and be
23 a fair juror to both sides or would you
24 somehow have some influence, something that
25 would influence you where you feel like you
26 could not serve?

27          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, you know,
28 that -- that's the reason I'm saying that it
29 might influence me on both sides the other

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 way because of that.

2 BY THE COURT: But would you listen to the 3 facts of the case?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To the facts.

5 BY THE COURT: And base your decisions
6 strictly on the facts as they're brought to
7 you in this court and not on anything outside
8 the court?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, you know, being
10 that close to them, I could listen at both 11 sides, you know, information on both sides of 12 the case. And I think it would --

13 BY THE COURT: So you feel like you could
14 not be fair and impartial --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

16 BY THE COURT: -- because of something
17 that either the Goldens or the Flowers have 18 told you at some point; is that what you're 19 telling me?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

21 BY THE COURT: So you feel like you could
22 not lay those facts aside that you've heard
23 in the past --

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

25 BY THE COURT: -- and base your decision
26 on the evidence here in court?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

28 BY THE COURT: Counsel, do you have any
29 questions?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY MR. EVANS: No.

2 BY MR. CARTER: I have some. You're
3 saying that you're close to the Goldens,
4 especially one of the brothers and you know
5 several of the Flowers?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

7 BY MR. CARTER: Are you also saying you're
8 close to them?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, I am.

10 BY MR. CARTER: And would you say that the 11 feelings that you have for the Goldens and
12 Flowers, is it equal, kind of equal or do you
13 like -- is one side -- closer to one side
14 than to the other?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, about the same.

16 BY MR. CARTER: About the same?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mr. Golden, his
18 brother, we were classmates. And his other
19 brother, you know, same hunting club. We 20 hunt together and -- but, at the time of the 21 incident, his sister and his brother, we were 22 employed at the same company, and we are
23 still pretty close every time we see each
24 other.

25 BY MR. CARTER: Have you formed an opinion
26 as to Mr. Flower's guilt or innocence?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I try to, you
28 know, leave that aside, make it --

29 BY MR. CARTER: You can just say yes or

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 no. You have or you haven't formed an
2 opinion as to his guilt or innocence, if you
3 know, if you can say?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I have.

5 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. And as a result of 6 having already formed that opinion, you don't
7 feel that you could be equally fair to both
8 sides; is that what you're saying?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, what I'm saying
10 is I just, you know, don't want to have to 11 come to that decision, make that choice.

12 BY MR. CARTER: So you're saying you're
13 uncomfortable?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

15 BY MR. CARTER: And we can certainly 16 understand that. And the fact that you're 17 uncomfortable, you're worried that it might 18 lead you to pick one side over the other?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I'm not worried.
20 I'm just uncomfortable, just, you know,
21 making a decision like that based on it.

22 BY MR. CARTER: No further questions.

23 BY THE COURT: If you'll step in there
24 just for a second.

25 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

26 BY THE COURT: I really don't have any --
27 I'll hear from you, and obviously this is 28 getting in -- you know, my intent was to have 29 people that had issues concerning their

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 qualifications. And, in fact, it's turned
2 more into something else than I intended.
3 And after this gentleman -- we can make a
4 decision on him -- I'm going to bring
5 everybody else in here and advise that only
6 if they have got issues as it pertains to
7 their qualifications to serve.

8           You know, I did feel like a couple of 9 people, you know, like his sister -- however,
10 his sister-in-law said she could be fair.
11 But I don't -- you know, this is almost 12 turning into a mini voir dire, which is not 13 what I intended. I thought it was just 14 issues strictly pertaining to people who had,
15 you know, hardships or something that they
16 had not spoken up about. But I have -- I'm 17 open to ideas on Mr. Daniels.

18           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he's clearly
19 said he's formed an opinion and because of 20 his relationships to both sides couldn't be 21 fair and impartial, so I don't think there's 22 any way he could serve and be fair to either
23 side. And, you know, of course, we don't 24 know which side he's favoring as far as 25 having an opinion, but I think just from what
26 he said, he can't serve.

27           BY MR. CARTER: And we take the position,
28 Your Honor, that he equivocated -- that he 29 said some things that cast doubt about that

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 and that he probably should be voir dired
2 more extensively to determine whether he can,
3 in fact, sit and be fair to both sides. The 4 fact that he feels a pull, an equal pull from 5 both sides, in my view, leaves him still in
6 the ballpark. I am nervous that I don't know
7 what that opinion is, I have to admit that,
8 what opinion he's formed.

9 BY THE COURT: Well, I think at this
10 point, I can let him come back. It appears
11 to me that ultimately he's going to end up
12 being excused for cause, because he seemed 13 pretty fixed in his ideas. But, you know, I
14 will not cut off the possibility of him
15 rehabilitating himself or being rehabilitated
16 in voir dire, so I will allow him to come
17 back. But, again, you know, it kind of leads 18 me pretty much to the conclusion that he will 19 eventually be excused for cause unless his 20 opinions change.

21 (To the bailiff) If you'll just tell
22 him to be back Monday. If you'll bring
23 everybody else in here, I just need to tell
24 them as a group.

25 (PROSPECTIVE JURORS ENTER THE
26 COURTROOM)

27 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I
28 wanted to explain, I only want to take up
29 issues with you that would pertain to your

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 qualifications or potential exemptions. If
2 there's some other thing, I can take that up
3 on Monday, but I only want to know if you've 4 got some kind of hardship about being able to 5 serve or if there's something concerning your 6 qualifications that you did not speak up and
7 felt like you needed to speak up to now but
8 had not done so earlier.

9 So those are the only issues right
10 now that I'm prepared to take up with you is 11 something that pertains to your actual legal
12 qualifications to serve or any potential
13 exemption you might have to jury service.

14 So do any of you have anything that 15 pertains to that issue, your legal
16 qualifications to serve or some exemption
17 that might apply to you? Do any of you have 18 any? Okay. So you three are the only
19 ones -- or you four -- concerning potential
20 exemptions or your qualifications to serve;
21 is that correct?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Would that apply to 23 me, law enforcement officers?

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I can take you up,
25 too. And then if those of you that it does
26 not apply strictly to your qualifications or 27 to some exemption, then you may go now and be 28 back here on Monday. You know, only those,
29 as I say, that need to stick around that deal

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 strictly with qualifications or a possible
2 exemption need to stay. If it's anything
3 else, then that needs to be taken up Monday
4 or later in the trial. So I think, as I say,
5 I had four of you. Okay. If y'all want to 6 stay around, then the rest of you, you can
7 make your way on and be back on Monday.

8 And if the remainder of you will just
9 step out the door here, and I'll have the 10 bailiffs call you back in. Okay. You can --
11 just whoever wants.

12 (JUROR MOSES NEWMAN ENTERS THE
13 COURTROOM)

14 BY THE COURT: What's your name, please?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Moses Newman.

16 BY THE COURT: And have you got something
17 about the qualifications or exemptions or 18 something that --

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm the only one works
20 in the household, and I have two boys.

21 BY THE COURT: You're the only one
22 working?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 BY THE COURT: And would that create a
25 substantial and adverse impact on you?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

27 BY THE COURT: And where you work, if you
28 were on jury service, would you get paid by 29 your employer?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They would.

2 BY THE COURT: So your employer would pay
3 you right along even if you were up here?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Only so much.

5 BY THE COURT: Where do you work?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: ADF corporation.

7 BY THE COURT: And --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, I'm set up
9 on -- like I have a couple of loans out, and
10 I can't miss any payments on those so it
11 would really mess it up for me, create a real 12 strain.

13 BY THE COURT: I want you to go call where 14 you work because some employers if you've got
15 an employer -- some companies will pay --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Like I said, the 17 corporation will pay, you know, the 18 difference, but I have bills that are due.
19 Like I have three paid loans that I took out.

20 BY THE COURT: Yeah, but what I'm getting
21 at is if they go ahead and pay your salary
22 just the same as you were at work, then that
23 would not create any hardship.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But I don't get that 25 check right away. These loans are going to 26 be due that day, especially the three payday
27 loans that I have out. I also have a auto
28 loan out and not to mention electric bills
29 and the other bills will be coming in. It's

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 not going to be enough to cover it if I'm
2 missing days here. And I've got -- because
3 they're going to want their money right then.
4 They're not going to wait.

5 BY THE COURT: But what you're saying that
6 where you work does not pay right --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would have to wait
8 maybe seven working days, maybe more or 9 longer.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, how long do you have 11 to work if you get a regular weekly paycheck?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My regular paycheck
13 will be falling this Friday on the 11th.
14 That's when the bills are due. I have 15 already set up payments for me to pay those 16 bills on the 11th. I got to pay them.

17 BY THE COURT: And so you're saying that 18 this would create a substantial adverse
19 impact on you paying the bills?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, it would.

21 BY THE COURT: I'll excuse you,
22 Mr. Newman. Thank you, sir. You do not have
23 to come back on Monday.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

25 (JUROR BONITA SEAWOOD ENTERS THE
26 COURTROOM)

27 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, you can come on 28 up here. And what is your name?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Bonita

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 Seawood.

2 BY THE COURT: And, yes, ma'am, is this
3 concerning your qualifi- --

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. Well, I
5 just thought about it, you know, I served
6 last year in October and over in this year.

7 BY THE COURT: So you've served as a
8 juror --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: -- last year?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And then this year.

12 BY THE COURT: Let me ask the clerk.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: March of 2010.

14 BY THE COURT: And you want to claim that
15 exemption --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: -- and be excused because 18 of prior jury service? Okay. Well, I'll let 19 you go then.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

21 (JUROR PAMELA PHILLIPS ENTERS THE
22 COURTROOM)

23 BY THE COURT: And what is your name,
24 please?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Pamela Phillips.

26 BY THE COURT: Ms. Phillips, and you've 27 got something concerning your qualifications
28 or potential exemption?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY THE COURT: What is your situation?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would be a
3 financial hardship for me to take off.

4 BY THE COURT: Now, what type of
5 situation? You've got to explain a little
6 more.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a nurse, and I'm
8 the only income in my home.

9 BY THE COURT: And where are you employed?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Winona Manor.

11 BY THE COURT: And does Winona Manor have 12 any policy where you're on jury service they 13 will pay your salary?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, they do.

15 BY THE COURT: So they would pay your
16 salary to you even if you were up here?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, they would.

18 BY THE COURT: So how is that going to be 19 a financial hardship if you will keep getting 20 your money?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, actually, when I
22 bring the check from here to there, I don't
23 know how long they will take to turn it in.
24 But if I don't get it in before my pay period
25 ends, then I just don't get paid. And if
26 they get it in like a month later, then I
27 just miss a day of work.

28 BY THE COURT: So what you're saying is if 29 you were up here serving and it might take a

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 few weeks to get your check from the county?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. Then I don't
3 get paid.

4 BY THE COURT: Then you would not get this
5 pay --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly.

7 BY THE COURT: -- for jury service until 8 some time --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Until that check gets
10 to Winona.

11 BY THE COURT: -- some weeks later?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly, and that
13 would be a hardship for me.

14 BY THE COURT: Would that affect you in
15 paying your daily necessary living
16 expenses --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, it would.

18 BY THE COURT: -- for those or somebody
19 you provide support to?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

21 BY THE COURT: I'll let you go then.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

23 BY MR. CARTER: I have a question, Your 24 Honor. I'm trying to understand. Not
25 necessarily objecting, but you're saying if
26 you come up here and you serve on this
27 jury --

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

29 BY MR. CARTER: -- you still get paid,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 right, by Winona Manor?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not until I get
3 the check from the Court.

4 BY THE COURT: So what you're saying, you
5 would have to turn the check from the court
6 in to them --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly.

8 BY THE COURT: -- and then they would
9 write you a check for the amount of money
10 that you would have made while you were up
11 here?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly.

13 BY THE COURT: But it could be a several 14 week lag?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly.

16 BY MR. CARTER: And not having that check
17 for a week or two would be --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That would cut off my 19 utilities, and I would lose my home possibly.

21 go.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

23 (JUROR MELINDA KIRKWOOD ENTERS THE
24 COURTROOM)

25 BY THE COURT: What is your name, please?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Melinda Kirkwood.

27 BY THE COURT: And do you have something
28 concerning your qualifications or potential
29 exemption?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. This is my
2           first time so I really didn't know, but I'm
3           in the middle of an application process with
4           a company in Memphis, and you said something
5           about not having a cell phone. Well, that's 6           the number they've got for me. That's the 7           only kind of contact I have. I haven't
8           worked in four years, and I'm trying to get a
9           job.

10          BY THE COURT: Well, Ms. Kirkwood, if you
11          would just -- can you just call that company
12          today?

13          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't have the --
14          the first interview was with their 15          headquarters in Maryland, and they sent my 16          paperwork to Memphis, so I don't know who to 17          contact.

18          BY THE COURT: Well, do you have the 19          contact number to the people in Maryland?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

21          BY THE COURT: Well, what I need you to do
22          then is just call them and tell them that you
23          might be on jury service. And if you were,
24          that you might not be available for telephone
25          contact, you know, for a few days and then
26          also give them a number of somebody that they
27          could call on your behalf. Like, you know,
28          if you've got any friend or relative or 29          anybody that they could call them instead of

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 you, and I think that would resolve the
2 situation.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. What about the
4 situation that I'm real close with Curtis?

5 BY THE COURT: We'll take those issues up
6 on --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Monday?

8 BY THE COURT: Right.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right.

10 CIRCUIT CLERK: What is your name?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Melinda Kirkwood.

12 (JUROR ARTHUR KNIGHT ENTERS THE
13 COURTROOM)

14 BY THE COURT: What is your name, please?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Arthur Knight.

16 BY THE COURT: And do you have any issues
17 that would concern your qualifications or 18 being exempt or anything like that?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, the only problem
20 I got is I'm married to his cousin and one of 21 the victims was my cousin.

22 BY THE COURT: Well, what I will ask you
23 to do is just -- we're going to go into
24 detail Monday on those type issues.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right.

26 BY THE COURT: So if you'll just be back
27 Monday, and we'll go in detail about those
28 particular issues on Monday. But I
29 appreciate you sticking around today, though,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 and bringing that to my attention.

2 (JUROR TOMMY BIBBS ENTERS THE
3 COURTROOM)

4 BY THE COURT: What is your name, please?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Tommy Bibbs. I helped
6 the officers on the investigation.

7 BY THE COURT: So you have been involved
8 with the investigators and looked into these 9 matters and feel like you -- I assume you're 10 of the opinion you could not be a fair and
11 impartial juror?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: And would have to go
14 against a potential -- whether it's your
15 chief and a bunch of others if you sat up
16 here and you voted to acquit Mr. Flowers, you
17 would be basically rejecting their
18 investigation, I guess?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: So you're saying you just
21 could not be a fair and impartial juror?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: Does either counsel have
24 any questions?

25 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: I will excuse you,
27 Mr. Bibbs, and I appreciate you going ahead
28 and bringing that up today.

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

(JUROR GLENN TROTTER ENTERS THE

COURTROOM)

BY THE COURT: What is your name, please?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Glenn Trotter.

BY THE COURT: And what is your situation?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I intend to --

BY THE COURT: The reporter is over here, so she needs to see what you're saying and counsel can all see what you're saying.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

BY THE COURT: Now, what is your situation? Does it involve your qualifications or possible exemptions?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

BY MR. HOWIE: And what is that situation?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. I was questioned on the last time.

BY THE COURT: On the last --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Last one.

BY THE COURT: -- jury panel?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

BY THE COURT: Was that the one in --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In April, I think it was.

BY THE COURT: You're talking about this past court term?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

BY THE COURT: And were you a juror at

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 that court term? Go ahead and just tell me.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just I was just
3 questioned, but I wasn't a juror at that
4 particular time.

5 BY THE COURT: So you did not actually
6 serve on a jury or on the grand jury?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

8 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. Is there anything
9 else?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Also, I work with his
11 sister.

12 BY MR. CARTER: You work with Mr. Flowers'
13 sister?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

15 BY THE COURT: If it's just strictly some 16 kind of situation where you know a family
17 person or something, we're going to just take 18 those matters up Monday. So what I want to 19 do today was strictly if there was some 20 reason why you were not legally qualified to 21 serve or if you had some exemption that you
22 had meant to bring up and thought about it
23 and wanted to.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: But if it's any other
26 issues, then I'm going to take those up on 27 Monday. So do you have any other issues?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Trotter, we'll

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 see you Monday.

2 (JUROR PATRICIA JEFFCOAT ENTERS THE
3 COURTROOM)

4 BY THE COURT: If you'll kind of stand
5 over by there so they can see you and I can
6 see you. What's your name?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Patricia Jeffcoat. My
8 child is doing summer school, doing it Monday
9 and Thursday. It's in the morning. That's 10 not a problem. But if I have to go and be -- 11 stay gone, my husband works daytime but 12 sometimes it's 8:00 or 9:00 o'clock before he 13 gets home.

14 BY THE COURT: Why don't you try this 15 weekend to work out some arrangements with 16 your husband where he could possibly get off
17 a little earlier?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's the only one
19 working. I've been laid off, and I don't 20 have a job.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, maybe, you know, I
22 can take this up on Monday, maybe. But I
23 want you first to try to see if he could, you
24 know, to be -- well, what time does your kid
25 get out of summer school?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 11:30.

27 BY THE COURT: What age is this child?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Seven.

29 BY THE COURT: Do you have any relatives,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 friends, or family that could --

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not here. There's a
3 day care that could, but they close at 5:30.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, why don't you try to 5 work with your husband and see if he can be
6 available around 5:30 for the next few days
7 to take up that child care, and I'll take the 8 issue up back on Monday. But try to work to 9 see if that can be done.

10 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM. JUROR
11 OLIVER FLOWERS ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

12 BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oliver Flowers.

14 BY THE COURT: And what is your situation?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm related to the 16 Defendant.

17 BY THE COURT: And how is that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'm a cousin.

19 BY THE COURT: What, you know, first or 20 second, third? Do you know?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'm probably
22 third cousin to his father.

23 BY THE COURT: And is there anything about
24 that that would influence you or be a factor
25 of you being a fair juror in this case?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it would
27 influence my decision.

28 BY THE COURT: So you feel like you could
29 not be a fair and impartial juror and --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

2           BY THE COURT: -- you would tend to --
3 well, I'm assuming you would probably tend to
4 favor the side of your relatives?

5           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've known his father
6 all my life.

7           BY THE COURT: And you feel like if you
8 voted to convict Mr. Flowers, you would feel
9 ill at ease being around Mr. Archie, Sr.?

10          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would.

11          BY THE COURT: You would feel like because 12 of that, you just could not be fair; is that
13 correct?

14          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

15          BY THE COURT: Do y'all want to question?

16          BY MR. CARTER: I have one question.
17 Mr. Flowers, have you formed an opinion as to 18 guilty or not guilty?

19          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've not really formed
20 an opinion.

21          BY MR. CARTER: Okay.

22          BY THE COURT: If you'll step in there
23 just a second and I'll allow you -- I'll 24 confer with counsel.

25                   (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

26          BY THE COURT: It seems to me he said
27 clearly he can't be fair and impartial. I
28 can excuse him now or let him come back
29 Monday. But I don't think ultimately that

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 he's going to serve.

2 BY MR. CARTER: I probably agree with you,
3 Your Honor.

4 BY MR. HILL: We move to excuse him now.

5 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll just go ahead
6 and excuse him now. If you'll bring him back
7 in.

8 (JUROR FLOWERS ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

9 BY THE COURT: Mr. Flowers, I'm going to 10 go ahead and excuse you. I appreciate you
11 being here, and you don't have to come back.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

13 (JUROR ROBERT BUTTS ENTERS THE
14 COURTROOM)

15 BY THE COURT: If you'll just come on up
16 here. And if you'll just kind of stand maybe
17 where everybody can see. And what is your
18 name?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Butts, Robert Butts.

20 BY THE COURT: And, Mr. Butts, do you have 21 something about your qualifications or
22 potential exemptions you need to bring up?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: And what is that?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: His mother -- I was 26 practically raised with his mother and his
27 father. And from day one, I never believed 28 he was a capable of doing all that, because I
29 watched him grow up, too.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           BY THE COURT: Well, could you sit as a
2           juror up here and listen to the facts and
3           base your decision on the facts of the case?
4           Or are you saying that you just could not be
5           fair and impartial to both sides because you,
6           I guess, were pretty much raised along with
7           his family? Are y'all related in any way or 8           just real close as far as --

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, his mother and I
10          were practically raised together, although
11          she was about two to three years older than I
12          am. Went to same high school. And his 13          father, I been knowing his father for about 14          40 years, and we had a -- not a personal
15          relationship, but we were well acquainted
16          with one another. And from the beginning,
17          from the beginning I never thought he was 18          capable of doing that. I just didn't believe
19          it.

20          BY THE COURT: Well, have you ever
21          discussed the facts of the case with anybody?

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really, no more
23          than hearing conversations and just the 24          media. But as far as my personal concern, I
25          don't believe -- I don't believe he could.

26          BY THE COURT: But if you sat as a juror
27          and heard the evidence, could the evidence --
28          I mean, if you sat and listened to the 29          evidence in the case and you -- based on the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 evidence, you then reached a conclusion that
2 he did do it, could you vote to find him
3 guilty at that point? Or are you in a
4 situation you just feel like you could not
5 vote guilty even if you sat here and heard
6 the evidence and believed him to be guilty?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so.

8 BY THE COURT: So you're just --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's what I'm
10 saying.

11 BY THE COURT: So you're saying you could
12 not vote him guilty under any circumstance?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's what I'm
14 saying.

15 BY THE COURT: Even if the proof justified
16 that verdict, you could not vote that way
17 because of ties with his family?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I believe myself
19 also that he wasn't capable of doing it, and 20 that's the reason I say I don't believe I can 21 give you a fair verdict as -- because of my
22 belief. I don't believe it. Like I said, I
23 watched him grow up, and I don't believe he 24 was capable of doing it. I don't think I
25 could be partial or fair either way.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. Does either side
27 want to --

28 BY MR. CARTER: I have a question, and 29 it's pretty much the question the judge

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 asked, but I'm not sure if he understand it.
2 So if you got selected as a juror and you
3 heard the facts of the case, and if the facts
4 convinced you that he was guilty would you be
5 able to vote guilty?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, let me put it
7 like this: I have pretty much already made
8 up my mind, like I said, that I didn't think
9 he was capable of doing it.

10 BY MR. CARTER: Okay.

11 BY THE COURT: So you could not vote
12 guilty?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

14 BY THE COURT: Okay. If you'll step out
15 just a second.

16 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

17 BY MR. CARTER: We don't have any
18 objection.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll go ahead and 20 excuse him.

21 (JUROR BUTTS ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

22 BY THE COURT: Mr. Butts, I'm going to go
23 ahead and excuse you. I appreciate you being
24 here today, and you do not have to come back
25 on Monday.

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I was just
27 trying to be fair.

28 BY THE COURT: And I do appreciate that,
29 Mr. Butts. I very, very much thank you.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 I think we've got one more.

2 (JUROR MICHAEL FORREST ENTERS THE
3 COURTROOM)

4 BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Michael Forrest.

6 BY THE COURT: And you have something
7 concerning your qualifications or potential
8 exemptions?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's my cousin.

10 BY THE COURT: Mr. Flowers is your cousin?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: And what, first, second,
13 third? Do you have any idea?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's my second.

15 BY THE COURT: Second cousin? And is that 16 on your mama's or daddy's side?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My daddy's.

18 BY THE COURT: Your daddy's? Your dad is 19 kin to his mother or father?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My dad is kin to his 21 father.

22 BY THE COURT: And do y'all have close
23 family ties with each other?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: And has these family ties
26 caused you to form an opinion about his guilt
27 or innocence?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

29 BY THE COURT: Well, could you be a fair

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 juror in spite of the fact that you're
2 related to him?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: So that would not influence
5 you? The fact that you're a relative would 6 not influence you on being a fair juror; is
7 that correct?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I don't want to 9 be no judge.

10 BY THE COURT: But could you lay aside any 11 family ties or any connections you had with 12 the family and base your decision on the 13 evidence and that alone?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 BY THE COURT: So you could do that?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, no.

17 BY THE COURT: So you could not do that?
18 So these family relationships would override
19 anything that might be said in the courtroom,
20 and you're saying you could not be fair to 21 both sides in this case?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

23 BY THE COURT: Do either of you want to 24 question him any further?

25 BY MR. EVANS: I think that's enough, Your
26 Honor.

27 BY MR. CARTER: You don't have any
28 questions, Alison?

29 BY MRS. STEINER: (Shaking head).

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY THE COURT: If you'll step in here.

2 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

3 BY THE COURT: He seems pretty equivocal
4 in his statements to the Court. Do either of 5 you object to him being excused for cause?

6 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

7 BY MR. CARTER: No, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. You can bring him
9 in.

10 (JUROR FORREST ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

11 BY THE COURT: Mr. Forrest, I'm going to 12 go ahead and excuse you, and you will not be 13 required to be back here on Monday.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

15 BY THE COURT: That will be all. And I
16 guess we'll recess now until the next group
17 is brought in at one o'clock.

18 (FOLLOWING THE NOON RECESS, PROCEEDINGS
19 CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT OUTSIDE THE
20 HEARING AND PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE
21 JURORS, TO-WIT:)

22 BY THE COURT: Okay. I've got, I don't 23 know, at least one motion to take up but 24 there may be others. But I'll take up the 25 motion to quash a subpoena that was filed on 26 June 2nd. And as the State of Mississippi
27 filed it, are you ready to proceed?

28 BY MR. WHITFIELD: Yes, Your Honor.

29 BY THE COURT: Is the Defense ready to

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 hear this motion?

2 BY MR. CARTER: Yes, sir, we're ready.

3 BY THE COURT: You can proceed.

4 BY MR. WHITFIELD: Yes, Your Honor. On
5 June 1st, this Court was here conducting a
6 hearing that day. And as soon as those
7 hearings had completed, defense counsel had
8 ADA Clyde Hill subpoenaed as a witness in the 9 trial of this matter. As he walked up to the 10 table, he was served. And Mr. Carter made
11 the statement that now Mr. Hill could not sit 12 at the table.

13 The State maintains that this was
14 done for tactical advantage to obtain or to 15 boot our senior trial counsel, who's tried
16 this case numerous times, from the table and 17 is not attempting to obtain any admissible
18 evidence based on this subpoena.

19 And as their response, they are 20 trying to have Mr. Hill testify to 21 conversations he had with a potential State's 22 witness in preparation for this trial. The 23 first barrier they must overcome is to show
24 that Mr. Hill would be a necessary witness in 25 this matter. The courts have held -- and I
26 would point the Court to a 2010 decision,
27 Thompson v. State, handed down April 27th,
28 2010. It doesn't have a book cite, but it's 29 2010 WL 1664934 that says -- this issue was

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 brought up where the defense tried to
2 subpoena an assistant district attorney who
3 was trying a case to have him testify about a
4 search warrant where he was present. The
5 Court held that as the Defendant has a
6 constitutional right to call and confront
7 witnesses against him, he doesn't have a
8 right to call just anybody he just wants to,
9 and he must first have -- show that Mr. Hill
10 would be a necessary witness.

11 In that case, the Court prohibited
12 him from calling the assistant district
13 attorney at that point because they could not
14 make any showing that he was a necessary
15 witness. Their proffer to us, by the way of 16 their response, is that he's going to testify
17 or they expect to use him to impeach or
18 bolster the testimony of Marcus Moore, a
19 witness for the defense, as to conversations
20 that were had between Mr. Moore and Mr. Hill.

21 Now, as this Court has previously
22 ruled in other cases that this would be a
23 violation of Rule 608 of the Rules of
24 Evidence that you cannot bring in extrinsic
25 evidence to impeach or bolster the testimony
26 or credibility of a witness.

27 I would point to the Court, Jackson
28 v. State, 645 So.2d 921. This evidence could
29 be cross-examined of Mr. Moore on the witness

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 stand, but the testimony of Mr. Hill would
2 not be allowed under Rule 608 as it is
3 extrinsic evidence on a collateral matter
4 dealing with the testimony or the statements
5 between the two of them and not to an issue
6 of the trial. They may only be inquired
7 about on cross-examination, and that was the 8 Jackson case upholding, and quoting from 9 Lewis v. State, a 1991 Mississippi Supreme
10 Court case, 580 So.2nd 1279.

11 So for this purpose, Mr. Clyde,
12 first, would not be a necessary witness.
13 Other persons by their own documents were 14 present for these conversations that could
15 have come in. But for the most part, it's 16 inadmissible evidence because these
17 statements would be a violation of Rule 608
18 where they're trying to introduce extrinsic
19 evidence to support the con- -- or bolster
20 the credibility of a witness. Therefore, we 21 would ask that the subpoena be quashed at 22 this time.

23 BY THE COURT: Response?

24 BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I don't have
25 much of a response, to be quite honest. I
26 wasn't ready for those cases. I haven't read
27 them. However, I would simply argue that
28 Mr. Hill, in fact, has talked to Marcus
29 Moore, who we are considering calling.

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 Marcus Moore is the son of Connie Moore. And
2 Mr. Hill provided us a memo to Curtis
3 Flowers, a document that shows he talked to 4 Mr. Moore, he and attorney Ray Baum. And we
5 have information that's not documented that
6 Mr. Hill and Willie Blackmon or someone else
7 had talked to Mr. Moore subsequent to this.

8 We simply argue that since Mr. Hill
9 was out interviewing witnesses for whatever
10 reason, that he has made him a witness that 11 can be called in this trial. To be quite
12 honest, I don't really care whether Mr. Hill
13 sits at the counsel table at all. In fact, I
14 don't have a problem with him sitting at 15 counsel table. But I still, unless ordered
16 not to, plan to call him as a witness.

17 And I don't know that the -- if that 18 would preclude me from doing it. This is,
19 quite frankly, something I haven't done
20 before but based on information I received, I
21 kind of felt compelled to do it. And
22 whatever the Court's ruling is, I'll accept 23 it, although I'll admit that I plan to 24 research this further. And even if you deny
25 it today, apparently revisit this issue upon
26 further research and make an effort to 27 continue to have the opportunity to call
28 Mr. Hill.

29 BY THE COURT: Well, it sounds like you

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 subpoenaed him at this point without any idea
2 what he would testify to or without any basis
3 for. You know, the prosecutors usually talk
4 to their potential witnesses before they're
5 called, just as I think defense counsel
6 usually talks to their witnesses before
7 they're called. A lawyer interviewing a
8 witness does not then make him a potential
9 witness in a trial. And from what I'm 10 hearing from you, that's the only basis for 11 having this subpoena issued at this point.
12 Am I missing something?

13 BY MR. CARTER: One moment, Your Honor.

14 BY MRS. STEINER: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

15 (DEFENSE COUNSEL CONFERRING )

16 BY MR. CARTER: I'm sorry, Your Honor.
17 And I apologize, Your Honor. After looking
18 at that, I don't remember the question you
19 asked me.

20 BY THE COURT: I was saying at this point,
21 you have not shown the Court any reason --
22 the only thing you've said is that he
23 interviewed a witness that might be called at 24 a trial. Well, I think the prosecutors
25 usually interview the witnesses they're going
26 to call just as defense counsel does. And 27 without more, I have not seen any 28 justification or anything that would 29 necessitate the assistant DA being called as

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 a witness. So what is your purpose of -- I
2 mean, I'm sure that he has talked to a lot of
3 witnesses, just as you have, but that does
4 not make him a witness then at the trial that
5 they have prepared to try. So what
6 purposes --

7 BY MR. CARTER: Yeah, I don't have
8 anything else, Your Honor, that I want to 9 present right now.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, at this point, the 11 Court has been presented nothing that would
12 show Mr. Hill as a necessary witness or that 13 he would be a witness of any kind so the 14 subpoena's quashed.

15 Are there any other matters? I
16 didn't know if there was any other motions or 17 if this was the only one.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, there is 19 another matter that I'd like to bring up.
20 When we last were before the Court -- I'm not
21 even sure what day that was -- the Court
22 ordered the defense, at that time, to give us
23 any summary of the supposed expert witness,
24 Mr. Johnson, that they had listed. We
25 finally got a brief summary at 8 o'clock last
26 night, even though it did not follow the 27 Court's request.

28 As of today, we have gotten furnished
29 two different statements, one supposedly

MOTION TO COMPEL - JURY OUT

1 taken in 2006 by the Defense and one in 2007,
2 I believe. And I think the Court has made it
3 clear that discovery is supposed to have been
4 furnished a long time ago. And here we are,
5 the jury has already started coming in, we're
6 still getting discovery. We would ask that
7 the Court compel the defense if they have any
8 other discovery to furnish it immediately
9 today.

10 BY THE COURT: I think that's appropriate.
11 If it's not furnished before we leave today,
12 it's not going to be admitted. Y'all have 13 had this case for many, many years, and the 14 case has been set for trial for about eight
15 months now so I can't imagine that there
16 would be any reason why any other witnesses
17 or their statements have not been provided
18 til now. So if there's anything else that 19 has not been provided to the State, it must 20 be done so before this Court recesses today
21 or it will not be allowed to be admitted.

22 BY MRS. STEINER: If the Court please, may 23 I be heard?

24 BY THE COURT: You may.

25 BY MRS. STEINER: The two witnesses'
26 statements -- these are individuals who had 27 not previously been listed as witnesses by
28 either ourselves or the prior counsel when I
29 was compiling the list of possible witnesses

MOTION TO COMPEL - JURY OUT

1 for the Court's use in voir dire. I could
2 not find any evidence that those -- those had
3 been provided. As the Defense, we only have
4 to provide statements where we are doing
5 that. With Mr. Lott, we had previously
6 designated him. I could -- it was of an
7 abundance of caution that I did that. Maybe
8 we've provided that in the past.

9 And on the expert, we had -- you
10 know, we've only had the Court's order on 11 Tuesday, and we did the best we could. As I
12 put in there, Mr. Johnson, our expert, has 13 been submitted. We had a conference, and I
14 have asked him to either prepare or approve a
15 more detailed one, which I can't guarantee it
16 will by the end of today, Your Honor.

17 BY THE COURT: Well, I can guarantee you
18 if it's not, his testimony is not going to be 19 allowed because there is no excuse at all for 20 this not having been provided until -- you
21 know, I mean, the trial has started because
22 we've selected -- we are qualifying a jury.

23 And the case -- you've had the 24 case -- I mean, you've known for eight
25 months. You have been representing -- your
26 office has -- Mr. Flowers for probably close
27 to ten years. And so I -- you know, I cannot 28 imagine that there would be any excuse why
29 this hasn't been done already. But if you

MOTION TO COMPEL - JURY OUT

1 want to share one, I will listen.

2 BY MRS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.
3 First of all, it's only been seven years.

4 Second of all, at the point at which
5 we finally received the information that made
6 us believe it would be useful to have an
7 expert review evidence, it really was on that
8 discovery hearing on April 20th.

9 BY THE COURT: So his testimony is going
10 to be totally limited to what was brought out
11 in discovery hearings?

12 BY MRS. STEINER: No, Your Honor. But
13 that was a part of -- before he offered an 14 opinion, he did express an interest in having
15 that testimony. I will contact him as soon
16 as I can and try and get authority with 17 respect to a more specific draft disclosure
18 and print that out and provide that today. I
19 had -- if it's the statement --

20 BY THE COURT: Because I don't see
21 anything --

22 BY MRS. STEINER: -- and he's certainly
23 available for interview at any time.

24 BY THE COURT: I don't see anything that 25 happened at the discovery hearing -- because
26 all the discovery hearing was you asking
27 different witnesses if they had different
28 documents, which it turned out most -- they 29 didn't have, by large measure, and it ended

MOTION TO COMPEL - JURY OUT

1 up being that most of the things that you
2 were asking for that in that hearing had
3 already been provided to you to start with by
4 the State, so I don't see that that's a real
5 good excuse for waiting until the day the 6 trial is starting to still not have
7 reciprocal discovery.

8 If the State was doing that, the 9 Defense would be jumping up and down, would 10 be wanting a continuance or wanting me to 11 sanction the prosecution for doing that, and 12 here you are doing what you would be
13 criticizing them if they were doing.

14 BY MRS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.
15 As it happens, actually, a fairly detailed
16 disclosure was given last night. It was a
17 very brief one on Tuesday. It was 18 supplemented with very specific opinions and
19 the documents on which those were relied. It
20 was expanded. Very frankly, I thought that
21 was in compliance with the Court's order. I
22 have filed a copy with the Court. It's of 23 the Court -- of record for the Court's
24 review. And I believe Box v. State is the 25 remedy. They have in response already
26 retained an expert to make --

27 BY THE COURT: Let me put it this way: If 28 I continue the case on their request because 29 you didn't provide discovery, then you are

MOTION TO COMPEL - JURY OUT

1 going to pay the cost of the jury. Just let
2 me make that clear, because this county has
3 no reason to continue this case because you
4 didn't supply a witness in time. And so if
5 there's a continuance, there's going to be 6 lawyers paying for the costs of court up to 7 this point. But now, I don't see any reason
8 why you cannot go ahead and get this witness
9 to supplement whatever he's going to say. I
10 think that could be done today, and I have 11 every confidence that it will be.

12 BY MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I will --
13 I -- the witness has proposed expanded
14 disclosure in his hands. And if he can get 15 me approval to serve it today, I will.

16 BY THE COURT: That will be all, then.
17 We'll take up the rest of the jury -- we'll
18 qualify the rest of the jury.

19 BY MRS. STEINER: Let me say for the 20 record, Box v. State provides in the first 21 instance, not for a complete continuance of 22 the trial but for a brief recess, during 23 which a response is formulated. And in its 24 progeny, frequently the Supreme Court has 25 approved, even over the objection of the 26 surprised party, merely a brief recess in 27 Ross v. State --

28 BY THE COURT: I'm aware of what Box says,
29 believe me. But I'm saying if it

MOTION TO COMPEL - JURY OUT

1 necessitated a continuance where this trial
2 could not go forward. I'm not saying that
3 that would be the case.

4 BY MRS. STEINER: But the State has not
5 served us a motion requesting such. All they
6 have served us is without a report a resume
7 of the witness -- of the expert they have 8 retained.

9 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we cannot talk
10 to an expert at this point without knowing
11 what they're trying to claim. We have talked
12 to two different experts. We have already 13 furnished one name even though we have 14 nothing to submit to them. We may have 15 several depending on what their expert
16 finally furnishes us. But at this point, we
17 have furnished one name and a CV, even though
18 we don't know what they've claimed, just to 19 try to speed things up. And I just want to 20 put that in the record so that it will be
21 there.

22 BY THE COURT: I mean, this seems like the 23 same type thing that the Defense tried to 24 spring in the trial before last where right
25 at the last minute you come in with somebody
26 that you want to testify on identification
27 procedures that have not been presented til
28 right at the last minute. Because I read
29 that motion that Judge Morgan heard back at

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 the trial before last. So this is not
2 anything other than it seems your method of
3 operation, and it's not appropriate. And
4 it's not going to be tolerated by this Court.

5 We'll recess until we voir dire the
6 remainder -- or qualify the remainder of the 7 jurors this afternoon.

8 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, PROCEEDINGS
9 CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT OUTSIDE THE
10 HEARING AND PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE
11 JURORS, TO-WIT:)

12 BY THE COURT: Well, I've been advised
13 that -- I didn't know -- apparently Honorable
14 Ray Baum has been served some kind of
15 subpoena of some kind, and I guess on his own
16 is raising a motion to quash. And so I'll 17 hear that at this time as well.

18 BY MR. BAUM: Yes, sir, Your Honor. And 19 for the record, Ray Baum, attorney from 20 Winona, Mississippi. I was served a subpoena
21 the other day, a couple of days ago, I guess
22 it was, in this matter. I haven't talked to
23 anyone for the Defense, so I have no idea why
24 I've been subpoenaed. And I would move to 25 quash.

26 BY MR. CARTER: Same as before, Your
27 Honor. He was involved with talking with 28 Mr. Moore, somebody we intend to call. We --

29 BY THE COURT: Well, Mr. Moore is your

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 client; is that correct?

2 BY MR. BAUM: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

3 Mr. Marcus Moore.

4 BY THE COURT: So you're saying a lawyer
5 can't talk to his client?

6 BY MR. CARTER: Talking to him about this
7 case. He was present when Mr. Hill
8 interviewed him regarding this case and about 9 testifying in this case. Based on that,
10 without revealing my strategy, I feel that
11 that made him a witness, a necessary witness
12 in this case, and that's basically all I've 13 got to say.

14 BY MR. BAUM: Your Honor -- and just to 15 clarify, Mr. Moore is my client. I'm a
16 public defender of Carroll County. Mr. Moore
17 had a pending charge. Evidently, he may be a
18 witness in this case, and Mr. Hill wanted to 19 speak to him, and he contacted me so that I
20 could be present while he interviewed a
21 witness. And that's -- that's all that
22 happened. So other than that, I know nothing
23 about this case and, you know, I know about
24 my client's case in Carroll County. I can't
25 imagine -- and no one from the Capital
26 Defense has contacted me as to what I may or 27 may not know because, you know, I'm kind of 28 at a loss here as to why someone would 29 subpoena a witness without having talked to

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 that witness first. And that's why I'm
2 asking the Court to quash this subpoena.

3 BY THE COURT: Well, subpoenas cannot be
4 issued wholesale just for no purpose at all.
5 And, again, I've been offered nothing that
6 would indicate that Mr. Baum is a necessary
7 witness, and you haven't even stated what
8 Mr. Moore may be saying about it.

9 And so at this point, there is no
10 purpose for him being under subpoena. He's 11 not been shown to be a necessary witness.

12 Additionally, if there was a
13 conversation between Mr. Baum and his client,
14 it would probably very well be covered by 15 attorney/client privilege to begin with. But 16 since I've been offered nothing that would 17 indicate that he's a necessary witness or for 18 any reason for this subpoena being issued,
19 I'll quash.

20 BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I accept that.
21 And at some point, I'm going to show how he's 22 necessary. And when that's --

23 BY THE COURT: Well, why can't you show it
24 now?

25 BY MR. CARTER: Because I don't want to 26 reveal my strategy.

27 BY MR. BAUM: Your Honor, you know, just 28 as a preliminary matter, I'll be glad to have 29 a conversation with Mr. Carter. If he thinks

MOTION TO QUASH - JURY OUT

1 I have some discoverable -- or any kind of
2 information or testimony, I'll be glad to
3 talk to him.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, that's fine, and you
5 can. But, you know, with counsel unwilling
6 to tell why anybody's a necessary witness,
7 the Court doesn't have any grounds for
8 keeping them under subpoena at this point, so
9 there's no --

10 BY MR. CARTER: Yes, sir, I accept that,
11 Your Honor.

12 BY THE COURT: That will be all.

13 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, THE
14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR ROLL WAS CALLED BY THE 15 CLERK AND THE JURY WAS SWORN)

16 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, be 17 seated, please. Court will come back to 18 order.

19 Ladies and gentlemen, the order of 20 business we're going to conduct today is 21 we're going to go through the legal
22 qualifications with you that have been called
23 for jury service.

24 You are potential jurors in the case
25 of the State of Mississippi v. Curtis
26 Giovanni Flowers. So what we're going to do
27 today is we're going to go through the legal
28 qualifications, actually the qualifications
29 the law requires for you to meet in order to

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 serve on a jury. There are also some legal
2 exemptions that could apply that might result
3 in you being exempt from jury service, and
4 we're going to go through these exemptions
5 today as well.

6 Then those of you that are not exempt
7 and do meet the qualifications, I'll ask that
8 you will be back here on Monday morning.
9 Then we'll go through what's called voir
10 dire. That's where the Court questions you
11 about the specific facts of the case and 12 questions you to make sure that you can be
13 fair and impartial in the case.

14 Now, I know the clerk's already given
15 you an oath to truthfully answer these
16 questions so I'll get right into it now.

17 These are the qualifications you've
18 got to meet in order to serve on the jury.
19 The first one is you've got to be at least 21
20 years of age in order to serve. So is there
21 anyone that was summoned for jury duty who is 22 not at least 21 years of age?

23 Also, you have to be a qualified
24 elector of Montgomery County or a resident
25 freeholder of this county for one year. Once
26 again, either a qualified elector or a
27 resident freeholder of the county for more
28 than one year. So is there any one of you
29 that would not meet that qualification? Yes,

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 ma'am, and what is your situation?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live in DeSoto
3 County. I have not lived in Montgomery
4 County since September of last year.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. So you have
6 abandoned this county as residence?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, I have.

8 BY THE COURT: What is your name?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Elizabeth Bevis.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Bevis, I'll let 11 you go. If you would go to the clerk's 12 office, fill out some paperwork and remove 13 your name from the voter rolls because 14 obviously if you're not living here, you're
15 not a qualified elector anymore.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: So if you'll please just go
18 on and you can go right through that exit and 19 right in the clerk's office there. Yes,
20 ma'am.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live in Carroll
22 County; however, we own land in Montgomery
23 County.

24 BY THE COURT: So you reside in Carroll
25 County?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

27 BY THE COURT: And are you registered to 28 vote over there, too?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: Well, you don't reside in
2           this county and this is not where you live,
3           you would not actually be qualified to vote
4           in this county, either. I will excuse you,
5           but I will require that you go to the clerk's
6           office and have your name taken off the voter
7           rolls for this county. And what is your
8           name?

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Linda Rawls.

10          BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Rawls, that'll
11          be fine. As I say, I'll let you go. And if 12          you'll go through there and take your name
13          off. Yes, ma'am.

14          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I recently moved
15          to Grenada County, so I no longer live in 16          Montgomery County.

17          BY THE COURT: And you've abandoned this 18          county as residence?

19          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

20          BY THE COURT: And don't have any intent
21          of returning in the future or foreseeable
22          future? And what is your name?

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Latina Evans --
24          Peacock Evans.

25          BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll excuse you. If 26          you'll go through and go around to the 27          clerk's office and she can get the 28          information where you can have your name
29          taken off the rolls because if you don't live

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 here anymore, then you can't vote here.

2 Yes, sir. Near the back there.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Lewis
4 Coffey, and I live over in Carroll County but 5 I have land in Montgomery County.

6 BY THE COURT: Where do you live now?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In Carrollton,
8 McCarley.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. And so you don't
10 reside here anymore; is that correct?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

12 BY THE COURT: What is your name?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Lewis Coffey.

14 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll let you go. You
15 need to go to the clerk's office and sign
16 some papers so they can take your name off
17 the voter rolls for the county. But you
18 would not be a qualified elector anymore. So
19 if you'll go on around to the clerk's office
20 there.

21 And did I see anybody else in the 22 center? Okay. Over here. Yes, ma'am.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I live in Choctaw
24 County. I moved last year.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. And you have
26 abandoned Montgomery County as residence?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Nodding head).

28 BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jana Guillotte.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Guillotte, I'll
2 let you go. And if you will go through in
3 the clerk's office so she can take your name
4 off the voter rolls of the county.

5           There's some items that would prevent
6 people from serving on a jury, some
7 disqualifications that I'm going to go over
8 with you. If you've been convicted of a
9 felony crime, that would disqualify you from 10 serving on a jury. A felony is a crime that 11 if you're convicted of that type crime, you
12 could receive time in the state penitentiary.
13 Even if you've been convicted of a felony and 14 not actually get sentenced to serve in the 15 penitentiary but only got suspended jail time
16 or probation, that would still be a felony
17 conviction.

18           So, again, a felony conviction is a
19 crime that could carry time in the state
20 penitentiary. So do I have anybody that
21 would be disqualified from jury service
22 because of a prior felony conviction? Yes,
23 sir, what's your name?

24           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Deandras Woods.

25           BY THE COURT: And what was that
26 conviction?

27           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Burglary.

28           BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
29 go, and I appreciate you being here.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Do I have to sign any
2 papers, Judge?

3           BY THE COURT: No, unless you need
4 something to return to work. You know, some
5 people need an excuse for work, but if you
6 don't need any excuse or anything from the
7 clerk's office, you know, you don't need
8 anything else.

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right. Have a
10 nice day.

11          BY THE COURT: Thank you. You, too.

12                       Yes, sir. In the back.

13          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. Sylvester
14 Lattimore. It's been over 30 years ago.

15          BY THE COURT: And what was that?

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Aggravated assault.

17          BY THE COURT: Okay. Lattimore, is that 18 your last name?

19          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Lattimore.

20          BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Lattimore, I
21 appreciate your being here and I'll let you
22 go. You're excused.

23                       Here in the center, yes, sir.

24          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Joel Collins. It was 25 about ten years ago, assault in Memphis.

26          BY THE COURT: In Memphis?

27          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

28          BY THE COURT: And that was a felony in 29 Tennessee?

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it was. I got
2 probation for a year.

3           BY THE COURT: Well -- and Collins?

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

5           BY THE COURT: What did you say your first
6 name was?

7           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Joel.

8           BY THE COURT: Joel Collins. Okay.
9 Mr. Collins, I'll let you go, and I
10 appreciate you being here.

11                   I see a hand right there at the back.
12 I can't really see your face. Yes, ma'am.

13           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Bertha Allen.

14           BY THE COURT: And you've been convicted
15 of a felony?

16           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, six years ago.

17           BY THE COURT: And what was that 18 conviction for?

19           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Manslaughter.

20           BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
21 go, and I appreciate you being here, and 22 you're excused.

23                   Right in the back over here.

24           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Michael A. Wilson.

25           BY THE COURT: What's your name again?

26           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Michael A. Wilson.

27           BY THE COURT: Okay. And you've got a
28 felony conviction?

29           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. Drug

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 dealer.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll excuse
3 you, and I appreciate you being here.

4 Yes.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ray Winstead. Rayford
6 Winstead, Jr.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay. And that was last
8 fall, wasn't it? Well, I remember. I'll let 9 you go.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Judge, one more thing,
11 I was here last time for Mr. Flowers. You
12 told me to go across the hall and have my
13 name removed. That would only be -- well, I
14 can't guarantee that. They ain't going to 15 give me nothing.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, I can't guarantee
17 that your name --

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Can I take my name --

19 BY THE COURT: It's all randomly pulled 20 out of a computer of the voter rolls, so it's 21 all random selection from the computer so
22 there's no guarantee that in the future you
23 might not get another one.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: One more thing before
25 I go. Will I be paid for it?

26 BY THE COURT: No.

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you, sir.

28 BY THE COURT: The next situation that 29 would disqualify you from serving on a jury

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 if you were a common gambler or a habitual
2 drunkard you could not serve. So do I
3 have -- so do I have any -- just one. Okay.
4 Which are you?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sir?

6 BY THE COURT: Are you a common gambler or
7 a habitual drunkard?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Drunk.

9 BY THE COURT: You pretty much just stay
10 drunk all the time?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not all the time.
12 Most of the time.

13 BY THE COURT: Most of the time? You had 14 anything today?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I had a little bit.

16 BY THE COURT: What's your name?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Tracy Woods.

18 BY THE COURT: Well, if you're going to 19 swear under oath that you're a common drunk
20 or a habitual drunkard, I'm not going to 21 question you. I'll let you go.

22 Okay. Which are you?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I gamble and drink. I
24 drink everything. I say I'll have a drink
25 every day.

26 BY THE COURT: So you drink every day, and 27 you had something this morning?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I haven't had nothing
29 this morning.

Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Kathy Gillis, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT # : 2003-0071-CR

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: The type gambling, is that
2           like street-corner-type gambling or legal
3           gambling?

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I gamble all of it.

5           BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, if you're a
6           drunk and gambler, then I'm going to let you
7           go. What's the name again?

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: James Adair.

9           BY THE COURT: Also, you must be able to
10          read and write in order to serve. If you
11          could read that jury questionnaire that was 12          included with your summons, then you're 13          deemed for purposes of serving on a jury to 14          be able to read and write.

15                 So, again, if you could read that and 16          complete it without any assistance, then
17          you're deemed for purposes of serving on a
18          jury to be able read and write. So with that 19          in mind, do I have anybody that could not 20          read and write well enough to do that? Yes,
21          sir.

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I had to get my 23          daughter to do it because I can't read, make
24          no sense out of it.

25          BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

26          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: John Costilow.

27          BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I appreciate
28          you being here, Mr. Costilow, and I'll let 29          you go.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Crystal
2 Hill, and I can't read and write and
3 understand what's going on here.

4           BY THE COURT: What's your name again?

5           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Crystal Hill.

6           BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I appreciate
7 you being here, and I'll let you go. Anyone
8 else?

9                       Ladies and gentlemen, those are the 10 qualifications the law requires you to meet
11 in order to serve. There are also some 12 exemptions that are provided for by law.
13 These exemptions that I'm going to go over
14 with you at this time are personal exemptions
15 in nature. You do not have to claim one of 16 these exemptions even if it did apply to you.
17 But if one of these exemptions did apply to 18 you and you wanted to claim it, then you
19 could claim it and possibly be excused or 20 exempt from jury service.

21                      If you're over age 65, that's an
22 exemption or privilege that the law
23 recognizes. Certainly, the circuit court
24 encourages persons over age 65 to serve. But 25 again, that's a privilege that the
26 legislature recognizes for persons over age
27 65. So if you are over age 65 and you do
28 wish to claim that privilege, then you may do
29 so at this time. So do I have anybody that's

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 over age 65 that has gotten here this
2 afternoon and decided that they would like to
3 exercise that privilege and be exempt? And
4 what is your name?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Dennis Caradine.

6 BY THE COURT: And Mr. Caradine, are you
7 over age 65?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sixty-eight.

9 BY THE COURT: You look good. But I'll 10 let you go if you want to, if you want to 11 claim that exemption.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My wife wants me to.

13 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Are you over 14 65?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm over 70.

16 BY THE COURT: Well, again, I commend you.
17 I guess you want to claim that and be exempt;
18 is that correct?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ma'am, what is your
21 name?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Katherine Benjamin.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Benjamin, I do
24 appreciate you being here and you may go. Do
25 I have anybody that has an age situation
26 where you want to claim age as an exemption?
27 The next situation is if jury service would
28 cause an undue or extreme physical or
29 financial hardship to you or someone under

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 your care or supervision, that could result
2 in an exemption. It usually has to fall
3 under one of these subcategories. If it
4 would put you in a position where you would
5 have to abandon a person under your personal
6 care or supervision due the impossibility of 7 obtaining substitute care. Or if you would
8 incur costs that would have a substantial
9 adverse impact on the payment of your
10 necessary daily living expenses or someone
11 that you provide the means of support to. Or 12 if someone under your care or supervision
13 would suffer physical hardship that could 14 result in illness or disease. If any of 15 those categories -- if you've got any that 16 rise to that severe a level, then that could
17 possibly result in an exemption as well. So
18 do I have anybody that has anything that
19 would fall under that category?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Does that pertain to 21 your child?

22 BY THE COURT: Well, if it's somebody that
23 you provide the means of support to or things
24 like that, then it could possibly.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Ruby Stone,
26 and I have a child, and I don't have anybody
27 to take care of her while I'm up here. She's 28 outside.

29 BY THE COURT: You're a stay-at-home

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 parent?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: No child care so you
4 wouldn't have anybody to supervise the child
5 or look after her?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't have anybody.

7 BY THE COURT: How old is the child?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's 13.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. But no relatives or 10 family around here?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have relatives
12 around me, but I don't trust them to watch my 13 child.

14 BY THE COURT: Well, I can respect that.
15 I've got some I wouldn't leave a pet with 16 myself. What's your name again?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ruby Stone.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate you
19 being here and you may go.

20 Yes, sir.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a father living
22 in the house and my wife just had a stroke.

23 BY THE COURT: Are you the primary
24 caregiver for your father and your wife?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, I am.

26 BY THE COURT: Do you have anybody that 27 could come in?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't.

29 BY THE COURT: So you're the only one

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 that's having to look after both of these
2 people; is that right?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: What's your name?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Arnold Chambers.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
7 go then, Mr. Chambers.

8 I see two hands right back there.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a self-employed
10 single parent.

11 BY THE COURT: And what type of work is 12 this you do?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hairdresser.

14 BY THE COURT: And does your business --
15 would it close?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 BY THE COURT: And would you have no
18 source of income?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 BY THE COURT: And would that have a
21 substantial adverse impact on paying your
22 daily living expenses?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Absolutely.

24 BY THE COURT: So you wouldn't get money,
25 and it would affect your livelihood; is that
26 correct?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

28 BY THE COURT: What is your name again?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jill Marie Clolinger.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Clolinger, I'll
2 let you go, and I appreciate you being here.

3                     In the back here, yes, sir.

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I got three kids and a
5 wife at home, and I'm the sole breadwinner
6 right now.

7           BY THE COURT: Where do you work?

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work out of state a
9 lot right now in the cotton industry.

10          BY THE COURT: And does your employee pay
11 if you're on jury service? Some places where 12 you work would pay even if you were up here
13 on jury service.

14          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not that I know of.

15          BY THE COURT: And if you lost a week's 16 pay or however long you were gone, would that 17 have a substantial adverse impact on paying
18 your necessary daily living expenses?

19          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

20          BY THE COURT: I'll let you go. What's
21 your name again?

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Craig Parker.

23          BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Parker.

24                     Then back here at the very back.

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I got kids at 26 home, too; I have five.

27          BY THE COURT: How many?

28          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Five, and I stay home
29 with them.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: You stay home with them?
2           Do you have anybody that could come in and
3           look after them and/or take care of them in 4           your place?

5           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't.

6           BY THE COURT: I guess they're all out of 7           school for the summer?

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. I got a wife
9           there, but she stays sick a whole lot.

10          BY THE COURT: So you got a sick wife and 11          five kids?

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, she takes 13          medicine.

14          BY THE COURT: So she's under a doctor's
15          care for medication?

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

17          BY THE COURT: What's your name?

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Christopher Gee.

19          BY THE COURT: I'll let you go, Mr. Gee.
20          Yes.

21          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm director of a
22          daycare. The director has been out with 23          pneumonia in the hospital, and she is still
24          under doctor's care, so the daycare is closed
25          today due to the fact that I had to come to 26          jury duty.

27          BY THE COURT: What would happen if you --

28          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Plus I'm a single 29          parent myself.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: What would happen if you
2           were sick yourself?

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The daycare would have
4           to stay closed.

5           BY THE COURT: Do they close when you're
6           not there?

7           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We had to close it
8           today, because I'm the director there today
9           and there's no one there to run the daycare.

10          BY THE COURT: Do they fill in or have 11          anybody to fill in for you if you're not
12          there?

13          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No one else can 14          run it; it's either me or the director. And 15          the director is out under doctor's care with 16          pneumonia.

17          BY THE COURT: How long?

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: From three to four
19          more weeks.

20          BY THE COURT: So she's not going to be 21          back then?

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23          BY THE COURT: I guess -- what is your 24          name, ma'am?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Catherine Palmertree.

26          BY THE COURT: Because of the unique
27          circumstance where the other person that 28          usually works there is sick and can't be
29          there, I'll let you go.

JURY QUALIFICATION

Right here.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'm the only one that works in my household, and I drive a truck, and I lost $150 today. I don't get paid for no time off. We don't get vacation pay or nothing.

BY THE COURT: And if you missed to be up here, would that have a substantial adverse impact on the payment of your necessary daily living expenses?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Very bad.

BY THE COURT: And what's your name again?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Michael Brandon Amason.

BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll let you go, Mr. Amason.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a granddaughter I take care of, and I'm sick myself.

BY THE COURT: And do you have a doctor's --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I have a note.

BY THE COURT: I didn't know what that was in your hand.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My granddaughter, she's outside now.

BY THE COURT: And how old is she?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Seven.

BY THE COURT: And you don't have anybody that could come in and look out for her or

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 take care of her --

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not any.

3 BY THE COURT: -- or anything? And you
4 say you're under a doctor's care yourself,
5 too?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay. What is your name?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Martha Mays.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
10 go then. And I see -- yes.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I run a construction
12 company. And I'm not there, it shuts down.

13 BY THE COURT: Is this a company you own
14 or is it somebody else that owns it?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm over it. I'm just 16 a supervisor.

17 BY THE COURT: Well, if you take off or
18 sick, do they shut it down?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. Most of the 20 workers just don't even show up.

21 BY THE COURT: And so would this have a
22 substantial adverse impact on your payment of
23 your necessary daily living expenses?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, because I'm
25 the breadwinner.

26 BY THE COURT: And tell me your name
27 again.

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Randall Pyron.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Pyron.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 And I see a couple of hands way in
2 the back there. Yes, sir.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Me and my daddy own a
4 repair shop. He's got prostate cancer right
5 now and he ain't able to stay late.

6 BY THE COURT: So you're the only one able
7 to run it?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

9 BY THE COURT: And you're the 10 owner/operator of the business?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: Would that have a
13 substantial and adverse impact on your living
14 expenses and payment of them if you were
15 gone?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll let you go
18 then. Again, what's your name?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jackie Vance.

20 BY THE COURT: I saw a gentleman over
21 here. Yes, sir.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a truck driver,
23 and my wife is off of work right now. I'm 24 the only one that's working.

25 BY THE COURT: Are you the only provider
26 in the family?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

28 BY THE COURT: And does the place where 29 you work, do they pay you if you're on jury

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 service or do you not get paid?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not get paid.

3 BY THE COURT: And would that have a
4 substantial adverse impact on the payment of
5 your necessary daily living expenses?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, it would.

7 BY THE COURT: And what's your name?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Richard Campbell.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Campbell, I'll
10 let you go.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ida Carradine. We
12 have a business being closed for half a day
13 today, just in case. It would be very bad,
14 because I don't have anybody else to run the 15 business.

16 BY THE COURT: And what type of business
17 are you operating?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We run a thrift store
19 on 51.

20 BY THE COURT: And would it have to be
21 shut down if you were not there?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would.

23 BY THE COURT: It's owner/operator-type
24 business?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

26 BY THE COURT: And would that have a
27 substantial adverse impact on your payment of 28 your living expenses if you were not there?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: I'll let you go,
2           Ms. Carradine.

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay. Yes.

5           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm Willie Cris
6           Farmer. I have an auto repair, and it's shut
7           down right now.

8           BY THE COURT: Are you the owner/operator
9           of this business? And there's nobody, I
10          guess, that would do this for you while you
11          were gone?

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13          BY THE COURT: And would that have a
14          substantial adverse impact on your payment of 15          your living expenses if you were to miss work
16          because of being up here?

17          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Very much.

18          BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll let you go,
19          then, Mr. Farmer.

20                       Yes, ma'am.

21          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My husband and I own
22          our own construction business, and I do all
23          the invoices, payroll and accounting. So if 24          I was gone for a week, that could not go on.
25          He has a lot of government jobs that I have 26          to bill out the contracts to when it's 27          finished.

28          BY THE COURT: Is there anybody that can
29          fill in for you?

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

2           BY THE COURT: And what type impact would
3 this have on you on your living expenses?

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, we wouldn't get
5 paid so it would be bad.

6           BY THE COURT: So this would have a
7 substantial impact on your living expenses
8 and payment of them; is that correct?

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

10          BY THE COURT: And what is your name
11 again?

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Angela Evans.

13          BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Evans, I'll let
14 you go.

15                   And I saw a couple of hands, I
16 thought. There's a couple of more back here
17 first. Yes, sir.

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I served on the grand
19 jury last session.

20          BY THE COURT: Okay. We were going to get
21 to that in a few minutes.

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, okay.

23          BY THE COURT: No. If you want to go
24 ahead, that is an exemption that the law
25 recognizes and I'll go ahead since you stood
26 up and take that up now. And what's your
27 name?

28          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Henry Allman.

29          BY THE COURT: And as the law goes, you

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 served on a grand jury. You know -- and
2 anyone else that I have that served on a
3 jury, we'll take those up also and get
4 through with business situations.

5 Yes, sir.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is James Earl
7 Jones. I work for a timber Industry, EMI.
8 And I told them that I was coming here. They 9 said they don't pay, you know, pay for being
10 on a jury duty or to come today.

11 BY THE COURT: If you missed work, is that 12 going to have a substantial adverse impact on 13 your payment of your necessary daily living
14 expenses?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Very.

16 BY THE COURT: So if you miss work, you'll 17 get behind on your bills and you might not
18 catch up with them; is that right?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Can't do nothing.

20 BY THE COURT: And what is your name
21 again?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: James Earl Jones.

23 BY THE COURT: All right. The actor, huh?
24 I'll let you go, Mr. Jones.

25 Yes, ma'am, back in the back.

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Emma Crawford. You
27 have me and my daughter here, and she have a
28 small baby. When she's working, I be the one
29 that takes care of her baby for her. And so

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 if both of us is up here, we have no one at
2 home to take care of her baby.

3 BY THE COURT: So one of you is going to 4 have to be excused.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. I'll do it.

6 BY THE COURT: I understand, but the 7 baby's mama might need to be. What's your
8 daughter's name?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Leslie Crawford.

10 BY THE COURT: So if you'll stand, too.
11 Now, how old is the child?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eight months.

13 BY THE COURT: And the exemption is if 14 there's a nursing mother, then the mother can 15 claim the exemption. One of you can claim
16 it.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'll claim the
18 exemption.

19 BY THE COURT: Well, yeah, but your
20 daughter might take it. Are you acceptable
21 with your mama taking care of the baby if
22 you're on jury duty?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, that's fine.

24 BY THE COURT: So you can stay stick
25 around and agree to let her go?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

27 BY THE COURT: And what's your name?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Leslie Crawford.

29 BY THE COURT: Yeah, I remember that.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1       What's your mother's name again?

2               PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Emma Crawford.

3               BY THE COURT:   All right.   You may go.

4       Anybody else on either -- back there.

5               PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Constance McDonald.

6       My husband and I do some yard work and stuff.

7       It's seasonal work, and he's not able to do

8       it all by himself.   He and I are the only two

9       people that do this work.   Like I say, it's

10      seasonal.   And if we don't work, we don't

11      have anything the rest of the year.

12              BY THE COURT:   Is there anybody that he

13      could call to fill in or help or do anything?

14              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   We just try to do it

15      ourselves.

16              BY THE COURT:   And would that have a

17      substantial adverse impact on your payment of

18      your living expenses if you're gone and this

19      work doesn't get done?

20              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Well, I've already got

21      people that are waiting on me.   My mother

22      passed away, and I had to be off a little

23      while for that, and I'm just kind of behind.

24              BY THE COURT:   So would this affect you in

25      paying your bills and things if you missed

26      this work?

27              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   I wouldn't be able to,

28      because I wouldn't have any income the rest

29      of the year if I don't make it now.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: And what is your name
2 again?

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Constance McDonald.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll let you go,
5 Ms. McDonald.

6                   And I saw a gentleman over here.
7 Yes, sir.

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. I work in
9 international water offshore. This oil spill
10 going on is keeping us pretty slow. I have 11 to take all the work I can get right now to 12 keep my head above water, and I was supposed
13 to go back to work this upcoming week.

14           BY THE COURT: You were working offshore?

15           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

16           BY THE COURT: And if you don't work, is 17 this going to have a substantial adverse 18 impact on your payment of your bills and your 19 necessary living expenses?

20           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

21           BY THE COURT: And does your company pay
22 you if you're like on jury service, so you
23 would not get reimbursed by your company?

24           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir. I gave them
25 the notice when I got the notice in. I had 26 to make a trip back down there to take it to
27 them.

28           BY THE COURT: I'll let you go then.

29           BY MR. CARTER: What was the name?

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Justin L. Parker.

2           BY THE COURT: And, yes, ma'am, up here.

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a stay-at-home
4 mom, and I'm kin to the Defendant on my
5 grandmother's side, plus I'm the only one
6 that can take care of my children.

7           BY THE COURT: Okay. What ages are they?

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: One and three.

9           BY THE COURT: And you don't have anybody
10 that could come in and take care of them?

11           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because my mama see
12 after my grandmother. I had to -- she had to 13 be with my grandmama. So I'll have to keep
14 my kids. And then my husband, he works
15 different shifts. They called him this
16 morning. And my mother-in-law, they work
17 during the day.

18           BY THE COURT: So you've got very small
19 children at home and you don't have anybody
20 that could look after them, and so it would 21 create a hardship for people that you provide
22 support to; is that correct?

23           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24           BY THE COURT: And what's your name?

25           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Shawanda Loggins.

26           BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
27 go. And I think I missed somebody over here.
28 I saw a hand.

29           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. I'm the

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 same way as that fellow. I was supposed to
2 go back offshore.

3 BY THE COURT: And would this -- does your
4 company -- you may work for the same company,
5 as for all I know.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Work for the same
7 company.

8 BY THE COURT: So you're like him, they 9 don't pay if you're not --

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

11 BY THE COURT: And if you miss a week of 12 work, is that going to create a substantial
13 adverse impact --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

15 BY THE COURT: -- on you and the payment
16 of your living expenses?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

18 BY THE COURT: I'll let you go. What's
19 your name?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Wilson Carpenter.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Carpenter.

22 And yes, ma'am.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Judge, my name is
24 Dorothy Woods. My husband had two strokes,
25 and I'd like to be available for him.

26 BY THE COURT: And are you -- is he in a
27 condition where you have to be at home and 28 tend to him and take care of him?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. He's in a

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 nursing home, but I'm the only one to, you
2 know, go and take care of him.

3 BY THE COURT: Do you, like, do that every
4 day?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

6 BY THE COURT: And you have to be there in
7 case something happens?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

9 BY THE COURT: And look after him all the
10 time?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I like to be
12 available.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, I think that's -- I
14 understand. And your name is Woods?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Dorothy Woods. Thank
16 you.

17 BY THE COURT: Yes, over here. Yes,
18 ma'am.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I take care of 20 my elderly mother-in-law during the day, and 21 I have two children at home as well. They 22 are teenagers but not self-sufficient.

23 BY THE COURT: Is anybody available that 24 could come in and provide substitute care for 25 your mother-in-law?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

27 BY THE COURT: So what type condition is 28 she in?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, she's 72 years

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 old, and she has a very hard time getting
2 around, so I'm basically her legs and I do
3 her breakfast and her lunch. It's all during
4 the day, and she has someone at night.

5 BY THE COURT: And that person that stays
6 at night couldn't help during the day?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, they have a job.

8 BY THE COURT: And what's your name?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Melissa Donell Bailey.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll let you go,
11 Ms. Bailey.

12 And I thought I saw a gentleman.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work for J.J.
14 Ferguson and pour bridge beams. I am the 15 only level three tech they have on the prefab
16 yard at the moment. Our other supervisor
17 quit last week. They cannot pour concrete
18 without me being there; they are dead in the 19 water.

20 BY THE COURT: I think they can -- you
21 know, it's got to be a hardship to an
22 individual. It's not a hardship to the 23 company where you work for.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: This would be a
25 definite for the company.

26 BY THE COURT: So if it's just for the 27 company then, you know, they'll just have to 28 make do.

29 Yes, ma'am.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a single parent,
2           sole income to my home with two small
3           children. My job -- I do work outside the 4           home, but my job revolves around my children.
5           They stay at home. I feed their breakfast,
6           go to work. I work a mile from my front door
7           so we could have contact. If I were to be
8           here, I would have to hire a sitter, which it
9           would be more than a financial burden because
10          I couldn't do it.

11          BY THE COURT: And what type of work is
12          this?

13          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work for a home for 14          the mentally disabled.

15          BY THE COURT: And if you missed work and 16          were not -- do they reimburse you for a
17          jury --

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would get paid. I
19          mean, I would still get paid but my children
20          can't stay by themselves at home if I'm 21          further than that.

22          BY THE COURT: And what age are they?

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can be at home in 24          two minutes from my work, and I'm allowed to 25          leave at any time. They're 12 and 13.

26          BY THE COURT: And you wouldn't have 27          anybody available at night or --

28          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. My parents are 29          traveling, and my sister lives in Jackson. I

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 have no one that could do it for free.

2 BY THE COURT: So if you had to pay a baby
3 sitter to stay for a week --

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am the only income
5 in my home, period.

6 BY THE COURT: And would that have an
7 adverse substantial impact?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, it would.

9 BY THE COURT: And what's your name again?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Felicia Bennett.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll let you go,
12 Ms. Bennett.

13 Yes, ma'am.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I own my own business.
15 I'm a baker who bakes birthday cakes. I'm 16 the only one there.

17 BY THE COURT: And does all operations
18 cease if you're not there?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, yeah.

20 BY THE COURT: Is there any -- I assume 21 you don't have anybody that could take care
22 of this operation?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

24 BY THE COURT: And if you miss this
25 business, is it going to have a substantial
26 adverse impact on your payment of your
27 necessary daily living expenses?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, not on mine but
29 I'd have to cancel all the orders that I

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 already have, the wedding cakes and birthday
2 cakes.

3 BY THE COURT: So it would have a pretty
4 bad impact? I mean, if you lose this money
5 from those?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, yeah.

7 BY THE COURT: It's going to have a pretty
8 bad impact on your income?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

10 BY THE COURT: Would that be correct?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

12 BY THE COURT: And what's your name?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sandra Kay Vaughn.

14 BY THE COURT: I'll let you go, ma'am.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Krystal
16 Miers. I just had a baby. He's six weeks
17 old, and I don't have anybody to watch him.

18 BY THE COURT: I imagine if you have a
19 six-week-old child, I'm sure you need to be 20 there or it needs you, I'm sure. What's your 21 name again?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Krystal Miers.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'll let you go.

24 Right here at the back.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I'm Margaret
26 Bankston. I'm a single parent and the only
27 one bringing in the income.

28 BY THE COURT: And where are you working?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: With Ansel Highway in

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 Eupora.

2 BY THE COURT: And do they reimburse if
3 you were off for jury?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, but it still
5 ain't going to help me any.

6 BY THE COURT: Because?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm the only one
8 paying my bills.

9 BY THE COURT: Would this have a
10 substantial adverse impact on your payment of
11 necessary daily living expenses?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

13 BY THE COURT: I'll let you go. What's
14 your name again?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Margaret Bankston.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. I run my 18 own business and will be shut down. I have 19 to run a piece of equipment for my own
20 business.

21 BY THE COURT: And what type of business
22 are you operating?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Logging operation.

24 BY THE COURT: And if you are not there,
25 your work stops?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, yes, sir. I have 27 to run -- I run the cutter that does the 28 cutting.

29 BY THE COURT: And they can't go on

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 without that, I'm assuming.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: And would this have a
4 substantial adverse impact on your payment of
5 your necessary daily living expenses?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Most definitely, yes,
7 sir.

8 BY THE COURT: I'll let you go then.
9 What's your name?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: William Robert Cade,
11 Jr.

12 BY THE COURT: Okay. I think I saw maybe
13 one more.

14 Yes, ma'am, back there.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a bad diabetic and 16 blood pressure problems, and I can't sit very
17 long or stand very long, and I'm also sick
18 right now.

19 BY THE COURT: So you've got a medical 20 problem and that would be diabetes and you're 21 feeling bad already?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: I'll go ahead and let you
24 go. What's your name?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Magnolia Eskridge.

26 BY THE COURT: Magnolia what, ma'am?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eskridge.

28 BY THE COURT: You may go. And that is 29 the next situation I was going to bring up is

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 if anybody's got an illness and on account of
2 the illness you're physically incapable to
3 serve and it would create a physical hardship
4 for you because of inability to serve. Again
5 due to illness, do I have anybody that's --
6 got anybody else? Yes, ma'am. What's your 7 situation, ma'am?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Barbara
9 Keel, and I'm real bad diabetic, also. And I
10 can't sit with my legs down a long period of 11 time because they swell so bad. I have poor
12 circulation in my legs.

13 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll let you go
14 because, I mean, if you're sitting over here
15 for several days, you know, we would take
16 recesses, but you wouldn't be able to move
17 around a whole lot, you know, because it
18 would be pretty still most of the time, and i
19 certainly don't want any illness to be 20 brought upon -- you know, ill effects from 21 the diabetes to be brought upon you by you
22 being here. What is your name again?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Barbara Keel. Thank
24 you, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. And I see a --
26 yes, ma'am.

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm six months
28 pregnant, and I have kidney problems, and I
29 need a bathroom break every 20 to 30 minutes.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: Well, I -- you know, if
2           you're six months along, I mean, you could
3           have to see the doctor. I mean, I understand
4           how that goes so I'm going to excuse you.
5           What's your name?

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ashley Woods.

7           BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Woods.

8                     And do I have anybody else that would
9           have a situation where a possible illness --
10          yes, ma'am.

11          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Gwynda
12          Miers, and I have a back problem. I also 13          have a herniated and a bulging disk in my 14          neck, and I can't sit down a whole lot like 15          all day long. I take pain medication every 16          day, also.

17          BY THE COURT: And are you being treated
18          by a doctor for these problems?

19          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20          BY THE COURT: And you have been under a
21          doctor's care, I assume, for some time now?

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23          BY THE COURT: And you're taking
24          medication for that as well?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Tramadol.

26          BY THE COURT: And that's pretty strong
27          medication? And that probably affects your 28          ability to stay awake, I assume? I'll let 29          you go then. And what is your name again?

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Gwynda Miers.

2           BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Miers, I hope you
3 get better with that problem.

4                   The next situation, it would
5 probably -- we've had this occur, but do I
6 have any nursing mothers that have small
7 child and you're a nursing mother and that
8 would result in an exemption, also?

9                   Also, if you have been a petit juror
10 within the past two years where you actually
11 came up here and you sat in the jury box and 12 you tried a case from where you sat on a
13 trial of a case? Or if you have served as a
14 grand juror within the past two years where 15 you served on a grand jury, that could be an
16 exemption as well. So do I have anybody that 17 has got an exemption for either of these
18 reasons? Yes, sir.

19           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jeff Vaughn. I served
20 in March.

21           BY THE COURT: Of this year on the grand
22 jury?

23           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

24           BY THE COURT: I think I probably
25 impaneled it last fall. I'll let you go. I
26 appreciate you being here. And I see way
27 back in the back. Yes, ma'am.

28           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I served last year.

29           BY THE COURT: Was that the grand jury?

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

2           BY THE COURT: And what is your name?

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Glenda Allen.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Allen, I'll let
5 you go.

6                     And I think I saw one other person.
7 Yes, ma'am.

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I served on the grand
9 jury in October of last year.

10          BY THE COURT: Last year? And what is
11 your name?

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Natalie Bullard.

13          BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll let you
14 go, Ms. Bullard. And I saw somebody else
15 right behind you --

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Annice Dodd, and I
17 served on the grand jury in April of this 18 year.

19          BY THE COURT: Okay. And Dodd?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Dodd.

21          BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Dodd, I
22 appreciate you being here, and you may go.
23 Yes, ma'am.

24          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mary Lou Morman. I
25 served on the grand jury.

26          BY THE COURT: And what's the name again?

27          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mary Lou Morman.

28          BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Morman, I
29 appreciate it, and I'll let you go.

JURY QUALIFICATION

Yes, ma'am.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sheila Vance Hodges.

I served on a grand jury. But my question is even if I served on a grand jury this past year, do -- could I still stay here?

BY THE COURT: You can serve. That's a personal exemption. You do not have to claim it if you don't wish to do so.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right.

BY THE COURT: I appreciate your willingness to stay.

Yes, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think if I recall right it was a couple of years ago on the Baxter rape case, I was in the jury on that. Was it last year or year before that?

BY THE COURT: What's your name? The clerk --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Johnny Butts. It was on the Baxter -- that rape case. I served on it as a juror.

BY THE COURT: The clerk said it's been more than two years.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right. And also, this case coming up, I'm a former pastor of the accused and plus relative to the family, and I still have ties to the family as pastor.

BY THE COURT: We will take those matters

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 up at a future time. You will be given an
2 opportunity to speak up about that later.

3 Anyone else that's got anything
4 concerning exemptions or qualifications?

5 Yes, ma'am.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Your Honor, I'm
7 severely hard of hearing. I can hear you and 8 understand you but not much else of the 9 what's going on in the courtroom.

10 BY THE COURT: Could we make any
11 accommodations that would help you in that
12 regard or you just feel like you -- you know,
13 if we can, I will. But if you tell me you
14 don't think you could hear, then I'll --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Give everybody a
16 microphone.

17 BY THE COURT: Hearing is one of the most 18 important things of what a juror does because 19 you listen real closely. But if you don't
20 think you can hear, then I will let you go.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have to be facing.
22 I have to be -- you know, I do some lip
23 reading.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll excuse you,
25 because I know at times some witnesses tend 26 to not talk loud. And I even sometimes,
27 sitting where I am, I have to tell them to
28 speak up, so I'll let you go and I do
29 appreciate you bringing that up to me. And

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           what is your name?

2           PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Laster, Deborah
3           Laster.

4           BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Ms. Laster.
5                               Yes, ma'am.

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Your Honor, I'm
7           enrolled in a summer school class that is
8           online but this class is vital to me
9           continuing my employment.   I just don't know
10          if could miss a week of not being able to 11          check in online and get assignments.

12          BY THE COURT:   And how long does this 13          course last?

14          PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   It lasts six weeks.

15          BY THE COURT:   So you would be missing --

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   I've just started it
17          this week.

18          BY THE COURT:   And this would have a
19          substantial impact on your --

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Yes, it would.

21          BY THE COURT:   -- future income?

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   My job is dependent
23          upon me completing this class.

24          BY THE COURT:   And what is your name?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   I'm Debra Balle.

26          BY THE COURT:   I'll let you go, Ms. Balle.

27          PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   How long are the 28          breaks for in between when the case start?
29          Because I can't sit but about an hour because

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 this medicine requires that I go to the
2 restroom.

3 BY THE COURT: Well, what I always tell
4 all the jurors if you're actually up here
5 sitting, if at any time a juror needs a
6 break, get my attention or the attention of
7 one of the bailiffs, and we will immediately
8 recess. Because I certainly want -- I try my
9 best to take care of my jurors. Because I
10 realize that you're performing a big civic 11 duty when you're serving, so if you actually 12 sat up here and you were trying the case and 13 sitting on the jury and you needed a recess,
14 just -- you know, the bailiffs will be
15 sitting over there, and I'm sitting up here.
16 And you just pass a note to the bailiff or
17 just kind of wave at them, and we would call
18 a recess to accommodate you at any time you
19 needed one.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

21 BY THE COURT: Would that be sufficient?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

23 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Back here in 24 the back.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm enrolled in a
26 summer school course which is three weeks
27 long.

28 BY THE COURT: How long is the course?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Three weeks.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: And you would miss a good
2 part of it if you were up here. And what
3 about -- and I assume that would have an
4 adverse impact on your education and your
5 ability to pay expenses and things; is that
6 correct?

7           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

8           BY THE COURT: And what is your name
9 again?

10          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Phillip Crawford.

11          BY THE COURT: And I think I saw one.

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I start a new job
13 Monday.

14          BY THE COURT: Well, now, they've got to 15 let you off to be up here, you know. Unless 16 it's going to create some severe impact on 17 your payment of your bills. What type job is 18 this?

19          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Wal-Mart.

20          BY THE COURT: And -- because they've got 21 to let you off. But, now, is it going to be 22 a substantial adverse impact on your income
23 if you're not there?

24          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, because I'm the 25 only one paying my bills.

26          BY THE COURT: And what's your name?

27          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Latesha Ervin.

28          BY THE COURT: Well, I'll let you go then.
29 I think I see two more. Yes, ma'am.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Billie Fay Elliott,
2           and I have two appointments I got set up that
3           I was supposed to miss for next week.

4           BY THE COURT: And what type appointments
5           is this?

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm getting a MRI did,
7           some x-rays did on my knee.

8           BY THE COURT: So you are having some 9           medical difficulties, and they're requiring 10          some medical attention?

11          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12          BY THE COURT: Are these things -- are 13          these things that could be postponed or is 14          this some emergency type, you know, where you
15          are in a lot of pain and need to see?

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm in some pain. But
17          he wants me to go and get the MRI.

18          BY THE COURT: Well, if you've already got
19          these things scheduled, I'm sure the doctor
20          didn't order them for no reason, and I'm sure
21          you need to do it or he wouldn't have ordered
22          them. What's your name?

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Billie Fay Elliott.

24          BY THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Elliott.

25                         And then I saw a gentleman. Yes,
26          sir.

27          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm also enrolled in 28          summer school.

29          BY THE COURT: Are you going to miss -- I

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 assume you would miss all classes?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's for ten weeks.

3 BY THE COURT: For ten weeks? And you
4 would be missing a good bit of class and
5 would have an adverse impact on you and on
6 your education; is that correct?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: And what's your name?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Deonne Moore.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, I appreciate your
11 being here, and you may go.

12 Now, ladies and gentlemen, if the 13 remainder of you will please stand and raise
14 your right hand and the clerk will administer
15 an oath to you. This will be your oath to 16 try the issues.

17 CIRCUIT CLERK: Do you and each of you
18 solely swear or affirm that you will well and 19 truly try the issues between the State of 20 Mississippi and Curtis Giovanni Flowers and a
21 true verdict give according to the evidence
22 and the law, so help you God?

23 PROSPECTIVE JURORS: I do.

24 BY THE COURT: Now, ladies and gentlemen,
25 you can be seated for a minute and then I'll
26 let you go.

27 BY THE BAILIFF: Your Honor, she didn't
28 get the oath.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay. We'll just give that

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 to her in just a few minutes, then.

2 As I told you a few minutes ago, when
3 we first started, we were going through the
4 legal qualifications and the legal exemptions
5 today. We will actually, Monday morning,
6 start asking facts specific about the case to
7 make sure that you do -- that you can be a
8 fair and impartial juror in the trial. The 9 purpose of asking those questions will be
10 strictly to make sure that we do get a fair
11 and impartial jury for the case.

12 Now, the situation is this: If you
13 are selected for the jury and you are called
14 to serve on the jury, you will be sequestered
15 for the trial. Sequester means you will be 16 kept together as a group once selected and 17 you would not be allowed to return home or go
18 anywhere until the trial is concluded.

19 You will be put up in some hotel and 20 will be staying together as a group. So to 21 ensure that you have your necessary clothing
22 items, personal items of any type that you
23 might need, you need to maybe go ahead and 24 pack a suitcase and bring it with you on
25 Monday and be prepared for an extended stay.

26 Also, I'll ask that you not bring any
27 cellular telephones or any electronic means
28 of communication with you or pack those with 29 you in your belongings that you do bring.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 And also, from now until your jury
2 service is concluded, please do not talk
3 about this case with anyone. Do not listen
4 to anyone that is talking about it. Do not
5 discuss it with anyone or have any
6 communication with anyone about the case.
7 Please do not read any newspaper articles
8 about the case or any Internet articles or
9 any other written form of communication about
10 the case. Also, do not listen to any radio,
11 television, Internet or any other type
12 broadcast or communication about the case.

13 And obviously, you can't go out today
14 and start investigating the case or going and 15 looking at scenes or anything involved or 16 locations involved in the case. And with 17 that, ladies and gentlemen, if you'll be back
18 here at 9 o'clock Monday morning and we'll 19 proceed at that point with the actual
20 questioning of you as to the facts.

21 Yes, ma'am.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Beverly
23 Locke, and I didn't realize there would be a
24 sequestering thing. I care for my
25 73-year-old mother who has had strokes. Her
26 mobility is very poor.

27 BY THE COURT: I'll take yours up in just 28 a minute. I'll go ahead let these other 29 people go, and you can stick around, and

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 we'll take that up. And then I saw a lady
2 that didn't get sworn in a minute ago, so
3 I'll take your situation up. I've got two or 4 three of you that need to hang around for
5 various reasons, and the remainder of you can
6 go, and we'll take your issues up
7 individually in a few minutes.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I need to talk to you.

9 BY THE COURT: Okay. We'll let you do
10 that. As I say, all of you go except if 11 you've got -- I saw two or three people that 12 maybe needed to bring something up.

13 (PROSPECTIVE JURORS EXIT THE COURTROOM)

14 BY THE COURT: Now, the only issue I'll 15 want to take up with you that remain is if
16 you've got something that specifically
17 involves your qualifications to serve or some 18 special exemption concerning jury service,
19 then I'll take those up. Any other matters,
20 I will take up later. I'll ask that you each
21 step outside. The bailiff will just bring 22 you in one at a time, and I'll hear your 23 issues that you have.

24 (JURORS LEAVES COURTROOM. JUROR IVAN
25 SANFORD ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

26 BY THE COURT: And what is your name, sir?

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ivan Glenn Sanford.
28 Your Honor, I'm having marital problems. And 29 I have been out of work since the first of

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 the year.

2 BY THE COURT: If you'll tell me again,
3 I'm having trouble hearing you.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I said I'm having
5 marital problems right now. I'm in the 6 process of trying to get my home sold, and
7 I'm in the process of relocating and finding
8 a new job and this would really kind of slow
9 me down. I need to get all these things
10 done. I want to get all this behind me, Your 11 Honor. This is all my -- my mind would not 12 be here.

13 BY THE COURT: So you're saying you just
14 do not feel like you could concentrate?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I really don't. I'm 16 being truthful with you. I've got to get to 17 work because I'm the only one left to work.

18 BY THE COURT: Have you got a job lined up
19 now?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm supposed to
21 interview in Yazoo City for a job.

22 BY THE COURT: If you'll step outside for 23 a minute.

24 (JUROR LEAVES COURTROOM)

25 BY THE COURT: Have y'all got any
26 questions? I mean, I want somebody that's up
27 here that's going to give it their undivided
28 attention honest. And he said he's not going
29 to be able to do that. But if y'all want me

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 to keep him around, I will do that, too.

2 BY MRS. STEINER: We don't have any
3 objection.

4 BY THE COURT: Does the State have any
5 objection to him?

6 BY MR. EVANS: No, Your Honor.

7 BY THE COURT: (To the bailiff) You can
8 tell Mr. Sanford he can go ahead and be 9 excused.

10 (JUROR KAREN COOPER ENTERS THE
11 COURTROOM)

12 BY THE COURT: What is your name?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Karen Cooper.

14 BY THE COURT: And what is your situation?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I didn't want to 16 advertise that we're going to be out of town
17 for the week. My husband and I had already
18 had a previous engagement. My husband and I
19 had already had the previous engagement to 20 leave Sunday for the job training in 21 Shreveport.

22 BY THE COURT: What type of --

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's going to be the 24 relief mechanic for MedStat, and he has to go
25 through a week of training there. And it
26 starts Monday, but we've got to go down
27 Sunday night to be there at 8:00.

28 BY THE COURT: Is this something you're 29 going to be required to be at?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir, I'm not
2           required to be there. I had previously taken
3           off to spend that week with him, but I'm not
4           required to be there.

5           BY THE COURT: If you'll will step out a
6           minute, I'll confer with counsel.

7           (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

8           BY MR. CARTER: Well, I take my wife with 9           me a lot, and it's kind of hard for me to 10          stop her from doing it if she wants to do it.

11          BY MR. EVANS: I don't think it's a valid
12          reason. It's not something that's necessary.
13          If they were having a planned vacation for 14          some length of time, it would be a little 15          different than just wanting to go along
16          for --

17          BY THE COURT: I think the trip -- I got
18          the impression -- had been planned for a
19          while. But I don't know if an unhappy juror
20          is going to be a good juror.

21          BY MR. EVANS: Well, probably everybody
22          out there is going to be unhappy.

23          BY THE COURT: Yeah, but going to be more
24          than unhappy.

25          BY MR. EVANS: I don't have an opinion one
26          way or the other, whatever you want.

27          BY MR. CARTER: We certainly don't object,
28          Judge.

29          BY MR. EVANS: Whatever the Court finds is

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 fine.

2 BY THE COURT: I know how I would feel if
3 I was sequestered when I was supposed to be 4 on a trip.

5 (To the bailiff) Just tell her she
6 can go.

7 (JUROR DOLLIE RATLIFF ENTERS THE
8 COURTROOM)

9 BY THE COURT: If you'll come on down,
10 ma'am. Kind of just stand there so everybody
11 can see you. And what is your name?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Dollie
13 Ratliff.

14 BY THE COURT: And have you got something
15 involving your qualification?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I was going to 17 say that the Defendant, the one that's on 18 trial, him and my husband -- his dad is first 19 cousins.

20 BY THE COURT: So your husband and 21 Mr. Flowers' daddy?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh, first cousins.
23 We're real close.

24 BY THE COURT: So you're real close to
25 Curtis and his family?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

27 BY THE COURT: And Mr. Archie?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

29 BY THE COURT: Would that influence you in

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 being a fair and impartial juror in the case?
2 I mean, could you sit in judgment on him with
3 that family relationship?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We're real close.

5 BY THE COURT: So would that come into
6 play and affect you?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I imagine it would,
8 because we're real close. Archie and the 9 family, we're real close.

10 BY THE COURT: So you're saying you do not
11 feel like you could be fair to both sides?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't. I don't.

13 BY THE COURT: You could not?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so.
15 Like I say, when you're real close to 16 somebody you just --

17 BY THE COURT: I understand, ma'am. I'm 18 not trying to belittle you or anything like
19 that.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm just telling you
21 the truth, you know, when you're real close.
22 And, you know, I honestly tell the truth.

23 BY THE COURT: I appreciate what you're 24 saying, and I'm not questioning what you're 25 saying in the least bit. I just wanted to 26 make sure that you are saying that you pretty
27 much know in your heart right now you could 28 not be fair and impartial to both sides
29 because of this family tie.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have to think on it.

2           You know, I'm not sure if I could.

3           BY THE COURT: So in the back of your
4           mind, you've got a real doubt about whether
5           you could lay --

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

7           BY THE COURT: -- family ties aside?

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. I don't know
9           if I could. Like I say, we was just close,
10          you know.

11          BY THE COURT: Either side have any
12          questions for Ms. Ratliff?

13          BY MR. EVANS: Ms. Ratliff, I understand
14          that y'all are real close. And from what 15          you're saying, all of that would enter into 16          your thoughts if you were on the jury; is
17          that right?

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

19          BY MR. EVANS: And because of that, it
20          would make it impossible for you to serve as 21          a juror on this particular case; is that
22          right?

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Nodding head).

24          BY MR. EVANS: That's all I have, Your
25          Honor.

26          BY MR. CARTER: I have one in light of 27          that. Now, Mr. Evans used the word
28          impossible. Now, you certainly have told
29          us -- and we accept it -- that you would be

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 uncomfortable serving in this case and maybe
2 would be impossible for you to be fair to
3 both sides. So you're saying that although 4 you're uncomfortable serving in this case if
5 you got picked as a juror, not only would you
6 be uncomfortable, it would be impossible for 7 you to be fair to the prosecution and the
8 Defendant considering that you know
9 Mr. Flowers and like his family and that kind
10 of thing?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably. Because you
12 already have your opinion on it, so it
13 probably would be.

14 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. So you're saying
15 you already have an opinion about it. Would 16 you also, if you sat on this jury and found
17 the guilt of Mr. Flowers, would you be 18 concerned about the relationship with the
19 Flowers?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know about the 21 relationship, you know, some -- like I say,
22 if you're related to somebody and you've
23 already done heard all about it, you already
24 have in your mind.

25 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. So you're saying
26 what you've heard, you don't believe you
27 could put it aside?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably couldn't.

29 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. No further

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 questions.

2 BY THE COURT: I'm going to allow you to
3 go, Ms. Ratliff, and be excused, and you
4 don't have to come back.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right. Thank you.

6 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, thank you.

7 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM. JUROR
8 PEGGY CHAMBLEY ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Where do y'all want
10 me?

11 BY THE COURT: You can come on up here and
12 kind of -- maybe stand next to the podium
13 there and kind of look toward all of us,
14 because the court reporter has got to hear
15 what you're saying and all the attorneys kind
16 of want to hear.

17 Now, what was your name?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Peggy
19 Chambley.

20 BY THE COURT: And what is your situation?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm hearing impaired.
22 I wear hearing aids, and I have to read lips
23 quite a bit. I mean, some of these that were 24 in here today saying why they couldn't, I
25 couldn't hear what they were saying. So I'm 26 pretty much definitely totally deaf in my 27 right ear. I can hear out of my left ear to 28 a degree, but I wear them in both ears.

29 BY THE COURT: And certainly, we -- and,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 you know, if you're able to serve and you
2 want to serve, then we certainly don't want
3 to -- you know, hearing impairment -- because
4 I certainly want to accommodate anybody
5 that's got any kind of disability of any
6 kind. But if you're telling me that you do
7 not feel like you could listen and understand
8 and if there's not any accommodations that we
9 could make for you that would assist you
10 there, then --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I could some but 12 there may be some that talks lower than 13 others and then there I'd be stuck. I mean,
14 you know. It's not like I can't hear you 15 totally.

16 BY THE COURT: Right.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But, you know, I'm
18 just afraid there may be some soft spoken
19 ones up there and there I'll be, you know.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, I appreciate it, and 21 I'm going to let you go, because I know from 22 every trial -- not just -- you know, every 23 trial I've ever had, there are times when 24 witnesses tend to whisper. They get to where 25 they're just kind of timid or something. And 26 certainly whoever is sitting there, we want
27 them to be able to hear every word that's 28 spoken, and so I'm going to go ahead and let 29 you go.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm just afraid I
2           can't hear everybody clearly, and that would
3           be unfair.

4           BY THE COURT: And I appreciate you
5           bringing that to my attention.

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

7           BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

8                       (JUROR CHAMBLEY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.
9           JUROR LISA VANCE ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

10          BY THE COURT: If you'll just kind of 11          stand there, and you can tell us your name
12          and what you need to bring to the Court's
13          attention. What's your name, please?

14          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Lisa Vance.

15          BY THE COURT: Lisa Vance. And what is 16          the situation, Ms. Vance?

17          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. I should 18          have raised my hand earlier, but I really
19          feel it's my duty to serve, and I would like
20          to but I'm not sure I would be able to. I'm 21          on a lot of pain medication. My attention
22          span is kind of short.

23          BY THE COURT: Are you under a doctor's
24          care for it?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I see a doctor
26          in January once a month, and I'm on a lot of 27          narcotics, pain patch.

28          BY THE COURT: Do these medications affect
29          your ability to stay awake and stay alert?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 And what type of medications?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm on a Duragesic
3 pain patch, and I take oxycodone for break
4 through pain, and then I was just diagnosed
5 with interstitial cystitis, too, and that
6 affects my bladder and my ability to --

7 BY THE COURT: So you've just got multiple 8 problems health-wise right now that would 9 prevent you from physically being able to 10 serve --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I would really
12 love to serve. I just don't know that I
13 would be able to.

14 BY THE COURT: I'll let you go, Ms. Vance,
15 and I hope your health problems improve.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

17 (JUROR VANCE LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

18 JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON ENTERS THE
19 COURTROOM)

20 BY THE COURT: If you'll come on down,
21 ma'am, and come inside the rail here. And if 22 you'll just kind of stand up here and you can 23 just tell us all what the situation is. What 24 is your name, please?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Marjorie May Pearson.
26 I'm just not sure if I'm mentally capable of 27 sitting on a jury.

28 BY THE COURT: Have you been diagnosed
29 with learning disabilities or problems like

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 that or what's -- what causes you to think
2 that?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I'm distracted
4 easily, and I'm also not comfortable with
5 judging somebody. I'm a Christian Baptist.

6 BY THE COURT: What level of education do
7 you have?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've been to some
9 college, but I didn't get a degree.

10 BY THE COURT: Are you under a doctor's
11 care for any psychiatric disorders or
12 anything?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've been meaning to 14 go, but I just haven't. I don't really have 15 a ride and I have to -- if my brother doesn't
16 work, then I borrow his vehicle.

17 BY THE COURT: Are you taking any
18 medications now for any problems?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 BY THE COURT: At this time, I'll just ask
21 you to come back Monday, and we can probably 22 get further into this if we need to.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I get highly nervous,
24 and I just wanted you to be aware of that.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate you
26 bringing that up.

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

28 (JUROR PEARSON LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

29 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, if you'll come
2 on down and just kind of stand inside here,
3 the rail of the Court and tell us what your
4 situation might be. And what's your name,
5 please?

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Martha
7 McKey.

8           BY THE COURT: And you needed to bring
9 something to our attention?

10          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. We had 11 discussed the situation with the sitting, and 12 also, I'm very absentminded. I'm not just 13 saying that to get out of it. I don't 14 remember things too well. I'm afraid that if 15 I'm trying to sit and listen and pull
16 information together, I might forget
17 something and not do a good job. And I'm 18 embarrassed about having to constantly get up
19 and go out to the restroom.

20          BY THE COURT: So you've got some 21 medication?

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I have that -- I
23 don't have my purse so I can't tell you the 24 name of the high blood pressure medication
25 that causes me to --

26          BY THE COURT: Frequently have to leave?

27          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

28          BY THE COURT: So you have high blood
29 pressure and this affects your --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Even when I worked,
2           this was a situation when I wasn't under
3           medication but I had an agreement with my
4           principal that I could leave the classroom so
5           I would go out. Because my doctor said I had
6           to keep my urinary tract clear.

7           BY THE COURT: And are you retired now or 8           taking some disability retirement or --

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, no. I don't have 10          a disability. I'm just retired.

11          BY THE COURT: Oh. Well, are you -- you
12          feel like if I -- you know, like if you were
13          sitting on the jury and I called a recess
14          whenever you asked for one, do you think that 15          would help?

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't mind, but I
17          just don't want to inconvenience other people
18          because, you know, when I -- like when I went
19          out just then, I tried to sit a long time.
20          And so when I finally went out, then I'm real
21          nervous from holding it so long. And then
22          this lady come out to the restroom and said,
23          "He didn't excuse you." Well, I understood
24          that I wasn't excused, but I was hating to 25          leave for fear I would miss something. And 26          then I was like, You wasn't excused. Well, I
27          knew that. I left my things on the seat.

28          BY THE COURT: Well, I -- do not worry
29          about inconveniencing anybody because, again,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 I want to make sure my jurors are taken good
2 care of. And that's, you know -- I got two
3 concerns when I'm trying a case. That's to 4 make sure that I'm a completely fair and
5 impartial judge and rule on all matters that
6 come before me that way. And the second
7 concern is my jury, because I want the jurors
8 to be taken care of and accommodated in any
9 possible way that we can do so.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I have one other
11 concern. And seriously, I'm not looking for 12 excuses but I'm just sharing --

13 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- because I don't
15 want to be -- something happens and they say,
16 Well, you didn't say this or that. In the 17 accommodations where we have -- do we have to 18 share a room with people?

19 BY THE COURT: No, you will not.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because I'm paranoid
21 about sleeping with strangers.

22 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't blame you.
23 I'm not a good -- well, I mean, I wouldn't 24 like to be put up with some stranger I didn't
25 know, either. So you will be in a room --

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay, then. I can use
27 the restroom. I don't have to sleep with 28 strangers. I will probably be fine.

29 BY THE COURT: You will be in a room by

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 yourself.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

3 BY THE COURT: And also, again, when we're 4 going through the process if, you know, at
5 any time you need a break to go the restroom,
6 let me know that. Wave your hand or
7 something. Also, on Monday, you know, we'll
8 be questioning the jury like we did today
9 except we'll be going into more details on 10 things. And if you need a break at any time
11 during that process, please just let me know
12 that because, as I say, you know, my concern
13 is your concern.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. And remember,
15 I'm absentminded, so if I say that I didn't
16 do this and then later on I remember, I'd 17 hate to go to jail based on my absentminded.

18 BY THE COURT: Well, you're not going to 19 go to jail. I mean, if you're listening to 20 the testimony, you can have a note pad and 21 you can write down notes the entire trial if 22 you want to do that, too.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

24 BY THE COURT: So you can take extensive
25 notes and you -- you know, but as I say, you
26 know, you can be sure I'm going to make sure
27 you're taken care of.

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

29 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. I think

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 maybe -- okay. You got that second oath.
2 Okay. That will be all, then, Ms. McKey, and
3 if you'll just be back in here on Monday
4 morning.

5 (JUROR MCKEY LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

6 JUROR JOHNNY BUTTS ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

7 BY THE COURT: If you'll kind of stand
8 here so everybody can see you and hear you.
9 Now, what is your name?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Johnny Albert Butts.

11 BY THE COURT: What's the name again?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Johnny Albert Butts.

13 BY THE COURT: Johnny Albert Butts. Okay.
14 And you --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a former pastor of 16 the Flowers' family and also a spiritual
17 counselor. And I've kind of been with them
18 since day one as one of their spiritual 19 counselors.

20 BY THE COURT: And have you discussed this
21 case with them --

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I haven't. We
23 haven't got into the case. You know, pastors
24 and members have their -- have things that
25 they talk about. And we don't share others.

26 BY THE COURT: I understand you've got a
27 pastor confidence --

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

29 BY THE COURT: -- and people tell you --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They talk to me about
2           it, and we've been sharing about it since it
3           happened. But they are not my members any
4           longer, but we still have ties and being a
5           close relative, too. And as I have been a
6           pastor with him, I just don't think I could
7           really handle dealing with this case.

8           BY THE COURT: And are you related as
9           well?

10          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, related and 11          pastor -- former pastor.

12          BY THE COURT: And how are you related?

13          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: As a matter of fact,
14          my dad -- my dad -- my dad's mother and his 15          mother they are, I think, like first or 16          second cousins so that gives us pretty close
17          ties.

18          BY THE COURT: And would these factors
19          influence you in being a fair and impartial
20          juror or are you saying you do not feel you
21          could be fair --

22          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just wouldn't want
23          to deal with it. I've been a pastor and 24          related to them, too, dealt with the children
25          and worked with them. I've shared with them
26          and given them advice in life and then to sit
27          there and to make a decision on the, you
28          know, outcome of his future. I just don't 29          think as an ex-pastor and cousin I would like

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 sit there and deal with that.

2 BY THE COURT: And so are you telling me
3 that those factors --

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. They would
5 possibly have some -- you know, some leaning
6 on which way I would --

7 BY THE COURT: So you could not be fair
8 and impartial because of those family ties?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I don't think I
10 could, to be fair with you.

11 BY THE COURT: Well, I appreciate that.
12 So you're just saying --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'd just rather not.

14 BY THE COURT: -- you know, you know these 15 people and because of that, you could not sit
16 in judgment --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've got close ties.

18 BY THE COURT: Right. I understand what
19 you're saying.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Close ties.

21 BY THE COURT: Either side have any
22 questions?

23 BY MR. EVANS: I think he's covered it,
24 Your Honor.

25 BY MR. CARTER: I have one, Your Honor.

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

27 BY MR. CARTER: Now, have you formed an 28 opinion one way or another in terms of guilt
29 or not guilty?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, sir, being a
2           pastor and a Bible scholar and a Christian
3           myself, there is one thing that I've always
4           felt that is forgiveness -- to forgive a
5           person in a place where I'm making a decision
6           about life or death, I feel forgiving a
7           person. But as far as me making a decision,
8           life or death, that's out of my hands. I
9           don't do that.

10          BY MR. CARTER: Okay.

11          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So to be frank with 12          you, if you want the truth from me -- I'm 13          just being truthful.

14          BY MR. CARTER: Okay. So if I'm 15          understanding you, you're saying that you're 16          uncomfortable --

17          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, yes.

18          BY THE COURT: -- making a decision as to 19          guilt or innocence or as to life or death?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Life or death.

21          BY MR. CARTER: That's to life or death.
22          And because you're uncomfortable with that,
23          would that cause you to be unfair to the 24          prosecution?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, like --

26          BY THE COURT: If you got to serve as a
27          juror --

28          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. Well, for 29          instance, if the prosecution asks for the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 death penalty, then if I would be on the jury
2 to make that decision for death, I wouldn't
3 be able to do it.

4 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. So you're saying
5 you couldn't consider life and death equally?
6 See, let me say --

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know what you're
8 saying.

9 BY MR. CARTER: Nobody's telling you how
10 you have to vote --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. Right.

12 BY MR. CARTER: But you are required to 13 consider both, both options and consider them
14 fairly. So are you saying you couldn't
15 consider --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Life, I would.

17 BY MR. CARTER: But you wouldn't even
18 consider death?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I wouldn't even
20 consider death.

21 BY MR. CARTER: No further questions.

22 BY THE COURT: Mr. Butts, because of your 23 family ties, because of your pastoral
24 relationship and because of these other
25 reasons, I will go ahead and excuse you and 26 not require you to be --

27 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I appreciate that,
28 sir. Have a good day.

29 (JUROR BUTTS LEAVES THE COURTROOM.)

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

JUROR KENNETH TOWNSEND ENTERS THE
COURTROOM)

BY THE COURT: If you'll come on down and just stand down here with us. What is your name, sir?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Kenneth Townsend.

BY THE COURT: And, Mr. Townsend, you've had something you thought you needed to bring up about jury service or something concerning
the case?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I got somebody keeping my mama, and I have to be there with her every day or she'll wander off. But who
I got keeping her, they got to go to work at 12 o'clock.

BY THE COURT: So you've got an elderly mother that you're having to look after; is
that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, yeah.

BY THE COURT: And nobody that can --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nobody.

BY THE COURT: And so does she stay with you or you stay at her house?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I stay at her house.

BY THE COURT: And nobody else that could look after her?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

BY THE COURT: And how old a lady is she?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eighty-two.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           BY THE COURT: Eighty-two. And she's got
2           some problem with straying or wandering off,
3           and you're saying you cannot leave her alone?

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

5           BY THE COURT: So if you were staying
6           overnight, you wouldn't have anybody there
7           that could come in and take care of her; is
8           that --

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10          BY THE COURT: I'm going to go ahead and 11          let you go -- because you do have somebody
12          under your care or supervision that could 13          suffer some severe problems or hardships if 14          you're not there. So I appreciate you being 15          here, Mr. Townsend.

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

17          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18                   (JUROR TOWNSEND LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

19                   JUROR QUINCY PURNELL ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

20          BY THE COURT: If you'll come on down and 21          just come into the rail here and tell us your 22          situation. What is your name, please?

23          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Quincy Purnell.

24          BY THE COURT: And you had something about 25          your service or --

26          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, me and the 27          victim that was in this case, we was second
28          cousin.

29          BY THE COURT: And who is that -- you and

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 who?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Me and Robert Golden.

3 BY THE COURT: So you were second cousins
4 with Mr. Golden?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 BY THE COURT: And were y'all -- y'all
7 have a close family connection --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

9 BY THE COURT: -- during his life? And 10 would that affect you in being a fair and 11 impartial juror in the case?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, it would.

13 BY THE COURT: And you could not be a fair
14 juror to Mr. Flowers because of your family
15 connection with Mr. Golden; is that correct?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

17 BY THE COURT: And so have you got an 18 opinion as to guilt or innocence already?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Pretty much.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. Does either side
21 have any questions of Mr. Purnell?

22 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

23 BY MR. CARTER: I don't.

24 BY THE COURT: Mr. Purnell, I'll excuse
25 you. I appreciate you bringing that up, and
26 you may go.

27 (JUROR PURNELL LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

28 JUROR REVELL SUGGS ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

29 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. If you'll come

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 on down and you can come inside the rail here
2 at the podium down here. What is your name,
3 please?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Revell Suggs.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Suggs. And what
6 is your situation?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I got hurt on my job
8 last year. I lost part of a finger, and I'm 9 under a doctor's care, and I'm supposed to
10 have surgery again. And Dr. Wheeler told me
11 last week that he would get me ready for 12 surgery, but I don't know what date or when.
13 So my lawyer called me and told me that they
14 was getting some paperwork together, so I
15 don't know what day they might call me. I
16 don't know. I'm having to dance by their
17 music.

18 BY THE COURT: Can you find out this 19 afternoon as far as calling? I mean, is 20 this -- this would not be emergency surgery,
21 I take it?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Today is Friday.
23 Dr. Wheeler's office is not open. If I call
24 my lawyer in Jackson, all I can do is leave a
25 message because it's hard to get him because 26 he's really busy.

27 BY THE COURT: Since this is not an
28 emergency-type surgery and it's not something
29 that's actually set for right now or for next

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 week, you'll have to come on back next week
2 because it's not a surgery -- you know, if it
3 was some heart surgery or some emergency
4 where you're going to have to --

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They going to have to 6 go back in my finger. I lost the tip end of 7 it on my job, and Dr. Wheeler is going to 8 have to go back in it.

9 BY THE COURT: How long has it been since
10 that surgery, the first one?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The first one?

12 BY THE COURT: Or when you lost part of 13 your finger?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: June the 24th.

15 BY THE COURT: So that's been a year.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Soon will be a year.
17 So I've been off of work. And he told me I
18 was going to have to have surgery again
19 because of the nerve. And I've been sort of 20 talking to them, when, when. He said, Well,
21 I'm getting your paperwork together and just,
22 you know -- so I don't know when he might
23 call me.

24 BY THE COURT: Just call your lawyer's
25 office and tell them that you might not be 26 available next week, and then they can 27 schedule it after that.

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will.

29 BY THE COURT: Okay.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'll leave a message
2           for him.

3           BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

5                     (JUROR SUGGS LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

6           JUROR KATHERINE HENSON ENTERS THE
7           COURTROOM)

8           BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, if you'll come
9           on down. And what is your name, please?

10          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Katherine Everett
11          Henson.

12          BY THE COURT: And you've got something
13          you felt needed to be brought to the Court's
14          attention?

15          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. After you say
16          we had to be packed and ready Monday, I have
17          an appointment in Grenada for an ultrasound
18          to be done.

19          BY THE COURT: You've got what now?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have an appointment
21          in Grenada for an ultrasound to be done.

22          BY THE COURT: And when is that
23          appointment?

24          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's Tuesday at
25          9 o'clock. It's a followup from November.

26          BY THE COURT: And is this something that 27          could be postponed or -- the ultrasound? Or 28          is this something where you've got an 29          emergency-type situation?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it's my breast.

2           BY THE COURT: So you've had some --

3           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I had a
4 mammogram did in October, November last year.

5           BY THE COURT: And something from that --

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And another ultrasound
7 in November. And that's a followup, another
8 ultrasound in six months I have to repeat.

9           BY THE COURT: So the doctor told you you
10 might have some problems you need to keep 11 watch on?

12           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. He said he was 13 looking at something. When I went in
14 November, he said he was watching something
15 and wanted me to return this month.

16           BY THE COURT: Do you think this would 17 be --

18           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I --

19           BY THE COURT: -- adverse to postpone the 20 appointment for a week or two or --

21           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it was a
22 six-months followup from November of last
23 year. I did a mammogram and then it was -- I
24 had to go back at the end of November to do
25 an ultrasound. Then he gave me six months to 26 come back to do it, and it was scheduled for 27 Tuesday at 9 o'clock.

28           BY THE COURT: Have y'all got any
29 questions?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY MR. EVANS: Ms. Henson, is this
2 something that would be bothering you and on
3 your mind next week if you were on the jury?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, then the first
5 followup, it was bothering me because I had
6 one cyst removed. Then when he told me to 7 come back the end of November, it was kind of 8 like -- but then when he told me to come
9 back, well, he's watching something and say
10 if it's anything aggressive, he'll make sure
11 he take care of it.

12 BY MR. EVANS: Kind of a followup?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But the first one
14 you're thinking about when you're -- because 15 I had the cyst removed and you mind is kind
16 of going down. But --

17 BY MR. EVANS: Is it something that you
18 would be okay with getting him to put off or
19 do you think it would affect your thinking
20 and concentrating if you had to put off?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I could. You
22 know, I might could. I don't know. Well,
23 when you're thinking about something about
24 your breast, you're thinking a little bit --
25 I mean, your mind is not there. I'll put it
26 that way. Your mind is not there. But the 27 first followup, your mind wasn't looking 28 there. And this one, because he told me if 29 it's something wrong, if it's aggressive,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 he'll make sure he take care of it or
2 whatever, so.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, ma'am.

4 BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I'm just -- I
5 have mixed feelings about it. I certainly
6 don't want her to miss something that's
7 really necessary that she goes to. I guess
8 I'm wondering if it's possible to check and 9 see if it could be delayed a little and to
10 see if her mind could be eased a little, I
11 guess. And if it can't be eased and she's
12 worried about it, then I have no objection --

13 BY THE COURT: Ms. Henson, what I'll ask
14 you to do is maybe contact the doctor this
15 afternoon and talk with them --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, my doctor have
17 to go through the doctor in Grenada, the one
18 that did the ultrasound. He is the one that 19 I go through.

20 BY THE COURT: Well, could you just call
21 them and ask them if there would be some -- I
22 mean, I was wondering if maybe you could find
23 out some things about it this afternoon and 24 then report back to me Monday on whether you
25 could get it -- your appointment scheduled
26 for like the week after next or something
27 like that.

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I could do that.

29 BY THE COURT: And then, you know, if you

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 can't or they tell you that you need to come
2 on immediately, then I'll excuse you Monday.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I could call and see
4 could I reschedule that.

5 BY THE COURT: Right. And then if you
6 can't or they tell you you need to come on
7 now instead of waiting a couple of weeks,
8 then I will go ahead and excuse you Monday.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay, then. So I just 10 call?

11 BY THE COURT: Right. If you'll just find 12 out and then, you know, based on what they
13 tell you today, we'll decide Monday.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay, then. Okay.
15 Thank you.

16 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Thank you.

17 (JUROR HENSON LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

18 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

19 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. If you'll come
20 on and you can just stand inside the rail
21 here at the podium.

22 Now, what is your name?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Marvin Bridges.

24 BY THE COURT: And you had something you
25 thought you needed to bring up?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. I work for 27 Dacus Furniture Company, and I'm the 28 appliance service man, and I'm the only one
29 that we have, which wouldn't be a hardship to

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 the store, as far as the store wouldn't have
2 to close or anything like that. And I'm sure
3 they'd pay me if I wasn't there. But the
4 customers, if their refrigerators or deep
5 freezers or washers and dryers quit, they
6 couldn't get them repaired.

7 BY THE COURT: It's got to be a hardship
8 personal to you where it would create some,
9 you know, adverse impact to you. I realize
10 everybody that's working, you know, is going
11 to be some adverse impact for who they work
12 for.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

14 BY THE COURT: But if it's just an 15 inconvenience for people, you know, then
16 that's not going to be --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. I was 18 thinking about the inconvenience to the 19 customers.

20 BY THE COURT: And I appreciate that, but 21 it's got to be a situation where it's going
22 to create some kind of hardship for you, not
23 for another person.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'll have to catch up.

25 BY THE COURT: I understand that. But
26 that would not -- I mean, it might take a
27 week or two to catch up, but that -- it's got 28 to be strictly one of those situations where 29 it would create a substantial adverse impact

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 for you personally and from a financial
2 impact for you personally.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: But I appreciate you
5 bringing that up to my attention.

6 (JUROR BRIDGES LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

7 JUROR DONALD SMALL ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

8 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. If you'll come
9 on down inside the rail here and at the 10 podium. Now, what's your name?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Donald Small.

12 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir. And you had 13 something you thought you needed to bring up
14 about your service or something?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah. I was 16 wondering, I kind of already know a lot about
17 what's going on.

18 BY THE COURT: So you heard facts about
19 it; is that what you're saying?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

21 BY THE COURT: And have you -- how have 22 you -- are you related to anybody involved in
23 this case?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I work with his 25 brothers and sisters.

26 BY THE COURT: Now, you work with -- with 27 Mr. Curtis Flowers' brothers and sisters?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

29 BY THE COURT: When did you do so? Are

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1       you still working with them?

2               PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Every day.

3               BY THE COURT:   And where do y'all work?

4               PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   ADP.

5               BY THE COURT:   ADP?   Do you see them every
6       day?

7               PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Yes, sir.

8               BY THE COURT:   And has this case been
9       discussed?   Have y'all had conversations
10      about the case?

11              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Yes, sir.

12              BY THE COURT:   And has that caused you to 13      form an opinion as to guilt or innocence of
14      Mr. Flowers?

15              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Yes, sir.

16              BY THE COURT:   And could you be fair to 17      both sides?   Could you lay aside any
18      conversations you had with others and base
19      your decision only on the evidence presented?
20      Or have you already got a fixed opinion that 21      could not be changed?

22              PROSPECTIVE JUROR:   Well, I been around
23      the family so and the parents too, so -- his 24      parents and stuff.   I wouldn't know how to 25      deal with it.   You know what I'm saying?

26              BY THE COURT:   So are you saying that you
27      do not feel like you could be fair as a juror
28      in this case because of your relationship
29      with his mother and dad and with his sister

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 and brother and because you're working with
2 them?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: (Nodding head.)

4 BY THE COURT: Is that correct?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

6 BY THE COURT: And you couldn't lay those
7 facts aside and just listen to the evidence;
8 is that correct?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

10 BY THE COURT: Anybody?

11 BY MR. CARTER: Yeah. I have a question
12 for him.

13 BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor.
14 You say you work with his sister and brother.
15 Which ones are they -- which sister?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: One of them's name is 17 Reese and another one is named -- we call her
18 nickname Rat. We call her nickname Rat.
19 That's what her nickname is.

20 BY MR. EVANS: How long have you worked
21 with them?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I've known them
23 for the last 25 years. And I been around
24 them, like we always talk, be around one
25 another. And I'm just being honest.

26 BY MR. EVANS: And you've talked to them
27 about facts about the case?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

29 BY THE COURT: How -- and you say you've

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 talked with his parents about facts about the
2 case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I've been around
4 all of them. I just feel -- just, you know,
5 what's going on.

6 BY MR. EVANS: All right. Were any of 7 those conversations after you were called as
8 a juror or were they before that?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was before the 10 jury, before I received a paper for the jury.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And I just been around
13 them. I'm just honest. I been around them,
14 the family.

15 BY MR. EVANS: And you're just telling us
16 because of that, all of those connections,
17 you couldn't be a fair and impartial juror in 18 this particular case?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

20 BY MR. EVANS: All right. Thank you.

21 BY MR. CARTER: Is ADP and Heatcraft the 22 same thing?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

24 BY MR. CARTER: Oh, it is?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

26 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. And you say you've 27 known them a long time. Are you just
28 acquainted with each other or you close
29 personal friends? Do y'all visit each other

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 in your homes and --

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I guess, back
3 then, I dated his sister and I've been around
4 them ever since I've been out of high school.
5 And I been out --

6 BY MR. CARTER: You say you dated one of 7 his sisters?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

9 BY MR. CARTER: You talked with them. Did
10 you say you had formed an opinion as to his 11 guilt or innocence? Did you or did you not?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just know about what
13 all was going on. I been around.

14 BY MR. CARTER: You heard a lot of talk?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

16 BY MR. CARTER: And as a result of that 17 talk, you have some ideas about what
18 happened?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

20 BY MR. CARTER: And those ideas, are they 21 so plain in your mind, are they so strong
22 that if you had to serve as a juror, you
23 couldn't listen to witnesses who investigated
24 the case and put aside what you might have
25 heard some of the Flowers say and decide
26 guilt or innocence based on what you heard
27 from the witness stand from witnesses who 28 actually investigated the case? Now, I
29 understand you're uncomfortable, but what I'm

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 trying to find out is could you serve and
2 could you be fair to both sides if you got 3 picked?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would -- I would say
5 like I been around them and if something was 6 to come up, it's just like --

7 BY MR. CARTER: You'd have a problem
8 facing them afterwards?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. It was just 10 like me and him were -- like I say, me and
11 him were real close, and we're friends. I
12 was just saying we're friends.

13 BY MR. CARTER: Right. And you would be
14 concerned about having to see them
15 afterwards, and you would be concerned about 16 voting in a way that might be adverse to the 17 Flowers family; is that what you're saying?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

19 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. And you're so
20 concerned about that, that it wouldn't allow 21 you to be fair to both sides; is that also
22 true?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To be honest, yes,
24 sir.

25 BY THE COURT: Mr. Small, I'm going to let 26 you go, and I'll excuse you as a juror and
27 will not require you to be back on Monday.

28 (JUROR SMALL LEAVES THE COURTROOM.)

29 JUROR JOHNNIE EARL ROBINSON ENTERS THE

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT
COURTROOM)

1
2 BY THE COURT: If you'll come on down and
3 just stand inside the rail and stand up next
4 to the podium, and we'll get some information
5 from you. If you'll come on down here. Now
6 what is your name?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Johnnie Earl Robinson.

8 BY THE COURT: And, Mr. Robinson, you had 9 something you felt like you needed to bring
10 up about jury service?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: And what is that situation?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, my wife has got 14 to go to the doctor Wednesday, and I don't 15 know if they're going to keep her in the 16 hospital. And further, she's related to him.

17 BY THE COURT: What type of medical
18 situation?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Something's wrong with 20 her neck.

21 BY THE COURT: And where is that
22 appointment scheduled?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Jackson.

24 BY THE COURT: And are you supposed to be 25 going with her to that?

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

27 BY THE COURT: And is this an
28 emergency-type situation or is it something
29 she could postpone?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. It ain't going to
2 be nothing she could postpone it.

3           BY THE COURT: Is there anybody that could
4 go with her instead of you? Could you find
5 anybody else that could?

6           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

7           BY THE COURT: And you mentioned that she
8 was related to somebody?

9           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

10          BY THE COURT: Now, who is that?

11          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mr. Flowers.

12          BY THE COURT: And what's your wife's
13 name?

14          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Stacy.

15          BY THE COURT: What was her maiden name?

16          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thompson.

17          BY THE COURT: Stacy Thompson?

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

19          BY THE COURT: And how is she related to 20 the Flowers family?

21          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I guess through her
22 grandmother.

23          BY THE COURT: And does she maintain a
24 close family connection with them?

25          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, they have 26 reunions.

27          BY THE COURT: So she goes to reunions
28 with the Flowers family?

29          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY THE COURT: And do you -- do you go to
2 those reunions with her?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: And have you been to any
5 where maybe Mr. Archie, Sr. and some of his 6 children are at?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I see him at 8 church a lot.

9 BY THE COURT: So you go to church with 10 Mr. Archie?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

12 BY THE COURT: And what church is that?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: At different churches,
14 gospel programs.

15 BY THE COURT: Where he sings?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: Would those factors
18 influence you in being a fair and impartial
19 juror?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

21 BY THE COURT: So you knowing Mr. Archie
22 and his family and knowing Curtis, you feel
23 like you could not be fair to both the State
24 of Mississippi and to Mr. Flowers?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

26 BY THE COURT: And have these factors
27 caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt
28 or innocent of Mr. Flowers?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           BY THE COURT: And if you were to, say,
2           find Mr. Flowers guilty, would you feel ill
3           at ease being with family?

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

5           BY THE COURT: So if you found him guilty,
6           you would not feel you owed the family some
7           reason?

8           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir, I would.

9           BY THE COURT: Okay. So you're saying
10          because of these family ties, you just cannot
11          be fair and impartial?

12          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir.

13          BY THE COURT: Does either side --
14          Mr. Evans, you got any questions for 15          Mr. Robinson?

16          BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

17          BY THE COURT: Mr. Carter?

18          BY MR. CARTER: How often do you see the 19          Flowers, once a year at reunion?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir. Probably 21          once or twice a week.

22          BY MR. CARTER: About once or twice a
23          week? You ever been to their house?

24          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, sir, not lately.

25          BY MR. CARTER: Now, I understand these 26          relationships will make you uncomfortable.
27          And that's understood, but you're saying not 28          only would you be uncomfortable sitting in 29          judgment of Mr. Flowers because of, you know,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 his family; you're also saying that because
2 of a relationship with Mr. Flowers, because
3 your wife is kin to Mr. Flowers, that you
4 couldn't sit in judgment of Mr. Flowers and
5 be fair to the State of Mississippi and to
6 Mr. Flowers?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right, because
8 you see it all over the news and TV, so.

9 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. You're also saying
10 that you've received a lot of information
11 about the case through the news and T.V., and 12 you're saying that -- what are you saying
13 about that? Has that --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's all over T.V. so,
15 you know, you can't be fair. You know,
16 everyone going to rule their own way.

17 BY MR. CARTER: So as a result of seeing
18 all the news coverage that you've seen, you
19 believe that that has caused you to form an 20 opinion and that has caused you to, say, not 21 to dislike the prosecution or to dislike the 22 defense or to -- what has the effect of 23 seeing it on T.V. --

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I feel like the 25 man innocent, you know. I will just say
26 that, because of all this other stuff.

27 BY MR. CARTER: So if you got picked to 28 serve as a juror and if you were not excused,
29 it wouldn't matter to you what investigators

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 who have actually investigated this case took
2 the witness stand and said occurred, you
3 would dismiss that and render a decision
4 based on an opinion you've already formed?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, because of the 6 news media and stuff.

7 BY MR. CARTER: Yeah, I understand how it
8 can saturate and affect your feelings and
9 opinions and cause you to form an opinion;
10 that's understood. But -- and I'm trying to 11 wrap it up because you've already said you
12 were close to the family and your wife was a
13 relative. And you were saying that you
14 couldn't put that aside, but you're also
15 saying that you couldn't put aside what 16 you've actually seen in the T.V. and the 17 newspapers?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

19 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. No further
20 questions, Your Honor.

21 BY THE COURT: Mr. Robinson, I'll let you
22 go. I appreciate you being here, and I will
23 not require you to be back Monday.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

25 (JUROR ROBINSON LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

26 JUROR HENRY GHOLSTON ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

27 BY THE COURT: If you'll come on down.
28 Now, what is your name, sir?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Henry Lee Gholston.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY THE COURT: And you had something you
2 thought you needed bring up to the Court?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'd like to be
4 excused.

5 BY THE COURT: And what would be the
6 reason?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because me and my wife
8 ride together. She work at ADP, and I work
9 at Lehman-Roberts, and we ride together. I
10 drive her. She don't have any license.

11 BY THE COURT: So she can't drive herself
12 to work?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

14 BY THE COURT: And so you go --

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I drop her off at ADP,
16 then I go to the store and catch up a crew
17 truck and go --

18 BY THE COURT: And so if you were
19 selected, you and your wife both would be out
20 of work?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

22 BY THE COURT: So she couldn't work and
23 neither could you; is that right?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

25 BY THE COURT: And would that create a
26 substantial adverse impact on your payment of 27 your bills if you're neither one able to 28 work?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's right, it

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 would.

2 BY THE COURT: And she doesn't have
3 anybody that she could catch a ride with; is
4 that right?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

6 BY THE COURT: Well, I'm going to excuse
7 you under substantial hardship, because your
8 payment of your necessary living expenses if 9 you and your wife both will be out of 10 paychecks --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

12 BY THE COURT: -- while you were up here.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

14 BY THE COURT: And you're free to go.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's right.

16 BY THE COURT: You may go.

17 (JUROR GHOLSTON LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

18 JUROR NORMAN SMALL ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

19 BY THE COURT: Sir, if you'll come on down
20 here and stand against the podium down here
21 and tell us what your situation might be.
22 Would you tell us your name?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Norman Small.

24 BY THE COURT: Norman Small?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Small, what is
27 your situation?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My situation is
29 medical for my kids plus income.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY THE COURT: Okay. And what situation
2 with your children?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My daughter, she
4 has -- she had heart surgery when she was
5 about three months old. And my son, he got
6 to have surgery on Tuesday. And I'm the only
7 one working right now. My wife she works,
8 but she's out for the summer.

9 BY THE COURT: And what type of surgery is 10 your son fixing to have?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He has to have -- put 12 some drums in his -- tubes in his ears for 13 his ear problem.

14 BY THE COURT: And where are you working
15 right now?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Work for Sanders
17 Funeral Home.

18 BY THE COURT: Sanders Funeral Home?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: And your wife's not working
21 this summer?

22 THE WITNESS: No, sir. She just drawing
23 unemployment right now.

24 BY THE COURT: Unemployed for right now?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

26 BY THE COURT: And if you miss work for,
27 say, a week, would that have a substantial
28 adverse impact on your payment of your bills?

29 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. Hospital

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 will not take Medicaid. We used to have
2 Medicaid, but Medicaid done stopped paying,
3 so we had to -- I had to pay the funds up
4 front myself.

5 BY THE COURT: And so if you're not
6 working, that would cause you to suffer
7 financial hardship?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. Right now it
9 would.

10 BY THE COURT: And I would assume your 11 children financial hardship, too, because
12 of --

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

14 BY THE COURT: -- their medical needs?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

16 BY THE COURT: I'll excuse you, Mr. Small,
17 for the -- because of the substantial adverse
18 impact serving would have on your economics.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 (JUROR SMALL LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

22 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

23 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, if you'll stand
24 there and tell us your name and what your 25 situation is.

26 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My name is Beverly
27 Elaine Locke.

28 BY THE COURT: Ms. Locke, you had 29 something you needed to bring to our

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 attention about serving?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, you really threw
3 me when you said the word sequestered.
4 Because I haven't made -- I hadn't already
5 made any plans for my mother. Now, she's --
6 she probably could do fine with somebody from 7 the church checking on her daily. She does
8 have a panic button, I mean, so...

9 BY THE COURT: Now, how old is she?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's 73. She -- she
11 doesn't cook. You know, she can fix herself
12 toast and scrambled eggs and that sort of 13 thing. It's just -- I know I -- she's been 14 harping since I got the notice about to -- to 15 say that I had to be with her all the time,
16 but that's not really true. I mean, I take 17 off, and I'm gone four or five hours at the 18 time. Like I say, she has a panic button.

19 BY THE COURT: Do you live with her?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I live with her.

21 BY THE COURT: Maybe over the weekend,
22 just check with some people and see if you
23 could have people that could check in on her.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We have church people
25 down the road not too far. I just would 26 have to need --

27 BY THE COURT: Yeah, if you would --

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- a few days to get
29 her used to the idea.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           BY THE COURT: Right. If you can check
2 with people this weekend and see if they
3 could do that for you and then let me know
4 back Monday. And if, you know, that can --
5 and then if there are situations where you
6 can't find somebody that can --

7           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It will be fine. It's 8 just that you threw me, and I wanted to but
9 you just startled me so bad I hollered out,
10 because I didn't have time to get used to the 11 idea.

12          BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. I understand,
13 and I appreciate that. As I say, if after 14 checking with some other people you find out
15 it's going to create a substantial hardship
16 for you, then bring that back up to my
17 attention Monday.

18          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right. What's
19 your name?

20          BY THE COURT: Judge Loper.

21          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

22          BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am, thank you.

23               (JUROR LOCKE LEAVES THE COURTROOM.
24 JUROR ARCHIE LEE CAMPBELL ENTERS THE
25 COURTROOM)

26          BY THE COURT: Yes, sir, if you'll come
27 down and stand inside the rail here and tell
28 us what your name is and your situation.
29 What is your name, sir?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Archie Lee Campbell.

2           BY THE COURT: And tell us what your
3 situation is, Mr. Campbell.

4           PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, my brother just
5 got out of the nursing home like a few weeks
6 ago and I spend most of my time with him. He
7 had a stroke. I have to watch him.

8           BY THE COURT: And so you're the primary
9 caregiver for your brother?

10          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

11          BY THE COURT: And I believe you're kin to 12 Mr. Flowers, aren't you?

13          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

14          BY THE COURT: And how are you kin to him?

15          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think his mother and 16 I are about second cousins.

17          BY THE COURT: And weren't you called to 18 the jury like in the 19- -- one of the
19 previous trials?

20          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

21          BY THE COURT: And I believe at that time,
22 you said you could not be a fair and
23 impartial juror because of your kinship?

24          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

25          BY THE COURT: And is that still the case?
26 You just feel like you could not be an 27 impartial juror because of being related to
28 Mr. Flowers?

29          PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY THE COURT: And have you made up your
2 mind as to the guilt or innocence of
3 Mr. Flowers?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I couldn't make
5 up my mind on it.

6 BY THE COURT: So, I mean, what I'm saying
7 is if you were sitting on a jury, you just do
8 not feel like, even if the proof was there,
9 you could vote to convict?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 BY THE COURT: So you could not do that
12 even if the proof showed it?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 BY THE COURT: Any questions from you?

15 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir.

16 BY MR. CARTER: None.

17 BY THE COURT: Mr. Campbell, I will excuse
18 you, and I appreciate it. And I hope your 19 brother gets better. I think it's very 20 admirable that you're taking care of him
21 right now. Thank you a lot.

22 (JUROR CAMPBELL LEAVES THE COURTROOM.

23 JUROR DAVID HOLIDAY ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

24 BY THE COURT: What's your name, please?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: David Holiday.

26 BY THE COURT: And, Mr. Holiday, what's
27 your situation?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Other than I wrote the 29 date down wrong or read the letter wrong. I

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 thought I was supposed to call this evening
2 and check it and be here Monday.

3 CIRCUIT CLERK: He's not been qualified.

4 BY THE COURT: Oh, okay. Well, that's --

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry, I was on
6 the -- like she said, day.

7 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, let her
8 administer the oath, because what I need to 9 do then is go over jury qualifications with 10 you. And so if you'll take that oath.

11 (Oath Given)

12 BY THE COURT: Mr. Holiday, what we're 13 doing today -- and I understand your 14 confusion. There's no problem with that at 15 all. What we're doing today is going through 16 the legal qualifications with the jurors, and 17 then we'll actually start asking questions
18 Monday to potential jurors about particular
19 facts of the case. And so I'll go over those 20 qualifications with you. And then if you
21 should not meet one of them, you should let 22 me know.

23 You've got to be at least 21 years of
24 age. You've got to be a qualified elector of 25 Montgomery County or resident freeholder of 26 more than one year.

27 You could not serve if you were
28 convicted of a felony.

29 You could not serve if you are common

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 gambler or a habitual drunkard.

2 You could not serve if you've been
3 convicted of the sale of intoxicating liquor
4 within the past five years, and you've got to
5 be able to read and write.

6 So you would meet all of these
7 qualifications?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir.

9 BY THE COURT: And there are exemptions.
10 I know you're not over the age of 65. If you
11 were, you could be exempt but I know that
12 you're not. Also, if you had an illness
13 where you could not serve because of an
14 illness or if there was some undue or extreme
15 physical or financial hardship that was going
16 to be created by you -- that would be
17 personal to you or somebody under your care
18 or supervision, then that could result in an 19 exemption as well. Do you have any type
20 situation like that?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 BY THE COURT: Also, if you have served as 23 a grand juror within the past two years where 24 you actually served on the grand jury or if 25 you were a petit juror within the past two 26 years where you sat on a jury trial. Do any 27 of those exemptions apply to you?

28 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

29 BY THE COURT: If you'll then raise your

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 right hand and the clerk will give you
2 another oath at this time.

3 (Oath Given)

4 BY THE COURT: And, Mr. Holiday, we're
5 going to resume, you know, court on Monday.
6 If you were to be selected as a juror in this
7 case, the jury trial, once it is selected, is 8 going to be sequestered. That means you'll 9 be kept together as a group. You'll be put 10 up at a hotel somewhere.

11 So you might want to pack clothes or 12 personal belongings in case you were 13 sequestered so somebody would not have to 14 come and bring items to you at some later
15 point.

16 Also -- and I've told everybody else
17 here so I'm not just picking on or saying
18 this to you. But you cannot bring a cellular
19 phone or any other electronic communication
20 device with you.

21 And also, from now until the jury
22 service is concluded, I'll ask that you do
23 not discuss this case with anyone or among
24 yourselves. Don't listen to anybody else
25 talk about it or communicate in any manner
26 about the case and don't go reading any
27 newspaper articles or Internet articles or
28 any other written form of communication about
29 the case or listen to any radio, television,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 or Internet broadcast about the case.

2 And with that, if you'll be back
3 Monday morning and we'll resume at that time.
4 I appreciate you being here.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, sir. Thank you.

6 (JUROR HOLIDAY LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

7 BY THE COURT: Okay. Before we recess, I
8 want to kind of -- not indicate but seek
9 input and tell you what my thought processes
10 on voir dire are. My thinking right now is 11 that I want to, you know, voir dire the 12 entire group on most issues with the 13 exception, you know, about knowledge of the 14 case because I think that I had -- I think I
15 would prefer not to get into the knowledge
16 about the case until we individually voir
17 dire and also the death issue qualification.

18 So my thinking is that I would voir
19 dire on all issues other than the actual
20 knowledge of the case and the death penalty
21 issue, and then I would let both of you ask
22 questions of the panel about all issues other
23 than those two.

24 And then after we ask questions about
25 all issues other than the death penalty and 26 knowledge of the case, then we would
27 individually voir dire on those issues. And 28 is that a procedure that's acceptable to both 29 of you?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 BY MR. CARTER: It is to me, Your Honor.

2 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: I think that that would --
4 you know, that would prevent someone from 5 blurting out something that does not need to
6 be said in front of everyone else. And, you
7 know, that's the purpose and the thinking
8 behind that so that's the procedure we'll
9 follow.

10 BY MRS. STEINER: If the Court please. I
11 found in today's people coming forward that 12 knowing either one of the victims or
13 Mr. Flowers or his family has been fairly
14 entwined with their discussion of having
15 knowledge of the case. Do you want to defer
16 inquiry about personal relationships, family
17 relationships also into the consuming
18 knowledge of the case or do you want to --

19 BY THE COURT: I think I will ask, you
20 know, everybody because I'm going to go
21 through the names, the victims' list. And
22 also, you know, Ms. Steiner, I'm going to ask
23 on both sides. And then, you know -- but
24 after I do that, if someone says that, you
25 know, that's not going to affect them, then
26 we can individually question them further
27 about that during the -- you know, I'm going
28 to ask them as a group. But also, you know,
29 it might -- because last time we tried the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 case, periodically, we would, you know,
2 excuse different ones for cause that it was
3 obvious that it was no point in continuing to 4 ask questions of somebody, you know, because
5 that just slows it down if somebody on every
6 question stands up and says, Well, that's 7 going to affect me in being a fair and
8 impartial juror. But if we've got, you know,
9 family members of either side and I -- you
10 know, if we don't have some family member of 11 the victims, I'll be surprised because we 12 certainly did last time.

13 But I'm going to ask group questions
14 about that. And then, you know, if it leads 15 to the necessity of individually questioning
16 about issues, then we'll do that. And on all
17 jurors that'll be done that way. I mean, if 18 somebody's spoken that we need to inquire
19 further on when we individually voir dire on 20 those two issues, we'll also take up any
21 other issues that might arise.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Just so I'll understand for 23 sure, Your Honor. The Court's going to go
24 into the possible witnesses and ones like
25 that. Are you saying that you don't want us
26 to follow up on that until individual voir
27 dire?

28 BY THE COURT: No, I'm saying that only --
29 you know, you can ask the questions you would

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE - JURY OUT

1 ordinarily ask, so can the Defense except on
2 the issues of the death penalty and on if
3 they have --

4 BY MR. EVANS: Right. And what they've 5 heard.

6 BY THE COURT: -- knowledge of the case.

7 BY MR. EVANS: All right.

8 BY THE COURT: Because I don't think that
9 any -- you know, any other issues are not
10 going to be such, I think, that somebody
11 might blurt out something that would be
12 prejudicial to either side in the case
13 because that certainly would be the 14 overriding objective is to make sure that
15 someone during voir dire doesn't say anything
16 that would poison the well for anybody.

17 And if there are no other issues,
18 then we'll recess the proceeding until
19 9 o'clock Monday morning.

20 (THE COURT RECESSED PROCEEDINGS FOR THE 21 DAY)

22 (THE FOLLOWING PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD IN
23 OPEN COURT ON JUNE 7, 2010, WITH THE
24 COURT, THE COURT REPORTER, ALL COUNSEL,
25 THE DEFENDANT, THE CIRCUIT COURT CLERK AND 26 ALL PROSPECTIVE JURORS PRESENT, TO-WIT:)

27 (THE ROLE WAS CALLED BY THE CLERK)

28 BY THE COURT: The clerk advised me that 29 we've got a few jurors that did not show up

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1 Friday that need to be qualified. So if
2 you'll all come forward inside the rail and
3 I'll go through the qualifications with you
4 at this time.

5 (PROSPECTIVE JURORS COME FORWARD)

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to go over
7 some jury qualifications with you at this
8 time. You will be answering these questions
9 under oath. The clerk will administer that
10 oath to you at this time. So if you'll all
11 raise your right hands and answer that --
12 take that oath at this time.

13 BY THE CLERK: Do you and each of you
14 solemnly swear or affirm that you will true
15 answers make to all questions propounded to 16 you by the Court or under its direction
17 touching on your qualifications as a juror in 18 the case of State of Mississippi v. Curtis
19 Giovanni Flowers, so help you God?

20 BY THE JURORS: We do.

21 BY THE COURT: In order to be a juror in
22 the State of Mississippi, you've got to meet
23 a number of legal qualifications. There are 24 also some exemptions provided for by law that
25 you've got -- and one of these exemptions
26 might apply to you that could result in you
27 being excused from jury service.

28 If you do not meet one of these
29 qualifications that I go over with you, I

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1 would want you to speak up and let me know
2 that. And also, if one of these exemptions
3 should apply to you, then you could speak up
4 and claim that, and it might result in you
5 being exempt or excused from jury service.

6 You've got to be at least 21 years of
7 age. So is there anyone that was called who
8 is not at least 21 years of age?

9 Also, you have to be a qualified
10 elector of Montgomery County or resident
11 freeholder of the county for more than one
12 year. Once again, either a qualified elector
13 or a resident freeholder of the county for 14 more than one year. So is there any one of 15 you that would not meet that qualification?

16 You could also not serve on a jury if
17 you've been convicted of a felony crime. A
18 felony is a crime that if you were convicted
19 of such, you could receive time in the state
20 penitentiary. Even if you were -- just 21 received a suspended sentence but did not
22 actually serve time in the penitentiary, that 23 would still be a disqualification from 24 serving on a jury. So do I have anybody that 25 would be disqualified because of a previous
26 felony conviction?

27 Also, you could not serve if you were
28 a common gambler or a habitual drunkard. So
29 do I have anybody that's a habitual drunkard

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1 or common gambler here this morning?

2 Also, you must be able to read and
3 write. If you can read that jury
4 questionnaire that was included with your
5 summons and if you were able to fill it out,
6 then you're deemed for purposes of serving on
7 a jury to be able to read and write
8 satisfactorily. So did all of you complete
9 that jury questionnaire that was included
10 with your summons?

11 BY JUROR: (Shaking head).

12 BY THE COURT: Did you see that in the 13 mail?

14 BY JUROR: (Shaking head).

15 BY THE COURT: How did you even know to be 16 here then?

17 BY JUROR: Because someone heard my name
18 Friday.

19 BY THE COURT: Somebody heard your name
20 and called you?

21 BY JUROR: (Nodding head).

22 BY THE COURT: Well, can you read and 23 write?

24 BY JUROR: Yes.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. Also, there's some 26 exemptions provided for by law. I can look
27 at each of you and tell none of you are over 28 age of 65. If you were, that would be an 29 exemption. One day, you might be able to

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1 claim that, but most of you look like you're
2 a long way from that right now.

3 Also, if you had a situation where
4 you had an illness and because of that
5 illness you were not able to serve, then that
6 could result in you being exempt. Do any of 7 you have any situation where you've got some
8 illness that renders you incapable of serving 9 on a jury?

10 Also, if you had a -- yes?

11 BY JUROR: Me. Yes. Diabetes.

12 BY THE COURT: Diabetes. And do you take 13 insulin for that?

14 BY JUROR: I actually take a pill.

15 BY THE COURT: So you take a pill every 16 day for that? And does that affect you in 17 being employed anywhere? Are you employed or 18 are you drawing disability?

19 BY JUROR: Disability.

20 BY THE COURT: So you have been rendered
21 and diagnosed and rendered disabled by a
22 doctor?

23 BY JUROR: Right.

24 BY THE COURT: And are you concerned about 25 this diabetes affecting your ability to 26 function properly as a juror?

27 BY JUROR: I do so.

28 BY THE COURT: And what type of problems
29 do you usually have associated with that?

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1           BY JUROR: Well, stress. And I can't
2 stand too much pressure.

3           BY THE COURT: Are you able to sit for
4 very long or stay still very long?

5           BY JUROR: At times, I do.

6           BY THE COURT: But are you telling me that
7 you feel like your health would be endangered
8 if you were to, you know, be up here because 9 of the diabetic situation?

10          BY JUROR: Well, some.

11          BY THE COURT: Well, I mean, you know, you
12 know more than anybody what your health
13 situation is because I -- you know, none of 14 us obviously do. And I certainly don't want
15 to do anything that's going to endanger your
16 health. So I really need to know how you
17 feel about that. Do you feel like you would 18 have -- run the risk of suffering some health
19 problems if you were to serve?

20          BY JUROR: Well, it's a possibility. I
21 mean, at this time, I don't feel, you know --
22 I don't feel up to it.

23          BY THE COURT: So you feel like you're not
24 feeling well this morning.

25          BY JUROR: Not really.

26          BY THE COURT: And feel like you're just 27 not able to be here?

28          BY JUROR: Well, I'm -- you know, I don't
29 feel well.

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: I'll let you go. What's
2 your name?

3           BY JUROR: Johnny Booker.

4           BY THE COURT: The clerk can excuse you,
5 Mr. Booker.

6                   Also, the next situation is if jury
7 service would cause an undue or extreme
8 physical or financial hardship to you or
9 under someone you provide care or principle
10 means of support to, then that could result
11 in an exemption.

12                   Again, if you were going to have to 13 abandon a person under your personal care or 14 supervision due to the inability of finding 15 appropriate substitute care or if you would
16 incur costs that would have a substantial
17 adverse impact on your ability to pay your
18 necessary daily living expenses or if there
19 would be a possibility of you suffering
20 physical hardship that could result in 21 illness or disease, any of those things -- if 22 any of those things are present, then that
23 could possibly result in you being exempt.
24 Do any of you have any of those issues or 25 situations?

26                   Also, if you were a nursing mother or 27 breastfeeding mother, where you have,
28 obviously, a child small enough to be nursing
29 and you do that, then that could be an

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1 exemption as well. Do I have anybody that
2 has that exemption?

3 Also, if you served as a petit juror
4 within the past two years where you actually
5 sat up here in the jury box and you tried a
6 case or if you served on a grand jury within 7 the past two years, that would be an
8 exemption as well. So do I have anybody that
9 would be exempt for that reason?

10 Okay. Then it seems that each of you
11 meet the qualifications and are not exempt
12 for any reason. So the clerk will come
13 forward now, and we'll administer the oath to
14 you.

15 BY JUROR: Excuse me. I'm relation to the
16 family.

17 BY THE COURT: We'll be getting into those 18 issues later on during the questions process.
19 If there's some conflict with that, then
20 you'll be able to tell us at some later time
21 during the morning.

22 BY JUROR: Okay.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. If you'll raise your 24 right hand.

25 (JURORS SWORN BY THE CLERK)

26 BY THE COURT: And I want to get each of 27 your names, and I'll just add you on. And 28 what is your name?

29 BY JUROR: Najalah.

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1           BY THE COURT: Najalah. And what's your
2 last name?

3           BY JUROR: Cage, c-a-g-e.

4           BY THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Cage, you will
5 be Juror No. 153. And if you'll grab that
6 number and go on and have a seat back there.

7           BY MR. CARTER: What's her name, Your
8 Honor?

9           BY THE COURT: Najalah Cage, c-a-g-e. And 10 then what is your name?

11          BY JUROR: Contrilla, c-o-n-t-r-i-l-l-a.

12          BY THE COURT: You talk faster than I can
13 write. C-o-n --

14          BY JUROR: T-r-i-l-l-a. Alexander.

15          BY THE COURT: And Ms. Alexander, you'll
16 be No. 154. And then what's your name?

17          BY JUROR: Toccara , t-o-c-c-a-r-a, Woods,
18 w-o-o-d-s.

19          BY THE COURT: With an s on the end?

20          BY JUROR: Uh-huh.

21          BY THE COURT: Ms. Woods, you'll be No.
22 155, and they'll give you a card
23 corresponding to that.

24                   And what's your name?

25          BY JUROR: Lawrence McCloud.

26          BY THE COURT: What's the first name
27 again?

28          BY JUROR: Lawrence.

29          BY THE COURT: McCloud?

LATE JUROR QUALIFICATION

1 BY JUROR: (Nodding head).

2 BY THE COURT: Mr. McCloude, if you'll
3 have a seat back there, and you'll be No.
4 156.

5 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, what was
6 Ms. Woods first name?

7 BY THE COURT: Coccara or toc --

8 BY MR. HOWIE: Toccara.

9 BY THE COURT: Coccara.

10 BY MR. HOWIE: T-o-c-c-a-r-a.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. I couldn't get it
12 all.

13 BY MR. CARTER: What was her number?

14 BY MS. STEINER: 155.

15 (OFF RECORD)

16 BY THE COURT: I'll call up now the case
17 of State of Mississippi v. Curtis Giovanni
18 Flowers, Cause Number 2003-0071-CR. What
19 says the State of Mississippi?

20 BY MR. EVANS: The State of Mississippi is 21 ready for trial, Your Honor.

22 BY THE COURT: And what says Defense?

23 BY MR. CARTER: Defense is ready, Your
24 Honor.

25 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen --

26 BY THE BAILIFF: Your Honor --

27 (BAILIFF APPROACHES THE BENCH FOR AN 28 OFF-THE-RECORD DISCUSSION)

29 BY THE BAILIFF: If all our jurors -- if

COURT CALLS UP CAUSE NO. 2003-0071-CR

1 you had a juror sitting beside you and
2 they're not there now, would you let me know?
3 You got one missing? Okay.

4 Okay. We had a couple that went to 5 the restroom.

6 (PAUSE)

7 BY THE BAILIFF: Is there anybody else
8 that had a juror sitting beside you and you
9 know they got up and went to the rest room?
10 Your Honor, they're all here.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and
12 gentlemen, at this time, I need you to raise 13 your right hands and take an oath. So if
14 you'll please stand and raise your right
15 hand. Do you and each of you solemnly swear
16 or affirm that you will give true answers to 17 all questions propounded to you by the Court
18 and the attorneys in the selection of the 19 jury in this case so help you God?

20 (PROSPECTIVE JURORS ANSWER

21 AFFIRMATIVELY)

22 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, if
23 you'll be seated. Let me explain the 24 procedure that we'll be first taking up.
25 That's the procedure that's called voir dire.
26 That's where the Court and the attorneys for 27 both sides ask questions of you to make sure
28 that you can be a fair and impartial juror in 29 this case. There are going to be a number of

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 questions asked. It's going to be a, you
2 know, rather lengthy process.

3 So first of all, I want to say if one
4 of you should need a recess or a break before
5 one happens to be called by the Court, please
6 signal the bailiff or the Court and let us
7 know that. Because certainly, we want
8 your -- you to be taken care of. And so, if
9 you've got any situation where, at any point
10 during this proceeding you need a brief
11 recess, I want to make sure that we take one
12 for you.

13 Also, I want to tell you what this
14 oath is. This is your oath that you will
15 truly answer questions that are asked of you
16 by the Court and by both attorneys -- both
17 sides in this case. There will be some 18 questions that will call for a verbal
19 response from you.

20 If you fail to answer a question that
21 requires a response from you, then that would
22 be considered an untruthful question -- I
23 mean, an untruthful response. So you are 24 answering these questions under penalty of 25 perjury, and I need to remind you of that.
26 And again, I want complete responses from all 27 of you on any question that might be asked of
28 you.

29 It might seem that a question is not

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 important to you, and you think that it's,
2 you know, no point in answering it. But
3 these questions are important or they would
4 not be asked. So again, if a question calls
5 for a response from you, I want you to stand
6 and give us that response, and do not sit on 7 your hands when a response is required from
8 you.

9 I know that sometimes talking out in
10 front of people can be intimidating or a
11 little frightening for you. But just 12 consider yourself among friends up here.
13 There's no wrong answers to any questions
14 that are asked. The only wrong thing to do
15 would be to not respond to a question or to 16 give an untruthful answer to a response.

17 Also, you're going to hear the phrase
18 "fair and impartial jury" throughout these
19 questions, because what we're wanting is a
20 fair and impartial jury. What I mean by fair
21 and impartial jury -- juror is a juror that
22 will get up here in the jury box, will listen
23 to the evidence and will return a verdict
24 based on what the evidence shows to you.

25 A fair and impartial juror is one
26 that will not have any outside influences
27 that have come upon them to cause them to 28 have -- be swayed one way or another, and a
29 fair and impartial juror will not let some

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 family ties or friendships or things that you
2 might have heard outside the courtroom
3 influence your verdict but will, in fact,
4 again, listen to the evidence and base your
5 verdict strictly on the evidence presented
6 here in court and on -- and on nothing else
7 but that. So when I will use the term "fair
8 and impartial juror", that's what I'm
9 referring to when I use that term.

10 I'm going to first begin now by 11 asking you a few questions about the 12 attorneys that are involved in the case. The 13 State of Mississippi is represented by 14 Honorable Doug Evans, Honorable Clyde Hill,
15 and Honorable Mike Howie. These are the 16 people that will be representing the State's 17 case to you today -- well, throughout the 18 course of the trial.

19 Honorable Alison Steiner and
20 Honorable Ray Charles Carter are representing 21 Mr. Flowers in this case, and they will be
22 defending him and presenting his case
23 throughout the course of the proceedings.

24 So I'll ask you first a few questions
25 about these attorneys whose names I have just 26 called. I want to know if any of you are 27 related by blood or by marriage to any of the 28 attorneys that are involved in this case that 29 is called up for trial. Are any of you

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 related by blood or marriage to Mr. Evans,
2 Mr. Hill, Mr. Howie, Ms. Steiner or Mr.
3 Carter? And I take it by your silence that
4 none of you have a situation where you're
5 related by blood or by marriage to any of the
6 attorneys that are involved in this case.

7 I want to know if any of you have a
8 situation where any one of these attorneys
9 have represented you in some legal
10 proceeding. Has Mr. Evans, Mr. Hill,
11 Mr. Howie, Ms. Steiner or Mr. Carter ever
12 done any legal work for you or represented
13 you in any capacity? And I take it again by 14 your silence that that is not the situation
15 and you have not had.

16 I want to know kind of the reverse
17 thing now. Have any of you ever been on -- 18 well, yeah. Have any of you ever been on the 19 opposite side of a case in which one of these 20 attorneys might have been involved; that is,
21 has Mr. Hill, Mr. Evans, Mr. Howie,
22 Mr. Carter or Ms. Steiner ever opposed you in 23 some legal proceeding where you were on one
24 side of the proceeding and they were on the 25 other side of a proceeding? And again, I
26 take it by your silence that none of you have 27 had that situation, either.

28 The last question -- I'm sorry. If 29 you'll please stand.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1       BY THE COURT:

2           Q     And you're Juror No. -- hold your
3     card where we can see that number -- No. 55.

4           And Ms. Bartlett, what is that situation?

5           A     I was -- (Juror No. 55, Christina
6     Bartlett)

7           Q     You're placed on nonadjudication for
8     something; is that correct?

9           A     Right. (Juror No. 55, Christina Bartlett)

10          Q     What county was that done in?

11          A     Montgomery.

12          Q     And were one of these lawyers or was the 13     district attorney's office prosecuting that?

14          A     Yes.

15          Q     And would that influence you in being a
16     fair and impartial juror?

17          A     No.

18          Q     And would you tend to either favor the 19     State's side or be opposed to the State's side in 20     this case because of that?

21          A     Neither.

22          Q     So you will be completely fair to both 23     sides and not have that be a factor at all in 24     your -- if you were to sit on the jury; is that
25     correct?

26          A     Yes, sir.

27          Q     Okay. Thank you.

28                 Yes, ma'am. No. 153, Ms. Cage. And what 29     is that situation?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     I currently have charges right now that
2 the State is -- (Juror No. 153, Toccara Cage)

3           Q     So what county is that in?

4           A     Montgomery County.

5           Q     And has that case gone to trial?

6           A     Not yet.

7           Q     So -- but you are under indictment?

8           A     Correct.

9           Q     And what is that charge?

10          A     It's four charges actually --

11          Q     What type charge?

12          A     Accessory after the fact, conspiracy to 13 commit perjury, burglary and -- well, three in 14 Montgomery County, one in Oktibbeha County.

15          Q     And then where is the other one?

16          A     The fourth one is in Oktibbeha County.

17          Q     Okay. Now would these factors influence
18 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
19 juror?

20          A     Possibly.

21          Q     So you're concerned that because of these 22 pending charges, that might influence you or affect 23 you, in fact, in being fair to both sides; is that
24 correct?

25          A     Correct.

26          Q     Okay. Thank you.

27                   And No. 4. And you're Ms. Johnson?

28          A     Yes. (Juror No. 4, Patricia Johnson)

29          Q     And what is that situation?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     My house was burglarized.

2           Q     And was someone prosecuted for that?

3           A     Yes.

4           Q     And was that prosecution handled by the
5     current district attorney's office?

6           A     Yes, sir.

7           Q     And is there anything about that that
8     would influence you or affect you in any way in this
9     case?

10          A     No, sir.

11          Q     So you would not let the fact that they
12     prosecuted somebody that committed a crime against 13     you influence you at all; is that correct?

14          A     No, sir.

15          Q     Okay. Thank you.

16                 Anyone else that would have any situations
17     like those that I have just gone over with these
18     individuals?

19                 Ladies and gentlemen, I want to know if 20     any of you are related by blood or by marriage to 21     anyone that currently serves in law enforcement. I
22     also want to know if you are related by blood or by 23     marriage to any person that has at any point in the 24     past served in law enforcement. Also, if any of you
25     presently or in the past served in law enforcement.
26     Any of those factors occur, if you'll please stand,
27     and we'll get some information from you.

28                 And if you'll kind of hold your fan
29     forward so I can kind of see those numbers.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1                   And No. 2, Ms. Harris, I believe you said
2                   on your questionnaire that you had a brother-in-law
3                   that was a police officer in Grenada?

4                   A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 2, Christy Anna
5                   Harris)

6                   Q     Do you have any other relatives in law
7                   enforcement beside that?

8                   A     No, sir.

9                   Q     And who is this individual, the 10                  brother-in-law?

11                  A     Ron Gregg. Ron Gregg.

12                  Q     Ron Gregg. And would the fact that
13                  Mr. Gregg is related to you, would that influence
14                  you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
15                  juror in this case just strictly because you have a
16                  relative in law enforcement?

17                  A     No, sir.

18                  Q     Thank you.

19                         Then Ms. Johnson -- let's see. You are 20                  kin to Bruce Patridge -- and Bruce Abel Patridge and 21                  then another, Earl Wayne, who's deceased. And then 22                  Clint Walker is your former son-in-law. Are 23                  those -- or do you have any other relatives in law
24                  enforcement?

25                  A     No. But I need to make a comment.

26                  Q     Yes, ma'am.

27                  A     My ex-brother-in-law -- I mean, my
28                  ex-son-in-law was a police officer on the Winona
29                  Police Department at the time of the crime. (Juror

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 No. 4, Patricia Johnson)

2 Q Okay. And that was before he went with 3 MBN?

4 A Right.

5 Q And would that factor influence -- would
6 any of those factors or situations where you've got
7 relatives in law enforcement, would any of that
8 influence you or affect you in being a fair and
9 impartial juror in this case?

10 A No, sir.

11 Q And you'll just base your decision only on 12 the evidence presented in court; is that correct?

13 A Right.

14 Q Thank you. Okay. And then, No. 7. Who 15 is it that you've got that's a relative in law
16 enforcement?

17 A My daughter. (Juror No. 7, Jack Sykes)

18 Q And where does she work?

19 A She is the deputy director for the 20 National Forestry over at Sardis.

21 Q Say that again?

22 A She is the deputy director of Noxubee
23 Refuge --

24 Q Okay. Noxubee Refuge. And she serves in 25 law enforcement capacity with them?

26 A Right.

27 Q Would that -- that's over several counties
28 away from here. Would that influence you or affect 29 you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 in this case?

2 A No, it would not.

3 Q Okay. Thank you.

4 Then No. 10. And what is that situation?

5 A My cousin -- my husband's cousin, David
6 Johnson, used to be. He's retired. (Juror No. 10,
7 Patricia Jefcoat)

8 Q And I would assume probably that John
9 Johnson would --

10 A No.

11 Q -- opposite. So John's not, but David is;
12 is that correct?

13 A Right.

14 Q And would that influence you or affect you
15 in any way --

16 A No, sir.

17 Q -- in being a fair and impartial juror?

18 A No, sir.

19 Q Okay. Thank you.

20 Then No. 12, Ms. Johnson, and you said
21 your father serves as a law enforcement officer in 22 New Orleans and in Brookhaven?

23 A He's deceased now. (Juror No. 12, Janelle
24 Johnson)

25 Q Well, do you have any other relatives that
26 would have served in law enforcement in the past?

27 A No.

28 Q And would that -- the fact that you're the 29 daughter of someone that served in law enforcement,

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 would that influence you or be a factor in you being
2 a fair and impartial juror in this case?

3 A No.

4 Q Okay. Thank you. And then No. 13,
5 Mr. Woods. And you worked at one time in the 6 Montgomery County Sheriff's Office?

7 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 13, Michael Woods)

8 Q And for the record, what time frame was
9 that?

10 A 2000 -- late 2002 to December 07'.
11 December 31, 07.

12 Q And are you currently employed in law
13 enforcement capacity?

14 A No.

15 Q And would the fact that you were a deputy 16 here for a while, would that influence you or affect 17 you in being a fair and impartial juror in the case?

18 A I'm afraid I would go toward the State.

19 Q So have you learned some stuff, I guess,
20 through your capacity that would influence you and 21 cause you to question your ability to be fair and
22 impartial?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q Okay. Thank you. You may be seated.
25 And No. 14. And you've got a family
26 member, Mr. Carruth, that's a guard over at 27 Parchman. Is that correct?

28 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 14, Carolyn Wright)

29 Q Do you have any other relatives in law

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 enforcement?

2           A     No.

3           Q     And would the fact that Mr. Carruth is 4 related to you, would that influence you or affect
5 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
6 case?

7           A     No, sir.

8           Q     And how is -- how is it you're related to 9 Mr. Carruth?

10          A     That's my uncle.

11          Q     Uncle?

12          A     (Nodding head).

13          Q     And then number -- you can be seated now.

14                 Then No. 15, Ms. Forrest. And I believe
15 you said maybe Mr. Daniels with the Winona Police
16 Department?

17          A     That's my nephew. (Juror No. 15, Gloria
18 Forrest)

19          Q     Nephew? And how long has he been with 20 them? Do you know?

21          A     I think about two years.

22          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
23 in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

24          A     No.

25          Q     Okay. Thank you. And then No. 18,
26 Ms. Laney.

27          A     My father was a constable, and my cousin
28 is a constable -- Jerry Dale Bridges. (Juror No. 18, 29 Lillie Laney)

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Q Okay. When was your father a constable?

2 A Oh, when I was child.

3 Q A child?

4 A Uh-huh.

5 Q And then Mr. Bridges is currently a
6 constable.

7 A He is.

8 Q Would those factors influence you or
9 affect you at all in being a fair and impartial
10 juror in this case?

11 A No, sir.

12 Q Okay. Thank you. And then No. 19,
13 Ms. Eldridge. And who is it you would be related
14 to?

15 A My brother-in-law is chief of police in 16 Kilmichael -- David Eldridge. (Juror No. 19, Merrian
17 Eldridge)

18 Q And would the fact that David Eldridge is 19 your brother-in-law, would that influence you or 20 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
21 juror?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay. Thank you. Then No. 26,
24 Ms. Chatham, what is that situation?

25 A My fiance works over at the 26 Carroll/Montgomery jail. (Juror No. 26, Jennifer
27 Chatham)

28 Q And that's Mr. Gilliland?

29 A Yes, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Q And is he a guard over there?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And how long has he worked there?

4 A For five years.

5 Q And would that be a factor or influence
6 you if you were sitting as a juror in this case?

7 A No, sir.

8 Q Okay. Thank you.

9 And then Ms. Briggs, I believe you said
10 your husband formerly worked for Memphis Police
11 Department; is that correct?

12 A Yes, sir, it is. (Juror No. 27, Judy
13 Briggs)

14 Q And what is his name?

15 A Spencer Briggs.

16 Q And would that influence you or affect you
17 in any way in being a fair and impartial juror in
18 this case?

19 A No, that would not.

20 Q And do you have any other relatives that
21 would be in law enforcement?

22 A Yes, I do.

23 Q And who are they?

24 A My stepson is current a police officer
25 with the Memphis Police Department.

26 Q And anyone else?

27 A No. But I would like to say that in the 28 late '80s, I worked for the Mississippi Attorney
29 General's Office, Department of Civil Litigation

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 where the Mississippi Department of Corrections was
2 my client. And that might have some influence in my
3 decision making in this case.

4 Q So are you concerned that those -- your
5 previous employment would affect you in some
6 capacity in being a fair and impartial juror?

7 A Yes, I am.

8 Q Okay. Thank you.

9 And No. 28, Ms. Vance. And you've got a
10 brother that's a parole officer in Biloxi. Is
11 that --

12 A He was, about five or six years ago.

13 (Juror No. 28, Terri Vance)

14 Q Okay. Former parole officer. Have you
15 got any other relatives in law enforcement?

16 A No.

17 Q And would that influence you or affect you
18 at all in being a fair and impartial juror in this
19 case?

20 A No.

21 Q Okay. Thank you.

22 And then No. 29. Mr. Waller, you're kin
23 to -- who is it with the Winona Police Department?

24 A My wife's nephew. (Juror No. 29, Harold 25 Waller)

26 Q And who is it --

27 A Billy Nix.

28 Q Billy Nix. And would that influence you
29 or affect you in any way in being a fair and

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 impartial juror in this case?

2           A     No. Also, Bubba Nix is my wife's cousin,
3 too -- the sheriff.

4           Q     Okay. So Bubba's -- so Billy's her
5 nephew?

6           A     Right.

7           Q     And Bubba is her cousin?

8           A     Right.

9           Q     And would any of those factors -- either
10 of those factors influence you at all --

11          A     No, sir.

12          Q     -- in being a fair and impartial juror?

13          A     No, sir.

14          Q     Okay. Thank you.

15                 And then, Mr. Whitfield. And you've got
16 Dan Herod; is that correct?

17          A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 30, Jeffrey
18 Whitfield)

19          Q     And works for DUI enforcement with the
20 county?

21          A     Yes, sir.

22          Q     How is it you're related to him?

23          A     He's a brother-in-law.

24          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
25 at all in being a fair and impartial juror in this
26 case?

27          A     No, sir.

28          Q     Okay. Thank you.

29                 BY THE COUR REPORTER: Judge Loper, was it

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Dan Herod?

2 BY THE COURT: Yeah. Dan Herod; right?

3 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: H-e-r-o-d.

5 BY THE COURT:

6 Q And then No. 31, Ms. Flowers. And you've 7 listed Earnest Manual as a state trooper that's your
8 uncle. Is that --

9 A Yes, sir. He's retired now. (Juror No.
10 31, Votrice Huffin)

11 Q Do you have any other -- ma'am?

12 A He's retired now.

13 Q Okay. Retired trooper?

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q And do you have any other relatives that 16 are currently serving in law enforcement capacity?

17 A No.

18 Q And would the fact that your uncle is a
19 retired trooper, would that influence you or affect 20 you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror
21 in this case?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay. Thank you.

24 And then No. 36, I believe you said your
25 wife is currently employed by EOC. Is that correct?

26 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 36, Arthur Knight)

27 Q And do you have any other relatives that 28 would be involved in law enforcement?

29 A Yes, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Q And who are they?

2 A Tommy Bibbs.

3 Q What's the name?

4 A Tommy Bibbs.

5 Q Okay. And how are you related to

6 Mr. Bibbs?

7 A Through my father. My father and his
8 father.

9 Q Okay. And you're -- Mr. Bibbs, for the 10 record, works for the Winona Police Department?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q And would that factor or the fact that 13 your wife works for EOC, would either of those 14 influence you or affect you at all in being a fair
15 and impartial juror in this case?

16 A It might.

17 Q So you've got some doubts because of their
18 employment about being fair and impartial?

19 A Well, because of my wife, it's family
20 connections.

21 Q Okay. Now, who is she family with?

22 A Well, Curtis. (Juror No. 36, Arthur
23 Knight)

24 Q Mr. Flowers. And how is she related to
25 him?

26 A She's his cousin.

27 Q Cousin to Mr. Flowers?

28 A Uh-huh.

29 Q And so are you saying that would influence

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 you or be a factor in you being a fair and impartial
2 juror in this case?

3       A     It possibly would. One of the victims was 4 my cousin.

5       Q     And who was -- which one was that?

6       A     Robert Golden.

7       Q     Robert Golden was your cousin?

8       A     Yes, sir.

9       Q     So -- and you're saying these factors
10 because of your -- how close kin were you to 11 Mr. Golden?

12       A     Well, pretty close. We was -- he finished
13 school with my brother. Then we went to church and 14 stuff together. We all grew up together.

15       Q     Okay. And all these factors combined you
16 feel like would influence you where you couldn't be
17 fair and impartial?

18       A     It -- it probably would.

19       Q     Okay. Thank you.

20                (THE BAILIFF APPROACHES THE BENCH FOR 21 AN OFF-THE-RECORD DISCUSSION)

22       BY THE COURT: The bailiff just advised me
23 we've got about four people that maybe need
24 to step out to the restroom. If you're not 25 one that's presently standing up or if I've 26 already got your response, then if you need
27 to step out to the restroom for a second,
28 then you may do so while I'm getting
29 responses from these other individuals so....

VOIR DIRE - COURT

(PROSPECTIVE JURORS STAND UP)

1
2 BY THE COURT: Well, only those that I --
3 that are not holding the card and standing
4 up.

5 That's more than a couple. Why don't
6 we just go ahead -- you know, some of you --
7 the rest of you that are standing may have 8 the same situation, and so you might have to 9 go in a minute, you know, so let me just
10 recess until maybe 10:30.

11 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, PROCEEDINGS
12 CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT, TO-WIT:)

13 BY THE COURT: We were asking questions of 14 about any of you that were related by blood
15 or marriage to persons who serve in law
16 enforcement. And so those of you who we have 17 not gotten a response back from or hadn't
18 gotten to talk to you, if you'll please stand
19 back up, and we'll resume.

20 Okay. And what is your -- hold those
21 numbers up. It's amazing how -- and No. 5,
22 are you holding your number up?

23 BY JUROR: (Shaking head).

24 BY THE COURT:

25 Q Okay. That's fine. I just want to make
26 sure because, as I say I want to get complete
27 responses from everyone.

28 Okay. Mr. Fielder, what is the situation?
29 You work for Montgomery County as a reserve deputy;

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 is that correct?

2           A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 42, Marcus Fielder)

3           Q     And do you still do that that --

4           A     No, sir.

5           Q     -- or was that something that was done in 6 the past?

7           A     Did it in the past.

8           Q     And what years was that?

9           A     2004 to 2007.

10          Q     Was that when Sheriff Thornburg was the 11 sheriff?

12          A     Yes, sir.

13          Q     And would that factor influence you or
14 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
15 juror in this case?

16          A     No, sir.

17          Q     And do you have any other relatives in law
18 enforcement?

19          A     No, sir.

20          Q     Okay. Or -- presently or in the past?

21          A     No, sir.

22          Q     Okay. Thank you. And then No. 47,
23 Ms. Davis. And what is that situation?

24          A     In 2000, I was contracted by the federal 25 prison in Yazoo City to take x-rays as an 26 x-ray technologist for nine months. (Juror No. 47,
27 Bobbi Davis)

28          Q     So you were in and out of the federal 29 prison over there during that timeframe?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     (Nodding head).

2           Q     And is that anything that would influence
3 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
4 juror in this case?

5           A     No.

6           Q     Okay. Thank you.

7                   Then No. 54, Ms. Box. Let's see. Tell us
8 who you're related to.

9           A     My grandfather used to be chief of police.
10 (Juror No. 54, Patricia Box)

11          Q     And that was Mr. Halloway?

12          A     (Nodding head).

13          Q     And that's been at some point in the past?

14          A     Long time ago.

15          Q     And then Mr. Joiner, chief of police in 16 Lexington, how is he kin to you?

17          A     He's my brother-in-law.

18          Q     Brother-in-law? And would those factors
19 influence you or affect you in any way in being a
20 fair and impartial juror in this case?

21          A     No, sir.

22          Q     And do you have anybody else besides those
23 that you're related to?

24          A     No, sir.

25          Q     Okay. Thank you.

26                   And No. 55, Ms. Bartlett. And who is it
27 you're related to in law enforcement?

28          A     My father-in-law was special agent for the 29 State Tax Commission but he retired in May. (Juror

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 No. 55, Christina Bartlett)

2 Q And would that influence you or be a
3 factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in
4 this case?

5 A No.

6 Q Thank you. And No. 58, your father is
7 auxillary police officer in Grenada; is this
8 correct?

9 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 58, Emily Branch)

10 Q And that's Chris Branch?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Do you have any other relatives in law
13 enforcement?

14 A No, sir.

15 Q Would that influence you or affect you in 16 any way in being a fair and impartial juror in this
17 case?

18 A No, sir.

19 Q Thank you.

20 Then No. 61, how is it you're related to 21 Chuck McIntyre, former deputy here?

22 A That's my father. (Juror No. 61, Chad
23 McIntyre)

24 Q Okay. And would that influence you or
25 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
26 juror in this case?

27 A Yes, sir.

28 Q And I know he was a deputy during the time
29 frame when this would have occurred. And so have

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 you heard things that have caused you to form an
2 opinion as to guilt or innocence?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q And could you lay that aside or do you
5 have a fixed opinion that could not be set aside?

6 A (Shaking head).

7 Q You could not set it aside?

8 A (Shaking head).

9 Q Okay. Thank you, Mr. McIntyre.

10 No. 67, Mr. Amason. And it's says Glen
11 Amason was your --

12 A Cousin. (Juror No. 67, Timothy Amason)

13 Q How -- cousin? And he worked for several 14 years here. I'm trying to remember the years.

15 A When Mr. Thornburg --

16 Q Okay. Under Sheriff Thornburg. And would 17 that influence you or affect you in being a fair and
18 impartial juror in this case?

19 A No, sir.

20 Q And any other relationships in law
21 enforcement?

22 A My wife has a couple of cousins. One was 23 John Johnson. The other was David Johnson.

24 Q And would that influence you or affect you
25 in -- any of these to be fair and impartial?

26 A It wouldn't affect me.

27 Q Okay. Thank you.

28 And then Ms. Ray, who is that --

29 A Before he retired, my husband was a 911

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 dispatcher for Montgomery County. (Juror No. 68,
2 Julia Ray)

3 Q And how long ago was that?

4 A He's been retired about two years now.

5 Q And would that influence you or be a
6 factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in
7 this case?

8 A No, sir.

9 Q Okay. Thank you, Ms. Ray.

10 And then No. 73, Mr. Varnes?

11 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 73, Richard Varnes)

12 Q And did you work for Winona police?

13 A Montgomery County.

14 Q Montgomery County?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q And how long ago was that?

17 A I believe it was like '06, '07, somewhere
18 along in there. It was two -- two trials ago.

19 Q And then, you've got a nephew that works
20 part time now?

21 A Used to.

22 Q And who was your nephew?

23 A Jamie. Jamie Varnes.

24 Q Would any of those factors influence you
25 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
26 this case?

27 A Well, I escorted Mr. Flowers two trials
28 ago.

29 Q So you're familiar with him. Has that

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 caused you to form any opinions about the case?

2 A Hearing some of the case --

3 Q Okay. I don't want to know what you
4 heard, but I'll just --

5 A I was just say, you know, hearing some of 6 --

7 Q So you feel like you could not set that
8 aside and base your verdict only on the evidence?

9 A No, sir.

10 Q Okay. Thank you.

11 And No. 80, Ms. Simmons. Billy Brister.
12 And how is he related?

13 A First cousins. (Juror No. 80, Brenda 14 Simmons)

15 Q And then he was also a state trooper; is 16 that -- I mean, former state trooper?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q And then Mr. Earl Patridge?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q How was he related to you?

21 A He's like my fourth or fifth cousin, but 22 he's deceased.

23 Q Okay. And is he the --

24 A He was sheriff of Montgomery County in the 25 '60s.

26 Q Okay. And would these family ties
27 influence you or affect you in being a fair and
28 impartial juror?

29 A No, sir. No, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Q Okay. Thank you.

2 And then No. 81, Ms. Hodges. And who is
3 it you would be related to?

4 A My husband is the county attorney in
5 Montgomery County, Lane Greenlee. (Juror No. 81,
6 Rebecca Hodges)

7 Q And would that influence you or affect you
8 in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

9 A I think it probably would.

10 Q So you gathered things -- and could you
11 lay those aside or have you pretty much got --

12 A I don't know that I could.

13 Q So you've got doubts about whether you
14 could be fair, then?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Okay. Thank you.

17 And then No. 82, Mr. Tompkins. Former
18 Sheriff Tompkins was a cousin; is that correct?

19 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 82, Kenneth Tompkins)

20 Q And do you got any -- have you got anybody
21 else that you could be -- would be related to that 22 was in law enforcement?

23 A I got a cousin that's a conservation
24 officer.

25 Q And where does he work?

26 A Montgomery County.

27 Q And would those factors influence you or
28 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
29 this case?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     Those factors probably wouldn't. There
2 are other factors.

3           Q     Okay. We'll get into other things later.

4                     And then Mr. Cross, you used to work for 5 the sheriff's department in several places. Is that
6 correct?

7           A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 84, Phillip Cross)

8           Q     And are you involved in law enforcement in 9 any capacity now?

10          A     No.

11          Q     Would those previous employments influence 12 you or affect you in way in being a fair and
13 impartial juror?

14          A     The only part of that is me and Benji
15 Rigby started off at the same time.

16          Q     Okay. And we'll get into those issues a
17 little bit later.

18                     And No. 87, Ms. Locke, and who is it that 19 you -- who is it that you would be related to?

20          A     I hope I'm not speaking out of turn. For 21 two months in 2005, I worked for Delta Correctional 22 Facility as a registered nurse. I really didn't
23 think about -- I didn't feel I worked for law
24 enforcement. (Juror No. 87, Beverly Locke)

25          Q     Right. But you worked at a prison --

26          A     Yes, I did.

27          Q     Is there anything about that that would
28 influence you or affect you in being a fair and
29 impartial juror?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     No, sir.

2           Q     Okay. Thank you. And I appreciate you
3 bringing that up.

4                     And then Mr. Hayes, what relationship do
5 you have with somebody in law enforcement?

6           A     Myself. (Juror No. 88, Alphonso Hayes)

7           Q     Okay. And you're in the Army National 8 Guard?

9           A     Yes, sir.

10          Q     And are you an MP?

11          A     Oh, no, sir. But I did MP work. But I
12 work for Grenada County on -- as a security guard in
13 '07 and '08.

14          Q     And was that -- were you working for a 15 private company or was that for the county or the 16 city?

17          A     It was -- yes. It was a privately-owned
18 jail. Grenada County.

19          Q     Okay. At the correctional facility up
20 there?

21          A     Yes, sir.

22          Q     And would those factors influence you or
23 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
24 this case?

25          A     Yes, sir.

26          Q     So you feel like because you've been in 27 law enforcement, worked at the jail, that you just 28 couldn't sit in judgment and be fair; is that
29 correct?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     Yes, sir.

2           Q     Thank you.

3                   No. 93, Ms. Pearson. Who is that that you
4 would be related to?

5           A     My third cousin works for the Kilmichael
6 Police Department. (Juror No. 93, Majorie Pearson)

7           Q     And who is that?

8           A     Jeremy McDaniel.

9           Q     And any others?

10          A     No.

11          Q     And would those factors influence you or
12 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
13 juror in this case?

14          A     No.

15          Q     They would not?

16          A     No.

17          Q     Okay. Thank you.

18                   And then -- then I see, Ms. Acy, you're 19 related to the same individual; is that correct?

20          A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 94, Melissa Acy)

21          Q     Jeremy McDaniel with Kilmichael Police?

22          A     Yes, sir.

23          Q     And that's your nephew? Would that
24 influence you or affect you in any way in being a
25 fair and impartial juror in this case?

26          A     No.

27          Q     Okay. Thank you. Then No. 95. And 28 Ms. Crawford, I don't see that we got any 29 questionnaire back from you at all so I'm going to

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 ask a couple of questions of you that probably
2 others answered. Do you mind telling us your age?

3 A 28. (Juror No. 95, Leslie Crawford)

4 Q 28? And who is it you are related to?

5 A Johnny Hargrove and Anthony Austin.

6 Q Okay. Chief Hargrove. And then who else?

7 A Anthony Austin.

8 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Did she say
9 Austin?

10 BY THE COURT: Anthony Austin; right?

11 A Uh-huh.

12 BY THE COURT:

13 Q And any others in law enforcement?

14 A No, sir.

15 Q And how are you related to Mr. Hargrove?

16 A He is my second cousin.

17 Q And how about Mr. Austin?

18 A Second cousin.

19 Q And anybody else?

20 A No, sir.

21 Q And would those factors influence you or
22 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
23 this case?

24 A No, sir.

25 Q Okay. Thank you.

26 And then No. 106, Ms. Swindoll. And
27 you're related to Avlis that works for the Oxford
28 Police Department; is that correct?

29 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 106, Jennifer)

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Swindoll)

2 Q Do you have any other relatives in law
3 enforcement?

4 A I don't believe so.

5 Q As far as you know you don't?

6 A As far as I know.

7 Q Would the fact that you are related -- how 8 are you related to Mr. Swindoll that works in 9 Oxford?

10 A He's my second cousin.

11 Q And would that influence you or affect you
12 in being a fair and impartial juror?

13 A No, sir.

14 Q Okay. Thank you. And then --

15 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Wait, Judge Loper,
16 what was his name that she was related to?

17 BY THE COURT: Alvis. Was that a-v-l-i-s?

18 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

19 BY THE COURT: Swindoll?

20 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Arvis. I believe he works
23 with MBN.

24 BY THE COURT: Arvis. Okay.

25 BY THE COURT:

26 Q And then Mr. Golding, who is it you are
27 related to?

28 A Erwin Patridge, Bruce Patridge. They're 29 all distant cousins. (Juror No. 107, William

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Golding)

2 BY THE COURT REPORTER: I didn't get the
3 names. Can you say them again, please? What
4 were the names?

5 BY JUROR: Erwin Patridge, Bruce Patridge.

6 BY THE COURT:

7 Q And they were retired troopers, is that --
8 and then I think Bruce also worked for the deputy
9 sheriff of Montgomery -- I mean, in Grenada for a 10 while?

11 A And then also an uncle -- cousin, parole
12 officer for the state, T.D. Golding and Talmadge
13 Golding. (Juror No. 107, William Golding)

14 Q Would those factors influence you or
15 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
16 this case?

17 A No.

18 Q Thank you. Is it Surrell or Surrell --

19 A Surrell. (Juror No. 108, Matthew Surrell)

20 Q And your grandfather worked for Winona
21 Police Department at one time?

22 A Years ago.

23 Q And is there anybody else in your family
24 that you're --

25 A No, sir.

26 Q -- related to as far as you know? Would 27 that influence you or affect you be in being a fair
28 and impartial juror in this case?

29 A No, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     Okay. Thank you.

2                     And then No. 111, Mr. Jones. And who is
3 it you are related to?

4           A     Myself.     (Juror No. 111, Brooks Jones)

5           Q     Okay. I see up there now you work for the 6 Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks; is that
7 correct?

8           A     Yes, sir.

9           Q     And are you what we used to call a game
10 warden?

11          A     That's correct.

12          Q     I think it's conservation officer now
13 but --

14          A     Among other things.

15          Q     Yeah. I imagine you've been called a lot.
16 And how long have you been in that capacity,
17 Mr. Jones?

18          A     25 years.

19          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
20 in any way in being a fair and impartial juror in
21 this case?

22          A     No, sir.

23          Q     Okay. Thank you. Then Mr. Daniels, and 24 you said you got a nephew that works for the Winona
25 police?

26          A     Yes, sir.     (Juror No. 112, L.D. Daniels)

27          Q     And who is that nephew?

28          A     Rashawn Daniels, Rashawn Daniels.

29          Q     Okay. Rashawn Daniels? And how is it

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1       you're --

2           A       It's my nephew.

3           Q       Nephew? And would -- and how long has he
4       been employed -- do you know -- with them?

5           A       Approximately two years.

6           Q       Two years. And would that influence you
7       or be a factor in you being a fair and impartial
8       juror?

9           A       No, sir.

10          Q       Okay. Thank you.

11                   Then No. 115, you're Ms. Smith. And James
12       Williams is your nephew. Is that correct?

13          A       Yes, sir.       (Juror No. 115, Polly Smith)

14          Q       And then Ellis Bevis, the probation
15       officer.

16          A       Yes, sir.

17          Q       And anybody else?

18          A       No, sir.

19          Q       And would those factors influence you or
20       affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
21       this case?

22          A       No, sir.

23          Q       Okay. Thank you.

24                   And then, Mr. Bennett, let's see,
25       you're -- you were a part-time police officer for --
26       was that the city or county?

27          A       City and the county two years ago.   (Juror 28       No. 120, Steven Bennett)

29          Q       Okay. And do you still work -- do you now

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 work for Kilmichael?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And is that part time or full-time?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q Part time?

6 A (Nodding head).

7 Q And then have you -- and you've got a
8 brother, Matthew, that works for the sheriff's 9 department currently?

10 A He works at Vaiden --

11 Q Okay. Vaiden? Did he work here at one
12 time?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q And how long ago was that that he worked
15 here? Do you know?

16 A Probably '04, '06, somewhere in there.

17 Q Okay. And would the fact that you served
18 in law enforcement part time and also you've had a
19 brother that -- well, brother that currently does,
20 would that influence you or affect you in being a
21 fair and impartial juror in this case?

22 A No, sir. I want also add that I
23 transported Mr. Flowers one time in a previous trial
24 in '07.

25 Q And has that caused you to form an
26 opinion --

27 A No, sir.

28 Q -- of any kind? And would that factor
29 influence you at all in being a fair juror in this

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 case?

2 A No, sir.

3 Q Okay. Thank you.

4 No. 123, Ms. Sledge, and who is that?

5 A My brother. (Juror No. 123, Sheila
6 Sledge)

7 Q And who is that?

8 A Gage Wayne Vance.

9 Q What's the name?

10 A Gage Wayne Vance. He's with the Ole Miss
11 Police Department.

12 BY THE COURT REPORTER: With which
13 department?

14 BY JUROR: Ole Miss.

15 BY THE COURT:

16 Q And is he still working in that capacity?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q And how is it you said you're related to 19 Mr. Vance?

20 A He's my brother.

21 Q Brother. Okay. And would that be a
22 factor or influence you at all in being a fair and
23 impartial juror in this case?

24 A No, sir.

25 Q Okay. Thank you.

26 Then Ms. Britt. And say Bennie Chamblee
27 is an auxillary deputy at different times in the 28 past few years?

29 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 124, Martha Britt)

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Q And how are you related to Mr. Chamblee?

2 A He's my brother-in-law.

3 Q And would that -- have you got anybody
4 else related?

5 A My niece is married to a highway patrolman
6 in Grenada County, Cole Adams.

7 Q And would those factors influence you or
8 affect you at all in being a fair and impartial
9 juror in the case?

10 A No, sir.

11 Q Okay. Thank you.

12 Mr. Britt. And you've got two cousins
13 that are deputies in Grenada. Is that correct?

14 A Right. (Juror No. 126, Curtis Britt)

15 Q And who are they?

16 A They were Albert and Robert Britt. That's 17 been 20 years ago. They're not --

18 Q Okay. So they worked in the past?

19 A They did in the past. I just thought I
20 would tell you, too: I was a security guard for 21 state security, but it wasn't law enforcement.

22 Q And would any of these factors influence
23 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
24 juror in this case?

25 A No, sir.

26 Q Okay. Thank you, Mr. Britt.

27 Mr. Campbell. And you're related to 28 Mr. Young, who's worked for the Montgomery Sheriff's 29 department. And how are you related to Mr. Young?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     Second cousin.   (Juror No. 127, Don
2 Campbell)

3           Q     And do you have any other relatives in law
4 enforcement?

5           A     Governor Young.

6           Q     Who?

7           A     Governor Young. Governor Young.

8           Q     Okay. And where does he work?

9           A     Winona Police Department.

10          Q     Okay. For the Winona Police Department?
11 And would those factors influence you or affect you
12 in any way in being a fair and impartial juror?

13          A     No, sir.

14          Q     Okay. Thank you.

15                 And then Mr. Moore, who is it you would be
16 related to?

17          A     My son.           (Juror No. 128, Herman Moore)

18          Q     And where does he work?

19          A     He's one of those correctional officers at 20 Grenada -- I mean, Leflore County schools.

21          Q     So he works over at Greenwood?

22          A     Yes, sir.

23          Q     Greenwood/Leflore?

24          A     Yes, sir.

25          Q     And what is his name?

26          A     Herman Moore, Jr.

27          Q     Okay. And would that influence you or
28 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
29 this case?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     No, sir.

2           Q     Okay. Thank you.

3                   Ms. Eldridge, and who is it you're related
4 to?

5           A     My father was an auxillary policeman but
6 that's back in the 60's. And David Eldridge is my 7 brother-in-law.   (Juror No. 129, Elizabeth Eldridge)

8           Q     And he's over at Kilmichael?

9           A     Yes.

10          Q     And chief over there, I believe. Right?

11          A     Yes.

12          Q     Would that influence you or affect you in 13 any way in being a fair and impartial juror?

14          A     That wouldn't. But I currently work for 15 county prosecuting attorney, Lane Greenlee, and that 16 would.

17          Q     So you've had things come through your 18 office that would -- you're concerned would affect
19 you in being a fair and impartial juror --

20          A     Yes, sir.

21          Q     -- because of your capacity of working for 22 the county prosecutor. Is that correct?

23          A     Yes.

24          Q     Okay. Thank you.

25                   And then No. 132, Mr. Bridges. And how 26 are you -- how are you related to Jerry Dale
27 bridges?

28          A     Yes, sir.   (Juror No. 132, Marvin
29 Bridges)

TRIAL COURT # : 2003-0071-CR

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Q How are you related to him?

2 A Cousin. Also related to conservation
3 officer, Brooks Jones.

4 Q And who is that now?

5 A Conservation officer Brooks.

6 Q Oh, okay. And how are you y'all related?

7 A Cousin.

8 Q Would either of those factors influence
9 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
10 juror in this case?

11 A No, sir.

12 Q Okay. Thank you. And then 139,
13 Mr. Briggs. And you're a retired police officer.
14 Is that correct?

15 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 139, Spencer
16 Briggs)

17 Q And how long -- and that was in Memphis?

18 A Yes.

19 Q How long ago was that?

20 A 2004.

21 Q Oh, you retired in 2004? And you've got a
22 son that -- that works up there now as a police
23 officer?

24 A (Nodding head).

25 Q And would those factors influence you or
26 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
27 juror in this case?

28 A Yes, sir.

29 Q So you're concerned about being a former

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 police officer that would -- you think it would just
2 influence you?

3       A     Yeah. I've been involved in homicide and,
4 you know, I testified and apprehended people that
5 were wanted for homicide. It would affect me.

6       Q     Okay. Thank you.

7               And then No. 144, Mr. Forrest. And now,
8 you got relatives working for the Winona Police
9 Department.

10       A     I do. (Juror No. 144, Theo Ware Forrest)

11       Q     Who are they?

12       A     Hickory Bennett and Melvin Knight. And I
13 also have a nephew-in-law that works down at the 14 Carroll/Montgomery County Correctional facility,
15 Mr. Jeffrey Carver.

16       Q     Jeff -- what's his name?

17       A     Jeffrey Carver.

18       Q     And how are you related to these
19 individuals?

20       A     Hickory is my second cousin. Melvin is my 21 second cousin, and Jeff is married to my niece.

22       Q     Okay. And would those factors influence
23 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
24 juror in this case?

25       A     Those as well as others that you're not --
26 those and other factors that you're not dealing with 27 --

28       Q     Okay. We'll get to these other factors
29 later. But just right now, just by having relatives

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 in law enforcement alone, would that influence you
2 where you couldn't be fair and impartial?

3 A No, not that.

4 Q Okay. As I say, we're gonna -- we're just
5 starting. There are going to be a lot of questions
6 that are going to be asked, and you'll have a -- and
7 all of you will have issues to be addressed later.
8 But right now, we're just strictly on this
9 particular issue.

10 And then Ms. Ingram, you're related to --
11 now, who are you related to?

12 A The sheriff, Bubba Nix, is my uncle.

13 (Juror No. 145, Jennifer Ingram)

14 Q Okay. And how are you related -- you're 15 his niece?

16 A (Nodding head).

17 Q And would that influence you or affect you
18 in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

19 A No, sir.

20 Q And then the Nix that works at Winona
21 police department, are you related to him, too?

22 A No, sir.

23 Q Anybody else you're related to in law
24 enforcement?

25 A No.

26 Q And then, ma'am, I cannot see. No. 147,
27 Ms. Ringold. Who are you related to in law
28 enforcement?

29 A Chief. Chief. (Juror No. 147, Maxine

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Ringold)

2 Q Chief Hargrove?

3 A Uh-huh.

4 Q And how are you related to him?

5 A My cousin.

6 Q And anybody else?

7 A That's all.

8 Q And would that influence you or affect you
9 at all in being a fair and impartial juror in this
10 case?

11 A No, sir.

12 Q Okay. Thank you. And then Mr. Holiday,
13 you work for Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks?

14 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 149, David Holiday)

15 Q Is that correct? And any other relatives
16 or relations in law enforcement?

17 A No.

18 Q And would the fact that you work as a
19 conservation officer, would that influence you or
20 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
21 this case?

22 A No, sir.

23 Q Okay. Thank you.

24 Then No. 153, Ms. Cage. And who is it
25 that you're related to?

26 A I worked for the Winona Police Department
27 in 2008. (Juror No. 153, Najala Cage)

28 Q Would there be anything about that that 29 would influence you or affect you in being a fair

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 and impartial juror?

2           A     No.

3           Q     Okay. Thank you. Then Ms. Alexander,
4 what is --

5           A     I have an uncle that's a retired state
6 trooper.     (Juror No. 154, Contrilla Alexander)

7           Q     And what was his name?

8           A     Earnest Manual. Earnest Manual.

9           Q     Okay. Earnest Manual? And would those 10 factors influence you or affect you in being a fair
11 and impartial juror?

12          A     No, sir.

13          Q     And then No. 156, Mr. McCloud?

14          A     I got a cousin, Michael Parnell, highway
15 patrolman.   (Juror No. 156, Lawrence McCloud)

16          Q     And who is that again?

17          A     Michael Parnell.

18          Q     Michael, okay. And would that influence
19 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
20 jury?

21          A     No.

22          Q     And no -- I'm sorry. Ms. Jones, No. 53.

23          A     I don't think Mr. Young was in the 24 courtroom when you asked that question about do you
25 have anybody in law enforcement, but I think I'm
26 related to him.

27          Q     Related to who?

28          A     Mr. Young.     (Juror No. 53, Flancie Jones)

29          Q     Oh, okay. Y'all might be some distant

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1	kin?
---	------

2       A     Well, I can't explain it.

3       Q     Well, let me just ask you this:

4 || Ms. Jones, would that influence you or at all --

5                      A                      No .

6 Q -- in being a fair juror in this case?

7	A	No.
---	----------	-----

8 Q Okay. Thank you.

9 And then No. 11 is Ms. Rodgers?

10           A       Yes. I have a brother that is a park 11 ranger at Parker Butler Lake.   (Juror No. 11, Melba
12 Rodgers)

13 Q And where is that now?

14      A      Parker Butler Lake.

15 Q Okay. And where is that located?

16       A     He lives in Senatobia --

17 Q Okay. Up that way. Up north of us. And 18 would that influence you or be a factor in being a
19 fair and impartial juror in this case?

20                      A                      No.

21 Q Okay. Thank you.

22 Do I have anybody else -- and I -- you
23 know, I know some of you listed on the questionnaire
24 that you had relatives in law enforcement. But even 25 if you listed that and you have not stood up or 26 spoken up now, I want you to do that. So do I have 27 anybody that has got some relative in law
28 enforcement who has not spoken up at this point?

29 And that would be No. 65, Ms. Woods. And

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 who would that be?

2           A     Anthony Austin. Married to my niece.

3           (Juror No. 65, Juanita Woods)

4           Q     Anthony Austin?

5           A     Uh-huh.

6           Q     And married to your niece?

7           A     Uh-huh.

8           Q     And how is it you're related to Mr. -- to 9 Mr. Austin -- I mean, you said that. I'm sorry. It
10 was your neice married to him?

11          A     Uh-huh.

12          Q     Would that influence you or affect you in 13 any way in being a fair and impartial juror in this
14 case?

15          A     (Shaking head).

16          Q     Okay. Thank you. Anyone else, that 17 again, we have not got a -- okay.

18                 Then Ms. Griffin, I believe -- did you
19 speak up -- you've got somebody that -- Tommy Wolf,
20 was he a --

21          A     He's deceased.   (Juror NO. 5, Carol
22 Griffin)

23          Q     Okay. But he was in law enforcement?

24          A     He was a constable probably in the early
25 70s.

26          Q     Okay. And was that -- were you married to 27 him at one time?

28          A     I was.

29          Q     And would that influence you or affect you

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 in any way in being a fair and impartial juror?

2       A     Not at all.

3       Q     Okay. And then Mr. Eskridge, No. 34,
4 Calvin Eskridge is -- where's No. 34, if you'll
5 stand. And is Calvin Eskridge your son?

6       A     Yes, sir.   (Juror No. 34, John Eskridge)

7       Q     And he works for Duck Hill?

8       A     Well, used to.

9       Q     Used to? Would the fact that he's 10 formerly employed as police in Duck Hill influence
11 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
12 juror?

13      A     No, sir.

14      Q     Okay. Thank you.

15             And then Jessie Lee Crawford, where -- if 16 you'll -- now, you're -- do you have anybody that's 17 been in law enforcement in your --

18      A     Not in Mississippi. I had the son in 19 Tennessee.   (Juror No. 33, Jessie Lee Crawford)

20      Q     Son in Tennessee? And what capacity --
21 was he a law officer over there?

22      A     Policeman.

23      Q     Police in Tennessee? And would that
24 influence you or affect you in being a fair and
25 impartial juror?

26      A     No, sir.

27      Q     Okay. Thank you.

28             And then Ms. Tompkins, who -- you've got 29 somebody that was in -- husband retired. Where is

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Ms. Regina Tompkins, No. 89?

2 BY THE CLERK: She is not here.

3 BY THE COURT: Oh, okay. She's in the
4 hospital. She's the one that's not here
5 today. I can see why she didn't speak up.

6 Now, ladies and gentlemen, an
7 indictment -- and we're here today because an
8 indictment was handed down by the grand jury
9 of this county. An indictment is the means
10 by which a case is brought to you for trial.
11 You determine the guilt or innocence of 12 Mr. Flowers. You do that based on the 13 evidence presented in court.

14 The fact that there was an indictment
15 in this case is not an indication of his
16 guilt or innocence. It's just strictly a
17 formal charge that gets to court for you to 18 decide guilt or innocence. And you're not to 19 consider the fact that there was an
20 indictment, but you're to base your decision
21 only on the evidence as presented here in
22 court.

23 So is there anyone of you that could
24 not disregard the fact that there was an 25 indictment and base your decision only on the 26 evidence presented here in court? Is there
27 anyone of you that could not disregard the 28 fact that there was an indictment and base
29 your decision only on the evidence presented

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 here in court?

2 And I take it by your silence you're
3 assuring me that you will base your decision
4 strictly on the evidence presented here in
5 court.

6 Now the burden of proof is on the 7 State of Mississippi. They must prove
8 Mr. Flowers guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
9 He's not required to prove his innocence.
10 He's not required to offer any proof at all,
11 if he chose not to. So is there any one of 12 you that disagrees with the burden of proof,
13 thinks it should be different from that in 14 which it is or thinks it should be less of 15 the standard than that of beyond a reasonable
16 doubt?

17 So I take it by your silence each of 18 you are assuring me you do understand the 19 burden of proof, understand that it's on the 20 State of Mississippi and that that burden is 21 beyond a reasonable doubt.

22 Now, ladies and gentlemen, I'm going
23 to give you now a brief overview of the type
24 case that is before you. Mr. Flowers is 25 charged with the crime of capital murder.
26 It's charged that on or about the 16th day of 27 July, 1996, in this county and within the 28 jurisdiction of this Court, that he did
29 willfully, unlawfully, feloniously and either

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 with or without the deliberate design to
2 effect death, kill and murder Bertha Tardy,
3 Robert L. Golden, Carmen Rigby, and Derrick
4 Stewart. And that he did so while engaged in 5 the commission of the felony crime of armed
6 robbery. So again, he's charged with capital
7 murder related or arising from a charge that
8 he was committing a robbery at that time.

9 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, may we
10 approach?

11 (ALL COUNSEL APPROACH THE BENCH FOR A
12 CONFERENCE HELD OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE
13 PROSPECTIVE JURORS, TO-WIT:)

14 BY MS. STEINER: I really can't remember
15 if we've done this by prior motion, but I
16 don't know how extensive you're going to go
17 into specific facts in the voir dire, but I
18 would move to invoke the rule with respect to 19 any fact witnesses who might be in the 20 courtroom at this time during voir dire on 21 the specific facts.

22 BY MR. EVANS: On what basis?

23 BY MS. STEINER: I'm just invoking the 24 rule.

25 BY THE COURT: Well, I'd say it's fine to 26 get any fact witnesses on out of here. I
27 don't see any reason for any fact witnesses
28 to be in here at this point. Because you
29 know, there's no useful purpose served by any

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 fact witness being in here so that will be
2 fine.

3 BY MR. EVANS: I would ask that any
4 defense fact witnesses --

5 BY THE COURT: Well, any defense fact
6 witnesses -- it's going to apply --

7 BY MR. EVANS: I don't know if there's 8 any.

9 BY MS. STEINER: And I think -- I think
10 we've also agreed in the past that people who
11 are (inaudible) --

12 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Ms. Steiner, I
13 can't hear you.

14 BY MS. STEINER: Oh. I think we've also 15 agreed in the past that people who are going
16 to be penalty phase/victim impact or defense
17 witnesses, they can't remain in the
18 courtroom.

19 BY MR. EVANS: I don't think it's any 20 difference in one or the other. But if the 21 judge wants us to get the fact witnesses out,
22 I have no problem with it.

23 BY MS. STEINER: Okay. Thank you.

24 BY THE COURT: Well, let's just get any 25 fact witnesses out at this point.

26 BY MR. EVANS: I don't know what the best
27 way to do that.

28 BY THE COURT: I'll just announce that --

29 BY MR. EVANS: Any witnesses --

VOIR DIRE - COURT
(BENCH CONFERENCE CONCLUDED)

1
2 BY THE COURT: If there is anybody that's
3 called as a witness that's under subpoena, if 4 you'll kind of make your way forward and let
5 us know. If I've got anybody that's actually
6 subpoenaed as a witness in this case that's
7 in the courtroom? And if you'll come
8 forward. If you're actually subpoenaed as a
9 witness, if you'll come forward and they'll
10 just show you out to this witness room.

11 BY MS. STEINER: For the record, who are 12 these witnesses?

13 BY THE COURT: Ma'am, what is your name?

14 BY WITNESS: Patricia Sullivan Odom.

15 BY THE COURT: Okay. Patricia Sullivan
16 Odom. And I know Mr. Jennings just --

17 (WITNESSES LEAVE THE COURTROOM)

18 BY THE COURT: Now, ladies and gentlemen,
19 I'm now going to start asking a few questions
20 concerning the parties involved in the 21 proceedings.

22 Are any of you related by blood or by
23 marriage to Curtis Flowers? Any of you
24 related by blood or by marriage to Mr.
25 Flowers? If you are, if you'll please stand
26 at this time. If you'll kind of hold those 27 cards up where I can see your numbers.

28 Mr. Sims, how you related to Mr.
29 Flowers? That would be Juror 21.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     My wife is his cousin.   (Juror No. 21,
2     Larry Sims)

3           Q     And do you know how close of kin that 4     would be?

5           A     Second or third.

6           Q     Second or third? Do you have an ongoing
7     family relationship with Mr. Flowers' family
8     members?

9           A     No. But you know. No.

10          Q     And would the fact that your wife is his 11     cousin, would that influence you or be a factor in 12     you being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

13          A     Yes, sir, it would.

14          Q     So you've got some -- so you just feel 15     like you could not be fair and impartial because of 16     that family tie?

17          A     No, I couldn't.

18          Q     Okay. Thank you.

19                   And Mr. Blaylock. I'm sorry. I was 20     looking at 23 and calling 22.

21                   Mr. Russell, how are you related to Mr.
22     Flowers?

23          A     Cousins.   (Juror No. 23, Anthony Russell)

24          Q     And do you know how close of cousin that 25     is?

26          A     Not sure. I just found out recently.

27          Q     And do you have an ongoing family
28     relationship with his family members or see them --

29          A     Yes, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     -- or anything? And you see them at 2 reunions or family gatherings or things like that?

3           A     Yeah.

4           Q     And would that influence you or affect you
5 in being a fair and impartial juror?

6           A     Yes, it would.

7           Q     And you just feel like because of that,
8 you couldn't sit in judgment of your cousin?

9           A     No, I couldn't.

10          Q     Okay. Thank you.

11                No. 31, this is -- your last name is 12 Ms. Flowers; correct?

13          A     Yes, sir.     (Juror No. 31, Votrice Roshell 14 Huffin Flowers)

15          Q     And how are you related to Mr. Curtis
16 Flowers?

17          A     He's my brother-in-law.

18          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
19 in being a fair and impartial juror?

20          A     No, it wouldn't. But I do have ongoing
21 relationships with his brother.

22          Q     And you're married to which one of his 23 brothers?

24          A     Archie Flowers.

25          Q     Archie?

26          A     Jr.

27          Q     Archie, Jr.?

28          A     (Nodding head).

29          Q     And so you're swearing under oath that the

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 fact that you're his sister-in-law would not
2 influence you and would not come about or cause you
3 any difficulty in being a fair and impartial juror.
4 Is that correct?

5       A     No, that wouldn't. But being that I'm
6 married to his brother, it may -- it may influence
7 me, yes.

8       Q     So then that would be an influence?

9       A     Yes.

10       Q     And that could be a factor and influence
11 you; is that correct?

12       A     It could be.

13       Q     And then No. 33, Mr. Crawford. How are 14 you related?

15       A     My son had a child by his sister.

16       (Juror No. 33 Jessie Crawford)

17       Q     Okay. So your son and his sister have a
18 baby together?

19       A     Yeah.

20       Q     And what is Mr. Flower's sister's name?

21       A     Huh?

22       Q     What is his sister's name that your son's
23 got a child with?

24       A     All I know is Rat. I don't know.

25       Q     But you know that is Mr. Flower's sister,
26 though?

27       A     Yes.

28       Q     Would that influence you or affect you in
29 any way in being a fair and impartial juror in this

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 case?

2           A     Probably would.

3           Q     And so you've got -- so is there -- so
4 there's doubts in your mind about whether you could
5 be fair because of that?

6           A     Yes, sir.

7           Q     Okay. Thank you.

8                   And then No. 36, Mr. Knight. And I
9 believe you had said a few minutes ago you were 10 married to Mr. Flowers' cousin?

11           A     Yes, sir.     (Juror No. 36, Arthur Knight)

12           Q     And then you also were close cousin of 13 Mr. Golden?

14           A     Yes, sir.

15           Q     Or I mean, cousin and close to him. And 16 because of those factors, I believe you already said
17 you just feel like you could not be fair and
18 impartial; is that correct?

19           A     Yes, sir.

20           Q     Okay. Thank you. Then No. 37, Ms. Julia
21 Campbell?

22           A     Yes.     (Juror No. 37, Julia Campbell)

23           Q     How are you related to --

24           A     We're related by my mother, on her side of 25 the people.

26           Q     And would -- would you be a cousin or do
27 you know --

28           A     Cousin.

29           Q     A cousin to Mr. Flowers?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     Uh-huh.

2           Q     And would that influence you or affect you
3 in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

4           A     Yes, it would.

5           Q     And so you just feel like you could not
6 serve in judgment because of that?

7           A     Right.

8           Q     Okay. Thank you.

9                     And then No. 46, Mr. Daniels?

10          A     Yes.     (Juror No. 46, James Daniels)

11          Q     And how -- are you related to Mr. Flowers?

12          A     Third cousin on his father's side.

13          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
14 in being a fair and impartial juror?

15          A     Yes. Me and his family are real close.

16          Q     And you -- I believe you said you worked
17 with his brother and sister at Anel?

18          A     Right.

19          Q     Is that correct?

20          A     True.

21          Q     And you also knew Mr. Golden maybe?

22          A     Well, his brother. Yes.

23          Q     Oh, you knew Mr. Golden's brother?

24          A     Me and Mr. Golden worked together.

25          Q     Okay. Robert Golden?

26          A     Right.

27          Q     And would -- would -- and so you're saying
28 all those factors combined would influence you and 29 you just feel like you couldn't be fair and

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 impartial; is that correct?

2           A     Correct.

3           Q     Okay. Thank you.

4                   No. 52, Mr. Henry Campbell, how are you
5 related?

6           A     My cousin on my mother's side.   (Juror No.
7 52, Henry Campbell)

8           Q     Your cousin on your mother's side?

9           A     Right.

10          Q     Would that influence you or be a factor in
11 you being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

12          A     Yes. Because I work every day with his
13 sister.

14          Q     Okay. And what is his sister's name?

15          A     Priscilla. Priscilla.

16          Q     Okay. And you feel like with you being a 17 cousin and also working with his sister, you just 18 couldn't be fair and impartial; is that correct?

19          A     Right.

20          Q     Okay. Thank you.

21                   And then Ms. -- is this Ms. -- yeah -- Ms.
22 Jones, how are you related to Mr. Flowers?

23          A     Last time I was here the courts made me
24 aware that he is my sister-in-law's sister's son.

25                   (Juror No. 53, Flancie Jones)

26          Q     Sister-in-law's sister's son. And would 27 that influence you at all in being a fair and
28 impartial juror in this case?

29          A     (Shaking head).

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     So you could base your decision on the
2 evidence and that type connection wouldn't influence
3 you; is that correct?

4           A     It wouldn't influence me.

5           Q     Okay. Thank you. No. 86? Ms. Green, how
6 are you related to Mr. Flowers?

7           A     Cousin.   (Juror No. 86, Carlean Green)

8           Q     And do you know how close cousin?

9           A     Distant.

10          Q     Distant?

11          A     Uh-huh.

12          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
13 in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

14          A     Yes.

15          Q     And so you feel like because of your
16 family connection there, you just could not be fair
17 and impartial; is that correct?

18          A     Correct.

19          Q     Okay. Thank you.

20                 And then Mr. Hayes, what is that family
21 connection?

22          A     Cousin. Cousin. Also, my neighbor.

23                 (Juror No. 88, Alphonso Hayes)

24          Q     Does Archie, his daddy, live close to you
25 or --

26          A     Right by my grandmother's.

27          Q     Next to your grandmother? And are you
28 saying that those family ties and connections and 29 close proximity to his parents would influence you

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 where you could not be fair and impartial?

2           A     Yes, sir.

3           Q     Okay. Thank you.

4                   Then No. 97, Mr. Brandon Flowers. And is
5 Curtis your uncle?

6           A     Yes, sir.     (Juror No. 97, Brandon
7 Flowers)

8           Q     And whose son are you?

9           A     Archie.

10          Q     Archie, Jr.'s?

11          A     Yes, sir.

12          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
13 in being a fair and impartial juror?

14          A     Yes, sir.

15          Q     Okay. Thank you.

16                   And then, let's see, No. 109, Eddie
17 Flowers. And Mr. Flowers, how are you related to 18 Curtis Flowers?

19          A     Cousin.     (Juror No. 109, Eddie Flowers)

20          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
21 in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

22          A     Yes, sir.

23          Q     Thank you.

24                   No. 113, Ms. Magee, how is it you're
25 related to Mr. Flowers?

26          A     Actually, my brother was -- used to date
27 his sister Priscilla.     (Juror No. 113, Sylrhonda 28 Magee)

29          Q     Okay. Your brother dated Curtis's sister?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     Uh-huh. Priscilla.

2           Q     And did you on occasion have a chance to
3 know Mr. Flowers because of that --

4           A     Yeah. Really, it's mostly his sister,
5 Priscilla, that I really knew.

6           Q     So you got --

7           A     I knew of him, but I didn't know much
8 about him.

9           Q     But you knew Priscilla more?

10          A     Right. Right.

11          Q     And would the fact that you knew Priscilla
12 through that capacity where she was dating your
13 brother, would that influence you or affect you
14 where you could not be fair and impartial to both
15 sides in this case?

16          A     Yes, sir, I could and it would.

17          Q     Okay. Thank you.

18                   And then No. 140, Ms. Sutton, and how do
19 you -- how is it you're related to Mr. Flowers?

20          A     Cousins.     (Juror No. 140, Shanta Sutton)

21          Q     Do you know how -- what degree of kinship
22 that would be?

23          A     (Shaking head).

24          Q     Just a cousin, though? And would that
25 influence you or affect you in being a fair and
26 impartial juror in this case?

27          A     Yes, sir.

28          Q     So you feel like because of him being your 29 cousin, you just could not be fair; is that correct?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     Yes, sir.

2           Q     Okay. Thank you.

3                   And then, Ms. Stacy Forrest Black, No.

4     150. And how is it that you're related to

5     Mr. Flowers?

6           A     He's my third or fourth cousin.   (Juror
7     No. 150, Stacy Black)

8           Q     And would that influence you or affect you
9     in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

10          A     Yes, it would.

11          Q     And so you just feel like you could not
12     sit in judgment or be fair because of that?

13          A     I could not.

14          Q     Okay. Thank you.

15                   And then Ms. Alexander, how are you
16     related?

17          A     My cousin is married to his brother.
18     (Juror No. 154, Contrilla Alexander)

19          Q     And which brother?

20          A     Archie.

21          Q     Okay. And this lady up here would be your 22     cousin, then; is that correct?

23          A     Yes, sir.

24          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
25     in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

26          A     No, sir.

27          Q     So you could be fair and impartial even
28     though that connection exists; is that correct?

29          A     Yes, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     Okay. Thank you. And then No. 155,
2     Ms. Woods?

3           A     He's my cousin.     (Juror No. 155, Toccara
4     Woods)

5           Q     Curtis is your cousin?

6           A     Uh-huh.

7           Q     And do you know how close?

8           A     He's about my third or fourth.

9           Q     Third or fourth? And would that influence
10    you or affect you in being a fair juror in this
11    case?

12          A     Uh-huh.

13          Q     It --

14                 BY MR. CARTER: What was the answer?

15                 BY JUROR: It would.

16                 BY THE COURT: It would. So you're just 17    saying you couldn't be fair and impartial
18    because of being related to him?

19          A     (Shaking head).

20          Q     Okay. Thank you.

21                 And then No. 156, Mr. McCloud, and 22    you're --

23          A     I married his first cousin. (Juror No.
24    156, Lawrence McCloud)

25          Q     Married to Curtis' first cousin?

26          A     Yes, sir.

27          Q     And would that influence you or affect you
28    in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

29          A     Yes, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     And are you saying you just couldn't sit
2 in judgment of him because of that?

3           A     No, sir.

4           Q     Okay. Thank you.

5                     Now, other than those that are related to
6 Mr. Flowers, because you've already answered about
7 knowing him because of being related to him. But I
8 want to know now if any of you that have not spoken
9 up just know Mr. Flowers. You know when you walked
10 in, you knew him or you have known him in the past
11 at all. So any of you that have not spoken up as to 12 being somehow related to him, if you just know
13 Mr. Flowers, if you'll please stand now.

14                    And Ms. Johnson, how do you know Mr.
15 Flowers?     (Juror No. 4, Patricia Johnson)

16           A     Well, of course, I recognized his picture,
17 but I have heard my deceased father talk about the 18 fact that he lived on our farm when he was a small
19 child.

20           Q     Okay. So Mr. Flowers worked -- or maybe
21 his family rented --

22           A     His family --

23           Q     -- some property there --

24           A     Yes. I have heard my father talk about 25 that before he died.

26           Q     And is there anything about that factor
27 that would influence you or affect you in being a
28 fair and impartial juror in this case?

29           A     No, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     Thank you. And then Ms. Griffin?

2           A     Curtis is a former student of mine. I was
3 his junior high english teacher.     (Juror No. 5,
4 Carol Griffin)

5           Q     And would that influence you or affect you
6 in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

7           A     Not at all.

8           Q     Okay. Thank you. And then Mr. Trotter?

9           A     Yes. I knew him from back in the day.
10 (Juror No. 6, Glenn Trotter)

11          Q     Well, were y'all like -- go to school or 12 friends or anything -- I mean, just -- you just knew
13 who he was?

14          A     Just who he was.

15          Q     And were you friends with him or anything?

16          A     Some -- yeah. I just see him, you know --
17 I'd just speak and see him.

18          Q     Excuse me?

19          A     I would just speak when I see him.

20          Q     Y'all spoke when you saw each other?

21          A     Yes, sir.

22          Q     And do you see his family, any of his 23 family now or anything?

24          A     No, sir.

25          Q     Would the fact that you've kind of known
26 him in the past and, you know, knew him back in the 27 day, would that influence you or affect you in 28 anyway at all in being a fair and impartial juror?

29          A     No, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     Okay. And then No. 7, Mr. Sykes. And how
2 was it you knew Mr. Flowers?

3           A     I just know him -- know him. I know his
4 brother. I know his daddy. And his sister worked
5 for me, Priscilla.     (Juror No. 7, Jack Sykes)

6           Q     And his sister worked for you where?

7           A     At Anel. I was her supervisor.

8           Q     And on -- did you just know Mr. Flowers --

9           A     I just know -- knew him.

10          Q     -- you know, when you just saw him or --

11          A     I just knew him when I saw him.

12          Q     But you know some of his relatives maybe
13 --

14          A     I knew his daddy and his brother. Knew
15 his daddy well.

16          Q     Knew his father well?

17          A     Yeah.

18          Q     Would those factors influence you or
19 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
20 juror in this case?

21          A     No.

22          Q     Okay. Thank you. And then, Ms. Rodgers,
23 how is it you would know him?

24          A     I -- Mr. Flowers worked at what was called
25 at the time Morris Recycling or Morris Brothers
26 Metals in Elliot, and I also worked there. He was 27 employed maybe two weeks.     (Juror No. 11, Melba
28 Rodgers)

29          Q     And is there anything about knowing him in

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 that capacity that would influence you or affect you
2 in any way in being a fair and impartial juror in
3 this case?

4       A     No, sir. We did not work together, but he
5 did work there.

6       Q     Worked for the same company that you were
7 employed by.

8       A     And one of his attorneys came by a couple
9 of years ago and got his personnel -- got a copy of 10 his personnel file.

11       Q     And would that factor influence you at all
12 in being a fair and impartial juror?

13       A     No.

14       Q     Is that one of the lawyers here or was 15 that somebody else?

16       A     I think it's this lady over here --

17       Q     Okay. But somebody -- but that wouldn't 18 influence you in any way?

19       A     No.

20       Q     Okay. Thank you. And then, Mr. Woods,
21 you knew Mr. Flowers?

22       A     I transported him several times during --

23       Q     When you were working --

24       A     -- '04, yes, sir. I did mention that 25 earlier. (Juror No. 13, Michael Woods)

26       Q     And I believe you already said because of 27 you being employed as deputy sheriff in the past,
28 you could not be fair and impartial; is that
29 correct?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     Yes, sir.

2           Q     Okay. Thank you.

3                   And then Ms. Gloria Forrest, No. 15, how 4 is it that you know him?

5           A     I been knowing Curtis and his family all
6 my life. We was like down the street from each
7 other.   (Juror No. 15, Gloria Forrest)

8           Q     Live close to each other?

9           A     (Nodding head).

10          Q     And do you still see Mr. Flowers's family
11 members, any of them?

12          A     Yes.

13          Q     And like his daddy Archie. And do you see 14 --

15          A     His brother.

16          Q     Brother?

17          A     Mother.

18          Q     Mother? I'm sorry.

19          A     Yes.

20          Q     And do you still live in the same
21 neighborhood that they live in --

22          A     No.

23          Q     Y'all no longer live close to each other?

24          A     No.

25          Q     And would that factor influence you or
26 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
27 this case?

28          A     I guess, because of the fact that I been 29 knowing him for so long and somewhat, but I think I

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 can be fair.

2 Q So you would lay those aside and just base
3 your decision only on the evidence and not let these
4 family --

5 A Only on the evidence.

6 Q Ma'am?

7 A Only on the evidence.

8 Q Okay. Thank you.

9 And No. 16, Mr. Curry. And how do you
10 know Mr. Flowers?

11 A Well, I went to school with him. He was a
12 little younger, but I went to school with him. I
13 remember him in high school, and we used to kind of 14 play in the neighborhood and the community. And 15 also, I work with his sister Priscilla now. (Juror
16 No. 16, Charles Curry)

17 Q And you and her work at Luvata. Is
18 that --

19 A Luvata.

20 Q Luvata? Is that the same as Anel?

21 A No. No, Your Honor.

22 Q Oh, okay.

23 BY MR. EVANS: ADP, I think is --

24 BY THE COURT:

25 Q I get confused. Some of these factory
26 names and employed places. But would these factors
27 influence you or affect you in any way in being a
28 fair and impartial juror in this case?

29 A No, it would not.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     And if you were to find Mr. Flowers
2 guilty, would you feel ill at ease going back around
3 and working with his sister?

4           A     Possibly, yes.

5           Q     So you'd feel kind of like you might owe
6 her some reason for how you had ruled? Or feel like
7 y'all might have a discussion about it?

8           A     It's a possibility.

9           Q     Okay. Thank you.

10                And -- okay. No. 24, Ms. Melinda
11 Kirkwood. And now what is that situation with
12 Mr. Flowers?

13           A     I worked with -- and his family at 14 Richardson Brothers.     (Juror No. 24, Malinda
15 Kirkwood)

16           Q     At where?

17           A     Richardson Brothers. And I also know him
18 from singing, mostly following my uncle with Melody
19 Kings from Greenwood.

20           Q     You followed your uncle where?

21           A     I used to follow my uncle. He was the 22 lead singer for Melody Kings in Greenwood. I used
23 to be around him all the time.

24           Q     So you work at Richardson Brothers. And 25 do you work -- did you work with him and his 26 parents?

27           A     Him and his brothers -- his brother and 28 his sister and his cousin.

29                BY THE COURT REPORTER: What was the name

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 of the singing group you said you followed?

2 BY JUROR: The Melody Kings of Greenwood.

3 BY THE COURT:

4 Q And would those factors influence you or
5 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
6 this case?

7 A Yes, they would.

8 Q So you just feel like you could not be
9 fair and impartial because of all those factors?

10 A Right.

11 Q Okay. Thank you. Okay. No. 43. And 12 Ms. Young, how do you know Mr. Flowers?

13 A I don't know Mr. Flowers personally, but I
14 do know his father and sister. I work with his 15 sister at Angelica. (Juror No. 43, Rita Young)

16 Q And which sister was that?

17 A I can't think of her name right now. She 18 might be the second sister. I -- I can't remember
19 her name.

20 Q And then you worked with or you know
21 Mr. Archie Flowers, Sr.?

22 A Yes, I do.

23 Q How do you know him?

24 A I know him from singing. From singing.

25 Q Okay. Have you heard him sing s or sang
26 with him or --

27 A Yes, I heard him sing.

28 Q You've heard him sing?

29 A Uh-huh.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     And would the fact that you worked with
2 his sister in the past and that you know Mr. Archie
3 Flowers, would those factors influence you or affect
4 you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror
5 in this case?

6           A     Yes, it would.

7           Q     So those would influence you to the extent
8 you just couldn't be fair and impartial; is that
9 correct?

10          A     Yes, sir.

11          Q     Okay. Thank you. Then Ms. Burnside. And 12 how do you know Mr. Flowers?

13          A     When he was younger, he was friends with 14 my boys, and they used to play ball and stuff
15 together so he visited my house.   (Juror No. 45,
16 Edith Burnside)

17          Q     So he's visited in your home before and 18 was friends with your boys?

19          A     Yes, sir.

20          Q     And do you have any -- you know, ever see
21 any of his family members now or anything?

22          A     Every now and then. I don't.

23          Q     And would the fact that he played with 24 your children growing up and he would visit in your 25 home in the past, would that influence you or affect 26 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
27 case?

28          A     No, sir, it wouldn't.

29          Q     So you would lay that aside and your

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 opinion would be based only on the evidence; is that
2 correct?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. Thank you. And then -- I'm sorry.
5 Ms. Givens, No. 41. And how do you know Mr.
6 Flowers?

7 A I'm related to the Golden man. (Juror No.
8 41, Margaret Givens)

9 Q Related --

10 A To the Golden man.

11 Q Okay. You were related to Robert Golden?

12 A Uh-huh.

13 Q And how were you related to Mr. Golden?

14 A First cousins.

15 Q First cousins? And do you have any 16 knowledge of Mr. Flowers other than the fact that he 17 was charged with murdering Mr. Golden? Is that how 18 you knew of Mr. Flowers?

19 A No, Your Honor.

20 Q Okay. Well, did you know Mr. Flowers
21 before this incident occurred or allegedly occurred?

22 A I been knowing him for a long time, but I
23 don't fool with him.

24 Q Okay. But you knew who he was, though.

25 A Uh-huh. I know him, but I don't associate
26 with him.

27 Q Okay. And would the fact that you know
28 who Mr. Flowers is and the fact that you are first 29 cousin of Mr. Golden, would that influence you or

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
2 this case?

3 A No.

4 Q It would not influence you at all. So you
5 could be fair to both sides and the fact that you're 6 first cousins with Mr. Golden would not come into 7 play in you being a fair juror; is that correct?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q Okay. Thank you.

10 And then No. 62, Ms. Hargrove. And how do
11 you know Mr. Flowers?

12 A My name is Diane Copper. (Juror No. 62, 13 Diane Copper)

14 Q I'm sorry. I looked at the wrong one.
15 What is your number? It's amazing that looked like
16 a three for a second, and I apologize to you,
17 Ms. Copper. You knew Mr. Flowers?

18 A Yes. I just, you know -- I don't know
19 him, you know, personally, but I worked with his 20 sister, and I used to work at the shoe store here in 21 Winona. And I also work with -- work with his 22 father at Wal-Mart.

23 Q So you work with his father at Wal-Mart,
24 and then -- and where was that other place?

25 A I used to work at a store called Shoe
26 World.

27 Q Okay.

28 A It was at the end of Wal-Mart.

29 Q Right.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     His sister Cora worked with me.

2           Q     So Cora worked with you at Shoe World?

3           A     Yes, sir.

4           Q     And would those factors influence you or
5 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
6 juror in this case?

7           A     No, sir.

8           Q     And so if you found Mr. Flowers guilty,
9 you wouldn't feel you had to discuss that or explain
10 that to Cora or anybody else; is that correct?

11          A     That's correct.

12          Q     Okay. Thank you.

13                   Ms. Carodine, you know Mr. Flowers?

14          A     Yes. I know him; his father, Archie; his 15 mother, Lois. I work with his sister, Priscilla.

16          (Juror No. 70, Annie Carodine)

17          Q     And do you currently work with Priscilla
18 or --

19          A     Yes.

20          Q     And that's at Luvata or Heat Craft?

21          A     Luvata.

22          Q     Luvata?

23          A     Luvata.

24          Q     Okay. And you work with her now?

25          A     Yes.

26          Q     And do y'all work on the same line
27 together or --

28          A     Sometimes.

29          Q     And would that influence you or affect

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 fact you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
2 case?

3 A I believe it would.

4 Q Okay. Thank you.

5 Ms. Stewart, how do you know Mr. Flowers?

6 A I been knowing him and his family for many
7 years. It's been a long time. We used to live
8 right around the corner from where he live. He live
9 on Tipton Street when he was growing up. And his 10 uncle Johnny and my brother is very best -- they 11 best friends. (Juror No. 71, Barbara Stewart)

12 Q And would those factors influence you or
13 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
14 this case?

15 A Yes, it would.

16 Q Thank you.

17 And then No. 73. And I believe you said
18 maybe you knew Mr. Flowers because of your former 19 employment. Is that correct?

20 A That's correct. (Juror No. 73, Richard 21 Varnes)

22 Q And you've already said because of that
23 you couldn't be a fair and impartial juror; is that
24 correct?

25 A Yes, sir.

26 Q Okay. Thank you.

27 Then Mr. Doyle, how did you know
28 Mr. Flowers?

29 A My mother and his auntie was best friends

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 for years. I work with his brother, and I'm friends
2 with his sister, Sherita Flowers. (Juror No. 74,
3 Ellis Doyle)

4 Q Okay. Your mother and his aunt are real
5 good friends -- Mr. Flowers' aunt?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And then who were these other people?

8 A I work with Archie, his brother now. I
9 work with him, and I'm friends with his sister,
10 Sherita.

11 Q What's that sister's name again?

12 A Sherita.

13 Q Okay. And would those factors influence
14 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
15 juror in this case?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q Okay. Thank you.

18 No. 84, Mr. Cross. And what is that
19 situation?

20 A Me and his sister, Priscilla, were
21 classmates. (Juror No. 84, Phillip Cross)

22 Q And how long ago was that?

23 A All through high school.

24 Q No. I mean, y'all -- I mean, how many
25 years has it been since y'all were classmates?

26 A Since we graduated in '91.

27 Q Okay. And have you had any situation
28 where you would have run into her since or anything?

29 A Just seeing her locally at basketball

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 games and football games.

2 Q Okay. And would that influence you or
3 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
4 this case?

5 A No, sir.

6 Q If you were to find her brother guilty,
7 would you feel you owed her any reasoning or
8 explanation for how you had ruled?

9 A No, sir.

10 Q Okay. Thank you. And then No. 90, Ms.
11 Forrest, and what is that situation?

12 A I been knowing him for a while, and I went 13 to school with his brother. (Juror No. 90, Lynell
14 Forrest)

15 Q You went to school with Mr. Flowers'
16 brother.

17 A Yes.

18 Q And which brother?

19 A Archie.

20 Q Archie, Jr?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And have you had a situation where you
23 would have seen or known Mr. Archie, Jr. since then,
24 since high school?

25 A Yes.

26 Q And then you've known Mr. Flowers, also,
27 for a while?

28 A Yes.

29 Q Now, would those factors influence you or

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
2 juror in this case?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And so you just feel like because of that,
5 you just cannot be fair to both sides?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. Thank you.

8 And then No. 95, Ms. Crawford. And how
9 did you know Mr. Flowers?

10 A I know his family. And a couple of times
11 I was visiting an inmate in Vaiden, I spoke with 12 him. (Juror No. 95, Leslie Crawford)

13 Q So you would see -- you visited or 14 actually seen him at jail?

15 A (Nodding head).

16 Q And how do you know his family? Which 17 family do you know?

18 A His sisters, his mom and dad.

19 Q And would those factors influence you or 20 affect in you being a fair and impartial juror in
21 this case?

22 A No.

23 Q So you could lay those factors aside and 24 just base your decision only on the evidence here in
25 court; is that correct?

26 A Uh-huh. Yes, sir.

27 Q Okay. Thank you.

28 Then No. 99, Ms. Suggs.

29 A Yes. (Juror No. 99, Revell Suggs)

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     What is that situation?

2           A     I have a niece that it's his first cousin.
3     Because of that, I'm very close to the family --

4           Q     Wait. Tell me about that niece again.
5     Now what did you say about --

6           A     My niece, Patricia Flowers, is his first
7     cousin.

8           Q     Okay. And then what about the family
9     situation?

10          A     I said because of her, I'm very close to 11     the family.

12          Q     And that would be Mr. Archie and Ms. Lola
13     and those family members.

14          A     Yes.

15          Q     And would those factors influence you or
16     affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

17          A     I believe it would.

18          Q     So you feel like because of that, you just 19     couldn't be fair to both sides?

20          A     Yes.

21          Q     Okay. Thank you.

22                     And then, Mr. Bays, who do you know? I
23     mean, how do you know Mr. Flowers?

24          A     Through my sister. My sister and his mom
25     are best friends. (Juror No. 102, Paul Bays)

26          Q     And that would be Ms. Lola Flowers?

27          A     Yes, sir.

28          Q     And have you had an opportunity to,
29     because of your mother, to get to know Mr. Flowers'

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 mother?

2           A     My sister. Not my mother.

3           Q     Oh, I'm sorry. Your sister. I'm sorry.

4 It was your sister and Mr. Flowers' mother.

5           A     Correct.

6           Q     I'm sorry. I got that straight now. Have
7 you had an opportunity through your sister to know
8 who Mr. Flowers' mother is?

9           A     Yes.

10          Q     And had -- would the fact that you know
11 Mr. Flowers or know him because of his mother, would 12 that fact influence you or affect you in being a
13 fair and impartial juror in this case?

14          A     Yes.

15          Q     So you just could not lay that aside --

16          A     No.

17          Q     -- is that correct?

18          A     Correct.

19          Q     Okay. Thank you. And then No. 112, and 20 Mr. Daniels, how do you know Mr. Flowers?

21          A     I know Curtis and his family for many
22 years. (Juror No. 112, L.D. Daniels)

23          Q     And was that just because of being in the 24 same community or did y'all live in the same
25 neighborhood or tell me a little bit more.

26          A     Same community, neighborhood.

27          Q     And do you consider yourself friends with 28 Mr. Flowers' family?

29          A     Yes, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     And would that influence you or affect you
2     in any way in being a fair and impartial juror in
3     this case?

4           A     I think it would.

5           Q     Your -- so you just feel like because of 6     that you couldn't be fair and impartial?

7           A     Yes, sir.

8           Q     Okay. Thank you. And then you're 9     Ms. Kilpatrick?

10          A     Uh-huh.   (Juror No. 114, Diann Kilpatrick)

11          Q     And how do you know Mr. Flowers?

12          A     Well, I work with his sister.

13          Q     I'm sorry?

14          A     I work with his sister, Sherita Brown.

15          Q     And are you working with her now?

16          A     Yes.

17          Q     And where is that y'all work?

18          A     ADP.

19          Q     And do you have an occasion to regularly
20     see her at work?

21          A     Yes.

22          Q     And would that influence you or be a
23     factor in you being a fair and impartial juror?

24          A     I believe so.

25          Q     So you feel like you couldn't be fair
26     because of that?

27          A     Yes.

28                BY MR. CARTER: Did she say something
29     else?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 BY THE COURT: No. She --

2 A Yeah, I did. (Juror No. 114, Diann
3 Kilpatrick)

4 BY THE COURT:

5 Q You can repeat what you said.

6 A And I have a baby by his cousin.

7 Q Okay. A baby by Mr. Flowers' cousin?

8 A Uh-huh.

9 Q And who is that?

10 A Nakita Campbell.

11 Q And again, you're saying those factors
12 would influence you where you just feel like you
13 couldn't be fair and impartial?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. Thank you.

16 And then, ma'am, No. 116, Ms. Powell. And
17 how do you know Mr. Flowers?

18 A Me and his sister Sherita work together,
19 and we carpool. (Juror No. 116 Cynthia Powell)

20 Q And are you saying Sherita?

21 A Sherita.

22 Q Sherita? And y'all carpool together?

23 A (Nodding head).

24 Q And would that influence you or affect you
25 in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

26 A Yes, sir.

27 Q Okay. Thank you.

28 And then No. 131, Ms. Latonya Campbell,
29 you know Mr. Flowers?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 131, Latonya
2     Campbell)

3           Q     And how do you know him?

4           A     He used to date my sister.

5           Q     Used to date your sister?

6           A     Uh-huh.

7           Q     And did you get to know him from his
8     courtship with your sister?

9           A     Yes.

10          Q     And would that influence you or be a
11     factor in you being a fair and impartial juror?

12          A     Yes.

13          Q     Okay. Thank you.

14                 And then Ms. Hattie Sanders, No. 133. You
15     knew Mr. Flowers?

16          A     I knew him through his mother and his
17     sister, Sherita. (Juror No. 133, Hattie Sanders)

18          Q     And would those factors influence you or
19     affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

20          A     Yes. Because Sherita come over to my 21     house every -- all the time.

22          Q     So Sherita visits you at your home often?

23          A     Yeah.

24          Q     Okay. Thank you, Ms. Sanders.

25                 Any -- I'm sorry. No. 144, Mr. Forrest.
26     And you know Mr. Flowers?

27          A     I know his family. I didn't stand up when 28     you said relatives, because I am not sure about 29     that. But I sing with a gospel group, and I be

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 around his father -- (Juror No. 144, Theo Forrest)

2 Q So you sing with -- in a group with his
3 father?

4 A I sing with another group. I be on the
5 program with his father a lot. And also, we did
6 some prison ministries down in Montgomery/Carroll.
7 We been down there singing as well.

8 Q And then you say prison ministries, too?

9 A Yeah. My group went -- been down to the 10 facility there in Carrollton as well.

11 Q Okay. And would those factors influence
12 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
13 juror in this case?

14 A I feel like it would be a conflict of 15 interest.

16 Q So would that affect you in being fair and
17 impartial?

18 A I believe it would.

19 Q Okay. Thank you.

20 Anyone else that -- because -- okay. No.
21 14, Ms. Wright?

22 A Uh-huh. (Juror No. 14, Carolyn Wright)

23 Q And how do you know Mr. Flowers?

24 A Well, I don't know him personally, but I
25 do know his father, because I worked with him at 26 Wal-Mart.

27 Q And you work with Mr. Archie at Wal-Mart?

28 A Yes, sir.

29 Q And is he retired now?

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           A     I don't know.

2           Q     Or do you still work there?

3           A     No.

4           Q     Okay. And would that influence you or be
5 a factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in
6 this case?

7           A     No, sir.

8           Q     So you know Mr. Archie, but that would not 9 influence you in being a fair juror; is that
10 correct?

11          A     That's correct.

12          Q     Okay. And then No. 85 back here. This is 13 Ms. Seals. And Ms. Seals, what is that situation?

14          A     I don't really know him, but I dated his 15 cousin for like four years. (Juror No. 85, Mary 16 Seals)

17          Q     Dated Mr. Flowers' cousin?

18          A     Uh-huh. And me and his sister and them is 19 real close, and I still go visit the family.

20          Q     Which sister are you close to?

21          A     Sherita.

22          Q     And you dated -- who was the cousin you
23 dated?

24          A     Nakita Campbell.

25          Q     And you say you visit in the -- his 26 family's homes?

27          A     Uh-huh.

28          Q     And would those factors influence you or
29 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 this case?

2       A     Yes, sir.

3       Q     Okay. Thank you, Ms. Seals.

4             Anyone -- and let me back up and say this:

5 At any time -- I know that sometimes somebody else
6 will say something and that will make you think,
7 Wow, I didn't think of that, but I should have
8 spoken up. And so even if we've passed a question,
9 at any time, speak up at any time, to any question
10 that's been asked. Because again, I do want
11 complete and total answers from everybody. But at 12 this point, has everybody that knows Mr. Flowers --
13 okay. No. 80?

14       A     Sir, I do not know Mr. Curtis Flowers, but 15 I know his mother, Ms. Lola. And I work with his 16 aunt. (Juror No. 80, Brenda Simmons)

17       Q     Okay. So you knew Ms. -- you know
18 Ms. Lola?

19       A     Yes, sir.

20       Q     And works with his aunt?

21       A     Yes, sir.

22       Q     And which aunt?

23       A     Ms. Hazel Jones.

24       Q     Hazel Jones?

25       A     Yes, sir. That's Ms. Lola's sister.

26       Q     Okay. And would those factors influence
27 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
28 juror in this case?

29       A     No, sir.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1           Q     And where -- how did you know Ms. Lola
2     Flowers?

3           A     She worked with home health, and she took
4     care of my grandmother.

5           Q     And has that now concluded? Is that --

6           A     Yes, sir.

7           Q     And then you currently work with
8     Ms. Jones?

9           A     Yes, sir.

10          Q     And would that influence you in any way in
11     being a fair and impartial juror?

12          A     No, sir.

13          Q     Okay. Thank you. And you're number --
14     you were No. 80; is that correct?

15          A     Yes, sir.

16          Q     And then No. 115. And Ms. Smith, what is
17     that situation?

18          A     I don't know Mr. Flowers. I know his 19     mother's aunt, Essie Campbell. And I work with her 20     at Winona Manor Nursing Home.           (Juror No. 115, 21     Polly Smith)

22          Q     Okay. So you would know Ms. Lola Flowers.

23          A     Yes, sir.

24          Q     And who was the other one?

25          A     His aunt, Ms. Essie Campbell.

26          Q     And would those factors influence you or
27     affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

28          A     No, sir.

29                BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

VOIR DIRE - COURT

1 Nod your head if you want another
2 recess. I mean, we can keep going. I don't
3 know -- well, actually, I see it's close to
4 lunch now. So I -- I looked and at first I
5 thought it was five till 11:00. And then I
6 realized again that it's right close to 7 lunch.

8 So ladies and gentlemen, I think at 9 this time, we will recess for lunch. I'll 10 ask you during this recess, please do not
11 discuss this case with anyone. Please do not
12 discuss it among yourselves. If you see one
13 of the lawyers out in the hall, they're going 14 to ignore you. They're not going to speak to 15 you. They're not doing that to offend you.
16 They're just complying with the court rules
17 that require that they not have any contact
18 with you or speak to you.

19 Also, you cannot talk to any of the 20 family members of any of the parties that
21 might be involved in the case or the family
22 members of any of these victims who I've gone
23 over with you -- their names.

24 So if you'll be back at one o'clock
25 and we'll resume at that time. And if
26 you'll -- as I say, we'll be in recess until 27 then.

THE COURT: We will resume now with more questions.

The next question I'll ask is if any of you were related by blood or by marriage to Bertha Tardy during her lifetime. If you were related by blood or by marriage to Bertha Tardy, if any of you were, if you will, please stand at this time.

And okay. Miss Johnson, how were you related to Miss Tardy?

JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: She was my deceased brother-in-law's cousin.

THE COURT: Say, say that again. It takes my mind --

JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: My deceased brother-in-law --

THE COURT: Okay.

JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: -- was her first cousin.

THE COURT: So he -- okay. He was first cousins with your brother-in-law.

JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: Right.

THE COURT: No --

JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: Who is deceased now.

THE COURT: No blood kin though.

JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: No. Well, second, you know. Miss Bertha and his mother were sisters.

THE COURT: Right. Okay. And would that factor influence you or affect you in any way in being a

1 fair and impartial juror in this case?

2 JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: I cannot say for sure.

3 THE COURT: So you have got some doubts in your
4 own mind --

5 JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: I do.

6 THE COURT: -- about being fair and impartial
7 --

8 JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: I do.

9 THE COURT: -- because of that. Well, I
10 appreciate that, and I appreciate you speaking up.

11 And what is your number? Number 50. And Mr.
12 Lester, what was that situation?

13 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: She was my father-in-law's
14 niece.

15 MR. CARTER: What is your number?

16 THE COURT: And did you know her, you know,
17 during the -- when she was alive and --

18 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: Yes, sir, I did.

19 THE COURT: And would that factor influence you
20 or the fact that she had this family tie there? Would 21 that influence you or affect you in being a fair and
22 impartial juror?

23 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: I can't say that in 24 fairness, Your Honor, it wouldn't.

25 THE COURT: Well, is there anything about 26 knowing her or anything that would influence you or
27 affect you?

28 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: I have just known the 29 family all my life. I grew up with her daughter. Her

1 son graduated with my daughter. I mean her grandson
2 graduated with my daughter just in May.

3 My wife's a first grade teacher. She taught the 4 Stewart boy. So I have a lot of connections to the
5 families.

6 THE COURT: And would those factors cause you
7 to be where you could not be fair and impartial to both
8 sides in this case?

9 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: No.

10 THE COURT: So you think you could not be fair
11 and impartial or you could be?

12 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: I think I could be.

13 THE COURT: So you can lay all these ties aside
14 and base your evidence -- decision only on the evidence;
15 is that correct?

16 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 And then Number, Number 117. Miss Vail, and what is
19 that situation?

20 JUROR CHRISTY VAIL: Miss Bertha Tardy was my 21 second cousin.

22 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
23 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror
24 in this case?

25 JUROR CHRISTY VAIL: Yes, sir.

26 THE COURT: So that would be a situation where 27 you just couldn't lay that aside and be fair to both
28 sides; is that correct?

29 JUROR CHRISTY VAIL: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 And Number 146. Mr. Carpenter, and what is that
3 situation?

4 JUROR HAROLD CARPENTER: Miss Bertha was my
5 wife's aunt.

6 MR. CARTER: I can't hear him. I couldn't hear
7 him. What did he say?

8 THE COURT: Miss Bertha Tardy was his wife's
9 aunt.

10 MRS. STEINER: What, what is your juror number?

11 THE COURT: 146.

12 And were you married to your wife at the time of --
13 when Miss Tardy was murdered?

14 JUROR HAROLD CARPENTER: Yes sir.

15 THE COURT: Would these factors influence you
16 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
17 case?

18 JUROR HAROLD CARPENTER: Everything I have
19 heard, yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: So you just could not lay that
21 aside and base your decision on the evidence.

22 JUROR HAROLD CARPENTER: No.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 Now, I'll ask you -- I've asked you the ones that 25 were related. Now, if you just knew Miss Bertha Tardy,
26 not -- you know, if you just knew her when you saw her or 27 I know she owned a business here in town for a number of 28 years. And I suspect there would be probably a number of 29 you that may have done business at some point in that

1       business. But if you just knew Miss Tardy like when you
2       saw her somewhere out in town or what have you, if you
3       knew her in any capacity, like on sight, if you would,
4       please stand up now.

5               And Miss Griffin, tell me about that.

6               JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I attended church with 7       Bertha Tardy, Moore Memorial United Methodist Church.
8       And we served a time on the Administrative Counsel
9       together.

10              THE COURT: That was at church.

11              JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Right.

12              THE COURT: Would the fact that you know her --
13       knew her from this situation at church and all, would 14       that influence you or be a factor in you being a fair and
15       impartial juror?

16              JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: No, sir.

17              THE COURT: So can you lay anything about that 18       association aside and base your decision only on the 19       evidence here?

20              JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Yes, sir.

21              THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

22              And then Mr. Sykes, you knew Miss Bertha Tardy.

23              JUROR JACK SYKES: I just knew her when I saw
24       her, went in the store and saw her.

25              THE COURT: And did you buy things there on 26       occasion or --

27              JUROR JACK SYKES: Occasion.

28              THE COURT: And would that influence you or be
29       a factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in this

1 case?

2 JUROR JACK SYKES: No, sir. I don't think so.

3 THE COURT: Any doubt in your mind?

4 JUROR JACK SYKES: A little bit.

5 THE COURT: Because what I want is somebody
6 that can tell me absolutely that this will not be a
7 factor, because I want the decision to be made only on 8 the evidence presented here at trial and not on any 9 information or anything, knowledge from outside the 10 courtroom. So...

11 JUROR JACK SYKES: Yes, sir. It may. It may 12 do that then.

13 THE COURT: So you have got some doubts because 14 of that.

15 JUROR JACK SYKES: I have some doubts in the 16 back of my mind.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Sykes.

18 And Miss Mills, you knew Miss Tardy or knew who she 19 was.

20 JUROR DIANA MILLS: Knew who she was. And we 21 bought furniture from her on occasion when we first got 22 married. I work at Bank of Winona, and I saw her quite 23 often.

24 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
25 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

26 JUROR DIANA MILLS: Definitely.

27 THE COURT: So you just feel like that because
28 of that you cannot sit in judgment on this case.

29 JUROR DIANA MILLS: (Nodded.)

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 Miss Jefcoat, and you knew Miss Tardy.

3 JUROR PATRICIA JEFLOAT: Yes, sir. Just -- I
4 just knew her on occasion, but I know her daughter. And
5 my son just graduated.

6 THE COURT: Is that Miss Rigby? No, I mean
7 Miss -- I'm trying to think of her name.

8 JUROR PATRICIA JEFLOAT: Ballard.

9 THE COURT: Yes, Miss Ballard. I'm sorry.

10 JUROR PATRICIA JEFLOAT: Yes, sir. And my son
11 just graduated with hers.

12 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
13 you?

14 JUROR PATRICIA JEFLOAT: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: So you just feel like because of 16 knowing Miss Ballard, knowing who Miss Tardy was, you
17 could not be a fair juror in this case.

18 JUROR PATRICIA JEFLOAT: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 And Number 17. Miss Chesteen.

21 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes, sir. Roxanne and 22 I were friends in high school. I spent some time at 23 their home.

24 And also, I knew Archie and Lola. And I know Archie
25 and Lola and the girls and Archie, Jr., from the bank.
26 And Shirley Golden.

27 THE COURT: And is Shirley Mr. Golden's widow?

28 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: (Nodded.)

29 THE COURT: Would these factors influence you

1 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
2 case?

3 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: I will do my best.

4 THE COURT: Is there any doubt in your mind,
5 but what you could lay anything -- because, you know, it
6 seems like you know family on both sides of the 7 situation. And can you lay any of those factors aside
8 and base your decision only on the evidence presented
9 here in court?

10 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: If it can be proven
11 then I, I could go along whatever --

12 THE COURT: I mean you are going to follow the 13 proof. And if it shows Mr. Flowers guilty, you would 14 vote that way. If it shows that he is not guilty, you
15 will --

16 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: (Nodded.)

17 THE COURT: Or if the State does not prove 18 their case, you would vote him not guilty.

19 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: (Nodded.)

20 MR. CARTER: I didn't hear that, ma'am. What 21 was your answer?

22 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: I will do my best to --
23 I will go with whatever the evidence is, the proof.

24 THE COURT: What I'm saying, you would vote not 25 guilty if the State didn't prove their case; is that
26 correct?

27 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes.

28 THE COURT: And then if the State proved beyond
29 a reasonable doubt, you would vote that way.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: (Nodded.)

2 THE COURT: So -- okay. Thank you.

3 Miss Laney.

4 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: I purchased furniture, I
5 think, around 1980 from Tardy Furniture company.

6 THE COURT: Did you -- did you remember meeting
7 Miss Bertha Tardy or anything?

8 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: I do.

9 THE COURT: And would that factor influence
10 you or affect you --

11 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No, sir.

12 THE COURT: -- in any way?

13 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No, sir, it would not
14 affect me.

15 THE COURT: So that will not come into play in 16 your deliberations.

17 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

19 And then Number 20. Miss Davis.

20 JUROR RANA DAVIS: Correct.

21 THE COURT: And how did you know Miss Tardy?

22 JUROR RANA DAVIS: Just shopping in her store
23 with my mother, but I have --

24 THE COURT: And --

25 JUROR RANA DAVIS: I have ties with the Rigby
26 family and the Stewart family.

27 THE COURT: Okay. I was going to get to them a
28 little bit later. But if you want to go ahead and just 29 tell me about those situations with the Stewarts and

1 Rigby's, then you can do so.

2 JUROR RANA DAVIS: Well, Benji and I were
3 really good friends during the time that this had
4 happened. And then my sister was the nurse for Bobo at 5 U.M.C. in Jackson. So I was hearing daily updates from
6 all of that.

7 THE COURT: And have these factors caused you
8 to form an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr.
9 Flowers?

10 JUROR RANA DAVIS: It has.

11 THE COURT: And could you lay that aside --

12 JUROR RANA DAVIS: (Shook head.)

13 THE COURT: -- and base your decision on the
14 evidence?

15 JUROR RANA DAVIS: (Shook head.)

16 THE COURT: So you feel like you could not be
17 fair and impartial then; is that correct?

18 JUROR RANA DAVIS: I don't.

19 THE COURT: Number 22. Mr. Blaylock, you knew
20 Miss Tardy.

21 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: I knew Miss Tardy. Yes,
22 sir.

23 THE COURT: And how did you know her?

24 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: I graduated with her
25 daughter, and I saw her at school.

26 THE COURT: Is that Roxanne Ballard?

27 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes.

28 THE COURT: And would those -- would that
29 influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial

1 juror in this case?

2 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, sir.

3 THE COURT: So you can lay any of that
4 knowledge of the daughter or anything aside and base your
5 decision only on the evidence; is that correct?

6 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 Then Number 28. Miss Vance, you knew Miss Tardy.

9 JUROR TERRI VANCE: I bought furniture from her
10 in 1990. And her daughter, Roxanne Ballard, and I are 11 very close friends.

12 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
13 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

14 JUROR TERRI VANCE: (Nodded.)

15 THE COURT: So you feel like knowing Miss
16 Roxanne Ballard and knowing Miss Tardy you just could not
17 sit in judgment on this case; is that correct?

18 JUROR TERRI VANCE: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 Number 32. Miss Biggers, and you knew Miss Tardy.

21 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: Yes, sir. We bought
22 furniture from her several times. And I also knew
23 Bertha's mother.

24 MR. CARTER: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: You knew Miss Bertha's mother.

26 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: Bertha's mother, yes,
27 sir.

28 THE COURT: So you have known a couple of 29 generations of family.

1 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: Through family ties,
2 yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
4 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

5 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: I really don't think
6 so.

7 THE COURT: Any doubt in your mind but what you
8 could be fair and impartial?

9 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: No doubt in my mind.

10 THE COURT: So what I am saying is if the proof
11 was beyond a reasonable doubt Mr. Flowers was guilty, you
12 could find him guilty. If the State did not prove that 13 beyond a reasonable doubt, you could find him innocent.

14 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: I, I don't think so.

15 THE COURT: You do not think you --

16 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: Well, no, no doubt in 17 my mind I would go with the facts.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So anyway, it would not
19 influence you at all then.

20 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: No.

21 THE COURT: Either way.

22 JUROR TERECA BIGGERS: (Shook head.)

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 Forty-five, I believe, is the next one.

25 Miss Burnside, you knew Miss Tardy.

26 JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE: Yes, sir, I used to work
27 for Miss Bertha.

28 THE COURT: You used to work for her.

29 JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE: (Nodded.)

1                   THE COURT:   And how long was that before her
2 death?

3                   JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE:   About three years before
4 then.

5                   THE COURT:   And would that influence you or
6 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
7 case?

8                   JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE:   I don't think it would 9 influence me, but I do think it would have an affect on 10 me.

11                  THE COURT:   Well, would it affect you to the 12 extent you could not be fair in this case and impartial
13 to both sides in this case?

14                  JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE:   No, sir.

15                  THE COURT:   So it would affect you but you
16 could -- would you lay anything about knowing her aside
17 and just base your evidence only -- decision only on the 18 evidence presented here?

19                  JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE:   Yes, sir, I would.

20                  THE COURT:   And would you follow the evidence
21 and rule however the evidence -- whatever the evidence
22 proved to be?

23                  JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE:   Yes, sir, I could.

24                  THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you, Miss Burnside.

25                  And Number 50.   Mr. Lester, and you -- I believe you 26 said you were like -- knew -- looks like your
27 father-in-law, Bertha's father-in-law.

28                  JUROR BOBBY LESTER:   Right.   Right.

29                  THE COURT:   And did you know her in any other

1 capacity?

2 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: Yes. I work for Bank of
3 Winona. Small business community in town. So we all
4 know each other. We served on town committees and things
5 like that together.

6 THE COURT: And would those factors come into
7 play or influence or affect you in any way in being a
8 fair and impartial juror?

9 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: I'll, I'll say I have
10 formed an opinion.

11 THE COURT: Could that opinion --

12 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: I could be open-minded.

13 THE COURT: Could you lay your opinion aside
14 and base your decision only on the evidence here in
15 court?

16 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: If it can be proven, yes.

17 THE COURT: So --

18 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: If there is a reasonable
19 doubt, yes, sir, I could.

20 THE COURT: Well, do you understand that the 21 defense does not have to prove a reasonable doubt?

22 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: I understand.

23 THE COURT: They don't have to put on proof at 24 all. So what I'm asking is if the State failed to prove
25 their case, could you find Mr. Flowers not guilty?

26 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: If they proved the case to
27 me, yes.

28 THE COURT: No. There -- what I'm saying is 29 Mr. Flowers does not have to prove anything.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: I mean if the State proved

2 --

3 THE COURT: If the State proved their case you
4 could find Mr. Flowers guilty.

5 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: If the State did not prove

6 --

7 THE COURT: If they did not prove their case,
8 you would find him not guilty; is that correct?

9 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: (Nodded.)

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 And Miss Box, you knew Miss Tardy.

12 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: I used to live across the
13 street from her, and I know her daughter and her husband
14 and the kids. I work at the school.

15 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
16 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror
17 in this case?

18 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: No.

19 THE COURT: And will you base your decision, if 20 you are selected, only on the evidence presented here in
21 court and on nothing else?

22 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 And then, ma'am, the pink shirt there. What is your
25 number?

26 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: (Held up card.)

27 THE COURT: Seventy-five. Okay. Fifty-nine is 28 ahead of you. When I start looking back -- you know, I
29 thought you and 59 were on the same row actually. I need

1 to get some glasses.

2 Miss Nail, how did you know Miss Tardy?

3 JUROR JULIA NAIL: Through my mother.

4 THE COURT: And was she friends with Mrs.
5 Tardy?

6 JUROR JULIA NAIL: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
8 you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror in
9 this case?

10 JUROR JULIA NAIL: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: And would you, if you are selected,
12 base your decision only on the evidence presented here in
13 court --

14 JUROR JULIA NAIL: Absolutely.

15 THE COURT: -- and on nothing else? Okay.
16 Thank you.

17 And then Number 67. Mr. Amason, you knew Miss
18 Tardy.

19 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Well, I attend church
20 with her daughter and son-in-law.

21 THE COURT: Is that currently you go --

22 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Yes.

23 THE COURT: -- with Miss Ballard and her
24 husband?

25 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Yeah. And they have two 26 sons that are friends of my two sons.

27 THE COURT: And would it be fair to say you see
28 the Ballards occasionally then?

29 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Yeah. I see them at

1 church every week.

2 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
3 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
4 case?

5 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No, sir.

6 THE COURT: It will not. And will you, if you
7 are selected, base your decision only on the evidence
8 presented here and on nothing else?

9 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Most definitely.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 Miss Ray, you knew Miss Tardy?

12 JUROR JULIA RAY: Well, we weren't friends or 13 anything. I just bought furniture from her back in the 14 '70's. I just knew her when I saw her.

15 THE COURT: And would that influence you or be
16 a factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in this
17 case?

18 JUROR JULIA RAY: No.

19 THE COURT: And if you are selected as a juror
20 in this case, would you base your verdict on the evidence
21 presented in court and on no other factors?

22 JUROR JULIA RAY: That's right.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 And Miss Colbert, and you knew Miss Tardy.

25 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: I knew Miss Tardy
26 through her daughter, Roxanne Ballard. We were in 27 school, high school at the same time. And my son played
28 soccer with her son, Jeremy.

29 THE COURT: Your son -- say that again now.

1 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: My son played soccer
2 with her son, Jeremy. My husband coached and taught
3 Jeremy.

4 THE COURT: And would those factors come into
5 play or influence you in any way in being a fair and
6 impartial juror in this case?

7 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: They would not influence
8 me at all.

9 THE COURT: And would you base your decision on 10 the evidence presented here in open court and on nothing
11 else?

12 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 And now I'm getting to you, Miss Martin. Number 75.
15 And how did you know Miss Tardy?

16 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: I knew Miss Bertha when I
17 was at the Methodist church, and I bought furniture. And 18 I know Roxanne.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So you went to church with 20 her and bought stuff at the store.

21 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: And then you know her daughter,
23 Roxanne.

24 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
26 you or, or affect you in any way in being a fair and
27 impartial juror in this case?

28 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: No.

29 THE COURT: And if you are selected as a juror

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 in this case, will you base your decision only on the
2 evidence presented here and on nothing else?

3 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: That's right.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5 And Mr. Hammond, did you know Miss Tardy?

6 JUROR RONALD HAMMOND: I did. I went to the
7 same church she did, Moore Memorial United Methodist
8 Church. I was in her home several times during my high
9 school years. I knew her daughter, Roxanne Ballard.

10 In fact, her daughter, Roxanne, is probably the 11 matchmaker for me and my wife. I am still good friends
12 with them to this day. My wife and Roxanne communicate
13 probably on a daily basis.

14 We kept their children for the whole time during one
15 of the trials. I forget, I think the one in Lee County
16 or the coast. And I have sat in on testimony on previous 17 trials.

18 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
19 you and affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
20 this case?

21 JUROR RONALD HAMMOND: Absolutely. They would 22 influence me.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hammond, thank you.

24 Then Number 79. Miss McCaulla.

25 JUROR PAULA MCCAULLA: I have known Miss Tardy
26 all my life. I grew up in Winona and attended the same
27 church that, that she did. I have known her daughter
28 Roxanne. Her stepson, Tom Tardy, and I graduated from 29 high school together in 1964. Bought furniture from

1           them.

2                   THE COURT:   And would those factors influence
3           you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
4           this case?

5                   JUROR PAULA MCCAULLA:   Yes, sir, they would.

6                   THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you.

7                   And then Number 80.   Miss Simmons.

8                   JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS:   Yes, sir.   I lived here
9           all but 12 years of my life.   And I don't know Miss
10          Bertha personally.   But when I saw her out on the 11          streets, I would know Miss Bertha.   And that is going to 12          be the same case with everybody.

13                  THE COURT:   So you knew her and Mr. Stewart and 14          Mr. Golden and Miss Rigby.

15                  JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS:   Not Miss Rigby, but her
16          husband.

17                  THE COURT:   Okay.   Mr. Rigby.   Would those 18          factors influence you or affect you in being a fair and
19          impartial juror in this case?

20                  JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS:   No, sir.

21                  THE COURT:   And if you were selected on a -- as 22          a juror in this case, will you base your decision on the 23          evidence presented here in court and on nothing else?

24                  JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS:   Absolutely.

25                  THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you.

26                  And then Miss Hodges, you knew Miss Tardy.

27                  JUROR REBECCA HODGES:   Yes, sir.   I met Miss
28          Tardy on a number of occasions.   She worked with my 29          husband in the economic development group.   I also attend

1 church with Roxanne Ballard and her family.

2 THE COURT: And I believe you already said too
3 that your husband being the county prosecutor, you just 4 feel like you could not be a fair and impartial juror; is
5 that correct?

6 JUROR REBECCA HODGES: (Nodded.)

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 And okay. What is your -- 94. Miss Acy, and how 9 did you know Miss Tardy?

10 JUROR MELISSA ACY: My family and I knew her
11 through doing business with her at the store.

12 THE COURT: And would the fact that you knew
13 her from the store and done business there, would that
14 influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
15 juror?

16 JUROR MELISSA ACY: No.

17 THE COURT: And if you were selected as a juror
18 in this case, would you base your decision on the 19 evidence presented here in court and on no other factors?

20 JUROR MELISSA ACY: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

22 And then Mr. Parker. Number 51. (sic) And you
23 knew Miss Tardy.

24 JUROR MICHAEL PARKER: I knew Miss Tardy from 25 her business, plus I went to school with her daughter. I
26 umpired many games with her children, Roxanne's two 27 children.

28 And during the last trial my wife was deputy clerk
29 in the justice department here and we sat on several --

1 in on several of the times the trial was going on.

2 THE COURT: Would those factors influence you
3 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
4 case?

5 JUROR MICHAEL PARKER: Yes, sir. I have
6 already formed an opinion.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Mr. Parker.

8 And Number 121. Mr. Austin, you knew Miss Tardy.

9 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: Yes, sir. I have a
10 retail business here in town, and she did business at my 11 business. And I did business with her business. And I'm 12 considered to be friends with Frank and Roxanne.

13 THE COURT: Would these factors influence you
14 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
15 case?

16 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: And can you lay aside any outside
18 influences and base your decision only on the evidence
19 presented here in open court and nothing else?

20 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

22 Then Number 124. Miss Britt, you knew Miss Tardy.

23 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I knew her from the store,
24 and I also went to school with her daughter, Roxanne.

25 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
26 you or affect you in any way in you being a fair and
27 impartial juror?

28 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: No, they would not.

29 THE COURT: And if you are selected as a juror,

1       would you base your decision on the evidence presented
2       here in court and on no other factors?

3               JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Yes, I would.

4               THE COURT: Thank you.

5               Then Number 129. Miss Eldridge, and you knew Miss
6       Tardy.

7               JUROR ELIZABETH ELDRIDGE: Yes. I have known
8       her all my life, went to school with her daughter. And I
9       know Roxanne's children.

10              THE COURT: And would these factors influence
11      you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
12      this case?

13              JUROR ELIZABETH ELDRIDGE: Well, those 14      wouldn't, but the others I mentioned before would.

15              THE COURT: And you -- because of your 16      brother-in-law working in law enforcement thing; is that
17      correct?

18              JUROR ELIZABETH ELDRIDGE: No. My employer.

19              THE COURT: Okay. You work for the -- who?
20      The prosecutor?

21              JUROR ELIZABETH ELDRIDGE: Yes.

22              THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Miss Eldridge.

23              And then Miss Bruce, you knew Miss Tardy.

24              JUROR TAMMY BRUCE: I did. Also Carmen. I
25      have also sat in on and listened on one of the trials. I
26      too have already formed an opinion.

27              THE COURT: Is that opinion one that you could 28      set aside and base your decision on --

29              JUROR TAMMY BRUCE: No, it is not.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 THE COURT: -- or is it strictly one of those
2 that is fixed that cannot be changed?

3 JUROR TAMMY BRUCE: No, it cannot change.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5 Then Number 143. Miss Vollbracht.

6 JUROR SHERRIE VOLLBRACHT: Vollbracht. I knew
7 Miss Tardy at the store doing business with her.

8 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
9 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
10 case?

11 JUROR SHERRIE VOLLBRACHT: No.

12 THE COURT: And if you sat as a juror in this
13 case, would you base your decision only on the evidence
14 presented here in court and on nothing else?

15 JUROR SHERRIE VOLLBRACHT: Yes. Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17 I want to know now if any of you are related by 18 blood or by marriage to Robert Golden or if you just knew
19 Robert Golden during his life. Any of you related by 20 blood or by marriage to Mr. Golden or that knew Mr.
21 Golden, if you will, please stand.

22 And Mr. Sykes, you knew Mr. Robert Golden.

23 JUROR JACK SYKES: He was a forklift driver
24 under my supervision.

25 THE COURT: And where was that?

26 JUROR JACK SYKES: Nell.

27 THE COURT: And I think you have already said
28 you have got some real doubts about whether you could be
29 fair because of knowing Miss Tardy. And would that same

1 situation apply for knowing Mr. Golden?

2 JUROR JACK SYKES: Right.

3 THE COURT: So you are -- pretty much feel like
4 you have just got a real serious doubt about whether you
5 can be fair?

6 JUROR JACK SYKES: I have a got an opinion,
7 because I sat in on some of it, maybe last year.

8 THE COURT: Could those opinions be set aside,
9 or have you got a fixed opinion that would not change?

10 JUROR JACK SYKES: That opinion is going to be 11 hard to change.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13 And then, Miss Biggers, and you knew Miss Tardy.

14 JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: Well, I knew Miss Tardy
15 but I --

16 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Mr. Golden.

17 JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: Mr. Golden, I did not
18 know, but I used to be his son's work guardian.

19 THE COURT: Worked with his son.

20 JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: Uh-huh. With his son,
21 Randy.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And would that influence you
23 or be a factor in you being a fair and impartial juror?

24 JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: I -- on the human
25 aspect, yes. But then on the facts, I would go with,
26 with what the facts proved.

27 THE COURT: So --

28 JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: But me knowing the 29 little boy that was raised without a daddy, that, that is

1           what hurts me.

2                   THE COURT: But would that be a factor where
3           you would be thinking about that as a juror, or would you
4           be just listening to the facts?

5                   JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: I would just basically
6           be listening to the facts.

7                   THE COURT: Well, is there any question in your
8           mind that you would be influenced in any way by anything
9           other than the facts as presented here in court?

10                  JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: I don't think so.

11                  THE COURT: Any doubt?

12                  JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: I do have doubts, but I
13           don't think so.

14                  THE COURT: Okay. Well, and I appreciate, you
15           know, being -- that is what I want from everybody,
16           totally honest.

17                  JUROR TAREECA BIGGERS: I have to be honest.

18                  THE COURT: Then Number 36. And I believe you
19           already said earlier you were, like, cousins of Mr.
20           Golden; is that correct?

21                  JUROR ARTHUR KNIGHT: Yes, sir.

22                  THE COURT: And I think you said because of 23           that you felt like you couldn't be a juror in this case
24           and judge the case fairly; is that correct?

25                  JUROR ARTHUR KNIGHT: Yes, sir.

26                  THE COURT: Thank you.

27                   And then 46. And how -- you said you knew Mr.
28           Golden.

29                  JUROR JAMES DANIELS: Right. We worked at the

1 same company for a number of years.

2 THE COURT: And I believe you had said that
3 would influence you and --

4 JUROR JAMES DANIELS: (Nodded.)

5 THE COURT: -- and you also knew some of Mr.
6 Flowers' brothers and sisters.

7 JUROR JAMES DANIELS: That's right.

8 THE COURT: And I believe you already said all
9 of these combined, you just could not be fair and
10 impartial; is that correct?

11 JUROR JAMES DANIELS: Right.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13 And then 41. Miss Givens, did you say you were 14 first cousins to Mr. Golden?

15 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: By marriage.

16 THE COURT: By marriage. And have you had an 17 occasion to hear family members talk about the case or 18 anything like that?

19 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: No.

20 THE COURT: And would you -- would that family
21 relationship come into play in you being a fair juror in 22 this case? Or can you base your decision only on the 23 evidence presented and on nothing else?

24 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

25 THE COURT: So you can lay aside the family tie
26 and base your decision only on the evidence.

27 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Something like that.
28 Yeah.

29 THE COURT: Ma'am.

1 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Something like that.
2 Yeah.

3 THE COURT: You are going to have to say yes.
4 Is that what you said?

5 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Well, I guess. In 6 between.

7 THE COURT: I'm having trouble hearing, because
8 there is so many people in here, and you talk softly. So
9 would you say that again?

10 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah, I guess it will 11 be. Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: So you think you could serve.

13 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: And would this family connection
15 influence you in any way in being a fair juror?

16 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 Number 72. And how did you know Mr. Golden?

19 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: I taught Mr. Golden's
20 two sons, Christopher and Randy.

21 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
22 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
23 case?

24 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: It would not affect me.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

26 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: Would not influence me.

27 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

28 And then Number, I believe, 91. Mr. Hamilton, and 29 you -- I believe you say, maybe, on your questionnaire

1           that you were close friends of Robert Golden; is that
2           correct?

3                   JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: Yes. I worked with
4           Robert. And time to time I worked with his brother. But 5           my youngest went to school with the Stewart boy. I can
6           be fair and impartial.

7                   THE COURT: And so will you lay aside any of 8           these ties you might have had with some of the victims
9           and base your decision only on the evidence presented
10          here?

11                   JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: Yes.

12                   THE COURT: And on nothing else.

13                   JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: (Nodded.)

14                   THE COURT: Is that a yes?

15                   JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

16                   THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17                   Number 86. Miss Carlean Green.

18                   JUROR CARLEAN GREEN: Yes.

19                   THE COURT: And you knew Mr. Golden.

20                   JUROR CARLEAN GREEN: Yeah. He is my first 21          cousin by marriage.

22                   THE COURT: And, and I think you were -- also
23          had a kinship with Mr. Flowers, too; is that --

24                   JUROR CARLEAN GREEN: Yes.

25                   THE COURT: And would the same thing apply
26          here? Would you -- could you be a fair and impartial
27          juror because of your family ties with Mr. Golden?

28                   JUROR CARLEAN GREEN: Sure.

29                   THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

1           And then Number 90. Miss, Miss Forrest, and you
2           knew Mr. Golden.

3           JUROR LYNELL FORREST: Yes.

4           THE COURT: And how did you know him?

5           JUROR LYNELL FORREST: I worked with him at
6           Corrulite.

7           THE COURT: Excuse me.

8           JUROR LYNELL FORREST: Worked with him at 9           Corrulite.

10          THE COURT: And how long ago -- I mean how, how 11          long before his death was that y'all worked together?

12          JUROR LYNELL FORREST: I can't remember.

13          THE COURT: I believe his death was in 1996.
14          Was it, you know, some years before that?

15          JUROR LYNELL FORREST: That's a long time.

16          THE COURT: Okay. About as long in time.

17          JUROR LYNELL FORREST: Yes.

18          THE COURT: Would the fact that you worked with 19          Mr. Golden, would that influence you or affect you in 20          being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

21          JUROR LYNELL FORREST: Yes.

22          THE COURT: It, it would.

23          JUROR LYNELL FORREST: Yes.

24          THE COURT: So you just feel like you could not
25          be fair because of that.

26          JUROR LYNELL FORREST: No.

27          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

28          Number 134. Miss Henson, and how did you know Mr.
29          Golden?

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR KATHERINE HENSON: We all went to school
2 together, and I was really good friends of his wife's
3 family.

4 THE COURT: You were friends with his wife's
5 family.

6 JUROR KATHERINE HENSON: Yes. We all grew up
7 together in Winona.

8 THE COURT: Now, who was it you worked with?

9 JUROR KATHERINE HENSON: I didn't say work.

10 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. Okay.

11 JUROR KATHERINE HENSON: I said family.

12 THE COURT: Okay. You knew -- friends --

13 JUROR KATHERINE HENSON: His wife's family.

14 THE COURT: -- with Mr. Golden's wife's family.
15 And then you knew Mr. Golden from school.

16 JUROR KATHERINE HENSON: Right.

17 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
18 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
19 this case?

20 JUROR KATHERINE HENSON: Yes.

21 THE COURT: So you feel like because of that,
22 you just couldn't sit in judgment in this case.

23 JUROR KATHERINE HENSON: No.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 Mr. Robertson, you knew Mr. Golden.

26 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: He worked with my father
27 when I was young.

28 THE COURT: And would that influence you or be
29 a factor in you being a fair and impartial juror?

1 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: No, sir.

2 THE COURT: And if you were selected as a juror
3 in this case, could you base your decision on the
4 evidence presented here in court and on nothing else?

5 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 I'll now ask if any of you were related by blood or 8 by marriage to Carmen Rigby. And also, any of you that 9 knew Carmen Rigby during her life. If you knew Miss
10 Rigby or are related by blood or by marriage to Miss
11 Rigby, if you will please stand.

12 Okay. Miss Quinn, and you -- I'm sorry. Miss
13 Johnson, and you knew Miss Rigby.

14 JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: Well, I knew Miss
15 Rigby and her -- and her husband and her son, but there
16 were close family ties. Should I elaborate on that?

17 THE COURT: As long as you don't get in any
18 facts peculiar to this case.

19 JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: Okay. Well, my
20 brother-in-law and sister were very close to the Rigbys
21 and their sons. My brother-in-law was a baseball coach,
22 and the Rigby boys were involved in baseball.

23 And my brother-in-law at the time was a pall bearer
24 at Mrs. Rigby's funeral. And two of my cousin's sons
25 were also very close to the Rigby boys through their ball
26 playing.

27 Mr. Rigby was my deceased father's insurance agent.
28 My father lived in my home for about a year. And during 29 that time Mr. Rigby came to my home for the purpose of my

1 father's insurance.

2 THE COURT: And would these factors influence
3 you where you could not be a fair and impartial juror in
4 this case?

5 JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: It would be very
6 difficult.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And I believe you also said
8 you are related to Miss Tardy too.

9 JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: My deceased --

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 JUROR PATRICIA JOHNSON: -- brother-in-law was 12 her cousin.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

14 And then Mr. Sykes, and you knew Miss Rigby.

15 JUROR JACK SYKES: I knew Mrs. Rigby. I just 16 knew them, played ball and all.

17 THE COURT: And I believe you already said
18 today because of knowing some of the others that that
19 would, you know, working with Mr. - I'm trying to think -
20 Golden that that would influence you in being fair and
21 impartial; is that correct?

22 JUROR JACK SYKES: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 And then Miss Woods. I'm -- yeah, Miss Woods. You
25 are Mr. Woods though, and I'm looking at the wrong
26 list -- I mean place again. I've got a whole bunch of 27 things I'm trying to keep straight at one time.

28 Forgive me, Mr. Woods. I was looking off for a
29 second, and I looked at your number and looked down at

1 the wrong name.

2 You knew Miss Rigby.

3 JUROR MICHAEL WOODS: Yes, sir. I went to
4 school with Brian and Benji.

5 THE COURT: Those, for the record, are her
6 sons.

7 JUROR MICHAEL WOODS: Yes. I mean I saw her at 8 all the football and baseball games for years. I just 9 knew her my whole life or since I was about five, six
10 years old.

11 THE COURT: I believe you already said maybe
12 knowing Mr. Flowers and knowing -- I would assume these 13 would influence you in being fair and impartial as well;
14 is that correct?

15 JUROR MICHAEL WOODS: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17 Then Miss Griffin, you knew -- you knew her.

18 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I knew her through 19 school. I had her son in journalism class the year his 20 mother was killed.

21 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
22 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
23 case?

24 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: No, sir.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

26 And then Number 19. Miss Eldridge, you knew Miss
27 Rigby.

28 JUROR MERRIAN ELDRIDGE: I did. Carmen and 29 Bennie lived in Kilmichael where I lived for a while. We

1       went to church together. And I taught both the children.
2       Also attended Carmen and Bennie Rigby's wedding. I knew
3       them back before they were married.

4               Not only did we go to church together, but we
5       socialized those years that they lived in Kilmichael and
6       lived close to them.

7               And I have two sons that both of them work closely
8       with Brian and Benji right now. In fact, my youngest son
9       works for Brian Rigby.

10              THE COURT: And would those factors influence
11       you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
12       this case?

13              JUROR MERRIAN ELDRIDGE: Absolutely.

14              THE COURT: Thank you.

15              Then Number 20. And you knew Mrs. Rigby. And how 16       did you --

17              JUROR RANA DAVIS: I knew of her, and I, I know
18       Benji real well.

19              THE COURT: Benji.

20              JUROR RANA DAVIS: Um-hum.

21              THE COURT: And I believe you have already said
22       because of knowing him --

23              JUROR RANA DAVIS: I've already formed an
24       opinion.

25              THE COURT: -- that you could not be fair and
26       impartial; is that correct?

27              JUROR RANA DAVIS: (Shook head.)

28              THE COURT: And Miss Briggs, how, how did you
29       know Mrs. Rigby?

1 JUROR JUDY BRIGGS: Bennie Rigby is -- there is
2 strong family ties there. I know him, grew up with him
3 in church all my life. His sister was married to my
4 first cousin. Consequently, his nieces are my first
5 cousins. I have known him throughout this multiple trial
6 process, and I have formed an opinion.

7 THE COURT: And could you lay that aside, or is 8 that a fixed opinion that could not --

9 JUROR JUDY BRIGGS: It is a fixed opinion.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 And then Mr. Vance. I'm sorry. Miss Vance. You
12 knew Miss Rigby.

13 JUROR TERRI VANCE: Yes, sir. I knew her and 14 her two sons.

15 THE COURT: And I think you also said you knew
16 Miss Roxanne and Miss Bertha and could not be fair
17 because of that; is that correct?

18 JUROR TERRI VANCE: Correct.

19 THE COURT: And then Mr. Waller, you knew Miss
20 Rigby.

21 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: I knew both of them,
22 Bennie and Carmen. Their kids went to school with my 23 daughter. They were involved in school activities
24 together.

25 THE COURT: Would those factors influence you
26 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

27 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: No, sir.

28 THE COURT: And if you are sitting as a juror
29 in this case would you base your decision on the evidence

1 presented here in court and on no other factors?

2 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 Mr. Lester, you knew Miss Rigby.

5 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: I did. I knew her
6 casually, speak, you know, when I saw her in the street.
7 I did know her husband. Bennie and I have been friends
8 for years. I knew her family.

9 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
10 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
11 case?

12 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: No, sir.

13 THE COURT: And if you're selected, again,
14 would you base your decision only on the evidence and
15 nothing else?

16 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 Miss Bartlett.

19 JUROR CHRISTINA BARTLETT: I did not know any
20 of the victims. But I just from moving to the community
21 after it happened, I know of the families.

22 THE COURT: And would anything like that have
23 caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt or
24 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

25 JUROR CHRISTINA BARTLETT: No.

26 THE COURT: And if you are sitting as a juror
27 would you base your decision only on the evidence
28 presented here and on nothing else?

29 JUROR CHRISTINA BARTLETT: Yes.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 And then Mr. McIntyre, you knew Mrs. Rigby.

3 JUROR CHAD MCINTYRE: I didn't know Mrs. Rigby,
4 but I knew Benji and Mr. Rigby.

5 THE COURT: Benji and Bennie.

6 JUROR CHAD MCINTYRE: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
8 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

9 JUROR CHAD MCINTYRE: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 Then Number 66. Miss Windham, and how did you know
12 Mrs. Rigby?

13 JUROR PATSY WINDHAM: I knew her through 14 school. My daughters went to school with the boys, and 15 we had functions at school together.

16 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
17 you or affect you --

18 JUROR PATSY WINDHAM: Yes.

19 THE COURT: -- in being a fair and impartial
20 juror?

21 JUROR PATSY WINDHAM: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 Number 72. Miss Colbert, and --

24 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: I only knew Miss Rigby
25 on sight, because my husband coached her son Brian.

26 THE COURT: And would that be a factor or
27 influence you in being a fair and impartial juror?

28 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: No, sir.

29 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

1           Then Number 81. Miss Hodges, you knew Mrs. Rigby.

2           JUROR REBECCA HODGES: I knew Carmen and Bennie
3 Rigby just to speak to casually.

4           THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5           And then Number 82. Mr. Tompkins.

6           JUROR KENNETH TOMPKINS: I knew Mrs. Carmen,
7 Mr. Bennie. I went to school with both the boys.

8           THE COURT: And would those factors influence
9 you?

10          JUROR KENNETH TOMPKINS: Yes.

11          THE COURT: So you feel like you could not be
12 fair and impartial because of that.

13          JUROR KENNETH TOMPKINS: Right.

14          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

15          Mr. Cross, what is that situation?

16          JUROR PHILLIP CROSS, JR.: I know Mr. Bennie,
17 Benji and Brian. I did not know Miss Carmen at the time.
18 But the rest of them I do know, her two sons and her
19 husband.

20          THE COURT: And would that -- would those 21 factors influence you or be a factor in you being a fair
22 and impartial juror?

23          JUROR PHILLIP CROSS, JR.: Probably so.

24          THE COURT: And so you could not lay that aside
25 and base your decision on the evidence; is that correct?

26          JUROR PHILLIP CROSS, JR.: I don't believe I
27 could.

28          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

29          Number 94. Miss Acy, and how did you know Miss

1 Rigby?

2 JUROR MELISSA ACY: My father and Carmen's
3 father worked together. And both her parents and my
4 parents were lifelong friends, and they lived less than a
5 mile away from my home. And I knew her husband. I know
6 her husband and her two children and have all my life.

7 THE COURT: Would those factors influence you
8 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
9 case?

10 JUROR MELISSA ACY: No.

11 THE COURT: And would you, if you are selected,
12 just base your decision on the evidence presented here in 13 court and on no other factors?

14 JUROR MELISSA ACY: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

16 Mr. Rodgers, tell me how you knew Mrs. Rigby.

17 JUROR STANLEY RODGERS: I didn't know Mrs.
18 Rigby. I did know Benji. Benji and I fished together a
19 little bit in high school.

20 THE COURT: Benji is her son.

21 JUROR STANLEY RODGERS: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
23 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

24 JUROR STANLEY RODGERS: Yes, I have already
25 made an opinion.

26 THE COURT: And could that be set aside --

27 JUROR STANLEY RODGERS: (Shook head.)

28 THE COURT: -- or is that fixed where you could
29 not listen to the case?

1 JUROR STANLEY RODGERS: No.

2 THE COURT: And 107. Mr. Golding, tell us
3 about that.

4 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: I didn't know her. I
5 knew Bennie was her husband, through the church.

6 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
7 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
8 case?

9 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: No.

10 THE COURT: And if you are selected as a juror,
11 would you base your verdict on the evidence and on 12 nothing else but the evidence presented here in court?

13 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 Then Mr. Surrell, tell us about that.

16 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: I did not know Miss
17 Rigby directly. I knew her through her son, Brian, who 18 was a couple of years ahead of me in school.

19 THE COURT: And would that influence you or be 20 a factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in this
21 case?

22 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: No, sir.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 Number 80.

25 JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS: I did not know Miss
26 Carmen, but Bennie did lead the music at our church.

27 THE COURT: Would that be a factor or influence
28 you in being a fair juror in this case?

29 JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS: No, sir. No, sir.

1                   THE COURT: And Miss McCaulla, tell me about
2                   that.

3                   JUROR PAULA MCCAULLA: I did not know Mrs.
4                   Rigby. But since I have moved back to Winona, Bennie and
5                   I have gotten to be real good friends. And I definitely
6                   think that would influence my opinion.

7                   THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8                   Number 111. Mr. Jones.

9                   JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Yes, sir.

10                  THE COURT: And you knew Mrs. Rigby.

11                  JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Yes, sir.

12                  THE COURT: How was that?

13                  JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: I just -- I know the 14                  whole family.

15                  THE COURT: And would knowing them influence
16                  you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

17                  JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: No, sir.

18                  THE COURT: And if you are selected, would you
19                  base your decision only on the evidence presented here
20                  and on no other factors?

21                  JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Absolutely.

22                  THE COURT: Thank you.

23                  And then 119. Miss King.

24                  JUROR ALISHA KING: Yes, sir.

25                  THE COURT: How did you know Miss Rigby?

26                  JUROR ALISHA KING: Through my parents. I also 27                  went to school with her two sons.

28                  THE COURT: And would those factors influence
29                  you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

1 JUROR ALISHA KING: No, sir.

2 THE COURT: And if you were sitting as a juror
3 in this case, would you base your decision only on the
4 evidence presented and on no other factors?

5 JUROR ALISHA KING: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 And then Mr. Austin, you knew Mrs. Rigby.

8 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: I knew the whole family
9 or know the whole family. And my son played high school
10 baseball with Brian.

11 THE COURT: And would that influence you or 12 affect you as a fair juror, being a fair juror in this
13 case?

14 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: No, sir.

15 THE COURT: And would you base your decision
16 only on the evidence presented here in court if you are 17 selected?

18 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 Then Number 122. Miss Woods, how did you know Mrs.
21 Rigby?

22 JUROR MADONNA WOODS: I knew Miss Carmen
23 through school. My daughter attended school with her
24 sons, and she was a classmate of Bobo. And I do have an
25 opinion.

26 THE COURT: Okay. You had a child that was a
27 schoolmate --

28 JUROR MADONNA WOODS: Bobo.

29 THE COURT: -- of Mr. Stewart.

1 JUROR MADONNA WOODS: Bobo.

2 THE COURT: And those factors have caused you
3 to form an opinion; is that --

4 JUROR MADONNA WOODS: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: -- the case? And could that be set
6 aside, or is that a fixed opinion?

7 JUROR MADONNA WOODS: That is fixed.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 Then Number 124. Miss Britt, and you knew Miss
10 Rigby.

11 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I met her once at the 12 store. I know her family - Benji, Bennie and Brian.
13 Bennie and I sing together.

14 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
15 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
16 this case?

17 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: No, they would not.

18 THE COURT: And would you, if you are selected,
19 base your decision only on the evidence presented here in
20 court and on no other factors?

21 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Yes, I would.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 Then 129. Miss Eldridge.

24 JUROR ELIZABETH ELDRIDGE: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: And you knew Mrs. Rigby.

26 JUROR ELIZABETH ELDRIDGE: I didn't really know
27 her, but I do know Bennie. Bennie has performed at 28 several arts council shows. I have worked with him in 29 that capacity, plus he works in the same office building

1 I do.

2 THE COURT: Works in the same building you do.

3 JUROR ELIZABETH ELDRIDGE: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 And then --

6 MR. CARTER: Did you ask her if it would affect 7 her opinion?

8 THE COURT: She has already said on two
9 different --

10 MR. CARTER: Okay. Sorry.

11 THE COURT: -- occasions that she worked for 12 the prosecutor and could not.

13 Number 137. Mr. Robertson.

14 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: I played ball with 15 Brian, known Benji and the rest of the Rigby family all
16 my life.

17 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
18 you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror?

19 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: No, sir.

20 THE COURT: And if you are selected, would you
21 base your decision only on the evidence presented and on 22 no other factors?

23 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: And then Number 139. Mr. Briggs,
25 you knew Miss --

26 JUROR SPENCER BRIGGS: No, sir. I didn't know
27 any of the victims, the families or the defendant, but 28 I'm married to Number 27.

29 THE COURT: Okay. Number 27. So your wife

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 knew some of these individuals though. And I believe
2 you've already said because of your capacity with law
3 enforcement, you just couldn't be fair and impartial
4 anyway; is that correct.

5 JUROR SPENCER BRIGGS: (Nodded.)

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 And then Number 141. And how did you know --

8 JUROR TAMMY BRUCE: Carmen I knew more
9 casually. Bennie was our music director at our church.
10 The morning she was murdered, I was behind her at the 11 bank.

12 THE COURT: So you saw her at the bank --

13 JUROR TAMMY BRUCE: Yes. Before she was 14 murdered.

15 THE COURT: -- shortly before the incident
16 occurred.

17 JUROR TAMMY BRUCE: Um-hum.

18 THE COURT: And I believe you've already said
19 you knew Miss Bertha Tardy and couldn't be fair because 20 of that; is that correct?

21 JUROR TAMMY BRUCE: That is correct.

22 THE COURT: And I would assume that would apply
23 to Miss Rigby also.

24 JUROR TAMMY BRUCE: That is correct.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

26 And then Miss Evans.

27 JUROR GLENDA EVANS: My niece, Brenda Rigby,
28 and Carmen were sister-in-laws. And I have known Carmen
29 since she became my sister-in-law.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           And I also knew Bobo Stewart. He was in my home
2           several times when he was a youngster. And I have formed
3           an opinion, and I could not be...

4           THE COURT: A fair juror?

5           JUROR GLENDA EVANS: No. No, sir.

6           THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7           And then I'll go ahead and get you even though it is
8           not quite in numerical order. Number 143, while we are 9           still over here on this same side of the courtroom. You
10          knew Miss Rigby.

11          JUROR SHERRIE VOLLBRACHT: I just knew Miss
12          Rigby through the furniture store. But her niece and I
13          were friends. And her husband, he and I attend the same
14          church.

15          THE COURT: And would that influence you or
16          affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
17          case?

18          JUROR SHERRIE VOLLBRACHT: Yes, sir.

19          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20          Number 145. Miss Ingram, how did you know Mrs.
21          Rigby?

22          JUROR JENNIFER INGRAM: I knew Mrs. Rigby
23          through her son Brian. We were good friends, went to 24          school together. And also, my sister-in-law and Brian
25          dated for several years.

26          THE COURT: Would these factors influence you
27          or affect you in being a fair juror in this case?

28          JUROR JENNIFER INGRAM: Yes, they would.

29          THE COURT: Thank you.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 MRS. STEINER: Did she say yes, Your Honor?

2 MR. CARTER: Did she say yes?

3 THE COURT: She said it would.

4 Then Number 132. Mr. Bridges.

5 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: I work at Dacus
6 Furniture. I, I have known them in the capacity to be 7 working at the furniture store.

8 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
9 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror today?

10 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 And then Number 151. Miss Rainey, how did you know
13 Mrs. Rigby?

14 JUROR ANGELA RAINEY: I grew up in Kilmichael
15 and knew her through my parents, going to different
16 functions. And that wouldn't affect my opinion.

17 But I followed this through the years, and I already
18 have an opinion about this trial.

19 THE COURT: So you have got a formed, fixed
20 opinion on the case.

21 JUROR ANGELA RAINEY: (Nodded.)

22 THE COURT: Could you lay that aside and base
23 your decision on the evidence?

24 JUROR ANGELA RAINEY: No.

25 THE COURT: So you have -- saying then that you
26 could not be a fair and impartial juror; is that correct?

27 JUROR ANGELA RAINEY: No, I could not.

28 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

29 Then --

1 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: I knew Mr. Golden. I
2 worked at the same company where his brother works.

3 THE COURT: Worked with Mr. Golden's brother.

4 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Would that influence you in any
6 way?

7 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: No.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 COURT REPORTER: Judge, what was her number?

10 THE COURT: Number 75.

11 Counsel, if you will approach.

12 (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MRS. STEINER AND MR. CARTER
13 APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE FOLLOWING BENCH CONFERENCE HAD
14 OUTSIDE THE HEARING OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS.)

15 THE COURT: It looks like already I'm getting a
16 good number of people that are repeating over and over
17 that they can't be fair and impartial because of 18 different reasons, and I was just thinking this might be 19 a good time for us to recess and go ahead and excuse some 20 for cause.

21 You know, I mean we can constantly be receiving the 22 same answers from them. But I don't really -- you know,
23 if somebody says on everybody whose name is called that
24 they can't be fair and impartial, I don't believe there
25 is much point in keeping on having them say it over and 26 over. But you know, I'll just leave that up to y'all.

27 MR. CARTER: Are you talking about taking a
28 break, or are you talking about a recess for today?

29 THE COURT: No. Not recess for the day. I am

1 talking about taking a break to do that. Letting the
2 jury go out and have a recess. And then us take up some
3 names that we know already can be excused for cause and 4 then continue.

5 MR. EVANS: It knocked the panel down quite a
6 bit.

7 MR. CARTER: To be perfectly honest, I have
8 been thinking about trying to ask or rehabilitate a few
9 of them that, that they know Mr. Flowers, not actually
10 kin to him. Of course, I don't know if I would have any 11 success, and I may very well not. Then I might get one 12 or two.

13 What you think, Alison?

14 MRS. STEINER: (Inaudible.)

15 COURT REPORTER: Judge, I can't hear Mrs.
16 Steiner.

17 THE COURT: Well, if we get to some that you
18 feel like possibly could be rehabilitated, we sure don't 19 have to excuse them for cause right now. But I think --
20 but I think there is a lot of them that it is going to be 21 just absolutely perfectly clear that -- so I will just 22 ask all the jurors to step out. And then -- and then we 23 will take up some of those.

24 (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

25 Ladies and gentlemen, we are going to take a little
26 recess. I am going to confer with counsel on some stuff.
27 So if you are on the jury panel, you will need to step
28 out at this time. I mean I was going to allow you to 29 have a recess, because I imagine you are ready for a rest

1 break anyway. Probably be about 15 minutes or something
2 like that. The bailiffs will come -- they will open the 3 door and tell you when to come back in.

4 Any of the spectators or anything, you are welcome
5 to stay. But if you are on the jury, if you will,
6 please, step out for a little bit.

7 (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

8 Counsel, if you can approach the bench. We will 9 talk loud enough where everybody can hear. But we can 10 kind of just look at the notes now.

11 (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MR. HOWIE, MR. HOPPER, MRS. STEINER
12 AND MR. CARTER APPROACHED THE BENCH.)

13 THE COURT: Okay. Miss Johnson, Number 4, has 14 stated on several people that she did not feel she could
15 be fair and impartial.

16 Do both sides agree on her being struck for cause?

17 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Then Mr. Sykes, Number 7, was, was 19 saying, you know, he, he knew Mr. Golden. He knew Miss
20 Tardy. He has got a lot of different reasons why he said
21 he could not be fair and impartial.

22 Do y'all agree on him?

23 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

24 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: And then Miss Mills, Number 26 -
26 I'm sorry, original Number 26, Number 9 - knew Bertha 27 Tardy, bought furniture from her. She worked at the 28 bank.

29 Do y'all agree on her for cause?

Challenges for Cause

1 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Miss Jefcoat. She knew Miss Tardy
3 and Miss Ballard and said she could not be fair and
4 impartial.

5 Do both of y'all agree?

6 MRS. STEINER: Yes, sir.

7 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Then Number 13. He said that he 9 was friends with the Rigby boy, Mr. Rigby's sons. And 10 also, he had transported Mr. Flowers back and forth
11 during the proceedings at different times and could not
12 be fair and impartial.

13 Do y'all agree on that one?

14 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Number 19. Miss Eldridge. She
16 knew Mr. Rigby's children, taught them, brother-in-law
17 chief over at -- over at Kilmichael. She said for 18 several reasons she could not be fair and impartial.

19 Do y'all agree on that one?

20 MRS. STEINER: Yes, sir.

21 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Then Gina -- Rana Gwen Davis,
23 Number 20, knew Bertha from the store, knew Bennie Rigby,
24 knew the Stewart child and said she could not be fair and
25 impartial.

26 Do y'all agree on that one?

27 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

28 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

29 THE COURT: Now 61. I mean -- I'm sorry. 21.

1 Mr. Sims that said his wife and Curtis Flowers are second
2 or third cousins and that he could not be a fair and
3 impartial juror.

4 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on that one?

6 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, 21, I, I had written
7 down could affect, but I'm -- and I'm not sure if that
8 was definitive but I...

9 THE COURT: We can certainly wait on striking
10 that one.

11 MR. CARTER: I have can't be fair.

12 MRS. STEINER: Oh, okay. Then I --

13 THE COURT: Do y'all agree then on Number 21
14 for cause?

15 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

16 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: And then Mr. Russell, Number 23,
18 said he could not be fair and impartial.

19 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: He is related to Mr. Flowers.

21 MR. CARTER: 23.

22 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on him?

23 MR. CARTER: Yeah. Yeah. Yeah.

24 THE COURT: And then Miss Kirkwood said close
25 to Curtis Flowers, close to his family. I believe works 26 for -- with his brother. Also been places where they 27 sang together.

28 MR. CARTER: I can't agree to that one, Your
29 Honor.

1 THE COURT: We can certainly keep somebody and
2 take them up again later. I mean this is just --

3 MR. EVANS: Well, Your Honor, the ones that are
4 clear -- if we are going to keep some, we might as well
5 keep them all. I mean these are clear as they can be.
6 They unequivocally said they could not be fair and
7 impartial.

8 THE COURT: What is -- what is the basis for
9 thinking Miss Kirkwood could come back in and say
10 something different than what she already said?

11 MR. CARTER: Because I wanted to, quite 12 frankly, voir dire her, ask her questions. She said she 13 knows Curtis from singing.

14 THE COURT: And she knows --

15 MR. CARTER: Were cousin and sisters?

16 THE COURT: I believe brother, sister and
17 cousin. And said she was close to Curtis Flowers.

18 MR. HOWIE: She was around him all the time.

19 THE COURT: Friday she said she was real -- she 20 was the one that wanted to be excused Friday, because she 21 was saying she was close to Mr. Flowers. And we asked
22 her to come on back today, and she is saying the same
23 thing today that she said.

24 MR. CARTER: Okay. Your Honor, I, I agree to 25 that one, reluctantly.

26 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, did we strike Number
27 23 also?

28 THE COURT: Right.

29 MRS. STEINER: Okay.

Challenges for Cause

1 THE COURT: Then we are down to Miss Briggs,
2 Number 27.

3 Y'all agree on Miss Briggs?

4 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Then Miss -- his sister-in-law, I
6 believe. Is this Number 31? Yeah. I'm sorry. We 7 skipped over Number 28, Miss Vance.

8 MR. EVANS: We agree.

9 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on Number 28?

10 MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Then how about Number 31?
12 Sister-in-law.

13 MR. CARTER: Oh, yeah.

14 MRS. STEINER: Oh, yes.

15 MR. EVANS: 31?

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MR. EVANS: Oh, yeah. Yeah.

18 THE COURT: Then Miss Biggers. Well, she knew
19 Miss Tardy. She knew Miss Tardy's mother. She's --

20 MR. EVANS: We agree.

21 THE COURT: Y'all agree on --

22 MR. CARTER: Is this 32?

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. CARTER: Or 33?

25 MR. HILL: 32.

26 THE COURT: 32. Well, 33, also. But right now
27 we are on 32.

28 Do y'all agree on 32?

29 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, this is one person

1 who -- and if someone else has different notes. He said
2 he knew his sister.

3 THE COURT: No, this is a female. Number 32.

4 MRS. STEINER: Oh, I apologize.

5 MR. CARTER: He did say he couldn't be fair.
6 Yeah.

7 MRS. STEINER: Yeah, he did -- she did say
8 that. She said she couldn't be fair. 32, we have no
9 objection.

10 THE COURT: Then Jessie Lee Crawford.

11 MRS. STEINER: This is -- this is one of the 12 ones --

13 THE COURT: Said his son and Curtis' sister
14 have a baby together.

15 MR. EVANS: Yeah.

16 MR. HILL: Said it would affect him.

17 MR. EVANS: And it would affect him.

18 MRS. STEINER: He said it probably would.

19 MR. CARTER: Right. I want to voir dire that 20 one.

21 MRS. STEINER: That one I wrote down probably,
22 Your Honor.

23 MR. CARTER: I wrote doubts fairness.

24 MRS. STEINER: Doubts fairness. I think that 25 --

26 THE COURT: I can leave him on. I mean we
27 don't have to get rid of him right now. I mean
28 individual voir dire and other things can make it clear.

29 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, for the record I object

1 to them only objecting to cause strikes on certain
2 jurors. I think it is very clear that they are only
3 objecting cause on black jurors, and this is extremely 4 improper.

5 THE COURT: I don't think it is improper.
6 There is only one juror so far that they have asked not
7 to strike.

8 MR. EVANS: Two.

9 THE COURT: No. They agreed on the other one.

10 MR. EVANS: Well, they objected and then
11 agreed, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: After they looked further at their
13 notes, but I --

14 MR. EVANS: I just wanted to make a record.

15 THE COURT: I mean there is going to be
16 multiple times to have jurors excused for cause
17 throughout. This process is just beginning.

18 MR. EVANS: That was 33.

19 THE COURT: Then Number 36 is married to Mr.
20 Flowers' cousin. Also, he said he was close friends with 21 Mr. Golden and that he could not be -- I think close
22 friends and maybe related to Mr. Golden too.

23 MR. HOWIE: I thought he said it was his
24 cousin.

25 THE COURT: The gentlemen was sitting back
26 there on about the third row.

27 MRS. STEINER: Right. He said he can't fair.

28 THE COURT: Y'all agree on him?

29 MR. CARTER: We agree.

1 MRS. STEINER: Right. He had been equivocal
2 about the Flowers connection but unequivocal about the
3 Golden connection.

4 THE COURT: Then Miss Givens. Number 147.

5 MR. EVANS: How about 37?

6 MR. HOWIE: 37.

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Did I overlook
8 something? Julia Campbell. I --

9 MR. EVANS: Her mother is cousin to the 10 defendant, and it would affect her.

11 MR. HOWIE: Yes, sir.

12 MR. CARTER: She said she couldn't be fair.

13 THE COURT: I see that now. I had overlooked
14 that note, but I agree.

15 Do y'all both --

16 MR. CARTER: Yeah, we agree.

17 MRS. STEINER: Yes.

18 THE COURT: I had just clean overlooked that
19 note for a second, turning onto the next page.

20 MR. EVANS: We have got one more on that page.
21 43.

22 MR. CARTER: Which one?

23 MR. HOWIE: 43.

24 THE COURT: Well, I actually have page numbers
25 different than y'all, because I made my own list up.

26 MR. EVANS: Number 43 worked with his father,
27 worked with his sister at Angelica, knows Archie from 28 singing and all that would affect him.

29 MRS. STEINER: Her.

1 MR. EVANS: Her I mean.

2 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on Rita Young?

3 MR. CARTER: Yeah. She did say she couldn't --
4 well, well, she said she couldn't be fair.

5 THE COURT: Let's skip back up to Margaret Ann
6 Givens, because I, I -- she, she is related to Robert
7 Golden.

8 MR. EVANS: What, what number, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: 41. And I think she said she, you
10 know...

11 MR. EVANS: 41 said it would not affect her.
12 She is related to Robert Golden, first cousin, have known
13 him for a long time, and it would not affect her.

14 THE COURT: I thought she later said it would.
15 But we will do just like that one we didn't excuse for 16 Mr. Flowers. And we'll allow further questioning about,
17 about her.

18 Then I see next, Number 46, Mr. Daniels.

19 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

20 MR. CARTER: Hold on. On 41, didn't she say
21 she --

22 MRS. STEINER: I think the judge said we should 23 probably --

24 THE COURT: We will wait, as I say, like the 25 other one y'all wanted to keep around, and ask her
26 further questions.

27 Then James Daniels. Number 46.

28 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. We agree with 46.

29 MRS. STEINER: He, he also came forth.

Challenges for Cause

1 THE COURT: The next one I see is 40. I'm
2 sorry, 52. Henry Lee Campbell.

3 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

4 MRS. STEINER: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: And then Number 61, his daddy was a
6 deputy sheriff during the time that this was being
7 investigated. And also, he said he knew the Rigbys, Miss
8 Rigby's sons.

9 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

10 MR. CARTER: Agree.

11 MRS. STEINER: Agree.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Then Number 66, Miss
13 Windham. She knows Carmen Rigby and knew her kids from 14 school and --

15 MR. CARTER: Agree with that.

16 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: And then Number 70. Miss Carodine.
18 She knows Miss Flowers. She knows Archie Flowers. Her
19 mother Lola works with Priscilla.

20 MR. CARTER: Which one are we on? 70?

21 MRS. STEINER: 70.

22 MR. EVANS: 70. We agree, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Right. Annie Ruth Carodine.

24 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, the last quote I
25 have on her is she believes it would affect. And I don't 26 think she gave Your Honor a definitive answer. I think
27 she is one of the few who wouldn't commit either way.
28 And I think she should be --

29 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, she clearly said it

Challenges for Cause

1 would affect her and never equivocated. She said she
2 knew the defendant, knew his father, knew his mother,
3 worked with his sister at LuVada, worked on the same line
4 with his sister at LuVada and it would affect her.

5 MR. CARTER: She is one of the ones, Your
6 Honor, we wanted to ask her further questions.

7 THE COURT: We can -- as I say, we have got two 8 already that we, you know, are not agreeing on. And we 9 can leave some. You know, I mean it's not like there is 10 not going to be a lot of opportunity to bring those back
11 up again if necessary.

12 MRS. STEINER: Right.

13 THE COURT: Number 71. Miss Stewart.

14 MR. HILL: She said the defendant's brother and 15 her son were best friends.

16 MR. EVANS: She had known him and the family
17 for many years. It would affect her.

18 MRS. STEINER: She said it would affect her.

19 THE COURT: I will strike Number -- allow 71
20 for cause.

21 And then Mr. Varnes. Number 271.

22 MR. EVANS: 73.

23 THE COURT: I'm sorry. 73. What I have, is I
24 have got the original number. Then I have also got --
25 the original number and the new number because of trying
26 to keep those questionnaires straight.

27 Do y'all both agree on Number --

28 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

29 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Then Number 74. Mr. Doyle.

2 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. Mother and her aunt are
3 best friends. His mother and her aunt are best friends.
4 Works with Archie. Friends with Sherita, his sister. It
5 would affect her -- him.

6 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on that one?

7 MR. CARTER: Do you agree, Alison?

8 MRS. STEINER: I don't have notes for --

9 MR. CARTER: Well, Your Honor, she is certainly 10 one of the ones I had planned to voir dire further. She 11 certainly did say --

12 MRS. STEINER: He.

13 MR. CARTER: I mean he did that say he knows --
14 said, said he couldn't be fair.

15 THE COURT: Do you agree on cause then?

16 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir, I guess. Reluctantly.

17 THE COURT: Then Number 77. Mr. Hammond.

18 MR. CARTER: 77.

19 THE COURT: Then 79. Known Miss Tardy all her
20 life. Knows Roxanne.

21 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Good friends with them. Knows
23 Bennie.

24 Do y'all agree on that one?

25 MRS. STEINER: 79. Yes.

26 THE COURT: Rebecca Hodges. She works for the 27 -- I'm sorry. She is married to the county prosecutor
28 and said she could not be fair and impartial being 29 married to --

1 Do y'all agree on that one?

2 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 MRS. STEINER: I think she is actually Dr.
4 Hodges.

5 THE COURT: Yes, she is.

6 And then Mr. Tompkins. He knows the Rigbys, Miss
7 Rigby's sons, and appears to be about the same age as
8 Miss Rigby's sons were. And he said he couldn't be fair
9 and impartial.

10 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Then Phillip Cross, Jr. Number 84.
12 Do y'all agree on that one?

13 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

14 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

15 MRS. STEINER: Yeah. He wanted to talk about 16 knowing Rigby the first time he stood up.

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 Then Number 85 knows Miss, Miss Flowers. Friends
19 with Sherita. He said he could not be fair.

20 MRS. STEINER: She.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry. She could not be fair.

22 MRS. STEINER: I think she dated the same
23 cousin as somebody else.

24 THE COURT: Right.

25 Do y'all agree on that one?

26 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

27 MRS. STEINER: Yes, sir.

28 THE COURT: Then Carlean Green.

29 MR. CARTER: What's the number for her?

Challenges for Cause

1                   THE COURT: Number 86. She is related to Mr.
2                   Flowers, said a cousin of his. And she is also a first
3                   cousin to Robert Golden by marriage.

4                   MR. CARTER: We agree, Your Honor.

5                   THE COURT: Number 86. Miss Green.

6                   Okay. 88. Mr. Hayes.

7                   MR. CARTER: First cousins. Can't be fair. We 8                   agree.

9                   THE COURT: 88 struck for cause.

10                  Then let's see. Number 89. Miss Tompkins. I'm 11                  sorry. Miss Tompkins is not here today. She got -- she 12                  is in the hospital or something. Her husband called this 13                  morning. And she is now in the hospital.

14                  And then Number 90. Miss Forrest or -- yeah. Miss
15                  Forrest.

16                  MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

17                  MR. CARTER: We agree.

18                  THE COURT: Then Miss Suggs. Number 99.

19                  MR. HOWIE: How about 97?

20                  MR. HILL: What about 97?

21                  THE COURT: I overlooked 97. I, I -- Number
22                  97, Brandon Flowers is Archie, Jr.'s son and Curtis'
23                  nephew. And he said he could not be fair.

24                  Okay. Miss Suggs. Number 99.

25                  MRS. STEINER: Miss Suggs is another one who
26                  the last thing she said in response to Your Honor's
27                  questions was I believe it would affect. Not -- you 28                  know, most jurors agreed, but she was one of the 29                  unequivocal ones that I had written down. I don't know

1 if somebody has different...

2 MR. EVANS: I have her niece is first cousins,
3 Patricia Flowers. They are very close to the family, and
4 it would affect her.

5 THE COURT: She said they were very close to
6 the Flowers family, but I will let her hang around a
7 little longer and get that clear.

8 MRS. STEINER: She may be excused, Judge, but 9 it -- I, I put I believe.

10 THE COURT: Then Stanley, Stanley William
11 Rodgers, Number 100, knew the Rigby family, knew Benji
12 Rigby.

13 Y'all agree on --

14 MR. EVANS: He said it would affect him. Yes,
15 sir.

16 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir. We agree.

17 THE COURT: Michael Andrew Parker.

18 MR. CARTER: We agree.

19 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on that one?

20 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Timothy Bays. Paul Timothy Bays.

22 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: 102. Let's see. Can't be fair.
24 Okay.

25 THE COURT: Number 109. Eddie Benard Flowers.
26 Related to Curtis. He said he could not be fair.

27 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

28 MR. CARTER: We agree.

29 THE COURT: Okay. Then L.D. Daniels. Number

1 112.

2 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 MR. CARTER: We agree.

4 THE COURT: Let's just call, call her Miss
5 Magee. I mean Mr. -- call him Mr. Magee. His brother
6 dated --

7 Is that a male or female?

8 MR. HOWIE: Female, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I had the race -- I mean,
10 I'm sorry, the sex down wrong, but I knew it didn't sound
11 like a male name. Said her brother dated Mr. Flowers'
12 sister. And she could not be fair and impartial.

13 Do y'all agree on that one?

14 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

15 MR. CARTER: She said she didn't know Curtis,
16 also.

17 MR. HILL: Knew Priscilla.

18 THE COURT: But she did say that she couldn't 19 be fair and impartial, that her brother dated --

20 MR. EVANS: Priscilla.

21 THE COURT: -- Priscilla.

22 MR. EVANS: And that she could not be fair.

23 MR. CARTER: To be real honest, I mean I agree
24 with everything I just heard. But the only reason I want
25 to voir dire her is because she said she didn't know
26 Curtis. She might still say she, she can't be fair.

27 THE COURT: Well, I was assuming a relationship
28 with Priscilla precluded her from being able to sit in 29 judgment on Curtis.

1 MR. CARTER: It might. It might.

2 What do you think, Alison?

3 THE COURT: Let her go for cause?

4 MRS. STEINER: Yes, sir.

5 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Then Diann Kilpatrick knows Curtis,
7 works with Sharonda. Said she could not be fair. Baby
8 by Curtis' --

9 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, this is another one
10 who I said -- who I thought the final thing she said,
11 Your Honor, is I believe I can't be fair. I don't know
12 that...

13 THE COURT: Is there a difference in saying I
14 believe I can't be fair and -- but I mean, I'll allow her
15 to be voir dired some more.

16 MR. CARTER: Well, she actually said at one
17 point she probably couldn't be fair, but I thought she 18 came back to another question and said she could be fair.
19 That is what I have.

20 MRS. STEINER: She can be excused.

21 THE COURT: Do y'all agree to have her excused
22 for cause?

23 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir. That's what my notes
24 say.

25 THE COURT: Then Number 116. Miss Powell.

26 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

27 THE COURT: Carpools with Miss Sherita. She
28 knows Curtis and said she couldn't be fair.

29 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Madonna Woods.

2 MR. HOWIE: What about 117?

3 THE COURT: Did I overlook somebody?

4 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. 117.

5 THE COURT: Yeah. 117. Miss Vail. Bertha
6 Tardy was her second cousin.

7 Do y'all agree on that one?

8 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Then Madonna Woods, Number 122,
10 knows Miss Rigby.

11 MR. EVANS: We agree, Your Honor.

12 MR. CARTER: We agree.

13 THE COURT: Then 129. She works -- she is 14 secretary for the county prosecutor.

15 MRS. STEINER: Um-hum.

16 MR. EVANS: We agree.

17 MRS. STEINER: And she worked for the A.G.'s
18 office.

19 THE COURT: Right. Allow Miss Eldridge for 20 cause.

21 Then Miss Sanders.

22 MR. EVANS: How about 131?

23 MR. HILL: Said Curtis dated her sister.

24 THE COURT: I thought she said she could be
25 fair and impartial.

26 MR. HILL: She said Curtis dated her sister.

27 THE COURT: Yeah. She did say that.

28 MR. EVANS: I've got that he used to date her
29 sister, and it would affect her.

1 MRS. STEINER: She said it -- I was like Your
2 Honor. I thought she said it might affect, but she
3 hasn't said she couldn't be fair.

4 THE COURT: Just wait around on her and make
5 sure I get clear in my notes, because I don't want any --
6 I want to be totally clear on that.

7 Okay. Then Number 133, Sanders.

8 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on that one?

10 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: And Henson. Number 134.

12 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Number 139. Mr. Briggs said he was 14 a police officer in Memphis and because of his prior 15 experience as a police department officer he could not be 16 fair.

17 Do y'all agree on him?

18 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

19 MRS. STEINER: We agree.

20 THE COURT: And then Miss Sutton, Number 140,
21 related to Curtis' cousin.

22 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: 140. Yeah.

24 THE COURT: Miss Bruce, Number 141. Then
25 Glenda Evans, 142.

26 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

27 MR. CARTER: We agree.

28 THE COURT: Vollbracht, Number 143.

29 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Forrest, Number 144.

2 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 MR. CARTER: Agree.

4 THE COURT: Stacy Forrest Black, 150.

5 MR. EVANS: Your Honor --

6 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor --

7 THE COURT: Did I miss somebody?

8 MR. EVANS: I've got -- I've got 145 and 146.

9 THE COURT: 145.

10 MRS. STEINER: I have 145 and 1 --

11 MR. EVANS: I may have written it wrong. Let 12 me look at my notes.

13 THE COURT: Yeah, 146 I do have. I had 14 overlooked Number 145.

15 Do y'all both agree on 145?

16 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Then 146. I -- it was so close to 18 the top of the page, the staple had it where I couldn't 19 see it.

20 Do y'all agree on that one too?

21 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Harold Coleman Carpenter.

23 MRS. STEINER: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: In fact, Bertha was his wife's
25 aunt. I believe is what he said.

26 MRS. STEINER: That's correct.

27 MR. CARTER: 146.

28 THE COURT: Yeah. 146.

29 Then Stacy Forrest Black.

1 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

2 MR. CARTER: That's 150.

3 THE COURT: Right.

4 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: And then Miss Rainey, Number 151.

6 MRS. STEINER: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Knew Mr. Rigby from school.

8 MRS. STEINER: She has an opinion.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. EVANS: We agree.

11 THE COURT: Najaleh Cage, Number 153.

12 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

13 MR. HOPPER: Yes, sir.

14 MR. CARTER: What did she say? I wrote down
15 may not be fair.

16 MR. WHITFIELD: Your Honor, for the purposes --

17 THE COURT: She is under indictment for 18 perjury. I think she said because of that she couldn't
19 be fair and impartial.

20 MR. CARTER: Okay. Yeah. She said it.

21 THE COURT: And then Lawrence McCloud, married
22 to his --

23 MR. CARTER: Right. 156.

24 THE COURT: Number 156. Married --

25 MR. EVANS: You've got Woods too. 155.

26 MR. HOWIE: She's a cousin --

27 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm sorry. Number 155.

28 MR. CARTER: We agree.

29 THE COURT: And then 156.

1 Do y'all agree there?

2 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: And I don't know; I'm going to just
4 throw this out here. I don't care if the person stays on 5 or not. Right now she said she can be fair and 6 impartial, but we have got somebody that is on some
7 non-adjudication. That is, I believe --

8 MR. WHITFIELD: Christy Bartlett.

9 MR. HOWIE: 55.

10 MR. EVANS: I think that is kind of risky.

11 THE COURT: Well, I mean my concern is that if 12 she -- you know, she could --

13 MR. EVANS: She could be a convicted felon
14 before --

15 THE COURT: Well, yeah. But not only that, she 16 may think, okay, well, if I were to stay and support the 17 case for the State on this, then that could curry favor
18 with them. And if she -- you know, if she votes not
19 guilty, then it could be bad favor with them. So I don't 20 --

21 MR. CARTER: I agree with you, Your Honor.

22 MR. EVANS: State agrees also.

23 THE COURT: Well, I'm going to --

24 MR. EVANS: It is just too risky.

25 THE COURT: That is Number 55, Miss Bartlett.

26 MR. HOWIE: Yes, sir.

27 THE COURT: I imagine y'all are ready to 28 stretch for a few minutes too. Why don't we just take a
29 10-minute break and have the jurors come in in ten more

1 minutes?

2 (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

3 (A RECESS WAS TAKEN.)

4 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, may we approach?

5 THE COURT: Counsel, if you will approach.

6 (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MR. HOWIE, MRS. STEINER AND MR.

7 CARTER APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE FOLLOWING BENCH CONFERENCE
8 HAD OUTSIDE THE HEARING OF THE COURTROOM AUDIENCE.)

9 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, one of my interns
10 who is sitting very close to the jury -- I think this is 11 going to call for somewhat of an individual voir dire on 12 Juror Number 3. When Juror Number 4 advised the Court
13 that she could not be fair, we -- Juror Number 3 was 14 overheard saying you are not supposed to say that. And I
15 think that Juror Number 3 is going to require some
16 individual voir dire.

17 THE COURT: When we -- because I intend to 18 individual voir dire on the knowledge of the case and on 19 the death penalty question, if there is any other issue
20 that comes up during the group voir dire that calls for 21 individual as to particular individual, we will take it
22 up then.

23 MRS. STEINER: That will be fine, Your Honor.
24 I had just -- heretofore she had not answered any
25 questions.

26 THE COURT: Okay.

27 MRS. STEINER: And I wanted to put on the 28 record we were going to ask for individual voir dire on 29 her.

1 (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

2 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, at this time
3 there are a few jurors that we are going to be able to
4 excuse. So as your name is called, you may go. And you
5 can just leave your little fan there in the pew where you
6 are sitting.

7 But Patricia Johnson, you may go at this time.

8 And then Jack Sykes, you may go.

9 And Diana Stoker Mills, you may go.

10 And Patricia Jefcoat, you may go.

11 Michael Develle Woods, you may go.

12 Merrian Eldridge, you may go.

13 Rana Gwen Davis, you may go.

14 Larry Sims, you may go.

15 And Anthony Dallas Russell, you may go.

16 And Melinda Kirkwood, you may go.

17 Judy Briggs, you may go.

18 And Terri Alaina Vance, you may go.

19 And Miss Votrice Flowers, you may go.

20 And Tareeca Ann Biggers, you may go.

21 Arthur Knight, you may go.

22 Julia Campbell, you may go.

23 Rita May Young, you may go.

24 James Daniels, you may go.

25 Henry Lee Campbell, you may go.

26 Christina Bartlett, you may go.

27 Chad Thomas McIntyre, you may go.

28 Patsy Ann Windham, you may go.

29 Barbara Jean Stewart, you may go.

1 Richard Dale Varnes, you may go.

2 Ellis Doyle, you may go.

3 Ronald Hammond, you may go.

4 Pamela McCaulla, you may go.

5 Rebecca Hodges, you may go.

6 Kenneth Joseph Tompkins, you may go.

7 Phillip Cross, Jr., you may go.

8 Mary Dewanda Seals, you may go.

9 Carlean Green, you may go.

10 Alphonso Hayes, you may go.

11 Regina Diane Tompkins. I'm sorry. She is the one
12 that is in the hospital, but she is marked off the list.

13 Number 90, Lynell Forrest, you may go.

14 Brandon Flowers, Number 97, you may go.

15 Revell Suggs, Number 99, you may go.

16 Stanley William Rodgers, Number 100, you may go.

17 Michael Andrew Parker, Number 101, you may go.

18 Paul Timothy Bays, Number 102, you may go.

19 Eddie Benard Flowers, Number 109, you may go.

20 L.D. Daniels, Number 112, you may go.

21 Number 113, Miss Magee, you may go.

22 Number 116, Cynthia Rena Powell, you may go.

23 MR. HILL: Number 114.

24 THE COURT: I said Number 114, already, didn't
25 I?

26 Have I said Diann Kilpatrick?

27 Okay. You may go. Wait a minute. Yeah. I'm 28 sorry. Go ahead and go.

29 Christy Vail, Number 117, you may go.

Jurors Excused/Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           Madonna Woods, Number 122, you may go.

2           Elizabeth Ann Eldridge, Number 129, you may go.

3           Hattie Sanders, 133, you may go.

4           Katherine Henson, Number 134, you may go.

5           Spencer Tracy Briggs, Number 139, you may go.

6           Shanta Sutton, Number 140, you may go.

7           Tammy Elizabeth Bruce, Number 141, you may go.

8           Glenda Evans, Number 142, you may go.

9           Number 143, Sherrie Mae Vollbracht, you may go.

10          Number 144, Theo Ware Forrest, you may go.

11          Number 145, Jennifer Carpenter Ingram, you may go.

12          Number 146, Harold Coleman Carpenter, you may go.

13          Number 150, Stacy Forrest Black, you may go.

14          Number 151, Angela Rainey, you may go.

15          Number 153, Najaleh Cage, you may go.

16          158, Miss Woods, you may go.

17                 MR. EVANS: 155.

18                 THE COURT: 155. I'm sorry.

19                 Then Number 156, Mr. Lawrence McCloud, you may go.

20                 I'll continue now with some questions from the
21                 Court.

22                 I want to know if any of you are related by blood or 23                 by marriage to Derrick Stewart or if any of you knew 24                 Derrick Stewart during his lifetime. I believe his 25                 nickname was Bobo. Are any of you related by blood or by 26                 marriage to Mr. Stewart or any of you that knew Mr.
27                 Stewart during his life, if you would please stand.

28                 Miss Griffin, how did you know Mr. Stewart?

29                         JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: He was an English student

1 of mine, former student.

2 THE COURT: And was he a student, like,
3 preceding the time when this occurred or --

4 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: He was.

5 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
6 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

7 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: (Shook head.)

8 THE COURT: And I believe you were Mr. Flowers'
9 teacher at one point. You taught, I guess, a number of 10 people through the years at school.

11 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: (Nodded.)

12 THE COURT: And so would you base your decision
13 only on the evidence presented in court and on no other
14 factors?

15 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17 And then Number 29. Mr. Waller, and you --

18 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: I just knew him through 19 school. He went to school with my daughter. He was 20 younger, but I know him and know his dad and mother and 21 aunt.

22 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
23 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
24 case?

25 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: No, sir.

26 THE COURT: And would you lay aside any
27 knowledge you have of anybody and base your decision only
28 on the evidence presented here in court?

29 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 Then Number 50. Mr. Lester, and you knew Mr.
3 Stewart.

4 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: Indirectly. My wife is a
5 first grade teacher. He was in her class.

6 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
7 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

8 JUROR BOBBY LESTER: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 And Number 39. Mr. Green, you knew Mr. Stewart.

11 JUROR JAMES GREEN: No, I did not. I'm an 12 acquaintance of his father.

13 THE COURT: You knew Mr. Stewart's father. And 14 how do you know him?

15 JUROR JAMES GREEN: Same occupation. Truck
16 driver.

17 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
18 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

19 JUROR JAMES GREEN: Yes, sir, it would.

20 THE COURT: So the fact that you know Mr.
21 Stewart's father, you just feel like you couldn't be fair
22 because of that; is that correct?

23 JUROR JAMES GREEN: Correct.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 Number 54. Miss Box, and tell us about that.

26 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: I work at the school. I
27 knew him, him and his brother both when they were in 28 school.

29 THE COURT: And would that influence you or

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
2 case?

3 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: No.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5 Number 69. Mr. Carpenter, and you knew Mr. Stewart.

6 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: I knew him in passing.
7 I coached little league baseball for about six or seven
8 or eight years, and he was always around the ball field.

9 But I grew up with his daddy and his aunt. I know
10 all of his -- Stewarts, and I know all the Loftons. So
11 I...

12 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
13 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
14 this case?

15 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: No, sir.

16 THE COURT: And would you lay aside any
17 knowledge you have of people, family-wise and base your 18 decision only on the evidence presented here in court?

19 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Then Number 72. Miss Colbert, you knew Mr. Stewart.
22 Is that from --

23 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: I knew him through my 24 husband's coaching and teaching of both Bobo and his
25 brother, Dale, and cousins and just through school.

26 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
27 affect you in being a fair juror in this case?

28 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: Would not.

29 THE COURT: And would you base your decision

1           only on the evidence presented here in court?

2                   JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: Yes, I would.

3                   THE COURT: Thank you.

4                   Miss Simmons. Number 80.

5                   JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS: Yes, sir. Bobo's older
6 brother and my son graduated, went all the way through 7 school together. And I knew Bobo would be around. But
8 personally, I did not know him.

9                   THE COURT: And would that factor influence you
10 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
11 case?

12                   JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS: No, sir.

13                   THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

14                   And then Number 94.

15                   MR. EVANS: Your Honor, 83, I believe.

16                   THE COURT: Did I -- okay.

17                   I'll get you after 94 since I'm already...

18                   Miss Acy, you knew Mr. Stewart.

19                   JUROR MELISSA ACY: I did. I know his parents, 20 his older brother and grandparents.

21                   THE COURT: His older brother and who else?

22                   JUROR MELISSA ACY: His grandparents. I grew
23 up in Vaiden about a half a mile down the road from the 24 Loftons, grandparents.

25                   THE COURT: And would those factors influence
26 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
27 this case?

28                   JUROR MELISSA ACY: I don't think so.

29                   THE COURT: Any doubt in your mind?

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR MELISSA ACY: No.

2 THE COURT: And would you base your decision if
3 you are selected only on the evidence presented here in
4 court?

5 JUROR MELISSA ACY: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 And then Number 83. Miss Robertson, and you knew
8 Mr. Stewart.

9 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: Yes, sir. My brother
10 was married to his first cousin. I was around family a
11 lot during the funeral process, that type of thing.

12 THE COURT: And your brother was married to Mr.
13 Stewart's first cousin; is that correct?

14 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: (Nodded.)

15 THE COURT: Would that influence you or be a
16 factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in this
17 case?

18 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: Yes, sir. I think it
19 would be hard for me to deal with the situation.

20 THE COURT: So you just couldn't be fair and 21 impartial because of that.

22 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: I don't believe I
23 could.

24 THE COURT: Ma'am.

25 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: I don't believe I
26 could.

27 THE COURT: Don't believe you could. Any
28 doubt?

29 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: (Nodded.)

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 THE COURT: So you are saying you pretty much
2 know you couldn't be fair and impartial.

3 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: (Nodded.)

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5 Number 108. Mr. Surrell, you knew Mr. Stewart.

6 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Yes, sir. We were
7 classmates, played baseball together.

8 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
9 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
10 case?

11 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: No, sir.

12 THE COURT: And if you're selected would you
13 base your decision only on the evidence presented here in
14 court and on nothing else?

15 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Absolutely.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17 Then Number 111. Mr., Mr. Jones, you knew Mr.
18 Stewart.

19 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: And how did you know him?

21 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: His family was my
22 neighbor when he was a small child.

23 THE COURT: And would that factor influence you
24 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
25 case?

26 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: No, sir.

27 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

28 Then Number 119. Miss King, how did you know him?

29 JUROR ALISHA KING: All through school.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 THE COURT: Were y'all in school about the same
2 time?

3 JUROR ALISHA KING: Yes, sir. He was a year
4 ahead of me.

5 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
6 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
7 case?

8 JUROR ALISHA KING: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: And if you are selected as a juror
10 on the case, would you base your decision only on the 11 evidence presented here in open court?

12 JUROR ALISHA KING: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

14 Then Number 121. Mr. Austin, you knew Mr. Stewart.

15 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: I knew Mr. Stewart. And 16 I've known his dad for many years. And I have a son
17 about Bobo's same age who played sports with him,
18 baseball, whatever.

19 THE COURT: And would those factors come into
20 play or influence you or affect you in being a fair and
21 impartial juror in this case?

22 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: No, sir.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 Then Number 137. And you would be Mr. Robertson.

25 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: Yes, sir. I played
26 baseball with his older brother, Dale. And I coached in 27 the summer, and Bobo was always around the field. I
28 graduated with his first cousin.

29 THE COURT: Graduated with his first cousin.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
3 you in any way or affect you in being fair and impartial?

4 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: No, sir.

5 THE COURT: And if you are selected as a juror
6 in this case, would you base your decision only on the
7 evidence presented here in open court?

8 JUROR JOEL ROBERTSON: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Now, ladies and gentlemen, I know
10 you've answered, some of you did on the jury
11 questionnaires, but I want to ask again if any of you
12 have a situation where you have been the victim of a
13 crime or have had a close family member or a close friend
14 that has been the victim of some type crime. If, if you
15 have, if you will please stand.

16 And Miss Griffin, I believe you had said you had a
17 family member that was murdered at some point in the 18 past.

19 JUROR CAROL ANN GRIFFIN: Janette Vowell from 20 Kosciusko.

21 THE COURT: And I believe that was prosecuted
22 about four years ago, something like that.

23 JUROR CAROL ANN GRIFFIN: Right.

24 THE COURT: And is there anything about the
25 fact that you had that relative that was a murder victim
26 that would influence you in this case or be a factor in 27 you being a fair and impartial juror?

28 JUROR CAROL ANN GRIFFIN: No, sir.

29 THE COURT: Thank you.

1           Then Miss Rodgers, and you had a uncle that was
2 murdered.

3           JUROR MELBA RODGERS: Correct.

4           THE COURT: Where, where did that happen?

5           JUROR MELBA RODGERS: It was in Madison County.

6           THE COURT: Madison.

7           JUROR MELBA RODGERS: Right below Pickens.

8           THE COURT: And how long ago was that?

9           JUROR MELBA RODGERS: About three years ago.

10          THE COURT: And then that person apparently was 11 killed that killed your uncle by --

12          JUROR MELBA RODGERS: Officers.

13          THE COURT: -- law officers. And would that 14 factor influence you or affect you in being a fair and
15 impartial juror in this case?

16          JUROR MELBA RODGERS: No.

17          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18          And then, Miss Johnson, you had a family member that 19 was a victim of a violent crime or --

20          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: My [REDACTED] was raped.

21          THE COURT: How long ago was that?

22          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Four or five years ago.

23          THE COURT: And did that happen in this or some
24 other county?

25          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: This county.

26          THE COURT: Is there anything about that that
27 would influence you or affect you in being a fair juror
28 in this case?

29          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: He had nothing to do

1 with this.

2 THE COURT: Ma'am.

3 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: No. He had nothing to 4 do with this. No. No.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

6 Then, Miss Wright, you -- what, what is that
7 situation?

8 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: My uncle got killed. He 9 was a security guard at Parchman. He got killed in 10 Charleston, Mississippi.

11 MR. HILL: We can't hear, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Your uncle was a guard at Parchman.

13 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: And did he get killed on the job?

15 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir.

16 THE COURT: Where did he get killed?

17 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: In Charleston,
18 Mississippi.

19 THE COURT: And how long ago was that?

20 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: About 15 years ago.

21 THE COURT: Would that be a factor or influence
22 you at all in your ability to be a fair and impartial
23 juror?

24 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir, it wouldn't.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

26 Miss Chatham, what is that situation?

27 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: My [REDACTED] was raped.

28 THE COURT: And how long ago was that?

29 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: It was back in 2000.

1           THE COURT: And was that in this county or some
2 other county?

3           JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: It was another county.

4           THE COURT: And would that be a factor or
5 influence you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
6 case?

7           JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: No, sir.

8           THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9           Then Number 29. Mr. Waller, and what is that
10 situation?

11           JUROR HAROLD WALLER: My wife's aunt, Billy
12 Dempsey's mother, was murdered Christmas Eve, 1994.

13           THE COURT: And what county was that in?

14           JUROR HAROLD WALLER: It happened in Carroll
15 County.

16           THE COURT: Carroll County. And I believe
17 somebody has been prosecuted and sentenced in that case.
18 Or is that -- or am I thinking of a different case?

19           JUROR HAROLD WALLER: It was right across the 20 line. I don't know where he -- both of them were from 21 Montgomery County.

22           THE COURT: Okay. I may be thinking about a
23 different case. But is there anything about that that 24 would influence you or affect you in being a fair and
25 impartial juror?

26           JUROR HAROLD WALLER: No, sir.

27           THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

28           Then Number 49. Mr. Slaughter, and what is that
29 situation?

1 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Nineteen -- I mean in
2 2001 my son was shot. They had to amputate his leg.

3 THE COURT: And what was your son --

4 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Drive-by.

5 THE COURT: Did that happen in this county or 6 some other county?

7 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: No, it happened in 8 Calhoun County.

9 THE COURT: Calhoun. And would that influence
10 you or affect you in being a fair --

11 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Oh, yes.

12 THE COURT: Sir.

13 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Yes.

14 THE COURT: So you feel like that would just 15 keep you from being able to be a fair juror in this case.

16 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Because of what happened to your 18 son.

19 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

21 Number 59. Miss Nail, and you had a family member
22 murdered.

23 JUROR JULIA NAIL: My nephew.

24 THE COURT: When was that?

25 JUROR JULIA NAIL: It's been over 30 years ago.

26 THE COURT: And was anybody ever arrested or 27 prosecuted?

28 JUROR JULIA NAIL: Yes, sir.

29 THE COURT: And would that influence you or

1       affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
2       case?

3               JUROR JULIA NAIL:   No, sir.

4               THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you.

5       And Number 60.   Mr. Kenney, what was that situation?

6               JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   My son.   James Eskridge.

7               THE COURT:   And what happened to him?

8               JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   Burglary.

9               THE COURT:   Was he -- somebody stole something
10       from him?

11              JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   No.   He was stealing.

12              THE COURT:   Okay.   So your son was charged --

13              JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   Right.

14              THE COURT:   -- with a crime.

15              JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   Yes.

16              THE COURT:   What was his name again?

17              JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   James Eskridge.

18              THE COURT:   James.

19              JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   Eskridge.

20              THE COURT:   James Eskridge.   How long ago was
21       that?

22              JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   A couple of months ago.

23              THE COURT:   And would that influence you or
24       affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
25       case?

26              JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   Yes.

27              THE COURT:   You think it would.

28              JUROR DORWIN KENNEY:   Yes.

29              THE COURT:   Or would it?

1 JUROR DORWIN KENNEY: It would.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 Number 67. Mr. Amason.

4 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: My house was
5 burglarized.

6 THE COURT: How long ago was that?

7 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Probably '96.

8 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
9 affect you in being a fair juror in this case?

10 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 Then Miss Ray, what is that situation?

13 JUROR JULIA RAY: My father was killed, shot
14 and killed about 40 years ago.

15 THE COURT: And would that influence you or be
16 a factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in this
17 case?

18 JUROR JULIA RAY: No, sir.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 Then Number 69. Mr. Carpenter.

21 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Yes. Our house was
22 burglarized also. And I don't remember what year. It
23 has been several years ago.

24 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
25 affect you in any way in being a fair juror in this case?

26 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Absolutely not.

27 THE COURT: Thank you.

28 Then Number 83. Miss Robertson.

29 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: Yes, sir.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 THE COURT: What is your situation?

2 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: I just put down close
3 friend, I believe, because of Bobo.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So --

5 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: None other than him.

6 THE COURT: So Mr. Stewart was the one on your
7 questionnaire that you had said was murdered. And I
8 believe you said because of that you could not be a fair
9 and impartial juror.

10 JUROR SANDRA ROBERTSON: That's correct.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 Then Number 87. Miss Locke.

13 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Yes. Excuse me. You did
14 say a victim of a violent crime?

15 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

16 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Well, then I will sit
17 down.

18 THE COURT: Well, a victim of any type crime.

19 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Well, my tires were 20 slashed last year.

21 THE COURT: And any arrest made on that?

22 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Well, I don't know if 23 they arrested the fellow. But they called me a couple of 24 weeks later, and told me they had the money sitting down
25 there for my tires. So apparently they got him --

26 THE COURT: Right.

27 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: -- or did something.

28 THE COURT: Now --

29 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: I have a situation where

1 my sister is in prison, if that relates to anything.

2 THE COURT: I was going to get to that a little
3 later, but you can go ahead and tell us about that now if 4 you want to.

5 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Well, I really don't like
6 talking about it.

7 THE COURT: Well, you don't have to tell us
8 much about it, but I mean she --

9 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: About 17 years ago she 10 and her live-in killed a fellow in Hattiesburg.

11 THE COURT: And is there --

12 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Shot him a bunch of times
13 and stabbed him a bunch of times.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Well, you didn't have to get 15 into as much detail.

16 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Well, I was just going to 17 say, it's --

18 THE COURT: But I appreciate you doing that.

19 Would the fact that you have been a victim of some 20 type crime influence you or affect you in any way?

21 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: No, sir. My son had that 22 done. He was mad at me.

23 THE COURT: Well, I'm sorry to hear that.

24 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: That's just an idiot for 25 a kid. That's all.

26 THE COURT: Okay.

27 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: No, sir. I am fine, and 28 I can take the facts and weigh them and, you know, do
29 what needs to be done, what should be done, if it's

1 proven.

2 THE COURT: Is there anything about your
3 sister's situation that would be a factor or influence
4 you at all in this case?

5 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Nah. Not in this. I
6 just wish they would keep her.

7 THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate that. I
8 understand.

9 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: That is -- here again,
10 that is a family issue. That hadn't got nothing to do
11 with anything.

12 THE COURT: Right. I understand what you are
13 saying.

14 Number 108. Mr. Surrell, what is that situation?

15 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: In an effort to fill
16 out the questionnaire completely, I considered Bobo
17 Stewart a close friend.

18 THE COURT: But in spite of him being a friend,
19 you could be a fair and impartial juror in this case; is
20 that correct?

21 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Absolutely.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 And then Miss Smith.

24 JUROR POLLY SMITH: I have a nephew that was 25 arrested for child molestation.

26 THE COURT: Your nephew arrested.

27 JUROR POLLY SMITH: (Nodded.)

28 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
29 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this

1 case?

2 JUROR POLLY SMITH: No, sir. No, sir.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 And then Number 138. Miss McKey.

5 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: Yes. My home was
6 burglarized.

7 THE COURT: How long ago was that?

8 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: Oh, it was around -- in
9 the '70's. Bernalillo County.

10 THE COURT: In what county?

11 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: Bernalillo.

12 THE COURT: And --

13 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: Albuquerque, Mexico.

14 THE COURT: Oh, okay. I was trying to think
15 where that might be.

16 And Miss McKey, would that influence you or affect
17 you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror?

18 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 And then Number 154. Miss Alexander, and you had 21 some type victim of a crime or family member or friend.

22 JUROR CONTRILLA ALEXANDER: My little girl's
23 father was murdered.

24 THE COURT: And who was he?

25 JUROR CONTRILLA ALEXANDER: Roger Carr in 26 Grenada County.

27 THE COURT: How long ago was that?

28 JUROR CONTRILLA ALEXANDER: Nine years.

29 THE COURT: How long?

1 JUROR CONTRILLA ALEXANDER: Nine years ago.

2 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
3 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

4 JUROR CONTRILLA ALEXANDER: No, sir.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

6 MR. EVANS: Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Number 35.

8 JUROR AMY COSTILOW: This is kind of going back
9 to knowing the victim and the defendant. I don't know
10 any of them personally; however, I work with Mr. Flowers'
11 aunt. I know who his mother is. And I knew who the 12 Goldens were because of my former employer.

13 THE COURT: So you know who his mother is, Mr.
14 Flowers' mother. And you -- do you currently work with 15 his aunt?

16 JUROR AMY COSTILOW: I currently work with his
17 aunt.

18 THE COURT: And who is that?

19 JUROR AMY COSTILOW: Hazel Jones.

20 THE COURT: Then you also knew some of the 21 Golden family.

22 JUROR AMY COSTILOW: Um-hum.

23 THE COURT: Who did you know in that family?

24 JUROR AMY COSTILOW: The -- his wife, son.

25 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
26 you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror in
27 this case?

28 JUROR AMY COSTILOW: No, but I already have an
29 opinion.

1                   THE COURT: Can you lay that opinion aside and
2 base your decision on the evidence?

3                   JUROR AMY COSTILOW: No.

4                   THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5                   Okay. I'll ask now, this is kind of the other side
6 of the case -- the question I just asked. I've asked if 7 you had a victim of a crime or a close, family member or
8 friend that were a victim. I'll now ask if you had a
9 situation -- and I know a couple of you have already 10 answered this in anticipation of the question. But if 11 any of you had a situation where you have had a close
12 family member -- a family member or close family friend
13 or yourself prosecuted for some crime that would be a
14 felony crime, I need to know that now. So, if any of you
15 have that situation.

16                  Miss Forrest, was that the charge you referred to 17 about your mother on your jury questionnaire or was there
18 --

19                  JUROR GLORIA FORREST: My son.

20                  THE COURT: Son. Okay. Son had embezzlement
21 charges.

22                  JUROR GLORIA FORREST: Uh-huh.

23                  THE COURT: And is there anything about the 24 fact that he -- did he get convicted or how did that 25 charge turn out?

26                  JUROR GLORIA FORREST: Yes. He went to the 27 restitution center in Greenwood and paid restitution.

28                  THE COURT: And is there anything -- any other
29 relative or close family friend?

1 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: I have nephew that's in
2 prison for burglary.

3 THE COURT: And who is that.

4 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: C.J.

5 THE COURT: Does he have --

6 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: Daniels.

7 THE COURT: Is there anything about those
8 factors that would influence you or affect you in being a
9 fair and impartial juror in this case?

10 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: No.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 Then 25. And what is that situation?

13 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: And I forgot about
14 this on my questionnaire. I had a nephew within the last 15 year that was arrested and prosecuted for drug-related
16 charges.

17 THE COURT: And what was his name?

18 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Ray Winstead.

19 THE COURT: That was here in this county.

20 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: It was.

21 THE COURT: And is there anything about that
22 that would influence you or affect you in being a fair
23 and impartial juror in this case?

24 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: No, sir. I really
25 don't even know the facts of all of it.

26 THE COURT: Okay. And Number 26. Miss
27 Chatham.

28 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: My uncle is
29 incarcerated over in Parchman for rape.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           THE COURT: And is there anything about that
2 fact that would influence you or affect you in being a
3 fair and impartial juror?

4           JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: No, sir.

5           THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

6           Forty-five. Miss Burnside, and what is your
7 situation?

8           JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE: My son, Jerome Burnside,
9 was convicted of bank robbery about 13 years ago.

10          THE COURT: And would that influence you or
11 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
12 case?

13          JUROR EDITH BURNSIDE: No, sir.

14          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

15          Then Miss Bates, what is that situation?

16          JUROR PAULA BATES: My, my brother spent time
17 in federal prison for a short time for food stamp sale.

18          THE COURT: And would that factor influence you
19 or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
20 case?

21          JUROR PAULA BATES: No, it wouldn't.

22          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23          Then, Mr. Slaughter, what is that situation?

24          JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: I have a sister that 25 did eight years for using.

26          THE COURT: Drugs?

27          JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Yes, sir.

28          THE COURT: Drug conviction. Would that
29 influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial

1 juror?

2 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Oh, yeah.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 Number 58. Miss Branch, what is that situation?

5 JUROR EMILY BRANCH: My mom was convicted of --
6 well, she was put on parole for embezzlement, but then
7 she got a D.U.I and she got convicted because she
8 violated parole.

9 THE COURT: And how long ago has that been?

10 JUROR EMILY BRANCH: 2005.

11 THE COURT: Would that be a factor or influence
12 you at all in being a fair and impartial juror in this
13 case?

14 JUROR EMILY BRANCH: No, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

16 Miss Hargrove. I mean -- yeah. You were both
17 standing up. I saw Mr. Hargrove's number and then I
18 looked at Miss Copper. And I was about to jump out of my 19 skin.

20 Mr. Hargrove, first, since I called your name. What
21 is your situation?

22 JUROR JAMES HARGROVE: 1991 I was arrested and 23 charged with felony possession.

24 THE COURT: Charged with what?

25 JUROR JAMES HARGROVE: Charged with felony
26 possession of marijuana. That was plea bargained in 27 Leflore County Circuit Court to misdemeanor. I paid a
28 fine for that. That was disposed of.

29 Then in 1995 I ran into some trespassers on some

1 hunting club land of mine in Holmes County. They were
2 armed. And in the ensuing discussion, firearms were
3 discharged, and I was charged with aggravated assault.
4 Upon discovery by the D.A., the charges were dismissed.

5 THE COURT: Is there anything about those
6 factors that would influence you or affect you in being a
7 fair and impartial juror in this case?

8 JUROR JAMES HARGROVE: No, sir. I learned my 9 lesson.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 Miss Copper.

12 JUROR DIANE COPPER: Yes.

13 THE COURT: What is your situation?

14 JUROR DIANE COPPER: I, I have a son that did
15 some time. It was a felony charge. And he has served
16 his time. And also, I have some nieces and nephews that 17 have had felony charges too.

18 THE COURT: What was your son charged with?

19 JUROR DIANE COPPER: Burglary of a dwelling in 20 Carroll County, Vaiden.

21 THE COURT: And would that factor influence you
22 or affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial
23 juror in this case?

24 JUROR DIANE COPPER: No.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

26 And Miss Lindsey.

27 JUROR MARGARET LINDSEY: I have a stepson. He 28 was convicted and went to prison, came back -- got out.

29 THE COURT: What was he convicted of?

1 JUROR MARGARET LINDSEY: Burglary.

2 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
3 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
4 case?

5 JUROR MARGARET LINDSEY: I think so.

6 THE COURT: Ma'am.

7 JUROR MARGARET LINDSEY: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: It would influence you. Okay.
9 Thank you.

10 Okay. Forty-one.

11 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: (Laid fan down.)

12 THE COURT: Oh, okay. You didn't have your fan
13 up. You just...

14 I'm trying to -- 87. I mean, I'm sorry, 70. What
15 is your situation?

16 JUROR ANNIE CARODINE: Kenny Bland.

17 THE COURT: Ma'am.

18 JUROR ANNIE CARODINE: Kenny Bland. Drug
19 charges. My nephew.

20 THE COURT: How long ago was that?

21 JUROR ANNIE CARODINE: About four years ago.

22 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
23 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

24 JUROR ANNIE CARODINE: A believe it would.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

26 Number 87. Miss Locke.

27 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: I didn't know if I needed
28 to stand back up or not, but it just has to do with my
29 sister.

1 THE COURT: Yeah, you have already answered
2 that.

3 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Yes.

4 THE COURT: So we've got that answer.

5 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: I figured but I...

6 THE COURT: Well, I -- it's better to be safe
7 than sorry, so I appreciate that.

8 Okay. Miss Crow, Number 92. What is your
9 situation?

10 JUROR MARY CROWLEY: I had two sons charged
11 with marijuana.

12 THE COURT: How long ago was that?

13 JUROR MARY CROWLEY: It was in '97 and '98.

14 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
15 you or affect you in any way in being a fair and
16 impartial juror in this case?

17 JUROR MARY CROWLEY: No, sir.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

19 Then Number 104. Miss Davis.

20 JUROR DICEY DAVIS: A nephew.

21 THE COURT: And what was that charge?

22 JUROR DICEY DAVIS: Drug charge.

23 THE COURT: Would that influence you or affect
24 you in being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

25 JUROR DICEY DAVIS: Yes, sir, I believe it
26 will.

27 THE COURT: Then 105. Mr. Howard.

28 JUROR ANTHONY HOWARD: Yes, sir.

29 THE COURT: What is your situation?

1 JUROR ANTHONY HOWARD: Going back to the last
2 question, I thought you were just talking about family
3 members. I had in the past two friends that were 4 murdered. One of them Danny Tavares in Kosciusko and 5 Anthony Lucas in Ackerman.

6 THE COURT: And would those factors influence
7 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in
8 this case?

9 JUROR ANTHONY HOWARD: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Number 106. Miss Swindoll.

11 JUROR JENNIFER SWINDOLL: My cousin was 12 arrested for drugs.

13 THE COURT: How long ago was that?

14 JUROR JENNIFER SWINDOLL: 2005. 2006.

15 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
16 affect you in any way in being a fair and impartial juror
17 in this case?

18 JUROR JENNIFER SWINDOLL: No sir.

19 THE COURT: It would not. Okay. Thank you.

20 Number 131. Miss Campbell, what is that situation?

21 JUROR LATONYA CAMPBELL: I had a friend.

22 THE COURT: What was that conviction?

23 JUROR LATONYA CAMPBELL: Armed robbery.

24 THE COURT: And who was that friend.

25 JUROR LATONYA CAMPBELL: C.J. Daniels.

26 THE COURT: Would that fact influence you or
27 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
28 case?

29 JUROR LATONYA CAMPBELL: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 Number 132. Mr. Bridges, and what is that
3 situation?

4 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: My brother-in-law
5 prosecuted for copyright infringement.

6 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
7 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

8 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 And Miss Montana. Number 135.

11 JUROR JENNIE MONTANA: My ex-husband, now
12 live-in, whatever you want to call him, he was convicted
13 of burglary of non-residential.

14 THE COURT: And what is his name?

15 JUROR JENNIE MONTANA: Robert --

16 THE COURT: Robert.

17 JUROR JENNIE MONTANA: -- Montana, Jr.

18 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
19 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
20 case?

21 JUROR JENNIE MONTANA: No, sir.

22 THE COURT: Number 138. Miss McKey.

23 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: I have a nephew on my 24 husband's side, through the family that was, I believe,
25 convicted in Wayne County, for drive-by shooting. I'm 26 not quite sure about it, to discuss the details. We 27 don't know any here. But I do know he is in jail.

28 THE COURT: And would that influence you or be
29 a factor in you being a fair and impartial juror in this

1 case?

2 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: No.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 Then Number 18. Miss Laney.

5 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Now that I have thought
6 about it, I didn't put it in my questionnaire. But my
7 husband's uncle was paranoid schizophrenic. He went on a
8 shooting rampage, and he shot Billy Costilow and his
9 deputy. And he served time in Parchman. But he passed
10 away last -- I believe it was last year.

11 THE COURT: And would that influence --

12 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: His name was Wardell
13 Laney.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: But that would not
16 influence my decision.

17 THE COURT: Decision in this case.

18 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 Number 123.

21 JUROR SHEILA SLEDGE HODGES: Hodges.

22 THE COURT: I'm --

23 JUROR SHEILA SLEDGE HODGES: Hodges.

24 THE COURT: And who was that now?

25 JUROR SHEILA SLEDGE HODGES: My ex-husband,
26 William Anthony Sledge, was found guilty and indicted and
27 put in the penitentiary for manufacturing crystal meth.

28 THE COURT: And was there anything about that
29 that would influence you or affect you in being a fair

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 juror in this case?

2 JUROR SHEILA SLEDGE HODGES: No, sir.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 Then Number 68. Miss Ray.

5 JUROR JULIA RAY: Don't tell my husband I
6 forgot it. But he was -- he was a victim of a armed
7 robbery. He worked at a liquor store in the '70's.

8 THE COURT: Is there anything about that that
9 would influence you or affect you in being a fair juror
10 in this case?

11 JUROR JULIA RAY: No, sir.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13 Number 15. Miss Forrest.

14 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: About Robert Golden. I
15 knew Robert Golden and his family.

16 THE COURT: And --

17 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: Willie George.

18 THE COURT: And who?

19 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: Willie George.

20 THE COURT: Willie George. And would that
21 influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
22 juror in this case?

23 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: Somewhat.

24 THE COURT: Probably would.

25 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: Yeah.

26 THE COURT: So you have got some real doubts in 27 your own mind about whether you could be fair and
28 impartial; is that correct?

29 JUROR GLORIA FORREST: Yeah.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 And then Number 149.

3 JUROR DAVID HOLIDAY: I have a brother, got a
4 felony DUI, Harrison County back in '92.

5 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
6 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
7 case?

8 JUROR DAVID HOLIDAY: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 Now, ladies and gentlemen, I want to know if any of 11 you have any religious beliefs or philosophical beliefs
12 where you just feel like you should not sit in judgment
13 on anyone for any reason. Certainly the Court respects
14 religious views of that nature and philosophical thoughts
15 and views of life of that nature. But I need to know if 16 any of you have a situation where you just have some view
17 of life or some philosophy or some religious belief where 18 you cannot sit in judgment on anyone for any reason. Do
19 any of you have a situation like that, where you just 20 plain and simply cannot judge for any reason?

21 Number 2. You are saying that you have got some
22 religious or philosophical belief and you can't judge
23 anybody for any reason; is that correct?

24 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Not for the death
25 penalty I do not.

26 THE COURT: We will be getting into that issue
27 a little bit later, but I am just strictly talking about
28 right now guilt or innocence in general. Could you sit
29 as far as deciding guilt or innocence?

1 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: As of right now, yes,
2 sir.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 And then your number -- Mr. -- Number 49. And Mr.
5 Slaughter, what is your situation now? You cannot judge
6 for any reason.

7 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: My son was shot,
8 amputated his leg. The boy that done it is still walking
9 around.

10 THE COURT: So because --

11 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: It has been nine
12 years. Because of that I don't feel that I should be 13 able, you know, that I should sit on the jury to judge
14 anybody.

15 THE COURT: Because you have got some ill
16 feelings, I guess, because --

17 JUROR JOHNNY SLAUGHTER: Oh, yeah.

18 THE COURT: -- of that. Okay. Thank you.

19 Miss Rodgers, what is your situation?

20 JUROR MELBA RODGERS: I would just find it
21 difficult to make a decision.

22 THE COURT: Is that where you just have some 23 view of life or some reason where you just feel you
24 cannot judge anybody for any reason?

25 JUROR MELBA RODGERS: I guess.

26 THE COURT: I mean everybody in here -- if they 27 are sitting, it is difficult to listen to evidence and 28 decide guilt or innocence. That is not an easy task that 29 anybody is called upon to perform.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR MELBA RODGERS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: But I want to know if, you know, if
3 you could deliberate on a verdict if you were sitting on 4 a jury.

5 JUROR MELBA RODGERS: Yeah, I guess I could.

6 THE COURT: So --

7 JUROR MELBA RODGERS: But it would be hard.

8 THE COURT: Okay. But you are saying you
9 could, if you were selected though, sit in judgment.

10 JUROR MELBA RODGERS: I guess so.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And Number 93. Tell me
12 about that.

13 JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON: I would be
14 uncomfortable with delivering a verdict --

15 THE COURT: Uncomfortable. Speak up a little 16 bit.

17 JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON: I would be
18 uncomfortable with delivering a verdict because of my 19 Christianity.

20 THE COURT: Well, could you do it or would your 21 religion just prevent you from doing it where you could 22 not do it?

23 JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON: I would be
24 uncomfortable with it.

25 THE COURT: But could you do it?

26 JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON: I wouldn't like it.

27 THE COURT: I don't think anybody would like
28 it. But are you where you could do it, even if you
29 didn't want to?

1 JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 Then Miss Smith.

4 JUROR POLLY SMITH: I think you answered my
5 question with hers. I don't believe in the death
6 penalty, but I could reach a verdict with life
7 imprisonment.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Well, we'll, we'll get to 9 those other issues later.

10 Ladies and gentlemen, the way the legal process
11 works in this state is the, the State of Mississippi
12 presents their evidence. Then the defense, if they 13 choose to, calls witnesses and presents their evidence.
14 And then sometimes that results in a little additional
15 proof being presented by the State of Mississippi.

16 But after both sides finally rest, the Court gives
17 you instructions. These are the rules of law that you
18 must follow. You decide the facts of the case. You also 19 decide the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers. You do
20 that based on the instructions of law as given to you by 21 the Court. It is your sworn duty to follow the law as 22 given to you by the Court.

23 So I want to know if any of you just feel like you
24 could not follow and obey the instructions of law if you
25 disagreed with the Court on what the law is or if you
26 thought the law was something different than that in 27 which you have been instructed on by the Court. So is 28 there any one of you that could not follow and obey the 29 instructions of law if you disagreed with the Court on

1           what the law is or thought the law ought to be different?

2           And I take it by your silence you are each assuring
3           me that you will follow and obey the instructions of law
4           as given to you by the Court.

5           If counsel approach again.

6           (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MRS. STEINER AND MR. CARTER
7           APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE FOLLOWING BENCH CONFERENCE HAD
8           OUTSIDE THE HEARING OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS.)

9           THE COURT: I thought it is about time to 10          recess again. I thought we would look over what -- I
11          think we had a few more that have said they for various 12          reasons -- I thought we will let everybody take about a 13          ten-minute recess or something, go through the list
14          again.

15          (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

16          THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we will take
17          a 10-minute recess and let you have a little opportunity
18          to stretch and move around a little bit more.

19          (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

20          THE COURT: If y'all will make your way here
21          and we'll --

22          (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MR. HOWIE, MR. WHITFIELD, MRS.
23          STEINER AND MR. CARTER APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE 24          FOLLOWING:)

25          THE COURT: I was looking down my list. Looks
26          like Number 15, Miss Forrest.

27          Do y'all agree on her?

28          MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

29          THE COURT: And let's see. James Bradley

1 Green. Number 39.

2 MR. WHITFIELD: Your Honor, what about Number
3 35?

4 THE COURT: Yeah. 35. I'm sorry. I passed
5 35. 35 also.

6 MRS. STEINER: Yes.

7 MR. EVANS: You've marked 35 and 39 off so far.

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. EVANS: All right.

10 THE COURT: Number 49, Slaughter. Mr. Kenney,
11 Number 60.

12 MR. HOWIE: Yes, sir.

13 MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Miss Lindsey, Number 64.

15 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

16 MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Miss Carodine. She -- if there was 18 any doubt about her, she cleared it.

19 MR. EVANS: What is her number?

20 THE COURT: 70. Miss Carodine.

21 Sandra Robertson, Number 83.

22 Y'all agree on that one?

23 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

24 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

25 MR. HILL: 77. Yeah.

26 THE COURT: 105. 104.

27 MR. HILL: What about -- I have got Number 77.

28 Did y'all have that?

29 THE COURT: Let me go back.

1 MR. EVANS: That one is already off for cause.

2 MR. HILL: Already off. Okay.

3 THE COURT: Yeah. 77 is off.

4 MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Miss Dicey Ann Davis, Number 104.

6 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Y'all agree on that one? The 8 nephew drug conviction.

9 MRS. STEINER: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Anthony Craig Howard.

11 MRS. STEINER: He had two friends murdered.

12 THE COURT: Murdered.

13 MR. EVANS: Right.

14 MR. CARTER: What number was that?

15 THE COURT: Number 105. Danny Tavares and 16 Anthony Lucas were friends of his that were murdered.
17 Number 131, Campbell.

18 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Y'all agree on that one?

20 MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor. She cleared up
21 the ambiguity.

22 THE COURT: That is all I see for now.

23 Any additional ones? Do either of you see anymore?

24 MR. EVANS: No, sir.

25 THE COURT: The only thing I have got left is 26 I'm going to go through the list of witnesses, and I'm 27 going to ask questions about the witnesses. I'm going to 28 try to be general by and large. But I think after that,
29 I will be ready to let the State start asking questions.

1 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, there are two on the
2 defense list that we were unable -- returned not found
3 summons on.

4 THE COURT: Would it be safe to remove those
5 from the list then?

6 MRS. STEINER: Yes. Daniel Lee Burt and --
7 sorry, Your Honor.

8 (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

9 (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS RETURNED TO THE COURTROOM.)

10 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may we approach?

11 THE COURT: Just wait for Mrs. Steiner.

12 (MR. EVANS AND MRS. STEINER APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE 13 FOLLOWING BENCH CONFERENCE HAD OUTSIDE THE HEARING OF THE 14 PROSPECTIVE JURORS.)

15 MR. EVANS: Judge, I just wanted to kind of get
16 your thinking. I know you've still got probably a long
17 list of things to go through. Are you planning on us
18 doing all of this voir dire today or stopping when you do
19 yours and doing our parts tomorrow? Or just kind of what 20 are you thinking?

21 THE COURT: Just wait and see how much time --
22 I am going to go through this list. Of course, both of 23 you submitted -- I mean the combined list is a long, long
24 list of witnesses. And I don't -- and I don't anticipate 25 having to go into detail with most of them, because the 26 only thing that I think would disqualify any of them as 27 far as witnesses would go is if they -- because of their
28 knowledge of a witness they couldn't be fair or impartial
29 or would consider that witness's testimony differently

1           than somebody else. But I don't know how long it will
2           take. It may be quitting time by the time I get through.
3           I will just have to wait and see.

4                    MRS. STEINER: Let me say, Your Honor, in
5           considering this, apparently, Mr. Flowers ordinarily
6           takes an insulin shot at 4:30. Now, they did not bring 7           his medication today. We can ask that they bring it but,
8           you know, if you are going to stop shorter or longer at 9           least on today --

10                   THE COURT: Why don't you just see if they will 11          go ahead and bring it now? I would rather have it here
12          and not need it than to be -- they should have brought it
13          over here.

14                   MRS. STEINER: I don't know if they did. I
15          will make sure it comes tomorrow, but for today --

16                   THE COURT: How long can he go without 17          receiving it?

18                   MRS. STEINER: I don't think a hour or so would 19          make a difference. But if you were thinking of going to 20          6:00, it might be a problem.

21                   THE COURT: I will let you step in there and 22          investigate and find out.

23          (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

24                   THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, there are a
25          few more that I can allow to go at this time.

26                   Gloria Forrest, you may go.

27                   Amy Sanders Costilow, you may go.

28                   James Bradley Green, you may go.

29                   Johnny Wayne Slaughter, you are excused and may go.

1           Dorwin Dewayne Kenney, you are excused and may go.

2           Margaret Ann Lindsey, you are excused and you may
3 go.

4           Annie Ruth Carodine, you are excused and you may go.

5           Sandra Robertson, you are excused and you may go.

6           Dicey Ann Davis, you are excused and you are free to
7 go.

8           Anthony Craig Howard, you are excused and you may
9 go.

10          Latonya Campbell, you are excused and you may go.

11          Ladies and gentlemen, I am now going to go through a
12 list of people that are listed as possible witnesses in 13 this case and ask a few questions about them. These 14 people whose names I call who are listed as potential
15 witnesses does not mean they will testify but it means
16 that they could possibly testify. And so that is why I
17 am going to ask you questions about them.

18          Now, the way -- when I ask you questions about
19 witnesses, these are the things I want you to think 20 about. I want you -- because I am sure there is going to 21 be a number of these witnesses who names are somewhat
22 familiar to some of you. I know we have got Mr.
23 Thornburg, former sheriff here in the county, and Mr.
24 Hargrove, chief of police. And there will be other names
25 who you recognize.

26          I'll ask you, you know, any time I recognize -- you
27 recognize someone's name, I will ask you to hold your 28 hand or your card up. And we will take that information.
29 Then the next question I'll ask you about these witnesses

1 is whether the fact that you know that person, just by
2 the mere fact that you know them, whether that would
3 influence you to where you could not be fair and
4 impartial or whether you would automatically just because
5 you know them give them -- their testimony greater weight
6 and credibility than someone that you did not know?

7 Because right now you have heard no evidence from 8 anyone so right now you are required pretty much to 9 consider all witnesses' testimony to be equal right now,
10 because you haven't heard anything from any of them. But
11 if, if the mere fact that you have got some relationship 12 or knowledge of one of these witnesses would cause you to 13 have greater faith and credibility in their testimony
14 than in somebody that you did not know, then I would need
15 you to let me know that.

16 So first off, I'll ask -- it's Sam Jones, Jr. And I
17 think he is going to be -- his testimony is going to be 18 read from a previous occasion. I don't think he will be 19 a live witness in this case. But if you know Sam Jones,
20 if you will, hold your card up. And then I'll -- or if 21 you knew anything about Mr. Jones. I think he is 22 deceased now. But if you knew him when he was alive, if 23 you will hold those cards up and let me get your numbers.

24 If you will, hold them high enough where I can see.
25 Okay. As your numbers are called, you can hold your fan
26 down. Number 5.

27 And Mr. 8, Number 8, did you know him? Did you know
28 him?

29 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON, JR.: (No response.)

1 THE COURT: Mr. Robinson, did you know Mr.
2 Jones?

3 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON, JR.: (No response.)

4 THE COURT: Mr. Robinson.

5 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON, JR.: Oh, how you
6 doing?

7 THE COURT: Were you holding your card up?

8 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON, JR.: I had it over
9 there. I didn't --

10 THE COURT: Okay. You did not know him then.
11 Okay. Then Number 16, you knew Mr. Jones.

12 JUROR CHARLES CURRY: (Nodded.)

13 THE COURT: Okay. 45. 62. 80. 115. And
14 147.

15 Now, for those of you that did know Mr. Jones during 16 his life, is there any of you that would automatically
17 give his testimony greater or lesser weight or 18 credibility than somebody that you might not know in this
19 case, a witness whose name you might not recognize?

20 So I assume that each of you are assuring me that 21 will not be an influence and would not affect your 22 ability to be a fair and impartial --

23 Okay. Number 47.

24 JUROR BOBBI DAVIS: I didn't know then, but I
25 got instructed before we went out for recess, I thought
26 about it. My son was passed -- possession, drug charge.
27 That's what I want to tell you.

28 THE COURT: And you are -- so you are saying
29 your son was charged with drugs.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR BOBBI DAVIS: Um-hum.

2 THE COURT: And how long ago was that?

3 JUROR BOBBI DAVIS: It was about two years ago.

4 THE COURT: And is there -- would that
5 influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
6 juror?

7 JUROR BOBBI DAVIS: No, sir.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 JUROR BOBBI DAVIS: Okay. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: The next witness - and this would
11 be the chief of police for the city - would be Chief
12 Johnny Hargrove. So if you know who he is or know the 13 chief, if you will hold your card or your fan up.

14 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Just know his name?

15 THE COURT: Well, I mean if you have got some 16 knowledge of him. I mean I am sure that a lot of you
17 know who he is. But if you have got a situation where 18 you, you know, spoke to him or know him in anything other
19 than just who he happens to be.

20 That would be Number 14. I'm sorry. Number 5, 14, 21 6, 33, 22.

22 Okay. I got you, Number 33.

23 You would be amazed at how all these numbers bleed
24 together when I am looking at them.

25 Number 29.

26 So I may not call them all in the exact order you
27 are holding them numerically speaking.

28 41. 44. 45. 51. 54. 57. 62. 65. 68. 69.

29 And 72. 50. 76. 91. 92. 94. And 95. And 96. And

1 Number 80. And 98. Number 121. 120. 137. 136. 120.
2 154. 111. 132. 148. 149. 110. 127. 128. And 147.

3 Now, for those of you that have held your cards up
4 that you know who the chief of police is, is there
5 anything about the fact that you just know him and that
6 he is a potential witness in this case that would, would
7 that alone influence you or affect you in being a fair
8 and impartial juror or cause you to give his testimony
9 greater weight or credibility than somebody that you
10 might not know?

11 I take it by your silence that would be not, no.

12 Next one would be Dr. Steven Timothy Hayne. Do any 13 of you know Dr. Hayne?

14 The next one would be Barry Eskridge.
15 E-s-k-r-i-d-g-e.

16 Okay. Number 14. 17. And 18. And 5. Number 22.
17 29. 50. 50. 54. 58. 63. 67. 68. 69. 51. 76.
18 80. 80. 94. 111. 110. 120. 124. 121. 137. And 19 149.

20 Of those that have said that you know Mr. Eskridge,
21 is there any of you that would give his testimony any
22 greater or lesser weight and credibility than somebody
23 you did not know or would the fact that he is a potential
24 witness in this case influence you or affect you in any 25 way in being a fair and impartial juror?

26 The next one would be Miss Melissa Schoene. And 27 I'll spell the last name because it's pronounced somewhat
28 different than it looks. She is not from around here.
29 She used to work with the crime lab. But her last name

1 is S-c-h-o-e-n-e. Do any of you know her?

2 Okay. How about James Edward Kennedy? Any of you
3 know Mr. Kennedy?

4 How about Catherine Snow?

5 Number 94, you know Catherine Snow.

6 And does anybody else know Catherine Snow?

7 Would the fact that you know Catherine Snow
8 influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
9 juror or have any affect on you at all as a juror?

10 JUROR MELISSA ACY: No.

11 THE COURT: Clemmie Fleming. Any of you, if
12 you will hold your cards up if you know Clemmie Fleming.

13 Okay. Number 5. 14. 45. 62. 16. 68. 95. And
14 96. 110. 136. And 137. 148. And 154.

15 Now, those of you that have indicated that you know
16 who Clemmie Fleming is, would the fact that you know him
17 influence you or affect you in any way? Or would you
18 give testimony of Clemmie Fleming either greater or 19 lesser weight or credibility than anybody else in this
20 case?

21 And the next witness is going to be Bill Thornburg.
22 He was sheriff in this county or deputy sheriff for a
23 long time as well.

24 Okay. Number 6. 11. 12. 14. 17. And 18. 8.
25 Number 38. 40. 22. 41. 42. 33. 34. 54. 29. 45.
26 44. 62. 59. 51. 50. 67. 72. 68. And 69. 76. 63.
27 91. 94. 93. And 92. 96. 80. 103. 123. 124. 126.
28 120. 115. 111. 98. 136. 137. 152. 121. 130. 110.
29 132. 127. 147. 128. 148. And 149.

1           Now, those of you that know who Sheriff Thornburg
2           is, would the fact that you know him cause you to have
3           any greater weight -- give his testimony greater weight
4           or credibility of somebody that you do not know? Or 5           would it affect you in any way in being a fair and
6           impartial juror in this case?

7           JUROR MELBA RODGERS: Your Honor.

8           THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

9           JUROR MELBA RODGERS: I just wanted -- Mr.
10          Thornburg's oldest daughter, Cheryl, and I are best
11          friends. And I've spent many times, many hours at their 12          home growing up. We grew up together.

13          THE COURT: And would that come into play or
14          influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
15          juror in this case?

16          JUROR MELBA RODGERS: I'll try not to.

17          THE COURT: Well, what I'm asking -- I'll ask
18          you, will you listen to his testimony and the testimony
19          of every other witness and before you hear any testimony
20          from anybody, would you consider his testimony along with 21          anybody else's that you don't know?

22          JUROR MELBA RODGERS: Yeah.

23          THE COURT: And so without hearing his 24          testimony at all, would you automatically just give his 25          testimony greater weight just because you do know him?

26          JUROR MELBA RODGERS: It's possible.

27          THE COURT: So you have got some doubts about 28          whether his testimony would influence you because of 29          growing up around his daughter; is that correct?

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR MELBA RODGERS: Right.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 Okay. Jack Matthews. Does anybody know Jack
4 Matthews?

5 Okay. David B-a-l-a-s-h.

6 I'm sorry. You know Mr. Matthews. Number 18. And
7 Miss Laney, would the fact that you know Mr. Matthews
8 influence you or affect you in any way in being a fair
9 juror in this case?

10 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No, sir, it wouldn't.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 And then Number 40, okay, and, Number 111. Would 13 the fact that you know Mr. Matthews influence or affect 14 you or cause you to give greater weight or testimony --
15 credit to his testimony?

16 JUROR CHARLES DAVIS: (Shook head.)

17 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: (Shook head.)

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

19 David B-a-l-a-s-h. Balash or Balash.

20 MR. EVANS: Balash.

21 THE COURT: Balash. David Balash.

22 Do any of you know him?

23 Okay. Joe Edward Andrews.

24 Elaine Gholston. Number 14 and 136.

25 Of those that know Miss Gholston, would the fact
26 that she potentially could be a witness in this case
27 influence you in any way or affect your ability to be
28 fair and impartial or cause you to give her testimony
29 greater or lesser weight and credibility than anybody you

1 do not know? Would that affect you in any way?

2 Where is Number 14?

3 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir.

4 THE COURT: How about you, Number 136?

5 JUROR JIMMY ALLEN, JR.: (Shook head.)

6 THE COURT: Mary Ella Fleming. Anybody know
7 Mary Ella Fleming?

8 Okay. 5. 12. 14. 95.

9 I've got you, 12.

10 68. 87. 16. 95. 62. 110. 147. 148.

11 Of those of you that know Mary Ella Fleming, would 12 the fact that you know her cause you to give her
13 testimony greater weight or credibility than somebody
14 that you do not know or would that influence you or 15 affect you to where you could not be a fair and impartial
16 juror in this case?

17 Sharon Bailey. Does anybody know Sharon Bailey?

18 MR. EVANS: She probably won't be a witness.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I can strike her, I am
20 advised. She was on a potential list here. No point in 21 asking on Sharon Bailey.

22 Patricia Hallmon Sullivan Odom. Any of you know
23 Miss Hallmon Odom?

24 Doyle Simpson.

25 Okay. Number 5. 14. 30. Did I see 30? Okay.

26 33. 17. 53. 50. 68. 44. 45. 62. 136. 95. 130.

27 And 127.

28 Of those of you that know who Doyle Simpson is,
29 would any of you be affected by his testimony where you

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 would give his testimony greater weight or credibility
2 than somebody you did not know? Or would that influence
3 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?

4 The next one would be Edward Lee McChristian. Any
5 of you know Mr. McChristian.

6 Odell Hallmon. Do any of you know Odell Hallmon?

7 Number 62, and would the fact that you know Mr.
8 Hallmon influence you or affect you or cause you to give 9 his testimony greater weight or lesser weight or
10 credibility than somebody you did not know?

11 JUROR DIANE COPPER: No.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13 And Charles Porky Collins. Mr. Collins is deceased.
14 He will be -- his testimony will be read into evidence,
15 but he will not be testifying live.

16 Number 56. I'm sorry. There are several of you.
17 Number 5. 14. 16. 17. 11. 29. 50. 51. 22. 56.
18 68. 69. 72. 56. 75. 59. Number 80. 121. 137.
19 115. 76. 94. 91. 111. And 132.

20 Of those that indicated that you know Mr. Collins or 21 knew him during his life, is there any of you that would 22 give his testimony greater weight or credibility than
23 that of somebody you did not know or would the fact that
24 you know him be a factor or influence you in any way?

25 Number 56, I got your number.

26 JUROR SUE AUSTIN: Well...

27 THE COURT: Okay. You can speak up now if you
28 have got some situation.

29 JUROR SUE AUSTIN: He was married to my

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 husband's first cousin. And, you know, we have a close
2 family.

3 THE COURT: So Mr. Collins was married to who
4 now?

5 JUROR SUE AUSTIN: My husband's first cousin.

6 THE COURT: And would that influence you or
7 affect you in being a fair and impartial juror in this
8 case?

9 JUROR SUE AUSTIN: I think it probably would.

10 THE COURT: Would you automatically just listen
11 to his testimony and give it greater weight or 12 credibility than somebody you did not know just strictly
13 because you do know Mr. Collins?

14 JUROR SUE AUSTIN: I think so.

15 THE COURT: Okay. The next one would be Beneva
16 Henry. Anybody know Beneva Henry?

17 Okay. Number 14 and 94 and 148, 72.

18 Of those that know Miss Henry, would you give her
19 testimony greater weight or credibility than somebody
20 that you do not know? Or would that influence you or 21 affect you to where you could not be fair and impartial
22 in the case?

23 Okay. Then Roxanne Ballard. That is Miss Tardy's
24 daughter. I know that we had some people mention her.
25 But I'll ask you again. Well, maybe I will just ask you
26 for those of you that have not indicated already that you
27 knew Miss Ballard. If there is any of you that have not 28 indicated that you somehow know Miss Ballard already.

29 And that would be Number 5, 45, 69, 108, 63, 137 and

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           94.

2           This applies to you whose names I called and anyone
3           else. Would the fact that you know Miss Ballard affect
4           you in being a fair and impartial juror or cause you
5           automatically to give her testimony greater weight or 6           credibility than somebody that you do not know, just the 7           mere fact that you might know Miss Ballard?

8           The next person would be Jerry Dale Bridges. He is 9           a constable in the county, and he is a potential witness.
10          Again, it is not positive, but he could potentially 11          testify.

12          Number 2. And 6. And 12. 14. 16. 17. And 18.
13          8. 38. 40. 22. 26. 29. 33. 41. 42. 50. 51. 72.
14          54. 56. 44. 45. 59. 63. 62. 67. 68. 69.

15          I think I will just get -- 121, -23 and -24. 80.
16          115. 119. 136. Number 137. Number 120. 75. 91. 76.
17          92. 94. 96. 111. 110. 128. 147. 127. 149. And 18          132.

19          Of those of you that indicated that you know Mr.
20          Bridges, is there any one of you that would just by the 21          fact that you know him automatically give his testimony
22          greater weight or credibility than somebody that you did
23          not know or would any of you be influenced where you
24          could not be a fair and impartial juror by the mere fact
25          that you do know Mr. Bridges?

26          The next one is Randy Keenum. Do any of you know
27          Randy Keenum?

28          Okay. Number 17, 18, 22, 26, 29, 50, 68 and 69, 65,
29          80. I got 65.

1 I've got you, Number 65.

2 121. 124. 120. 137. 59. 76. 94. 111. 149.
3 132. Of those of you that indicate that you do know Mr.
4 Keenum, is there any of you that would give Mr. Keenum's
5 testimony greater weight or credibility than that of a
6 witness that you did not know? Or is there any one of 7 you who because you might know Mr. Keenum that would 8 influence you and affect you in being a fair and
9 impartial juror in this case?

10 And Randy Stewart. I think his name has been 11 mentioned as being related to one of the victims, Derrick 12 Bobo Stewart. But if any of you know Randy Stewart, who 13 had not already raised your card or let us know that,
14 then if you will do that at this time.

15 Number 29. And Number 50, 22. Anyone else?

16 And I'll ask this to those who just held their card
17 up and also to those who earlier indicated they might 18 know Mr. Stewart. Is there any one of you that would
19 give his testimony greater weight or credibility than 20 somebody that you do not know or would any of you have a
21 situation where because you know Mr. Stewart it would 22 affect you where you could not be a fair and impartial
23 juror?

24 Next one -- and I assume this would be Willie
25 Golden, Jr., is that correct, from the State?

26 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

27 THE COURT: He is a junior. Any of you know --
28 and I think -- is he the son of one of the victims?

29 MR. EVANS: This is his brother.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           THE COURT: Brother. I'm sorry. I had the
2 name wrong. Robert Golden, I'm sorry, was the victim.
3 And Willie Golden is Mr. Robert Golden's brother. I
4 think some of you said already you know Willie Golden.
5 But if you have not already told us that, then we need to
6 know that.

7           Okay. Number 111. 128. Number 75. 33. 16. 121.
8 126. And 41. Of those that --

9           Okay. Number 34.

10          Of those of you that know Mr. Golden, that held up
11 your card now or had spoken up earlier about knowing him,
12 is there anything about the fact that you know him that
13 would influence you or affect you in any way where you
14 could not be a fair and impartial juror to both sides in
15 this case?

16          Next one would be Cathy Permenter.

17          I know Brian Rigby and Bennie Rigby's names have 18 both been mentioned already. I'll ask if any of you know
19 Brian Rigby who have not already indicated that, if you
20 will hold your card up.

21          Number 69.

22          And I'll now ask this of all of you that know Brian
23 Rigby. Is there any of you that the fact you know Mr.
24 Brian Rigby and the fact he might be a witness in this
25 case that you would automatically give his testimony
26 greater weight or credibility than somebody that you did
27 not know? Or would the fact you know him in any way
28 influence you as to being a fair and impartial juror in
29 this case?

1           And Bennie Rigby. I know Bennie Rigby's name has
2           been mentioned as well. Anybody who has not already
3           indicated that they know Bennie Rigby, if your card will 4           please be held.

5           17. 18. 14. 33. 67. 69. 51. 108. 65. 120.
6           115.

7           For those of you who just held your cards up and
8           those that have already indicated previously that you
9           know Mr. Rigby, would any of you be affected by Mr.
10          Rigby's testimony or give his testimony greater weight or 11          credibility than somebody that you do not know? Or would 12          his testimony in any way affect any of you in being a
13          fair and impartial juror?

14          John Johnson. How many of you would know John
15          Johnson?

16          Okay. That would be Number 2. 5.

17          I got, you, Number 5.

18          17. 18. 12. 22. 33. 38. 29. 50. 51. 54.
19          59. 62. 45. 67, -8 and 69. And 72. 124. 123. 121.
20          120. 119. 80. 115. 115. 137. 76. 95. 94. 111.
21          91. 132. 128. 127. 147. And 149.

22          For those of you that have indicated that you know
23          Mr. Johnson, is there any of you that would give his
24          testimony greater weight or credibility than somebody
25          that you do not know? Or would the fact that he is a
26          witness in this case influence or affect you in being a
27          fair and impartial juror?

28          Okay. The next one would be Horace Wayne Miller.
29          He is a retired investigator, I think, for the

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 Mississippi Department of Public Safety or State Highway
2 Patrol, what we used to call the patrol. Any of you know
3 Mr. Miller?

4 Okay. Number 11. 50. 29. 63. And 111. Those of
5 you that know Mr. Miller, would the fact that you know
6 Mr. Miller cause you to give his testimony greater weight
7 or credibility than somebody that you do not know or 8 would that in any way affect you in being a fair and
9 impartial juror in this case?

10 Jessie Sawyer. Do any of you know Jessie Sawyer?

11 Okay. Number 8. 14. 17. 6. 33. 34. 44. 41.
12 45. 62. 50. 53. 69. 103. 121. 69. 65. 98. 136.
13 95. 110. 127. 128. 147. And 148.

14 Is there any of you that know Mr. Sawyer that just 15 by the mere fact you know him it would affect you in 16 being a fair and impartial juror or affect -- or would 17 you automatically give his testimony greater or lesser
18 weight and credibility than somebody that you did not
19 know?

20 Sarah Barrentine. Any of you know Sarah Barrentine?

21 Okay. That would be Number 5. 17. And 18. 50.
22 69. 80. 121. And 94.

23 Those of you that know Sarah Barrentine, would any 24 of you give Miss Barrentine's testimony greater weight or 25 credibility just because you know her or would that
26 influence you or affect you in any way in being a fair
27 and impartial juror in this case?

28 Robert Jennings. How many of you know Robert
29 Jennings? I take it by your silence you would not know

1           Mr. Jennings.

2           Vernon Peeples. Any of you know Vernon Peeples?

3           Okay. Number 127. Number 16. Number 14.

4           Of those of you that know Vernon Peeples, would you
5 give his testimony greater weight or credibility than
6 somebody that you do not know or would the fact that you
7 know Mr. Peeples influence you or affect you in being a
8 fair and impartial juror?

9           Marcus Moore. Any of you know Marcus Moore?

10          And how about LaMarcus Moore?

11          Claude Dale --

12          I'm sorry. Who knows -- anybody know --

13                 THE BAILIFF: 148.

14                 THE COURT: Who knows LaMarcus Moore?

15                 JUROR LATOYA FLEMING: I know Marcus Moore.

16                 THE COURT: Marcus Moore. 148. And would the 17 fact that you know him influence you or affect you in 18 being a fair juror in this case?

19                 JUROR LATOYA FLEMING: No, sir.

20                 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

21          Claude Dale Eskridge.

23          Kenny Townsend.

24                 Okay. Number 14. Number 16. Number 34. Number
25 53. Number 68. Number 41. Number 14. Number 62.
26 Number 65. Number 80. 136. 96. 110. 111. 149. 127.
27 147. 130. And 149.

28                 Of those of you that know Mr. Townsend, is there
29 anybody who just strictly because you know him would be

1 influenced or have it where it would affect you in being
2 a fair and impartial juror in this case or would any of
3 you give his testimony greater weight or credibility
4 because you know him and might not know somebody else
5 involved that is a witness?

6 Okay. Vincent Small. Any of you know Vincent
7 Small.

8 Okay. 14. 16. 17. 18. Number 1. 6. 29. 33.
9 41. 44. 45. 50. 53. 62. 67. 68. 69. 72. 65.
10 120. Number 80. 115. 136. 137. 96. 95. 92. 94.
11 111. 149. 148. 128. 147. 127. And 110.

12 Of those of you that indicate you know Vincent
13 Small, is there any one of you that would give his 14 testimony greater or lesser weight or credibility than 15 somebody you do not know? Or would any of you be 16 influenced or have your ability to be fair and impartial
17 influenced by the fact that you do know him?

18 James Taylor Williams.

19 Okay. Number 5. 2. 11. 14. 16. 17. 18. 22.
20 42. 29. 50. 54. 59. 67. 68. And 69. 72. 75. 76.
21 94. 111. 80. 115. 119. 120. 137. 108. 124. 121.
22 110. 132. And 149.

23 Now, is there any one of you that know Mr. Williams 24 who because of the fact that you do know him you would
25 give his testimony greater weight or credibility than 26 somebody that you do not know? Or is there any one of 27 you that because he is a witness in this case or a
28 potential witness, where your ability to be fair and 29 impartial would be affected?

1           Number 115, why is that? And what is that
2 situation?

3           JUROR POLLY SMITH: He is my nephew.

4           THE COURT: So if he was testifying would you
5 just automatically listen to his testimony and give that
6 greater weight or credibility than somebody you did not
7 know?

8           JUROR POLLY SMITH: Yes, sir, I probably would.

9           THE COURT: You probably would. So you are 10 saying without hearing anybody's testimony --

11          JUROR POLLY SMITH: Not without hearing
12 anybody's.

13          THE COURT: I'm saying without -- you would not
14 knowing --

15          MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is not going to 16 testify in this case.

17          THE COURT: Okay. Well, the prosecutor had 18 that potential witness, but he is telling me now Mr.
19 Williams will not be a witness in this case.

20          MR. EVANS: He had been listed on original
21 discovery.

22          THE COURT: That covers that situation then,
23 because he is apparently not going to be a witness. So
24 that takes care of that.

25          MR. CARTER: We may call him, Your Honor.

26          MRS. STEINER: He is on our list.

27          THE COURT: Is he subpoenaed as a witness for
28 you?

29          MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor. I believe the

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           sheriff served a subpoena on him on our behalf.

2           THE COURT:   Okay.  I see -- okay.

3           And so you would give Mr. Williams' testimony
4           greater weight or credibility than somebody you did not
5           know.

6           JUROR POLLY SMITH:  (Nodded.)

7           THE COURT:  And what is your number again?

8           JUROR POLLY SMITH:  115.

9           THE COURT:  Liz Vanhorn.  Liz Vanhorn.

10           5.  14.  16.  17.  18.  22.  29.  33.  45.  62.  42.
11           57.  56.  51.  54.  53.  72.  50.  59.  63.  67.  68.
12           And 69.  65.  75.  76.  87.  91.  92.  80.  108.  124.
13           121.  120.  119.  137.  136.  115.  95.  94.  96.  111.
14           147.  110.  127.  128.  132.  148.  And 149.

15           Of those of you that know Liz Vanhorn, is there any 16           one of you that would have a situation where you would 17           give her testimony greater weight or credibility than 18           somebody that you do not know?  Or would the fact that 19           she might be a witness influence or affect any of you in 20           being a fair and impartial juror in this case?

21           Okay.  How about Dennis Woods?  Any of you know
22           Dennis Woods?

23           Number 2.  Number 5.  Number 6.  14.  16.  17.  22.
24           25.  29.  33.  41.  50.  55.  I'm sorry.  53.  57.  44.
25           45.  62.  67.  68.  69.  65.  91.  94.  95.  96.  92.
26           110.  119.  120.  115.  127.  128.  136 and -37.  111.
27           147.  And 148.  And 149.  And 154.

28           Is there any one of you that know Mr. -- the mere 29           fact that you know who Mr. Woods is would affect you in

1       being a fair and impartial juror or where you would
2       automatically give his testimony greater weight or
3       credibility than somebody that you did not know just
4       strictly because you do know Mr. Woods?

5               Okay. Emmitt Simpson. Any of you know Emmitt
6       Simpson? Okay. Number 14, 16, 17, 6, 33, 50, 53, 65,
7       110, 127, 147, 128, 136 and 118.

8               Of those of you that know Mr. Simpson, is there any 9       of you that would give his testimony greater weight or
10      credibility than somebody that you did not know, or would 11      you automatically know that you could not be fair and 12      impartial because of the possibility of him being a
13      witness in this case?

14              Okay. How about Shawn Eskridge? Anybody know Shawn
15      Eskridge?

16              How about Clarence Bernard Forrest?

17              THE BAILIFF: You have one back here.

18              THE COURT: Okay. Did you know Mr. Eskridge?
19      What is your number?

20              JUROR LESLIE CRAWFORD: (Held up card.)

21              THE COURT: Would the fact that you know Shawn
22      Eskridge cause you to automatically believe his testimony
23      over somebody you did not know or affect you in any way
24      in being fair and impartial?

25              JUROR LESLIE CRAWFORD: No, sir.

26              THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

27              And Clarence Bernard Forrest. Do any of you know
28      Clarence Bernard Forrest?

29              How about Vera Latham? Vera Latham.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           That would be Number 5. 14. 16. 17. 50. 54.
2           72.

3           Is there any one of you that because you know Vera
4           Latham you would automatically give Vera Latham's
5           testimony greater weight or credibility than somebody
6           that you did not know or would any of you have a
7           situation where your ability to be fair and impartial was 8           affected because of knowing Vera Latham?

9           Okay. And Frank Ballard.

10          Okay. Number 5. Some of you may have already
11          spoken up. If you hadn't as to Frank Ballard --

12          Number 5. Number 12. 17. 22. 50. 25. 45. 65.
13          72. 69. 63. 137. 111. 94. And 149.

14          Of those of you that know Frank Ballard, is there
15          anything about just the fact that you know him that would
16          influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
17          juror? Or is there any one of you that just because you 18          know him that would affect you in being a fair and
19          impartial juror in this case?

20          Mary Jeanette Fleming. Any of you know Mary
21          Jeanette Fleming?

22          Number 14. And would the fact --

23          And Number 87.

24                 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: I have a question, sir.

25                 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

26                 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: I knew a Mary Fleming. I
27          don't know which one she was. And I hadn't seen or 28          talked to Mary Fleming, I guess, in seven or eight years.
29          I worked with a woman named Mary Fleming.

1 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Mary Jeanette Fleming.
2 Then Mary Ella Fleming.

3 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Well, I don't know.

4 THE COURT: Let me just put it this way. If
5 this was the person that you know, would you
6 automatically give her testimony greater weight or 7 credibility than somebody that you did not know? Or 8 would that influence you in being a fair and impartial
9 juror?

10 I am asking you, Number 87.

11 JUROR BEVERLY LOCKE: Oh, no. I don't -- you
12 know, I would probably fall over now, I mean.

13 THE COURT: Then Number 14, would the fact that 14 you know Miss Fleming influence you or affect you in any 15 way?

16 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir.

17 THE COURT: Miss Wright, would that --

18 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Oh, no, sir.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Mike McSparrin.

20 M-c-S-p-a-r-r-i-n. Mike McSparrin. Or McSparrin.

21 Essa Ruth Campbell. Essa Ruth Campbell.

22 Connie Moore.

23 Okay. 14. 16. 17. I got 14. 53 over there. 65.
24 45. 62. 134. 41. 110. 128. 148 and 147.

25 Of those of you that know Connie Moore, would the 26 fact that you know Connie Moore influence you or affect 27 you or in any way cause you to believe the testimony of 28 Connie Moore over that of somebody that you did not know?

29 James Ward. Anybody know James Ward?

1           And I think we have had several people that
2           indicated that they knew Patricia -- I'm sorry.
3           Priscilla Flowers Ward. Anybody that knows Priscilla
4           Flowers Ward that has not already spoken up previously
5           and let us know that?

6           Is there any one of you that because of knowing her
7           that would influence you in being fair and impartial or 8           would any of you would give her testimony greater weight
9           or credibility just because you knew her and did not know
10          someone else testifying?

11          Excuse me while I take a cough drop. My throat is 12          getting scratchy. It is getting hot. I am about to 13          start coughing if I get a scratchy throat and I'm hot.
14          They tell me the air conditioner is as low as it will go,
15          which means it ain't very low. But let me tell you, it
16          gets warmer up where I am sitting. The robe seems to 17          draw the heat to me, but we are going to do the best we 18          can.

19          James Akin. Any of you know James Akin?

20          Okay. Reverend Billy Little.

21          Okay. Number 29. Number 11. Number 126. Number
22          80. Number 132 and 111. And Number 18.

23          Is there any one of you that would just because you
24          happen to know Billy Little, Reverend Little, that would 25          automatically give his testimony greater weight or
26          credibility than somebody that you did not know or would
27          any of you have a situation where your ability to be fair
28          and impartial would be tested or where you couldn't be 29          fair and impartial because of knowing him?

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           Okay. And this is another person whose name has
2           been mentioned already. But if you haven't spoken up as
3           to knowing her. Cora Felicia Flowers Tyson. Her last
4           name is Tyson now apparently. Any of you that have not
5           spoken up about knowing Felicia Flowers Tyson?

6           Okay. 33. 45. 62. 115. 110. 147.

7           Are you just fanning, 14?

8           JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir.

9           THE COURT: Okay. 14. And 16.

10           For those and all -- anybody else that might know
11           Miss Flowers Tyson? Is there any one of you that would 12           give her testimony greater weight or credibility than 13           somebody that you do not know or would the fact that she 14           was a witness in this case cause any of you to be where 15           you could not be a fair and impartial juror?

16           And Sherita Flowers Baskin.

17           Any of you that haven't spoken up about knowing her?

18           Number 148 and Number 44. Anyone else?

19           Would the fact that she might testify in this case
20           cause any of you to give her testimony greater weight or 21           credibility than that of somebody you did not know, or 22           would it influence you where you could not be fair and 23           impartial in this case?

24           Angela Flowers Jones. Any one of you know her that 25           has not already spoken up?

26           Number 17 and Number 53.

27           And if Miss Jones is a witness in this case, is 28           there any one of you that would let that influence you or 29           affect you in being a fair and impartial juror or would

1       you give her testimony greater weight or credibility than
2       that of someone you did not know?

3               Then I know we have already mentioned Lola Flowers.
4       That's Mr. Flowers' mother. Is there any one of you that
5       know her who have not already spoken up about knowing
6       Miss Flowers? Is there any one of you --

7               Number 62, were you saying you knew Miss Flowers?

8               JUROR DIANE COPPER: I know her. His mother.

9               THE COURT: Okay. And anybody else or anybody
10       that hadn't spoken up about knowing her already?

11              41. Okay. And Number 33.

12              Is there any one of you that know Miss Lola Flowers
13       either that have held your card up or already indicated
14       that because of knowing her you could not be a fair and 15       impartial juror or would automatically give her testimony
16       greater weight or credibility than that of somebody you
17       did not know?

18              And Archie Flowers. Of course, I think it has been 19       established that he is Mr. Curtis Flowers' father. Any 20       of you know Archie that have not already spoken up
21       previously?

22              Number 5. 6. 14. 16. 41. 33. 53. 41. 62.
23       69. 65. 94. 92. 115. 136. 138. 154. 128. And
24       Number 147.

25              Those of you that know Archie and those of you that 26       have spoken up already about knowing him, is there any 27       one of you that because he might testify you would give 28       his testimony greater weight or credibility than that of 29       somebody you do not know? Or would you have any

1           difficulty being a fair and impartial juror because he
2           might testify as a witness?

3           And next one would be Archie Renaldo Flowers.

4           Is that -- is that Mr. Curtis Flowers' brother,
5           Defense Counsel?

6           MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor.

7           THE COURT: Okay. Is he also known as Archie,
8           Jr.?

9           MRS. STEINER: Yes.

10          THE COURT: Okay. Any of you know -- I'll just 11          call him Archie, Jr., because I have heard several refer 12          to him that way today. Any of you that know him that 13          have not already made that known?

14          Okay. Number 5. 67. 69. Number 6. Number 8.
15          Number 34. 62. 136. 110. 127. 128. 147. 148. And
16          154.

17          Of those of you that know Mr. Flowers, is there any 18          one of you that would have that influence you or affect 19          you in being a fair and impartial juror or give his
20          testimony greater weight or credibility than somebody
21          that you do not know?

22          How about Crystal Gholston? G-h-o-l-s-t-o-n.
23          Crystal Gholston.

24          Kenyatte Knight.

25          I'm sorry. Number 94. And you know Knight; is that
26          correct?

27          JUROR MELISSA ACY: Kenyatta.

28          THE COURT: Would the fact that you know
29          Kenyatta Knight, would that cause you to believe or give

1           that testimony greater or lesser weight or credibility
2           than somebody you did not know? Or would that influence
3           you at all in being a fair juror?

4                     JUROR MELISSA ACY: No.

5                     THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

6                     Latarsha Blissett.

7                     Okay. Number 5. Number 17. 62. 95. Number 50.

8                     Anybody else that knows Latarsha?

9                     Of those of you that know Latarsha Blissett, would
10           any of you have a situation where that would influence
11           you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror?
12           Or would any of you give Blissett's testimony greater 13           weight or credibility than somebody that you did not
14           know?

15                    Harvey Christopher Freelon. Anybody know Harvey
16           Christopher Freelon?

17                    Stacey Wright.

18                    Number 5. 16. 8. 14. 16. 45. 41. 62. 95.
19           127. 148. 136. And 154.

20                    Those of you that know Stacey Wright, is there any 21           of you that would give Stacey Wright's testimony greater
22           weight or credibility than that of somebody you did not
23           know? Or is there any one of you that would be affected
24           in any way by that?

25                    And Number 16, tell us that situation as it applies
26           to Stacey Wright.

27                    JUROR CHARLES CURRY: That is my sister's
28           daughter. So it's my niece. We was raised up together.
29           She was raised up around my grandmother and my house.

1 THE COURT: So that is your niece.

2 JUROR CHARLES CURRY: Yes.

3 THE COURT: And if she testified as a witness
4 in this case, would you automatically give her testimony
5 a little bit more weight and believe her before you would
6 somebody you did not know?

7 JUROR CHARLES CURRY: Yes, I would.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 Tarryon. T-a-r-r-y-o-n. Tarryon Daniels.
10 Number 5, you know Daniels.

11 Anybody except for 137?

12 Of those of you that know Tarryon Daniels, is there
13 any one of you that would automatically give that
14 testimony greater weight or credibility than somebody
15 that you did not know or be influenced where you couldn't
16 be fair and impartial because of that testimony?

17 Alphonsos Alexander. Any of you know Alphonsos
18 Alexander? Number 16. 17. 154. 137.

19 Anyone else?

20 Of those of you that know Alphonsos Alexander, is 21 there any one of you that would give that testimony
22 greater or lesser weight or credibility than somebody
23 that you did not know? Or would any of you be influenced 24 where you couldn't be fair and impartial if that person
25 were to testify?

26 Jimmy Lewis Forrest.

27 I'm sorry. Number 154. What is your situation
28 where Alphonsos Alexander is concerned?

29 JUROR CONTROLA ALEXANDER: I'm thinking that

1           that is my uncle.

2                   THE COURT: Can defense counsel give me a
3 little guidance so I can inform this witness on -- where
4 is Mr. Alexander? Is he from here or somewhere else?

5                   MRS. STEINER: He is a family friend.

6                   THE COURT: Of the Flowers family.

7                   MRS. STEINER: Of the Flowers' family. And may
8 have had a professional relationship. But I know he is a
9 family friend.

10                  THE COURT: Well, Miss Alexander, Number 54, if 11 your uncle's testifying in this case, would you give his 12 testimony greater weight or credibility or tend to favor
13 the side he was testifying for just because of that 14 relationship?

15                  JUROR CONTROLLA ALEXANDER: Yes, sir.

16                  THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17                  Jimmy Lewis Forrest.

18                  14. 16. 17.

19                  A JUROR: Is he a reverend?

20                  THE COURT: Ma'am.

21                  A JUROR: Reverend Jimmy Lewis?

22                  THE COURT: Is, is Jimmy Lewis a reverend?

23                  MRS. STEINER: Yes.

24                  THE COURT: Okay. He is. His title was 25 written out here. 14. 16. 17. 33. 34. 53. 50. 44.
26 45. 62. 65. 80. 115. 98. 136. And 138. And 127.
27 110. 128. 147.

28                  Of those of you that indicated that you might know
29 Reverend Forrest, is there any one of you that would

1 automatically give his testimony greater weight or
2 credibility, or any of you that would be influenced by
3 that testimony where you could not be a fair and
4 impartial juror?

5 How about Nelson Forrest? Any of you know Nelson
6 Forrest?

7 Okay. Number 14. 16. 17. Number 2. 33. 34.
8 44. 45. 50. 41. 53. 62. 68. 69. 72. 65. 80.
9 115. 98. 136. 137. 138. Did I say -- no. Number
10 121. 94. 111. 110. 128. 127. 147. 149.

11 Of those of you that know Nelson Forrest, is there
12 any one of you that just because you know Nelson Forrest
13 would automatically give his testimony greater or lesser
14 weight and credibility than somebody you do not know or 15 would any of you have a situation where you could not be 16 fair and impartial because of that?

17 And Number 138, and you are indicating, Miss McKey,
18 something about knowing Nelson Forrest. So can you tell
19 us what that is?

20 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: He is the pastor at my 21 husband's family's church in Webster County. And I kind
22 of respect him, sir.

23 THE COURT: So would you automatically just 24 tend to go along with what he would say just because of 25 that pastoral relationship?

26 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: I feel like he would be a
27 big influence on it.

28 THE COURT: And would that influence you to the 29 extent you could not be a fair and impartial juror?

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: I wouldn't want to take
2 the chance on it.

3 THE COURT: So you have got some doubts in your
4 own mind about being fair and impartial because of that.

5 JUROR MARTHA MCKEY: Right.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 Okay. Anybody know Hazel Jones?

8 14. 16. 17. 18. 5. 33. 53. 50. 45. 41. 62.
9 65. 80. 115. 154. 87. 95. 94. 110. And 128.

10 Of those of you that know Hazel Jones, is there any 11 one of you that would give Hazel Jones' testimony greater
12 weight or credibility than somebody that you do not know,
13 or is there any one of you that would have your ability
14 to be fair and impartial where you couldn't be fair and 15 impartial because of knowing Hazel Jones?

16 Henry Stansberry. Do any of you know Henry
17 Stansberry?

18 Number 17.

19 Any one else know Henry Stansberry?

20 Would the fact you know Henry Stansberry influence
21 you or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror, or 22 would you give that testimony greater weight or
23 credibility than somebody you did not know?

24 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: No.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Robert Merrit.

26 Number 5. 16. 6. 29. 53. 95. 127. 154. And 27 136.

28 Of those of you that know Robert Merrit, is there
29 any one of you that would have that affect your ability

1 to be fair and impartial or give his testimony greater
2 weight or credibility than somebody you did not know?

3 Larry Smith. Okay.

4 I believe you two know everybody. And I appreciate
5 you holding your hand up every time, but y'all are 6 obviously well-known and well-liked people in the county.

7 14. 16. 41. 62. 69. 95. 115. 110. 127. 147.
8 128. 148. 137.

9 Of those of you that know Larry Smith, is there any
10 one of you that would give that testimony greater weight 11 or credibility than somebody that you did not know, or 12 would any of you have a situation where you just feel you
13 couldn't be fair and impartial if Larry Smith was a
14 witness?

15 Frances Hayes. Anybody know Frances Hayes?

16 And number 14. 16. 62. 80. And 115.

17 Of those of you that know Frances Hayes, is there
18 any one of you that would automatically give that 19 testimony greater weight or credibility that you -- of 20 somebody that you did not know? Or is there any one of 21 you that could not be fair and impartial because of that?

22 Robert Campbell.

23 Latoya Campbell Harding.

24 Kittery Jones. Okay. Number 5. 16. 17. 95. 53.
25 And 72.

26 Of those of you that --

27 And 154.

28 Of those of you that know Kittery Jones, is there
29 any one of you that feel like you would give that

1 testimony greater weight or credibility than somebody you
2 did not know, or is there any one of you that would be
3 influenced where you couldn't be fair and impartial just
4 because of knowing Kittery Jones?

5 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Excuse me.

6 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

7 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: I know Kittery.

8 THE COURT: And you're Number 14. Okay.

9 JUROR DIANE COPPER: I know him.

10 THE COURT: And Number 62. I'm sorry. I
11 didn't get the hand of you two.

12 But would the fact that you know Kittery Jones
13 influence any of you or affect you where you would give 14 that testimony greater weight, credibility or would that 15 affect you where you couldn't be fair and impartial?

16 Okay. Danny Joe Lott.

17 Okay. 14. 16. 33. 53. 44. 62. 136. 41. 57.
18 92. 127. And 148.

19 Of those of you that know Danny Lott, Danny Joe
20 Lott, is there any one of you by the fact that you know
21 him that would influence you or affect you where you
22 could not be a fair and impartial juror? Or would any of
23 you give his testimony greater weight or credibility
24 strictly because you know him and would not possibly know
25 some other witnesses?

26 Ray Charles Weems.

27 14. 33. 16. 53. And 65. 62. 136. 41. 128.
28 And 127. And 41.

29 Of those of you that know Ray Charles Weems, is

1           there any one of you that would -- the fact that you know
2           Ray Charles Weems that would influence you or affect you
3           in being a fair and impartial juror or influence you in 4           any way or affect you where you would give his testimony
5           greater weight or credibility than somebody that you did
6           not know?

7           Okay. Denise Kendle. K-e-n-d-l-e.

8           14. 16. 17. 53.

9           Of those of you that know Denise Kendle, is there
10          any one of you that would give that testimony greater
11          weight or credibility than somebody that you did not know
12          or would you tend to believe that testimony? Or would 13          that in any way influence you in being fair and
14          impartial?

15          Okay. Erving Bays. Erving Bays.

16          Number 65. 136. 154.

17          Of those of you that know Erving Bays, is there any
18          one of you that would -- where that would influence you
19          or affect you in being a fair and impartial juror or 20          cause you to believe that testimony over somebody's
21          testimony you didn't know?

22          Okay. Steve Byrd.

23          Ann Montgomery.

24          Robert Johnson.

25          Jeffery Armstrong.

26          Billy James Glover.

27          I'm sorry. Which -- you know which one?

28                 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Jeffery Armstrong.

29                 THE COURT: Jeffery Armstrong. Number 67.

1           Would the fact that you know Mr. Armstrong cause you to
2           give his --

3           I'm sorry. Number 5.

4           Those of you that know Mr. Armstrong would that 5           cause you to give his testimony greater weight or 6           credibility than somebody that you do not know or
7           influence you or affect you in being a fair and impartial
8           juror?

9           Okay. Thank you.

10          Ladies and gentlemen, I want to ask you now -- and
11          this may seem like a foolish exercise, but I will explain
12          why I'm doing it. I want you to look around the panel of 13          who is left on here. And I want to know if any of you
14          are related by blood or by marriage to somebody else that 15          is sitting in this jury panel. Because I want to ask you
16          if you are, if you would judge the case independently of 17          somebody you might be related to.

18          So if you are related to somebody else that is on 19          this jury panel, if you will please stand at this time.

20          Okay. Number 12. Miss Johnson, who is it you are
21          related to?

22                 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: My husband is married
23                 to his wife.

24                 THE COURT: And that is Number --

25                 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Your husband is married
26                 to my wife?

27                 THE COURT: What is your number?

28                 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Sixty-seven. Her
29                 husband and my wife are first cousins.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So Miss Johnson, your
2 husband and Mr. Amason's wife are first cousins.

3 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: They are.

4 THE COURT: And Miss Johnson, if you and Mr.
5 Amason were on the case serving together, would you be 6 able to judge that case independently of him and not let 7 that family connection interfere with you at all in that?

8 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: And Mr. Amason, if you were on the 10 panel with Miss Johnson, would you let that family tie or 11 relationship influence you at all?

12 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No.

13 THE COURT: And could you judge the case
14 independently of her?

15 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Okay. What is your number? Number
17 33. And Mr. Crawford, who is it you are related to?

18 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: (Inaudible.)

19 THE COURT: What's that number?

20 COURT REPORTER: Judge, I can't hear him.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Crawford is related to 22 Juror Number 95. And how are y'all related, Mr.
23 Crawford?

24 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: She is my niece.

25 THE COURT: And Mr. Crawford, if you and your 26 niece were sitting on the jury together, would you be 27 able to judge that independently of her and not have --
28 feel like you have to go along with your niece just 29 because y'all were relatives?

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Probably not.

2 THE COURT: So would you judge that
3 independently of her, the case?

4 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Right.

5 THE COURT: And Miss Crawford, would you judge
6 it independently of your uncle and not have the fact that
7 y'all are related influence you in your deliberation?

8 JUROR LESLIE CRAWFORD: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 Number 34. Mr. Eskridge, and who is -- what number?

11 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Sixty-five.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Eskridge, how are you and Miss
13 Woods related?

14 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Sister-in-law. My 15 brother's wife.

16 THE COURT: And, Mr. Eskridge, would you feel
17 if you were on the jury with your sister-in-law that you
18 had to agree with her or find the same way she did just 19 strictly because y'all were related?

20 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: No.

21 THE COURT: And would you judge it
22 independently of her?

23 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: (Nodded.)

24 THE COURT: And Miss Woods, would you judge the 25 case independently of Mr. Eskridge --

26 JUROR JUANITA WOODS: (Nodded.)

27 THE COURT: -- if you were both on the panel
28 together?

29 JUROR JUANITA WOODS: (Nodded.)

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 Number 38. And, Mr. Davis, who are you related to?

3 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I'm related to Charles
4 Davis, Leigh Davis, Number 47, and my wife Linda Davis,
5 Number 152.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Who was the first one you
7 were saying?

8 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Charles Davis.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And Charles is your son.

10 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: He is my son.

11 THE COURT: And then your wife is --

12 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: My wife is 152. Linda
13 Davis.

14 THE COURT: Okay. We got the whole family,
15 didn't we?

16 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Well, I have Leigh Davis
17 is my, my --

18 JUROR CHARLES DAVIS: My wife. 47.

19 THE COURT: And what is Miss Davis back here?

20 JUROR LINDA DAVIS: Linda.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Miss Linda Davis.

22 I'll first ask you, Mr. Barron Davis, if you were on 23 the panel with your son, your daughter-in-law or your 24 wife, would you judge the case independently of anybody
25 you might be related to on the panel?

26 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Yes, I would.

27 THE COURT: And would you feel like you had to 28 go along with any -- if you saw it one way and they saw 29 it the other way, would you stand your ground and hold to

1           what you thought?

2                   JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I would. Yes.

3                   THE COURT: Okay. And then -- okay. And then,
4           Charles LLOYD Davis.

5                   JUROR CHARLES DAVIS: Yes, sir.

6                   THE COURT: If, if you were on the jury with
7           your father or mother or wife, would you be able to judge
8           the case independently of them and not have that family
9           tie come into play in your deliberations?

10                  JUROR CHARLES DAVIS: Yes, sir.

11                  THE COURT: And if you disagreed with one or 12           more of your relatives, if you were on the panel
13           together, would you hold your ground and stick to your 14           view regardless of whether they agreed or not?

15                  JUROR CHARLES DAVIS: Yes, sir.

16                  THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

17                  Then Miss Bobbi Davis, if your husband or your 18           father-in-law or your mother-in-law happened to be on the 19           panel together, would you be able to judge this 20           independently of them?

21                  JUROR BOBBI DAVIS: Yes, sir, I would.

22                  THE COURT: And would you base your decision
23           only on the evidence?

24                  JUROR BOBBI DAVIS: Yes, sir.

25                  THE COURT: And if you disagreed with them on 26           what the evidence showed, would you hold your ground and 27           base your decision strictly on that and not do something
28           just to keep peace among your husband or your in-laws?

29                  JUROR BOBBI DAVIS: Yes, sir, I would.

1           THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you.

2           And then back here in the back.   Miss Linda Davis, _
3   if you were on the panel with your husband or your
4   daughter-in-law or your son, would you be able to judge
5   that case independently of them?

6           JUROR LINDA DAVIS:   I would.   Yes.

7           THE COURT:   And would you hold your ground and 8   not agree with them strictly to keep peace or to be -- to 9   have family relations be good?

10          JUROR LINDA DAVIS:   Yes, I would.

11          THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you.

12          All you Davis's that stood, you can be seated now.

13          Okay.   And Mr. Fielder, Number 42, who is it you are
14   related to?

15          JUROR MARCUS FIELDER:   Curtis Wayne Britt,
16   Number 126.   He is my wife's cousin, I think.

17          THE COURT:   And Mr. Fielder, if you and Mr.
18   Britt were on the jury together, would you be able to 19   judge a case independently of him?

20          JUROR MARCUS FIELDER:   Yes, sir.

21          THE COURT:   And would you feel you had to agree
22   with him just strictly because y'all were some --
23   relatives?

24          JUROR MARCUS FIELDER:   (Shook head.)

25          THE COURT:   And Mr. Britt, would you able to 26   judge the case independently of Mr. Fielder?

27          JUROR CURTIS BRITT:   I would.

28          THE COURT:   Would you feel like you had to go
29   along with him to keep peace in the family or any

1           agreements of any kind there?

2                   JUROR CURTIS BRITT: No.

3                   THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4                   You can both be seated.

5                   Are you related to somebody else as well?

6                   JUROR CURTIS BRITT: 124. She is married to my
7 first cousin.

8                   THE COURT: Okay. You and Mary Ann Britt.

9                   JUROR CURTIS BRITT: Right.

10                  THE COURT: And how are y'all related?

11                  JUROR CURTIS BRITT: Her husband is first
12 cousins with me.

13                  THE COURT: Okay. And would that influence you
14 or cause you to have to feel like you had to agree with 15 Miss Mary Ann because of that family tie?

16                  JUROR CURTIS BRITT: Her name is Martha.

17                  THE COURT: Martha. I'm sorry. Would you
18 judge the case independently of Martha?

19                  JUROR CURTIS BRITT: (Nodded.)

20                  THE COURT: Then, Miss Martha, would you be 21 able to judge the case independently of Charles Wayne and 22 base your decision on the evidence and not on family
23 connections?

24                  JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Yes, sir.

25                  THE COURT: I'm sorry. I was looking at the 26 wrong...

27                  Okay. And are you related to anybody else on the 28 panel?

29                  JUROR MARTHA BRITT: (Shook head.)

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 Then Number 76. And who are you related to, Mr.
3 King?

4 JUROR RICHARD KING, III: Related to Alisha
5 King, 119. She is my cousin.

6 THE COURT: And, Mr. King, if you and your
7 cousin were on the panel together, would you be able to 8 judge that case independently of her?

9 JUROR RICHARD KING, III: I could.

10 THE COURT: And would you feel like you had to 11 agree with her just to keep peace in the family or 12 anything like that?

13 JUROR RICHARD KING, III: No, sir.

14 THE COURT: And, Miss King, if you are on the 15 panel with your cousin, Richard, would you feel you had 16 to agree with him or go along with him just because y'all
17 are related?

18 JUROR ALISHA KING: No, sir.

19 THE COURT: And would you judge the case
20 independently of him?

21 JUROR ALISHA KING: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Okay. You can be seated.

23 Okay. Number 93. Miss Pearson, who is it you are
24 related to?

25 JUROR MELISSA ACY: (Indicated.)

26 JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON: Ninety-four.

27 THE COURT: You and Miss, 94, Acy.

28 JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON: Second cousin.

29 THE COURT: You and Miss, 94, Acy.

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1           And, Miss Pearson, would you be able to judge the
2 case independently of Miss Acy?

3           JUROR MARJORIE PEARSON: Yeah.

4           THE COURT: And Miss Acy, would you be able to
5 judge the case independently of Miss Pearson?

6           JUROR MELISSA ACY: Yes.

7           THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8           And then Number 95. Miss Crawford, and who are you
9 related to?

10          JUROR LESLIE CRAWFORD: Jimmy Joe Allen.
11 Number 136.

12          THE COURT: Okay. And Miss Crawford, if you
13 and Mr. Allen were on the panel together -- and how is it
14 y'all are related?

15          JUROR LESLIE CRAWFORD: Cousin.

16          THE COURT: If you and your cousin were on the 17 panel together, would you be able to judge the case
18 independently of him?

19          JUROR LESLIE CRAWFORD: Yes, sir.

20          THE COURT: And would you feel like you had to 21 agree with him to keep peace in the family or anything
22 like that?

23          JUROR LESLIE CRAWFORD: No, sir.

24          THE COURT: Okay. Then, Mr. Allen, if you and 25 your cousin, Miss Crawford, were on the panel together,
26 could you judge the case independently of her?

27          JUROR JIMMY ALLEN, JR.: Yes, sir.

28          THE COURT: Would you feel like you had to 29 agree with her because y'all are cousins --

Voir Dire Examination by the Court

1 JUROR JIMMY ALLEN, JR.: No, sir.

2 THE COURT: -- or to keep peace in the family?

3 JUROR JIMMY ALLEN, JR.: (Shook head.)

4 THE COURT: Then Number 98. Mr. Robinson, who
5 are you related to?

6 JUROR WILLIE ROBINSON: One-twenty-five.
7 That's my son.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And first to you, Mr. Willie
9 Robinson, if you and your son were on the panel together,
10 would you feel like you had to reach the same opinion as 11 your son or view the case the same way just because of 12 the father and son relationship?

13 JUROR WILLIE ROBINSON: No.

14 THE COURT: If you disagreed with him and he
15 thought one way and you thought the other way, would you
16 hold your ground and stick to your belief?

17 JUROR WILLIE ROBINSON: Yes, I would.

18 THE COURT: And, Mr. Robinson, Number 125, if 19 you and your dad happen to be serving together on the 20 jury, would you feel you had to agree with your father on 21 the verdict?

22 JUROR RICHARD ROBINSON: No sir.

23 THE COURT: And would you stand your ground and 24 base your decision on your personal view of the evidence
25 and not on his opinion?

26 JUROR RICHARD ROBINSON: Yes, sir.

27 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. If you will both 28 be seated.

29 And, Mr. Jones, are you related to --

1 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: (Indicated.)

2 THE COURT: I was going to say if you weren't,
3 somebody wasn't claiming one of you.

4 Now, how are you and Mr. Bridges related?

5 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Second cousins.

6 THE COURT: Second cousins.

7 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: And if you were on the panel with 9 Mr. Bridges, could you judge the case independently of
10 him?

11 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: And would you feel like you had to 13 go along with him to keep family peace or anything like
14 that?

15 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: No, sir.

16 THE COURT: And Mr. Bridges, if you were on the 17 panel with Mr. Jones, would you be able to independently
18 judge the case from him?

19 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: And would you feel like you had to 21 agree with him just strictly because of y'all's family
22 ties or anything like that?

23 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: No.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 Counsel, if you will approach again.

26 (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MRS. STEINER AND MR. CARTER
27 APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE FOLLOWING BENCH CONFERENCE HAD
28 OUTSIDE THE HEARING OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS.)

29 THE COURT: We have got a few more now that I

1 can release. Then I am through with my questioning until
2 we get to the final voir dire where we individually -- I
3 mean separately. But I thought we might recess and 4 excuse these others at this time if that's...

5 MR. EVANS: All right, sir.

6 (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

7 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I'll let you
8 have another recess. If you will, just step outside in 9 the hall for maybe about ten minutes.

11 (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MR. HOWIE, MR. HOPPER, MRS. STEINER
12 AND MR. CARTER APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE FOLLOWING BENCH
13 CONFERENCE.)

14 THE COURT: I think Number 11.

15 MR. HOWIE: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: I think she finally found the thing
17 to get her off. She has been trying quite hard. But she
18 said because of being related to former Sheriff Thornburg
19 she would give his testimony greater weight and it would 20 affect her.

21 Do y'all agree with that one?

22 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

23 MRS. STEINER: I, I wrote down that she said
24 she possibly would. Did she answer anything after that?

25 THE COURT: We can leave her on for a while
26 longer and individually question her.

27 MRS. STEINER: Yeah, I actually --

28 MR. EVANS: Let me put her back on.

29 THE COURT: She seemed like a prosecution

1 person.

2 MR. CARTER: You sure you want to keep her on?
3 She said she -- she practically ultimately said she
4 couldn't be fair. She said she has doubts.

5 We will strike her.

6 MRS. STEINER: She can go.

7 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on Number 11, Miss
8 Rodgers?

9 And let's see.

10 MR. EVANS: Sixteen.

11 THE COURT: Sixteen. Mr. Curry. Stacey Wright
12 is his niece.

13 MRS. STEINER: I mean I heard the same thing I
14 did with Miss Rodgers. There was a possibly there.

15 THE COURT: He said he would give her testimony
16 favor over somebody else.

17 MR. CARTER: That is what I thought he said
18 too.

19 MR. EVANS: That is what he said.

20 THE COURT: Y'all agree on Curry?

21 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Sue Diane Austin. Number 56.

23 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

24 MRS. STEINER: Yeah. She, she knows Mr.
25 Collins.

26 THE COURT: Right.

27 Palmertree. Number 115.

28 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

29 MRS. STEINER: Polly Smith is 115.

1 THE COURT: Yeah. Polly Palmertree Smith.

2 MRS. STEINER: Oh, okay.

3 MR. EVANS: She said she would automatically
4 believe James Taylor Williams.

5 MRS. STEINER: Uncle -- aunt of James Taylor
6 Williams.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. 154.

8 MR. EVANS: We have 138 too.

9 THE COURT: Did I overlook somebody?

10 MR. EVANS: She was one that would believe
11 anything Nelson Forrest says.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. Nelson Forrest.

13 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I thought she said
14 she had doubts that she couldn't follow him.

15 MR. HOPPER: She said it would be a big 16 influence.

17 MR. EVANS: Yes, she did. She said he would be 18 a big influence on anything she did, and she wouldn't 19 want to take a chance of sitting because of it.

20 MRS. STEINER: That is one I ask that she can
21 stick around and be individually voir dired, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I will allow her to stay around.
23 We will ask her about that. There is no harm in that.

24 Then Number 154, Ms. Alexander. Alphonsos, is that 25 --

26 MRS. STEINER: Yes, sir.

27 THE COURT: Do y'all agree on that one?

28 MRS. STEINER: Yes, sir.

29 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

1 (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

2 (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS RETURNED TO THE COURTROOM.)

3 THE COURT: Okay. There is a few more that
4 I'll be able to excuse at this time. So if your name is
5 called, you may go as well.

6 Melba Laster Rodgers. Charles Earl Curry. Sue
7 Diane Austin.

8 MRS. STEINER: What number is that?

9 THE COURT: Number 56.

10 Polly Lois Palmertree Smith, Number 115. And then
11 Miss Alexander, Number 154.

12 Ladies and gentlemen, for those of you that remain,
13 at this time we are going to recess for the day. I am
14 going to ask that you be back here at 9:00 in the 15 morning.

16 I'll ask that you do not discuss this case with 17 anyone or among yourselves over the recess. Also, when 18 you get back tomorrow, just come on in the courtroom and 19 kind of -- as you get back tomorrow, I am going to 20 probably move y'all in next to each other to fill up
21 these gaps that are -- that are there right now. But if 22 you will just all come back in the courtroom and have a
23 seat. And when you are all back, we will proceed at that
24 point.

25 You can't talk to any of these witnesses whose names
26 I've gone over with you. You can't talk to the attorneys
27 or anybody else involved in the case or go out and make
28 any independent investigation about the case.

29 Also, I don't want you to read any newspaper

1 articles about the case or listen to the radio or listen
2 to the internet or watching the internet or reading
3 anything that has happened that would discuss things that
4 have happened in court.

5 So with that, ladies and gentlemen, we will be in
6 recess now until 9:00 in the morning.

7 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I was going to say,
8 are they retaining their same numbers?

9 THE COURT: They are. Yes.

10 (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

11 THE BAILIFF: Your Honor, we have a juror
12 request he say something to you.

13 THE COURT: That will be fine. I mean we gotta
14 go on record. We will have everybody come up.

15 (JUROR NUMBER 121, MR. MICHAEL AUSTIN, APPROACHED THE 16 BENCH.)

17 THE COURT: What is your number?

18 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: 121. I'm having a
19 grandchild tomorrow. I'm not trying to --

20 THE COURT: You've got a child -- grandchild
21 being born tomorrow.

22 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: At 11:00 at Oxford.

23 MRS. STEINER: Congratulations.

24 THE COURT: If you will, step out a minute and 25 I will confer with counsel. And I will let you know
26 something.

27 (JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

28 THE COURT: What is y'all's thoughts on --

29 MR. CARTER: We don't object.

1                   MRS. STEINER: No objection.

2                   MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if this was something
3 that somebody was in serious medical condition, I
4 wouldn't have an objection. But just having, having a
5 grandchild, I just don't see that that is grounds to be 6 removed as a juror.

7                   THE COURT: Bring him back in and tell him he
8 will have to come back.

9                   (JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN RETURNED TO THE COURTROOM.)

10                  THE COURT: Right now you are going to have to 11 come back.

12                  BAILIFF BROWNING: I've got two of the Davis
13 out there, husband and wife, the young man and wife.
14 They have come and informed me that -- they didn't speak
15 up because they didn't realize. They thought they might 16 have another chance to do it. But they both have got 17 classes that they have got to be at tomorrow.

18                  THE COURT: They should have spoken up, because 19 it is too late now.

20                  BAILIFF BROWNING: So do they need to be -- can 21 they come in and you tell them that?

22                  THE COURT: No.

23                  BAILIFF BROWNING: Just tell --

24                  THE COURT: They are just going to have to be 25 here tomorrow.

26                  BAILIFF BROWNING: To be here tomorrow. Okay.

27                  (THE PROCEEDING ON THIS DATE WAS CONCLUDED.)

ROLE CALLED; BENCH CONFERENCE

(THE FOLLOWING PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD IN
OPEN COURT ON JUNE 8, 2010, WITH THE
COURT, THE COURT REPORTER, ALL COUNSEL,
THE DEFENDANT, THE CIRCUIT CLERK AND ALL
PROSPECTIVE JURORS PRESENT, TO-WIT:)

(THE ROLE WAS CALLED BY THE CLERK)

BY THE COURT: If the counsel will approach.

(ALL COUNSEL APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR A
CONFERENCE HELD OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS:)

BY THE COURT: Okay. I've been told the jury -- I've been told Juror 53 and 136 are both here. One of them's just dragged in about 30 minutes late, and I think No. 95 was real late getting here, too. So 95 --

BY THE BAILIFF: No. 53 arrived.

BY THE COURT: Okay. It was 53, 95 and 136 were the ones that were extremely late and 30 minutes late. And now 136 is still not here. I'm not going to wait any longer for her. I mean, in individual voir dire if she does show up, then we -- you know, she can be questioned about things that she may have missed, and she may -- I mean, I'm -- she may have had some kind of emergency or she may have misunderstood and thought she was excused yesterday. I don't know what the deal is, why she's not here.

ROLE CALLED; BENCH CONFERENCE

1           But I don't see -- and the clerk's
2       tried to call her and could not get her on
3       the phone. So I don't -- I mean, I'm not
4       going to sit here all day waiting for a juror
5       that may or may not show up. But as I say,
6       53 and 95, that were both extremely late, are
7       here. So I've just got one now that we're 8       waiting on. I'm just going to go ahead and 9       proceed without her.

10           (BENCH CONFERENCE CONCLUDED)

11       BY MR. HILL: He just walked in, Judge .

12       BY THE BAILIFF: Are you Mr. Allen?

13       BY JUROR: Yes.

14       BY THE BAILIFF: Okay. We have them all
15       here now.

16       BY THE COURT: Counsel, if you'll come
17       back.

18           (ALL COUNSEL APPROACH BENCH FOR A
19       CONFERENCE HELD OUT OF THE HEARING OF THE
20       PROSPECTIVE JURORS:)

21       BY THE COURT: I was mistaken. I was 22       saying she, and it was a he. I knew that. I
23       looked at my list a minute ago, and two of 24       them were females that were late and the 25       other one was male. But for whatever reason,
26       I was saying she instead of him, too. But 27       now they are all here, so we can proceed.

28           (BENCH CONFERENCE CONCLUDED)

29       BY THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 gentlemen, the Court's concluded its
2 questioning. And now I will tender the panel
3 and allow the State of Mississippi to begin
4 asking questions.

5 Mr. Evans, you may proceed.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

8 BY JURORS: Good morning.

9 BY MR. EVANS:

10 Q There are a few things that I want to go
11 through that the judge didn't, and a few things that 12 I want to go just a little further into that he did.

13 Before we do that, I am Doug Evans, your
14 district attorney. I think some of y'all know me
15 and some may not. Clyde Hill, one of the 16 assistants, will be helping me; and Mike Howie,
17 another assistant, will be helping in the trial.

18 Now, voir dire is strictly just an attempt
19 to find out a little something about the jurors so
20 that we can make sure that we get a fair and 21 impartial jury, because the jury that sits on this 22 case needs to listen to only the evidence and the 23 witnesses that come forward in court. You need to 24 be able to disregard anything else that you may know
25 or you may heard -- have heard. Anything outside
26 the courtroom needs to be dropped at the door, and 27 you need to come in here with an open mind.

28 That's what we need. We need a jury that 29 will only listen to the evidence. Can each of you

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 tell us you will do that? Yes, ma'am?

2 A I just don't think I can, you know, with
3 outside -- what -- (Juror No. 106, Jennifer Swindoll)

4 Q And what's your number?

5 A 106.

6 Q Okay. Thank you. Is there another one?

7 BY THE COURT: No. 136.

8 BY MR. EVANS:

9 Q Yes, sir?

10 A (No. 136, Mr. Jimmy Allen, Jr.) I don't
11 think I can, either.

12 Q And are both of y'all saying that because 13 of some outside influence, that you could not be 14 fair and impartial in this case --

15 A Yes, sir. (No. 136)

16 Q All right. No. 33. Mr. Crawford, you're 17 saying that you could not be fair and impartial in
18 this case?

19 A Yes, sir. (No. 33, Jessie Crawford)

20 Q Okay. And No. 34, Mr. Eskridge?

21 A (No. 34, John Eskridge) Yes, sir.

22 Q And you could not be fair and impartial in 23 this case, either?

24 A Right.

25 Q Thank you. All right. Was there anyone
26 else that I missed? No. 103, Ms. Jones?

27 A Yes. (No. 103, Ms. Mary Ella Jones)

28 Q And you say that you could not be fair and 29 impartial in this particular case because of some

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 outside influence?

2           A     Yes, sir.

3           Q     Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

4                   All right. I've heard different attorneys
5 refer to it in different ways, but it's kind of like
6 all of us have different schools or different ball
7 teams that we like. And for example, if it was a
8 baseball team that you had a relative playing on --
9 a little league baseball team -- you're probably
10 going to be pulling for that baseball team.

11                   But what we're asking you to do is put 12 yourself in the place of the referee. We want you
13 to be fair. We want you not to lean toward either
14 side but to listen to the evidence and base your 15 decision strictly on the evidence. And that's -- 16 that's what you're here for. That's what a trial is 17 all about.

18                   The State of Mississippi has the burden of 19 proving the case. It's up to us to put on proof,
20 proof to you beyond a reasonable doubt that this
21 defendant is guilty. And that's what you're to look 22 at, the testimony that comes from the courtroom and 23 the evidence that the judge allows in this
24 courtroom.

25                   It will be up to the judge to determine
26 what the law is in the case. That's always true.
27 But it will be up to the jury to determine what
28 witnesses are believable and base their decision
29 strictly on that.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 I know there were some of you the other
2 day that were talking about not being able to judge.
3 And at this point, we're not getting into what the 4 penalty is. But is there anyone still out here that 5 just feels like that they could not judge someone?

6 And basically, what we would get to -- if
7 we were to have a situation if that were true --
8 that we would have a juror or jurors that would have 9 the feeling, Well, I just don't think it's right for 10 me to judge someone, and we would go through a week
11 of trial and then that juror in the jury room throw
12 up their hands and say, I'm sorry, I just don't 13 think it's right for me to judge. So we wouldn't be 14 able to complete what we're here for. So is there
15 anyone here that even thinks that they could not 16 judge someone?

17 No. 41, Ms. Givens, you could not judge
18 someone?

19 A No, sir. (Juror No. 41, Margaret Givens)

20 Q On any case?

21 A No.

22 BY MR. CARTER: What's her number?

23 BY MR. EVANS: 41.

24 BY MR. EVANS:

25 Q Okay. And as I call you out, you can put
26 your numbers down if you'd like to. No. 65,
27 Ms. Woods? You feel that you could not judge anyone
28 on a case?

29 A No, sir. (Juror No. 65, Juanita Woods)

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           Q     Okay.

2                   BY MR. CARTER:   What's her number?

3                   BY MS. STEINER:   65.

4           BY MR. EVANS:

5           Q     No. 76, Mr. King.   You feel that you could
6 not judge anyone?

7           A     No, sir.   I don't believe I could.   (Juror
8 No. 76, Richard King)

9           Q     All right.   And y'all need to speak loud
10 enough, too, so that the court reporter can hear you
11 because she has to take down what everyone of us --

12           A     I don't believe I could.   (Juror No. 76, 13 Richard King)

14           Q     Thank you, sir.

15                   All right.   No. 93, Ms. Pearson.   You feel
16 that you could not judge anyone?

17           A     No, sir.   (Juror No. 93, Marjorie 18 Pearson)

19           Q     And it wouldn't matter what the case is;
20 just on a criminal case, you don't think it's right
21 for you to judge.   Is that what you're saying?

22           A     No, sir.

23           Q     No. 118, Mr. Golden.   And you feel that 24 you cannot judge anyone?

25           A     No, sir.   (Juror No. 118, Antonio Golden)

26           Q     No. 127, Mr. Campbell.   And you also feel 27 that you could not judge anyone on any case?

28           A     Yes, sir.   (Juror No. 127, Don Campbell)

29           Q     If you would, you need to answer out so

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 that she can take it down.

2 Mr. Campbell, you did say yes, sir. Is
3 that correct?

4 A (Nodding head).

5 BY THE COURT REPORTER: Could you tell
6 them to stand, please, when they answer?

7 BY MR. EVANS:

8 Q Okay. The court reporter's asked that
9 y'all stand when you have an answer.

10 Okay. Yes, ma'am. What is your number,
11 please?

12 A 45. (Juror No. 45, Edith Burnside)

13 Q No. 45? Okay. Ms. Burnside. And you
14 also feel that you could not judge anyone?

15 A I can't. I don't feel like I can.

16 Q You just could not judge anyone; it
17 wouldn't matter what the case was?

18 A No, sir.

19 Q Okay. No. 128, Mr. Moore?

20 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 128, Herman Moore)

21 Q You also feel that you could not judge
22 anyone?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q All right. Thank you. No. 136,
25 Mr. Allen. You also feel that you could not judge
26 anyone?

27 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 136, Jimmy Allen)

28 Q And No. 147, Ms. Ringold?

29 A Okay. Do you mean death or -- (Juror No.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 147, Maxine Ringold)

2           Q     No, ma'am. At this point, we're not
3 getting into the death penalty part. I'm just 4 asking if you were picked as a juror, there may be
5 testimony from both sides?

6           A     Uh-huh.

7           Q     And it would be up to the jury to 8 determine what happened. This isn't going to be 9 like a TV show where you're going to actually be
10 able to see the crime committed. So you, once
11 they're picked as jurors, will have to make a
12 decision of what happened. You'll have to weigh the 13 testimonies of the witnesses and make a decision.
14 And what I'm asking at this point are the ones that 15 just don't feel that they should judge anyone and 16 just could not make a decision of whether someone is 17 even guilty or not?

18          A     I could judge somebody, but I don't want
19 no death penalty.

20          Q     Okay. We'll get to that in a little bit.

21          A     Okay.

22          Q     Thank you, ma'am.

23          A     Okay. (Juror No. 147, Maxine Ringold)

24          Q     And nobody is questioning anybody's
25 beliefs. We have all have certain personal beliefs
26 and religious beliefs. But that's one that is real
27 important when it comes to a criminal case.

28                 Now, the district attorney's office in 29 this state is made up of different districts. This

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 district is the Fifth Circuit Court District. I've
2 got seven counties that we prosecute in, and
3 Montgomery County is one of those counties. And
4 what we do -- our job -- we take every felony case
5 that is presented to us by either law enforcement or 6 by victims, and we present those cases to the grand
7 jurors. And then if the case is indicted, we
8 prosecute them. It doesn't matter if it's a grand
9 larceny, a burglary, a murder. All felonies,
10 anything that can carry penitentiary time, we're
11 responsible for prosecuting.

12 And what we do, we put the cases together.
13 We get with the law enforcement officers, the 14 victims, the witnesses, and make a case to put 15 together to show to the jury that the person did
16 commit the crime. And that's what our 17 responsibilities are. Our responsibility as 18 prosecutor is to fairly and truly present the 19 evidence that's there. And that's -- that's what we 20 do as a job.

21 The judge has briefly told you about this
22 case. It is a capital murder case. It's a murder
23 case where back in 1996 -- it was July the 16th --
24 four people were murdered at Tardy Furniture. What 25 makes it a capital case is that money was taken
26 during the murders. If it were a murder -- just a
27 simple murder where nothing was taken -- it would be 28 bad, but it wouldn't be capital because of that.
29 For it to be capital, it has to be another element

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 that's in the statute.

2 Do each of you understand that? Does
3 anyone -- well, let me stop that because we're not
4 going into the penalty at this point.

5 I know some of these questions may sound
6 kind of silly, but it seems that in our minds we 7 think we need to know more a little bit about the 8 jurors. And I know this question probably
9 everybody's going to answer question yes, but I
10 still need to ask it. How many of y'all know where 11 Tardy Furniture is located?

12 (JURORS RAISE HANDS)

13 BY MR. EVANS:

14 Q Thank you. And is there anybody here that 15 does not know where Tardy Furniture was located?

16 Okay. No. 2, Ms. Harris, No. 48, No. 78,
17 No. 135, and No. 138. All right. And of y'all, is 18 that -- where y'all -- were -- of the ones that I
19 just asked, were you living here in the city? Any 20 of you? All right.

21 A (By unidentified juror) What you talking
22 about?

23 Q I'm talking about as far as the ones that
24 don't know where Tardy is located.

25 A Oh, no. I'm sorry.

26 Q Okay. And some of these questions may be
27 kind of confusing. And I want to go over one fact
28 that the judge did. It's important, too, if you
29 think of things later, just raise your flag and let

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 us know.

2 A Clarification, please. (Juror No. 138,
3 Martha McKey)

4 Q Ma'am?

5 A Clarification. Was the question, Did you
6 live here in 1996?

7 Q No. The question was a followup to the 8 ones that didn't know where Tardy Furniture was 9 located. I was just asking those that didn't know
10 where it was located if they were living here in 11 '96?

12 A And the answer is no.

13 Q How many of you had ever shopped at Tardy
14 Furniture?

15 (JURORS RAISE HANDS)

16 BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q Okay. Pretty good many. How many of you
18 had accounts with the store, charge accounts?

19 14. I'm sorry. 75. And wasn't there one
20 more? 45. And 62. All right. Of the ones of you
21 that had accounts there -- and I know -- I hate to 22 even ask some of these questions, but it is things
23 we need to know. Did Tardy Furniture ever have to 24 sue any of you for those accounts? Nobody? No. 45.

25 A Sir, can I say something on that? (Juror
26 No. 45, Edith Burnside)

27 Q Ma'am?

28 A Can I say something on that as to why I
29 was --

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           Q     Well, the question was just were you ever
2 sued.

3           A     Okay.

4           Q     Not going to get into what was owed or
5 anything else.

6           A     Or whether it was paid off or anything?

7 (Juror No. 14, Carolyn Wright)

8           BY MR. CARTER: I object, Your Honor. She 9 ought to be able to ask her question or 10 whatever she has.

11           BY MR. EVANS: If it's in response to the
12 question.

13           BY THE COURT: If you'll stand up, ma'am,
14 because the court reporter's -- see, she's 15 typing everything that's spoken and she can
16 hear you better if you stand up.

17           A     I had an account there, but I was not sued
18 by Ms. Bertha. It was later on when it was took 19 over by Mr. Frank and Roxanne.     (Juror No. 45, 20 Edith Burnside)

21           Q     I think I've got where it was sued by 22 Tardy Furniture; is that correct?

23           A     (Nodding head).

24           Q     And that was the question: Were you ever
25 sued by Tardy Furniture? All right.

26                   And No. 14, Ms. Wright. I believe you
27 were, in fact, sued by Tardy Furniture. Is that
28 correct?

29           A     Yes. But it was paid off.     (Juror No. 14,

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Carolyn Wright)

2 BY THE COURT: Would you speak up? I
3 could not hear that.

4 A Yes, sir.

5 BY MR. EVANS:

6 Q You were sued, and there was a judgment
7 against you?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q And none of this is meant to embarrass
10 anybody. It's just questions that we need to ask.

11 All right. I want to go back through a
12 little bit about the ones of you that may have not 13 answered or that we didn't develop enough on the 14 relationships with the Defendant, Curtis Flowers,
15 and his family. I know a lot of you the other
16 day -- a lot of the ones that were here did answer.
17 There were a lot of relatives of his. Most of those 18 are not here now because they said that they could
19 not be fair and impartial.

20 Is there anyone else here as far as being 21 related to him or his family -- and just for --
22 briefly, to make sure that everybody understands,
23 his father is Archie Flowers. His mother is Lola
24 Campbell Flowers. He has one brother, Archie
25 Flowers, Jr. One sister, Angela Jones. Another
26 sister, Felicia -- I think it's Tyson. Another
27 sister, Prisilla Ward. And then another sister,
28 Sherita Baskin. I think that there's been testimony
29 already that they are related to Mr. Nelson Forrest,

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Ms. Hazel Jones and Johnnie Mae Woods.

2 Now, knowing that, is there anyone still
3 here that is related to any of those individuals?

4 Yes, ma'am. No. 53. And who are you
5 related to?

6 A Angela is my niece. (Juror No. 53,
7 Flancie Jones)

8 Q Who is your niece?

9 A Angela. And one you named is my 10 sister-in-law. Who did you say his aunt was?

11 Q Ms. Hazel Jones --

12 A Hazel Jones is my sister-in-law.

13 Q Hazel Jones is your sister-in-law?

14 A She's a Ward.

15 BY THE COURT: Ms. Jones, I couldn't hear
16 all -- you had said something about somebody
17 named Angela? And I did not get --

18 BY JUROR: Angela is my niece.

19 BY THE COURT: What's Angela's last name
20 now?

21 BY JUROR: She was a Ward, but she married
22 a Jones.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. That's the
24 defendant's sister?

25 BY JUROR: I didn't know that was his
26 sister.

27 BY THE COURT: Okay. And that's your
28 niece?

29 BY JUROR: It's my nephew's wife.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           BY THE COURT: Okay. And then who was --
2           is that the only one -- I wasn't clear. Is
3           that the only one whose name you recognized
4           that he called?

5           BY JUROR: (Nodding head.)

6           BY MR. EVANS: She stated a Hazel Jones
7           also, which is a sister to, I think, Ms. Lola
8           Flowers.

9           BY THE COURT: Okay. And what was your 10          connection with Ms. Hazel Jones?

11          BY JUROR: She's my -- she's my husband's 12          brother's wife. (Juror No. 53, Flancie Jones)

13          BY THE COURT: Okay.

14          BY MR. EVANS:

15           Q     How often do you see these?

16           A     I don't.

17           Q     You don't see them?

18           A     (Shaking head).

19           Q     Is there anything about those
20          relationships that would make it difficult for you
21          to be fair and impartial?

22           A     No.

23           Q     And I think you also said that you knew --
24          in addition to Angela, you knew Archie, Sr., Nelson
25          Forrest, Hazel Jones, Danny Joe Lott. Is there
26          anything about that that would affect you this case?

27           A     No.

28           Q     Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

29                    Anyone else here other than Ms. Jones that

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 now, after thinking about these connections,
2 realizes that they may be related to the defendant
3 or his family?

4 All right. I'm going to go a little bit
5 broader now. Anyone that did not answer when the 6 judge was going through all of the connections with 7 being friends of the family -- and I want to extend
8 that to the fact that I know the defendant's father,
9 Mr. Archie, sings in a gospel group. I think the 10 defendant sang with that group some. Is there
11 anybody here that is close friends with them because 12 of that singing group, because of school, because of 13 church or any other type of relationship that has 14 not answered already?

15 All right. Thank you. The Defendant,
16 Curtis Flowers, at the time this crime was committed
17 was living with a person by the name of Connie
18 Moore, who will probably be a witness in this case.
19 Are any of you related to Connie Moore? I know some 20 of you yesterday -- I think the only question was 21 asked was do you know her. But how many of you know
22 Connie Moore? All right. Did all of y'all answer
23 yesterday? Because I don't want to take the time to 24 go through it if everybody did. No. 28, you did
25 not? You did?

26 A (Nodding head).

27 Q No. 147?

28 A I answered. (Juror No. 147, Maxine
29 Ringold)

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           Q     All right. And I'll just -- I want to try
2 not to slow things up. I want to speed up as much
3 as I can. So I'll just ask each of y'all: Is there
4 anything about knowing her that would influence your
5 decision in this case in any way?

6                   (JURORS SHAKE THEIR HEADS)

7           Q     Yes, ma'am.

8           A     I've done some soul searching on the 9 murder of my cousin in Kosciusko, Jeanette Nowell.

10           (Juror No. 55, Christina Bartlett)

11           Q     Yes, ma'am.

12           A     And I will have to say that I do lean
13 toward the victim's families because of the 14 suffering that that has caused. My mother and daddy
15 both died shortly thereafter.

16           Q     And what we're going to be asking a jury
17 to do is disregard anything like that and base their 18 decision only on the evidence. Are you saying that 19 you could not do that?

20           A     I don't think I could.

21           Q     Okay. Thank you.

22           A     I'm sorry.

23           Q     The information we have is that the 24 Defendant and his family and Connie Moore have lived
25 in the areas around Silver Street, McNutt, Harper
26 and Cade. Have any of y'all ever lived in any of 27 those areas? No. 62? Yes, ma'am.

28           A     Where --

29                   BY THE COURT: If you'll please stand when

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           you're responding.

2           A     I live on -- used to live on Harper. (Juror
3 No. 62, Diane Copper)

4           Q     On which street?

5           A     Harper.

6           Q     Okay.

7           BY THE COURT: And what street is that
8 again?

9           A     Harper.

10          BY THE COURT: Harper. Okay.

11          A     Yes, sir.

12          BY MR. EVANS:

13          Q     How far away from the Flowers did you
14 live?

15          A     Not very far.

16          Q     Just a few houses?

17          A     No. Probably about two blocks or so.

18          Q     About two blocks. Would you see them very 19 often?

20          A     Not too often.

21          Q     Is there anything about being a neighbor
22 of theirs that would affect you in this particular
23 case?

24          BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I object. I
25 don't think that makes her a neighbor.

26          BY MR. EVANS: I think anybody could
27 understand that. You may answer.

28          A     Of course, I don't live on that street.

29          Q     But what I'm asking is there anything

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 about the fact that you were a neighbor of theirs
2 that would affect you in this case?

3 BY MR. CARTER: Same objection.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, I think she can
5 classify neighbor however -- you know, the
6 State may classify somebody two blocks away
7 as a neighbor. Then out in the country, you
8 might consider somebody two miles away to be
9 your neighbor. So, you know -- but she can
10 answer, I think, based on the question.

11 A No. No it wouldn't be a problem.

12 BY THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. Speak
13 up.

14 A No. It wouldn't be a problem.

15 BY MR. EVANS:

16 Q It wouldn't be a problem?

17 A No.

18 Q Do you still see the Flowers?

19 A Sometimes. I work at Wal-Mart, so
20 sometimes they come in there and -- you know,
21 shopping.

22 Q You work with Archie at Wal-Mart; is that
23 correct?

24 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 62, Diane Copper)

25 Q And you also work with one of the 26 defendant's sisters?

27 A That's correct.

28 Q Which sister do you work with?

29 A Cora Flowers.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Q Cora?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q How long did you work with Cora?

4 A I can't remember the exact -- probably
5 about a year or something like that.

6 Q Okay. Were y'all pretty close?

7 A It was more like a working relationship,
8 you know.

9 Q Did you ever visit with each other?

10 A No, sir.

11 Q Okay. But you did work with two of his 12 family members, and you lived within a couple of 13 blocks of the Flowers' residence. You do not think
14 that any of that would affect you?

15 A I don't think so.

16 Q But I need you to -- like the judge said,
17 we need you to be positive. Could that affect your 18 thinking in the case?

19 A It could.

20 Q Okay. Do you think that that may cause
21 you to lean toward the defendant in the case?

22 A Yes, sir, it's possible.

23 Q Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

24 A Can I mention something else?

25 Q Yes, ma'am.

26 A My husband used to work down there at 27 Tardy, too, but it was -- I don't remember what
28 year, but it was right before the incident happened.

29 Q What's your husband's name?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     John Copper.

2           Q     Okay.

3           A     He just helped deliver.

4           Q     Okay. Do you know about how long before?

5           A     How long?

6           Q     How long he worked there before the 7     murders?

8           A     No.

9           Q     Would it have been --

10          A     Probably -- maybe late '80s or '90s,
11     early --

12          Q     Okay. So it had been several years
13     before; is that right?

14          A     Yes, sir.

15          Q     But he did work for Mr. and Mrs. Tardy?

16          A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 62, Diane Copper)

17          Q     All right. Thank you, ma'am.

18                   And No. 45. Yes, ma'am?

19          A     I live on the -- around on the next 20     street, from McNutt Street. (Juror No. 45, Edith 21 Burnside)

22          Q     Okay. Which street was that? Which 23     direction?

24          A     I been trying to think. It's been a long
25     time. I cannot remember. It was the project, and I
26     stayed over on the next street. McNutt was behind
27     me. I was in the front.

28          Q     All right. When was that?

29          A     It's been '96 when this happened? Right?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Q Right.

2 A Okay. I was living there in '96.

3 Q Okay.

4 A On the next street.

5 Q Did you know Connie Moore?

6 A Just -- I know her -- we went to the same
7 beauty shop and stuff like that, but I never visit
8 her house or nothing like that.

9 Q All right. And you did know the 10 Defendant. I think you said that the Defendant
11 visited in your home?

12 A Yes. Him and one of his sisters have,
13 yes. (Juror No. 45, Edith Burnside)

14 Q Okay. Which sister was that?

15 A Prisilla Flowers.

16 Q So not only did they visit in your home,
17 but you said that he was real close with both of 18 your sons?

19 A They played ball and stuff together.

20 Q All right. And would that affect you?
21 Would you think about that if you were picked as a
22 juror? If you listened to the evidence and was 23 asked to decide his guilt or innocence, would the 24 fact that he's been to your home and he's close to 25 your family and his sister, too, would that affect
26 you?

27 A No, sir.

28 Q Okay. Thank you, ma'am. Do you have 29 something else?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     Yes. I was going to say I been knowing
2 her, too, for a long time. (Juror No. 41, Margaret
3 Givens)

4           Q     I'm sorry. I can't hear you.

5           A     I been knowing her, too, Connie Moore,
6 because I used to stay in -- on Greenburg Street?

7           Q     Okay.

8           BY MR. CARTER: What's your number?

9           BY JUROR: Margaret Givens. Oh, 41.

10          BY THE COURT REPORTER: You used to stay
11 where?

12          BY JUROR: On Greenburg Street.

13          BY MR. EVANS:

14          Q     And were y'all friends?

15          A     No. We weren't friends.

16          Q     You just knew who she was?

17          A     Sir?

18          Q     You just knew who she was?

19          A     Uh-huh. I just been knowing her for a 20 long time.

21          Q     Okay. Is there anything about that --

22          A     No.

23          Q     Okay. Thank you, ma'am. I appreciate you
24 answering to that.

25          A     Uh-huh.

26          Q     Because it's lot of things -- you start
27 thinking back that far, it's hard to remember where 28 you were and what was going on sometimes.

29                 Anyone else on that question? All right.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 I know everybody that the judge asked about having
2 family or friends that have been convicted of a
3 crime. Is there anyone here that did not answer
4 that question? Yes, ma'am. No. 1?

5 A After I thought about it, I do have a
6 couple of first cousins that are convicted felons,
7 but I have no association with them anymore. (Juror
8 No. 1, Sandra Hamilton)

9 Q Do you know what the charges were?

10 A They were drug charges.

11 Q Okay. Wasn't violent offenses?

12 A No, sir.

13 Q Is there anything about that that would
14 affect you in this case?

15 A No, sir.

16 Q You don't hold any ill will towards the 17 prosecution because they were convicted?

18 A No, sir. Like I say, the only time I see 19 these two is if we have a death in the family. They 20 may show up at the funeral. They may be 21 incarcerated now. I don't even know.

22 Q All right. Thank you, Ms. Hamilton. And
23 No. 41?

24 A Yeah. I have something. (Juror No. 41,
25 Margaret Givens)

26 Q I'm sorry. I still can't understand you.

27 A I got a son. He got charged with a
28 burglary.

29 Q When was that?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     That was in this year.

2           Q     Is that Robert?

3           A     Sir?

4           Q     What's his name?

5           A     Reginald Lindsey.

6           Q     Reginald Lindsey. Okay.

7                   BY THE COURT REPORTER: Did you say he got
8           shot by a burglar?

9                   BY JUROR: Unh-unh. I said he got charged
10          with burglary.

11         BY MR. EVANS:

12           Q     And my office prosecuted him. Is there
13          anything about that that would affect you in this
14          particular case?

15           A     Yeah, I think it will.

16           Q     You think it would?

17           A     Uh-huh.

18           Q     Thank you, ma'am. All right. And I want
19          to go --

20                   BY THE COURT: You've got another
21          number --

22         BY MR. EVANS:

23           Q     I'm sorry. Yes, sir. No. 22?

24           A     I had a second or third cousin that was 25          convicted of murder. (Juror No. 22, Mr. Larry Wayne
26          Blaylock)

27           Q     And where was that?

28           A     I believe it happened in Carroll County.

29           Q     Okay. I know who you're talking about.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Is there anything about that -- because my office
2 did handle that, too -- is there anything about that
3 that would affect you in this case?

4       A     No, sir.

5       Q     All right. Thank you, Mr. Blaylock.

6               All right. Other than the ones -- well,
7 even with the ones that have answered before, have
8 any of y'all ever been to a jail to visit an inmate?
9 Yes, ma'am. Number -- let me get on the second
10 sheet. No. 14, 1, 18, 41, 48, 50, 58, 62, 65, 68,
11 87, 92, 95, 96, 123, 135, 147, and 149. Is there
12 anything about that that would affect any of you in 13 this case? No. 2?

14       A     I didn't -- I used to work at a jail
15 before I came to work here.   (Juror No. 2, Christy
16 Harris)

17       Q     Okay.

18       A     Worked in Grenada.

19       Q     But you weren't -- didn't go to visit
20 someone; you were working there?

21       A     No.

22       Q     Okay. Of the ones of you that had visited
23 someone in jail -- and the question is simply this:
24 Because of the fact that you may have had a friend
25 or a relative that was in jail that you went to see,
26 is there anything about that that would have caused
27 you to dislike the prosecution or to feel that 28 people should not be convicted of crimes? Anyone at 29 all? All right. Thank you.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           And I know probably all of you or most of
2   you feel that you know we have to have a criminal
3   justice system. We do have to try people that
4   commit crimes. Is there anyone here that feels that
5   we shouldn't? That people that commit crimes ought 6   to be able to just walk through? I know some of 7   these questions sound silly, but we need to ask
8   them.

9           Do all of you understand that at this
10   phase in the trial this defendant or any defendant,
11   no matter what the case, is presumed by law to be 12   innocent? And there's a good reason for that. The 13   burden of proof is on the State of Mississippi to 14   prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. You
15   cannot come into court and rely on any outside
16   source. So since we have put on no proof at this
17   point, he is presumed to be completely innocent.
18   Does everybody agree with that principle?

19           All right. The opposite side of that is 20   that once we have proven to the jury beyond a
21   reasonable doubt with facts and evidence that he is
22   guilty, that presumption disappears, and it is no
23   longer there to protect him anymore. Does anyone
24   have any problem with that concept of the law?

25           The judge has briefly told you that the 26   burden of proof is on the State of Mississippi and 27   it is beyond a reasonable doubt. The courts will 28   not let us explain what reasonable doubt is. But 29   each of you can use your own common sense to

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 determine what is reasonable.

2 Is there anyone here today that would
3 require us to prove this case or any other case to a
4 higher burden than that? Like, is there anybody
5 here that would say, Well, if there's any human
6 doubt possible, I couldn't convict. Because the 7 only way that that burden would be met is would be
8 if you actually witnessed a crime.

9 Is there anyone here that could not look
10 at the evidence and if we have proven it -- unless 11 there's any reasonable doubt there. It doesn't mean
12 that there couldn't be any doubt, but if it's 13 reasonable doubt is what we're looking at. Anyone
14 at all?

15 Now, I'm not going to go back into
16 everybody that knew these individuals, but I want to 17 ask if any of you are related to any of them. Stacy
18 Wright. Latarsha Blissett. Mary Ella Fleming.

19 Yes, ma'am. No. 148. You have to stand
20 up, please, ma'am, so we can take down what you say.

21 A She's my second or third cousin.

22 Q You say she's your second cousin?

23 A Third. She's my third cousin. (Juror No.
24 148, Latoya Fleming)

25 Q Third cousin? How often do you see her?

26 A When she comes in Wal-Mart. Just around
27 in the community.

28 Q All right. Speak up a little bit, please.

29 A Only around the community.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           Q     Okay. All right. Is there anything -- I
2 expect that she will be a witness in this case. Is
3 there anything about her or any of the other family
4 members that may be witnesses that would affect you?

5           A     No, sir.

6           Q     Have you talked to any of them about this
7 case?

8           A     No, sir.

9           Q     Okay. Thank you. Anyone else? Bessie
10 Ruth Campbell. Nelson Forrest. This is just as far
11 as being related at this point. Necie Fleming.

12          A     Who? (Juror No. 148, Latoya Fleming)

13          Q     Necie. Are you related to her, also?

14          A     Yes, sir.

15          Q     And you're No. 148 for the record.

16          A     Yes, sir.

17          Q     Is there anything about that that would
18 affect you in this case?

19          A     No, sir.

20          Q     Okay. Thank you, ma'am. Danny Joe Lott?
21 Okay. No. 41. If y'all will excuse me. It takes a
22 minute to sort back through all of these.

23                 But you've already said that in this
24 particular case, you couldn't be fair and impartial;
25 is that right?

26          A     (Nodding head). (Juror No. 41, Margaret
27 Givens)

28          Q     Okay. I'm going to try to avoid going 29 back through the ones of you that have said that.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 No. 136. How are you related to Danny Joe Lott?

2 A He's my second or third cousin. (Juror

3 No. 136, Jimmy Allen)

4 Q How often do you see him?

5 A Not often.

6 Q Can you give us some idea?

7 A It's been a while since I've seen him.

8 Q Stand up, please, so the court reporter --

9 I can hear you, but I don't think --

10 A It's been a while since I seen him.

11 Q Okay. Is there anything about you being 12 related to him if he's called as a witness in this 13 case that might affect you?

14 A No.

15 Q All right. And also, while you're up, I
16 noticed that you know Connie Moore?

17 A Yeah.

18 Q How do you know her?

19 A Just by seeing her around.

20 Q Okay. You don't consider yourself a
21 friend of hers?

22 A No.

23 Q All right. Archie Flowers, Jr. and 24 Archie?

25 A I know them. (Juror No. 136, Jimmy Allen)

26 Q How do you know them?

27 A Just seeing them around.

28 Q Okay. You ever go to any of their gospel
29 singings or anything like that?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     No.

2           Q     Is there anything about how you know them
3 that you think would influence how you would think
4 on the case?

5           A     No.

6           Q     Okay. And Robert Merritt. How do know
7 Robert Merritt?

8           A     I been knowing him a while.

9           Q     And again, anything about that that would
10 affect you?

11          A     No.

12          Q     Okay. Thank you. Is there anyone else on 13 Danny Joe Lott?

14                 And I know some of y'all were on some 15 other panels. No. 6, Mr. Trotter, if you would 16 stand, please, sir.

17                 I think Friday you said that you knew the 18 Defendant and his family, were friends with them and 19 worked at ADP with one of his sisters; is that
20 correct?

21          A     OEM at Luvata. (Juror No. 6, Glenn 22 Trotter)

23          Q     At Luvata? All right. And Luvata and ADP
24 are connected; is that correct?

25          A     They're different. They make the same
26 product but just --

27          Q     Well, they used to be the same --

28          A     Used to be the same.

29          Q     All right. I still call it Luvata. And

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 which sister do you work with?

2 A I works with Prisilla Ward.

3 Q All right. And are y'all friends?

4 A Yes. (Juror No. 6, Glenn Trotter)

5 Q Okay. But you're basically friends with 6 the entire family?

7 A Right. I know just about all -- you know.

8 Q And I think from my notes back in 2007,
9 you said you were very close friends and you could 10 not be fair and impartial because of that?

11 A Right.

12 Q Is that still true?

13 A Yes.

14 Q All right. Thank you, sir.

15 No. 5, Ms. Griffin. I know you pretty
16 well know everybody around that's involved in it.
17 Is that strictly because of just being a teacher?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Is there anything -- (Juror No. 5, Carol
20 Griffin)

21 A And church.

22 Q Teacher and church. Is there anything,
23 other than that, that would affect you in this case
24 about knowing him and any of the defendant's family?

25 A Other -- nothing other than what I said a
26 while ago.

27 Q Okay. And I've got that down. You don't 28 feel like on this particular case you could be fair
29 and impartial?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     I have doubts because of it.

2           Q     Because of --

3           A     Because of empathy towards the victim's
4 family.

5           Q     All right. Thank you, ma'am.

6                   No. 8, Mr. Robinson. I think the only
7 family member that you said you knew was Archie Jr;
8 was that right?

9           A     Right. (Juror No. 8, Alexander Robinson)

10          Q     How do you know him?

11          A     I was -- go to Auto Zone.

12          Q     To Auto Zone? Okay. So it's just a
13 working relationship, know where he works?

14          A     Right.

15          Q     Is there anything about that that would
16 affect you?

17          A     No, sir.

18          Q     And you could base your decision strictly
19 on the evidence?

20          A     Right.

21          Q     Thank you, sir. Okay. No. 17,
22 Ms. Chesteen?

23          A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 17, Pamela Chesteen)

24          Q     You have stated that you knew Mr. and 25 Ms. Flowers and I think Nelson Forrest. Is there
26 anything about those relationships that would affect 27 you in this particular case?

28          A     No. I've waited on them all at the bank
29 as my customers. Most of the Flowers' family.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           Q     So it's just strictly -- like
2     Mr. Robinson, just a working relationship?

3           A     Yeah.

4           Q     All right. Thank you, ma'am.

5                 Okay. No. 44, Ms. Cunningham. You work
6     with Sherita at ADP; is that right?

7           A     Yes. (Juror No. 44 Tashia Cunningham)

8           Q     And I -- as a matter of fact, I think
9     y'all work side by side there, don't you?

10          A     No, sir.

11          Q     You work the same line?

12          A     We work the same line, but she did --

13                 BY THE COURT: Who did you say, Mr. Evans?

14                 BY MR. EVANS: Sherita.

15                 BY THE COURT: Sherita.

16                 BY MR. EVANS:

17          Q     But you see her every day at work?

18          A     Sometime, not all the time.

19          Q     How would you not see her?

20          A     She works at the front of the line, and I
21     work at the end of the line.

22          Q     Okay. And y'all are friends, aren't you?

23          A     No.

24          Q     You're not friends?

25          A     Just a working relationship.

26          Q     Okay. How long have you worked with her?

27          A     I've been there five years.

28          Q     How long has she been there?

29          A     I have no idea.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           Q     Was she there when you got there?

2           A     She was there on -- when I came, she was
3 on third shift when I started.

4           Q     How long have y'all been working the same
5 shift?

6           A     Probably about two or three years.

7           Q     Okay. And let's see. I believe you
8 stated that you knew Mr. Nelson Forrest and Reverend 9 Lewis?

10          A     Yes.

11          Q     Is there anything about those
12 relationships that would affect you?

13          A     No.

14          Q     All right. As far as Sherita, if you were 15 picked as a juror on this case, do you feel that if 16 you found from the evidence that he was guilty and 17 voted guilty that you would owe her any explanation?

18          A     No.

19          Q     Okay. You don't feel that that would 20 affect you at all?

21          A     No.

22          Q     All right. Thank you, ma'am.

23                 No. 50, Mr. Lester. And I think -- I'm 24 going to make sure I got my notes right. You said
25 that the knowledge you had of the different people
26 involved was from a working relationship, too; was
27 that correct?

28          A     The ones involved, are you talking
29 about -- (Juror No. 50, Bobby Lester)

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Q Well, the possible witnesses?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Like --

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. Ms. Jones, Nelson Forrest?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Reverend Lewis?

8 A Yes. I work at the bank where Pam does,
9 and we see everyone in town.

10 Q Yes, sir. That's your only knowledge of 11 these people. Nothing about knowing who they are 12 that would affect you in this case?

13 A No, sir.

14 Q All right. Thank you, sir.

15 No. 53, Ms. Flancie Jones. All right.
16 You've stated that -- let me just ask you again:
17 What is the relationship? How are you related to 18 the defendant?

19 A To him? (Juror No. 53, Flancie Jones)

20 Q Right.

21 A The last time I was here, the Court told
22 me that he was my sister-in-law's sister's son. I
23 didn't even know that.

24 Q All right. But you are related to him?

25 A I -- some -- I'm -- by marriage.

26 Q All right. And I may have not gotten them
27 all because I think I ran out of room here. You
28 said that you knew Angela Flowers?

29 A Angela is married to my nephew.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Q Okay. And what's your nephew's name?

2 A Mark Jones.

3 Q Mark Jones?

4 A (Nodding head). If we're talking about
5 the right Angela.

6 Q Okay. And you know Archie --

7 BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, can we clarify
8 which Angela for the record?

9 BY THE COURT: Well, I don't know if we
10 can or not. I mean, she said --

11 BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q You know who Angela Flowers is, don't you?

13 A Is it Angela Ward? She was a Ward before
14 she married? (Juror No. 53, Flancie Jones)

15 Q (Nodding head).

16 A Uh-huh.

17 Q Okay. And you also know Archie, Sr; is
18 that correct?

19 A No.

20 Q I may have written that down wrong. You
21 know Connie Moore?

22 A I've heard people talk of her because I'm
23 really not from Winona here. I'm from Duck Hill,
24 and I went to Kilmichael schools. So a lot of 25 people here, I do not know.

26 Q But I think yesterday you said you did
27 know her?

28 A I think I might. Because I hear people
29 saying that she going to get married, you know, at

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 the places I work? As far as knowing her, I don't
2 really know her. I just know her when I see her.

3 Q Nelson Forrest?

4 A I went to school with lot of Forrests. I
5 don't know which one it was.

6 Q Hazel Jones?

7 A Hazel is my sister-in-law.

8 Q Okay. All right. And Hazel Jones, I
9 believe, is the Defendant's aunt. So you're 10 connected with him in several ways; is that right?

11 A I guess. (Juror No. 53, Flancie Jones)

12 Q Now, knowing that, knowing that you are 13 related to him and these different connections,
14 would that affect you? Would you think about
15 that --

16 A It wouldn't affect me, because I have no
17 relationship with any of them.

18 BY MR. EVANS: All right. Thank you,
19 ma'am.

20 BY THE BAILIFF: Mr. Evans, we've got --
21 we need a jury break, if possible, please.

22 BY MR. EVANS: Okay. Is that all right,
23 Your Honor?

24 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, we'll
25 recess for ten minutes. And I'll ask you,
26 like I have every time we recess, not to 27 discuss the case with anyone or among 28 yourselves.

29 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, PROCEEDINGS

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH ALL PARTIES
2 AND THE JURY PRESENT, TO-WIT:)

3 BY THE COURT: Court will come back to
4 order. You may proceed.

5 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, Your Honor.
6 We're not missing anybody, are we?

7 (PAUSE)

8 BY MR. EVANS: Okay. No. 92, Ms. Crowley?

9 BY THE BAILIFF: Y'all please stand when
10 you....

11 BY MR. EVANS:

12 Q Ms. Crowley, I believe you stated that you
13 knew Archie Flowers, Sr.; is that correct?

14 A No, sir. (Juror No. 92, Mary Crowley)

15 Q You didn't answer that yesterday evening?

16 A Unh-unh.

17 Q So that's one reason we're going back
18 through this. It's hard to keep your notes straight
19 on who knows who, so I appreciate you answering
20 that.

21 Ms. Acy, No. 94. All right. Ms. Acy, I
22 think you've stated that you knew Archie, Sr. and
23 Hazel Jones; is that correct?

24 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 94, Melissa Acy)

25 Q And how do you know them?

26 A I know Mr. Archie from Wal-Mart.

27 Q Okay.

28 A And I work for the Department of Human 29 Services here in Montgomery County for 12 years. I

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 know Ms. Hazel.

2 Q Okay. So it's basically in a -- either
3 shopping or working relationship?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Anything about that would affect you in
6 this case?

7 A No.

8 Q Thank you, ma'am. All right. No. 95,
9 Mr. Crawford. I mean, Ms. Crawford. I'm sorry.

10 All right. Again, my notes are kind of 11 written over theirselves, so I'm trying to make sure
12 I know what I've got down here. You stated that you
13 knew the Defendant, Curtis Flowers.

14 A I don't know him. I just know him from 15 like hearing about the case. And when I was in 16 Vaiden to visit an inmate, I met him them. (Juror
17 No. 95, Leslie Crawford)

18 Q All right. You met with him when you were 19 at the jail in Vaiden?

20 A Uh-huh.

21 Q So you have talked to him down there?

22 A Like speaking and mingling.

23 Q Okay. And who were you visiting in the 24 jail when you were talking with him?

25 A Marcus Brown.

26 Q Marcus Brown? And what's your connection
27 with Marcus?

28 A That's my boyfriend.

29 Q And he's been convicted of an armed

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 robbery; is that right?

2 A (Nodding head).

3 Q Here in this county?

4 A Yeah. Uh-huh.

5 Q How often did you see the defendant down
6 there?

7 A Every Friday. (Juror No. 95, Leslie
8 Crawford)

9 Q Every Friday? For how long a period of
10 time?

11 A I'd say about probably like a couple of 12 months, three months. Maybe two or three months.

13 Q So approximately, 12 different times you
14 would see the defendant and talk to him?

15 A Well, yeah. Not talk every time.
16 Probably speak.

17 Q Okay. Did you ever sit down with him or 18 stand up where he was and carry on a conversation
19 with him?

20 A No more than, Hey, how are you doing.

21 Q Okay. Did you say you were related to the 22 defendant's sister?

23 A No.

24 Q What did you say about his sister?

25 A I said I knew her.

26 Q And which sister was that?

27 A I just know all of them from --

28 Q You know all of them?

29 A Well, I -- yeah. (Juror No. 95, Leslie

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Crawford)

2 Q Did you pretty well grow up with them?

3 A No. They're older than I am.

4 Q They're older? How do you know them?

5 A Just from living in Winona.

6 Q Okay. And which ones do you know?

7 A I know Sherita, Prisilla -- well, those
8 two I know.

9 Q Have you ever worked with any of them?

10 A No, sir.

11 Q Okay. You consider them friends?

12 A No.

13 Q Is there anything about those facts, the 14 fact that you have talked some with the defendant
15 while you were visiting your boyfriend in jail, the 16 fact that you know who he is and know some of his 17 sisters, would any of that influence you in any way?

18 A I think it could.

19 Q You think it might?

20 A Uh-huh.

21 Q Thanks.

22 BY THE COURT: And what's your number
23 again?

24 BY JUROR: 95.

25 BY THE COURT: 95.

26 BY MR. EVANS:

27 Q Okay. No. 98, Mr. Robinson. I think the 28 only two that I had down that you knew were Reverend 29 Lewis and Nelson Forrest; was that right?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     That's right.   (Juror No. 98, Willie
2 Robinson)

3           Q     Is there anything about that that would
4 affect you or you just know who they are?

5           A     I just know who they are.

6           Q     All right. Thank you, sir.

7                   No. 110, Ms. Robinson.

8           A     Yes.   (Juror No. 110, Mamie Martina
9 Robinson)

10          Q     If I've got this right, you've stated that 11 you knew Archie, Jr., Connie Moore, Cora Tyson, 12 Nelson Forrest, Reverend Lewis, Larry Smith and
13 Hazel Jones; is that correct?

14          A     Correct.

15          Q     Is there anything more than just knowing
16 who they are?

17          A     No.

18          Q     Anything about that that would influence
19 you in any way?

20          A     No.

21          Q     All right. Thank you, ma'am.

22                   And I know in a small community, you know,
23 most people know each other. What we're trying to 24 get to is not who you know, but is there anything
25 about it that would affect you.

26                   All right. No. 127, Mr. Campbell.
27 Mr. Campbell -- and I may have not written this
28 down, when the judge asked the other day about ones
29 that had relatives or friends convicted of a felony,

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 did you answer?

2           A     No.     (Juror No. 127, Don Campbell)

3           Q     But I think on your questionnaire you said
4 that you had a friend that was convicted of murder;
5 is that right?

6           A     Yes.

7           Q     Who was that friend?

8           A     Kenneth Bibbs. (Juror No. 127, Don
9 Campbell)

10          Q     And where is his conviction from?

11          A     Virginia.

12          Q     Virginia? Is he from here?

13          A     He's from Winona.

14          Q     Okay. That's how you knew him? And is 15 there anything about that -- the fact that this is a
16 murder case and you have a friend that was convicted
17 of murder -- that would affect you in any way?

18          A     No.

19          Q     Okay. And I think while you're up, you've 20 stated that you knew -- and correct me if I'm 21 wrong -- I've got Archie, Jr., Reverend Lewis and
22 Robert Merritt?

23          A     Uh-huh.

24          Q     Is there anything about that that would
25 affect you in any way?

26          A     No, sir.

27          Q     All right. You just know who they are?

28          A     I just know them from -- I work in the 29 grocery store. I been for there for 17 years, Super

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1 Value.

2 Q And like several more, it's just a
3 business relationship. You see them and you know
4 who they are; is that right?

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q All right. Thank you, sir. All right.
7 No. 128, Mr. Moore.

8 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 128, Herman Moore)

9 Q I've got down that you know Connie Moore,
10 Archie, Sr., Archie, Jr., Reverend Lewis, Nelson
11 Forrest, Hazel Jones, Larry Smith and Ray Charles
12 Weems. Is that right?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q How do you know them?

15 A Well, I knew Archie Jr. from -- well, from 16 about the middle of the 70s. We used to do drugs
17 and things together. But as far as Forrest, I met
18 him through Jr. And Hazel, I remember her when she 19 used to work at the hospital. My sister-in-law
20 still work there. And Reverend Lewis, I went to 21 school with one of his younger brothers. And the 22 rest of them, I just know because of the family
23 relationship with them.

24 Q All right. It sounds like the closest one
25 would be Archie, Jr.; is that right?

26 A Right.

27 Q And you say you've known him since the 28 '70s, and y'all used to do things together?

29 A Yes.

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           Q     Now, knowing that that is his brother
2     that's on trial here today and y'all are friends, is
3     there anything about that that would affect you?

4           A     No, sir.

5           Q     It wouldn't enter into your decision at 6     all?

7           A     No, sir.     (Juror No. 128, Herman Moore)

8           Q     All right. And I've got down -- let's
9     see. I think you said that you could not judge
10    anyone; is that right?

11          A     Correct.

12          Q     Okay. Thank you, sir. All right.
13                   No. 147, Ms. Ringold. Goldy B. Ringold is 14    your son; is that right?

15          A     Yes, sir.     (Juror No. 147, Maxine Ringold)

16          Q     And I know my office prosecuted him?

17          A     Yes, sir.

18          Q     Is there anything about that that would
19    affect you in this case?

20          A     No, sir.

21          Q     Okay. And I know there were several --
22    and again, I'm just going to ask if there's anything
23    about these relationships that would affect you. I
24    think you said you knew Archie Jr., Archie, Sr., 25    Connie Moore, Reverend Lewis, Nelson Forrest and
26    Larry Smith; is that right?

27          A     Yes, sir.

28          Q     Is that just knowing who they are or is 29    there anything any closer than that?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     Just knowing who they are. Archie used to
2 be a supervisor at AI.

3           Q     And who did?

4           A     Archie Flowers.

5           Q     Okay. Was he your supervisor?

6           A     Uh-huh.

7           Q     Were y'all friends?

8           A     We talked.   (Juror No. 147, Maxine
9 Ringold)

10          Q     All right. And again, you're the only one
11 that can answer this: Is there anything about that 12 that would make it difficult for you on this
13 particular case?

14          A     No, sir.

15          Q     Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

16                 Okay. 148, Ms. Fleming. Okay. I've got
17 down that you know Connie Moore?

18          A     Yes, sir.   (Juror No. 148, Latoya Fleming)

19          Q     Archie, Jr.?

20          A     Yes, sir.

21          Q     Sherita Baskin?

22          A     Yes, sir.

23          Q     Stacy Wright?

24          A     Yes, sir.

25          Q     Larry Smith?

26          A     Yes, sir.

27          Q     And Danny Joe Lott?

28          A     Yes, sir.

29          Q     Are you related to any of them?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     No, sir.

2           Q     Okay. Is there any close relationship
3 between you and any of them or do you just know who 4 they are?

5           A     I know who they are.

6           Q     Nothing closer than that?

7           A     Sherita -- I used to babysit her children.

8           Q     You used to babysit Sherita's children?

9           A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 148, Latoya Fleming)

10          Q     And when was that?

11          A     Maybe like seven or eight years ago.

12          Q     Are you friends with Sherita?

13          A     No, sir.

14          Q     All right. Did you live close to them or 15 what was the connection?

16          A     Yeah. We was neighbors.

17          Q     You were neighbors?

18          A     Yes, sir. We lived in the same apartment
19 complex.

20          Q     And what apartment complex was that?

21          A     Oakwood.

22          Q     Okay. How long did you live next to them?

23          A     Sir?

24          Q     How long did you live in the same
25 apartment complex with them?

26          A     Well, I still live over there. She moved
27 maybe, like, seven, eight years ago. Maybe longer.

28          Q     All right. Did you know approximately how 29 long y'all lived in the same one?

VOIR DIRE - STATE

1           A     I'd say maybe like four to five years.

2           Q     Four to five years?

3           A     (Nodding head).   (Juror No. 148, Latoya
4 Fleming)

5           Q     Did y'all ever visit each other?

6           A     No, sir.

7           Q     You just babysat her children?

8           A     Yes, sir.

9           Q     Is there anything about that that would
10 enter into your mind on this case?

11          A     No, sir.

12          Q     Even though she's his sister, that
13 wouldn't affect you?

14          A     Sir? (Juror No. 148, Latoya Fleming)

15          Q     Even though she is the defendant's sister,
16 that wouldn't affect you?

17          A     No, sir.

18          Q     All right. Thank you, ma'am.

19          A     You're welcome.

20               BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I have the 21 Court's indulgence for just a minute?

22                       (PAUSE)

23               BY MR. EVANS: I tender the panel to the 24 Defense.

25               BY THE COURT: Mr. Carter, or Ms. Steiner,
26 I don't know which one.

27               BY MR. CARTER: Mr. Flowers is not guilty.
28 Mr. Flowers is innocent --

29               BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that is

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 improper. I object.

2 BY MR. CARTER: I haven't even properly
3 finished the question.

4 BY THE COURT: Let him finish his
5 question. I think I know what he was fixing
6 to say.

7 BY MR. CARTER: Just because we are here
8 and just because there's an indictment,
9 doesn't mean Mr. Flowers is guilty.

10 BY MR. EVANS: That we don't object to --

11 BY MR. CARTER: The Court has said that --

12 BY MR. EVANS: -- but I do object to the 13 comment he made to start with, Your Honor.

14 BY THE COURT: I'll sustain. The
15 objection is to the original comment, and now
16 I'll allow you to proceed.

17 BY MR. CARTER:

18 Q I want to make sure that no one thinks
19 that just because he's indicted, just because he's 20 being tried over and over that that means anything.

21 Now, I'm a defense attorney, and I defend
22 people, and I defend victims. And I don't apologize
23 for it. And anybody don't like it, I don't care.
24 My job is to represent Mr. Flowers, make sure his 25 rights are accorded, make sure he's not railroaded,
26 make sure he's not framed, to make sure that the 27 constitution is adhered to. That's what I do.

28 Mr. Evans prosecutes. But Mr. Evans' job
29 is not to just gain a conviction. Mr. Evans' job is

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 to seek justice. Can you understand that?

2 Now, I've heard a lot of things, and I
3 must tell you that I don't know where to begin after
4 hearing all of it. But let me just tell you
5 something. I know many of you are uncomfortable
6 being here. Now, it might surprise you that we are 7 uncomfortable, too. You may be surprised that we
8 don't want to be here.

9 Now, Mr. Evans and I had a conversation
10 this morning --

11 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. This
12 is completely improper.

13 BY THE COURT: I agree. You need to start
14 asking questions.

15 BY MR. CARTER: Object to what?

16 BY THE COURT: You're making statements,
17 Mr. Carter. You're not asking questions.
18 The purpose of voir dire is to ask questions.

19 BY MR. CARTER: Well, I'm going to ask
20 some questions.

21 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, proceed then.

22 BY MR. CARTER:

23 Q Now, there were some people who said they
24 had a problem with listening. But we've been here
25 going on the third day now, and we've been
26 listening. Now, those people who said they couldn't 27 listen -- and I want to make sure I'm right on this.

28 103. Could you stand, 103? Now you said
29 to Mr. Evans' question about whether or not you

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 could listen -- now you have been listening to us --
2 and I hate to single you out. But you have been
3 listening to the questions that the lawyers and
4 judge have been asking you the last few days. Is
5 that correct?

6 A Right. (Juror No. 103, Mary Jones)

7 Q And now, you don't have anything against
8 the -- the Tardys, do you?

9 A No, I don't.

10 Q You don't have anything against the
11 Stewarts, do you?

12 A No.

13 Q And you don't have anything against the 14 Goldens?

15 A No.

16 Q And you don't have anything against the 17 Rigbys?

18 A No.

19 Q Now, I understand you might be 20 uncomfortable sitting in judgment up here. But if 21 you were selected as a juror, would you be fair to 22 Mr. Flowers and to the Tardys and to the Rigbys and 23 to the Stewarts and to the Goldens? Would you be 24 fair to both sides?

25 A I guess I would. I'm not the kind of 26 person that have -- want to do it.

27 Q I'm sorry, ma'am?

28 A It's nothing wrong with it, but I didn't
29 want to do it.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     Right. So you're saying you do not want
2 to sit in judgment of people?

3           A     No.

4           Q     And I understand that.

5           A     Yeah.

6           Q     But -- you have any children?

7           A     No, I don't.

8           Q     You work; is that correct?

9           A     Right. (Juror No. 103, Mary Jones)

10          Q     And we -- is it fair to say that, despite 11 being uncomfortable about doing various things that 12 we have to, nevertheless, react -- our lives are 13 filled with making decisions on a daily basis; is
14 that correct?

15          A     Correct.

16          Q     And although we might be uncomfortable
17 making some of them, we still have to make them;
18 would you agree with that? In other words, you're 19 telling me you're uncomfortable sitting on the jury,
20 but you're not telling me and you're not telling us
21 that you could not sit on this jury and be fair to 22 both sides?

23          A     No, I ain't say I couldn't. I said I
24 didn't want to.

25          Q     Didn't want to. Yes, ma'am. Thank you.

26                   106. Ma'am, I'm sure we got a similar 27 situation. You're saying that you feel
28 uncomfortable sitting --

29          A     It's not that I feel uncomfortable. I

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 just have the judgment in my head, and it wouldn't
2 be fair to both sides if I sat on the jury. (Juror
3 No. 106, Jennifer Swindoll)

4 Q Oh, okay. You've already formed an
5 opinion as to guilt or innocence?

6 A Correct.

7 Q And as a result of that, you're saying
8 that what you hear from the witness stand, the 9 evidence from the witnesses, which is what you're 10 supposed to make your decision based on, would be 11 trumped by what you already hear?

12 A Correct.

13 Q You couldn't put aside what you already --

14 A I couldn't put it aside. (Juror No. 106, 15 Jennifer Swindoll)

16 Q Okay. Thank you.

17 136. Sir, I first hear you saying that 18 you would be uncomfortable. Now, you don't have 19 anything against the Goldens?

20 A No, sir. (Juror No. 136, Jimmy Allen)

21 Q Anything against the Tardys?

22 A No, sir.

23 Q Anything against the Stewarts?

24 A No, sir.

25 Q Anything against the Rigbys?

26 A No, sir.

27 Q So although you don't really want to sit
28 in judgment of this case, if you were selected --
29 you don't have anything against Mr. Flowers, either,

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 do you?

2       A     No, sir.

3       Q     So if you were selected, you could
4 actually sit on the jury and be fair to both sides.

5       A     I don't want to be on it.

6       Q     You've already formed an opinion. And are
7 you telling me that no matter how many witnesses
8 come here -- now, you do know that what you heard
9 outside the court is not evidence; is that correct?

10       A     Yeah. (Juror No. 136, Jimmy Allen)

11       Q     So you're telling us that if you got 12 picked for this jury, you would not listen to and 13 give credence and meaning and value and respect to 14 what you heard from the witness stand, and you would 15 allow what you heard outside the court to --

16       A     I might listen to some of it, but I really
17 don't want to form an opinion.

18       Q     That's fine. There's nothing wrong with 19 you forming your own opinion. My question, though,
20 was despite that opinion that you have, could you
21 listen to witnesses from the witness stand who 22 actually know something about what happened, who
23 actually know the facts of the case and would you
24 allow those facts -- the facts of the case, not the 25 rumors outside of the court -- determine what your 26 decision would be?

27       A     No. No.

28       Q     So you're telling me that you would allow 29 what you heard outside of court --

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     No, no, no.

2           Q     Okay. I'm probably confusing you. I'm
3 going to slow down.

4                    You don't have anything against either
5 side?

6           A     I don't have anything against either side.

7           Q     And you heard some things. You have an
8 opinion.

9           A     Yeah. (Juror No. 136, Jimmy Allen)

10          Q     With that in mind, if you got picked as a
11 juror, could you listen to the evidence from 12 witnesses from both sides and make a decision based 13 on the evidence you heard from the witness stand?

14          A     I really don't want to judge nobody, to 15 tell you truth.

16          Q     I know you're telling me that you don't
17 want to. And believe me, lots of people don't want
18 to. Maybe everybody. It wouldn't surprise me. But 19 irrespective of your feelings, if you were selected
20 as a juror, could you be fair to both sides?

21          A     Yeah.

22          Q     Thank you.

23          A     I could.

24          Q     Thank you.

25                   No. 33. Sir, I take it you feel
26 uncomfortable. You're not that crazy about sitting
27 in judgment of other people. You don't like doing
28 it? (Juror No. 33, Jessie Crawford)

29          A     No.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     Okay.  Lots of people don't like to do it.
2     You don't have anything against the Goldens, against
3     the Rigbys, against the Stewarts, against the
4     Tardys, do you?  Or do you?

5           A     No.

6           Q     Okay.  And you don't have anything against
7     Mr. Flowers; is that fair to say?  Or do you?

8           A     I don't have anything against him.  I just
9     have -- my son have a kid by his sister.

10          Q     Right.  Now, if you got picked as a juror,
11     being that you don't have anything against the 12     victims -- the Tardys, the Goldens, the Rigbys, the 13     Stewarts -- and you don't have anything against 14     Mr. Flowers, could you sit and listen to the 15     testimony from the witness stand and be fair to both
16     sides?

17          A     No, I don't think so.  Because she's my 18     granddaughter, so I don't want to get family into 19     it, too.

20          Q     So you're saying you would let the fact
21     that -- you say your daughter got a child by Mr.
22     Flowers -- tell me that again.

23          A     Son.

24          Q     Your son has a daughter by Mr. Flowers'
25     sister?

26          A     Right.

27          Q     And that aspect would override anything
28     you heard from the witness stand?

29          A     Probably.  (Juror No. 33, Jessie Crawford)

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     Probably. Can you be more definite and
2 say it would or it wouldn't?

3           A     It would.

4           Q     It would. Okay. Thank you.

5                   No. 34. Sir, you said that -- I believe
6 that you have some doubts about whether you could --
7 well, you don't like sitting in judgment of other
8 people. Is that what you're saying?

9           A     Right.     (Juror No. 34, John Eskridge)

10          Q     Correct me if I'm wrong. Now, you don't 11 have anything against the Goldens, do you?

12          A     Nope.

13          Q     You don't have anything against -- any ill
14 will towards the Tardys?

15          A     Nope.

16          Q     Or their children or relatives as far as
17 you know?

18          A     Nope.

19          Q     You don't have anything against the 20 Stewarts or their children or relatives as far as 21 you know?

22          A     Nope.

23          Q     And you don't have anything against the 24 Rigbys?

25          A     Nope.

26          Q     Or their children or relatives as far as
27 you know?

28          A     Nope.

29          Q     And I take it you don't have anything

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 against Mr. Flowers?

2 A Nope.

3 Q Now, and would you agree with me that life
4 causes us to do -- we have to do some things we're
5 uncomfortable with as we live our lives. Is that
6 fair to say?

7 A Uh-huh.

8 Q You ever been uncomfortable doing
9 anything?

10 A Yeah, it's fair to say. But it's sort
11 of -- you know people on that side and people on 12 that side. And it's hard to make a decision on it.

13 Q Right.

14 A On somebody. So if it's somebody I didn't 15 know, I could be -- more about it, you know. (Juror
16 No. 34, John Eskridge)

17 Q Okay. I understand that, sir. However,
18 despite your feeling, if you got picked on the jury
19 and if you were told that you're supposed to listen
20 to the testimony that comes from the witness
21 stands --

22 A Uh-huh.

23 Q -- right up there --

24 A Yes.

25 Q -- isn't it a fact that you could listen
26 to the testimony from the witnesses from both sides
27 and make a decision as to guilt or innocence based 28 totally on the testimony that comes from the witness
29 stand?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     Yeah, I could.

2           Q     Thank you. No further questions.

3                     No. 6. Now, sir, I believe you said you
4 were a friend of Sherita's and what -- as a result
5 of that, I think you probably said you couldn't be
6 fair.

7           A     Right.

8           Q     Now, you're -- you don't have anything
9 against the Tardys, against the Rigbys, against the 10 Stewarts?

11          A     No, sir.   (Juror No. 6, Glenn Trotter)

12          Q     Against the Goldens?

13          A     No, sir.

14          Q     And you're not friends with anybody on 15 that side or are you? Are you friends with any 16 Rigbys, the Goldens or the Stewarts?

17          A     Unh-unh. No, sir.

18          Q     Or the Tardys?

19          A     No, sir.

20          Q     Now, despite the fact that -- you said you
21 worked with Sherita how long?

22          A     Well, I worked -- well, I didn't work with 23 her. I worked with the other one. Priscilla.

24          Q     You worked with Priscilla? I'm sorry.

25          A     Right. Priscilla.

26          Q     And did y'all ever work on a project
27 together?

28          A     No, sir.

29          Q     Now, if Sherita (sic) -- if you did work

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 on a project together and Sherita told you to do
2 something on your job that you knew was wrong, would
3 you do it different because she told you?

4       A     No, sir, I wouldn't.

5       Q     You would do what you know is correct.

6       A     Right.

7       Q     And the right way to do it?

8       A     Right.

9       Q     So you might know her and -- and that 10 cools in some kind of fashion. Isn't it a fact that 11 you still would use your own personal judgment in 12 making decisions?

13       A     Yes, I would.

14       Q     Thank you. So with that in mind -- with 15 that in mind, knowing that it's your personal
16 decision what your vote is, could you, in fact, be 17 fair to both sides, the prosecution and the defense?

18       A     No, sir, I couldn't.

19       Q     And why?

20       A     Because it's really hard for me to judge
21 someone.   (Juror No. 6, Glenn Trotter)

22       Q     Right.

23       A     You know, to make a decision as to which
24 one would be right.

25       Q     Right. I understand that. It's hard for 26 lots of people.

27       A     Right.

28       Q     And it puts pressure on lots of people. I
29 can see that.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     Right.

2           Q     But what I'm asking you, though, despite
3 the pressure --

4           A     Uh-huh.

5           Q     -- knowing that the decision would be your
6 decision and not anybody else's decision -- you
7 would be concerned about following the law?

8           A     Right.

9           Q     And following the instruction of the 10 Court?

11          A     Right.

12          Q     Is that correct?

13          A     That's correct.

14          Q     And if you were told that you had to make 15 a decision as to the guilt or innocence based on the 16 evidence that came from the witness stand and 17 nothing else, could you do that?

18          A     I could.

19          Q     Thank you.

20                No. 41. I apologize, ma'am. I can't 21 remember exactly what you said. But I believe you
22 said you're uncomfortable sitting in judgment of 23 other people. Is that what you said?

24          A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 41, Margaret Givens)

25          Q     And again, that is a feeling that most of 26 us share. And you don't have anything against the 27 Tardys, do you?

28          A     Unh-unh.

29          Q     Or the Goldens?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     No, sir.

2           Q     Or the Rigbys?

3           A     No, sir.

4           Q     Or the Stewarts?

5           A     No.

6           Q     And you don't have anything against
7 Mr. Flowers, do you?

8           A     No.

9           Q     With that being the case, if you got
10 picked as a juror, could you listen to the evidence
11 that comes from the witness stand, put aside
12 anything that you didn't hear from the witness stand
13 and be fair to both sides, Mr. Flowers and the State
14 of Mississippi or the victim?

15          A     Yes, sir. Yes.

16          Q     Thank you.

17                 No. 76. Sir, the same thing. Let me just 18 say to you like I'm saying to everybody else. I can
19 see that sitting in judgment of other people is a
20 hard thing, especially in a criminal case. I don't 21 know many people who like doing it, but it takes 22 that in order for the proper system to work.

23                 And you said you cannot judge anyone, or
24 you're uncomfortable judging anyone. And you do
25 agree with me that we have to make decisions as we
26 go through our life, and some are uncomfortable. So
27 what I'm asking you is, despite the fact that you
28 don't like doing this and you're uncomfortable doing
29 it, if you got picked as a juror in this case, could

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 you be fair to both sides or is there something
2 about one side that just won't allow you to do that?

3 A I wouldn't be fair to either side. (Juror
4 No. 76, Richard King)

5 Q Now, that's interesting.

6 A Especially Mr. Flowers.

7 Q Especially Mr. Flowers?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Thank you. So you're saying that you --
10 well, that's enough, actually. Thank you.

11 127. Sir, I believe you said you worked
12 at a certain store for how many years?

13 A 17 years. (Juror No. 127, Don Campbell)

14 Q 17 years. What do you do there?

15 A I'm the market manager.

16 Q Market manager. And you have to make
17 decisions; is that right? And are all of them
18 comfortable or happy decisions?

19 A Oh, no.

20 Q Some of them are difficult. Some of them
21 tear heart and soul, I would imagine. At least, it
22 hurts the feelings, I was told. Nevertheless, you
23 can do it. You can perform that job well enough to 24 stay there all those years. Is that correct?

25 A Yes.

26 Q Now, despite the fact -- you don't have 27 anything against the Tardys, the Goldens, the 28 Stewarts or the Rigbys?

29 A No. No, sir.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     I mean, I can see -- I'll admit that
2 they've suffered amazing losses. I mean, that hurts
3 the heart. Makes you cry. I can see that. And you
4 don't have anything against Mr. Flowers, do you?

5           A     No, sir.     (Juror No. 127, Don Campbell)

6           Q     Now, Mr. Evans told you in order for our 7 system to work, we have to get jurors and we have to 8 ask these questions. I don't even like asking these 9 questions, to know the truth about it. But with 10 that being the case and knowing that if you got 11 picked as a juror, all you would -- are being asked
12 to do is to sit and listen to the evidence as it
13 comes to the witness stand and be fair to both
14 sides. And you don't have any reason to not be fair
15 to either side, do you?

16          A     No, sir.

17          Q     With that being the case, could you sit as 18 a juror and listen to the evidence and make a
19 decision based on the evidence and the evidence
20 alone?

21          A     Yes, I could.

22          Q     Thank you. What number are you again,
23 sir?

24          A     127.

25          Q     128. How are you doing, sir. I believe
26 you said you were a friend of Archie's and some 27 other things. And you are saying that you are 28 uncomfortable sitting in judgment of other people.
29 Is that correct?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     Correct.   (Juror No. 128, Herman Moore)

2           Q     And what do you do, sir?

3           A     Sir?

4           Q     What do you do for a living?

5           A     I work at Luvata in Grenada, Mississippi.

6           Q     Okay.  How long have you been there?

7           A     25 years.

8           Q     That's a long time.  Congratulations.  As 9     a result of that job, haven't you had a certain
10    amount of stress, a certain amount of discomfort?

11          A     Yes, sir.

12          Q     Now, I know none of us like stress; none
13    of us like discomfort.  We would choose the opposite
14    every time if we could, but that's not how life
15    works.

16                   Now, you have anything against the Rigbys,
17    the Stewarts, the Goldens or the Tardys?

18          A     No, sir.

19          Q     And there's no reason you could want to 20    harm or hurt the feelings of their loved ones; is 21    that fair to say?

22          A     Yes, sir.  That's fair to say.

23          Q     And is it also fair to say that you don't
24    have anything against Mr. Flowers?

25          A     No.  No, sir.

26          Q     And you don't have any reason to want to 27    harm Mr. Flowers or their loved ones?

28          A     No, sir.

29          Q     With that being the case and despite the

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 fact that you are uncomfortable sitting in judgment
2 of other people, if you got selected as a juror,
3 couldn't you, based on your years' experience on the 4 job and maturity as an individual, sit and listen to 5 the evidence as it came from the witness stand?

6 A Sit and listen, yes, sir. (Juror No. 128,
7 Herman Moore)

8 Q And make a decision as to Mr. Flowers'
9 guilt or innocence or not guilty based totally on 10 the evidence as it comes from the witness stand?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q Thank you.

13 No. 65. Morning, ma'am. You said you feel
14 uncomfortable judging anyone?

15 A Yes. (Juror No. 65, Juanita Woods)

16 Q And again, I'll say that is common; it is 17 understood. What do you do for a living, ma'am?

18 A I work in dietary at the hospital.

19 Q Dietary at the hospital? How long you
20 been doing that?

21 A About ten years.

22 Q And you have to make decisions on a daily
23 basis, don't you?

24 A Uh-huh.

25 Q Do you have anything against the Goldens,
26 the Stewarts?

27 A No.

28 Q The Tardys or the Rigbys?

29 A No.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     Do you have anything against Mr. Flowers?

2           A     No.

3           Q     And you don't have any reason to want to
4 harm the Flowers or the victims of this -- the 5 Stewarts, Rigbys?

6           A     No.

7           Q     Tardys or Goldens?

8           A     No.

9           Q     And all we ever ask is that people be 10 honest, which a lot of you certainly are, if not
11 all. And with that in mind, if you got picked as a
12 juror, could you listen to the testimony and make a
13 decision? And when I say testimony, I mean
14 witnesses coming in here who know something about
15 the case, not rumors which you hear on the street
16 but actual evidence -- could you sit and listen to 17 the evidence that comes from the witness stand and 18 make a decision as to Mr. Flowers' guilt or 19 innocence?

20          A     I don't think so. (Juror No. 65, Juanita
21 Woods)

22          Q     And why not?

23          A     Because I'm still not comfortable with 24 that whole idea of having to -- someone just life I
25 got to have something to do with.

26          Q     Right. Now, that calls me to say
27 something. So you're saying -- correct me if I'm 28 wrong. You know Mr. Flowers -- you know he's 29 charged with capital murder. Is that correct?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A       (Nodding head).

2           Q       And you know the possible punishment. Is
3 that correct?

4           A       (Nodding head).

5           Q       But do you also know -- and that is a
6 reason I tried to say this a few minutes ago -- the 7 law is that Mr. Flowers is not guilty?

8                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to
9 that.

10                   BY MR. CARTER: At this point.

11                   BY MR. EVANS: The Court has already ruled
12 that that's improper, and I hate to have to 13 keep objecting to it. He's making improper
14 comments on the law.

15                   BY MR. CARTER: Let me correct it, Your
16 Honor.

17                   BY THE COURT: You may correct it.

18           BY MR. CARTER:

19           Q       As Mr. Flowers stands now, without any 20 evidence being put on the witness stand, you do
21 agree that he's considered not guilty?

22           A       Uh-huh. I understand. (Juror No. 65, 23 Juanita Woods)

24           Q       Right? And do you understand that it
25 doesn't matter any rumors that you might have heard
26 about the case?

27           A       Uh-huh.

28           Q       And do you also understand that it does
29 not matter how -- what has happened before with

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 respect to trials. That what matters is this trial.

2           A     Right.

3           Q     So any notion or any facts that you might
4 think you know or any conclusion that you think you
5 might have arrived at as to guilt or innocence, can
6 you put that aside?

7           A     No.

8           Q     Okay. You cannot put that aside. And if 9 you got picked as a juror, you would consider what 10 you've heard outside the court and you would
11 possibly let what you heard outside of court preempt
12 or dominate what you hear inside court. Is that
13 correct?

14          A     No. It's just how I feel with myself.
15 It's not about nothing that I heard or anything.
16 Nothing.

17          Q     I'm trying to be clear. I'm really not
18 trying to fight with you. I just want to make sure
19 I understand. Now, you're saying that you're not 20 only uncomfortable sitting in judgment of 21 Mr. Flowers, what else are you saying?

22          A     I'm saying that if I was chosen, I
23 couldn't do the job that they would be called for,
24 because I'm not -- I know that you're under oath and
25 everything, and you would have to go sit and listen
26 to everything. But it wouldn't be fair to the rest
27 of them, because I'm not comfortable with it and I
28 don't think I would -- I couldn't do it.

29          Q     And when you say wouldn't be fair to the

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 rest of them, you're talking about your fellow
2 jurors?

3 A This ones that are in there, whatever
4 decision that they have, I couldn't agree with them.

5 Q I get the impression you're saying you
6 wouldn't deliberate with the rest of them?

7 A I couldn't. (Juror No. 65, Juanita Woods)

8 Q Okay. Thank you. What is your number,
9 again? Ma'am, what's your number again?

10 A 65.

11 Q No. 93. No. 93, I believe you said more
12 than once that you feel uncomfortable sitting in 13 judgment of another person?

14 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 93, Marjorie Pearson)

15 Q And it's based on -- what you base it on?
16 Is it based on anything in particular? Is it
17 religion or --

18 A My faith as a Christian.

19 Q Faith as a Christian? So if you got 20 picked or selected as a juror, you would -- are you
21 saying you couldn't -- you couldn't deliberate; you
22 couldn't judge?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q Thank you. 118. No. 118? Okay. Sir,
25 what's your name, again, sir?

26 A Antonio Golden. (Juror No. 118, Antonio
27 Golden)

28 Q How old are you?

29 A 23.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     Now -- and you're saying -- you said
2 earlier that you're uncomfortable, though, sitting
3 in judgment of other people?

4           A     Right.

5           Q     And what do you base -- is it based on
6 religion or what? Or just some personal thing you
7 have?

8           A     Personal.

9           Q     Are you in school?

10          A     No.

11          Q     Do you have a job?

12          A     Yeah.

13          Q     All right. You don't have anything
14 against the Tardys or the Goldenes or the Rigbys or 15 the Stewarts, do you?

16          A     No.

17          Q     You don't have anything against
18 Mr. Flowers, do you?

19          A     No.

20          Q     You don't have any reason to choose either
21 side over the other? (Juror No. 118, Antonio
22 Golden)

23          A     No.

24          Q     Now, despite the fact that you're
25 uncomfortable sitting in judgment of other people,
26 especially on a case like this with so much hanging
27 in the balance, if you got picked, could you be fair
28 to both sides?

29          A     Yeah.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     And you don't have any reason to pick one
2 side over the other at this point; right?

3           A     No.

4           Q     And therefore, if you got picked, you
5 would listen to the evidence that came from the 6 witness stand; is that correct?

7           A     Correct.

8           Q     And you would make whatever decision you
9 make based on the evidence. Is that correct?

10          A     I already got an opinion made.

11          Q     Okay. You already have an opinion.
12 That's fine. So despite that opinion you have, it's 13 not -- the opinion that you have is not based on 14 testimony that came from the witness stand; is that
15 correct?

16          A     Correct.

17          Q     It's based on something you heard outside
18 of court?

19          A     No.

20          Q     Based on something you heard in court?

21          A     No.

22          Q     Okay. So it's based on something you
23 heard outside of the courtroom?

24          A     I just already have an opinion.

25          Q     Right. I understand. You have an 26 opinion. But it's not -- but your opinion that you
27 have is not based on seeing and hearing any
28 witnesses from the witness stand. That's correct?

29          A     Right.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     So if you got picked as a juror and got to
2 see and hear witnesses from the witness stand tell
3 you what did happen, or did not happen, could you
4 listen to that and could you give their testimony
5 value and meaning and consideration and make a
6 decision based on the testimony you hear from the 7 witness stand?

8           A     Yeah.

9           Q     Thank you.

10                   No. 45. Ma'am, like the others, I
11 understand that you're uncomfortable sitting in 12 judgment of other people. And again, a lot of us
13 are that way, if not all. You don't have anything
14 against the Goldens, the Rigbys, the Tardys or the 15 Stewarts, do you?

16           A     No, sir. (Juror No. 45, Edith Burnside)

17           Q     Or any of their relatives?

18           A     No, sir.

19           Q     And you don't have anything against
20 Mr. Flowers, do you?

21           A     No, sir.

22           Q     And I believe you said you know some of
23 his family members?

24           A     Yes, sir.

25           Q     However, if you got picked as a juror for 26 this case -- and only you know the answer to this --
27 and you were told you should make your decisions --
28 your verdict should be based on the evidence that 29 comes from the witness stand and not on anything you

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 heard outside the court or not based on any
2 relationships you had with anybody else, could you,
3 in fact, listen to the evidence as it comes from the 4 witness stand and make your decision based on the 5 evidence as it comes from the witness stand only?

6 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 45, Edith Burnside)

7 Q Thank you.

8 No. 14. Now, do you have anything against
9 the Tardy family or her daughter or other children?

10 A No, sir. (Juror No. 14, Carolyn Wright)

11 Q And you don't have anything against the 12 Rigbys, the Goldens, or the Stewarts, do you?

13 A No, sir.

14 Q And despite the fact that you had an
15 account at Tardy at some point that I assume that 16 got worked out some kind of way, that -- that didn't 17 cause you to have any -- any dislike or any ill will 18 toward them; is that correct?

19 A No, sir.

20 Q If you got -- do you have any anything
21 against Mr. Flowers?

22 A No, sir.

23 Q Or his family?

24 A No, sir.

25 Q So if you got picked as a juror to serve
26 in this case, you would -- could you listen to the 27 testimony and evidence that comes from the witness
28 stand, and the witness stand only, and make a
29 decision as to Mr. Flowers' guilt or innocence?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     Yes, sir.   (Juror No. 14, Carolyn Wright)

2           Q     Thank you.  No. 75.  Let me know if I'm 3 wrong, but did you say you had an account with the 4 Tardys at some point?

5           A     Yes, I did.   (Juror No. 75, Linda Martin)

6           Q     And did you likewise say that they -- you
7 didn't say you had been sued, did you?

8           A     No, I didn't.

9           Q     Thank you.  I'm sorry.
10                   No. 45.  You didn't say you had been sued
11 by Tardy, did you?

12          A     I did.   (Juror No. 45, Edith Burnside)

13          Q     Okay.  Could you stand?  Even though you
14 got sued, did that cause you to have any ill will or 15 malice toward Tardy Furniture or the Tardy children
16 or family members?

17          A     No.  I worked for them, so no.  No.

18          Q     I'm sorry.  You worked for them at some 19 point, and you don't have anything against them or 20 the Stewart or the Rigbys or anybody else?

21          A     No, sir.

22          Q     You could be fair to both sides?

23          A     Yes, sir.

24          Q     Thank you.

25                   And No. 62.  Ma'am, you had an account
26 with the Tardys -- the Tardy Furniture at some 27 point; is that correct?

28          A     Yes.  Well, it was more like on my 29 husband -- he was the one that had got some

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 furniture from them, so it was in his account.

2 Well, in his name. (Juror No. 62, Diane Copper)

3 Q Your husband, you say?

4 A Yeah.

5 Q Okay. Now, you -- you or your husband
6 didn't get sued, did you?

7 A No, we didn't.

8 Q Thank you.

9 No. 62. Ma'am, you said -- could you
10 stand again? You said that you -- now, you lived
11 near the Flowers at some point. Well, I don't know
12 if I want to say near, but you lived --

13 A Not very far from -- not too far from 14 where they lived. (Juror No. 62, Diane Copper)

15 Q All right. They didn't live next door to 16 you, did they?

17 A No.

18 Q And your husband used to work at Tardy's?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. You could be fair to both sides, is 21 that correct, despite that?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q Thank you.

24 No. 95. Ma'am, you testified that you had 25 a loved one in the jail that Mr. Flowers was in at 26 some point, and you spoke to him on a few occasions.

27 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 95, Leslie Crawford)

28 Q Now, did you say that the fact that you --
29 you spoke to him a couple of times and got

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 acquainted with him generally that -- what did you
2 say in terms of whether you could be fair to both
3 sides? Did you say you could or couldn't?

4       A     I didn't say that would affect my opinion
5 or that would make me not be fair. Me knowing his 6 sister would. Me knowing his sister.

7       Q     Knowing his sister?

8       A     (Nodding head).

9       Q     And now you think you knowing his sister,
10 you say, you think will stop you from being fair?

11       A     (Nodding head).

12       Q     What are you saying? You're saying that 13 you would -- you couldn't be fair to the State of 14 Mississippi and to the -- well, strike that. You
15 don't have anything against the Tardys, against the 16 Stewarts, against the Rigbys or the Goldens, do you?

17       A     No, sir. (Juror No. 95, Leslie Crawford)

18       Q     And you know Mr. Flowers' sister. And are 19 you telling us that if you got picked on the jury,
20 having nothing against the victims or their
21 relatives, that the friendship you have with Sherita
22 would cause you to not be fair to the victims?

23       A     And his family. I wouldn't feel right
24 sending him to prison.

25       Q     Now, we don't know -- I understand what
26 you're saying --

27       A     I mean, I'm just telling you --

28       Q     We don't know what the verdict is going to 29 be, and I don't want you to assume that it's going

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 to be guilty. So don't make an assumption about
2 what the verdict is, if you can.

3 What I want to know, though, is can you,
4 despite being friends with Sherita, sit as a juror
5 and listen to the testimony that comes from the 6 witness stand and with an open mind and with 7 fairness and make your decision based on nothing but
8 the testimony that comes from the witness stand?

9 A Honestly, no.

10 Q Don't think you can. Thank you.

11 Ms. Hamilton, Juror No. 1. Do you know
12 Ms. Tardy?

13 A No, sir. (Juror No. 1, Sandra Hamilton)

14 Q Never met her?

15 A No, sir.

16 Q Do you know Roxanne Ballard?

17 A No, sir.

18 Q Never met her. Do you know any of the 19 Stewarts?

20 A No, sir.

21 Q Never met any of them? Do you know any of
22 the Goldens?

23 A No, sir.

24 Q Do you know any of the Flowers?

25 A No, sir.

26 Q Have you lived here your whole life or --

27 A No, sir. I've lived in Montgomery County
28 since November of '05.

29 Q And where did you live before then?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     Grenada.

2           Q     And without telling me what you heard, do
3 you recall about when you heard about this case?

4           A     Probably about the time it hit the news
5 that it was going to be tried again, so just in 6 recent weeks.

7                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Carter, I've already
8 advised that we're going to ask each
9 individual juror about this case
10 individually, so I will --

11                   BY MR. CARTER: I'll pass on, Your Honor.
12 Nothing else about that. Thank you.

13 BY MR. CARTER:

14           Q     Ms. O'Quinn.

15           A     Yes, sir.   (Juror No. 3, Susan O'Quinn)

16           Q     Do you know -- did you know Ms. Tardy?

17           A     No, sir.

18           Q     Roxanne Ballard?

19           A     No, sir.

20           Q     Frank -- I think her husband?

21           A     No, sir.

22           Q     And you didn't know any of the Stewarts?

23           A     No, sir.

24           Q     None of the Goldens?

25           A     No, sir.

26           Q     Do you know the Flowers?

27           A     No, sir.

28           Q     Have you been living in Montgomery County
29 for a while?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     I've lived here four years.

2           Q     Four years?

3           A     Four years. Four years.

4           Q     Where did you live before then?

5           A     Ripley, Mississippi.

6           Q     Did you hear about this case before you
7 actually moved here?

8                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Carter, I've already
9 told you that I was going to get into that
10 individually with each juror about knowledge
11 of the case. Now, I don't know how I can 12 make that any clearer.

13                  BY MR. CARTER: Well, Your Honor, does
14 knowledge mean facts or just facts she heard?
15 All I was asking was she heard it before she 16 got to town.

17                  BY THE COURT: We will get into that -- we 18 will question --

19                  BY MR. CARTER: Well, I apologize, Your
20 Honor. I didn't consider it to be knowledge.

21                  BY THE COURT: Apology accepted,
22 Mr. Carter. I understand you were confused
23 about it.

24                   If I sustain an objection, I'm not 25 holding that against the lawyer, ladies and
26 gentlemen, so please make sure -- I mean, you
27 know, I was just -- if Mr. Carter didn't
28 understand what I had said earlier and he 29 does now, so you may move on.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 BY MR. CARTER:

2 Q Have a seat, ma'am. No further questions.

3 Ms. Griffin, you said you -- correct me if
4 I'm wrong -- you know the Rigbys. I believe you
5 know BoBo. You went to church with Ms. Bertha, I
6 believe you said?

7 A (Nodding head). (Juror No. 5, Carol
8 Griffin)

9 Q In fact, you lived across the street from 10 Roxanne Ballard, I believe.

11 A No.

12 Q Did you ever live across the street from 13 her?

14 A No.

15 Q Now, how long have you been going to 16 church with -- how long did you attend church with 17 Ms. Bertha?

18 A Gosh. We came to Winona in 1970, so it
19 must have been close to then. From then on.

20 Q Several years?

21 A (Nodding head). 1970.

22 Q Okay. And you don't go to church with her
23 daughter, do you?

24 A Roxanne. Same church. And her husband.

25 Q And her husband. And do y'all have events
26 at your church other than regular services, programs
27 and so on?

28 A We do. (Juror No. 5, Carol Griffin)

29 Q And do you see them at various programs at

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 the church?

2           A     Well, there's such an age difference in
3 our children and so forth. We're usually not at a
4 lot of the same things.

5           Q     Do you occasionally see them at programs
6 at your church?

7           A     Sometimes.

8           Q     Now, you're telling us or are you telling
9 us -- correct me if I'm wrong and straighten me out
10 when I need to be -- are you saying that despite the 11 fact that you'd known Ms. Bertha for a long time --
12 would you consider her a friend?

13          A     I did. We were on the administrative 14 counsel together. She was very -- yes.

15          Q     Okay. But despite the fact that 16 Ms. Bertha was your friend and likely Roxanne and 17 her husband are friends, and possibly even children,
18 that you could put all of that aside and that won't
19 matter to you if you got picked as a juror and that 20 you would sit and listen to the evidence that comes
21 from the witness stand and the evidence only --
22 well, I've asked too many questions. I'm sorry.
23 Can you say that you wouldn't let the relationship
24 affect you in any kind of way?

25          A     Well, it ties in to what I said a little
26 while ago about having a recent murder in my own
27 family. And I do honestly -- I honestly have
28 sympathies toward victims' families, and I mention
29 that a while ago. And that's an honest answer.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1       (Juror No. 5, Carol Griffin)

2           Q       Thank you.

3                   No. 12, Ms. Johnson. And correct me if
4 I'm wrong, Ms. Johnson, but I believe you said --
5 did you say you were cousins with David Johnson?

6           A       My husband -- I'm not from here. My
7 husband is third cousins -- maybe? -- with David.

8       (Juror No. 12, Janelle Johnson)

9           Q       And his brother. Okay. And I believe you
10 said you know the Rigbys?

11          A       No, I don't.

12          Q       You didn't say that? Okay. Do you know
13 the Stewarts?

14          A       No. I didn't move here till late 2001,
15 early 2002.

16          Q       Okay. Thank you. That's all. Okay.

17                   No. 17. Correct me if I'm wrong,
18 Ms. Chesteen, did you say you were friends with 19 Roxanne?

20          A       In high school, we were friends. (Juror
21 No. 17, Pamela Chesteen)

22          Q       And I believe you said you visited in 23 Roxanne's house?

24          A       I did some.

25          Q       And I believe you said you know some of 26 the Flowers?

27          A       (Nodding head).

28          Q       You know the Goldens?

29          A       (Nodding head).

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           Q     And I believe you said you would try your
2 best to be fair. Well, let me ask you this -- now
3 correct me if I'm wrong now, because I have a sense
4 of friendship that I don't want to appropriate to
5 you my means of friendship, so correct me if I'm
6 wrong.

7                     Now, I would have a hard time finding
8 against my friend. Are you telling us that despite 9 the fact that Roxanne is your friend and having lost
10 her mother and other wonderful people, for all I
11 know, in such a horrible way, that you could sit in 12 judgment of Mr. Flowers and not let that affect you?

13           A     I can tell you that I hurt for all the 14 families, every one of them. Honestly.

15           Q     I believe you.

16           A     And I do believe I could sit and listen
17 and have an open mind.

18           Q     But can you tell me that friendship with 19 Roxanne won't play any role at all, absolutely won't
20 play a role?

21           A     No, I can't say that.   (Juror No. 17, 22 Pamela Chesteen)

23           Q     Can't say that. Thank you.

24                     BY THE COURT: Are you saying no, you
25 can't say --

26                     BY JUROR: No, I'm saying no, that I don't 27 believe it would have a role.

28           BY MR. CARTER:

29           Q     I'm sorry. Could you stand up? I'm sort

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 of confused there. You said -- you're saying -- or
2 are you saying that despite -- how old were you when
3 your friendship with Roxanne started? Do you know?

4 A I don't know. Probably 15 or 16.

5 Q And that friendship is -- remain the same
6 or -- what would be fair to say?

7 A I don't talk to Roxanne. Only when I see
8 her somewhere, I speak to her.

9 Q Okay. But you still consider her your 10 friend?

11 A Surely.

12 Q Still your friend? And your final answer
13 was that despite the friendship, that you could sit 14 in judgment of this case, and the friendship with 15 Roxanne won't play any role whatsoever?

16 A That's right.

17 Q All right.

18 No. 18, Ms. Laney. You said you had
19 bought furniture from Tardy. Is that fair?

20 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 18, Lillie Mae
21 Laney)

22 Q And as a result of buying furniture from 23 there, you got to know Mr. Tardy?

24 A That was probably around -- in 1979 or 25 '80.

26 Q Okay.

27 A And I purchased furniture. And I view
28 them as the customer.

29 Q Ms. Tardy and Mr. Tardy?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     Well, yes, sir.

2           Q     Okay. Do you know Roxanne?

3           A     No, sir. I know her picture, you know,
4 but I don't know her personally.

5           Q     Okay. Now, did -- do you consider -- did
6 you consider Ms. Tardy a friend or just a
7 business --

8           A     Business.

9           Q     Okay. And you also said, you know, I
10 believe, Mr. Jack Matthews; is that correct?

11          A     Yes, sir. He is the director at the -- of 12 security at my hospital, and I'm a director of 13 surgical services. So we're -- that's how I know
14 him. Professional.

15          Q     Okay. And as a result of both of you
16 being -- work at the same place, how often did you
17 come in contact with him?

18          A     Monthly. Department head meetings.
19 That's -- you know -- (Juror No. 18, Lillie Mae
20 Laney)

21          Q     No more regular than that? You don't see 22 him or --

23          A     Unless I need something. Unless, you
24 know, I need a beeper on somebody or something like
25 that, and I'll call and one of his -- he or one of 26 his associates will acquire a beeper for an employee
27 or something like that.

28          Q     Okay. So is it fair to say that y'all
29 don't visit in each other's homes?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     No, sir.

2           Q     So it's just a work relationship?

3           A     Work relationship.

4           Q     Thank you. No. 22, Mr. Blaylock?

5           A     Yes, sir. (Juror No. 22, Larry Blaylock)

6           Q     I believe you said you graduated with 7 Roxanne?

8           A     Yes, sir.

9           Q     You know Ms. Tardy. And I assume you knew
10 Mr. Tardy or didn't you?

11          A     I didn't know Mr. Tardy.

12          Q     And you know John Johnson?

13          A     Yes.

14          Q     How long have you known him?

15          A     Most of my life.

16          Q     Okay. Are you friends?

17          A     With John, I am. Yes.

18          Q     Did you know him when he was chief of 19 police here?

20          A     Yes, sir.

21          Q     And did you know him before then? How 22 long have you known him? Do you any -- just a rough
23 estimate.

24          A     30, 40 years. (Juror No. 22, Larry
25 Blaylock)

26          Q     Oh, okay. Do y'all hunt, fish or do
27 anything like that together?

28          A     No, sir.

29          Q     How often y'all see each other?

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     Not often. We used to when they had the
2     cafe open -- Ms. Necie's Cafe in Winona. I used to
3     eat breakfast in there. He would come in there
4     sometime and eat.

5           Q     And -- so are you telling us that if you
6     got picked as a juror, your friendship with John
7     wouldn't -- wouldn't pull you any particular way
8     toward the State of Mississippi, and you wouldn't 9     give his testimony any more weight than you would
10    anybody else's?

11          A     No, sir.

12          Q     Because you know him?

13          A     No, sir. (Juror No. 22, Larry Blaylock)

14          Q     You could be fair to both sides?

15          A     Yes, sir.

16          Q     Thank you.

17                 No. 29, Mr. Waller. Correct me if I'm 18    wrong, but I believe you said yesterday you know
19    Bennie and Carmen?

20          A     Right. (Juror No. 29, Harold Waller)

21          Q     Do you know any other members of their
22    family?

23          A     I know the two boys.

24          Q     Okay. Whose boys?

25          A     Bennie's boys.

26          Q     Okay.

27          A     They went to school with my daughter.

28          Q     Went to school with your daughter? Did
29    their children ever visit your house or -- their

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 children ever visit your house that you recall?

2 A No.

3 Q And your children ever visit their house
4 that you know of?

5 A No.

6 Q And is this just -- is knowing them just
7 a -- is there friendships, too?

8 A Well, Carmen and I served on the school
9 board, I think -- she was on the school board, and I
10 was on the school board. I think we served at the 11 same time.

12 Q How long ago would that have been? For 13 like a couple of years?

14 A Oh, it would have been back -- my daughter
15 graduated in '94, so it would have been prior to
16 that.

17 Q Y'all became friends?

18 A Well, I mean, we just -- kind of 19 acquaintances. (Juror No. 29, Harold Waller)

20 Q Okay. Now, despite the relationship with 21 her, are you telling us that you know for a fact and 22 you are 100 percent sure that you could put that 23 aside and sit in judgment of Mr. Flowers and listen
24 to the testimony from the witness stand and not let 25 your having worked with her for a good many years
26 have any affect whatsoever on your decision and 27 deliberation?

28 A Yes, sir, I can be fair.

29 Q Have you formed an opinion as to

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 Mr. Flowers' guilt or innocence?

2 A No, sir.

3 Q Thank you. No. 40. Are you in school
4 or --

5 A I am. (Juror No. 40, Charles Lloyd
6 Davis)

7 Q What kind of school?

8 A I'm taking a bachelor's degree course
9 online through the University of Mississippi Medical
10 School.

11 Q Okay. Do you -- has this trial interfered
12 with your school?

13 A Some, but I have made arrangements last
14 night to take continuing ed sessions.

15 Q So you don't have a problem with being
16 here now -- or do you?

17 A No.

18 Q Is this going to cause you to -- is this
19 going to mess up your schooling in some kind of way,
20 cause you to fail or not study or not be prepared?
21 Is it going to have some kind of negative affect on 22 your school?

23 A I can't answer that. I actually -- I
24 intend to let the teachers know, and it will just be 25 depending up to them. But I don't expect it would,
26 but it might.

27 Q And if you got picked and if you stayed,
28 you had to be here, could you give your undivided
29 attention to the case --

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     Yes, sir.

2           Q     -- and not be sitting here worried about
3 school --

4           A     Yes, sir.

5           Q     -- or your future?

6           A     Yes, sir.   (Juror No. 40, Charles Lloyd
7 Davis)

8           Q     Okay. No. 50, Mr. Lester. You said that
9 you had been friends with Bennie for years. Correct
10 me if I'm wrong on anything --

11          A     Correct.   (Juror No. 50, Bobby Lester)

12          Q     -- because I don't mean to attribute
13 anything that shouldn't be attributed to you. And I
14 believe you said your wife taught the Stewarts --
15 wasn't it Bobo, maybe?

16          A     Yes, sir.

17          Q     And you said you had formed an opinion.
18 You don't have to tell me what it is. And I believe
19 you said you've known Bertha all her life?

20          A     No.

21          Q     How long had you known?

22          A     I knew her for several years.

23          Q     Knew her for several years?

24          A     Yes. I knew Roxanne most all my life.

25          Q     Okay. That's where I messed up. Okay.
26 Now, do you live near Roxanne?

27          A     No, sir.

28          Q     Do you ever visit her?

29          A     No, sir.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1 Q She ever visit you?

2 A No, sir. My daughter and her son just
3 graduated together.

4 Q Okay. Were they friends?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Now, do you understand that the State of 7 Mississippi has to prove Mr. Flowers guilty, and
8 Mr. Flowers doesn't have to prove anything
9 whatsoever?

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q Do you also understand that he doesn't 12 have to testify if he doesn't want to, but that he 13 might?

14 A Yes, sir. (Juror No. 50, Bobby Lester)

15 Q And you are telling us that despite your 16 relationship with the various people, that you're 17 absolutely sure that you could be fair to
18 Mr. Flowers?

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And if the evidence showed Mr. Flowers was 21 not guilty, you could vote not guilty?

22 A Yes, sir, I could.

23 Q And you wouldn't have any problem
24 whatsoever facing the Stewarts or Roxanne or anyone
25 else afterwards?

26 A No, sir.

27 Q Now let me ask you one other question:
28 How long have you known Mr. Johnson? I assume 29 that's John Johnson.

VOIR DIRE - DEFENSE

1           A     I've known of him several years. I'm a
2 loan officer at the bank, and he's one of my
3 customers. I made him a few loans over the years.

4           Q     Did you know him as a police officer or
5 chief -- chief of police?

6           A     I did not know him back then. I knew when
7 he was. I mean, I did not know him personally. I
8 knew that he was the police chief.

9           Q     Okay. Did you consider him a friend?

10          A     Casual friend, yes, sir.

11          Q     Thank you.

12               BY THE COURT: Mr. Carter, I think we'll 13 recess now for lunch, and we'll resume --
14 ladies and gentlemen, I'll ask you during
15 this recess, please do not discuss this case
16 with anyone or among yourselves. If you see
17 any lawyers or parties involved in the case,
18 they're going to walk by you and not speak to
19 you. They're not doing that to offend you.
20 They're just following the court rules in 21 that. If you will be back at one o'clock,
22 and we'll resume at that time.

1 (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MR. HOWIE, MRS. STEINER, MR. CARTER
2 AND THE DEFENDANT WERE PRESENT IN OPEN COURT. PROCEEDINGS
3 WERE AS FOLLOWS:)

4 (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS WERE PRESENT.)

5 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

6 Mr. Carter, you may proceed.

7 MR. CARTER: Number 51.

8 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Me?

9 MR. CARTER: Mr. Huggins.

10 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Yeah.

11 MR. CARTER: Mr. Huggins, you said you know
12 John Johnson.

13 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Know who?

14 MR. CARTER: I thought it was John Johnson.

15 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: I don't think so.

16 MR. CARTER: Do you know a David Johnson?

17 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Well, yeah. I know of
18 him.

19 MR. CARTER: Know of him. You say you know of 20 David but you don't know of John.

21 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Well, I have heard the
22 name.

23 MR. CARTER: Okay. Did you -- so you are not 24 friends with either one.

25 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: No.

26 MR. CARTER: Okay.

27 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: I work -- I work away
28 from here. I don't hardly know a lot of people. A lot
29 of people know me, but I don't know them.

1 MR. CARTER: Okay.

2 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: I make a living
3 somewhere else.

4 MR. CARTER: Okay. Drive trucks?

5 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Sir.

6 MR. CARTER: What do you do? Do you drive?
7 What do you?

8 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Work construction.
9 Pipe welder.

10 MR. CARTER: Okay. And you said you know Miss
11 Tardy, Bertha Tardy. You knew her.

12 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Like I said, I know of
13 them.

14 MR. CARTER: What do you mean by know of Miss
15 Bertha Tardy?

16 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: I have heard the name
17 before.

18 MR. CARTER: Did you ever meet her?

19 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: No, not really.

20 MR. CARTER: Did you ever buy any furniture
21 from her store?

22 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Do what now?

23 MR. CARTER: Did you ever buy any furniture
24 from Tardy Furniture store?

25 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Nope. I haven't. Sure
26 haven't.

27 MR. CARTER: And how long have you lived in 28 Winona?

29 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: How long have I lived

1           here? Forty-two years.

2                   MR. CARTER: Okay.

3                   JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: But like I said, I've
4           been away from home 40-something years working
5           construction.

6                   MR. CARTER: Okay. How much time do you spend,
7           say, per year in Montgomery County?

8                   JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: How much time in a
9           year?

10                  MR. CARTER: Per year do you --

11                  JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: A weekend every now and 12           then through the -- through the whole year. Maybe come
13           home for a weekend, maybe three days. Gone again.

14                  MR. CARTER: So you spend most of your time
15           outside of --

16                  JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: That's true.

17                  MR. CARTER: Okay.

18                  JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: I didn't even know none
19           of these people until after what occurred occurred. I
20           heard the name afterwards.

21                  MR. CARTER: Okay.

22                  JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: It's just that easy,
23           simple.

24                  MR. CARTER: Okay. Thank you.

25                  JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: All right.

26                  MR. CARTER: Mr. Box. Miss Box, how long have 27           you known Miss Bertha? How long did you know her before
28           this terrible thing happened?

29                  JUROR PATRICIA BOX: I used to live across the

1 street from her.

2 MR. CARTER: Used to live across the street
3 from her. Okay. For how long were y'all neighbors?
4 What period of time?

5 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: From '85 till she moved
6 off. I don't really remember when.

7 MR. CARTER: Do you know Roxanne, as well as
8 her husband?

9 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: (Nodded.)

10 MR. CARTER: Do you consider them friends?

11 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: I mean I know them. I
12 don't really hang out with them or anything.

13 MR. CARTER: Ever visit their house?

14 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: No.

15 MR. CARTER: Did you ever visit the store, the 16 furniture store?

17 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: Maybe a long time ago.

18 MR. CARTER: Okay. Do you run across Roxanne
19 from time to time?

20 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: Um-hum. I work at the 21 school. So her kids are in school there.

22 MR. CARTER: Do you see her often?

23 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: Just occasionally.

24 MR. CARTER: And you also know -- which Johnson
25 do you know? Is it David or John or...

26 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: John. I mean I know who 27 David is.

28 MR. CARTER: How long have you known John?

29 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: I don't really know how

1 many years. I used to live next door, just right up --
2 right down from him.

3 MR. CARTER: And how long were you a neighbor?

4 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: A couple of years.

5 MR. CARTER: Do you know if he was the chief
6 then? Was he chief --

7 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: No.

8 MR. CARTER: -- of police at that time?

9 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: No. No.

10 MR. CARTER: So despite -- you also knew, knew 11 Bobo.

12 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: Um-hum.

13 MR. CARTER: How well did you know him?

14 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: Just I knew him from 15 school. He was in school.

16 MR. CARTER: Knew him from school?

17 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: (Nodded.)

18 MR. CARTER: And your testimony, despite the 19 fact that you know at least who -- did you know Mr. Rigby
20 also? I'm sorry. Did you know Miss Rigby also?

21 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: I, I didn't know her
22 personally. No, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: Did you know Mr. Golden?

24 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: No, sir.

25 MR. CARTER: So your testimony is despite 26 knowing the Stewarts or at least Bobo, and Miss Bertha,
27 that that wouldn't have any affect at all --

28 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: No.

29 MR. CARTER: -- on your deliberations and your

1 listening to the evidence if you got picked as a juror.
2 And you could listen to the evidence from the witness
3 stand and make a decision totally based on what you heard
4 from the witness stand and not be weighted down by any
5 other factors.

6 JUROR PATRICIA BOX: I could.

7 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

8 Number 59. Miss Nail. Miss Nail, correct me if I'm 9 wrong, but you said that your mother was friends with 10 Miss Tardy. Is that what you said?

11 JUROR JULIA NAIL: At one time, yes.

12 MR. CARTER: Okay. And as a result of that,
13 did you come to visit Miss Tardy, and did she come to 14 visit you?

15 JUROR JULIA NAIL: No.

16 MR. CARTER: Okay. And you didn't know any 17 other victims in there.

18 JUROR JULIA NAIL: No, sir.

19 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

20 Mr. Amason. Number 67. Correct me if I'm wrong,
21 but I believe you said you know David and John.

22 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Yes, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: And your wife is their cousin, I
24 believe.

25 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Yes, I believe it is.

26 MR. CARTER: And you go to church with Roxanne.

27 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: I do. Her and Frank.

28 MR. CARTER: How long have y'all been church
29 members?

1 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: About '98, I guess, is
2 when I started.

3 MR. CARTER: Okay. Twelve years or so.

4 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Right.

5 MR. CARTER: Okay. You know her husband?

6 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Um-hum.

7 MR. CARTER: Do you consider them friends?

8 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Yeah. Consider
9 everybody at the church my friend.

10 MR. CARTER: Well, everybody at the church is 11 your friend you said.

12 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Pretty much.

13 MR. CARTER: You ever go to their house?

14 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Just occasionally. As I
15 stated before, I've got two sons that are close to the 16 same age as her sons, and they are friends. I pick them
17 up there, or they may stay at my house, or my kids may 18 stay at their house.

19 MR. CARTER: Okay. So you're friends and
20 you're friends with everybody in your church. So do you
21 also occasionally visit everybody else's home in your
22 church?

23 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Not everybody. No.

24 MR. CARTER: So in fact, Roxanne and Frank are 25 actually closer friends to you than other people in your
26 church.

27 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Only because I go there
28 maybe to pick up my sons or something. I have never 29 eaten supper there or anything like that, nor either at

1 my house.

2 MR. CARTER: Have they visited your house?

3 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Probably to pick up one
4 of the kids, probably.

5 MR. CARTER: What's the name of this church?

6 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Moore Memorial Methodist
7 Church.

8 MR. CARTER: And you didn't know any of the 9 other victims; is that correct?

10 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: (Shook head.) No, sir.
11 I'm sorry.

12 MR. CARTER: And your testimony is that despite 13 being friends with Roxanne and Frank, despite your 14 children being friends, despite visiting each other's 15 homes, that, that doesn't matter. And if you got picked 16 as a juror, that wouldn't play any role or be any 17 consideration whatsoever going on in your mind.

18 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No, sir.

19 MR. CARTER: Do you know Mr. Flowers?

20 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Mr. Flowers.

21 MR. CARTER: Curtis Flowers.

22 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: I think I know his 23 brother some.

24 MR. CARTER: Which one you know?

25 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Archie. It's by -- I
26 think his -- Archie's umpired some at the field, baseball
27 field. My son plays ball out there.

28 MR. CARTER: You ever visit his house?

29 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Oh, no.

1 MR. CARTER: You ever picked up his son?

2 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No.

3 MR. CARTER: He ever picked up yours?

4 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Who is this? Archie?

5 MR. CARTER: You talking about Archie, Jr. or 6 Archie, Sr.?

7 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: I'm sorry. Archie, Jr.

8 MR. CARTER: Have you ever visit his house?

9 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No, sir.

10 MR. CARTER: He ever visit yours?

11 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No, sir.

12 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

13 Mr. Carpenter.

14 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Yes, sir.

15 MR. CARTER: Now, you said you knew Bobo. And 16 I believe you said, correct me if I'm wrong, that he was 17 always around. It was you and maybe some older brothers.

18 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: I spent a lot of time
19 at the baseball field. And I coached little league
20 baseball for about eight years or six, six or eight
21 years. I don't know exactly how many. And Bobo was 22 always at the baseball field. That is how I knew Bobo.

23 MR. CARTER: Okay. Did you know any other of 24 his family members?

25 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Yes. His Aunt Edie.
26 We used to hang around when I was in high school.

27 MR. CARTER: Okay. Now --

28 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: And I know Randy. I
29 have known Randy for a long time.

1 MR. CARTER: And how is Randy related to him?

2 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Sir.

3 MR. CARTER: Who is Randy? You said --

4 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Mr. Stewart.

5 MR. CARTER: -- you know -- you said you have
6 known Randy for a long time.

7 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Mr. Stewart. Randy.
8 Isn't that Bobo's daddy?

9 MR. CARTER: I don't really know. I don't
10 know.

11 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Okay.

12 MR. CARTER: Okay.

13 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: It is.

14 MR. CARTER: If you say it is, that is fine
15 with me. I don't really know. Okay. And, and you
16 shopped at Tardy's Furniture, I believe you said. Or did
17 you say?

18 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: No, sir, I didn't say
19 that.

20 MR. CARTER: Did you know Miss Bertha?

21 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: No. Just, just the 22 name is all.

23 MR. CARTER: Okay. So having been around Mr.
24 Stewart a lot, were you fond of him?

25 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: He is a good kid.

26 MR. CARTER: Star baseball player I heard. Is
27 that correct?

28 JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Yes, sir. Excellent
29 baseball player.

1                   MR. CARTER: Right. And you had a lot of
2 affection for him, didn't you?

3                   JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: Everybody liked Bobo.

4                   MR. CARTER: Including you. Is that fair to 5 say?

6                   JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: I mean -- like I said,
7 I was just around him. Yeah, I liked him.

8                   MR. CARTER: Now, despite -- did you personally
9 coach him?

10                  JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: No, sir.

11                  MR. CARTER: Okay. So the fact that you knew
12 him, he was always around, is well liked by everybody,
13 excellent baseball player, baseball star is your 14 testimony, that despite all of that, if you got picked as 15 a juror, sit in judgment of Mr. Flowers, you could put 16 all of that aside, that it wouldn't weigh in any way, it
17 wouldn't affect you in any way, that you could treat it
18 as if it didn't exist.

19                  JUROR BILLY CARPENTER: That's right.

20                  MR. CARTER: Thank you.

21                  Mr. Colbert. Miss Colbert. I'm sorry. Julian
22 Colbert. Miss Colbert, correct me if I'm wrong, you said
23 that you know Roxanne, and you knew her through her
24 mother. Okay. Did you --

25                  JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: I knew Miss Tardy mostly 26 through Roxanne, because we were near the same age and in 27 school together. So I knew Miss Tardy mostly through 28 Roxanne.

29                  MR. CARTER: Okay. Were y'all -- were you and

1 Roxanne in the same class?

2 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: No. She is a year
3 younger than I am.

4 MR. CARTER: Did y'all go off to college
5 together as well?

6 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: No, we did not.

7 MR. CARTER: And you taught some of the Golden
8 children. Did you say that?

9 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: Yes, sir, I did.

10 MR. CARTER: Okay. And you know Mrs. Rigby, as 11 well.

12 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: That's right.

13 MR. CARTER: Knew Bobo.

14 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: Knew -- that's right.

15 MR. CARTER: And you knew his brother.

16 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: When you have been in 17 the school business for as long as I have, you know a lot
18 of people.

19 MR. CARTER: Yes, ma'am. Did you get to know
20 Mr. Flowers?

21 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: I did not know him
22 personally, but I know of him and know members of his 23 family to recognize them.

24 MR. CARTER: Okay. And your testimony is 25 despite knowing all of this, that none of this would have 26 any effect whatsoever on you if you got selected as a
27 juror and you would make your testimony -- you would make 28 your decision based only on the testimony that comes from 29 the witness stand. And this other extraneous or

1 ancillary information won't have any effect at all on
2 you.

3 JUROR JULIAN COLBERT: I can base everything
4 totally on what I heard in the courtroom.

5 MR. CARTER: Yes, ma'am. Thank you.

6 Linda Martin. Number 75. Miss Martin, correct me
7 if I'm wrong, you said you know Miss Bertha through the
8 church.

9 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: Yes.

10 MR. CARTER: And do you go to church with 11 Roxanne and Frank?

12 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: I changed churches later.

13 MR. CARTER: You changed churches. Okay. And 14 I believe you said you shopped at Tardy at some point.

15 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: Yes, sir.

16 MR. CARTER: And are you telling us that, that 17 having known Miss Bertha and having shopped there at 18 Tardy's wouldn't have any effect whatsoever on your
19 ability to listen and to fairly judge Mr. Flowers --

20 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: No.

21 MR. CARTER: -- if you were selected as a
22 juror?

23 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: No.

24 MR. CARTER: And your decision would be based 25 totally on the testimony that comes within the confines
26 of the courtroom.

27 JUROR LINDA MARTIN: Yes.

28 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

29 Number 80. Miss Brenda Simmons. Miss Simmons,

1 correct me if I'm wrong, but you said you know Lola but
2 not Curtis. You work with Curtis' aunt. You know
3 Bertha. You knew Bertha. Knew Carmen.

4 JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS: No, sir.

5 MR. CARTER: So you know -- who, who do you
6 know in the Rigby family?

7 JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS: Bennie was our music
8 director.

9 MR. CARTER: And you knew Bobo or somebody in 10 his family through the --

11 JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS: Yes, sir. His older
12 brother, Dale, went to school with my son.

13 MR. CARTER: Yes, ma'am. And your testimony is 14 that despite knowing these people, this, this knowledge
15 won't have any -- this knowledge and relationship won't
16 have any affect whatsoever on your deliberations, that 17 you can sit in judgment of Mr. Flowers and listen to the 18 evidence and make your decision based on nothing but the
19 evidence.

20 JUROR BRENDA SIMMONS: That is correct.

21 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

22 Mr. Hamilton. 91. Mr. Hamilton, correct me if I'm 23 wrong, you said that you knew Mr. Golden, Robert Golden;
24 is that correct?

25 JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: Yes, it is.

26 MR. CARTER: And his kids went to school --
27 your kids went to school with Bobo Stewart, I believe; is
28 that correct?

29 JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: That's correct.

1                   MR. CARTER: And do you know any other victims?
2 Did you know Miss --

3                   JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: Not really.

4                   MR. CARTER: -- Rigby, Miss Bertha or Mr.
5 Stewart?

6                   JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: I moved here when I was 7 21. I'm not a home boy. I don't really know a lot of 8 folks. All I've done is work all my life.

9                   MR. CARTER: Okay. And just how long have you
10 been here?

11                  JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: Since 1975.

12                  MR. CARTER: Okay. And you can be fair to both
13 sides.

14                  JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: Yes.

15                  MR. CARTER: And you won't let anything --
16 whatever knowledge you had of Mr. Golden cloud your 17 judgment or cause you to allow that in some kind of way
18 to aid you in your decision if you got picked as a juror.

19                  JUROR JIMMY HAMILTON: I have to look at myself
20 every morning in the mirror, and I believe in telling the 21 truth and living the truth.

22                  MR. CARTER: All right. That's good. That is 23 what we want. Thank you.

24                  Number 94. Miss Acy. Miss Acy, correct me if I'm 25 wrong, you said you know Carmen or knew Carmen and other
26 family members. Is that what you said?

27                  JUROR MELISSA ACY: Yes, sir.

28                  MR. CARTER: And that you knew Bertha. You
29 shopped at Tardy's.

1 JUROR MELISSA ACY: Yes, sir.

2 MR. CARTER: And there is no doubt that you can
3 be fair to both sides.

4 JUROR MELISSA ACY: Yes, sir.

5 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

6 Number 107. Mr. Golding. Mr. Golding, correct me
7 if I'm wrong, but I wrote down that you said you knew --
8 did you say you knew Miss Rigby or Mr. Rigby?

9 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: Mr. Rigby.

10 MR. CARTER: Did you say through his music at 11 church or just --

12 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: Yes. Through -- he was 13 the minister of music there at church.

14 MR. CARTER: And how long have you been at that
15 church?

16 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: About 28 years, I
17 think.

18 MR. CARTER: Okay. How long has he been 19 minister of music?

20 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: He is not now. I don't 21 know. I don't know how many years he served, about two 22 or three years.

23 MR. CARTER: Did you know him before then,
24 before he became minister of music at the church?

25 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: No, I didn't.

26 MR. CARTER: Have you had any relationship or 27 contact with him since then?

28 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: Just meet him on the 29 street.

1 MR. CARTER: Okay. Were you in the choir?

2 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: No.

3 MR. CARTER: Did you play an instrument in the 4 band?

5 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: No.

6 MS. STEINER: Okay. And how would you phrase
7 the relationship you had with him as him being minister
8 of music at church?

9 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: A friend.

10 MR. CARTER: A friend. Did you ever visit his 11 home?

12 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: No.

13 MR. CARTER: Did he ever visit yours?

14 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: I don't think he ever
15 did.

16 MR. CARTER: Y'all don't belong to any clubs or 17 organizations together, do you?

18 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: No.

19 MR. CARTER: Haven't been fishing and hunting,
20 have you?

21 JUROR WILLIAM GOLDING: No.

22 MR. CARTER: Okay. Thank you. No further
23 questions.

24 Okay. Mr. Surrell. Surrell.

25 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Surrell.

26 MR. CARTER: Now, correct me if I'm wrong, you
27 knew Bobo. In fact, y'all played baseball together.

28 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: That's correct.

29 MR. CARTER: Y'all played in high school

1 together.

2 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: We did.

3 MR. CARTER: Were y'all in the same class?

4 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: We were.

5 MR. CARTER: Okay. Was he -- was he a friend?

6 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Absolutely.

7 MR. CARTER: Was he your best friend?

8 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Very close.

9 MR. CARTER: Okay. His loss had a profound
10 effect on you, didn't it?

11 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: It did.

12 MR. CARTER: Star baseball player, wasn't he?
13 That is what I heard.

14 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: He was.

15 MR. CARTER: So you're telling us -- correct me
16 if I'm wrong. Are you telling us that despite the fact
17 that Bobo was a good friend, a best friend, however you
18 want to, I guess, classify it, that his great loss to you
19 won't cause you to be unfair to Mr. Flowers if you got to 20 sit in judgment of Mr. Flowers?

21 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: That's true.

22 MR. CARTER: And you are telling us that you
23 could put aside the relationship and losing your best 24 friend and, and not let that play any role whatsoever in
25 your deliberations.

26 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Absolutely.

27 MR. CARTER: Do you know Mr. Flowers?

28 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: I do not.

29 MR. CARTER: Okay. And have you formed an

1 opinion as to his guilt or innocence?

2 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: I have formed an
3 opinion.

4 MR. CARTER: You have. Okay.

5 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: But my mind can be
6 changed based on the facts.

7 MR. CARTER: What would he have to prove?

8 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Mr. Flowers?

9 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

10 JUROR MATTHEW SURRELL: Nothing.

11 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

12 Number 11. (sic) Brooks Jones.

13 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Yes, sir.

14 MR. CARTER: Mr. Jones, you said you knew Miss
15 Rigby. You knew Bobo. And I believe you said you were 16 neighbors to Bobo; is that correct?

17 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: When he was a small
18 child, yes, sir.

19 MR. CARTER: When he was a small child. And I
20 assume you knew his parents.

21 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Yes, sir.

22 MR. CARTER: Did you know other family members
23 and relatives of his?

24 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: I know most of his
25 family.

26 MR. CARTER: Okay.

27 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Most of the Stewarts
28 and most of the Loftons.

29 MR. CARTER: Did you have any children around

1 Bobo's age?

2 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: No, I didn't. I had a
3 nephew that was about his age. Used to play with him.
4 They would play in my yard sometimes, play in his yard.

5 MR. CARTER: So you grew to be fond of Bobo, I
6 assume.

7 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: Yeah, fond.

8 MR. CARTER: From what I hear he was a very 9 likable person. And you are telling us that despite his 10 affability, likability, star qualities as a baseball
11 player and likable human being, that -- star human being,
12 based on what I heard, that you could sit in judgment of 13 Mr. Flowers, a person accused of harming him and not let 14 that play any factor or role whatsoever in listening to 15 the evidence and rendering a decision as to Mr. Flowers'
16 guilt or innocence.

17 JUROR S. BROOKS JONES: That is correct.

18 MR. CARTER: Okay. Thank you.

19 119. Alisha King. Miss King, correct me if I'm 20 wrong, but I wrote down that you knew Carmen. How long
21 did you know her?

22 JUROR ALISHA KING: I just knew her through my
23 parents.

24 MR. CARTER: Through your parents.

25 JUROR ALISHA KING: When I was a small child.

26 MR. CARTER: So your parents and she were 27 friends.

28 JUROR ALISHA KING: I wouldn't say friends. I
29 mean my mom knew who she was when she saw her.

1 MR. CARTER: Did she ever come visit your
2 house?

3 JUROR ALISHA KING: Not that I can recall.

4 MR. CARTER: Did y'all visit hers?

5 JUROR ALISHA KING: No, sir.

6 MR. CARTER: And I think you said you knew her
7 two sons.

8 JUROR ALISHA KING: We went to school together.
9 They were a lot older than I was.

10 MR. CARTER: Were you classmates with them?

11 JUROR ALISHA KING: No, sir.

12 MR. CARTER: Were they older or younger?

13 JUROR ALISHA KING: Older.

14 MR. CARTER: And you also knew Mr. Stewart.

15 JUROR ALISHA KING: He was a year ahead of me.

16 MR. CARTER: Okay. Were you friends with him?

17 JUROR ALISHA KING: No, sir.

18 MR. CARTER: So the fact that you knew these 19 people, would that have any affect whatsoever on your 20 ability to sit and listen to the evidence and render a
21 decision?

22 JUROR ALISHA KING: No, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: And you can be -- you're sure you
24 could be fair to Mr. Flowers.

25 JUROR ALISHA KING: Um-hum.

26 MR. CARTER: Okay. Thank you.

27 Number 121. Mr. Austin. Mr. Austin, I believe you
28 said you knew Carmen through the school; is that correct?

29 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: That's not correct.

1 MR. CARTER: What did you say?

2 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: I didn't know Carmen. I
3 just knew Carmen from being at the baseball field.

4 MR. CARTER: From being at the baseball field.

5 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: Yes, sir.

6 MR. CARTER: And correct me on this as well, if 7 it needs correcting, you said that you had a child at 8 school with Bobo.

9 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: I did say that. Yes.

10 MR. CARTER: And you also said you were friends
11 with Frank and Roxanne.

12 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: Right.

13 MR. CARTER: Okay. Did you also make some 14 effort or -- do you want to be here? Did you make some 15 effort to leave?

16 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: I am having a grandchild
17 born today.

18 MR. CARTER: And you would like to be there
19 when that happened.

20 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: Well, it's too late now.

21 MR. CARTER: So you still haven't seen the
22 child.

23 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: No, sir.

24 MR. CARTER: Now, how is not being there to see
25 your grandchild affecting you?

26 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: It's not.

27 MR. CARTER: Okay.

28 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: I'll see it soon.

29 MR. CARTER: Okay. So if you are picked as a

1 juror, you would be willing and able to stay here and not
2 be distracted by that or anything else and listen to the 3 evidence that comes forth from the witness stand and be
4 fair to Mr. Flowers.

5 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: I will.

6 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

7 Miss Britt. Miss Britt, correct me if I'm wrong.
8 You said that you, you knew Miss Bertha, went to school
9 with Roxanne and sing with Benji.

10 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I didn't know Miss Tardy.
11 I just knew her when I saw her.

12 MR. CARTER: Okay. Did you --

13 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I do know Roxanne.

14 MR. CARTER: Did you shop at the store?

15 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I'm sorry.

16 MR. CARTER: Did you shop at Tardy's Furniture
17 store?

18 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I bought a bedroom suit
19 from Tardy's after, after the murder but I...

20 MR. CARTER: After the incident down at 21 Tardy's.

22 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Yes, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: Now, sing -- do you still sing
24 with Bennie?

25 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Yes, I do.

26 MR. CARTER: How long you been doing that?

27 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: About seven years.

28 MR. CARTER: Seven years. Is he -- is he the 29 choir director?

1 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Well, he was the choir
2 director at my church. And I sang. He sang. We started
3 singing together. We formed a little group. There was
4 three of us. And then it was just the two of us that
5 sing together now.

6 MR. CARTER: Y'all still go to church together?

7 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: We do not go to the same
8 church. No.

9 MR. CARTER: How often do y'all see each other
10 and put on these performances?

11 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Here lately it's just been 12 every couple of months or so. It hasn't been anything
13 frequent lately.

14 MR. CARTER: Do you know his other family
15 members?

16 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Yes, I do.

17 MR. CARTER: You consider yourself to be close
18 to them.

19 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I consider myself a
20 friend, yes.

21 MR. CARTER: All right. You ever been to their
22 house?

23 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Yes, I have.

24 MR. CARTER: They been to yours?

25 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Yes, they have.

26 MR. CARTER: Y'all ever broke bread together,
27 eaten together?

28 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Well, yes, sir.

29 MR. CARTER: And are you telling us that

1 despite this good friendship, this close relationship and
2 being aware of his great loss that you could put all that
3 aside and sit in judgment of the person who is accused of 4 bringing pain to bear to him and be fair to Mr. Flowers
5 and not allow that relationship to affect you in any kind
6 of way whatsoever?

7 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I believe that I could.
8 I'm human, but I believe that I'm, I'm intelligent enough
9 and able to do that thing. Yes.

10 MR. CARTER: Right. So I take that to say that 11 you are telling me that you would try your best. Is that
12 fair to say?

13 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I believe that I could.

14 MR. CARTER: Okay. You believe that you could,
15 and you know that that relationship with him won't have 16 no effect whatsoever.

17 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: It doesn't -- I mean he
18 doesn't run my life for me. I make my own decisions.
19 And you know, I do what I think is right. And I have to 20 live by what I think is right.

21 MR. CARTER: I understand, and I accept it.
22 However --

23 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: I'm not saying it would be 24 an easy thing to do. But you know, if I were given the 25 evidence and the evidence proved that there was no guilt,
26 then I would have to go on the side with no guilt.

27 MR. CARTER: What if the evidence showed he was 28 innocent?

29 THE COURT: That is what she just said.

1 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: If the evidence showed
2 that he was not guilty, I could find him not guilty.

3 MR. CARTER: Okay. Thank you. I apologize.
4 Thank you.

5 JUROR MARTHA BRITT: Uh-huh.

6 MR. CARTER: Now, I need you to tell me, I'm
7 going to call out some names of some witnesses, and I
8 need you all to tell me whether or not you are related in 9 any way to any of these people. Sam Jones, Jr. Johnny
10 Hargrove.

11 Number 95. Number 96.

12 Wait a minute. Could you hold your numbers up
13 again?

14 95. 121.

15 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: This everybody who
16 knew...

17 BAILIFF: You need to ask your question again,
18 Mr. Carter.

19 MR. CARTER: Okay. Can you tell me whether you
20 are a relative of Johnny Hargrove? If you are, raise 21 your cards.

22 Okay. I guess I did confuse people on that.

23 Number 95. 147. 136.

24 And did I see Number 121?

25 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: I'm not a relative, but 26 I'm on the City Board of Alderman that oversees Chief
27 Hargrove and the police department.

28 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir. And as a result of 29 that, you know Chief Hargrove pretty well, I assume.

1 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: Pretty well.

2 MR. CARTER: And would the fact that you know
3 him cloud your opinion of him and cause you to give his
4 testimony greater value or meaning, consideration than
5 you would anybody else's?

6 JUROR MICHAEL AUSTIN: No, sir.

7 MR. CARTER: Okay. Now, you other people who
8 said you were kin to chief.

9 Number 95, would you stand? I believe you already
10 said you couldn't be fair on something else.

11 JUROR LESLIE CRAWFORD: Yes, sir.

12 MR. CARTER: Is that correct? Okay. You can
13 have a seat.

14 Number 147. What relationship? Is he your cousin
15 or what?

16 JUROR MAXINE RINGOLD: He's a cousin. But I
17 don't know if he's second or third.

18 MR. CARTER: Okay. Is there anything about
19 that relationship, Number 41 (sic) -- is there anything
20 about the relationship that would cause you to give his 21 testimony greater credence and value --

22 JUROR MAXINE RINGOLD: No, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: -- respect, credibility, than 24 anybody else?

25 JUROR MAXINE RINGOLD: No.

26 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

27 Number 136. How are you related?

28 JUROR JIMMY ALLEN, JR.: Cousin.

29 MR. CARTER: Cousin. Okay. Thank you.

1           Number 41, how are you related?

2           JUROR MARGARET GIVENS:   Cousin.

3           MR. CARTER:   Thank you.

4           Anybody -- Dr. Steven Haynes was a doctor that --
5 down in Jackson.   Anybody kin to him?

6           Barry Eskridge.   Barry Eskridge have any relatives?

7           Melissa Schoene who, I think, lives in Atlanta
8 somewhere.

9           James Edward Kennedy.   Catherine Snow.   Clemmie
10 Fleming.   Bill Thornburg.

11          THE COURT:   You've got --

12          MR. CARTER:   Oh, sorry.   Was that Clemmie
13 Fleming?

14          JUROR LATOYA FLEMING:   Yes, sir.

15          MR. CARTER:   What is your number again?   130?

16          JUROR LATOYA FLEMING:   Sir.

17          MR. CARTER:   What is your number?

18          JUROR LATOYA FLEMING:   148.

19          MR. CARTER:   Okay.   Is there anything about
20 your being kin to her that would cause you to give her
21 testimony greater weight and favor than you would anybody
22 else's?

23          JUROR LATOYA FLEMING:   No, sir.

24          MR. CARTER:   Thank you.

25          Bill Thornburg.   Anybody relative of Jack Matthews?
26 David Balash.   Joe Edward Andrews.   Elaine Gholston.

27          JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT:   She is not related to 28 me, but her husband is my first cousin.

29          MR. CARTER:   Is it fair to say that that

1 relationship wouldn't cause you to be unfair to Mr.
2 Flowers? Or would that relationship affect you and cause
3 you to give her testimony more credibility and
4 believability than you would anybody else's?

5 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir.

6 MR. CARTER: Mary Ella Fleming.

7 JUROR LATOYA FLEMING: Excuse me.

8 MR. CARTER: Is there anything --

9 THE BAILIFF: You've got a number.

10 MR. CARTER: Excuse me.

11 BAILIFF: I said you had a number.

12 MR. CARTER: What is the other number?

13 JUROR LATOYA FLEMING: 148.

14 MR. CARTER: Is there anything about that 15 relationship that would cause you to give her testimony
16 more believability --

17 JUROR LATOYA FLEMING: No, sir.

18 MR. CARTER: -- than anybody else's?

19 Anybody kin to Sharon Bailey? Patricia Hallmon.
20 Sullivan Odom. Doyle Simpson. Doyle Simpson got any 21 cousins, any relatives? Edward Lee McChristian. Odell
22 Hallmon. Anybody kin to Charles Porky Collins? Beneva
23 Henry. Anybody relative to or kin to Roxanne Ballard?
24 Jerry Dale Bridges.

25 Okay. That would be Number 18 and 132.

26 Number 18, how are you related?

27 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Step first cousin.

28 MR. CARTER: Step first cousin. And were y'all
29 close?

1 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: He and my brother are
2 close.

3 MR. CARTER: He and your brother are close.

4 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Friends.

5 MR. CARTER: And do you have good feelings
6 about him?

7 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: He is a good guy.

8 MR. CARTER: Good guy. Okay. Would the fact
9 that he is a good guy and he is your step first cousin
10 and you know him, and I assume -- how long have you known
11 him?

12 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Probably about 57 years.
13 That would be his age.

14 MR. CARTER: Okay. And the fact that you have 15 known him for a long time and if he testified, you sat as 16 a juror, would you give his testimony greater weight than
17 you would anybody else's?

18 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No, sir. No, sir.

19 MR. CARTER: And Number 132, how are you
20 related?

21 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: Third cousin.

22 MR. CARTER: Third cousin. You consider
23 yourself close to him?

24 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: I know him very well. I
25 know him well. Yes.

26 MR. CARTER: Is he a cousin and a friend?

27 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: Yes, sir.

28 MR. CARTER: Okay. And if he testified and you
29 sat as a juror, would you give his weight -- his

1 testimony more weight than you would anybody else's?

2 JUROR MARVIN BRIDGES: No, sir.

3 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

4 Anybody kin to Randy Keenum? Randy Stewart. Willie
5 Golden. Kathy Permenter. Brian Rigby. Bennie Rigby.
6 John Johnson.

7 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: I could be.

8 MR. CARTER: And what do you mean by that, sir?

9 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: My uncle by marriage,
10 his daddy was his brother.

11 MR. CARTER: Did you get to know him well?

12 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: John?

13 MR. CARTER: Yeah. Do y'all talk?

14 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Not often. But I mean I
15 know him. They lived in the same neighborhood we did.
16 I -- you know, same neighborhood.

17 MR. CARTER: You consider him a friend.

18 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes.

19 MR. CARTER: Is there anything about that
20 relationship that would cause you to give his testimony
21 more credibility than anybody else's?

22 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: Horace Wayne Miller.

24 Oh, sorry. Are we still on --

25 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: John.

26 MR. CARTER: Okay. Number 12.

27 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: My husband is a second
28 or third cousin of his.

29 MR. CARTER: Okay. Anything about that

1 relationship that would cause you to give greater weight
2 to his testimony than you would anybody else's?

3 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: (Shook head.)

4 MR. CARTER: What was the other number? Number
5 18.

6 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: John's first -- his
7 ex-wife is my first cousin.

8 MR. CARTER: Okay.

9 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Ex-wife.

10 MR. CARTER: Does that cause you to have a lot
11 of contact with him?

12 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No, sir.

13 MR. CARTER: Do you see him from time to time
14 occasionally?

15 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Only out in public.

16 MR. CARTER: Okay. Is there anything about him
17 or about that relationship that would cause you to give 18 his testimony more credibility than you would anybody
19 else's?

20 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No, sir.

21 MR. CARTER: Number 67.

22 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: It's my wife's second or 23 third cousin.

24 MR. CARTER: How well do you know him
25 personally?

26 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: Don't.

27 MR. CARTER: Does he come visit you?

28 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No.

29 MR. CARTER: Do you visit him?

1 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No.

2 MR. CARTER: Okay. Is there anything about him
3 being kin to your wife that would cause you to give his
4 testimony more believability, credibility than you would
5 anybody else's?

6 JUROR TIMOTHY AMASON: No.

7 MR. CARTER: Horace Wayne Miller. Sarah
8 Barrentine.

9 Now, ladies and gentlemen, we talked about how a
10 verdict has to be based on the evidence. Listen to the 11 evidence and deliberate on the evidence.

12 Now, I want to make sure and can you assure me that 13 whatever decision you render will be based on the 14 evidence and the facts and not on opinions or sentiment
15 or desires or expectations that are not evidence and 16 don't come from the witness stand. Can you assure me?
17 Anybody can tell me otherwise?

18 Now, despite the fact that in 1996, July 16, a
19 terrible thing happened here, do you agree with me and do
20 you understand that your job is not to come here and 21 deliver a verdict for the victims' family? Your job is 22 to come here and listen to the evidence. Listen to the 23 facts from the witness stand and make a decision based on 24 listening to the evidence and the facts. Are you with me
25 on that? Anybody disagree?

26 Now, do we have anybody here who is -- I know there
27 are people who are uncomfortable being here. And I can
28 tell you that you are not -- I will say it again. You
29 are not the only one uncomfortable. I wish I could be

1 with my grandkids instead but, but I'm here.

2 But what I want to know is whether or not we have
3 anybody who's afraid, actually scared to serve as a --
4 and I want you to understand something.

5 One moment, Your Honor.

6 Ladies and gentlemen, do you understand that what we
7 expect you to do is listen and answer questions
8 truthfully and honestly? That is all we expect. And as 9 long as you do that, you shouldn't have any unnecessary
10 fears. Can you -- can you accept that? Do you
11 understand that? Anybody got a problem with that?

12 Now, if you get picked, you are gonna have occasion
13 to listen to the case and to go back and to deliberate
14 with several other people. And I want you to understand
15 that your deliberations are your deliberations, not 16 somebody else's deliberations. I want you to understand.

17 Do you understand when I say you don't have to go
18 back there and let somebody else tell you what to think,
19 tell you what to feel, tell you how to view the evidence?
20 That is your individual decision although you are back
21 there with more than one person. Everybody understands
22 that?

23 And ladies and gentlemen, we all play a role in 24 these cases. Mr. Evans and his staff play a role, just 25 like I and my staff play a role. Mr. Evans is the 26 prosecutor. He represents the State of Mississippi. I'm 27 a defense attorney. I represent the defendant. And if 28 you haven't been told, I think the judge is going to tell
29 you at some point that - and he can correct me if I'm

1 wrong - his job is to rule on objections, hear the case,
2 maintain order, and make sure that the law is given to
3 you, that you follow the law. The judge is a neutral
4 hearer of this case. He doesn't care who wins, wins. He
5 is not on either side. Do you understand that?
6 Everybody understand that?

7 Is that correct, Your Honor?

8 THE COURT: That's correct, Mr. Carter.

9 MR. CARTER: Now, let me talk to you about
10 something else. How many of you have -- I have been in 11 malls, out in parks and have thought for sure and 12 wondered seriously whether I have seen my deceased
13 brother. I saw somebody that looked just like him and 14 wanted to walk up to him and touch him and talk to him.
15 But the closer I got, the more I realized that wasn't my 16 brother.

17 How many of us have seen -- how many of you have
18 seen children run up to somebody and thought for sure
19 that they recognize somebody and found out it wasn't the 20 person they thought? I mean I would be surprised if I'm 21 the only one that had these kinds of experiences.

22 Ladies and gentlemen, anyone believes that our 23 memory is like a video recorder, that it can record an
24 incident accurately and that you can go back and play it
25 and at any moment that you will get the same facts over
26 and over and over?

27 Wouldn't you agree with me that if you study for a
28 test, if you had an examination, that it's better for you
29 to take the examination shortly after you have studied

1       for the exam? Would all of you agree with that? Would
2       you also agree that if you waited six months -- if you
3       studied today and waited six months, didn't study any
4       more, didn't reread your notes, that it is unlikely that
5       you will remember what you read six months ago? Anybody
6       have a problem with that? Doesn't that make sense?
7       Isn't that our experiences? Anybody got a different
8       experience?

9               Now, so our memory is not perfect. And, in fact, it
10       is very imperfect. And it's more imperfect as time
11       passes. Is that fair to say? Anybody, anybody disagrees
12       with that? Based on your common sense. That is all I'm
13       talking about.

14              Now, I'm going to admit something else, because I'm 15       being honest. And I want you to be honest with me. I
16       remember as a little boy in 1969 when we integrated the 17       schools in Noxapater, Mississippi, where I lived at the 18       time. I doubt any of y'all have heard of it.

19              And I went to school. And I met lots of people.
20       Lots of people met me. And I remember telling my parents
21       I met a friend. And it was a white guy, a young white
22       boy just like me. They asked me to describe him. And 23       I'm ashamed of this. Do you know I couldn't even 24       describe him? I'm going to tell you why.

25              MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. He can ask
26       questions.

27              MR. CARTER: I am going to ask a question.

28              THE COURT: You can't tell them why. You just 29       ask questions and --

1 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I'm trying to --

2 MR. EVANS: Which is improper.

3 MR. CARTER: I'm trying to make them understand
4 and see what I'm talking about.

5 You know why? To, to give a description, would you
6 agree with me, that you gotta be able to see details? If
7 you don't see detail, if you see somebody just for a
8 glimpse or a short period of time and you had to describe
9 them, wouldn't you agree with me that you might not be 10 able to give a good description? And that if you look at 11 a person for long period of time, longer period of time,
12 and you had a chance to focus on them for a longer period
13 of time --

14 MR. HILL: Your Honor, I, I object. I think
15 this is asking them to draw a conclusion when they 16 have -- when they have heard no evidence upon which to 17 make some conclusion.

18 MR. CARTER: That is not --

19 MR. HILL: I think that is an improper voir
20 dire question.

21 THE COURT: I sustain the objection.

22 MR. CARTER: One moment.

23 Ladies and gentlemen, based on your common sense and
24 your common experience, hasn't it been your experience
25 that the longer you have observed something, that the 26 better look you've gotten at something, the better you
27 are able to give detail about what you saw? Anybody
28 would object to that? Anybody would disagree with that 29 based on your experiences, your common experiences? And

1 based on that, then I take it you agree with me based on
2 your silence.

3 And ladies and gentlemen, would you also agree that
4 it is easier based on your common experience, that it is
5 easier to see things and to give a description of things
6 when you are able to focus on those things and you don't 7 have distractions coming from other directions? For 8 instance, would you agree with me that it is easier to 9 see an object and describe an object if you are standing
10 still looking at that object?

11 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is completely
12 inappropriate.

13 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.

14 Mr. Carter, I mean your -- that is going way beyond
15 any scope of proper voir dire.

16 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, the experiences and 17 common sense -- common sense of these jurors is vital and 18 plays a role into their deliberations. And since it is 19 essential, we have to be able to gauge those things.
20 Then I don't know how I'm going to be able to voir dire
21 and ask questions and gauge those things and make a
22 selection if I can't ask the questions about it.

23 THE COURT: Well, I sustained the objection.
24 So you can move on.

25 MR. CARTER: One moment.

26 Ladies and gentlemen, don't you agree with me - and 27 Mr. Evans has told you this, and I believe the Court has 28 told you - that the State of Mississippi has to prove
29 that Mr. Flowers is guilty? And you accept that. Do you

1 also and can you also accept the fact that Mr. Flowers
2 doesn't have a duty to prove he didn't do it, didn't
3 commit this crime?

4 And would you agree with me that to shift the burden
5 to Mr. Flowers and to cause Mr. Flowers to prove his 6 innocence is, is wrong? Would you agree with me that
7 that is wrong? Anybody disagrees with that? So I take
8 it by your silence everyone agrees.

9 Ladies and gentlemen, would you agree with me that
10 if a witness says one thing on one occasion and another
11 thing on another occasion, that it makes it hard and 12 difficult to know what to believe? Anybody got a --

13 MR. HILL: Your Honor.

14 MR. CARTER: -- different take on that?

15 MR. HILL: I object. That is asking them to 16 form an opinion or reach a conclusion or committing them
17 to a certain proposition if they don't have any evidence.

18 THE COURT: I will sustain the objection. I
19 don't think that has any bearing on anything concerning
20 voir dire. That is argument to make during closing or...

21 MR. CARTER: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 Now I have another question. And I want you to 23 think about this and be honest about it. I want to know
24 if we have anyone, any prospective juror who couldn't
25 find Mr. Flowers not guilty no matter the facts, no
26 matter the facts? Only you know the answer to this. Do
27 we have anyone who's already formed an opinion and have
28 decided Mr. Flowers is guilty and is not going to change
29 your mind no matter what? No matter the facts?

1           Thank you.

2           THE COURT: We will take a 10-minute recess,
3 ladies and gentlemen.

4           (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

5           (A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

6           (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MR. HOWIE, MRS. STEINER, MR. CARTER
7 AND THE DEFENDANT WERE PRESENT. PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED AS 8 FOLLOWS:)

9           THE COURT: Mr. Carter, you may resume.

10          MR. CARTER: May we approach, Your Honor?

11          (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MRS. STEINER AND MR. CARTER
12 APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE FOLLOWING BENCH CONFERENCE HAD
13 OUTSIDE THE HEARING OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS.)

14          MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I just wanted to put 15 on the record that part of our theory of the case is that 16 eyewitness identification is not perfect. Memory is not
17 perfect. In fact, it's imperfect. And that's why I
18 thought since it's theory that I had to be able to ask
19 some questions in the area. I realize that I couldn't be 20 asking, asking scientific questions that calls for -- I
21 was asking questions that went to common sense and common
22 experiences. That is the only reason I was trying to 23 talk about that.

24          And I'm just -- I just am questioning whether I
25 should - I am going to do exactly what the Court says -
26 whether I should be forbidden to do this.

27          THE COURT: You are making -- everything you
28 are doing, you are making statements of fact. And you
29 are making statements of fact like it is fact and then

1 asking the jury if they agree with what you are saying is
2 the fact. And, and I don't think that is appropriate.
3 If you want to ask them something like will you use your
4 common sense and honest judgment in listening to the 5 evidence, then I think that is appropriate.

6 But I mean, you know, people are not required and do
7 not check their common sense at the door when they come
8 into the jury box. And certainly you can ask them if 9 they will, you know, use their life experiences and their 10 common sense to listen to the evidence and deliberate on 11 a verdict. And I think that is appropriate. But I don't 12 think it is appropriate to, you know, preface every 13 question by making a statement that you consider to be a
14 statement of fact.

15 MR. CARTER: Well, Your Honor, I was actually
16 trying to do exactly what you suggested, but I probably
17 did it in a different approach than, you, you -- than you
18 know is allowable or believe is allowable but thank you.

19 One other thing. Your Honor, there are some --
20 about four jurors who are sitting there talking to each
21 other. I could barely ask my questions. And I have to 22 be real honest, I was tempted to question them. I don't 23 want to do that, because I don't want to --

24 THE COURT: I will just admonish everybody that 25 they don't need to be talking while questions are being
26 asked.

27 MR. CARTER: And can I just --

28 MS. STEINER: Your Honor, in light of your
29 caution about not talking, I was thinking that perhaps --

1       certainly, the jurors on the first pew on the left have
2       been talking with each other. Would you prefer we do
3       that in open court or can we call them in during
4       individual voir dire?

5               THE COURT: If there is some question, I think
6       we need to, rather than single somebody out in front of 7       everybody.

8               MS. STEINER: Okay. Then I --

9               MR. EVANS: There is nothing wrong with the 10       jurors talking to each other.

11              THE COURT: Well, I agree. There is nothing
12       wrong with them talking to each other. I thought you
13       were saying they were talking to each other during the --

14              MS. STEINER: They are.

15              THE COURT: -- while everybody else is talking.

16              MS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor. And we would
17       reserve the right to identify for the Court. I guess
18       everybody is going to come in for individual voir dire on 19       what they have --

20              THE COURT: Knowledge of the case and the death
21       penalty.

22              MS. STEINER: So we will be talking to
23       everybody individually at some point any way. We reserve
24       the right to ask those questions individually.

25       (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

26              THE COURT: I want to ask everybody on the 27       panel, don't be carrying on any conversations with each
28       other while questions are being asked or somebody else is 29       responding. I know you might think you can whisper to

1 each other while somebody else is giving a response, but
2 the court reporter has got to take down everything that
3 is said in the courtroom. And it can be very distracting
4 if murmuring is going on among anybody. So I will ask
5 that if you are not responding to a question that was 6 asked, that you do not be talking at all to anybody or 7 whispering to anybody or talking at all.

8 And with that, you may proceed.

9 MR. CARTER: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 Number 51. Mr. Huggins.

11 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: Yeah.

12 MR. CARTER: Do you have a fixed opinion, an 13 unalterable, unchanging opinion that Mr. Flowers is
14 guilty?

15 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: I do not know. I
16 hadn't heard the evidence. Like I said, I work away from 17 here. I don't know any of them.

18 MR. CARTER: Thank you. Thank you.

19 JUROR BURRELL HUGGINS: I wouldn't even know
20 Mr. Flowers until I seen him here.

21 MR. CARTER: May we approach again, Your Honor?
22 I apologize.

23 (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MR. HOWIE, MRS. STEINER AND MR.
24 CARTER APPROACHED THE BENCH FOR THE FOLLOWING BENCH CONFERENCE
25 HAD OUTSIDE THE HEARING OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS.)

26 MR. CARTER: I just want to make sure that I'm 27 not doing anything wrong. I want to go ahead. I
28 anticipate asking some questions about the past trial
29 involving this case. And I don't know that there has

1           been some kind of ruling that is saying I can't do that.

2                   THE COURT: I think that might be something
3           that would be better to get into individually. I mean
4           you could certainly --

5                   MR. CARTER: Okay. I'll do it individually
6           then.

7                   THE COURT: -- taint the jury pool if you
8           start.

9                   MR. CARTER: I won't do it then.

10           (THE BENCH CONFERENCE WAS CONCLUDED.)

11                   MR. CARTER: Ladies and gentlemen, I know that 12           several of you have relatives who are police officers.
13           And I just want to make sure that there is no bias in 14           favor of a police officer. And my question is will you
15           give the police officer's testimony meaning, value and 16           credibility just like you would any other juror and that 17           you won't give their testimony more value and weight and 18           effect just because they are police officers?

19                   Do we have anyone who would, in fact, consider a
20           police officer's testimony more honorable and valuable 21           than another person who may testify in a way that is 22           different and that contrast the police officer's
23           testimony?

24                   So by your silence, I take it that you mean you
25           won't give police officer's testimony more than you would 26           anybody else's just because they are police officers.

27                   And I hate to even ask this question, because I
28           can't imagine it. Any, any of you dislike me, got a
29           problem with me? I mean as nice as I am, I can't imagine

1       you not, but you never know. I mean anybody blames me
2       for this case? Blames my office? Anybody dislike my
3       co-counsel, Miss Steiner? Dislike my mitigation
4       specialist Miss Curie, Miss Leah Hubbard, my brilliant
5       students, all of them are brilliant, Catherine and 6       Kaitlyn.

7               So I take it you all like me, adore me and you won't
8       hold anything against me against Mr. Flowers based on 9       whatever perception you have towards me. Is that fair to 10      say?

11             Number 1.

12               JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: That is fair. Yes,
13      sir.

14             MR. CARTER: Number five.

15               JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Miss Curie did pay me a
16      visit one time.

17             MR. CARTER: Right.

18               JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I do know her though.

19             MR. CARTER: And y'all didn't talk about the 20      facts of the case, did you?

21               JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: No, sir.

22             MR. CARTER: Thank you.

23               JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Well, we talked about the
24      defendant.

25             MR. CARTER: Now, during the trial we will
26      likely have some witnesses that come from out of town.
27      And anyone has a bias towards people who come from 28      outside of town? And if a person from Winona and from 29      Montgomery County testify one way and somebody from

1 outside of town testify just the opposite, would you
2 automatically believe the local person and not believe
3 the, the person outside of Winona? Anybody feel that
4 way, outsiders are bad?

5 Now, I tell people that I don't like snakes. And I
6 don't -- I have heard about some good snakes, some pet
7 snakes or some snakes at the zoo that I suppose are good.
8 But I don't like any of them.

9 Now, I ask this question to lead into your feelings
10 towards Mr. Flowers. Do we have anyone here who hates,
11 despises Curtis Flowers as a result of this case, as a
12 result of something prior to this case, as a result of 13 something after this case that has nothing to do with the 14 case? And you are just waiting on -- you can't be fair
15 to him. And, in fact, you are just waiting on an 16 opportunity to extract some kind of pain to him. Anybody
17 has those, those notions, those desires, those 18 inclinations? Thank you.

19 Would you agree with me that it's, it's wrong and 20 irresponsible to convict a person if it's not proven
21 beyond a reasonable doubt by the prosecutor that the 22 person committed the crime?

23 I think I'm finished, Your Honor. Let me check.

24 Your Honor, at this point I reserve any other
25 questions I have to when we do the individual voir dire.
26 Thank you.

27 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury,
28 what we are going to do now is we are going to -- there
29 is a couple of matters that I want to ask each one of you

1 outside the presence of the other jurors. So I am going
2 to have you step outside, and then we will call you in
3 one-by-one and ask you a couple of questions.

4 And please, just be patient. I don't know how long
5 that will take. But if you will, just stand outside the
6 courtroom.

7 Are there any chairs out there?

8 BAILIFF WHITFIELD: There is some out front,
9 sir.

10 THE COURT: Okay. If you will just have a seat
11 out there or stand.

12 Now, you can't talk about the case with anyone or 13 among yourselves. And if you will, just keep your fans
14 or your numbers with you so while you are standing out
15 there that will kind of let everybody know you are a
16 juror. And they are not to speak to you.

17 (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

18 THE COURT: I think there were, at least, a few
19 that probably could be excused for cause at this point.

20 I know Number 5, Miss Griffin has stated that she
21 had a relative that was murdered down in Attala County,
22 and she would have great sympathy for the victim. And I
23 mean I can keep her around. We can ask her something
24 individually if you want me to.

25 MR. CARTER: I think she is pretty much -- she 26 is gone unless the other side...

27 MR. EVANS: I think she is going to be real 28 similar to a lot of the other folks that flat said they 29 could not be -- could not judge anyone and said later

1 they could be fair. I think it's kind of the same category.

2 THE COURT: Why don't we just stick around
3 then? We can just -- I mean it's not going to take long.
4 And we can clear anything up and have it clear in the 5 record. And so we will just --

6 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, can I say, just for 7 the record, that this particular one did, in fact, say
8 that she couldn't be fair for thinking about her dead
9 relatives. She did not equivocate. She did not change
10 her mind upon being asked some question. And to say that 11 she is in the same category as those other people is 12 just -- is untruthful.

13 THE COURT: Well, we can clear it up with her
14 and the others. And you know, this is certainly --
15 depending on what she says -- there were several that I
16 was not clear, like Mr. Trotter. At first he said it
17 would affect him. Then he -- and I -- so there is 18 about -- I don't know. There are several of them that I
19 wasn't clear totally on what they were saying. And it's 20 not going to take an extremely long time, I don't think,
21 to just ask each one of them individually if something
22 arose like that.

23 Bring Number 1 in first, Miss Hamilton.

24 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, before we commence
25 individual voir dire.

26 Your Honor, I believe the individual voir dire, as I
27 understand, is going to go into both publicity and death
28 penalty.

29 THE COURT: Right.

1 MRS. STEINER: And before we commence, I would
2 like to renew some motions we had previously made with
3 respect to barring, seeking or imposition of the death
4 penalty, which would preclude the need for that.

5 The first motion I would like to renew is the 6 motion - I think it was re-renewed in April - that was 7 filed in September of 2008 just prior to fourth trial in 8 this matter to preclude the prosecution from seeking 9 imposition of the death penalty in this matter largely on 10 the basis of the documented history through -- in, in the 11 courts.

12 The first three trials of racial discrimination, as 13 set forth in that motion, which was considered by the 14 Court previously and today, the experience of the means
15 in the areas which the State is inquiring, practicing
16 prosecutorially as cross-examining African-American
17 jurors, particularly the ones whom have been identified
18 as having had civil disputes with Mrs. Tardy's business.

19 THE COURT: What does that have to do with the
20 death penalty?

21 MRS. STEINER: And this is part and parcel --

22 THE COURT: What does that have to do with the
23 death penalty?

24 MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor. This is part
25 and parcel of the misconduct that in the 2008 motion we
26 had cited as a basis to preclude the death qualification,
27 which we anticipate they will continue in the same vein.

28 And on that basis, we would move on grounds set
29 forth in the 2008 motion and as carried out that there's

1 a long discussion in that motion of ways in which
2 discrimination has been occurring. And I think the way
3 that the State has been handling its voir dire to date,
4 that has continued, and that at the very least the death
5 penalty should be precluded.

6 We would also renew the motion that inherently
7 given -- what's set forth in juror questionnaires, I
8 believe that there will continue to be a racially
9 discriminatory effect, as there was in the last four 10 trials, in terms of reducing the proportion of 11 African-American jurors statistically, significantly in 12 this juror pool.

13 THE COURT: Now, have you got any Supreme Court
14 opinions or opinions from any court anywhere in this 15 country that supports your motion?

16 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I have what the 17 Supreme Court has not addressed. In Lockhart versus 18 McCree it was held that simply the mere existence --
19 Witherspooning jurors in and of itself was not unlawful,
20 but it does acknowledge the whole line of cases, the 21 Peters, Duran, Taylor, Castaneda cases, that if there is
22 a demonstrable effect from which a purpose for deliberate
23 exclusion can be inferred.

24 And it is our position, as it was when this motion
25 entitled Motion to Preclude Death Qualification of Jurors
26 or in the Alternative to Preclude the Imposition of the 27 Death Penalty, that was called up filed and ruled on in 28 September of 2008, that we believe that the pattern that 29 has continued here does demonstrate the kind of

1 deliberate -- an inference of deliberate discrimination
2 that makes it unlawful under the Peters, Duran,
3 Castaneda, Batson and Powers precedence that the Supreme
4 Court has decided.

5 And we would also cite to the Sixth Amendment, the 6 Statunus (phonetic) versus United States, and the --
7 cited in that motion. It simply says that a reading of 8 the original language of the constitution does not 9 support death qualification of jurors notwithstanding the 10 Witherspoon decision.

11 Allow me to renew from the -- before the fifth
12 trial, the third motion that was made at that time,
13 Motion to Bar the Death Penalty Based on Prosecutor
14 Vindictiveness and Misconduct. The fact is, Your Honor, 15 that in 2007 the prosecutor opted to proceed with the 16 trial in this manner not seeking the death penalty. The 17 --

18 THE COURT: Well, didn't that happen after
19 y'all had come up with a last-minute witness that you
20 sprung on the State that was going to testify about 21 whether there was -- about witness identification? And 22 didn't after y'all agree not to seek that witness, didn't
23 at that time the State then agree not to seek the death
24 penalty? I, I read that in a transcript.

25 MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor.

26 THE COURT: So, so that is the reason why it
27 was not done. They didn't seek the death penalty in '07,
28 it was my understanding, because of y'all's springing a
29 witness at the last minute and them not having time to

1 research or to find a rebuttal witness. And so Mr.
2 deGruy agreed not to seek that in exchange for the State
3 not seeking the death penalty. Is that not what
4 happened?

5 MRS. STEINER: If the Court please, I wasn't
6 the person there. There was an agreement to withdraw. I
7 think a motion in limine had been made by --

8 THE COURT: Well, I know I read a transcript
9 where Mr. deGruy said if the State was not seeking the 10 death penalty, he would not seek that witness,
11 identification witness.

12 MRS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: So is that not the reason, what
14 happened, why it was dropped?

15 MRS. STEINER: That was one factor, and we have 16 that witness --

17 THE COURT: Either way, y'all sought again to 18 have that witness. And so the State is seeking the death
19 penalty at that time. So --

20 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor has ruled that the 21 State's motion in limine is well taken. We have renewed
22 our request to have the eyewitness i.d. witness. The 23 State objected to it.

24 THE COURT: But you were alleging misconduct
25 for seeking it in -- and I mean dropping it in '07 and 26 seeking it again in '08. And I was just asking what that 27 misconduct was. Where is there misconduct?

28 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, the misconduct has 29 to do with apparently having coached a, an expert

1 witness, Miss Schoene, with respect to the divergent
2 testimony --

3 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to that.

4 MRS. STEINER: -- 2008 --

5 COURT REPORTER: Judge, they are talking at the 6 same time.

7 MR. EVANS: That is a misstatement of the facts
8 and the law. And she knows it, and it is inappropriate.

9 THE COURT: I, I have read -- you know, I heard
10 the last trial, and I read the 2007 trial. And I do not 11 agree with your characterization. There was a photo of 12 somebody's car that was several years old. And she 13 glanced at it and said it looked -- but as far as from 14 what I read in the '07 transcript, there was not ever any 15 dispute that that was the car of -- I'm trying to think
16 of his name. So to say --

17 MR. CARTER: Doyle Simpson.

18 THE COURT: Yeah. Doyle Simpson. So to say
19 that there was some coaching or misconduct, I think
20 totally -- so if that is the only reason that you can 21 come up with why there was prosecutorial misconduct that 22 would preclude the seeking of the death penalty this
23 time, then, you know, I can overrule your motion right
24 now.

25 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, there was also a
26 Pearce versus South Carolina theory of vindictiveness in 27 the sense of coming back and seeking a more severe
28 penalty, because of the success of the defendant. And 29 that was under the fact that there -- that had, had been

1 reversed because of the knowing use of false testimony.
2 That it would have --

3 THE COURT: Well --

4 MRS. STEINER: -- resulted in -- Pearce would
5 have barred it.

6 THE COURT: Well, it is impossible -- you know,
7 again, it was such an immaterial matter in the '07 trial,
8 the color of that car, that, you know, I can't say for
9 sure -- but well, I don't see any possibility that it
10 would have been reversed for that reason.

11 But you are saying because it might have been 12 reversed, there might have been prosecutorial misconduct.
13 And you know, it's just not -- the law is just not on 14 your side on what you are saying, and the facts are not 15 either.

16 MRS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor. I take
17 it you are overruling the motion again.

18 THE COURT: I am overruling on the idea of 19 prosecutorial misconduct that would preclude them from 20 seeking the death penalty, because there has been no
21 showing that there was any prosecutorial misconduct. And 22 again, the reason why they didn't seek the '07 death
23 penalty then was because of an agreement between your 24 office and them that if you didn't seek to have this
25 expert on identification, they would not seek the death
26 penalty. That was clear from the record back then.

27 Also, I don't agree with your characterization that
28 the State has made discriminatory questions today
29 about -- during the jury selection. The State asked

1 everybody that was on the panel if they had ever been
2 sued by Tardy Furniture company. That did not single out
3 a person that was black, a person that was white.

4 They first asked if there was people that had charge
5 accounts there. There were a number of white people and
6 black that said they did. And then they asked if anybody
7 had ever been sued. You know, I think it was two or 8 three black jurors that said they had been. But that was 9 not anything that was suggestively racist or racial in 10 any way. So I do not see that their questioning today
11 has had anything dealing with race.

12 This case is not about black and white. It is right
13 or wrong and guilt or innocence is what this case is 14 about. And as I say, up to this point, I have not seen
15 any issue that would indicate that there is anything
16 discriminatory about any question that they have asked.

17 Also, the case law at this point in this state is 18 clear that, you know, you can exclude people under 19 Witherspoon if they say they cannot consider under any
20 circumstance the death penalty. If it disproportionally
21 results in one group of people being excluded because of 22 that, that is the law. And I'm sworn to uphold the laws
23 of the State of Mississippi, and I do my dead level best
24 to follow the precedents that have been set by the 25 Supreme Court of Mississippi and the Supreme Court of the 26 United States. And based on that, I do not see any merit
27 to your motion. So it is denied.

28 MRS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

29 I would renew the Motion to Bar Any Retrial Under

1 the Double Jeopardy Clause that we made on April 4 -- on
2 April 20. And I would also renew the Supplemental Motion
3 to Preclude Death Penalty Procedures that was heard on 4 April 20, 2010, just prior to this, since we are about to 5 go into death qualifications.

6 And finally, Your Honor, I would note that to the 7 extent that there has been intimidation in conduct, the 8 State, for instance, has filed a motion in the public
9 record stating that the fifth trial was declared a
10 mistrial, quote, because of juror perjury. As your
11 Court's own order reflects, it was declared a mistrial
12 because there was no agreement from the jury.

13 THE COURT: Well, let me ask you this. How is 14 that prejudicing Mr. Flowers if the State filed that in a 15 motion? Because at this point, none of those jurors have 16 read that court file so --

17 MRS. STEINER: We don't know that they haven't,
18 Your Honor. That was filed --

19 THE COURT: Well, we will ask. We will be 20 asking the jurors in a few minutes specific facts about 21 the case. So I would assume if any of them read that in 22 the court file, they will speak up and truthfully tell us
23 that.

24 MRS. STEINER: And, Your Honor, it's already
25 taken its toll. At least one of the jurors being 26 qualified, who came up after the -- on June 4, talked
27 very specifically about didn't -- was afraid of being 28 arrested if he didn't say something. I think at least 29 that juror was long gone. He was excused after that

1 colloquy. I cannot say that this has not --

2 THE COURT: I don't recall he said he was
3 afraid of being arrested. He came up and said that in 4 one of the previous trials his wife had been struck for
5 cause for some reason, and I think that was the Flowers
6 III case. And he was married to somebody. It seems like
7 you are kind of arguing that, you know, the jurors are --
8 you are upset because they are telling the truth.

9 MRS. STEINER: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Because, you know, you are 11 seemingly saying well, since somebody got charged with 12 perjury in the past, you know, it makes them less likely 13 to now.

14 MRS. STEINER: No, Your Honor, I am very 15 grateful, Your Honor, that the jurors are telling the 16 truth. I am, however, concerned that the prosecutorial
17 conduct that has resulted in even one juror coming
18 forward saying I don't -- I'm afraid I'll be -- I don't 19 want to be arrested by not saying something is the 20 product of the kind of representation by the prosecutor.

21 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if she is going to 22 accuse me of prosecutorial misconduct, I would like for 23 her to put in the record what prosecutorial misconduct is 24 there and for the Court to rule on it. This is getting 25 ridiculous. I am tired of this. I think it is getting 26 very close to being qualified for a bar complaint.

27 THE COURT: I don't see anything the State has 28 done and I -- you know, you have got a right to zealously
29 represent your client, but you don't have the right to

1 conduct character assassination. That is exactly what
2 you are doing at this point, Mrs. Steiner. You are
3 accusing the prosecutor of misconduct when this juror
4 that came forward Friday did not have any prompting on
5 anybody's part to come forward and state what he stated.

6 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: And you had the right to question
8 him if you had chosen to do so on Friday. He was excused 9 for cause, but it's no -- there is nothing that would
10 indicate that the State did one thing to cause him to be 11 excused.

12 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I don't -- Mr. Curry
13 was questioned at length by both parties subsequently. I
14 think there was a second juror who Mr. -- I think Mr.
15 Carter voir dired. I cannot -- I don't have in front of 16 me the name of the individual, but it was in addition to 17 Mr. Curry. I think Mr. Curry expressed some doubts also.
18 But I -- that is my motion.

19 THE COURT: Well, you are making reckless 20 charges that have absolutely no factual basis. So I will 21 deny those motions, and we will proceed now with 22 individual questioning of the jury panel.

23 If you will get Miss Hamilton first.

24 (JUROR NUMBER 1, SANDRA HAMILTON, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

25 THE COURT: If you will, come forward and have 26 a seat here, Miss Hamilton.

27 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

28 THE COURT: If you will, have a seat.

29 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

1           You just happened to be first.

2           JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Okay.

3           THE COURT: But we are going to be dealing with
4 everybody that is on the panel. There is a couple of 5 questions that we wanted to ask outside the presence of 6 these -- of the other jurors.

7           I want to know if you have any knowledge of the 8 case, if you have heard any facts about the case or 9 anything like that.

10          JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: All that I've heard is 11 one of my co-worker's husband's was friends of the 12 Stewart boy. And so I have heard some of the - of 13 course, it is just hearsay - some of the things that she 14 has had to say about it.

15          THE COURT: And has that caused you to form an
16 opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

17          JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: No, sir.

18          THE COURT: And would you lay aside anything
19 you might possibly have heard outside the courtroom and 20 base your decision only on the evidence presented here in
21 court?

22          JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

23          THE COURT: And this is a case where if the 24 jury found Mr. Flowers guilty, then they would be 25 proceeding to decide whether he should be sentenced to 26 death. If the facts allow -- if the facts justified it
27 and the law allowed it, could you consider imposing the
28 death penalty?

29          JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Also, if he is not -- if the jury
2 found that he should not be sentenced to death, he would
3 be sentenced to life in prison without parole. So would 4 that be an option that you would also keep open mind and
5 have available to you?

6 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 You can step down.

9 If you will, have Miss Harris come in now.

10 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, are we going to have

11 --

12 THE COURT: Well, if there is something -- I
13 didn't know that there was anything that I --

14 Miss Hamilton, apparently they had a question or two 15 about something.

16 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, can we just find out
17 what the process is so we won't be confused?

18 THE COURT: If you will, have a seat, Miss
19 Hamilton.

20 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

21 You can ask questions, and then we will discuss any 22 process, if you have some questions for her.

23 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I know that she was 24 about to leave. So was that to mean that we are going to 25 call her back at some point?

26 THE COURT: No. If you have got any questions,
27 the time to ask it is now.

28 MR. CARTER: Miss Hamilton.

29 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

1 MR. CARTER: In a capital murder case, you get
2 to the second phase. There are two phases of a trial.
3 The first phase -- and you may already know this. If you
4 do, you can just tell me. The first phase is a question
5 of guilt or not guilty. If the person is found guilty,
6 then you go to a second phase. And you go into whether
7 to vote for death or life without possibility of parole.

8 The State of Mississippi puts on aggravation, and we
9 put on what, what is called mitigation. And mitigation
10 can be anything about the person's background, life
11 history, circumstances of a crime or -- we attempt to 12 tell you who the defendant is before you render a
13 decision.

14 Now, in, in -- so we never get to the second phase
15 unless you've already found Mr. Flowers guilty. If you
16 find Mr. Flowers guilty, and we get to the second phase,
17 and if you found him guilty of deliberately,
18 intentionally and without a mistake, and he is not insane
19 or is not in self-defense, what is your opinion as to the 20 appropriateness of the death penalty under those
21 circumstances?

22 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't think that is
23 an appropriate question.

24 THE COURT: That is not an appropriate
25 question, Mr. Carter.

26 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, the -- that question
27 is appropriate. It --

28 THE COURT: Well, I am ruling it is not.

29 MR. CARTER: -- pursuant to -- do you mind if,

1           if --

2                   THE COURT: I have ruled, and I do not want
3 anymore argument from you.

4                   MR. CARTER: I'm --

5                   THE COURT: I have made my ruling.

6                   MR. CARTER: I'm not arguing, Your Honor. I
7 just -- I cannot ask questions?

8                   THE COURT: Not that question.

9                   I think the Court asked the only question that is
10 appropriate to be asked under the circumstances, but I
11 thought you had something else that you wanted to bring
12 up. And if you do, that's an appropriate question, ask
13 it.

14                   MR. CARTER: Your Honor, just for the record,
15 we take the position that the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth,
16 Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment allows me to ask -- to 17 ask this particular question. Of course, I am going to 18 do exactly what the Court says and, and not ask the
19 question.

20                   And we also take the position that in addition to 21 that, the Constitution of Mississippi, we argue, allows
22 me to answer that question -- ask that question.

23                   And Miss, Miss Hamilton.

24                   One moment, Your Honor.

25                   Would you -- could you listen to the evidence from 26 the witness stand, both sides, the mitigation and 27 aggravation, and treat both sides equally and give 28 mitigation, the facts we put on, equal consideration that
29 you would give to the State putting on aggravation?

1 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

2 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, that, that is improper.
3 It is up to her to decide what weight to give them. Now,
4 he can ask if she will consider them. I have no
5 objection.

6 MR. CARTER: I will restate it, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. CARTER: Miss Hamilton.

9 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

10 MR. CARTER: Are you able to listen to 11 aggravation and mitigation and consider both options
12 equally without -- are you able to consider both options
13 equally?

14 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Both options meaning
15 the death penalty or life in prison?

16 MR. CARTER: Right.

17 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

18 MR. CARTER: And do you understand that the 19 State of Mississippi allows both options, and it is your 20 individual decision, nobody can tell you which way to 21 vote?

22 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

23 MR. CARTER: That it is your individual
24 decision. Do you understand that?

25 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

26 MR. CARTER: One moment, Your Honor.

27 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, we have prepared on 28 publicity that I would handle voir dire so...

29 THE COURT: Well, one of you is going to handle

1           voir dire as to all witnesses.

2                   MRS. STEINER: All right.

3                   THE COURT: You are not going to get up and
4 down. It is not appropriate to have more than one lawyer
5 asking questions. And so one of you can ask the
6 questions.

7                   MRS. STEINER: Of each witness or...

8                   THE COURT: If you want to ask of one witness
9 and Mr. Carter the next witness, that is fine. But we 10 are not -- you know.

11                   MRS. STEINER: If I may confer with Mr. Carter.

12                   MR. CARTER: Miss Hamilton.

13                   JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

14                   MR. CARTER: I admit I had a problem hearing
15 you, because people were moving papers back and forth.
16 But correct me if I'm wrong, you said you heard a
17 co-worker, some co-workers talking about this case, did
18 you say?

19                   JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: One coworker.

20                   MR. CARTER: Who is that coworker?

21                   JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Her name is Amanda
22 Johnson. Oh, I'm sorry. She is Amanda Ware now. She 23 recently got married.

24                   MR. CARTER: And what is it that you heard her
25 say?

26                   JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: What I heard her say is 27 her husband, Derrick Ware, was friends of Mr. Stewart,
28 childhood friends, and that he was just having a real
29 difficult time with things, with the trials coming back

1 up again. And he was just real upset over it.

2 And basically, you know, that's, that's all she
3 said. She just had concerns for her husband with the 4 emotional trauma that he was going through with all of 5 this being brought up again.

6 MR. CARTER: Now, I also noticed that during
7 voir dire it seems that you, Number 2, Number 3 and
8 Number 5 were having quite a bit of conversation as I
9 tried to voir dire the jury. Is that the facts?

10 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Excuse me. Could you
11 repeat that, please?

12 MR. CARTER: I noticed that during the period
13 of time I was doing voir dire that you seemed to be
14 having quite a bit of conversations with Juror Number 2, 15 Juror Number 3 and Juror Number 5. Do you know those 16 people?

17 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: No, sir. Didn't know
18 them at all until we came into the courtroom Friday.

19 MR. CARTER: Okay. And what were you talking
20 to them about?

21 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Nothing in particular.
22 I mean I don't recall. I mean we may have made comments
23 about something that was said. I really -- I do not 24 recall anything in particular.

25 MR. CARTER: So you are conceding that memories
26 are imperfect and very fleeting. Is that what you are 27 doing?

28 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: I mean I don't remember
29 exactly what we said. No, sir.

1 MR. CARTER: Okay.

2 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: I mean we may have made
3 some comments about some things that some of the other
4 potential jurors had said, but I don't remember anything
5 in particular.

6 MR. CARTER: And did you not make the comment
7 that, to Juror Number 2 or another juror, that that is
8 not how you are supposed to answer the question? Do you
9 deny saying that?

10 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: That I said that is not
11 how you are supposed to answer the question? Is that 12 what you are asking me?

13 MR. CARTER: Yes. Do you -- yes.

14 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: I don't recall saying
15 that. I'm not saying that I didn't say that, but I don't 16 recall those exact words. No, sir.

17 MR. CARTER: Okay.

18 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: I mean if you could
19 refresh my memory over what was being asked at that time
20 I may remember.

21 MR. CARTER: I don't know that I can refresh
22 your memory. Thank you.

23 MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor.

24 Miss Hamilton.

25 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

26 MR. EVANS: You're telling us that you can be
27 fair and impartial to both sides and base your judgment
28 of guilt and sentence on what you hear in court; is that
29 correct?

1 JUROR SANDRA HAMILTON: Yes, sir, that is
2 correct.

3 MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. And you can step out.
5 If you will bring Miss Harris in next.

6 (JUROR NUMBER 2, CHRISTY HARRIS, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

7 THE COURT: If you will, come up and have a
8 seat.

9 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

10 THE COURT: Miss Harris, I want to know if you
11 have heard anything about the case, have any knowledge
12 about the case or know anything about the investigation
13 of the case or anything about the case.

14 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Basically all I know is 15 that this is maybe, like, the sixth trial. That is all I
16 know basically.

17 THE COURT: And how, how do you -- how did you
18 learn that information?

19 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Just from working up
20 here in the courthouse.

21 THE COURT: And have you read any newspapers or 22 seen anything really about the case written or has --

23 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: No, sir.

24 THE COURT: Has anything you have heard, seen
25 or know about the case caused you to form any opinion as 26 to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

27 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: No, sir.

28 THE COURT: And would you lay anything you
29 might have heard aside and just base your decision only

1 on the evidence presented here in this courtroom?

2 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: And now, if the jury finds Mr.
4 Flowers guilty, then there would be a second phase of the 5 trial. That would be called a sentencing phase. The 6 State is seeking the death penalty in this case. If the 7 facts justified it and the law allowed it, could you
8 consider that as a sentencing option?

9 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: No, sir.

10 THE COURT: So you could not under any
11 circumstances consider the death penalty.

12 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Not with my religious 13 beliefs.

14 THE COURT: So you have got a religious belief
15 where you just -- now, I believe your questionnaire that 16 you answered had a different answer than that. I believe
17 on your questionnaire you said that you strongly favored
18 the death penalty.

19 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: I believe in it, but I
20 just don't want to be the one to rule on that.

21 THE COURT: You said on your questionnaire that
22 you could consider it and so you kind of after thinking
23 about it changed your mind.

24 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Um-hum.

25 THE COURT: So you are saying you just could
26 not consider that as a sentencing option.

27 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: No, sir, I cannot.

28 THE COURT: And also, if the facts -- I mean
29 you determine -- you know, if you were on a jury, you

1 would -- the sentence would be up to the jury to decide.
2 If he was not sentenced to death, then the sentence would
3 be life in prison without parole. And would that be some 4 sentencing option that would be --

5 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: -- something you would be thinking
7 available?

8 Okay. Questions?

9 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

10 All right. Miss Harris, I want to make sure you
11 understand. On the death penalty, what you're saying is 12 that under no circumstance could you give the death
13 penalty; is that correct?

14 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Correct.

15 MR. EVANS: So it doesn't matter what the case
16 is, that your views on the death penalty are just such 17 that you could not give it.

18 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: My religious beliefs
19 that one day if he was found guilty of it and the death
20 penalty was the option, then, you know, that's up to, to 21 God. I mean that's not something that I would be 22 comfortable with.

23 MR. EVANS: That is all I have, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Any questions?

25 MR. CARTER: Miss Harris, do you understand
26 that no one is telling you that you have to vote for 27 death?

28 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Yes, sir.

29 MR. CARTER: Do you further understand that the

1 State of Mississippi has determined that life without
2 possibility of parole is just as good as death for a
3 capital murder case?

4 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Okay.

5 MR. CARTER: And do you also understand that we
6 are not conceding that Mr. Flowers is guilty and that he
7 will be found guilty?

8 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: I understand.

9 MR. CARTER: And you have not made your mind
10 up, have you, that he is guilty?

11 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: No, sir.

12 MR. CARTER: And if you have made your mind up
13 that he is guilty and you know that however you vote is 14 your decision and nobody else's decision and nobody else
15 can tell you how to vote, with that in mind can you
16 consider -- and that doesn't mean vote for death, can you
17 consider both life and death as a possible punishment for 18 capital murder?

19 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to the 20 phrasing. I think to consider she would have to say that 21 if the facts were there she could give death. So I think
22 it is a misconception the way it is phrased.

23 MR. CARTER: I am not changing my phrasing.
24 There is nothing wrong with that question.

25 THE COURT: Well, she can allow it. And then,
26 you know, if she changes her answer, then I think that 27 would call for more explanation. But I will allow you to 28 answer -- ask it.

29 MR. CARTER: I might have confused you though.

1 I'm not even sure. Do you even remember exactly what I
2 asked?

3 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: I was going to ask if
4 you would repeat what you just said, please.

5 MR. CARTER: Okay. This is what I'm asking
6 you. I want to make sure that you understand. I don't 7 take for granted that people do understand this.

8 The State of Mississippi has said that life without 9 possibility of parole and the death penalty are two 10 options for a person found guilty of capital murder. And 11 the State of Mississippi doesn't choose one over the 12 other. The State of Mississippi is not telling you that 13 you have to vote for death. The State of Mississippi has 14 never told anybody they have to vote for death or how 15 they have to vote.

16 You decide how you vote. You listen to the facts.
17 And after listening to the facts, during the first 18 phase -- and you would have to have found him guilty to 19 get to the second phase, the life or death punishment
20 phase.

21 And the State of Mississippi puts on what is called
22 aggravation, their reason why they think a person
23 deserves the death penalty. We put on what is called 24 mitigation, our reasons we think he should get life
25 without possibility of parole.

26 Now, you do agree that, or do you, that life without 27 possibility of parole is a real punishment? Or do you?

28 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Yes, I do.

29 MR. CARTER: And with that being the case, with

1 this being your decision, your decision alone, and both
2 consideration, nobody is telling you how to vote, can you
3 sit in judgment on this case? And if you found Mr.
4 Flowers guilty, could you consider both options and then
5 vote your will, your -- according to your personal
6 conscience, about what is the appropriate punishment?

7 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: As long as it wasn't
8 dealing with the death penalty, yes, sir.

9 MR. CARTER: Well, now, you gotta understand
10 that, that the death penalty and life without possibility
11 of parole are options in this case.

12 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Um-hum.

13 MR. CARTER: And neither one is mandatory that 14 you have to vote for one or the other. It is your option
15 based on your conscience, your moral conscience, your 16 make-up, your judgment --

17 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Um-hum.

18 MR. CARTER: -- of the facts and circumstances.
19 And what I'm trying to find out is in light of, of that,
20 can you consider -- and that mean give value, weight,
21 consideration and affect to considering both options and
22 then choosing the one you think is appropriate?

23 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Yes.

24 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Well, Miss Harris, you have got me
26 totally confused at this point, because first you said
27 you could not under any circumstance consider the death
28 penalty. And now you are saying that you can.

29 So I want to ask this question. If you found that

1 the facts justified it --

2 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Um-hum.

3 THE COURT: -- the law allowed it, could you
4 vote the death penalty if you felt like the law was
5 appropriate and the circumstances --

6 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: I guess I misunderstood,
7 no.

8 THE COURT: So then you are saying you could 9 not ever under any circumstances then consider the 10 imposition of the death penalty.

11 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: No.

12 THE COURT: So if that was an option, you could 13 not ever sit in judgment as far as --

14 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: I guess --

15 THE COURT: -- the death penalty.

16 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: I guess the way I took 17 it was they were saying you could do either the death
18 penalty or life without parole. And that is why I
19 explained to him if the death penalty is there, I cannot 20 do that.

21 THE COURT: So if the death penalty was a
22 possible penalty, there is no circumstance where you
23 would ever be able to consider that.

24 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: No, sir.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

26 You may step down. I'm sorry.

27 JUROR CHRISTY HARRIS: Okay.

28 THE COURT: Get Number 3, Miss O'Quinn, next.

29 (JUROR NUMBER 3, SUSAN O'QUINN, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

1 THE COURT: If you will, come forward, Miss
2 O'Quinn, and sit down for a couple of minutes.

3 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

4 What we are doing now is we are asking each juror a
5 couple of questions that we felt appropriate to ask
6 outside the presence of everybody else. So be
7 comfortable and don't be intimidated or anything like
8 that.

9 First of all, I want to know if you have, have heard
10 any facts about this case or have any knowledge about 11 this case or any knowledge of the investigation or 12 anything else in any way related to this case.

13 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: I didn't hear anything
14 about the case until I moved here four years ago, and 15 didn't hear much about it. I did look on the internet
16 and read, but that's been all.

17 THE COURT: And what, what sites did you look
18 at?

19 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Typed in -- let's see.
20 Typed in, I think, Flowers case.

21 THE COURT: I guess --

22 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: It brought up the trial.

23 THE COURT: Is that right?

24 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: And these issues or items that you
26 may have read --

27 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Um-hum.

28 THE COURT: -- did that cause you to form any
29 opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

1 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: No, sir.

2 THE COURT: And whatever you read, will you lay
3 that aside and base your decision only on the evidence
4 that is presented here in court --

5 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: -- and on nothing else?

7 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Now, the jury, if -- first of all,
9 it's a two-phase trial. It only gets to a second phase
10 if the jury finds Mr. Flowers guilty. If he were to be 11 found not guilty, we would not get to a second point in 12 the trial.

13 But if Mr. Flowers were to be found guilty, then we 14 would go into what we call the sentencing phase where the 15 jury would decide the appropriate sentence. The State is 16 seeking the death penalty in this case. If the jury did
17 not feel the death penalty appropriate, then the sentence
18 would be life without parole.

19 So I want to know if the facts justified it and the 20 law allowed it, could you consider the imposition of the 21 death penalty if you felt the facts appropriate and the 22 law allowed it?

23 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: And could you also leave open life
25 without parole if you felt like the death penalty was not
26 appropriate?

27 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, sir.

28 THE COURT: And so you would have an open mind
29 as to both sentencing options available; is that correct?

1 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And have you got any prefixed idea
3 about which way --

4 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: No.

5 THE COURT: So you would wait and hear the
6 second phase of the trial before you would make any
7 determination.

8 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

11 MRS. STEINER: Good afternoon, Miss O'Quinn.

12 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Hi.

13 MRS. STEINER: His Honor has asked you and you
14 have said you could consider either of the two penalties
15 here. The first question I have is do you understand
16 that His Honor has to ask you these questions and we have
17 to ask these questions not because he believes Mr.
18 Flowers is guilty or we believe Mr. Flowers is guilty.
19 But it's kind of the cart before the horse. Does that -- 20 the fact that we even have to talk about penalty affect 21 how you are looking at the question of guilt or 22 innocence?

23 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: No, ma'am.

24 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Should it get to a --
25 well, let me ask you this first. You said you looked on 26 the internet. When did you do that?

27 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: When I got the letter.

28 MRS. STEINER: When you got the juror summons

29 --

1 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: The juror letter.

2 MRS. STEINER: -- in this case. And did you
3 just do a -- I call them Google searches on Curtis
4 Flowers trial?

5 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, ma'am.

6 MRS. STEINER: All right. And if -- you said
7 you think you can set that aside and hear the evidence.

8 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, ma'am.

9 MRS. STEINER: I don't know what you read. But
10 if what you -- well, maybe, I guess I do need to know.
11 Specifically what, what did you read about this?

12 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: This? About what was on
13 it?

14 MRS. STEINER: On the internet.

15 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: It just told about four 16 people being murdered and about there was -- it is about 17 slight gun residue on the hands and the clothes and about 18 a bloody shoe print or tennis shoe.

19 MRS. STEINER: All right.

20 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: And it really didn't go
21 into much more.

22 MRS. STEINER: Okay. And if the evidence that
23 comes before you is inconsistent with what you have read
24 in -- on the internet about this --

25 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Um-hum.

26 MRS. STEINER: -- is the fact that you heard
27 something -- you might not hear about these things in 28 this courtroom even.

29 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Um-hum.

1 MRS. STEINER: Would that affect you in any
2 way, the fact that you knew --

3 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: No, ma'am.

4 MRS. STEINER: -- you heard about a piece of 5 evidence that didn't come in --

6 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: No, ma'am.

7 MRS. STEINER: -- or that did?

8 All right. And did you -- have you talked with 9 anybody about what you found on the internet?

10 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: No. No, I haven't.

11 MRS. STEINER: And you said -- how long ago was 12 it you said you came back here?

13 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Oh, it's -- we lived in 14 Ripley, Mississippi. And my husband came here to run the 15 Piggly Wiggly store. And they shut it down.

16 MRS. STEINER: And that was when?

17 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: That's been four years
18 ago.

19 MRS. STEINER: Four years ago.

20 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: That I moved here. He 21 had been here earlier.

22 MRS. STEINER: All right. So you were a
23 resident here the last time there was a trial. Did you
24 read --

25 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: No, ma'am.

26 MRS. STEINER: -- about that?

27 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: When was the last trial?

28 MRS. STEINER: October 2000-and -- September of 29 2008.

1 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: '08. Yes, ma'am.

2 MRS. STEINER: All right. And you didn't --

3 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Montgomery County.

4 MRS. STEINER: -- read anything in connection
5 with that trial?

6 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: I haven't even heard
7 anything about it.

8 MRS. STEINER: And you did not get a letter
9 from the judge inviting you to be a juror --

10 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, ma'am.

11 MRS. STEINER: -- during that trial?

12 Now, again, we are going to take this card and put 13 it before the horse. His Honor has explained to you that 14 there are two different sentences - life without parole
15 and the death penalty.

16 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, ma'am.

17 MRS. STEINER: And you said you can consider
18 both.

19 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, ma'am.

20 MRS. STEINER: Do you consider both to be 21 punitive sentences?

22 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Well, sometimes I think
23 life in prison without parole is sometimes worse than the 24 death, because they have got the rest of their lives to 25 think about what they have done, you know.

26 MRS. STEINER: If -- I mean -- and what the 27 State puts on -- just finding him guilty, that's not 28 enough. The State is going to have to have evidence that 29 means you have to find that there is something

1           aggravating, a circumstance, and it's going to have to be
2           beyond a reasonable doubt and you and your fellow jurors
3           are all going to have to agree --

4                   JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN:  Um-hum.

5                   MRS. STEINER:  -- whether or not that exists.
6           Do you understand that?

7                   JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN:  Yes, ma'am.

8                   MRS. STEINER:  And can you do that?

9                   JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN:  Yes, ma'am.

10                  MRS. STEINER:  Now, after that there will also
11           be testimony that goes to -- the term is mitigation.  It
12           might be testimony we put on or even that comes in by 13           witnesses called by the State that suggest reasons that 14           the death penalty isn't the appropriate punishment.

15                  JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN:  Um-hum.

16                  MRS. STEINER:  Now, do you understand with 17           respect to that evidence, that you're able to consider --
18           you don't have to agree with anybody other than yourself
19           --

20                  JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN:  Um-hum.

21                  MRS. STEINER:  -- about whether a piece of 22           evidence is mitigating.  Do you understand that?

23                  JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN:  Yes, ma'am.

24                  MRS. STEINER:  And do you understand that it's 25           up to you personally?  His Honor will instruct you, you
26           should weigh the mitigating evidence against the 27           aggravating evidence.  And that on the aggravating
28           evidence, you have to decide for -- with the rest of the 29           jurors.  All 12 of you have to agree.  But on the

1 mitigation, do you understand you can decide that of your
2 own accord?

3 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, ma'am.

4 MRS. STEINER: And do you understand that this
5 can be anything that suggests a death sentence might be
6 inappropriate or the less appropriate or that a death
7 sentence might not be certainly in your mind the best
8 sentence under the circumstances? You understand that?

9 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, ma'am.

10 MRS. STEINER: You understand that if you come
11 to make this decision, you will be in a position you have 12 found him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. You know,
13 you know, he didn't do it in self-defense. He didn't do
14 it because he was insane. You just decided he was
15 guilty.

16 And at that point is there anything that is going to 17 change? Is there -- are you going to really be able to 18 listen to reasons why he shouldn't get the death penalty?

19 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Yes, ma'am.

20 MRS. STEINER: All right. Appreciate that.

21 And then I have one question. I know it kind of got 22 tedious when y'all weren't being questioned. Some of 23 y'all were chatting among yourselves.

24 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Um-hum.

25 MRS. STEINER: We were chatting among 26 ourselves. I think the lady sitting next to you, Miss
27 Johnson, Number 4, at one point she -- I think she talked 28 about knowing the family. And she said she thought she 29 could be fair. She thought she could be fair. And then

1 finally someone asked her a question. She said, you
2 know, I really don't think I can be fair.

3 Do you recall that?

4 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Um-hum.

5 MRS. STEINER: I think -- I don't know if you
6 were bored or this was a joke or you were being serious.
7 Did you sort of look at her and say you shouldn't say
8 that, you are not supposed to say that? Do you recall
9 having that --

10 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: I don't remember saying
11 that.

12 MRS. STEINER: Do you recall that comment in 13 passing?

14 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Huh-huh.

15 MRS. STEINER: Do you feel that way? Do you
16 feel it was inappropriate if a juror who felt he or she 17 couldn't be fair to tell the Court that?

18 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: I don't...

19 MRS. STEINER: Did you understand my question?

20 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Was she talking about
21 being fair as far as judging?

22 MRS. STEINER: Judging. I think she -- I think
23 my notes show --

24 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: A lot of them said they
25 couldn't judge.

26 MRS. STEINER: No. This lady -- she was 27 sitting right to your left. And she had -- I think she 28 had various kin who were -- she knew.

29 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Law enforcement. Aunt.

1       Yeah.

2               MRS. STEINER:  -- several people in Miss
3       Tardy's family.  And I really -- and I think at one
4       point -- I mean she said a couple of times, yeah, I can
5       be fair.  I could set it aside.  And then I think when we
6       were talking about Miss Tardy she said, you know, it
7       would be difficult.  I don't think I could be fair.  And,
8       and the judge issued -- she didn't come back today.  She 9       was excused.  Do you feel it was inappropriate of her to 10      be forthright or to admit that she might have personal
11      feelings?

12             MR. HILL:  Your Honor, I, I'm sorry to 13      interrupt counsel.  But I object, because I believe this,
14      this attorney is asking this juror if she thought what 15      another juror did was -- or a comment another juror made
16      was appropriate.  And I'm not sure we even have for 17      certain that we know what the comment was and that this 18      juror heard it.  And even if she did, I don't know that
19      her comment about whether she thought it was appropriate
20      or not is relevant to this particular juror's
21      understanding of what's -- the purpose we are being here
22      for --

23             MRS. STEINER:  I just --

24             MR. HILL:  -- during individual voir dire.

25             MRS. STEINER:  I am just trying to explore
26      this, Your Honor.

27             JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN:  I don't remember.  I have
28      just heard a lot of people saying they couldn't judge
29      today.  So I can't remember the one specific person.

1 MRS. STEINER: And do you have a problem with
2 the fact that if you are selected to serve on this jury
3 that those people aren't going to be sitting there with
4 you?

5 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: Right.

6 MRS. STEINER: Because they have been excused.
7 Do you have a problem with that?

8 JUROR SUSAN O'QUINN: No.

9 MRS. STEINER: Okay.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Miss O'Quinn, you may step
11 down.

12 If you'll get Juror Number 5.

13 I'll ask both counsel when after I ask a question, I
14 don't want you to get up and ask the same thing that I
15 have asked again. Restrict your questions to things that 16 have not been brought up by me.

17 (JUROR NUMBER 5, CAROL GRIFFIN, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

18 If you will come forward, Miss Griffin.

19 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

20 Miss Griffin, we are asking everybody on the panel a
21 few questions outside the presence of the other jurors.

22 You have lived here, I guess, most of your life.

23 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Since 1970.

24 THE COURT: And I want to know -- I am sure you
25 heard about the case. So I'd kind of want to know what 26 you might have heard about this case.

27 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I would say anything that 28 has been out there publicity-wise I have heard it and 29 talk, as well, naturally.

1 THE COURT: Is that like through newspapers,
2 radios?

3 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Of course.

4 THE COURT: Conversations at church and just
5 among friends.

6 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I don't think I ever
7 heard anything at church.

8 THE COURT: And do you remember anything
9 specific that you might have read or heard about the
10 case?

11 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: The details of what was 12 printed. I, I would think everybody in Montgomery County
13 has.

14 THE COURT: And you have read some details
15 about -- do you remember any specific details that you
16 might have read?

17 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I do. I do remember
18 specific details.

19 THE COURT: What? What about like --

20 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Such like who was 21 arrested. There was a picture in the Winona Times of the 22 inside of Tardy's, details of the scene, anything along
23 that line.

24 THE COURT: And has, has what you read or heard
25 caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt or
26 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

27 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Well, the fact that there
28 has been so many trials, of course, I would.

29 THE COURT: You are aware of the prior trials.

1 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Of course.

2 THE COURT: But has that caused you to form an
3 opinion as to his guilt or innocence?

4 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Well, I know that at this
5 trial we are supposed to look at just the evidence on 6 this trial. But since he was tried, I would say yes. To 7 some extent, I would say yes, honestly.

8 THE COURT: And you have --

9 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Honestly.

10 THE COURT: Well, that is what I want. And 11 could you lay that opinion aside and base your decision
12 only on the evidence presented here in court and on 13 nothing that you have read or heard or seen previously?

14 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I could do that. But I
15 have also mentioned to you, of course, that I'm a little 16 -- mostly involved with...

17 THE COURT: I was going to get into that next.
18 But would you, if you were selected, lay all these things
19 aside and base your decision only on the evidence?

20 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I would.

21 THE COURT: And you indicated you had Miss
22 Nowell --

23 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Janette Nowell.

24 THE COURT: How were you and Miss Nowell
25 related?

26 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Janette's father and my
27 father were first cousins.

28 THE COURT: So she was, I guess, second cousin,
29 maybe. And I believe you said already that that would

1 cause you to automatically have sympathy towards the
2 victims' family because of that; is that correct?

3 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I did some soul searching
4 after that question was asked. And seeing what my
5 parents went through and seeing what victim's families go
6 through, I have to honestly say that I, I feel in that
7 direction.

8 THE COURT: So are you concerned that you could
9 not be fair and impartial because of that?

10 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: In this case I am
11 concerned.

12 THE COURT: And --

13 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Or I would never have 14 mentioned it.

15 THE COURT: And also, of course, this is a
16 situation where if the jury found Mr. Flowers guilty,
17 found him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt of these
18 murders, then there would be a second phase of the trial.
19 We would not have a second phase unless the first phase
20 found him guilty. If they did, then we would go into a 21 second phase that would be the sentencing phase where the 22 jury would determine the appropriate punishment. The 23 State of Mississippi is seeking the death penalty in this
24 case.

25 What happens is the State puts on aggravating
26 factors. The defense puts on mitigating factors. And 27 then the jury determines whether the death penalty should
28 be imposed. If the jury does not impose the death
29 penalty, then life in prison is the sentence that, that

1 results from a capital murder conviction.

2 If the facts justified it and the law allowed it,
3 could you consider the death penalty as a sentencing
4 option?

5 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I could not because of my
6 own lifestyle.

7 THE COURT: So you have got religious or
8 personal views where just you could not even consider
9 that.

10 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Well, I am sure this is 11 not anything to anyone else, but I have been a really
12 good vegetarian for 38 years. And I have a hard time
13 dealing with the death of -- causing the death of 14 animals. I, I, I don't think I could cause the death of 15 a person.

16 THE COURT: So you just -- and I --

17 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I mean that is my -- as I
18 say, it is just my lifestyle.

19 THE COURT: And let me tell you this. Your 20 lifestyle is respected by everybody. We are only wanting 21 your views. And you're entitled to your opinions on 22 anything that you are asked. And so don't feel bad that 23 you are sharing a view that you have, because that is 24 what we are wanting you to do.

25 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: Thank you.

26 THE COURT: And so you do not have to apologize
27 for any view that you might have. But you just, because 28 of that just could not even consider the death penalty;
29 is that correct?

1 JUROR CAROL GRIFFIN: I'm sorry. I can't.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

4 MR. CARTER: You got any?

5 MRS. STEINER: No questions, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Miss Griffin, you may step
7 down. Thank you.

8 Number 6. Mr. Trotter.

9 (JUROR NUMBER 6, GLENN TROTTER, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

10 If you will come forward and have a seat up here,
11 Mr. Trotter, and we will ask you a few questions.

12 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

13 THE COURT: I want to first clear up, because I
14 wasn't sure after we had asked questions of everyone. At 15 one point you said being friends with Priscilla Ward -- I
16 believe that is Mr. Flowers' sister.

17 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: You are friends of his family and 19 very close with them.

20 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: And did I understand you to say
22 that because of that, that would affect you as a juror
23 and you could not be a fair and impartial juror because 24 of that?

25 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

26 THE COURT: So would that relationship with his 27 family come into play where you just could not listen to 28 the facts but would have that family connection with him
29 override your ability to be fair and impartial?

1 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And knowledge about the case, have
3 you heard anything about this case or have any knowledge
4 at all about this case?

5 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No, sir.

6 THE COURT: Did you hear about it at the time
7 that it occurred or read about it in the newspaper or see
8 it in t.v. or anything?

9 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: At the time it happened,
10 I heard about, you know.

11 THE COURT: And have you heard about it or seen
12 mention of it since?

13 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No, sir.

14 THE COURT: And could you lay aside anything
15 that you might have heard and base your decision strictly 16 on the evidence that is presented here in court?

17 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir, I probably 18 could.

19 THE COURT: And the State is seeking -- well,
20 well, let me explain this. First of all, if you were as 21 a juror, you would decide the guilt or innocence of Mr.
22 Flowers. If the jury found him guilty beyond a
23 reasonable doubt, then there would be a second phase. We 24 would only have the second phase if the jury found him
25 guilty in the first phase.

26 And if the jury found him guilty in the first phase,
27 then the State would put on proof that would show
28 reasons, called aggravations, why they think he should 29 receive the death penalty. And then Mr. Flowers would

1 put on mitigation that would show in his opinion why the
2 death penalty should not be imposed, where it would not
3 be appropriate.

4 If you were sitting on the jury could you consider
5 the death penalty as a sentencing option? You would not
6 have to commit to that, but could you consider that as a
7 sentencing possibility?

8 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Could I consider it?

9 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

10 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No, sir. I really can't.

11 THE COURT: So you just could not even consider
12 that as a sentencing option.

13 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Right. Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: You understand you would not be 15 committing to do it.

16 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Right.

17 THE COURT: It would be that -- but you are 18 saying you could not even listen to the facts because you
19 would know before you even heard anything at that phase
20 that you could not under any circumstances --

21 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: -- impose the death penalty.

23 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: That's right.

24 THE COURT: And you understand now he would get
25 life in prison without parole if he did not get the death
26 penalty. But you would automatically just say you could 27 not even consider that death penalty.

28 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No, sir, I couldn't
29 consider it.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Okay. Thank you.

3 Any questions?

4 MR. EVANS: No, sir.

5 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

6 Mr. Trotter.

7 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Um-hum.

8 MR. CARTER: This court process is stressful
9 and pressurized, would you say?

10 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir.

11 MR. CARTER: And you haven't done this before,
12 have you?

13 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No, I haven't.

14 MR. CARTER: Let me ask you some more, more
15 objective questions. You understand that -- you may not 16 understand, but I think the judge said it. It's almost 17 like two trials. There is a first phase and a second
18 phase. Do you understand that?

19 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes. Yes, sir.

20 MR. CARTER: First phase. And only if he is 21 found guilty, you get to the second phase.

22 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Right.

23 MR. CARTER: And if you got to the second
24 phase -- and you told us earlier that while you know
25 somebody in the Flowers family and you like them, by the 26 same token, you don't dislike the Tardys or the Stewarts
27 or the Goldens --

28 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No.

29 MR. CARTER: -- or the Rigbys. You don't have

1 any reason to dislike them, do you?

2 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No reason.

3 MR. CARTER: You don't have any reason to be
4 biased toward them.

5 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No reason. Right.

6 MR. CARTER: Okay. If you got picked as a
7 juror -- and also, didn't you hear other people who said
8 that they knew the Tardys and the Stewarts and were close
9 to them or friends and went to church with them or a
10 whole host of things? Did you hear that?

11 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes. Yes, sir.

12 MR. CARTER: And you also heard them say they 13 could be fair to Mr. Flowers, didn't you?

14 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Right.

15 MR. CARTER: And, and since -- do you consider
16 yourself a reasonable and fair man?

17 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir, I do.

18 MR. CARTER: And therefore, if you got picked 19 as a juror, you wouldn't automatically vote against the 20 Tardys or the Rigbys or the Stewarts or the Goldens,
21 would you?

22 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: No, sir, I wouldn't.

23 MR. CARTER: You would be fair. You would make
24 a decision based on the evidence, wouldn't you?

25 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Exactly.

26 MR. CARTER: And if you found Mr. Flowers
27 guilty, and you got to the second phase, you wouldn't 28 automatically -- strike that. If you got to the second
29 phase, you still would try to be fair to both Mr. Flowers

1 and the Rigbys, the Goldens, the Tardys --

2 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir.

3 MR. CARTER: -- the Stewarts. And you would
4 also go back there and deliberate with your fellow jurors
5 and discuss the case with them, wouldn't you?

6 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Oh, yes, sir.

7 MR. CARTER: If that is what you are told you
8 are supposed to do.

9 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir. Right.

10 MR. CARTER: And as a result of that, if you
11 were told -- if you got picked and you were told to go
12 back there and deliberate -- and I want you to understand
13 that nobody can tell you how to vote. It's totally your 14 decision as to how you vote.

15 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yeah.

16 MR. CARTER: Based on your conscience, your
17 moral conscience and your make-up.

18 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Exactly.

19 MR. CARTER: It's your decision and not anybody
20 else's.

21 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Um-hum.

22 MR. CARTER: Can you tell us that if you got to 23 the second phase that you would sit back there and could 24 you sit back there, listen to the evidence and consider,
25 consider the appropriate punishment based on the facts,
26 whether that is life without possibility of parole -- do
27 you consider life without possibility of parole to be a
28 real punishment, which means you go to jail, you'd never 29 ever get out?

1 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir, I would say.

2 MR. CARTER: You call that a punishment. A
3 very strong punishment, isn't it?

4 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Strong. Right.

5 MR. CARTER: And if you had those two options,
6 could you consider both of them and then vote whatever
7 your will is according to your, your moral conscience and 8 your make up?

9 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Right. Yes, sir.

10 MR. CARTER: And after I asked you those
11 questions, is it fair to say that you understand better
12 now what you are being asked to do?

13 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir.

14 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

15 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: So are you saying now -- you told 17 me just about five minutes ago that you would not
18 consider the death penalty and that you could not
19 consider that under any circumstances.

20 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Right. Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: So are you saying now that you
22 could consider that as a sentencing option?

23 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Only based on the
24 evidence.

25 THE COURT: Well, what I'm saying is if the 26 facts supported the death penalty and that was a
27 sentencing option available, could you vote for the death
28 penalty if that was a sentence that you felt was 29 appropriate?

1 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: If it was appropriate.

2 THE COURT: So you can vote for the death
3 penalty if you felt it was appropriate.

4 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Right. Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: And back on this issue. Are you
6 now saying that the fact that you know Miss Ward and 7 friends of the family that would not affect you in being
8 a fair and impartial juror?

9 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Well, yes, it would.

10 THE COURT: It would.

11 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: It would. Right.

12 THE COURT: So you are saying you could not be 13 fair and impartial because you would have family ties or 14 friendships and connections with them; is that correct?

15 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: I would still, you know, 18 see them.

19 THE COURT: You would still favor his side
20 because you know the family and, and have those ties; is
21 that correct?

22 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. You may step
24 down.

25 JUROR GLENN TROTTER: Okay.

26 THE COURT: If you will get Mr. Robinson in 27 next. Number 8.

28 (JUROR NUMBER 8, ALEXANDER ROBINSON, JR., ENTERED THE
29 COURTROOM.)

1 THE COURT: If you will come forward, Mr.
2 Robinson.

3 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

4 Mr. Robinson, what we are doing now is asking
5 questions of each juror out -- without them being --
6 having to speak out in front of everyone.

7 And I was first wanting to know if you have heard
8 about this case, know anything about the investigation of 9 the case or have any knowledge at all about this case?

10 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I have heard it
11 through t.v.

12 THE COURT: Heard about it through t.v.

13 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Through t.v.

14 THE COURT: And read any newspaper or radio --
15 or heard radio, read internet things.

16 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Probably on radio
17 too.

18 THE COURT: T.V. and radio. Any other forms of 19 communication?

20 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Well, I've seen it
21 through Winona Times.

22 THE COURT: You've read it --

23 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I've seen it in 24 Winona Times.

25 THE COURT: The Winona Times.

26 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Right.

27 THE COURT: And can you remember anything that 28 you might have read about the case?

29 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I guess mostly

1           whether they was going to retry it, retry it.

2           THE COURT: About having another trial?

3           JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Right, sir.

4           THE COURT: And any other -- do you remember
5 any particular facts you might have read?

6           JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: No, sir.

7           THE COURT: And has anything you read, seen or 8 heard caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt or
9 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

10          JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: No, sir, it hasn't.

11          THE COURT: And would you lay anything you see 12 -- saw, heard or read and base your decision only on the 13 evidence as presented here in court and on nothing else?

14          JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Only on the
15 evidence.

16          THE COURT: Okay. Now, the next question I've 17 got involves the possible sentence. The first phase of 18 the trial would be whether you, as a juror, would decide
19 Mr. Flowers' guilt or innocence. If he was found guilty,
20 then we would go into a second phase. If he was found
21 not guilty, we would not even go to a second phase.

22          But if he was found guilty, then at that time we 23 would go to the sentencing phase where the State would 24 put on proof, aggravating circumstances, that they
25 believe would necessitate or convince you that Mr.
26 Flowers should receive the death penalty. Then Mr.
27 Flowers would put on proof called mitigating proof that
28 would show why he should not receive the death penalty.
29 The jury would then decide whether he should receive the

1 death penalty. If the facts justified it and the law
2 allowed it, could you consider the death penalty as a
3 sentencing option?

4 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I could.

5 THE COURT: And could you also leave open the 6 life without parole sentencing option? If he was not
7 convicted -- I mean if he was not -- if you did not
8 impose the death penalty, he would get life without 9 parole. So both options would be things that you would 10 keep open and consider; is that correct?

11 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Right, sir.

12 THE COURT: I wanted to ask you one other
13 thing, and I don't want to embarrass you or anything.
14 But I noticed yesterday there was one time when I was 15 trying to get your attention, and I called your name
16 several times before you finally looked up and saw me.

17 Do you have any hearing problems or were you just 18 distracted?

19 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I had this here
20 (held up juror card) turned wrong.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And when I was -- I'm saying
22 but when I was asking you something yesterday, you seemed
23 like for a couple of minutes there -- well, maybe not a
24 couple of minutes, but several times I called your name.
25 And then finally you realized I was trying to get your
26 attention. And I didn't know if you had hearing problems
27 or if you were just distracted momentarily about
28 something.

29 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I don't have hearing

1 problems.

2 THE COURT: Okay. You don't have. Well,
3 that's good. That's all I wanted to know, because I
4 certainly want you to hear everything that is spoken over
5 -- in this courtroom if you are sitting over in that jury
6 box.

7 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Right, sir.

8 THE COURT: Anybody got any questions?

9 MR. EVANS: Briefly, Your Honor.

10 Mr. Robinson, how are you doing, sir?

11 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: All right, sir.

12 MR. EVANS: You understand that this will be a
13 two-phase trial. The first phase will be strictly to do
14 with guilt or innocence. And you are saying that you
15 have nothing that would affect your decision at this 16 point one way or the other. You could listen to the 17 evidence and base your decision strictly on the evidence;
18 is that correct?

19 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I could, sir.

20 MR. EVANS: All right. And when we get to the 21 second phase, you understand that in the first phase when 22 you are looking at guilt or innocence you don't even 23 think about what the appropriate penalty would be. The 24 Court will tell you when you can actually start thinking
25 what penalty should be.

26 And when we get to that phase, the State will put on 27 certain things, and the defense will put on certain
28 things. And then you can make up your mind based upon 29 the facts and the law. The judge will tell you what the

1 law is. And you can make up your mind as far as the 2 facts, whether they justify the death penalty or not.

3 Are you telling us that if the -- in this case, if
4 the Court tells you that the law authorizes it and you
5 think the facts justified the death penalty that you
6 could vote for the death penalty?

7 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I could.

8 MR. EVANS: And if you didn't think the facts
9 justified it, you could vote for life.

10 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Right.

11 MR. EVANS: In other words, you could vote for 12 either choice depending on what the facts were.

13 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I could.

14 MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

15 MRS. STEINER: Good afternoon, Mr. Robinson.

16 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Good afternoon.

17 MRS. STEINER: I believe --

18 MR. CARTER: Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: We will take about a five-minute
20 recess. Mr. Flowers, I think, has medication he needs to 21 take.

22 (A BREAK WAS TAKEN.)

23 (MR. EVANS, MR. HILL, MR. HOWIE, MRS. STEINER, MR. CARTER
24 AND THE DEFENDANT WERE PRESENT IN THE COURTROOM. PROCEEDINGS
25 CONTINUED AS FOLLOWS:)

26 THE COURT: Mr. Evans, were you through asking
27 Mr. Robinson --

28 MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

29 THE COURT: I could not remember at what point

1 we had stopped.

2 So you may proceed, Mrs. Steiner.

3 MRS. STEINER: Yes.

4 Mr. Robinson, His Honor talked to you about
5 aggravation and mitigation as being two kinds of evidence
6 that you might hear if it reaches the point where you are
7 going to have to consider sentence.

8 Do you remember that?

9 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Right.

10 MRS. STEINER: And let me ask you this. Do
11 understand that the fact that the judge is or I'm asking
12 you about sentence before we -- a jury has even made a
13 decision on guilt or innocence, it doesn't mean we think
14 he is going to be found guilty or that there is any 15 difference with any other case? It is just we have to 16 put the cart before the horse. Does that bother you?

17 Are you able to understand that when we talk about 18 sentences, it is not because we have already decided he 19 is guilty.

20 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Right. Right.

21 MRS. STEINER: Okay. And, and when His
22 Honor -- the State will put on evidence in aggravation,
23 which will be -- it may be related to the crime of 24 conviction but they will have to at least point to 25 something in addition to merely being guilty of capital
26 murder.

27 Do you understand the State has the obligation that 28 there be in the evidence something in addition to just 29 being found guilty of capital murder in order to even ask

1 a jury to get the death penalty? Do you understand that?

2 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I understand.

3 MRS. STEINER: And do you understand that if,
4 if the death penalty is even to be considered further,
5 all 12 of you deliberating, if you serve on this jury,
6 would have to agree that that aggravating circumstance
7 existed and His Honor will explain to you what those are?

8 Can you follow the law about what the aggravating
9 circumstances are?

10 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I could.

11 MRS. STEINER: All right. Now, what the 12 defendant will put on is evidence called mitigation. And 13 that means anything the defendant might choose to put on 14 through his own witnesses or through maybe even witnesses
15 the State calls that suggest that the penalty of life in 16 prison without parole would be a better sentence or that 17 the death penalty would not be the best sentence. Do you
18 understand that that's a different kind of evidence than 19 aggravation?

20 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: Yes.

21 MRS. STEINER: All right. And do you
22 understand that you can -- that unlike with the evidence
23 of aggravation, that's for you to decide, whether you
24 find it mitigating. You can take any piece of evidence
25 and you can decide for yourself. No one has to agree
26 with you. Can you do that?

27 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I can do that.

28 MRS. STEINER: Do you understand that your 29 sentence, your vote -- in anything your vote is your

1 vote? But that when you are considering sentence,
2 whether life without parole or the death penalty, that is
3 your moral judgment based on what His Honor has 4 instructed you and what evidence the State has put on in
5 aggravation and the defense has put on in mitigation.

6 Can you tell me you can consider what the -- what 7 the defendant says, what the defense -- evidence the 8 defendant puts on with the same fairness as you can
9 consider the evidence the State puts on?

10 JUROR ALEXANDER ROBINSON: I can.

11 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Thank you.

12 That was a long question. I apologize.

13 That's all I have, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Robinson, if you will 15 step back out with your other fellow jurors.

16 Number 12.

17 (JUROR NUMBER 12, JANELLE JOHNSON, ENTERED THE
18 COURTROOM.)

19 THE COURT: If you will have a seat down here,
20 please, Miss Johnson.

21 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

22 Miss Johnson, we are now asking all the jurors a few
23 questions outside the presence of their fellow jurors.

24 I want to know first if you have heard anything about the 25 case, have any knowledge about the case or anything related to
26 the case.

27 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: I did not live here
28 when it was happening. My husband actually lived in 29 Memphis at the time. He is from here. I am not.

1 THE COURT: When did you finally -- when did
2 you move to Winona --

3 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: When I moved here --

4 THE COURT: -- or Montgomery County?

5 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Like November of 2001.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Early 2002.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: I went to work for 10 Sta-Home Health. I am a nurse there. And just when the 11 trials would come up, you can see the Tardy Furniture
12 building from where our office used to be. And they 13 said, you know, they would -- you know, people would talk
14 about, you know, the trials coming up or something like 15 that. And they said well, it happened right there. That 16 is the Tardy Furniture building.

17 THE COURT: And have you read any newspaper or 18 internet articles or listened to any radio, t.v. or 19 internet broadcast?

20 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Over the years, you
21 know, it would be announced on the radio, which I, I
22 listen to satellite radio most of the time now. So I
23 don't ever hear it. But just seeing it on the paper.
24 But I, I didn't know any of them. So I really wasn't
25 that interested, you know. Not saying I wasn't
26 interested, but I just really wasn't --

27 THE COURT: I understand what you are saying.
28 And so have you picked up any knowledge or have any 29 information about this case that would have caused you to

1 form an opinion as to guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

2 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: No. Huh-huh.

3 THE COURT: And would you lay aside whatever
4 you might have heard and base your decision only on the
5 evidence presented here in court?

6 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: And the next question I want to ask
8 relates to possibility of a sentencing phase of the 9 trial. What happens in this type case is if you found
10 Mr. Flowers guilty of capital murder, then there would be
11 a second phase and that phase would determine punishment.
12 There is not a second phase unless he is found guilty.
13 If he was found not guilty, we would not get to the 14 second phase.

15 But if he were to be found guilty, then at that
16 point we would have a sentencing phase of the hearing.
17 The State would put on proof, aggravating proof, showing
18 reasons why they believed he should receive the death
19 penalty. Mr. Flowers would put on mitigating proof that 20 would show why he should not get the death penalty.

21 But the jury would decide whether he received the 22 death penalty based on the facts presented and the law.
23 And so if the law allowed it and you felt the facts
24 justified it, could you consider the death penalty as a
25 sentencing option?

26 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: I'd consider it if it
27 was more than a reasonable doubt in my mind.

28 THE COURT: Well, you would have to find beyond
29 a reasonable doubt that the death penalty was

1 appropriate, and you would have to find beyond a
2 reasonable doubt that he was guilty before we would even
3 get to that second phase.

4 So what I'm asking is in the second phase would that
5 be an option that you could consider.

6 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: If it was above beyond
7 a reasonable doubt, I could sentence somebody to death.
8 But not if there -- not if it was just reasonable -- I'm
9 not making myself clear. I would have to be positive.
10 There wouldn't be any doubt in my mind before I could
11 sentence somebody to death.

12 THE COURT: But that would be a option that you
13 would consider.

14 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes.

15 THE COURT: You know, if the -- and that is 16 what I'm saying. If the facts justified it --

17 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: -- and the law allowed it --

19 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: -- would that be a sentencing
21 option that you could consider?

22 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes. At that point.

23 THE COURT: And also, if he is -- if the jury
24 found that the death penalty was not an appropriate
25 sentence, then life in prison would be the sentence. And 26 so it would be an automatic life-in-prison sentence if 27 the jury did not sentence him to death. But you would -- 28 would you leave open the idea of him being sentenced to 29 life in prison, as well, if, again, he was convicted in

1 the first phase?

2 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. That is all I need to ask
4 you.

5 And the lawyers might have a couple of questions.

6 MR. EVANS: Miss Johnson, now, I think you are 7 saying that you would come in with an open mind, base any
8 decision of guilt or innocence strictly on what you hear
9 and see in the courtroom; is that right?

10 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

11 MR. EVANS: With no outside influences.

12 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

13 MR. EVANS: As far as the death penalty, you
14 understand that this is a two-part trial. The first 15 phase of the trial deals only with one thing - guilt or 16 innocence. And none of the jurors are to even consider
17 what the appropriate penalty should be until the judge
18 tells them to. And that will be after the first phase.

19 If the jury finds that the defendant is guilty
20 beyond a reasonable doubt and convicts him of capital
21 murder, then we will go into a second phase. And in that 22 phase the State will put on what are called aggravators.
23 They are reasons that we feel that the defendant would
24 justify death. The jury will hear those. Once we do
25 that, the defense can put on what is called mitigators.
26 That's reasons why they want to show that a life sentence
27 would be appropriate.

28 And the Court will tell you that if those mitigators
29 outweigh -- if those mitigators do not outweigh the

1           aggravating factors, then the death penalty can be given.
2           And it will be up to the jury to determine what sentence.

3           But I guess I say all that to ask you this one
4           question. Could you fairly consider both penalties and 5           if the facts justified it and the law allowed it, give 6           the death penalty if, if it was justified?

7           JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: If the facts were
8           there. Yes, I could.

9           MR. EVANS: All right. And the opposite of 10          that, if you did not feel that the facts were there,
11          would you, in fact, give a life sentence then?

12          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: If the facts were not
13          there?

14          MR. EVANS: Right. If you -- if you didn't
15          feel like the aggravators justified the death penalty.

16          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: No, I would not.

17          MR. EVANS: Okay. Nothing further, Your Honor.

18          MRS. STEINER: Good afternoon, Miss Johnson. I
19          believe in response to His Honor's questions about what 20          you heard after you moved here, people at your -- home
21          health where you worked --

22          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Um-hum.

23          MRS. STEINER: -- you were just in view of -- I
24          think it is still even today as Tardy Furniture.

25          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: We are not there now
26          but our previous office was cornered to it.

27          MRS. STEINER: But you overlooked it.

28          JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Um-hum.

29          MRS. STEINER: Did anybody talk about any of

1 the specific facts or their views on the guilt or
2 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

3 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: They mentioned the
4 names that -- you know, of course, everybody knows the 5 names. I mean you don't have to live here long just to 6 hear the names. I didn't know them, but they just 7 mentioned that it had happened, that they were -- they
8 had said so many times we can't believe we never heard
9 anything. You know, you know, because there were several 10 people within the office working, nurses, you know, just 11 in and out of the office and then office personnel. And 12 they, they just mentioned -- you know, they are just in 13 awe that nobody ever heard anything.

14 MRS. STEINER: Now, that -- if that fact
15 doesn't come out at the trial or a contrary fact comes
16 out at the trial, would you be able to set aside what you
17 heard outside the courtroom and consider only the 18 evidence at trial?

19 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes, ma'am.

20 MRS. STEINER: All right. And were you
21 actually a visiting nurse? Did you visit in peoples'
22 homes?

23 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Um-hum.

24 MRS. STEINER: Take care --

25 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: I have. I am a field
26 staff supervisor now. So I'm not in the field often.
27 But yes, ma'am, I did.

28 MRS. STEINER: But since you moved here --

29 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Um-hum.

1 MRS. STEINER: -- in 2001. And was it ever a
2 subject of discussion in the households where you
3 visited?

4 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Never. Huh-huh.

5 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Thank you.

6 Now, His Honor and Mr. Evans have each explained,
7 you know, we are putting the cart a little bit before the
8 horse here. His Honor -- just because I ask you about a
9 penalty or His Honor asks you about penalty doesn't mean
10 we are assuming that Mr. Flowers is guilty or will be 11 found guilty. You understand that?

12 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Um-hum.

13 MRS. STEINER: And you are comfortable talking
14 about it. And if you were selected as a juror, you won't 15 make a decision on whether or not Mr. Flowers is guilty
16 or not guilty until --

17 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: I was raised by a
18 police officer, which I've already told that, retired
19 from New Orleans. I was raised to believe in what I
20 believe in, right from wrong, myself. So I don't have 21 any problem with listening.

22 MRS. STEINER: And as His Honor and Mr. Evans
23 explained, the evidence that would come in in a penalty
24 phase, the State would put on evidence in addition to 25 being guilty beyond a reasonable doubt or that they would 26 have to -- the judge will instruct and the State will 27 have to point out things that beyond being guilty beyond
28 a reasonable doubt.

29 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Um-hum.

1 MRS. STEINER: That you must conclude and you
2 must join with all your fellow jurors beyond a reasonable
3 doubt to conclude that fact exists. Are you comfortable
4 with that?

5 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Yes.

6 MRS. STEINER: And then the mitigation evidence
7 can be anything that comes into evidence from witnesses
8 called by Mr. Flowers. It could be -- come out of the 9 mouths of other witnesses, who may be called by the 10 State. It's anything that might be taken into account by 11 you personally and morally - I think you used that 12 word -- that would make you feel that whatever -- even if 13 you found aggravating circumstances, that you personally,
14 morally felt the mitigation was out-weighted or was made
15 a life sentence the proper sentence and, and that's your 16 decision individually.

17 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Um-hum.

18 MRS. STEINER: Do you feel comfortable taking 19 that on yourself?

20 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Oh, yes.

21 MRS. STEINER: And I think, you know, as His 22 Honor pointed out, at the point at which you would be
23 considering sentence, Mr. Flowers would have been found
24 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and you feel comfortable
25 with that; is that correct?

26 JUROR JANELLE JOHNSON: Um-hum.

27 MRS. STEINER: I have nothing further, Your
28 Honor.

29 THE COURT: You may step down and return with

1 your fellow jurors.

2 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I've been told that --

3 THE COURT: Well, let her get out, unless there
4 is something that needs to be said in her presence.

5 MR. CARTER: I don't want to say it in her
6 presence.

7 (THE JUROR LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

8 MR. CARTER: One of my persons standing outside
9 watching is saying that after jurors come in and testify
10 individually they are going out and talking to other 11 people. Can we --

12 THE COURT: Yeah. We'll just resolve that. We 13 will just bring them in a group. We will do group voir
14 dire and that will avoid any problems there.

15 MR. CARTER: Just for the record, Your Honor, 16 can we say when you go back out don't go back out and 17 discuss the testimony?

18 THE COURT: I think I'd just prefer to just 19 have them in here as a group and they can hear all the 20 questions that way.

21 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, we are not objecting.
22 We want individual voir dire.

23 THE COURT: Well, both of you are continuing to 24 repeat the very same questions that I've asked, and then
25 you repeat them several different times. And there is no
26 point in the length of time either side is taking. Out
27 of -- so far we have gotten one, two, three, four, five,
28 six, seven. And nobody has changed -- after I asked them
29 questions, nobody so far as changed from what I

1 originally asked.

2 And so I am going to from now on I will put -- I am
3 either going to put an extreme time limit on the 4 questions that both of you can ask each juror or we are
5 going to do it -- or we are going to do it as a group,
6 because y'all are -- and I'm not singling out one side
7 over the other either. I am saying this to both sides.
8 We are getting repetitive in our questions. We are
9 getting repetitive to the questions the Court has asked,
10 and there is no point in doing that.

11 So now, you know, I will try a couple more jurors
12 and then if both of you continue what I'm asking you not 13 to do, then to speed the process up we are going to bring 14 everybody in here and ask them questions as a group. And 15 for now I will admonish everybody once they are asked
16 something not to go out and discuss it with anybody else.

17 MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: I was thinking the original
19 statement that I made not to discuss the case with anyone
20 or among themselves would, would still be in effect. But 21 in the event it is not, I will admonish each one from now
22 on.

23 If you will get Number 14.

24 (JUROR NUMBER 14, CAROLYN WRIGHT, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

25 Miss Wright, if you will, come down here. There is 26 just a couple of questions to ask you.

27 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

28 Miss Wright, the purpose of doing this is just to 29 get answers from each individual juror instead of having

1           them to speak out in front everybody because -- anyway,
2           that is the purpose.

3           And I first want to know if you have any knowledge
4           about this case, heard anything about the facts of the 5           case or, you know, discussed it or heard it discussed,
6           read about it in the newspaper, seen it on t.v.,
7           newspapers, internet or anywhere else.

8           JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes. Yeah.

9           THE COURT: And can you tell us how you heard
10          about the case?

11          JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: T.V. Newspaper.

12          THE COURT: Can you speak --

13          JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: T.V. Newspaper.

14          THE COURT: And can you recall anything you
15          might have specifically read about the case or anything?

16          JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: About the murders that 17          was taken place at Tardy Furniture company in Winona.

18          THE COURT: And is there anything about what 19          you have seen, heard or read that would have caused you
20          to form any opinions as to the guilt or the innocence of
21          Mr. Flowers?

22          JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir.

23          THE COURT: And would you lay aside anything
24          that you did hear, read or see and base your decision
25          only on the evidence that is presented here in open
26          court?

27          JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

28          THE COURT: And the next issue, Miss Wright, is 29          if the jury after the first -- what happens in this type

1 case is there is two phases of a trial, possibly two.

2 First, you decide the guilt or innocence of Mr.
3 Flowers. If he is found not guilty, we do not go into a
4 second phase. But if he were to be found guilty, then we 5 would go to a second phase and that would decide the 6 appropriate punishment that the jury felt he should 7 receive.

8 The State of Mississippi will be seeking the death
9 penalty. They will be putting on aggravating facts that 10 would show the jury why they think he should receive the 11 death penalty. The defense would put on mitigation
12 witnesses. That would be witnesses to show why or proof
13 that would show why they think he should not receive the
14 death penalty.

15 The jury then would make that determination. If the 16 jury did not return a penalty -- death penalty, then the 17 sentence would be life without parole. So I want to 18 know, first of all, could you consider the death penalty
19 as a sentencing option if you were deliberating at the 20 second phase of the trial?

21 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: And so you could consider that.

23 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: That does not mean you are
25 committing to do it. It is just something that you would 26 leave open the possibility of that sentence.

27 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

28 THE COURT: Would you also consider the life
29 without parole?

1 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And so when you were deliberating
3 on the sentence, you would consider the fact that he
4 would get life without parole if he didn't get the death
5 penalty.

6 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: So you would leave both sentencing
8 options open and available; is that correct?

9 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 MR. EVANS: Are you through, Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: I am.

13 MR. EVANS: Miss Wright, I know we have gone
14 over some of this before, but are you telling us the fact
15 that you worked with his father at Wal-Mart, you're 16 cousins with the witness Weems and that you knew that 17 long line of witnesses that I read out earlier.

18 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

19 MR. EVANS: None of that would affect your 20 decision at all.

21 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir. No, sir.

22 MR. EVANS: Okay. And as far as the death
23 penalty, are you telling us that if the law authorized it
24 and the facts justified it you, yourself, could vote for
25 the death penalty?

26 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir, I would.

27 MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

28 MR. CARTER: Miss Wright, I simply want to know
29 if you know what these terms mean, aggravation and

1 mitigation. Do you have any confusion about those?

2 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir.

3 MR. CARTER: Okay. So you are saying that any
4 evidence we put on about Mr. Flowers' background, his
5 character, the nature of the crime, you would consider
6 all of that in making your decision. You wouldn't have
7 any problem with rejecting that or deeming his history
8 before this crime to be insignificant or it doesn't
9 matter.

10 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: No, sir, I wouldn't.

11 MR. CARTER: You would consider everything.

12 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Yes, sir.

13 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Miss Wright, you may step down.

15 And there may be the temptation of some of your other
16 jurors to say oh, what did they ask you or something.
17 Don't talk about what you have discussed in here when you
18 go back out with your fellow jurors, please.

19 JUROR CAROLYN WRIGHT: Okay. Okay.

20 THE COURT: If you will get Number 17.

21 (JUROR NUMBER 17, PAMELA CHESTEEN, ENTERED THE
22 COURTROOM.)

23 And Miss Chesteen, if you will, come forward and 24 have a seat down here.

25 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

26 We are asking a couple of questions of each juror
27 individually now, and I want to know -- and I take it
28 from you saying you've lived here for a while, worked at 29 Bank of Winona, you have probably heard about this case.

1 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Oh, yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And can you tell us how you might
3 have heard about the case, like through newspaper, radio,
4 television, just talk in town?

5 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Well, yeah, I mean I
6 remember the day it happened. I was working at the bank,
7 and I just -- I guess somebody probably called us and
8 told us. I have seen it in the paper and on the radio.
9 Heard people talking about it.

10 THE COURT: So probably about every way a
11 person could communicate with another, you probably at 12 some point heard, you know, through, t.v., radio or 13 newspaper.

14 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: How about internet?

16 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: I have.

17 THE COURT: And has anything that you read
18 caused you to form any opinions about the guilt or
19 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

20 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: No. Well, let me
21 think. I have just read or heard the things that -- you
22 know, the things that they said they had for evidence or 23 some of them.

24 THE COURT: Well, do you understand just
25 because -- and I'm not meaning to be disrespectful of 26 anybody that is in the media here today. But sometimes 27 what you read or hear might not be right.

28 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: I do understand.

29 THE COURT: And I think the media tries to do a

1 good job, but sometimes they don't get things exactly
2 right. And so if you read something in the newspaper at 3 some point in the past, but that proof did not come
4 forward during the trial, would you be thinking of things
5 you read or heard in the past, or would you base your
6 decision only on the evidence that is presented in court?

7 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Honestly, I probably 8 would not remember what I had read, just to be totally 9 honest.

10 THE COURT: Well, so are you saying then that 11 you could and would lay aside anything that you might 12 have read and base your decision only on -- or heard and
13 base your decision only on the evidence presented here
14 and on nothing else?

15 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes. Yes.

16 THE COURT: The next question, the way a
17 capital murder trial works is first a jury decides guilt
18 or innocence. If the jury found Mr. Flowers not guilty,
19 we would not even get to the second phase of a trial.
20 But if the jury found him guilty, then we would get to a
21 second phase, which is called a sentencing phase. At 22 that time the jury would decide whether the death penalty
23 should be imposed. During that sentencing phase, the 24 State of Mississippi would put on proof that they think
25 would justify the imposition of the death penalty. That
26 would be called aggravating circumstances. Mr. Flowers
27 would put on proof of why he believes the death penalty
28 would not be appropriate. That is called mitigating
29 circumstances.

1           And at the conclusion of that proof the jury would
2           decide whether the death penalty should be imposed. If
3           the jury felt that the death penalty should not be
4           imposed, then he would receive an automatic sentence of
5           life in prison without parole.

6           So I want to know first, could you consider the 7           death penalty as a sentencing option if -- in the case?

8           JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes.

9           THE COURT: And if the facts justified it and 10          the law allowed it, could you impose the death penalty?

11          JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes.

12          THE COURT: And if you felt that the facts did
13          not justify the death penalty, could you consider life in 14          prison without parole as an option?

15          JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: If there was not 16          evidence to prove --

17          THE COURT: If you felt like the facts did not
18          justify the death penalty, could you then consider life
19          in prison without parole?

20          JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes.

21          THE COURT: So you would leave both sentencing
22          options open and would make your decision based on the 23          evidence as presented; is that correct?

24          JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes, sir.

25          THE COURT: And again, do you understand we 26          would not even get to the sentencing phase unless he was 27          found guilty in the first phase?

28          JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Right.

29          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

1 MR. EVANS: I just want to go into one area
2 that I don't think the judge went as far as I would like
3 to cover. Excuse me.

4 You understand that in the first phase, the jury
5 should not even consider which sentence would be 6 appropriate, that you would only get to that once we got
7 to the second phase.

8 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Right. Yes, sir.

9 MR. EVANS: Excuse me.

10 That's all, Your Honor.

11 MRS. STEINER: Miss Chesteen, good afternoon.

12 I have to say you hesitated just a moment when His 13 Honor was asking you about whether or not all this 14 information you had received, including being here the 15 day it happened and hearing about it, like as it was 16 going -- right after it happened, you hesitated, I
17 thought, a little bit when the judge asked you about an 18 opinion and whether you had an opinion.

19 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Well, I think it's like 20 you all said earlier. We have -- a lot us have formed an
21 opinion.

22 MRS. STEINER: All right. And are you one of
23 those people?

24 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes. At once I did.

25 MRS. STEINER: All right. And I think you have 26 been very forthright. You have answered a lot of 27 questions when the other people were in the room also.
28 And you, you were saying things, I think, I want to be
29 fair. I hope I can be fair. Has -- you know, now you

1 are here in private. You have had some chance to think.
2 Have -- do you think you can completely set aside that
3 opinion, or would that opinion walk into the jury room
4 with you no matter how hard you tried?

5 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: No. I would have to be 6 totally honest with -- whatever I heard I would have to
7 do, go by that or I wouldn't be able to live with myself.

8 MRS. STEINER: I understand that.

9 THE COURT: You talking about heard in the
10 courtroom?

11 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Right.

12 MRS. STEINER: Now, on -- I believe you said
13 you were actually friends with Miss Ballard.

14 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: In high school we were.

15 MRS. STEINER: In high school. And have you
16 had any contact with her since her mother died in 1996?

17 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Only running into her
18 at a restaurant or something at the school.

19 MRS. STEINER: All right. And have you ever
20 discussed this case with her, what happened to her
21 mother?

22 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Never discussed the 23 case. I possibly may have seen her at some point and 24 told her I was sorry about her mother, but that would be 25 the extent of it. We have not ever discussed it.

26 MRS. STEINER: And I guess, you know, just
27 because you have an opinion, you think you can set it
28 aside. Let me turn to, if you, the next time she walks
29 into your bank, if you have found honestly that the

1 evidence does not support the entry of a guilty verdict,
2 is that going to be a problem for you?

3 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Huh-huh.

4 MRS. STEINER: All right. You could face her.

5 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yeah, I could face her.

6 MRS. STEINER: And now you -- the judge used
7 words aggravation and mitigation. Aggravation being what
8 the State proves that it thinks justify the death
9 penalty, beyond find Mr. Flowers guilty beyond a
10 reasonable doubt. What do you understand mitigation to 11 be from what the judge told you?

12 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't think that is 13 appropriate. The Court will instruct the jury what 14 mitigation is.

15 THE COURT: I agree. And I did tell her
16 already what mitigation was. That is the reason the jury
17 might find the death penalty not appropriate. So you are 18 again getting into issues I have already covered. So if 19 you will move on to things I have not covered.

20 MRS. STEINER: All right.

21 Do you understand that the aggravation, aggravating
22 circumstances, the State has to prove those beyond a
23 reasonable doubt and you, as a juror, have to vote with 24 all 12 of your other colleagues beyond a reasonable doubt 25 to find those aggravating circumstances?

26 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes, ma'am.

27 MRS. STEINER: His Honor is going to instruct 28 you that for mitigation, you do not have to agree with 29 everybody about any particular kind of mitigation or

1           whether it exists or how much it weighs. You understand
2           that.

3                     JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Um-hum.

4                     MRS. STEINER: And you said you, you can close
5           yourself off from your opinion. Can you stand and just 6           make decisions on mitigation even if all 11 other people
7           disagree with you on a point and you think it is 8           mitigating? Can you do that?

9                     JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: I will surely try. I
10          mean I, I will just know what I hear.

11                    MRS. STEINER: Well, you said the evidence.
12          Does, does Mr. Flowers have the burden, in your mind, to 13          prove he is not -- he shouldn't get the death penalty
14          beyond a reasonable doubt?

15                    JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: No.

16                    MRS. STEINER: All right. You could be open to 17          anything, anything that he chose to put on about why he 18          --

19                    MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think she is asking a 20          question that this juror can't answer, because she 21          doesn't know what the Court is going to allow at this
22          point.

23                    THE COURT: I, I think I covered everything
24          when I was questioning her, when I asked her would she 25          consider the aggravating and mitigating circumstances and 26          would she consider both sentencing options.

27                    MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I'm trying to make 28          sure she understands what mitigation is and that she can 29          fully -- that she is not mistaken about what has to be

1 proven about mitigation in light of her statement.

2 THE COURT: Well, I asked her if the facts
3 justified it and the law allowed it. And the law will be 4 explained to her in jury instructions, if she were to be
5 selected.

6 MRS. STEINER: Miss Chesteen, having heard that
7 from the judge, can you give fair consideration to any 8 piece of -- as fair consideration to any piece of 9 evidence the defense puts on in mitigation of the case,
10 as you can to any piece of evidence the State puts on in
11 aggravation?

12 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: As long as I can see
13 that any of it is the truth or could possibly be true.
14 Yes.

15 MRS. STEINER: And that's at sentencing. If 16 it's at the -- you say if anything could possibly be
17 true. If in the guilt phase -- you say you read a lot
18 about it and heard a lot about it and know a lot about 19 it. Are you going to hold the State to the burden of 20 beyond a reasonable doubt, or are you going to hold them
21 to the could possibly be true standard?

22 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: It's beyond a
23 reasonable doubt; right? Is that -- that is what it is 24 supposed to be.

25 MRS. STEINER: I think His Honor and the State
26 have both told you at the guilt phase --

27 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Um-hum.

28 MRS. STEINER: -- it is beyond a reasonable
29 doubt.

1 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: (Nodded.)

2 MRS. STEINER: But what role does could
3 possibly be true have there in your mind, especially in
4 light of all the information you have heard from outside
5 that you are going to try to leave outside this door?

6 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: I'm not sure I
7 understand what you want me to answer.

8 MRS. STEINER: You said you would listen to any 9 evidence that you thought could possibly be true.

10 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: No, I will listen to 11 all of it.

12 MRS. STEINER: All right. But you would act on 13 any evidence you thought could possibly be true.

14 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: As long as it seemed to 15 be the truth, yeah.

16 MRS. STEINER: That would be at both phases.

17 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we are talking -- I
18 want to make sure the record is clear. She has asked her
19 about aggravators and mitigators, and she said she could 20 consider either one of them as long as she believed they
21 were true. And I think that is appropriate.

22 MRS. STEINER: If the Court please, I didn't 23 want to confuse the juror. I was now moving back to the 24 guilt phase and beyond a reasonable doubt and exploring
25 whether she had understood the Court's question.

26 I have nothing further from her at this point.

27 THE COURT: Well, let me just clear things up.

28 Miss Chesteen, in the guilt phase, you would listen
29 to the evidence, and you decide the facts of the case.

1 If there was a dispute among the evidence as to what the
2 true facts are, you determine those facts based on your
3 view of the evidence.

4 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Do you understand that?

6 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: And you also base your decision as 8 to guilt or innocence on your view of the evidence. But
9 you could only return a verdict of guilty if the State
10 proved Mr. Flowers beyond a reasonable doubt to be 11 guilty. Do you understand that?

12 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: If the State does not meet that 14 burden of proof, would you find Mr. Flowers not guilty?

15 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And then again, on the sentencing
17 phase, during the sentencing phase if you felt like the 18 facts did not justify or the law did not allow imposition
19 of the death penalty, would you agree with life without 20 parole?

21 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And if he -- if you felt the facts
23 did justify it and the law did allow it, could you bring
24 in a death penalty sentence if you felt that appropriate?

25 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Yes, sir.

26 THE COURT: Thank you.

27 If you please would, don't discuss any of your 28 testimony in here with anybody outside.

29 JUROR PAMELA CHESTEEN: Okay.

1 THE COURT: You can step down now.

2 If you will bring Miss Laney in here next, Number
3 18.

4 (JUROR NUMBER 18, LILLIE LANEY, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

5 THE COURT: Come on down here, Miss Laney, and
6 have a seat.

7 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

8 We are just asking a few questions of each juror
9 individually. And first, about the facts of the case.
10 Have you heard anything about this case through the years
11 either through newspaper, radio, television or internet
12 or just talk out in town?

13 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Very little. I work in 14 Greenwood. So I, I don't --

15 THE COURT: So you --

16 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: I get most of my -- I'm a
17 Fox News junkie. So most of my news is...

18 THE COURT: And I assume Fox has probably never 19 covered this case.

20 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: I don't know that I have
21 ever seen anything on Fox.

22 THE COURT: And has anything that you read,
23 saw, heard or observed caused you in any way to form an
24 opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

25 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No, sir.

26 THE COURT: And would you lay aside anything
27 that you might have heard outside the courtroom and base
28 your decision as to guilt or innocence strictly on the 29 proof as presented here in court?

1 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: And the second question deals with
3 the possibility of the sentencing phase. What happens in
4 a capital murder is if Mr. Flowers is found guilty beyond
5 a reasonable doubt, then we go into a second phase. That 6 only occurs if he is found guilty at the first phase. If 7 he is found not guilty, that concludes everything.

8 But if he is found guilty, then the jury decides
9 what would be the appropriate sentence. The State of 10 Mississippi, I understand, is seeking the death penalty.
11 And they will be putting on aggravating factors. That 12 would be facts that they believe would justify the 13 imposition of the death penalty. And then Mr. Flowers
14 would be allowed to put on mitigating factors. That 15 would be reasons why he believes it would show the death
16 penalty would not be an appropriate sentence in this
17 circumstance.

18 If the facts allowed it -- I mean if the facts
19 justified it in your opinion and the law allowed it,
20 could you impose the death sentence if you felt that to
21 be appropriate?

22 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes, sir, if it...

23 THE COURT: If you found that it's appropriate.

24 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: If the law allows it and 25 it is deemed appropriate.

26 THE COURT: And could you also -- because if he 27 is not receiving the death penalty, then he gets an 28 automatic life in prison without parole sentence. Would 29 that be something that you would also consider?

1 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: So would you leave both sentencing
3 options open until all the proof has been put on at the 4 second phase if, in fact, there is a second phase of the
5 trial?

6 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 MR. EVANS: Miss Laney, and I may have gotten 9 it wrong, but I want to ask you. I think on your 10 questionnaire you said you were generally against the 11 death penalty. Was that right?

12 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Well, generally, but I
13 understand that it is sometimes what is required.

14 MR. EVANS: Is there anything about being 15 generally against it that would keep you from being able 16 to consider it as a possible penalty?

17 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: No, sir.

18 MR. EVANS: Okay. So as the judge said, if the 19 facts in this case justified it, you feel that you could
20 give the death penalty.

21 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes, sir, I could. If the 22 facts were presented.

23 MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

24 MR. CARTER: Now, Miss Laney, you understand
25 that however you vote, whatever your vote is, whatever
26 your moral conscience, however you vote is your decision
27 alone. Do you understand that?

28 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes, sir.

29 MR. CARTER: You understand that you decide.

1 And could you give value, meaning and consideration to
2 Mr. Flowers' character, background, the circumstances of 3 the crime or whatever we presented as mitigation?

4 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes, sir, I think I could.

5 MR. CARTER: Okay. Now, when you say you think
6 you could - and I'm not trying to put words in your
7 mouth, and I want you to - are you saying that, that some 8 things that you could listen to or some things you can't?
9 Tell me -- and if that is the case, there is nothing
10 wrong with it.

11 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: I can listen -- I will do
12 my best to listen to the facts and, and the evidence that
13 is presented. I'll be attentive to whatever you present
14 as his defense, and I will be attentive to the State's
15 case.

16 MR. CARTER: Okay.

17 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: I will pay attention to 18 the facts that are brought out in this court.

19 MR. CARTER: In the first phase. And would you
20 also -- I'm assuming that you would also pay attention
21 and give consideration to whatever we present during the 22 second phase too.

23 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Yes, sir.

24 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Miss Laney, you may step down and 26 when you step back out, please don't talk about --

27 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Okay.

28 THE COURT: -- with your fellow jurors what was 29 spoken in here.

1 JUROR LILLIE LANEY: Of course.

2 THE COURT: If y'all will bring in Number 22,
3 Mr. Blaylock now.

4 (JUROR NUMBER 22, LARRY BLAYLOCK, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

5 THE COURT: If you will come forward, Mr.
6 Blaylock, and have a seat down here. We have got a few
7 questions.

8 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

9 THE COURT: Mr. Blaylock, we are asking
10 questions of all the jury outside the presence of each
11 other, because we don't want something to be spoken that 12 might cause something that would affect some other juror.

13 I want to know if you have heard anything about this
14 case, if you read about the case in the newspaper, seen
15 it on t.v., heard it on radio, read or seen anything on 16 the internet about it or discussed this case with 17 anybody.

18 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: I have heard about it.
19 Everybody in Winona has probably.

20 THE COURT: And do you remember how? Like, was 21 it newspaper and t.v. and things or how?

22 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: T.V. and word of mouth.
23 At cafes and stuff like that.

24 THE COURT: And has there been any facts
25 presented to you or have you heard anything about the 26 case that has caused you to form an opinion about the 27 guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

28 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, sir.

29 THE COURT: And will you lay aside anything

1       that you might have heard, seen or read about the case or
2       any knowledge you have of the case and base your decision
3       only on the evidence that is presented here in court?

4               JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, sir.

5               THE COURT: And Mr. Blaylock, the way a capital
6       murder case works is there is a two-phase trial, possibly 7       two phases. First phase guilt or innocence is decided.

8               JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, sir.

9               THE COURT: If Mr. Flowers were to be found not 10      guilty, the trial concludes at that point and it is over.
11      If he was found guilty there would be the second phase of 12      the trial, and that would be a situation where the jury
13      would determine the appropriate sentence. They would do
14      that based on the facts presented and the law as 15      instructed by the Court.

16              The State of Mississippi will be -- would put on 17      proof that would be aggravating factors. That would be 18      factors that they believe justify the imposition of a
19      death penalty. The defense would put on what they call
20      mitigating factors, which would be things that they
21      believe would justify not imposing the death penalty.

22              And then the jury will decide based on the 23      instructions of the Court and based on the evidence as 24      presented at that phase of the trial. So if the death
25      penalty was a possibility, could you consider that as a
26      sentencing option?

27              JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, sir.

28              THE COURT: And also, if the death -- if the 29      death penalty was not imposed, then Mr. Flowers would

1 receive life in prison without parole. Would you leave
2 that open as a sentencing option as well?

3 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: So without hearing any evidence on
5 mitigation or aggravating fact circumstance at this
6 point, you would keep an open mind and would consider
7 both of those options if it got to the point where there
8 was a second phase.

9 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

12 MRS. STEINER: Good afternoon.

13 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Good afternoon.

14 MRS. STEINER: Mr. Blaylock.

15 I want, Your Honor, to clear something up.

16 You had said when we were with everybody here that 17 you had a second cousin who was convicted of murder in 18 Carroll County.

19 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, ma'am. The murder
20 happened in Carroll County. I believe it was prosecuted
21 in Montgomery County.

22 MRS. STEINER: I see. He was the victim or he 23 was the defendant?

24 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: He was -- he was the one
25 that was convicted of murder.

26 MRS. STEINER: All right. And did you say that 27 would or would not affect you?

28 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: It would not. I have no
29 contact with him at all. Ever.

1 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Thank you. You had
2 indicated, like everyone in Winona, you have heard
3 things. If you would, say what it is that sticks in your
4 mind that you have heard about this case or its facts.

5 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: I haven't heard any
6 facts. All I have heard is, you know, the verdicts each
7 time as they come through. At the time this trial -- I
8 mean this whatever happened, I did not live in Montgomery
9 County at the time. I lived in Carroll County.

10 MRS. STEINER: I understand.

11 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: So I mean, you know, I
12 just -- like I said, rumors you hear at cafe when the 13 verdict come through or, you know, what you see on t.v.
14 I do not take a newspaper. So I don't read the newspaper
15 about it.

16 MRS. STEINER: Is that a cafe here in Winona or 17 --

18 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes.

19 MRS. STEINER: Which cafe was that?

20 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Just several different
21 ones.

22 MRS. STEINER: Okay.

23 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: We all kind of hang
24 around them.

25 MRS. STEINER: All right. I believe you have a
26 heating and cooling business; is that right?

27 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, ma'am, I did have.
28 I own a land and timber business now.

29 MRS. STEINER: All right. At any time that you

1 were doing your heating and cooling business, did you go
2 to peoples' homes and businesses and install --

3 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes.

4 MRS. STEINER: Did you -- did you ever hear any
5 talk in that context?

6 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, ma'am.

7 MRS. STEINER: Did you ever do any work at
8 Tardy Furniture?

9 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, ma'am.

10 MRS. STEINER: Or the building, since it is
11 now --

12 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, ma'am.

13 MRS. STEINER: -- owned by someone else.

14 Now, you said that you graduated from high school
15 with Miss Ballard.

16 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Right. Here at Winona
17 High School.

18 MRS. STEINER: At Winona High School. Has you
19 ever -- has she ever had a conversation with you about 20 either the facts of the case or her feelings about this?

21 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, ma'am. I haven't
22 talked to Roxanne probably three times since we graduated
23 30 years ago.

24 MRS. STEINER: Okay. So you have not been in 25 communication with her.

26 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No. Right. If she 27 walked in here now, she wouldn't even know who I was 28 probably.

29 MRS. STEINER: And same way with her family.

1 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes. I don't know.

2 MRS. STEINER: Now, His Honor has used the
3 words mitigation and aggravation for kinds of evidence
4 that in the event -- you know, that only happens if you
5 found Mr. Flowers guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

6 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: That's correct.

7 MRS. STEINER: Does the fact that we have to 8 talk about this now, do you find that confusing?

9 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: No, ma'am.

10 MRS. STEINER: You understand that none of us
11 --

12 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, ma'am.

13 MRS. STEINER: -- are assuming that he is going
14 to be found guilty.

15 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: I agree with that.

16 MRS. STEINER: And do you understand when the 17 judge says aggravators, he is going to advise you on 18 specific factors in addition to finding Mr. Flowers
19 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, if you have done so.

20 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, ma'am.

21 MRS. STEINER: All right. And then in
22 mitigation --

23 THE COURT: I think I have already covered
24 that. So move on to something I haven't covered, please.

25 MRS. STEINER: Now, do you understand that,
26 that for aggravating, its factors, you must find those
27 beyond a reasonable doubt.

28 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, ma'am.

29 MRS. STEINER: And before you can even start

1 discussing the death penalty further, all 12 of y'all
2 must agree to that.

3 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: That's correct.

4 MRS. STEINER: Do you understand with
5 mitigation it's a little different?

6 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, ma'am.

7 MRS. STEINER: What do you understand to be
8 different about mitigation?

9 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: I mean would that be
10 between the death penalty and not the death penalty?

11 MRS. STEINER: Yes. The evidence -- the 12 aggravating circumstance is evidence the State would put 13 on. The mitigating evidence, as His Honor has explained,
14 is anything that the defense puts on or you hear from the 15 witness stand at any point that you think might indicate
16 a death sentence wasn't the appropriate sentence.

17 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, ma'am.

18 MRS. STEINER: Now, do you understand that the 19 decision on what you consider mitigating, as His Honor
20 will instruct you, that will be your personal decision?
21 You don't have to agree with other people about what is
22 mitigating and they don't have to agree with you? Do you
23 understand that?

24 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes, ma'am. I
25 understand that.

26 MRS. STEINER: And that if you think something
27 is mitigating, you don't -- you don't have to be talked
28 into or out of any mitigating circumstances.

29 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Won't nobody talk me in

Case #2010-DP-01348-SCT

COURT APPEALED FROM : Circuit Court

COUNTY : Montgomery

TRIAL JUDGE : Joseph H. Loper Jr.

Curtis Giovanni Flowers v. State of Mississippi

.....
Kathy Gillis, Clerk

.....
TRIAL COURT #: 2003-0071-CR

1 nothing.

2 MRS. STEINER: And what sorts of things when
3 the judge says mitigation -- well, let me say that do you
4 understand that that includes -- it could have to do with
5 the crime. It could have to do with Mr. Flowers'
6 background. It could have to do with anything that's
7 happened in Mr. Flowers' life or around the circumstances
8 of the crime. Are you able to consider all of that?

9 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes.

10 MRS. STEINER: Even though you found him guilty
11 beyond a reasonable doubt.

12 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes.

13 MRS. STEINER: Are you able to make that 14 personal, individual and moral decision?

15 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Yes.

16 MRS. STEINER: And you are saying here you
17 could consider a penalty other than death if you have 18 found him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt?

19 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Oh, yes.

20 MRS. STEINER: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Blaylock, if you will, when you
22 step down, do not discuss the case with anyone as far as 23 your testimony that you have offered in here.

24 And you may step down.

25 JUROR LARRY BLAYLOCK: Thank you.

26 (THE JUROR LEFT THE COURTROOM.)

27 THE COURT: I want to make clear again, I am
28 going to start cutting off in mid-sentence if counsel for 29 either side continues to ask the same questions that I

1 have asked. There does not have to be 10 or 20 questions
2 following up what the Court has just asked if you are
3 repeating the same questions over again. And you do not
4 need to ask the question but one time, if you ask it at
5 all.

6 But I do not want repetition of what I have asked,
7 because there is no need, especially in the compacted
8 timeframe. Where in a five-minute timeframe it is no
9 point in them repeating over what I have already gone
10 over. So I want it limited strictly to things that I
11 have not asked.

12 If you will bring Number 25 in.

13 (JUROR NUMBER 25, SUZANNE WINSTEAD, ENTERED THE
14 COURTROOM.)

15 Miss Winstead, if you will come forward down here
16 and have a seat.

17 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

18 Miss Winstead, we are asking questions now
19 individually of the jurors on a couple of issues. I want
20 to know if you have heard anything about this case, if 21 you heard about the case through talk in town, read about
22 it in the newspaper, heard it on the radio, read about it
23 or saw it on the internet or saw it on t.v. or just 24 discussed it in anyway. Have you had any knowledge about
25 the case?

26 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Very little, because I
27 don't watch the news. I don't read the newspaper. It's 28 all too depressing. Just that it happened. I didn't
29 even know when it happened until you said it yesterday.

1        Didn't really know who -- didn't know names of anybody
2        until yesterday.

3                THE COURT: And if you are sitting as a juror
4        in this case, would you base your verdict on the evidence
5        presented in court and on nothing that you have heard
6        outside the courtroom?

7                JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes, sir.

8                THE COURT: So you will lay aside anything you
9        have heard and base it only on the evidence here in
10       court; is that correct?

11               JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes, sir.

12               THE COURT: And I want to know -- or let me
13       explain something to you. In a capital murder case,
14       there is a two-phase trial, at most two phase. It may 15       end after the first phase. Because the first phase you
16       decide the guilt or innocence. If the person on trial is 17       found not guilty, then you do not get to that second
18       phase at all.

19               JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Um-hum.

20               THE COURT: But if a person is found guilty,
21       then you get to the second phase, and that's the phase
22       where you decide what the punishment should be.

23               JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Um-hum.

24               THE COURT: The State of Mississippi would put
25       on aggravating factors that would, in the State's belief,
26       would be things that would justify the imposition of the 27       death penalty. Then the defense would put on mitigating 28       factors that they think would mitigate, which means would 29       show that the death penalty was not justified.

1 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Um-hum.

2 THE COURT: So if the facts justified it and
3 the law allowed it, would you consider the imposition of
4 the death penalty if you were sitting in this case as a
5 juror?

6 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Would you also consider life in 8 prison without parole because if he did not receive -- if 9 Mr. Flowers was found guilty and did not receive the 10 death penalty, he would get life without parole. So
11 would that be something that you would consider as well?

12 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes.

13 THE COURT: So you would leave open the 14 consideration of both options until you have heard all
15 the evidence at the sentencing phase, if we got to that
16 point.

17 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Is that correct? Thank you.

19 MR. EVANS: May I, Your Honor?

20 Miss Winstead, I know that you said that Ray
21 Winstead was your nephew; is that right?

22 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Nephew by marriage.

23 MR. EVANS: Okay. And I don't think you knew
24 much about that. My office did prosecute him. Is there
25 anything about that that you would hold any ill will 26 towards the State?

27 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: No.

28 MR. EVANS: You would be fair and impartial to 29 both sides in this trial.

1 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes.

2 MR. EVANS: That's all, Your Honor.

3 MR. CARTER: Miss Winstead, do you consider
4 life without possibility of parole a real punishment?

5 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes.

6 MR. CARTER: So you could consider it as or --

7 MR. EVANS: I couldn't understand the question.

8 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: I didn't either.

9 MR. CARTER: I hadn't finished it.

10 I am trying not to -- I'm trying to follow the 11 judge's rule.

12 If the State of Mississippi said that life without 13 possibility of parole is sufficient for murder, would you
14 have a problem voting for life without possibility of 15 parole?

16 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: No.

17 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't think the State
18 of Mississippi is going to say which penalty is 19 appropriate.

20 THE COURT: I, I think maybe you need to
21 clarify that because the State of Mississippi in a
22 prosecution sense, usually you are thinking of the 23 prosecution.

24 MR. CARTER: I see what you are saying now.

25 THE COURT: But I think here you are referring 26 to the laws enacted by the legislature of this state.

27 MR. CARTER: That's correct, Your Honor.

28 Miss Winstead, I don't want to confuse you. I gotta
29 watch that. What I was asking was yes, the legislature

1 have decided, Mississippi legislature have decided that
2 life without possibility of parole and the death penalty,
3 either one is appropriate for, for a person convicted of
4 capital murder.

5 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Um-hum.

6 MR. CARTER: And you told me that you do
7 consider life without possibility of parole real
8 punishment, a real punishment; is that correct?

9 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes, sir.

10 MR. CARTER: Now, can you consider Mr. Flowers'
11 background, his character, his life history, his status
12 and situation before he got to this point and was accused
13 of this crime?

14 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: When I find out about 15 it. Because I don't know -- I mean I don't know his 16 background. I don't know any --

17 MR. CARTER: Right. But -- so my question
18 is -- right. You don't know his background and all at 19 this point. But if we put on evidence about his 20 background, about his character, about his life history
21 --

22 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Um-hum.

23 MR. CARTER: -- would you give that
24 information, those facts value, meaning consideration,
25 affect?

26 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Yes.

27 MR. CARTER: Okay. Although, you don't know
28 what they, you can say that because you are told so by 29 the Court or instructed by the Court to, in fact,

1 consider those things you would do it.

2 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: I would because you
3 have -- that is just how I feel. You have to consider
4 because your background and the way you've been before
5 make up who you are today.

6 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Miss Winstead, you may step
8 down. And when you step down, don't go back out and talk
9 with anybody about what you have discussed in here. I
10 figured you wouldn't any way, but I am just cautioning
11 everybody not do that.

12 JUROR SUZANNE WINSTEAD: Okay.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 If you will bring Number 26 in, Miss Chatham.

15 (JUROR NUMBER 26, JENNIFER CHATHAM, ENTERED THE
16 COURTROOM.)

17 Miss Chatham, if you will come forward and have a 18 seat. There is just a couple of questions that we will 19 be asking.

20 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

21 And we just felt it appropriate to ask these out --
22 you know, instead of out in front of all your fellow
23 jurors individually. I want to know if you have obtained
24 any knowledge about this case, have any facts about the 25 case, read about it in the newspaper, seen it on t.v,
26 heard it on the radio, read about it or seen it on the 27 internet or discussed it, or, you know, been --

28 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: The only thing that I
29 have seen is what has been on the t.v. And then, you

1 know, I heard about Mr. Flowers being over at the jail
2 because that is where my fiancée works at. Other than
3 that, I had never seen him until a couple -- you know, a
4 couple of days ago.

5 THE COURT: Until this started.

6 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Right.

7 THE COURT: Last Friday.

8 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Right.

9 THE COURT: And has -- and I believe Mr.
10 Gilland is the -- who you are dating right now --

11 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Exactly.

12 THE COURT: -- who works at the jail. And has 13 he told you anything that --

14 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: No.

15 THE COURT: So --

16 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: He is not allowed --

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: -- to tell me what 19 goes on over there.

20 THE COURT: And I understand. And he has. He 21 has followed that rule and not done that.

22 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Exactly.

23 THE COURT: Is that correct?

24 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: I don't ask him any
25 questions.

26 THE COURT: And you just heard about it or saw
27 it on t.v. at some point.

28 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Right.

29 THE COURT: And did anything that you saw on

1 t.v. or heard cause you to form an opinion as to the
2 guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

3 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: No, sir.

4 THE COURT: And will you lay anything you might
5 have heard outside the courtroom -- would you lay that
6 aside and base your decision only on the evidence
7 presented here in court if you were a juror?

8 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Exactly.

9 THE COURT: And the way the situation on a
10 capital murder case works is if Mr. Flowers were 11 convicted of capital murder, there would be a second
12 phase of the trial. We would not have a second phase if 13 he were found not guilty. But if he were found guilty,
14 then we would go into a second phase, and the jury would 15 determine what they believe the appropriate punishment to 16 be.

17 The State of Mississippi would be seeking the death
18 penalty in the case. The State would put on facts they 19 call aggravating facts that would show that in the 20 State's belief the facts justified the imposition of the 21 death penalty. Mr. Flowers would put on mitigating
22 facts, which in his view would be reasons why the death
23 penalty would not be an appropriate sentence. But you,
24 as a juror, would determine what was an appropriate
25 sentence based on the mitigating and aggravating
26 circumstances.

27 And if you found beyond a reasonable doubt that 28 aggravating circumstances justified it, then you could 29 impose the death penalty. But you do not have to. But

1           that would be an option available to you.

2                   JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM:   Okay.

3                   THE COURT:   So if the option of the death
4           penalty was available to you, is that a sentencing option
5           that you could consider?

6                   JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM:   Yes, sir.

7                   THE COURT:   And also, if he was not sentenced
8           to death, the sentence would be life without parole.   And 9           would you leave open that sentencing option as well?

10                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM:   Yes, sir.

11                  THE COURT:   So as you sit here today, without 12           having heard any mitigating or aggravating factors or 13           even right now having even not considered him guilty at 14           all, but if it got to that second phase, would you leave
15           open both sentencing options?

16                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM:   Yes, sir.

17                  THE COURT:   And then would you base your 18           decision based on the facts as you found them to be and 19           based on your -- law as given to you by the Court?

20                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM:   Yes, sir.

21                  THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you.

22                  MR. EVANS:   No questions from the State.

23                  MRS. STEINER:   Good afternoon.

24                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM:   Hello.

25                  MRS. STEINER:   You indicated that your fiancée
26           works at Carroll Montgomery --

27                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM:   Right.

28                  MRS. STEINER:   -- jail.   Does he work on the 29           state side or county side?

1 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: He runs both.

2 MRS. STEINER: Oh, he is the warden.

3 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Oh, no, ma'am. He is
4 a corporal over there, but he is over all the inmates.
5 As far as I'm concerned, I think that is what it is. I
6 really don't know.

7 MRS. STEINER: Okay. When His Honor was
8 talking particularly about the evidence that might happen
9 at the penalty phase, should there be one --

10 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Okay.

11 MRS. STEINER: -- the State, as His Honor will 12 instruct you, in addition to finding Mr. Flowers guilty
13 beyond a reasonable doubt, the State must also prove the 14 existence of one or more very specific aggravating
15 factors that the Court will instruct you on. That's,
16 that's what the Court was telling you, will instruct you
17 about what aggravation is.

18 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Okay.

19 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Now, the Court will also 20 instruct you that even to move beyond whether you want to 21 think about the death penalty, should there be a penalty
22 deliberation, you'll all unanimously, all 12 of you, have
23 to determine that at least one of those exists, the same
24 way.

25 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

26 MRS. STEINER: All right. And do you feel
27 comfortable doing that?

28 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am. It has to 29 be proven --

1 MRS. STEINER: Right.

2 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: -- with the evidence
3 first.

4 MRS. STEINER: As His Honor instructed you,
5 beyond a reasonable doubt.

6 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Right.

7 MRS. STEINER: Now, as His Honor will instruct
8 you, mitigation is slightly different. Instead of having 9 all 12 of you have to agree on anything, mitigation, as 10 His Honor will instruct you, is anything that personally
11 comes to mind from the evidence before you, the defendant
12 puts on that you hear even in witnesses the State puts 13 on. Can you consider all of the circumstances that you
14 hear in making -- and give value to anything you hear
15 that the defense puts on in mitigation?

16 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

17 MRS. STEINER: All right. Your fiancée works
18 at the jail. It is -- the circumstances of Mr. Curtis
19 Flowers before he was ever arrested for these charges can
20 come into play. You can consider those as mitigation.

21 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: I don't understand
22 what you are saying.

23 MRS. STEINER: Mr. Flowers' life up till the 24 time he was arrested for this crime --

25 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Okay.

26 MRS. STEINER: -- can come into play as 27 mitigation. Can you consider anything that we would put 28 on or you on might learn from evidence --

29 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

1 MRS. STEINER: -- about that? It is also
2 possible the evidence concerning his life, as it has
3 existed for many years since his arrest, including in the 4 jail at Carroll Montgomery, could be evidence adduced,
5 put into evidence at the penalty phase, if we came to
6 one.

7 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

8 MRS. STEINER: Could you consider that?

9 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes ma'am.

10 MRS. STEINER: Now, I know, of course, your
11 fiancés and you are not allowed to discuss specific cases
12 or inmate such-and-such did that. But I'm assuming like
13 most couples you do talk about the kinds of things each
14 other does at work.

15 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: He doesn't go into 16 detail with it about --

17 MRS. STEINER: But you know --

18 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Now, he does tell me
19 things that goes on over there --

20 MRS. STEINER: Oh, okay.

21 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: -- but he does not
22 tell me names of people.

23 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Has he told you anything
24 that quote went on over there that you just based on 25 watching t.v. or anything else --

26 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: No, ma'am, he has not.

27 MRS. STEINER: -- you figured this might be
28 about Mr. Flowers' case.

29 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: No, ma'am. Because

1           there is several people over there that I know. I have a
2           cousin over there.

3                   MRS. STEINER: Okay.

4                   JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: And, you know, there
5           is different things that goes on over there that not even 6           I know.

7                   MRS. STEINER: I understand that. I'm just
8           asking you if, if you -- if it turns out that things
9           about jails come in -- and I believe you say your fiancée
10          has shared that with you.

11                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Right.

12                  MRS. STEINER: There may be things you think
13          you know about that jail or might have gone on at that 14          jail on the basis of those conversations. Can you, if 15          evidence comes in, put that aside, the way --

16                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am. Yes,
17          ma'am.

18                  MRS. STEINER: -- that you promised you can put 19          aside any other information?

20                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

21                  MRS. STEINER: And just hear what is said in
22          the courtroom.

23                  JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

24                  MRS. STEINER: And if you have heard, you
25          know -- perhaps you didn't hear an abstract thing was 26          talked about and you are sitting there saying oh, my 27          gosh.

28                  MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I believe she has 29          answered this question at least five times.

1 THE COURT: You have asked it at least a half a
2 dozen different ways. I think you have made your point
3 clear. If you will wrap it up with this juror.

4 MRS. STEINER: Okay. If you hear something in 5 the courtroom that is different from what you had in your
6 head with conversations from your -- with your fiancée
7 about that jail or what has gone on, can you set that 8 aside --

9 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

10 MRS. STEINER: -- and decide only on what you
11 have heard in the courtroom?

12 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am. I'll only
13 use the evidence that is presented here.

14 MRS. STEINER: And can you give, in your moral 15 judgment, hear and consider every piece of evidence that 16 is put on in mitigation with the crime?

17 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

18 MRS. STEINER: And with Mr. Flowers in general,
19 even if it is not related to the crime.

20 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: Miss Chatham, you may step down.
22 When you go back out, please don't talk about with your 23 fellow jurors anything you have discussed or talked about
24 in here.

25 JUROR JENNIFER CHATHAM: Yes, sir.

26 THE COURT: You may step down now.

27 Mr. Waller, Number 29.

28 (JUROR NUMBER 29, HAROLD WALLER, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

29 If you will, come down here, Mr. Waller, and have a

1 seat.

2 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

3 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may we have one minute?

4 I'm sorry, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Waller, we are bringing
6 everybody in and asking them a couple of questions
7 outside the presence of the other jurors. And one of the 8 questions I want to ask is if you have heard anything
9 about this case or have obtained any knowledge about the 10 case or the investigation of the case or anything like
11 read it in the newspaper, seeing it on t.v., read it on 12 the internet or radio or any -- hearing it on the radio
13 or any facts about the case.

14 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: I just read what is in 15 the local paper, you know, radio. I haven't talked about
16 it.

17 THE COURT: Sir.

18 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: I haven't discussed it,
19 the case with anybody.

20 THE COURT: And has anybody tried to discuss it
21 with you at any point?

22 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: No, sir.

23 THE COURT: And has anything that you saw or 24 read or heard caused you to form an opinion as to the 25 guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

26 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: No, sir.

27 THE COURT: And would you lay aside anything
28 that you heard outside the courtroom and base your 29 decision strictly on the evidence that is presented here

1 in court?

2 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: And the next question revolves
4 around the sentencing phase of the case, if the trial got
5 to that point. What happens first is, is the 6 determination of guilt or innocence. If Mr. Flowers was 7 found not guilty, there will not be a second phase. But 8 if he were to be found guilty, then we would get into the 9 sentencing phase. Are you with me so far?

10 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: If we got to the sentencing phase,
12 the jury would decide then whether he should receive the 13 death penalty. If the jury found he did not deserve the 14 death penalty, life in prison would be the sentence that 15 would be imposed.

16 The State of Mississippi will be putting on 17 aggravating factors which in the State's view would 18 justify the imposition of the death penalty. Mr.
19 Flowers, if it got to the second phase, would be putting 20 on proof that in his view would mitigate, would be 21 reasons why he should not receive the death penalty. And 22 so if it got to the second phase, could you consider the 23 death penalty as a sentencing option?

24 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: And could you also consider life
26 without parole as a sentencing option?

27 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir.

28 THE COURT: So as we sit here today, you would 29 consider both options and would make your determination

1 based on the evidence presented at the second phase and
2 based on the law instructed by the Court?

3 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: And that is understanding if it
5 even got to that second phase.

6 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir.

7 MR. EVANS: No questions from the State.

8 MR. CARTER: I have a few, Your Honor.

9 Mr. Waller, could you ever consider a life sentence,
10 life without possibility of parole as a adequate
11 punishment for the capital murder of four people?

12 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: I could consider it, yes.

13 MR. CARTER: What do you mean by consider?

14 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Well, I mean if that was 15 one of the options that was going on in the court, I, I
16 mean, yeah. If it was capital, I could go, you know, go
17 with the death sentence too.

18 MR. CARTER: Okay. All right. So you said you
19 would consider it. But could you vote for life without 20 possibility of parole?

21 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes.

22 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is asking for him to 23 decide what he would vote. That is not the proper
24 question.

25 MR. CARTER: I will strike that, Your Honor. I
26 did over step. I will strike that.

27 Now, Mr. Waller, would the, the nature of the crime
28 matter to you in your vote for life or death? Would you
29 want to know what happened and how it happened, why it

1 happened, that kind of stuff before voting for life or
2 death?

3 JUROR HAROLD WALLER: Yes, sir. I mean I would
4 have to see the evidence that was put forth.

5 MR. CARTER: Would you want to -- would the 6 background, the character, the life history of the 7 defendant before they got charged with the capital
8 murder, would that matter to you? Would you want to know
9 that?

10 MR. EVANS: Again, Your Honor, he is asking him
11 now to say what would matter. He can't --

12 THE COURT: I sustain. The appropriate
13 question is to say would you consider the aggravating and 14 mitigating factors and base your decision on what is 15 presented. And I have already asked that of him.

16 MR. CARTER: Well, Your Honor, I accept that.
17 Your Honor, I just wanted to make sure he knew what 18 mitigation was.

19 THE COURT: I explained that to him.

20 MR. CARTER: Okay.

21 THE COURT: You may step down now. And please
22 do not go out and discuss your testimony in here with 23 anybody outside, you know, your fellow jurors or anyone
24 else.

25 If you will bring in Number 30, Mr. Whitfield.

26 (JUROR NUMBER 30, JEFFREY WHITFIELD, ENTERED THE
27 COURTROOM.)

28 THE COURT: If you will come forward, Mr.
29 Whitfield, and have a seat down here.

1 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

2 THE COURT: Mr. Whitfield, there are a few
3 questions that we'll ask you outside the presence of your
4 fellow jurors. And I wanted to ask a couple of questions
5 also. You work now for the sheriff's department; is that
6 correct?

7 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: No, sir.

8 THE COURT: Or used to work here?

9 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: No, sir.

10 THE COURT: Are you in law enforcement at all?

11 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: No, sir.

12 THE COURT: Okay. I got something confused on 13 a jury questionnaire, and I don't know how that happened.
14 But you are not involved in law enforcement.

15 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: No, sir.

16 THE COURT: I think you said -- I'm sorry. I
17 misread. You've got a relative that is in law
18 enforcement.

19 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Mr. Harris. I was just 21 not reading my own notes well. But him working at the 22 sheriff's department wouldn't be a factor --

23 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: No, sir.

24 THE COURT: -- or influence you being a juror
25 in this case.

26 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: No, sir.

27 THE COURT: I want to know now how old were you
28 in 1986 -- '96?

29 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Nine or ten.

1 THE COURT: And did -- have you heard anything
2 about this case or know any facts about this case or
3 heard it discussed or anything like that?

4 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Not really.

5 THE COURT: Have you read anything in the paper
6 or seen it on the t.v., internet or news or radio or
7 anything?

8 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: I vaguely remember
9 when it happened. That pretty much it. Before this I
10 probably couldn't have told you who all was killed or 11 whatnot.

12 THE COURT: And would you base your decision
13 only on the evidence presented here in court and on
14 nothing else?

15 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: And if you are sitting as a juror
17 would you lay aside anything that you might have heard
18 and base your decision only on the evidence presented?

19 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Whitfield, the way it works is 21 if the jury found Mr. Flowers guilty, there would be a
22 second phase of the trial. If they found him not guilty,
23 we would not get to a second phase. But if the jury
24 found him guilty, then the same jury would then go into a
25 sentencing phase to determine the appropriate punishment.

26 The State of Mississippi would be seeking the death
27 penalty. They would put on aggravating factors that they
28 believe would justify the imposition of the death
29 penalty. The defense would be putting on mitigating

1 factors. That would be facts that they believe would
2 show that the death penalty would not be an appropriate
3 sentence.

4 Could you consider both the -- could you consider
5 the death penalty as a possible sentence?

6 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: I kind of have mixed
7 feelings about the death penalty.

8 THE COURT: But could you consider it as a
9 sentencing option?

10 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir, I could.

11 THE COURT: Now, I understand that there is --

12 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Well, what is your feelings about 14 it, you know? If you want to just --

15 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Depending on the 16 brutality of the crime.

17 THE COURT: So if the facts justified it and
18 the law provided and allowed for it, could you consider
19 that as a sentencing option?

20 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: And also, if he was not sentenced
22 to death then the sentence would be life without parole.
23 Would you also consider that as a sentencing possibility?

24 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: And would you wait and hear all the 26 evidence, aggravating and mitigating facts, and base your 27 decision on whether life in prison or the death penalty
28 based on that?

29 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 MR. EVANS: No questions.

3 MRS. STEINER: Good afternoon, Mr. Whitfield.
4 You said you, quote, not really haven't heard anything
5 about the facts of this case.

6 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

7 MRS. STEINER: And I, I don't think you put
8 your hands up about knowing any of the witnesses or --

9 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

10 MRS. STEINER: -- or Mr. Flowers or his family,
11 Miss Tardy. So you haven't heard anything from anybody
12 who's actually been involved.

13 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: No, sir. No, ma'am.
14 I'm sorry.

15 MRS. STEINER: It's all right. You worked at 16 Halter Construction and then at Camp McCain. Do you
17 recall if it was ever talked about at either of those 18 work places?

19 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: No, ma'am.

20 MRS. STEINER: All right. In response to His 21 Honor's questions when you said you had mixed feelings
22 about the death penalty, you said depending on the 23 brutality --

24 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

25 MRS. STEINER: -- of the crime. You understand
26 that if you even get to convicting -- get to considering
27 the penalty --

28 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

29 MRS. STEINER: -- for Curtis Flowers at all,

1           you will have found him guilty of four capital murders.

2           JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

3           MRS. STEINER: And the State will certainly 4 argue they were brutal. Could you get passed that --

5           MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object.

6           MRS. STEINER: -- and consider other things in
7 mitigation?

8           MR. EVANS: She is asking him to take into 9 consideration facts that aren't in evidence yet.

10          THE COURT: He has already said that he would
11 consider the facts, mitigating and aggravating, and base
12 his decision on that. So I think he has already 13 answered.

14          MRS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor. I'd 15 like -- may I ask him?

16          Could you after that, after you have found him
17 guilty of four capital murders, could you consider
18 matters concerning his background, what happened before
19 the crime, how he has been after the crime, those sorts
20 of things? Could you consider those in mitigation of his
21 sentence?

22          JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

23          MRS. STEINER: Even after that?

24          JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

25          MRS. STEINER: Now, as His Honor will instruct 26 you, to find it was capital murder you must find specific 27 factors in aggravation that the State must prove.

28          JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

29          MRS. STEINER: Beyond just being guilty of

1 capital murder. Do you understand that?

2 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

3 MRS. STEINER: And you understand that that has
4 to be beyond a reasonable doubt, and you have to agree
5 with all 12 other people deliberating to do that.

6 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

7 MRS. STEINER: And you are comfortable with
8 doing that no matter how brutal the crime.

9 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: I wouldn't say
10 comfortable, but I'm willing to.

11 MRS. STEINER: All right. Thank you. And 12 mitigation is a little different. His Honor will 13 instruct you at the appropriate time, if there is a
14 penalty phase, that that is something you get to make 15 your own personal mind up about.

16 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

17 MRS. STEINER: On the basis of what you hear in 18 the courtroom and your personal moral values, and it
19 doesn't include things other than the crime itself.

20 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yeah.

21 MRS. STEINER: Can you take all those things
22 into account?

23 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am, I can.

24 MRS. STEINER: If you think something is 25 mitigating and a fellow juror does not, you understand
26 you don't have to come to an agreement like you do on a
27 aggravating factor. You understand you can consider all
28 of those.

29 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, ma'am.

1 MRS. STEINER: That is all I have, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Whitfield, you can step back
3 out. And I'll ask you not to discuss with your fellow
4 jurors the testimony you have offered in here.

5 JUROR JEFFREY WHITFIELD: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: You can send in Jessie Lee Crawford
7 next. That would be Number 33.

8 (JUROR NUMBER 33, JESSIE CRAWFORD, ENTERED THE COURTROOM
9 AND WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

10 THE COURT: Mr. Crawford, if you will have a
11 seat. There is a couple of things that we are asking all 12 jurors outside the presence of other jurors because we 13 don't want to have what one might say influence what 14 somebody else my say. And so that is why we are doing
15 this.

16 And there was a couple of questions I wanted to 17 follow-up too about your statements out in front of 18 everyone. I believe you said that you have a
19 granddaughter that's, that's the child of Mr. Flowers'
20 brother; is that --

21 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: My son have a --

22 THE COURT: Which would be your granddaughter.

23 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Right.

24 THE COURT: So your son has got a child with 25 Mr. Flowers' sister.

26 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Sister.

27 THE COURT: Is that -- and that's a
28 granddaughter. Is that a grandchild, granddaughter.

29 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: My granddaughter.

1 THE COURT: Yeah. It is your granddaughter.
2 That is what I'm saying.

3 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Yeah.

4 THE COURT: Did I understand you to say that
5 because of that you could not be a fair and impartial
6 juror in this case?

7 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Right.

8 THE COURT: And that would influence you and
9 knowing the Flowers family would influence you where you
10 just could not be fair to both sides going into the 11 trial; is that correct?

12 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Correct.

13 THE COURT: And also, I want to ask you if you
14 have heard any facts about this case, talked, you know,
15 read about it in the paper, seen it on t.v., radio or 16 just gossip out in town or street talk. You had any 17 knowledge at all about the case?

18 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: No, sir.

19 THE COURT: And you hadn't heard anybody ever
20 talk about the case?

21 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Not -- well, I don't
22 get out too much.

23 THE COURT: Is that right. How long have you
24 lived in the county?

25 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: All my life.

26 THE COURT: All your life. But this is
27 something that you hadn't heard brought up or discussed.

28 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: No. Not with nobody.

29 THE COURT: Okay. Not really. I mean what

1 does not really -- does that mean not, not at all?

2 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: I said not with anyone.

3 THE COURT: Not with anyone. Oh, okay. You
4 have got a soft voice, and my ears are clogged up because
5 of allergies. So forgive me if I ask you to repeat
6 something. I am not trying to -- you know, other than 7 wanting to hear everything. And so I want that to be 8 clear.

9 Now, the situation as far as a trial goes is this.
10 First, in a capital murder case the jury decides guilt or 11 innocence. If they found Mr. Flowers not guilty there
12 would not be a second phase at all. We would not even 13 proceed any further and the proceeding would be 14 concluded. Do you understand that up to now?

15 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: But if the jury found him guilty,
17 then we would get to a second stage and that would be a
18 determination of what the appropriate punishment would 19 be. The State of Mississippi would put on factors called 20 aggravating factors. These would be factors that the 21 State believes would justify the imposition of the death
22 penalty. The defense, on behalf of Mr. Flowers, would 23 then put on mitigating factors, being factors that they 24 believe would show that he should not be sentenced to 25 death. So there would be aggravating and mitigating 26 factors. Both sides would be putting on evidence in 27 regard to what the sentence should be. Do you understand
28 that?

29 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Yeah.

1 THE COURT: If the death penalty was a possible
2 sentence, could you consider that as a sentence?

3 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: No.

4 THE COURT: So there is -- no matter under any
5 -- are you saying under no circumstance could you even
6 consider that as a possible sentence?

7 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: No.

8 THE COURT: But you could consider life without
9 parole as appropriate sentence; is that correct?

10 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 MR. EVANS: No questions.

13 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, we have no
14 questions.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Crawford, you may step down.
16 If you will just step back out with your fellow jurors
17 but don't talk about out there what has been said in 18 here. And I thank you.

19 JUROR JESSIE CRAWFORD: You're welcome.

20 THE COURT: Next if you will get Mr. Eskridge,
21 Number 34.

22 (JUROR NUMBER 34, JOHN ESKRIDGE, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

23 Mr. Eskridge, if you will come down. Have a seat.
24 If you will, have a seat right here.

25 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

26 We are asking questions of everybody outside the 27 presence of the other jurors so that, you know, one
28 person might by mistake say something that would 29 influence somebody else. So that is why we are asking

1 these questions individually. And there were a couple of
2 questions that I wanted to follow up with.

3 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Okay.

4 THE COURT: And then there will be a couple
5 more questions. At one point, I believe this morning,
6 when the prosecutor was asking you, you were saying that
7 you just could not judge. And then I think you came back
8 when Mr. Carter was asking you questions and indicated
9 maybe you could sit in judgment. And I was not really
10 clear on what you were meaning. So could you sit in 11 judgment of one of your fellow human beings and decide
12 their guilt or innocence.

13 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Well, what I said this
14 morning on account, see, I know one from each family.

15 THE COURT: So you know some people that were 16 maybe victims. Is that what you are saying?

17 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Well, I know -- well, I'm 18 talking about -- this what I'm saying. I may be getting 19 the wrong understanding, but I know a person from that 20 side of the family.

21 THE COURT: Okay. What side of the family are 22 you talking about?

23 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: The Golden family.

24 THE COURT: Golden. So you know a -- one of
25 the Goldens.

26 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Um-hum.

27 THE COURT: Okay. And who is it in the Golden
28 family that you know?

29 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: His brother.

1 THE COURT: What is his name?

2 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Willie.

3 THE COURT: Willie.

4 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Um-hum.

5 THE COURT: And then are you saying you also
6 know some of Mr. Flowers' family?

7 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Um-hum.

8 THE COURT: Who do you know in his family?

9 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: I guess his brother. The 10 one that's called --

11 THE COURT: Would that be Archie, Jr.?

12 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Yeah. I guess it would
13 be Archie, Jr. He work at Heat Craft, Heat Craft or 14 Lavada, whatever you call the place. I am going to call
15 it Heat Craft.

16 THE COURT: Now, is this something where you
17 just wouldn't be comfortable judging, or is it something
18 where you just could not judge?

19 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: I just could not judge.

20 THE COURT: You feel like you could not --

21 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Yeah.

22 THE COURT: -- judge because of these --

23 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Yeah.

24 THE COURT: Because of the knowledge of these
25 families.

26 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Yeah.

27 THE COURT: And you, I guess, wouldn't want to 28 decide between them. Is that what you are saying?

29 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Right. Right. Right.

1 THE COURT: And also, I want to know if you
2 have heard any facts about this case, like seen it on
3 t.v., read about it, heard it on the radio, read it on
4 the internet or had any knowledge at all about the case.

5 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: No. I really hadn't had
6 no knowledge about it.

7 THE COURT: Did you hear about it --

8 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Really, really, just -- I
9 guess I heard it on the radio, and I never did think no
10 more about it.

11 THE COURT: And did you hear about it at the 12 time it happened?

13 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Yeah, I was at work.

14 THE COURT: Is that right?

15 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Um-hum.

16 THE COURT: And has anything that you read,
17 seen, heard caused you to form any opinion as to the 18 guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

19 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: No.

20 THE COURT: And if you were sitting as a juror
21 in this case, would you base your decision only on the
22 evidence presented and not on any information you heard
23 outside the court?

24 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Right. Just only what I
25 could hear inside here.

26 THE COURT: And nothing else would influence
27 you at all.

28 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: No. Huh-huh.

29 THE COURT: Is that correct?

1 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Right.

2 THE COURT: And the next question deals with
3 the possible sentence if there was a penalty phase. What
4 happens in this type case is if Mr. Flowers was found
5 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt of the capital murder,
6 then we would get to a sentencing phase. If he was found
7 not guilty, the trial would conclude. Are you with me so
8 far?

9 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Right.

10 THE COURT: Now, if we got to the second phase,
11 the jury would then decide what the appropriate
12 punishment would be. The State of Mississippi would put 13 factors on they call aggravating factors, which would 14 show why in the State's view Mr. Flowers should be 15 sentenced to death. And then Mr. Flowers would put on 16 proof called mitigating factors that would show why in 17 their opinion or his opinion the death penalty would not
18 be appropriate.

19 And then at that time the jury would decide what the 20 appropriate punishment would be. All 12 jurors would 21 have to agree if there was a death penalty involved in 22 the case. But could you consider the death penalty as a
23 sentencing option if you were to be a juror in this case?

24 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: No.

25 THE COURT: So are you saying under no
26 circumstance would that even be something you would think 27 about, consider.

28 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Right.

29 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

1 MR. EVANS: No questions.

2 MR. CARTER: Did he say no questions?

3 THE COURT: He did.

4 MR. CARTER: One moment, Your Honor.

5 Mr. Eskridge.

6 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Um-hum.

7 MR. CARTER: If you got picked as a juror,
8 would you listen to the evidence?

9 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Yeah.

10 MR. CARTER: And if you got picked as a juror
11 and listened to the evidence and the jury went back in 12 the deliberation room, would you deliberate with the rest
13 of the jurors?

14 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Yes, I would. On account
15 of the way I feel now, not nobody else.

16 MR. CARTER: Right. Right. That is all we are 17 asking, the way you feel.

18 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Um-hum.

19 MR. CARTER: And you would also vote based on 20 the way you feel; is that right?

21 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: That's right.

22 MR. CARTER: And you would consider everything
23 you are told to consider.

24 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: That's right.

25 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

26 THE COURT: But on the -- on the sentencing
27 phase, are you saying though that you would not even
28 consider the death penalty as an option?

29 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Right.

1 THE COURT: So you would under no circumstances
2 ever even consider the imposition of it.

3 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Right.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. You may step down.

5 Mr. Eskridge, when you go out, don't talk about your
6 testimony here with anybody out there, please.

7 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Yes, sir, I won't.

8 THE COURT: You may step down for now, sir.
9 Thank you.

10 JUROR JOHN ESKRIDGE: Thank you, sir.

11 THE COURT: Number 38.

12 (JUROR NUMBER 38, BARRON DAVIS, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

13 THE COURT: Mr. Davis, if you will come forward
14 and have a seat for a couple of questions.

15 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

16 THE COURT: There is a few questions that we
17 are asking outside the presence of the other jurors.

18 And first of all, I want to know if you have any 19 knowledge about the case where you might have read about 20 it, heard about it on t.v. or on the radio, seen anything
21 on the internet or any knowledge at all about this case.

22 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I haven't seen anything on 23 the internet, but I have seen things in the past on 24 television and on -- in Winona Times.

25 THE COURT: And did that cause you to form an
26 opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

27 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: No. It wasn't that much
28 information.

29 THE COURT: And would you lay aside anything

1       you might have read or heard and base your decision only
2       on the evidence presented here in court if you were
3       selected as a juror?

4               JUROR BARRON DAVIS:   Yes.

5               THE COURT:   The next issue, Mr. Davis, is if
6       the jury found Mr. Flowers guilty of capital murder, we 7       would get into the second phase of the trial, which would
8       be the sentencing phase.  If they found him not guilty,
9       we would not get into the sentencing phase.  But if he
10      were to be found guilty, we would then have a sentencing
11      phase.

12              The State would be seeking the death penalty.  They 13      would be putting on aggravating factors, which are things
14      that they believe would justify the imposition of the 15      death penalty.  Mr. Flowers would be putting on 16      mitigating factors.  That would be reasons he believes
17      the death penalty would not be appropriate.

18              Could you consider the death penalty as a sentencing
19      option if the facts justified it and the law allowed it?

20              JUROR BARRON DAVIS:  If the facts justified it,
21      yes.

22              THE COURT:  And could you also consider life
23      without parole?  Because he -- if he was -- did not 24      receive the death penalty, he would receive life in 25      prison without parole.  So would you consider that as an
26      option as well?

27              JUROR BARRON DAVIS:  I would, depending on the 28      circumstances naturally.

29              THE COURT:  So you would wait and hear the

1 facts and be instructed on the law before you made a
2 decision; is that correct?

3 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: That's right.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. EVANS: All right. You may have answered
6 this. I'm not sure. But you understand you would not
7 even start thinking about what penalty was appropriate
8 until you got into the second phase.

9 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I understand that, yes.

10 MR. EVANS: So we would have to go through the 11 first part on just the guilt first.

12 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Yes.

13 MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your Honor.

14 MRS. STEINER: Excuse me. Good afternoon, Mr.
15 Davis. You -- let me -- you're one of the people who has 16 four family members here; is that correct?

17 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Yes, ma'am, that's very 18 true.

19 MRS. STEINER: Your wife is on the venire and 20 your son and your daughter-in-law --

21 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: All four of us.

22 MRS. STEINER: -- are also here. And I believe
23 you have like a 16-year-old grandson.

24 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I have a 17 -- a 16, 17 or
25 18. I have two grandsons and one granddaughter.

26 MRS. STEINER: With your son and
27 daughter-in-law who are here.

28 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Oh, well, I have two sons.
29 The son you are referring to is Charles. I have one

1 grandson with him and Lee.

2 MRS. STEINER: I'm just worried about Barron,
3 your son who is here.

4 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Barron Lee. Yes, that is
5 my oldest son. He is not here. Charles Lloyd is here.

6 MRS. STEINER: Charles is here. All right.
7 And he has a 16-year-old.

8 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Charles does, yes.

9 MRS. STEINER: And if it turned out all four of 10 y'all were on the jury, would that affect your ability to 11 concentrate, worrying about who is going to be looking
12 after that 16-year-old for a week?

13 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Well, he is looking out
14 after his self today. Unfortunately he thinks he is an 15 adult, I'm sure. Me, personally, I have -- don't 16 babysit.

17 MRS. STEINER: All right. Do you -- I mean so
18 that would not distract you --

19 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Not a bit.

20 MRS. STEINER: -- with your whole family here.

21 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I leave without him quite
22 often.

23 MRS. STEINER: Say again.

24 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I leave without the 25 grandson quite often.

26 MRS. STEINER: I appreciate that. Do you -- I
27 think your son and daughter-in-law are both doing
28 something, on-line courses for their professional
29 development.

1 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Yes, ma'am. They are
2 working on some kind of degree from Ole Miss online.

3 MRS. STEINER: All right. Would you be
4 concerned or worried if they were sitting in the jury
5 room wanting to speed it up or get things done?

6 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: No, ma'am. That doesn't
7 bother me. I just wish they would have gotten their 8 education when they were younger.

9 MRS. STEINER: Say again.

10 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I wish they had gotten 11 their education when they were young, when they were in 12 college before.

13 MRS. STEINER: So it is important to you that 14 they finish this.

15 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Not really to me. It is 16 important to them, but not to me. Not really. No.

17 MRS. STEINER: Now, you said you read the 18 Winona Times and t.v. And you were living here back when 19 this happened, and you have been living here every time
20 this case has come up for trial since then; is that
21 correct?

22 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I have. Yes.

23 MRS. STEINER: All right. What, what did you
24 keep in your head from what you read in The Winona Times
25 and saw on t.v. about the facts of this case, if
26 anything?

27 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Well, the main thing I
28 remember is four people were shot and killed. That's the 29 main thing I remember.

1 MRS. STEINER: Okay. And anything about the
2 facts about Mr. Flowers or the prosecution that sticks to
3 your mind that is specific that you think you know from 4 reading that?

5 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Oh, I am sure I don't know
6 the details of the case. I've never sat in on anything,
7 haven't read a transcript or anything like that.

8 MRS. STEINER: I'm sure you haven't. I'm glad
9 to hear that. His Honor would like to know that if you
10 had, I'm sure.

11 Have you discussed with anybody who has kept up with 12 the facts or sat in or anything like that?

13 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I don't even know anybody
14 that has kept up with it. No. No. I haven't discussed
15 nothing with the attorneys or nothing with you or any --

16 MRS. STEINER: Or other citizens. You walk in 17 for a cup of coffee in a cafe and other people are 18 talking about it. Have you ever had those kinds of 19 discussions?

20 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: No.

21 MRS. STEINER: And you -- turning now to the --
22 if in the event there were a conviction and you were
23 asked to deliberate on sentence, you -- when the judge
24 asked you could you consider a sentence of life without 25 parole for the crime of capital murder, I believe your 26 answer was you would consider it depending on the 27 circumstances.

28 Well, first of all, do you consider life in prison
29 without parole a severe sentence for capital murder?

1 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Oh, it is a severe
2 sentence. Yes. I would say yes.

3 MRS. STEINER: And I just -- I'm not sure. You
4 would only consider it if there were certain
5 circumstances already existing? Or would you consider
6 all the circumstances about it? What does your answer
7 mean there?

8 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Well, I would consider
9 life without parole. If it -- that is the second phase,
10 I believe, you are referring to.

11 MRS. STEINER: Yes. Yes.

12 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Once you found the, the 13 charges to be guilty, is that what you are --

14 MRS. STEINER: Well, no. No. You finished the 15 first phase. We will only get to a sentencing phase --

16 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: During the sentencing
17 phase.

18 MRS. STEINER: If 12 of you sitting on the jury
19 have decided beyond a reasonable doubt Mr. Flowers is 20 guilty of one of up to four capital murders beyond a
21 reasonable doubt. That will all be behind you. At that 22 point is that a circumstance that would keep you from 23 considering the sentence of life without parole?

24 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: No, I --

25 MR. EVANS: I object to the form of the
26 question.

27 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: It would have to be 28 considered, wouldn't it? I would think it would have to 29 be considered.

1                   MRS. STEINER: All right. Now, just
2                   considering the sentence, the Court will be instructing
3                   you. He will be instructing you on, as he said, the term
4                   aggravating circumstances and mitigating circumstances.
5                   And the State will have to prove aggravating
6                   circumstances beyond the four -- or however many, beyond
7                   the murders of which the person is found guilty. The 8                   Court will instruct you what you have to find in addition
9                   to having found them guilty. And the State has to prove 10                  those beyond a reasonable doubt. Do you understand that?

11                  JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I understand.

12                  MRS. STEINER: And then the State will put on 13                  its evidence.

14                  THE COURT: I think you have asked him and 15                  asked him and asked him. So wrap it up with this
16                  witness.

17                  MRS. STEINER: Thank you.

18                  Now, mitigating circumstances that might come into 19                  evidence might have nothing to do with the crime. Can 20                  you consider those as mitigating of that crime, of the 21                  sentence for that crime?

22                  MR. EVANS: Your Honor, is she --

23                  JUROR BARRON DAVIS: Sure. I can. I can.
24                  Whatever come from this seat, I'm in --

25                  MRS. STEINER: Um-hum.

26                  JUROR BARRON DAVIS: -- I, I can consider that.
27                  Yes.

28                  MRS. STEINER: All right. And you would not 29                  make up your mind about a sentence until you had fully

1 considered all of those circumstances.

2 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: No. I haven't now. And I
3 won't until the trial is over, the first phase is over.
4 I wouldn't do it.

5 MRS. STEINER: All right.

6 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: I don't any -- I don't
7 have any reason to.

8 MRS. STEINER: I appreciate that.

9 I just want to make sure that when you said you can
10 consider it depending on the circumstances, what you are 11 saying is you can consider -- you can walk into that jury
12 room in a second phase considering all the circumstances.
13 Nothing would prevent you from considering anything.

14 JUROR BARRON DAVIS: No.

15 MRS. STEINER: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Davis, you may step down. And 17 when you walk out, don't talk about, you know, about what
18 you talked about in here with anybody out there. I mean
19 they might want to ask you a question about what you were 20 asked, but you can't discuss that.

21 If you will step down now.

22 Need Number 40 now.

23 (JUROR NUMBER 40, CHARLES DAVIS, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

24 If you will come down here and have a seat.

25 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

26 Mr. Davis, we are asking all jurors questions
27 outside the presence of other jurors just to make sure
28 that somebody didn't blurt something out in front of 29 everybody that would be harmful or prejudicial to either

1 side.

2 First, I want to know have you heard anything about
3 the case or had any knowledge of the case, like read
4 about it, heard anything about it, seen anything on t.v.
5 or anything like that?

6 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, sir. Over the years.

7 THE COURT: And how have you come to have heard
8 about it?

9 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Newspaper. Just living
10 near the community. And I may have seen something on 11 t.v., but I have a feeling most of the information came 12 from the newspaper.

13 THE COURT: And has anything that you read, saw
14 or heard caused you to form any opinions as to the guilt
15 or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

16 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Could you lay those opinions aside 18 and base your decision on the evidence presented here in
19 court?

20 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Because sometimes what you might 22 read in the newspaper or see on t.v., that may not be 23 right. Do you understand that?

24 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: So if you have read something in a
26 newspaper or heard it on t.v. and you did not hear that 27 in court, would you be thinking about what you had read,
28 seen or heard outside of court in any way when you were 29 deliberating?

1 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: No, sir.

2 THE COURT: So you will base then, again, your
3 decision only on the evidence that is presented here in
4 court; is that correct?

5 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Also, I want to ask you about the 7 second phase of the trial. If we got to a point where
8 there was a second phase of the trial, that would be only
9 if Mr. Flowers was found guilty of the crime of capital
10 murder. If he was found guilty, then we would get to the 11 second phase of the trial. That would be determination
12 of what the appropriate punishment would be at that
13 point. We would only get to that point if he was found
14 guilty during the first phase. Do you understand that?

15 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: And if they were -- if we got to 17 the second phase, the State of Mississippi would be 18 seeking the death penalty. They would be putting on 19 aggravating factors. That would be things that they
20 believe would justify the imposition of the death
21 penalty. The defense would be putting on mitigating
22 facts, which would believe -- which they believe in their 23 view that would justify the death penalty not being
24 imposed. If the facts justified it and the law allowed
25 it, could you consider the imposition of the death
26 penalty?

27 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, sir.

28 THE COURT: And also, if he was not given the 29 death penalty, Mr. Flowers, upon conviction and failure

1 to find the death penalty, would be sentenced to life
2 without parole. Would you leave that open as a
3 sentencing option as well?

4 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: So are you telling the Court that
6 you could consider both sentencing options and will wait
7 until you hear the facts and are instructed on the law
8 before you make that determination?

9 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11 MR. EVANS: Mr. Davis, I want to make sure I
12 understand. What you are telling the Court, that you
13 will come in here as a juror and completely disregard
14 anything you may have heard or any opinion you may have 15 had and base your decision strictly on what evidence you
16 see and hear in court; is that right?

17 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, sir.

18 MR. EVANS: That's all, Your Honor.

19 MRS. STEINER: Good afternoon, Mr. Davis. You
20 have a 16-year-old at home.

21 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Seventeen. Yes, ma'am.

22 MRS. STEINER: If you and your wife serve
23 together, is he going to be unsupervised?

24 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: No, ma'am. We have a lot
25 of family there close to home.

26 MRS. STEINER: All right.

27 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Honestly, when I was 28 thinking of the probability of all four of the family
29 members, I knew that he was going to be -- he was going

1 to be fine. He works for my father at his store. So he
2 has plenty of responsibilities.

3 MRS. STEINER: But if your father and your wife
4 and you are all on the jury, would you --

5 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: That's true.

6 MRS. STEINER: -- be comfortable having the 7 whole family up here?

8 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: I have a brother that lives
9 in Webster County across the -- right across the line,
10 and he would stay with him.

11 MRS. STEINER: Now, you told His Honor you do
12 have an opinion on the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers.

13 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: I formed my opinion from 14 the previous news articles and, and just the history of
15 the case.

16 MRS. STEINER: What are the facts in the 17 previous news article that you base your opinion on?

18 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: The only thing that I can 19 recollect right now that sticks out in my head is that he 20 was found guilty.

21 MRS. STEINER: The fact that he was found
22 guilty.

23 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes. And then the fact
24 that it was overturned. I don't know the details of
25 that.

26 MRS. STEINER: How do you feel about the fact
27 that a Court set aside a jury verdict?

28 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: I don't. I feel
29 indifferent. I don't know -- what's the question?

1 MRS. STEINER: Well, does it -- I mean you say
2 that even though it was overturned --

3 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Um-hum.

4 MRS. STEINER: -- and a court has determined
5 that there is no valid conviction of him, you still
6 believe he is guilty.

7 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: No.

8 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he has not said --

9 THE COURT: He has not said what his opinion
10 was.

11 MRS. STEINER: Oh, I'm sorry. You still have 12 an opinion with respect to guilt on the basis of the 13 prior guilty verdict.

14 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: No. Well, I said my
15 opinion was formed on that, and it was at that time. I
16 mean I still can have -- that opinion was formed at that 17 time I guess is the question I am answering. Maybe I am
18 not understanding what you are saying. I'm sorry.

19 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Now, the -- I believe you
20 are taking an online course, and I don't think His Honor
21 asked you had you been on the internet at all looking up
22 on this case?

23 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: No. Not with this case.
24 No, ma'am.

25 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Have you run across
26 anything in the internet, like a Google search where the 27 case came up?

28 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: No ma'am.

29 MRS. STEINER: And as His Honor has stated,

1       there are two phases to the sentencing. And I am now
2       going to the second one, to the case. If, if you were
3       deliberating sentence -- and you said you could consider
4       life without parole or the death penalty. Do you
5       consider life without parole a severe sentence?

6               JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes.

7               MRS. STEINER: All right. And do you consider
8       it an appropriate sentence for four --

9               MR. EVANS: Your Honor --

10              MRS. STEINER: -- capital murders?

11              MR. EVANS: -- I object. That is the not the 12       proper question.

13              THE COURT: I sustain.

14              MRS. STEINER: Can you consider it as an 15       appropriate sentence for four --

16              MR. EVANS: That is not appropriate either.
17       She can ask him if he would consider it as a possible
18       penalty, but she can't ask him which penalty is 19       appropriate at this point.

20              THE COURT: I sustain the objection.

21              MRS. STEINER: All right. Okay. The State --
22       the legislature of the state of Mississippi has 23       designated two equally possible penalties for the crime
24       of capital murder, as His Honor has instructed you. Do
25       you agree that either is an appropriate sentence, that --
26       do you have any quarrels with that law?

27              JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: No. I have no quarrels
28       with that law.

29              MRS. STEINER: Okay. Thank you. Now, at the

1 sentencing, should there be a sentencing proceeding, the
2 State will have to prove specific aggravating factors
3 before you can even, as a jury, address, think about
4 considering the death penalty versus life in prison.
5 They will have to prove those beyond a reasonable doubt.

6 Can you -- do you understand that?

7 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

8 MRS. STEINER: And then the evidence you will 9 have to look at for mitigating circumstances -- and that
10 would include things that have to do with the crime. Do
11 you understand that? Could you hear things that mitigate 12 the sentence of the crime, that had to do with the crime
13 --

14 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

15 MRS. STEINER: -- you found someone guilty of?
16 Could you consider factors that have nothing do with the 17 crime?

18 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

19 MRS. STEINER: Okay.

20 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Can you explain that a
21 little bit better for me?

22 THE COURT: Well, I think, Miss Steiner, he has 23 already said that he would listen to all the facts, he 24 would consider the law, and he would base his decision
25 based on the facts. And I don't think it is appropriate
26 for you to explain what might be presented during the 27 sentencing phase if it got to that point. He has already 28 answered these questions, and you are continuing to ask
29 him questions that he has already answered. So if you

1 have got something that has not been brought up, move on
2 to it. But you cannot explain that question because it
3 was not a question that should have been asked to begin 4 with.

5 He has already, again, said that he would consider
6 all things that were presented and base the decision on
7 that.

8 MRS. STEINER: If the Court please, I think in 9 this particular set of questions -- in some of the 10 questions the Court has gone over things that had to do
11 with background and family and other things that had to 12 do with the crime. And you didn't do it in this 13 instance. And I was --

14 THE COURT: I haven't asked those questions of 15 anyone. But if you will wrap it up and ask him.

16 MRS. STEINER: Okay. Do you understand that 17 proof of mitigation can include evidence that has nothing
18 to do with the crime, has to do with the defendant's
19 background, his social history, his behavior before this 20 crime and even in incarceration? Do you understand that 21 that evidence can come before you?

22 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

23 MRS. STEINER: And can you consider any such
24 evidence that comes before you in mitigation?

25 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: If it -- is it relevant to 26 the case? Or is it relevant to look at that? If it's 27 presented to me, of course, I will review it, if that is 28 -- I'm just...

29 MRS. STEINER: If the Court lets it in --

1 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes. I will absolutely. I
2 understand what you are saying now. If the Court allows
3 it, I will absolutely.

4 MRS. STEINER: Thank you. And you understand
5 that when you are deciding mitigation, that is your
6 personal decision. You don't have to -- you can find
7 something mitigating even if 11 other jurors don't want
8 to pay attention to it.

9 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Okay.

10 MRS. STEINER: And can you do that?

11 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes.

12 MRS. STEINER: Even if your colleagues
13 disagree. If your father disagreed.

14 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Absolutely.

15 MRS. STEINER: If your wife disagreed.

16 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes.

17 MRS. STEINER: If your mother-in-law.

18 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

19 MRS. STEINER: Your mother disagreed. All
20 right.

21 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: That's a lot of folks.

22 MRS. STEINER: Could you agree with them if 23 they thought something was mitigating, or would you feel
24 obligated to oppose them?

25 JUROR LLOYD DAVIS: No, I would not feel
26 obligated to oppose them.

27 MRS. STEINER: Thank you.

28 I have nothing further, Your Honor.

29 THE COURT: Mr. Davis, you may step down. When

1 THE COURT: If you will speak up a little bit.
2 Your voice is a soft -- you are soft-spoken.

3 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

4 THE COURT: But just look at us as all among
5 friends here and don't be shy about speaking up.

6 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: The reason why I said
7 that, because it didn't offend me or nothing. It just 8 because, see, I don't like to judge people just because 9 of my son got sent away for something that he really
10 didn't do. It was another person involved with it.

11 THE COURT: So you are saying Reginald Lindsey,
12 Reginald Lindsey --

13 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah, that is my son.

14 THE COURT: -- is your son. And he was
15 prosecuted by the district attorney's office.

16 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

17 THE COURT: And so you are saying because of 18 the prosecution of him you could not be fair to the State
19 of Mississippi in this case because of ill will toward 20 how your son was treated.

21 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Well, I can be fair,
22 but I don't think -- I just don't think I can do it.

23 THE COURT: Well, why? Why do you think you
24 could not do it?

25 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Because I just -- my
26 way that I had never judged nobody before that had a
27 crime that killed somebody before.

28 THE COURT: So are you just saying you feel it
29 inappropriate for you, a personal belief that you just

1 don't think you should judge anybody.

2 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: No.

3 THE COURT: Is that what you are saying?

4 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: And would it be any case or just
6 this case in particular?

7 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Any case.

8 THE COURT: So you just feel like you could not
9 judge anybody for any reason.

10 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

11 THE COURT: Is that correct?

12 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: If it got to the point -- well, let 14 me ask you a few more questions.

15 Have you got any knowledge about the case or heard
16 any facts about this case or read about it, seen it on 17 t.v., radio, newspapers or talk about in town or
18 anything?

19 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: No, sir.

20 THE COURT: I mean I guess you heard about it.

21 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah, I heard about it.

22 THE COURT: The fact it did occur. But other
23 than just general knowledge that it happened, have you
24 heard any facts about the case?

25 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: No, sir.

26 THE COURT: And have you had anything, heard
27 anything that has caused you to form an opinion as to the 28 guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

29 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: No, sir.

1           THE COURT: And if you were sitting as a juror
2           in this case, would you lay aside anything you heard
3           outside the courtroom and base your decision only on the 4           evidence here in court that is presented?

5           JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yes, sir.

6           THE COURT: The next question concerns a
7           possible sentencing phase. What happens in a capital
8           murder trial is first the jury decides the guilt or
9           innocence.

10          JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

11          THE COURT: If they found Mr. Flowers guilty,
12          then we would go to a second phase which would be a
13          sentencing phase. If he were found not guilty at the 14          first phase, we would not even get to the second part.
15          But if he was found guilty, then we would get to the 16          second part. And at that time the jury would determine 17          what the appropriate punishment should be.

18          JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: (Nodded.)

19          THE COURT: The State would put on proof called 20          aggravating facts. That would be facts that they believe
21          would justify the imposition of the death penalty.

22          JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Okay.

23          THE COURT: And then the defendant would put on 24          proof called mitigating facts that he believes would be 25          reasons why the death penalty should not be imposed. And 26          so you would hear both mitigating and aggravating
27          factors. And then if you found beyond a reasonable doubt
28          that aggravating factors were there, then you could 29          return the death penalty if you felt that appropriate, if

1       you felt the facts justified it and the law allowed it.
2       You would not have to, but that would be something you
3       could consider.

4               So could you consider the death penalty as a
5       sentencing option if the facts justified that and the law
6       allowed it?

7               JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah, if they allow it.
8       Yeah.

9               THE COURT: So you could consider the death
10      penalty --

11              JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

12              THE COURT: -- under the appropriate
13      circumstances.

14              JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: If they allow it.
15      Yeah.

16              THE COURT: And do you understand if the death
17      penalty were not imposed there would be a life with --
18      life in prison without parole would be the sentence then.
19      In other words, if the death penalty was not imposed, if 20      he was found guilty and he didn't get the death penalty,
21      life in prison would be the automatic sentence. Do you
22      understand that?

23              JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yes, sir.

24              THE COURT: And could you consider life without 25      parole as an appropriate sentence as well?

26              JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I -- yeah, that would
27      be better, I guess.

28              THE COURT: So well, I mean it would be up to 29      you to decide. It would not be up to anybody but you and

1 the other 11 people that were on the jury with you if you
2 were selected. And so would you be able to consider both
3 options in a sentencing phase, if it got to that point?

4 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Well, if it got to that
5 point, I will. But if it didn't get to that point, I
6 wouldn't.

7 THE COURT: Well, if it didn't get to that
8 point, you wouldn't have to. But I believe you already
9 said you just -- because of -- you've just got a
10 religious view of life that you just can't judge anybody
11 for any reason anyway; is that correct?

12 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

13 MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor.

14 Miss Givens, is it in part because your son was 15 prosecuted that you just don't feel that you should sit
16 in judgment on anybody else?

17 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

18 MR. EVANS: And because of that there is just 19 no way that you could judge anyone; is that right?

20 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: No.

21 MR. EVANS: Nothing further.

22 MR. CARTER: Miss Givens, it is quite obvious
23 that you don't like judging people, and there is nothing
24 wrong with that. But if you got picked as a juror, would 25 you sit over there with the other jurors and listen to 26 the facts as they are presented in court?

27 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Listen to them? What
28 you say now?

29 MR. CARTER: Let me ask you again. If you got

1 picked as one of the jurors, could you sit and listen to
2 witnesses as they take the witness stand, where you are
3 sitting now, and testify and give testimony? Would you
4 listen to them?

5 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah, I'd listen.
6 Yeah. If they gave the truth. If they gave the truth.

7 MR. CARTER: And you would listen to them. And
8 would you also -- there is a jury room right behind you.
9 And when the judge instructed you to retire to the jury
10 room and deliberate on a verdict, would you do that too?

11 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I guess.

12 MR. CARTER: So if you sat as a juror, would
13 you follow the law and the instructions that the judge
14 gave you? In other words, would you do the things that 15 the judge --

16 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

17 MR. CARTER: -- tells you you are supposed to 18 do?

19 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah. If, if the law
20 said that -- if the jury said that he was found guilty,
21 he's found guilty. If they say he was not guilty, he 22 wasn't guilty.

23 MR. CARTER: So you are saying that you can sit
24 in the jury box and listen to the testimony. You can go
25 in the jury room and deliberate with the other jurors and 26 --

27 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

28 MR. CARTER: -- and would you go back there
29 make your own mind up and decide for yourself based on

1 your personal makeup and your conscience what you thought
2 the appropriate verdict was -- would be or should be? Or 3 would you go back and let somebody else tell you what to
4 do? Would you decide for yourself?

5 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I decide with them
6 because everybody have to decide together.

7 MR. CARTER: No, that isn't -- well, let me
8 just say it's your verdict. You don't have to let 9 somebody else tell you how to vote or how to decide.

10 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Okay.

11 MR. CARTER: Now, you are supposed to talk to
12 them --

13 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

14 MR. CARTER: -- listen to them and discuss the 15 case and discuss the facts.

16 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

17 MR. CARTER: But it's your -- do you understand
18 it is your decision how to vote? You decide.

19 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah. I know how to 20 vote, but I don't know whether he is guilty or not guilty
21 so I can't say.

22 MR. CARTER: Right. I understand that at this
23 point. But by the time you get back there you will --
24 and start deliberating, you would have heard the facts
25 from the witness stand there. Do you understand that?

26 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Um-hum.

27 MR. CARTER: And after you hear all facts of 28 the case, could you go back with the rest of the jury and 29 make your own personal mind up about whether he is guilty

1 or not guilty?

2 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

3 MR. CARTER: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: So are you saying then now that you
5 could judge his guilt or innocence?

6 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Well, I guess I don't
7 know.

8 THE COURT: Well, only you can know what is in 9 your heart and nobody else can.

10 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah. Yeah.

11 THE COURT: And so you are either saying you
12 could not sit in judgment, because if you are back there
13 and you have heard the evidence, there will come a time
14 when you have to vote either guilty or not guilty.

15 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

16 THE COURT: You would have -- you would have to 17 participate in deliberations on guilt or innocence. You
18 understand that?

19 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: Because you couldn't sit silent and 21 never take an opinion. Do you understand that?

22 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: (Nodded.)

23 THE COURT: So at some point, if you were
24 selected, during deliberations you would be making a
25 decision as to whether he is guilty or not guilty. Do
26 you understand that?

27 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

28 THE COURT: And could you do that.

29 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I don't know. I guess

1 but...

2 THE COURT: Well, what --

3 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I just...

4 THE COURT: What is it -- what is it that is
5 confusing you or bothering you about that possibility?

6 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I just ain't ever been
7 on no, you know, big thing like this.

8 THE COURT: I understand you have never been on 9 a jury. Most everybody probably out here has not been on 10 one before. It is a very important, very serious thing.
11 And I, I can tell that even the possibility of doing
12 something that serious is weighing heavily on your heart.
13 But we need to know whether you could actually sit in 14 judgment if you were selected as a juror.

15 If you cannot, then everybody respects your view.
16 If you can, we respect that view as well. But we need to 17 know one way or another.

18 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I don't think I can.

19 THE COURT: So are you saying you just could
20 not judge the case? And so if you were sitting as a 21 juror and you went back there, are you saying you just 22 could not participate in deliberations?

23 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Uh-huh.

24 THE COURT: Is that what you are saying?

25 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yes.

26 THE COURT: So you are saying I could not
27 participate in deliberations.

28 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: (Nodded.)

29 THE COURT: Is that correct?

1 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Miss Givens.

3 MR. CARTER: Your Honor, just for the record,
4 it is our opinion that she is saying that it would be
5 stressful to do so, but she can do so.

6 THE COURT: Is that what you are saying - that
7 it would be stressful and you can do it? Or are you
8 saying you could not do it?

9 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Well, it would be
10 stressful but it -- just a lot -- I can do it, but it
11 just -- I don't know.

12 THE COURT: Well, I don't understand what you
13 are saying. So you know, we will sit here until you kind
14 of really put into words exactly what it is you're 15 saying. Because, you know, I want to know if you can sit
16 in judgment of Mr. Flowers.

17 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I don't think I can.

18 THE COURT: Ma'am, you could not?

19 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I don't think I can.

20 THE COURT: So you are saying you could not sit
21 in judgment of him; is that correct?

22 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Uh-huh.

23 THE COURT: Uh-huh it is not correct or yes --

24 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: No, sir.

25 THE COURT: Or yes, it is correct that I could
26 not sit in judgment.

27 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: I could not.

28 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And you can step
29 back out. And don't talk about with anybody --

1 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Oh, no. Huh-huh.

2 THE COURT: I, I knew you wouldn't, but I am
3 cautioning everybody. I wasn't singling you out. I was 4 just cautioning everybody about that.

5 JUROR MARGARET GIVENS: Okay.

6 THE COURT: If you will bring in Number 42, Mr.
7 Fielder.

8 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, before he comes in,
9 I'd like to interpose an objection, I mean --

10 THE COURT: Stop. Hold on a second before he 11 comes in.

12 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I, I believe that 13 there are some jurors who are ambiguous. I believe there
14 are some jurors who are certain, and there are some 15 jurors who cannot be made certain. And I believe that
16 this was a juror who the Court's continuing questioning
17 is -- that this is a juror who but for the Court's
18 continuing questioning and ambiguous -- the Court may 19 have determined as a matter of trier of fact when the 20 striking came up that this ambiguity was insufficient to 21 qualify her as a juror, but we do object to the Court's
22 re-cross examination or re-voir dire of the witness
23 following the party's voir dire.

24 THE COURT: Are you saying the Court does not
25 need complete answers from every one that is a potential
26 juror? Am I -- am I understanding that right?

27 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I am saying that in 28 the Court's voir dire -- I think, was complete and had 29 elicited answers. And I, I am not saying the Court

1           shouldn't get answers.

2                   THE COURT: And so if somebody is ambiguous, do
3           you not believe that we need to get complete answers from 4           them? I don't understand the basis of your objection.
5           So if you can explain it, I would -- you know, it would
6           be helpful.

7                   MRS. STEINER: There may be people who are just 8           ambiguous, and we have to deal with and strike them on 9           that basis. And I am not sure that continued questioning
10          back and forth is fully appropriate under those 11          circumstances. And that is my objection.

12                   THE COURT: For what your objection is worth, I
13          will overrule your objection. The Court wants complete
14          answers from everyone, and the Court believes it
15          appropriate to get answers from everyone. And if
16          somebody is all over the map on some issue, the Court
17          believes it appropriate to get a straight, final, firm
18          answer from everybody that is a potential juror in this
19          case.

20                   Apparently, you do not like what the juror said, but 21          she did say that she could not judge this case. And her
22          statement is what it is. The Court did not do anything
23          other than seek to get a complete answer from her on that 24          issue. And I do not think it inappropriate to get that 25          answer.

26                   And I have asked follow-up questions of several 27          jurors that I was not clear on what they were trying to 28          say. It, it did appear that this juror is probably not 29          very educated and not very articulate. But we have got

1 to get complete responses from everyone before we can
2 have a fair and impartial jury selected. So that was the
3 purpose for the Court's follow-up questions, and do I not
4 believe the questions were in the least bit suggestive,
5 inappropriate or anything else.

6 Now, if you will bring in Number 42.

7 (JUROR NUMBER 42, MARCUS FIELDER, ENTERED THE COURTROOM.)

8 If you will come forward and have a seat, Mr.
9 Fielder.

10 (THE JUROR WAS SEATED ON THE WITNESS STAND.)

11 Mr. Fielder, what we are doing is asking all the 12 jurors questions outside the presence of each other to 13 find out a few things that, you know, we were afraid
14 somebody might say something that would influence
15 negatively somebody else. So the questions basically 16 following fall into two categories. First, I want to 17 know if you have got any knowledge about the case, heard
18 anything about the case, know anything about it.

19 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: None other than what has 20 been printed in the paper, so forth and so on in years
21 past?

22 THE COURT: And have you been -- I guess you
23 probably have heard about the facts, that the Tardy
24 murders did occur.

25 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

26 THE COURT: And when you saw it in the paper,
27 did you read about --

28 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Just the snippets. I
29 mean that's --

1 THE COURT: Read the snippets about it.

2 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: Did you hear anything in the t.v.
4 or see anything in t.v., listen on radio or anything?

5 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Just the normal stuff.
6 The little blips that come across on the news broadcast.

7 THE COURT: And at some point you worked in the 8 sheriff's department here.

9 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And I think that was at a period of 11 time after this incident occurred.

12 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Is that right?

14 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: And has anything you heard from any 16 source caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt or
17 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

18 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, sir.

19 THE COURT: And will you lay aside anything
20 that you may have seen or heard or any knowledge you have
21 of the case and base your decision only on the evidence
22 that is presented here in court?

23 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: And you will not let any other
25 factors come into play if you were deliberating; is that
26 correct?

27 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: That's correct.

28 THE COURT: The next series of questions refers
29 to the possible sentencing phase. What happens in a

1 capital murder case is first, the jury decides guilt or
2 innocence. If Mr. Flowers is found not guilty, the
3 proceedings are over. There is not a second phase. But
4 if the jury finds him guilty, then there is a sentencing
5 phase for the purpose of determining an appropriate
6 punishment.

7 The State of Mississippi at that time would be
8 seeking the death penalty. The State would put on 9 aggravating factors, which would be factors that the
10 State believes would justify the imposition of the death
11 penalty. The defense would put on mitigating factors.
12 That would be facts that they believe would justify the 13 death penalty not being imposed. You will base the 14 determination of the death penalty on those facts that 15 you hear during the sentencing phase and on the law as 16 given to you in instructions.

17 So if the law allowed it and the facts justified it,
18 could you consider the death penalty?

19 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: I could consider it.

20 THE COURT: And could you also consider life
21 without parole? Because if he was not -- if the death
22 penalty was not imposed upon conviction, he would receive
23 life without parole. So is that something you would 24 leave open as a sentencing option as well?

25 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

26 THE COURT: So would you wait until all the 27 facts were in and the law was given to you before you
28 even made a determination about the appropriate sentence?

29 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: And again, do you understand you
2 would not even get to that phase unless he was found
3 guilty at the first phase?

4 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

5 MR. EVANS: No questions.

6 MRS. STEINER: Good evening, Mr. Fielder. It's
7 good evening now, not good afternoon.

8 I believe that His Honor asked about your time at 9 the sheriff's department. That was under Sheriff
10 Thornburg; is that correct?

11 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

12 MRS. STEINER: You're aware he is a possible
13 witness --

14 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

15 MRS. STEINER: -- in this case. And you were 16 under his discipline and his authority when you were an 17 officer in the department.

18 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

19 MRS. STEINER: And I assume you are accustomed
20 to taking orders from him when you were an officer under
21 him.

22 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: When I was under him,
23 yes, ma'am.

24 MRS. STEINER: And you only left the sheriff's 25 department when a new administration came in; is that
26 correct?

27 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: I left a little bit
28 before that, because I got a new job, wasn't around as 29 much.

1 MRS. STEINER: Are you -- are you affiliated --
2 are you a part-time deputy --

3 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

4 MRS. STEINER: -- with any department now?

5 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

6 MRS. STEINER: Did -- was this -- did you go to 7 the law enforcement academy?

8 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Went through the class
9 in Grenada, that they had in Grenada.

10 MRS. STEINER: All right. And did you -- were 11 you certified as a full police officer?

12 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am. As part-time
13 or reserve.

14 MRS. STEINER: And he was actually an
15 investigating officer in this -- in this event.

16 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Okay. I was not aware
17 of that.

18 MRS. STEINER: All right. Does that make a
19 difference to you? If he has to testify about a fact 20 that he discerned in the course of his investigation, are 21 you going to be able to subject that fact to the same --
22 that he testifies to with the same kind of scrutiny and 23 bring your common sense about whether it makes sense to 24 bear on something he testifies to about this case?

25 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

26 MRS. STEINER: And you will give it -- if, if 27 you don't think the evidence supports it, the fact that
28 he is testifying to it wouldn't make you feel -- well,
29 that tips me. If he is saying it, I can't believe the

1 other evidence.

2 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: All right. And you -- were you --
4 did you do security? You were here from '04 to '08.
5 Were you actually with the sheriff's department at any
6 time either during the trial that occurred in 2004 --

7 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: I was on the roster.
8 But no, ma'am. I had nothing to do with the trial.

9 MRS. STEINER: All right. You did not provide 10 security.

11 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

12 MRS. STEINER: You did not bailiff the
13 witnesses.

14 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

15 MRS. STEINER: You didn't serve summons.

16 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

17 MRS. STEINER: You didn't do any actual --

18 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

19 MRS. STEINER: I guess somebody had to be a
20 sheriff while everybody else was up here.

21 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Well, I was actually
22 busy with my regular job at that time. So I had -- I
23 didn't have time to get into it.

24 MRS. STEINER: And was that your sales and 25 delivery job with Nexaire that you were with then?

26 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am. I was with 27 them at that time.

28 MRS. STEINER: And it says you did driver and 29 route sales. Did you do that within Winona, within

1 Montgomery County?

2 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Well, it's scattered
3 over several counties.

4 MRS. STEINER: All right. And did you call on
5 customers?

6 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am. I do call
7 on customers.

8 MRS. STEINER: All right. Did you ever hear
9 the case discussed --

10 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

11 MRS. STEINER: -- in the course of running that 12 route?

13 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

14 MRS. STEINER: I thought you had answered His 15 Honor's question that you could consider either the death
16 penalty or life in prison without parole. Do you
17 consider those both serious punishments?

18 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am, I do.

19 MRS. STEINER: Okay. He -- His Honor used the 20 terms aggravation and mitigation. What do you understand
21 aggravation to be?

22 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Aggravation would mean
23 --

24 MR. EVANS: I object. I don't think it is 25 proper to --

26 THE COURT: I sustain the objection. His -- he 27 will be instructed on the law.

28 MRS. STEINER: Let me say whatever -- if the 29 Court instructs you on aggravating factors, he will limit

1 those to only certain things and they will be -- they may
2 be related to the crime, but they will be in addition to
3 merely having found guilty. Do you understand you have
4 to find those in accordance with the judge's
5 instructions?

6 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

7 MRS. STEINER: And that you can't consider
8 anything else as aggravating except what the judge will 9 instruct you.

10 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

11 MRS. STEINER: Now, on mitigation do you
12 understand that unlike -- well, the Court will instruct
13 you that unlike aggravating factors, that all 12 of you
14 have to agree on before you can even consider the death
15 penalty. Do you understand that mitigating factors and 16 how much weight to give them is a individual decision
17 that you must arrive at in your heart?

18 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

19 MRS. STEINER: And you don't have to be 20 unanimous. If you think something is mitigating and 21 outweighs the aggravating factor, His Honor will instruct
22 you that you don't have to agree with everybody else
23 about that.

24 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

25 MRS. STEINER: Based on -- and I believe you
26 said -- oh, that is someone else. You did not have an
27 opinion.

28 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No, ma'am.

29 MRS. STEINER: You have not formed an opinion.

1 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: No ma'am.

2 MRS. STEINER: So there is nothing to set
3 aside. Your snippets in the newspaper, if you read
4 something in the newspaper, even heard something dropped
5 in the sheriff's department, and the facts here either
6 don't bear that out or put another color on it, can you
7 set aside something the newspaper said when you go in 8 that jury room and make a decision?

9 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, ma'am.

10 MRS. STEINER: Thank you. I have nothing
11 further.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Fielder, you may step
13 down and step out with the rest of your fellow jurors.
14 And don't talk about with them what you have discussed in
15 here.

16 JUROR MARCUS FIELDER: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: I think at this point we can look
18 through the list of those we have gone over. There may 19 be some we can excuse. Then we are going to recess for 20 the day and resume in the morning.

21 Number 2, Miss Harris stated that she could not
22 under any circumstances consider the death penalty as a
23 sentencing option.

24 What says the State on that?

25 MR. EVANS: No objection.

26 MRS. STEINER: I believe that was her final
27 statement.

28 THE COURT: I will allow her to be -- to go for 29 cause. Same thing applies to Carol Ann Griffin. She

1 even stated she was a vegetarian and basically doesn't
2 feel any, I think, living being should be killed. And I
3 respect her view, but she said she could not consider the 4 death penalty as an option.

5 MR. EVANS: No objection.

6 MR. CARTER: What number is she?

7 THE COURT: Five.

8 MRS. STEINER: Number 5. I, I believe that is 9 what she said. Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: And then Number 6, Mr. Trotter said
11 he was a friend of Miss Wards. He was very close. He 12 could not be fair and impartial. He also said under no
13 circumstances could he consider the imposition of the
14 death penalty.

15 MR. EVANS: No objection.

16 MR. CARTER: Well, that -- he said that and 17 more so.

18 What do you think, Counselor?

19 MRS. STEINER: Well, I think he was ambiguous
20 and went very much back and forth on whether or not he
21 can be fair. So we can't concede that he definitively
22 said that. I believe his answers with respect to the 23 death penalty; however, were definitive.

24 THE COURT: I'll allow him to be excused for 25 cause.

26 And then Number 33, Mr. Crawford, he indicated that 27 his son and Mr. Flowers' sister have a child together and 28 indicated that that would affect him and that he could 29 not be fair and impartial. And also, he cannot consider

1 the death penalty.

2 MR. EVANS: State agrees.

3 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, I don't believe we
4 even voir dired him.

5 THE COURT: I will allow him to be excused.
6 And then -- and Mr. Eskridge also, Number 34, said he
7 could not consider the death penalty.

8 MR. EVANS: State agrees and would move to 9 strike him.

10 THE COURT: Allow him to be excused for cause.
11 And then Miss Givens, Number 41. I know it was at 12 times difficult for her to articulate her thought
13 process. She did say that she could not sit in judgment
14 of Mr. Flowers in this case.

15 MR. EVANS: State agrees and would move to
16 strike Miss Givens, Number 41.

17 MRS. STEINER: Your Honor, we reiterate our 18 prior objection. I believe she is ambiguous and not 19 necessarily excusable for cause.

20 THE COURT: I actually think ambiguity in and 21 of itself would be grounds for excusing someone for 22 cause. But she definitely in the end -- she was 23 definitive in saying she could not sit in judgment of Mr.
24 Flowers or judge him in this case.

25 And I think that's all we are down to right now. I
26 am going to call everybody back in, excuse these, and 27 then tell everybody else to be back tomorrow.

28 (THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS RETURNED TO THE COURTROOM.)

29 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, there

1 are a few people who I can excuse from the panel at this
2 time.

3 That would be Number 2, Miss Harris; and Number 5,
4 Miss Griffin; and Number 6, Mr. Trotter; Number 33, Mr.
5 Crawford; and Number 34, Mr. Eskridge; and Number 41,
6 Miss Givens.

7 THE BAILIFF: Please leave your numbers on the
8 bench.

9 THE COURT: If your name was not called, I need
10 you to be back here at 9:00 in the morning. And I'll ask
11 everybody to be punctual and be back straight up at 9:00.
12 As sure as I say that, I will have flat tire or 13 something. But I am going to hold myself to the same
14 rule I'm asking you to. But so we will all be back at 15 9:00.

16 And I'll ask during this overnight recess please do
17 not discuss this case with anyone. Do not discuss it
18 among yourselves. I know we have a couple of spouses on 19 here. You can't talk about the case with each other or a
20 parent and child or cousins or anybody. You just cannot 21 discuss it with each other or with anyone else.

22 Also, when you get here tomorrow, you may see some 23 lawyers that walk by you and ignore you. They are not 24 offending you by doing -- they are not intending to 25 offend you and don't hold that against them.

26 Also, can't talk to the parties, witnesses, anybody
27 else involved in the case.

28 With that, ladies and gentlemen, I believe I saw one
29 gentleman maybe that -- he was excused but just.

1 MR. HILL: He hasn't been told.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Trotter, you were excused, and
3 you don't have to come back.

4 And again, ladies and gentlemen, we will be in
5 recess and will see you in the morning at 9:00.

6 (THE PROCEEDING ON THIS DATE WAS CONCLUDED.)

MOTION - DEFENSE

(THE FOLLOWING PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD IN
OPEN COURT ON JUNE 9, 2010, WITH THE
COURT, THE COURT REPORTER, ALL COUNSEL,
THE DEFENDANT, THE CIRCUIT CLERK, AND THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS PRESENT, TO-WIT:)

BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, we're going to continue the process we started --

BY THE BAILIFF: Your Honor, we do have one that's absent.

BY THE COURT: That's what I'm told. I'm going to continue the process we started yesterday. I'm told that Juror No. 95 is late again today, but we're going to be individually questioning jurors at this point, so we can go ahead and do that. And when 95 gets here, we can question her. So if you'll all step back out of the courtroom
and then when we need you, we'll call you
each individually in here.

BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, if you would, would you ask the bailiff to let us know what time that juror actually gets here?

BY THE COURT: Notify us when No. 95
finally shows up, if you would.

BY THE BAILIFF: Okay.

(PROSPECTIVE JURORS EXIT THE COURTROOM)

BY THE COURT: And I've read a memorandum that Defense counsel is complaining because

MOTION - DEFENSE

1 certain questions aren't being asked on the
2 question of the death penalty, and I would
3 like to know just what needs to be asked that
4 is not being asked. Because as I understand
5 Morgan and the other cases, you ask if they
6 could consider all options, if they will
7 consider mitigating and aggravating
8 circumstances, and that's been asked by the 9 Court on every juror that we have come -- had 10 come before us.

11 I don't think it's appropriate for 12 the defense lawyers to start questioning the 13 jurors, asking them in their minds what
14 mitigating and aggravating factors actually
15 are, which seems to be one of the main issues
16 that defense counsel's been doing. So if you
17 can inform and educate me on what it is that 18 has not been asked by the Court that should 19 be on this issue.

20 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you, your Honor.
21 In the first instance, I had -- since it's a
22 capital case and out of an abundance of 23 caution -- since that is just a memorandum --
24 I've asked that Ms. Martin's filed a copy of 25 the proceedings in the file.

26 BY THE COURT: It's filed. Now, I'll ask
27 you to respond to my question.

28 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.
29 Your Honor, on page --

MOTION - DEFENSE

1 BY THE BAILIFF: Your Honor, it's --

2 BY THE COURT: Has No. 95 shown up yet?

3 BY THE BAILIFF: No, sir, but I need --
4 can I come --

5 BY THE COURT: Tell us all.

6 BY MS. STEINER: I'd like this on the 7 record, Your Honor.

8 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, and I don't
9 know that -- I don't know what's there. I
10 would like a copy of whatever has been filed.

11 BY MS. STEINER: I handed it to 12 Mr. Whitfield at his request.

13 BY MR. EVANS: I'm just asking for a copy.

14 BY THE BAILIFF: No. 96, they just sent
15 word up here that her grandfather just passed
16 away, and she is very upset and holding back
17 tears out there, and she needs to leave.

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we understand
19 that that would be something that --

20 BY THE COURT: Well, if you'll bring her
21 in here. I mean, you know, let me have that 22 on the record with her.

23 BY THE BAILIFF: Yes, sir.

24 (JUROR NO. 96, JESSICA WINTERS, ENTERS
25 THE COURTROOM)

26 BY THE COURT: If you'll come down,
27 Ms. Winters. Ms. Winters, I've just been
28 advised and I'm sorry to hear of your loss.
29 Your grandfather passed away this morning; is

RELEASING JUROR NO. 96 - JURY OUT

1 that correct?

2 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: And I'm sure that you're --
4 well, I can tell you've been crying and, I'm
5 sure, distraught over the idea of his death.
6 And I'm sure funeral arrangements haven't
7 even been made yet, probably, have they?

8 BY JUROR: (Shaking head).

9 BY THE COURT: Are you wanting to be
10 released from this panel?

11 BY JUROR: I know I ain't going to be able
12 to sit on here.

13 BY THE COURT: So you wouldn't be able to 14 sit in here and keep your mind on this; is
15 that correct?

16 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

17 BY THE COURT: And you would have your
18 mind on your grandfather's death?

19 BY JUROR: (Nodding head).

20 BY THE COURT: Ms. Winters, I'm sorry for 21 your loss. And, you know, I am going to 22 excuse you and wish you and your family the 23 best in this terrible time.

24 BY JUROR: Thank you.

25 BY THE COURT: And you may go.

26 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

27 BY MS. STEINER: May I proceed, Your
28 Honor?

29 BY THE COURT: You may.

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 Commencing on the bottom of Page 2 in the
3 memorandum, we will respectfully submit that
4 the voir dire -- you're limiting voir dire to
5 the abstract questions concerning mitigation
6 in general. The United States Supreme Court
7 in the cases of Smith v. Texas and the
8 Abdul-Kabir case, both of which are cited
9 from 2007, that meaningful consideration of 10 mitigation is required. Those were in the 11 context of jury instructions.

12 And they rely on Henry v. Johnson,
13 the 2001 Supreme Court case at -- which
14 expressly found that in the instruction
15 context -- and I quote, "The mere mention of 16 mitigating circumstances to a capital
17 sentencing jury does not satisfy the 8th
18 amendment nor is it constitutionally
19 sufficient to inform the jury merely that it
20 may consider mitigating circumstances in 21 deciding the appropriate sentence." And
22 those are both progeny --

23 BY THE COURT: Well, I read your brief.
24 And now I'll ask you the question again:
25 What is it that has not been asked that
26 should be asked of this jury concerning
27 aggravating and mitigating factors?

28 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, every time we 29 have attempted to pursue specifically

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1       inquiring into the kinds of mitigating
2       factors, when they fall before and after and
3       the more general nature -- I mean, we've
4       restricted ourselves. If we were not being
5       restricted --

6           BY THE COURT: Well, I'll just bring
7       everybody in and we can voir dire on the 8       death question in front of everyone because 9       there may be people that did not get some 10      questions asked that you wanted to be asked.
11      So to save us the -- we'll just bring 12      everybody in and voir dire the group on the 13      issue of the death penalty. And then we'll 14      resume individually questioning on the facts
15      of the case.

16           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, may I put 17      something in the record on that, also?

18           BY THE COURT: You may.

19           BY MR. EVANS: I think the Court has 20      allowed -- every time that they have asked
21      about a specific mitigator, whether or not 22      the juror would consider it, the Court has 23      allowed that. The only thing that I have 24      heard the Court not allow, which we objected
25      to, is the fact that they want to ask these 26      jurors in their mind what is mitigation and 27      aggravating factors before they have been
28      told by the Court what they are. And that is 29      completely improper. We object to it. And

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 it's -- from my memory, that's the only thing
2 that the Court has not allowed as far as
3 mitigators and aggravators.

4 BY THE COURT: And that's been done
5 several times. I know counsel has asked,
6 Well, what -- can you define mitigating or 7 can you define aggravating, asking them to 8 define it.

9 But anyway, as I say, the only way
10 that we can have all jurors asked the very
11 same questions is if we ask them all
12 together. Because otherwise, you know, the 13 questions may be phrased differently for each
14 juror.

15 So in order to have a complete record
16 where everybody is asked the very same
17 questions, we will bring them all in here as 18 a group and ask them the questions concerning
19 this issue, because it's apparently of grave
20 concern to defense counsel.

21 In my mind, the jury -- you know,
22 after they say they will consider both
23 aggravating and mitigating, they will
24 consider both options equally or they will --
25 you know, without -- on the front end, they 26 would not preclude consideration of one or
27 the other, and they would consider both. I
28 don't see that there's a whole -- you know,
29 based on Morgan, there's not a whole lot more

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 to ask.

2 But as I say, in order to get a
3 complete record on every -- so that everybody
4 can be asked the very same questions, we will
5 just bring them in here and ask them that as 6 a group.

7 BY MS. STEINER: If the Court, please, we 8 object to --

9 BY THE COURT: On what basis? I mean, you
10 can't have it both ways. You either have
11 to -- you know, one way or the other. I
12 mean, you know, I don't know any other
13 procedure to follow.

14 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, voir dire is 15 a process where the Court, of course, asks
16 its questions; the State asks questions, and 17 the Defense asks questions. Your Honor has 18 correctly ruled that for these conversations
19 regarding the death penalty and also 20 regarding publicity, that the possibility of 21 jurors becoming either confused or influenced 22 by other juror responses, it requires the
23 individual voir dire --

24 BY THE COURT: It doesn't require it. The 25 law doesn't require it. And you and Mr.
26 Carter have rotated on asking questions of 27 these jurors. You have not asked the same
28 questions of every juror every time. You've 29 asked them different questions at different

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 times. Some jurors are asked different
2 questions different than the others.

3 So again, the only way we can have
4 all the jurors asked the very same questions
5 is to have them all in here at the same time.

6 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I am not
7 asking for uniformity. I am asking for
8 completeness of the questioning. So --

9 BY THE COURT: Well, which juror up till
10 now has not given a complete answer? I mean,
11 who do we need to ask a question of that has 12 not been asked?

13 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I think Mr.
14 Carter, when he began questioning
15 Ms. Hamilton -- Your Honor, in every case,
16 each of us have attempted to talk about
17 mitigation in more specific circumstances
18 crafted to each juror's responses to Your
19 Honor's questions --

20 BY THE COURT: And again, please answer my 21 question rather than --

22 BY MS. STEINER: I would say that all of 23 the jurors who have heretofore been --
24 starting with Ms. Hamilton, when you
25 restricted Mr. Carter's questions --

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, as I say,
27 right now, we're going to bring them all in.
28 We're going to voir dire the jury as a group
29 on the death question because as I say,

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 there's no way under the sun that we can ask
2 the very same question of the entire panel.
3 And the only way to do this fairly -- I mean,
4 you can't have it both ways. Either we do it
5 this way or we do it individually. And, you
6 know, so that everybody can be asked the same
7 questions, we will bring them in and we will 8 ask them as group the question concerning the
9 death penalty.

10 BY MR. CARTER: Well, can I just put in 11 the record, Your Honor, you said that is the 12 only way. That is not the only way. Another
13 way is to do it as we have been doing it so
14 far and to allow us to just go a little
15 further --

16 BY THE COURT: Well, you have not been --
17 well, the only way I'm going to do it is this 18 way, because --

19 BY MR. CARTER: That might be the case
20 but --

21 BY THE COURT: -- as I say, every issue so
22 far there -- everybody that we've asked so
23 far has said they would equally consider
24 both. They do not, going in, have any fixed
25 idea on what the penalty would be. They
26 have -- every one that we've individually
27 questioned has said they would consider both
28 options. They would not preclude
29 consideration of either one. They've all

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 said that they would consider aggravating and
2 mitigating circumstances and would listen to
3 the facts and listen to the law and base
4 their decision on that.

5 And -- but yet, that's not
6 satisfactory for Defense counsel. So I don't 7 know any other way to do it other than to 8 bring everybody in here so that we can have 9 everybody asked the same questions. Because 10 your questions were different than 11 Ms. Steiner's. And I disagree totally with 12 the idea that some of your followup questions
13 were called for. You know, where one person
14 might say something that would require a
15 different followup question. That has not 16 been -- you know, that has not been the case.

17 But as I say, you know, you can't
18 point out to anybody on the panel so far that
19 we've asked questions of -- you can't point
20 out any individual juror that has some
21 question that should have been asked of them
22 that was not. And so as I say, at this
23 point, you either -- we continue like we're 24 doing or we bring them all in.

25 BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I prefer that
26 we continue as we've been doing. We filed
27 our motion. We made our record. The Court
28 ruled against our motion. That's fine. But
29 we need -- Mr. Flowers need individual voir

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1       dire in order to insure that fairness occurs.

2           BY THE COURT: Well, I'm not going to come
3 back and individually voir dire 20-something
4 people that we've already individually voir
5 dired --

6           BY MR. CARTER: I don't know that we're
7 asking that, are we, Ms. Steiner?

8           BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor --

9           BY THE COURT: Well, not 20-something
10 because there's several of them that were
11 excused --

12          BY MS. STEINER: Yes, Your Honor.

13          BY THE COURT: -- so it wouldn't be -- it
14 would be about 16, 18 --

15          BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I believe the 16 record is preserved in those cases where Your 17 Honor has sustained objections and where Your 18 Honor has announced about what is and is not 19 appropriate voir dire. And we wish to 20 respect Your Honor's rulings on this. Part
21 of the reason I'm raising this here is we do
22 not wish to be irritating Your Honor. We do
23 not wish to be --

24          BY THE COURT: Ms. Steiner, let me say
25 this: You're not irritating me. You're an
26 advocate for your client. And I expect you
27 to be a zealous advocate for your client. I
28 wouldn't want it any other way because that
29 is your job. And so I -- my rulings --

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1           BY MS. STEINER: But I do not want the
2           jurors to see an unhappy judge or a --
3           whether -- I mean, you were -- admonished
4           both the State and the Defense about not
5           questioning. I think that did not happen in 6           front of the jurors.

7                     Your Honor, we would want to comply
8           with whatever your ruling is with respect to 9           the scope of our voir dire. I will continue
10          to ask the questions. And if Your Honor --
11          if the State objects or Your Honor feels
12          necessary to reduce the scope of each
13          witness, then -- then we can deal with it. I
14          just -- I did want to raise this as a general
15          thing and have the case law before the Court.

16                    I do have another matter. Yesterday,
17          in connection with the questioning of the 18          Juror No. 41, we interpose an objection to 19          the manner in which the Court had pursued,
20          basically, cross examination and persistent
21          with leading questions of that juror. And 22          really throughout the voir dire, the Court
23          has been appointing leading questions and 24          fairly confrontational techniques in order to 25          extract the information that it is seeking
26          with respect to many matters.

27                    I would cite the Court to State v.
28          Davis, 660 So.2d 1228 at 1258, where it
29          discusses a Court of Wyoming decision,

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1        Schwenke v. State, 768 P.2d 1031. The
2        context in Davis was an objection by the
3        appellate to the State using leading
4        questions, suggesting responses from jurors
5        who the State wished to retain. And the 6        Mississippi Supreme Court held that it is 7        proper for advocates to use such questions in 8        the course of voir dire. And expressly,
9        distinguished without -- distinguished the 10       case of -- but cited the Schwenke case where 11       the Wyoming Court had precluded leading 12       questions during death qualification in --
13       leading questions during voir dire being used
14       by the trial judge. The Schwenke court had 15       said it was inappropriate --

16       BY THE COURT: Well, what has been 17       suggestive of the answer from any of these 18       jurors so far? I mean, you know, including
19       Ms. Givens. Ms. Givens was all over the map.
20       I mean, you know, we had to get -- you know,
21       I think you -- I think the law requires a
22       juror to -- to -- if there's given two 23       answers to the same question, I think it's 24       appropriate to find out what their view is.

25       BY MS. STEINER: I have no problem with 26       the parties or even the Court asking
27       questions that are not leading or
28       suggestive --

29       BY THE COURT: Well, what was suggestive

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 or leading about what I asked Ms. Givens?

2 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, very frankly,
3 throughout the voir dire, you have generally
4 opened as soon as the juror has made a remark
5 about knowing someone or -- or having an
6 opinion -- you've said you had an opinion and
7 you said this. You couldn't put it aside;
8 you could put it aside. I mean, with --

9 BY THE COURT: Well, how is that leading?
10 How is that leading? How is that calling for 11 a particular response from the -- from a
12 juror? I mean, that's -- have I misstated
13 anybody's statement that they made when I've 14 asked these questions? Have I -- because if 15 I'm misstating what they had previously said,
16 I -- you know, an objection would be
17 appropriate to the particular question from
18 the Court.

19 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, it's
20 objectionable when -- when the State has one
21 of our witnesses on cross examination, and he
22 wishes to lead them, "Isn't it true that."
23 It's not objectionable when cross examination
24 is appropriate --

25 BY THE COURT: Well, this isn't cross
26 examination. This is jury selection.

27 BY MS. STEINER: Exactly, Your Honor. And 28 I think the Mississippi Supreme Court has 29 cited with approval the principle that the

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 court -- the case which states very clearly
2 that when the Court is conducting voir dire
3 that failing -- that the use of leading
4 questions is a tool of advocacy --

5 BY THE COURT: And again, I'll ask again.
6 I've asked it several times already. Just
7 exactly what is it the Court asked that was 8 leading? What is it that was suggestive of 9 an answer?

10 BY MS. STEINER: "It's true you've told us
11 that you have an opinion, but you can be 12 fair," that you have asked of every witness
13 who came up yesterday for voir dire who have 14 previously expressed an opinion. The 15 questions on many of the people with death
16 penalty issues have been, I believe it's --
17 from here, "You've said you really can't 18 consider the death penalty; is that correct?"

19 Those are leading questions, Your
20 Honor, and I would submit that they were used
21 with respect to all of the people who
22 expressed opinions and with respect to the 23 people who had expressed at some point,
24 either on their questionnaire or in earlier
25 voir dire, reservations with respect to the
26 death penalty.

27 BY THE COURT: Well, at this --

28 BY MS. STEINER: And I would certainly ask
29 that Your Honor, henceforth in the rest of

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 any voir dire, refrain from the use of
2 leading questions of the jurors.

3 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't believe
4 that opposing counsel understands what a
5 leading question is because asking somebody
6 if they made a prior comment is not a leading
7 question. It does not suggest an answer.

8 BY THE COURT: The only purpose the
9 Court's asking any questions is to make sure
10 that we get a fair and impartial jury to try
11 this case. I don't think there's a question
12 that the Court has asked of any of these 13 jurors that would be suggestive of a
14 particular answer.

15 If there is jurors that have
16 stated -- answered two different ways to a
17 question, it's appropriate to get the 18 confusion solved. Because if somebody's
19 saying one thing and then saying something
20 else, it's necessary to resolve any conflict
21 in their views and find out what their true
22 views are.

23 And that's the only purpose the 24 Court's asked any followup questions, is if 25 somebody has said they can't judge at all and 26 then they say they can, then, you know -- you
27 know, they -- the next question they may
28 change their opinion again. And it's, you
29 know, somebody has got to be able to sit up

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 here and judge the case if they're sitting as
2 a juror. So if somebody says originally, Oh,
3 I can't judge anybody and then they say,
4 Well, yeah, I can and -- you know, it's 5 appropriate to get a complete response from
6 them. And that is what the Court has done.

7 BY MS. STEINER: If the Court please, you
8 had asked for specific examples, and I had
9 cited Juror 41. I have my notes. I won't
10 ask the court reporter to read it back. I
11 agree the juror was back and forth. I think,
12 in response to questions, said, I guess, I
13 don't know. If she can judge guilt or 14 innocence, "I guess I could." And perhaps 15 Your Honor misheard, but it was a leading 16 question. "Could you -- are you saying you
17 could not judge the case," at which point,
18 Mr. Carter objected.

19 Your Honor, she's saying it would be
20 stressful, that she can't do it. The Court
21 reiterated the question in a non-leading
22 fashion. And she -- in response to that
23 colloquy, she said she could not. I think,
24 Your Honor, that exchange is -- exemplifies
25 where the Court has been using the kind of 26 leading questions that may be appropriate for 27 an advocate but is not --

28 BY THE COURT: Well, again, you just said
29 that the Court then rephrased it with a

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 non-leading fashion. And my response is and
2 ruling is if there's a question that you feel
3 like the Court has asked in a suggestive way,
4 the appropriate thing is make an objection
5 contemporaneously at that point.

6 BY MS. STEINER: All right. Your Honor,
7 we'd like to make this a continuing
8 objection --

9 BY THE COURT: No, ma'am. It's not going
10 to be a continuing objection. If there's 11 something that you feel is suggestive of an
12 answer, then you need to bring that up.
13 Because it's no way that you -- you know,
14 that you can have a continuing objection
15 because the questions are not going to be --
16 again, that -- you know, you have uniformity
17 of questioning, we could bring them all in as 18 a group, which is not what y'all are saying
19 you want to do.

20 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 Your Honor, allow me to introduce
22 three additional members of our summer intern
23 staff, who are going to be with us for part
24 or all of the trial. Ms. Lawanda Williams,
25 she is a law student at Mississippi College,
26 who is interning with us. I especially want
27 her acknowledged since when she was coming in 28 to Winona yesterday, the security pulled her
29 over on the road even before she entered the

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 town and, you know, questioned her about her
2 business here. They, of course, let her go
3 on when she explained what she was doing.

4 And the other two, Ms. Pria Bandis
5 and Mr. David Rubin. They are from the 6 University of California, San Fransisco, who
7 are also interning. They were not -- did not
8 have similar problems this morning when they 9 arrived.

10 BY THE COURT: Well, the best thing you
11 need to do is make their presence known to 12 the sheriff and the security, because I can't
13 be in control of everything.

14 BY MS. STEINER: I know. I appreciate
15 that, Your Honor.

16 BY THE COURT: And I welcome all of them
17 here to the court. And I, you know,
18 appreciate the service that you rendered to 19 individuals who are -- you know, that you're 20 working -- whose case you're working on this 21 summer.

22 But if there is any problem at all
23 with staff, bring that up to the sheriff.
24 And if that doesn't get resolved, then bring
25 it up to me.

26 But I -- you know, I -- you know, and
27 I think that it would be resolved with the 28 sheriff. But if there were to be some 29 problems that was not resolved, then at that

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 point, I would -- I would take it up.

2 BY MS. STEINER: All right. Then,
3 finally, Your Honor, when we were entering
4 through the security check point to come to
5 the back of the courthouse in order to park,
6 I think uniform deputy -- Winona Deputy Ables
7 was running the security point. There were
8 four or five men standing around him. And I
9 would like have him brought in and ask if he
10 knows the identity of the men standing
11 around.

12 I would say for the record that I
13 recognized and, of course, had to not make 14 eye contact with Mr. Amason, Juror 67, and 15 Mr. Carpenter, Juror 69, standing around and 16 identifying for the security purposes who we 17 were.

18 I'm an attorney. The deputy did not
19 recognize me. And I identified myself, and 20 he let me through. And I would like to 21 have -- I would like to examine the deputy on 22 who was standing with him and what
23 conversation occurred about the case because
24 I recognized this --

25 BY THE COURT: Ms. Steiner, I don't know
26 if you feel like they've got magic carpets
27 that the jurors can ride into the courtroom
28 on. If they're coming to court, it's, you
29 know, pretty clear that they're going to have

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 to pass security to get here.

2 BY MS. STEINER: No, Your Honor. They
3 were not passing security. They were
4 standing around -- I thought, in fact, when I
5 saw it from afar that the security force had
6 put plain clothes security officers in casual
7 clothes to help monitor the security
8 situation, especially since Ms. Williams had
9 been stopped on the highway coming into town
10 that this was a security --

11 BY THE COURT: This highway stopping
12 coming into town, are you suggesting that the 13 cops stopped her because they thought she was 14 involved in this case? I mean, why did she 15 get stopped?

16 BY MS. STEINER: I -- well, the only
17 distinction I know between Ms. Williams and 18 my other two interns is Ms. Williams is 19 African-American --

20 BY THE COURT: Well, it very well could be
21 that she was violating the traffic law. I
22 mean, was a citation issued --

23 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, she was not
24 ticketed. She was not warned. She was told
25 it was a matter of court security. And I
26 would --

27 BY THE COURT: Well, who stopped -- was 28 this a state trooper or was this a city
29 police?

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1           BY MS. WILLIAMS: Montgomery County.

2           BY THE COURT: On the state highway?

3           BY MS. STEINER: Were you just off the 4 exit?

5           BY MS. WILLIAMS: It was just off the 6 exit. I just saw Montgomery on the car,
7 inside of the car.

8           BY THE COURT: If you can provide the name
9 of an officer that stopped someone on the 10 highway, I'll have them brought in and ask
11 them a question about it.

12           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to 13 these bogus accusations that are coming out
14 in court. If they have anything to show
15 this, I would ask that it be proven right now
16 or the whole thing be stricken from the 17 record. It's just bogus accusations that 18 they continue to raise.

19           BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I'll just 20 state Mr. Evans doesn't know whether it's 21 bogus or not.

22           BY MR. EVANS: Well, unless you put on 23 something, it's bogus.

24           BY THE COURT: Unless you can name the 25 deputy and call him in here, because, you
26 know --

27           BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor --

28           BY MS. WILLIAMS: I wouldn't be able to 29 name the deputy.

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 BY MS. STEINER: I'd like to call

2 Ms. Williams as a witness on this --

3 BY THE COURT: At this point, what does
4 this have to do with anything? I mean, I
5 don't see what it has to do with anything
6 involving this case, if somebody gets stopped
7 out on the highway, you know, speeding or
8 breaking some traffic violation. But I can 9 assure you, we don't have road blocks out in 10 the county setting up to find out who's 11 coming to watch a trial.

12 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I would
13 proffer that her testimony will be as she has 14 said from the audience and she also has 15 stated that the deputy -- she was unable to 16 provide a name because the deputy directed
17 her to keep her eyes forward while he was 18 talking to her, and she was unable to read
19 his tag.

20 BY MR. HILL: Judge, this has got nothing
21 to do with this trial.

22 BY THE COURT: It has absolutely nothing
23 to do with it --

24 BY MR. HILL: This is the most irrelevant
25 thing I've ever heard of in a trial.

26 BY THE COURT: It is. I mean, I agree
27 totally. I mean, it's -- we're entering the 28 theater of absurdity here. And, you know,
29 when a deputy can be named, when somebody's

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 badge number can be named, but -- you know --

2 BY MS. STEINER: Well, Your Honor --

3 BY THE COURT: -- if you want to proffer
4 that, I'll let you proffer it. You know, one
5 or two things -- I mean, I'm not going to sit
6 here for very long. But, I mean, it doesn't
7 have anything to do with anything as far as I
8 can tell.

9 BY MR. EVANS: I think she just proffered
10 it, Your Honor.

11 BY THE COURT: I mean, is that the basis
12 of the testimony?

13 BY MS. STEINER: That is what the 14 testimony would be. She is available to 15 testify if either the Court or the 16 Defendant -- or the State would like to 17 examine her. But that is --

18 BY MR. EVANS: I don't care to examine
19 her.

20 BY THE COURT: I don't need to hear
21 anything further on it, either. I'll say
22 this: I don't believe it. I believe it's 23 totally a false statement, because I -- you
24 know, people are not being stopped on the 25 highway --

26 BY MS. STEINER: I believe her statement
27 was it was off the exit coming into Winona.

28 BY THE COURT: Well -- and that's not the 29 highway?

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1           BY MS. STEINER: Well, Your Honor, it's
2 not Highway 55.

3           BY THE COURT: Anyway, I'm ready to start
4 voir diring these witnesses --

5           BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I would ask
6 to call Deputy Ables to identify whether any
7 jurors, in addition to Mr. Amason or Mr.
8 Carpenter, were standing with him at the 9 security checkpoint. And I would like to 10 have individual voir dire on Mr. Amason and 11 Mr. Carpenter regarding the nature of the 12 conversation and the duties assigned to them
13 by the deputies.

14           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, standing by 15 somebody -- we all stand by every one of 16 these jurors every day during the trial.
17 This is absurd. It's getting into personal
18 attacks on people with no basis. And it is a
19 waste of the Court's time --

20           BY THE COURT: I agree totally with the 21 prosecutor. There's no -- I mean, this
22 deputy, whose name is not listed as a
23 witness -- he's not listed as providing
24 anything during this trial. All the law
25 enforcement -- I guess pretty much of the 26 county is former law enforcement.

27           You could ask these two individuals
28 during the course of individual voir dire if 29 they had any conversation about the case with

MOTION - DEFENSE - JURY OUT

1 anybody. And if there were four people
2 standing next to them, these two individuals
3 ought to be able to tell you who they were
4 without calling any deputy.

5 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you. Have we
6 reached Mr. Amason and Mr. Carpenter yet? I
7 guess not.

8 BY THE COURT: We have not reached them
9 yet.

10 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 BY THE COURT: But they will be 12 individually questioned anyway. I think the 13 next one we've got to bring in is Tasha Renee
14 Cunningham.

15 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

16 BY THE BAILIFF: Are you ready for her?

17 BY THE COURT: I am.

18 (JUROR NO. 44, TASHIA CUNNINGHAM,
19 ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

20 BY THE COURT:

21 Q Ms. Cunningham, if you'll come forward,
22 please, and have a seat down here.

23 Ms. Cunningham, what we're doing is we're 24 asking questions of everybody privately and
25 individually on a couple of issues.

26 First, on the issue of whether you have
27 any knowledge about this case or have heard anything
28 about this case?

29 A No.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     And did you ever even hear about the Tardy
2 murders at all?

3           A     I heard about it.

4           Q     So how did you come to hear about it?

5           A     On the news.

6           Q     Was that T.V. or radio?

7           A     Uh-huh.

8           Q     T.V.?

9           A     With a neighbor, yes, sir.

10          Q     And have you read any papers or really
11 kept up with the case?

12          A     No, sir.

13          Q     And has anything that you read or heard
14 caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt or
15 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

16          A     No, sir.

17          Q     Would you lay aside anything that you may 18 have heard outside the courtroom and base your
19 decision, if you're to serve as a juror on this 20 case, only on the evidence presented here in court?

21          A     Yes, sir.

22          Q     And you would not let anything you've 23 heard come into play as far as your jury
24 deliberation?

25          A     No, sir.

26                BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I would
27 interpose the leading objection to the
28 question.

29                BY THE COURT:

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Okay. Would you let anything that came in
2 outside the courtroom come into play?

3           A     No, sir.

4           Q     Also, the next issue involves the
5 possibility of the imposition of a sentence. If it
6 got to the point where we did have a sentencing --
7 first, it would get to the point where Mr. Flowers
8 would have had to be found guilty. If he's found
9 innocent on the guilt phase, we do not even get to 10 the second phase. But if it got to that phase, then
11 the State of Mississippi would be seeking the death
12 penalty. They would be putting on aggravating
13 factors, which would show why they think the death
14 penalty is appropriate.

15                   Mr. Flowers would be putting on mitigating
16 facts, which will show why he believes the death
17 penalty would not be appropriate. You would then be 18 instructed on the law and so what -- would you or 19 would you not be able to consider the death penalty?
20 I mean, what's your view on even considering the
21 death penalty?

22           A     I would not.

23                   BY THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. What?

24           A     I would not.

25           BY THE COURT:

26           Q     Are -- are you saying you would not
27 consider it?

28           A     No, sir.

29           Q     Even if the law allowed it and the facts

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 justified it, you just could not even consider it?

2           A     No, sir.

3           Q     Also, there's -- you know, if he didn't
4 get the death penalty, it would be a situation where
5 life without parole would be the sentence. Would 6 that be something that you could consider?

7           A     Yes, sir.

8           Q     So -- but again, just tell me again what
9 your feelings are on the death penalty.

10          A     I don't believe in the death penalty.

11          Q     And would there be a possible -- could you
12 consider it?

13          A     I don't think so.

14          Q     You don't think so?

15          A     I don't think so.

16          Q     But there's -- in our own mind, you might 17 could -- are you saying you could possibly?

18          A     I don't think so.

19          Q     See, I'm not asking you to make a -- you
20 know, you haven't heard anything. And all we want
21 to know is whether you could consider that as a
22 possibility -- that as a sentencing possibility,
23 because you and your fellow jurors will decide the 24 sentence, but I just want to know if you could even 25 consider that as a possible sentence?

26          A     I might. I might. I don't know. I
27 might.

28          Q     So you might be able to consider that?

29          A     (Nodding head).

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 BY THE COURT: Okay.

2 BY MR. EVANS:

3 Q Good morning, Ms. Cunningham.

4 A Good morning.

5 Q Ms. Cunningham, do you also go by the name
6 of Small?

7 A That's my married name.

8 Q You need to speak --

9 A That's my married name.

10 Q Your married name?

11 A Uh-huh.

12 Q All right. As far as the death penalty --
13 and I want to make sure that I understand what
14 you're saying -- if the law authorized the death
15 penalty in this case and you found that the facts of 16 the case that came from the stand justified it,
17 could you, in fact, vote for the death penalty?

18 A I don't think so.

19 BY MS. STEINER: I object. I think the 20 question is whether she could consider it --

21 BY MR. EVANS: No, sir. That is the exact
22 question, I think, that has been approved by
23 the Supreme Court.

24 BY THE COURT: And what was the question
25 again?

26 BY MR. EVANS: The question is: If the 27 law authorized it and the facts justified it,
28 could she vote for the death penalty?

29 BY MS. STEINER: I object. I believe it's

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 could she consider --

2 BY THE COURT: I think it should be could
3 she consider voting for it. I don't think
4 she should be asked to be committing to it so
5 I'll let you rephrase.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. I would like to 7 get a case for that, but I'll continue with
8 this witness at this time, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. EVANS:

10 Q Could you consider the death penalty
11 yourself if the facts justified it and the law
12 allowed it?

13 A I don't think so.

14 Q You don't think so?

15 A That I could.

16 Q All right. I want to go back to something 17 we talked about the other day. You work at ADP; is 18 that right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you work with the Defendant's sister,
21 Sherita Baskin?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Now, the other day, I think you said that
24 you do not work close to her?

25 A No, I do not.

26 Q Would you think about that for a minute?

27 A I do not.

28 Q Are you sure that you do not work side by 29 side with her?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     No, I do not.

2           Q     And you're saying that under oath?

3           A     Yes, sir.

4           Q     You've also said that you know -- in 5 addition to Sherita, you know Nelson Forrest and
6 Reverend Lewis; is that correct?

7           A     Yes.

8           Q     And you're saying that knowing none of 9 those would affect you in any way in this case?

10          A     No, sir.

11                   BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your
12 Honor. Wait a minute, Your Honor. That's 13 all we have, Your Honor.

14           BY MR. CARTER:

15           Q     Ms. Cunningham, let me just briefly make 16 sure you're not confused about something and that 17 the record is clear on this.

18                   Now, you realize that whatever decision
19 you make is your decision, not anybody else's
20 decision. If you get picked on the jury, you're 21 going to be on there with several other people.
22 However, whatever your verdict is -- and your
23 personal verdict, based on your own moral conscience
24 and not anybody else's and nobody can tell you how 25 to vote. Do you understand that?

26           A     Yes.

27           Q     And so the question is: Could you listen
28 to the evidence and consider it -- it says
29 consider -- we're not talking about -- can't nobody

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 tell you how to vote. Do you understand that?

2           A     Yes.

3           Q     And do you also understand that our state
4 legislature have deemed life without possibility of
5 parole and the death penalty as appropriate
6 sentences for a person convicted of capital murder.
7 Do you understand that?

8           A     Yes.

9           Q     Either one. And that what you're required
10 to do is just consider both, then decide which way
11 you want to vote. Do you understand now?

12          A     Yes, sir.

13          Q     And that's your decision. And with that 14 being the case, can you consider both options, then 15 vote your conscience?

16          A     Yes.

17               BY MR. CARTER: Thank you.

18               BY THE COURT: You may step down,
19 Ms. Cunningham. And when you go back, don't 20 sit out there and talk -- you can't go back
21 out among your jurors and talk about what you
22 testified to in here.

23               BY JUROR: Okay.

24               BY THE COURT: And if you'll step back
25 out, and then we'll call the next one in.

26                       (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

27               BY THE COURT: No. 45?

28                       (JUROR NO. 45, EDITH BURNSIDE, ENTERS
29 THE COURTROOM)

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1       BY THE COURT:

2           Q     Ma'am, if you'll come forward,
3       Ms. Burnside? If you'll come down and have a seat.

4           And what we're doing is we're asking
5       several questions of the jurors individually so --
6       to find out particular thoughts and frames of mind
7       on issues.

8           First, I want to know if you have heard
9       anything about this case or had any knowledge of the 10      case or know any facts of the case.

11          A     Not -- just a few rumors and stuff. Right
12      after it happened, I moved to Eely, Nevada. And 13      after I come back, I have heard a few things, not
14      very much.

15          Q     And so you moved to Eely, Nevada?

16          A     Yes.

17          Q     And how long were you in Nevada?

18          A     Four years.

19          Q     And by that time, I guess most of the talk
20      had disappeared if there --

21               BY MS. STEINER: I'm going to object to 22      leading, Your Honor.

23       BY THE COURT:

24          Q     And Ms. Burnside, have you heard any facts
25      about this case that would cause you to form an 26      opinion as to guilt or innocence of --

27          A     No, sir.

28          Q     -- Mr. Flowers?

29          A     No, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Would you be able to lay aside any facts
2     you might have heard and base your decision on the
3     evidence presented here in court?

4           A     Yes, sir.

5           Q     And would you do that?

6           A     Yes, sir, I would.

7           Q     Also, the State -- well, let me back up.
8     The way the case works is on a capital murder case
9     is it can possibly be a two-phase trial. First 10    phase would be the guilt or innocence. If 11    Mr. Flowers is found not guilty, it concludes.
12    There's not a second phase at all.

13                   But if he were to be found guilty, then
14    the jury would be deciding what the appropriate
15    penalty should be. The State of Mississippi would 16    be seeking the death penalty. They would put on 17    aggravating facts which would show in their mind why
18    the death penalty should be -- would be appropriate.

19                   And Mr. Flowers will be putting on what's 20    called mitigating factors. That would be things
21    that, in his view, would be reasons why the death
22    penalty would not be an appropriate penalty.

23                   And so I want to know if the facts
24    justified it and the law allowed it, could you
25    consider the death penalty as a sentencing
26    possibility?

27           A     That I don't think I could do. I don't 28    know if I could do that.

29                   BY MR. CARTER: I can't hear, Your Honor.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           BY THE COURT: Can you speak up because --

2           A     I don't -- I don't know if I could
3 consider it, sending anybody to death. I don't know
4 if I could do that.

5           BY THE COURT:

6           Q     And can you explain further your views on
7 that?

8           A     I just never been put in a predicament.
9 I've always just don't know if I could do that.
10 It's just the best way I can explain it. I just 11 don't think I could do that.

12          Q     Again, let me explain. You're not 13 committing to do it or not do it. You're just -- we 14 just need to know if that's something that would be
15 in your mind where you could think about it and you
16 could consider the possibility of it.

17          A     I could think about it and consider it.
18 That's all I could say.

19          Q     And would you consider the imposition of 20 the death penalty, if you were on the jury and it
21 got to the second phase?

22          A     If I was on there, yeah, I guess I'd have 23 to.

24          Q     So if the facts justified it and the law
25 allowed it, you would consider it?

26          A     Yes.

27          Q     Also, if he did not receive the death
28 sentence -- if he was convicted and the jury did not 29 impose the death sentence, he could be facing the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 possi -- and would receive the sentence of life
2 without parole. So is that a sentencing option that
3 you could consider, also?

4       A     Yes. I could consider that.

5       Q     And so you would consider and have an open
6 mind as to both sentencing options then; is that
7 correct?

8       A     Yes, sir.

9               BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Evans.

10       BY MR. EVANS:

11       Q     Good morning, Ms. Burnside.

12       A     Good morning.

13       Q     If you were a juror on this case, in the 14 sentencing phase, would you just automatically vote
15 for life sentence?

16               BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I object.

17               She's already said that she could consider
18 both.

19               BY THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.

20               BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, are you saying
21 I can't ask her if she would automatically
22 vote for a life sentence?

23               BY THE COURT: Well, I'll reverse my 24 ruling. I think that is appropriate.

25       BY MR. EVANS:

26       Q     If you were picked as a juror -- let me
27 explain what I'm asking. Because of your beliefs on 28 the death penalty, would that force you, if you had 29 to make a decision of life or death, to just

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 automatically vote for life?

2           A     I'm not sure if I'm understanding what
3 you're asking me --

4           Q     All right. I want to make sure you
5 understand.

6           A     -- can you explain it?

7           Q     If you're picked as a juror in the case,
8 the first phase of the trial deals with guilt or 9 innocence. If this defendant is found guilty, we go
10 into the second phase where the jury will be asked
11 to give the death penalty by the State.

12           BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I object to 13 him going back over the same question. The 14 Court has already asked --

15           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, she said she 16 did not understand it. I'm trying to explain
17 it to her.

18           BY THE COURT: I think he can explain his 19 question, because she did say she did not
20 understand.

21           BY MR. EVANS:

22           Q     And in that phase, the State will be 23 asking for the death penalty and the defense will be 24 asking for a life sentence. My question is simply 25 this: Because of your beliefs that you have some 26 problems with the death penalty, would those beliefs
27 cause you to just automatically vote for a life
28 sentence instead of the death penalty?

29           A     No. I can keep an open mind about it --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 Q Okay.

2 A -- but that's all I can say. I just --
3 (shaking head).

4 Q And when were you sued by Tardy Furniture?

5 A I don't remember. Let me explain that. I
6 worked for Ms. Bertha. She hired me to work for Mr.
7 Tardy before she was married to him the first time.
8 I was caring for Ms. Lena Tardy. That's how I met
9 Ms. Bertha. So when me and my husband was going
10 through a divorce, she let me have some furniture.
11 And she said that she was going to note it on the 12 book. Sometimes, I cleaned up for her and I paid
13 for it and we just have, like, a little
14 understanding about it. Okay. When she got killed,
15 it was still on the book. And then her
16 son-in-law -- when I came back from Nevada, then
17 that's when I had to pay for it. I don't remember
18 when it was.

19 Q So there was a dispute between you and her
20 son-in-law?

21 A No. It wasn't a dispute. He just --

22 Q Well, did you agree that you owed it?

23 A Yes. We had no falling out about it. I
24 had the funds, and I agreed I owed it. When I went
25 to Nevada, I guess it was just a space where I owed
26 him. When I came back here and went to work, I paid
27 him for it. We never had no misunderstanding about
28 it.

29 Q If it wasn't no misunderstanding, why did

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 it have to go to court?

2           A     I'm not quite sure about that. I remember
3 them bringing the papers after I come back here to 4 go to work. Maybe he found out I was back or what.
5 But then I went down to the store -- that's when
6 they had moved the store over to where the other
7 building was -- and I talked to him about when I
8 paid it. We never had a falling-out about it.

9           Q     But you did have to be sued over it?

10          A     Yes. I can't remember the --

11          Q     And there was a judgment against you?

12          A     Yes. But it was no falling-out about it.

13          Q     Is there anything about that, that would
14 cause you any difficulty in this case?

15          A     No. Because he is a distributor for 16 something for one of our salesman at Super Value
17 where I work, and he come in every Thursday, and the 18 lady make a order so I see him like on a weekly
19 basis. But, you know, sometimes, I speak if it's --
20 because she see him like over in her office, so no,
21 it's nothing about that would make me have no --

22          Q     When I was asking the questions the other
23 day about jurors that could judge other people, you
24 stated at that time that you could not judge anyone.
25 Why did you state that?

26          A     Well, because I -- you know, I prefer not 27 to judge anyone. But then when they come back and 28 say could I be fair. My thing is I prefer not to 29 judge anyone. But now, I will be fair.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     All right. Who will you be fair to?

2           A     I will be fair to whoever evidence is
3 presented. I will be fair. Because I would want
4 somebody to be fair to me or my children or my
5 family. That's the only way I can explain it.

6           Q     So now you are --

7           BY MR. CARTER: I object. She's answered
8 that question. He's badgering this witness.

9           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't believe
10 this witness is badgered.

11           BY THE COURT: I think I'll overrule. He 12 hasn't even asked a question.

13           BY MR. EVANS:

14           Q     So you have changed your mind, and you say
15 now that you could judge someone; is that correct?

16           A     Well, basically, I haven't changed my
17 mind. I just prefer not to be in a predicament
18 where I have to judge somebody.

19           Q     So you still have a problem with judging
20 someone?

21           A     I still have a problem with that.

22           Q     Would that problem be such that you would 23 think about it if you were picked on a jury?

24           A     Well, I'd have to say yes.

25           Q     It would? So that might affect your 26 judgment in the case; is that right?

27           A     It could, possibly, yes, sir.

28           Q     And I -- I'm not trying to get personal 29 but these are things we need to know. Your son was

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 convicted of robbery; is that right?

2           A     Yes.

3                   BY MR. CARTER: Same objection, Your
4 Honor.

5 BY MR. EVANS:

6           Q     And since this case --

7                   BY THE COURT: Overruled.

8 BY MR. EVANS:

9           Q     Since this case is a murder during the 10 commission of a robbery, do you think that you might 11 think of your son when you were being asked to 12 decide this case?

13           A     I thought about it. And it wouldn't have 14 no affect on it, because my son -- he told me that 15 he did do it, and I had no problem with it.

16           Q     So that issue wouldn't affect you?

17           A     No.

18                   BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, ma'am.

19                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Carter.

20 BY MR. CARTER:

21           Q     Ms. Burnside, if you got picked on the 22 jury, you would be fair to both sides, wouldn't you?

23           A     Yes, sir.

24           Q     And despite the fact that you don't like
25 to judge, if you got picked you would, in fact,
26 judge and be fair to both sides; is that correct?

27           A     Yes, sir, that is correct.

28                   BY MR. CARTER: Thank you.

29                   BY THE COURT: Ms. Burnside, you may step

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 down. And I'll ask you when you return out
2 there, do not talk about, out there with your
3 fellow jurors, what's been discussed in here.

4 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

5 BY THE COURT: And it may be a while
6 longer before you have to wait around, and
7 just please be patient. We're moving as fast
8 as we can.

9 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

10 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

11 BY THE COURT: Bobbi Davis would be next,
12 No. 47.

13 (JUROR NO. 47, BOBBI DAVIS ENTERS THE
14 COURTROOM)

15 BY THE COURT:

16 Q If you'll have a seat down here,
17 Ms. Davis.

18 What we're doing is there are some
19 questions we just feel appropriate to ask
20 individually instead of out in front of everybody.
21 And I want to know first if you have heard anything
22 about this case, have any knowledge of the facts of 23 the case or read newspaper, seen T.V. or things like
24 that, anything about this case?

25 A Since it started?

26 Q Since inception.

27 A Well, I've seen articles in the newspaper.

28 Q And did those articles cause you to form
29 opinions to as to the guilt or innocence of

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 Mr. Flowers?

2           A     Well, when I would read the article,
3 whatever the verdict that had been ruled for the
4 case.

5           Q     But has -- do you have an opinion already
6 as to Mr. Flowers' guilt or innocence?

7           A     No.

8           Q     And would you lay any facts aside and base
9 your decision only on the evidence as presented here
10 in court?

11          A     Yes.

12          Q     And if something you read about in the 13 newspaper you do not hear testimony about that in 14 court, would you be thinking, Oh, well, I also 15 remember, you know, something the newspaper said or 16 would you base it only on what's presented here in
17 court?

18          A     Only on what's presented in court. I
19 really don't remember the details of the articles
20 that I read.

21          Q     And the next issue -- on a capital murder
22 case, it's the possibility of a two-phase trial.
23 First, the jury decides guilt or innocence. Only if 24 the jury were to find Mr. Flowers guilty would we
25 even get to the second phase. So these questions
26 now apply to the second phase.

27                 The State of Mississippi, I understand, is 28 seeking the death penalty in this case and, on the 29 second phase, would be putting on aggravating

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 factors which they believe would justify the
2 imposition of the death penalty.

3 The defense would be putting on mitigating
4 facts that would, in their view, show that the death
5 penalty is not an appropriate penalty. And so as a
6 juror, you would decide what the appropriate penalty
7 was. And so if the facts justify the imposition of 8 the death penalty and the law allowed it, could you
9 consider that as a sentencing option?

10 A If the facts justified it, yes, I could.

11 Q Also, if he did not get sentenced to 12 death, the sentence would be life without parole.
13 Could you consider that also as a sentencing option?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And so you would listen to the evidence
16 and then reach a determination, but as you're going
17 in, you have an open mind as to both --

18 A Yes. Either way.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

20 Mr. Evans?

21 BY MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

22 BY MS. STEINER:

23 Q Good morning, Ms. Davis.

24 A Good morning.

25 Q I think when you and the rest of your
26 family were being -- kind of having a conversation
27 with his Honor about the fact that there's four of 28 y'all here today -- and I believe you have a
29 17-year-old son at home?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     I do.

2           Q     And you and your husband have made
3 arrangements for him to stay with other family?

4           A     Yes. With other family, yes.

5           Q     And I know -- and certainly, when y'all
6 are with each other, y'all get along fairly well,
7 you and your husband and your father-in-law and
8 mother-in-law; is that correct?

9           A     Yes.

10          Q     And you certainly respect their views on 11 issues?

12          A     I do.

13          Q     And probably you prefer it, in the family,
14 when you all agree on something; is that correct?

15          A     I would prefer it, yes.

16          Q     All right. And as a juror, one of your 17 jobs that His Honor is going to give you a very 18 specific instruction on is to -- your vote, whether 19 for guilt or innocence or regarding penalty -- is 20 your individual vote. And the only thing that can 21 affect it is your -- your personal views of the 22 evidence that's before you and your personal
23 assessment without influence other than a deliberate
24 conversation with other jurors -- you understand
25 that?

26          A     Yes.

27          Q     I assume -- and that often involves 28 disagreement?

29          A     I understand.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Thank you. You indicated that you had
2 read newspapers and T.V.; is that --

3           A     I've never seen anything on television
4 about the case, no.

5           Q     Never seen T.V. And I believe you're
6 taking an Internet course so you're Internet savvy?

7           A     (Nodding head).

8           Q     Had you seen anything about this case on 9 the Internet?

10          A     No.

11          Q     All right. When you -- since you got your 12 summons in April -- certainly between then and now,
13 there have been several newspaper stories. Did
14 you --

15          A     I have not read anything in several years
16 on the case.

17          Q     Oh, okay. Did you just do that because 18 you knew this was the case you had a summons in?

19          A     No, I just -- I don't read the paper
20 daily.

21          Q     All right. We have had several pretrial
22 hearings in this matter, and some of them occurred
23 in one of the general -- you know, weren't in the 24 courtroom. And so people having business in another
25 state office may have either attended or -- or, you
26 know, walked in on the meeting thinking it was 27 something they meant to do. And did you -- I think
28 it was the extension building across the street. Do
29 you do business there? Did you attend a --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     No.

2           Q     Did you happen to come in on a hearing
3 being held in this case?

4           A     No. I've never been in the extension
5 office.

6           Q     Okay. His Honor would have at the head of 7 the table and there would have been lots of people
8 sittings in the room?

9           A     No.

10          Q     And there were several bystanders who came
11 in, and I just -- so you were not there.

12                   You indicated -- you said -- and I didn't 13 really hear this -- about the newspaper hearings and 14 when you read a newspaper article that at the time
15 you would read it, you would agree with something.
16 And I didn't hear what you said what it was you
17 agreed back in the day --

18          A     When I would read the article -- well,
19 I've probably read two. It was during other trials.
20 And it would be giving the verdict from those
21 trials.

22          Q     All right.

23          A     Is what I had read.

24          Q     And so on the basis of what you read, you
25 kind of agreed that the verdict that this jury gave 26 was guilty or not guilty, you said, Well, that's 27 probably the right verdict?

28          A     Yes. I read what -- I believed what I
29 read in the paper from the verdict.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 Q All right. So that --

2 A I took it to be fact.

3 Q Say again?

4 A I took the article to be fact.

5 Q All right. And you -- and you took it as 6 fact that the verdict in the prior trials was 7 rendered guilty, that that was a just -- that was 8 the correct verdict?

9 A I took it as -- at the time of the trial,
10 if they had found him guilty, I took that as fact.
11 And then if it would have been not guilty, I would
12 have taken that as fact as well.

13 Q All right. But here -- as you sit here
14 today, what you've read about the case in two prior 15 trials in prior years, both -- you take those --
16 those were both guilty verdicts from Winona,
17 Mississippi; is that correct?

18 A I -- yes. I take that the trials were 19 found guilty in previous trials.

20 Q All right. And that, as far as you know,
21 you take that as fact? As you walk in this door,
22 the fact you know there have been two prior guilty
23 verdicts in this matter; correct?

24 A I do know that there have been prior
25 guilty verdicts.

26 Q And that's a fact that you walk into this 27 courtroom with?

28 A Well, I mean, I know that that has 29 happened, yes.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     And you don't have any opinion today --

2           A     I don't have any opinion one way or the
3     other.

4           Q     Now, His Honor asked you -- basically,
5     advised you the two sentences that the state
6     legislature has prescribed in this instance for the 7     crime of capital murder. And one of them is life
8     without possibility of parole. And one of them is,
9     if additional factors other than the guilt of the 10    defendant -- the Court will instruct you on -- are 11    proven by the State -- the death penalty. You
12    understand that?

13          A     I understand that.

14          Q     All right. And now you've said you
15    could -- do you think those are both severe
16    penalties?

17          A     Yes. I think both of those are severe.

18          Q     All right. And you've indicated you could
19    consider both. Is that correct?

20          A     Yes.

21          Q     Now, with respect to considering the 22    punishment of whether or not the death penalty
23    should be imposed, considering life in prison
24    without parole, the judge has used the words
25    aggravating circumstances and mitigating
26    circumstances. We've talked about what the State
27    proves as aggravating circumstances.

28                 Mitigating circumstances would be anything
29    in any of the evidence before you in a sentencing

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 phase that you've heard in court or observed about
2 the defendant, not merely -- it could include the
3 circumstances of the crime, and some of the 4 aggravating factors on which the Court could
5 instruct you -- will instruct you could also include
6 circumstances as the crime. Do you understand that?

7 A Yes.

8 Q All right. And if the circumstances of 9 the crime -- you know, you will have found him
10 guilty of the crime beyond a reasonable doubt, if 11 you would even reach this situation.

12 A Okay.

13 Q If -- if the circumstances of the crime --
14 strike that. You say -- even if it is a brutal
15 crime which you have found him to have deliberately
16 committed, can you consider life in prison without 17 parole as a sentence?

18 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object,
19 because she is asking her to go ahead and 20 assume and make up her mind at this time that 21 it is a brutal crime. That is one of the 22 factors that we will be arguing, but it would 23 be inappropriate for her to take that into 24 consideration at this point.

25 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, under
26 Morgan --

27 BY THE COURT: I'll overrule. I mean,
28 she's being asked if she can consider that,
29 and that's all she's being asked at this

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 point.

2 BY MS. STEINER:

3 Q Could you consider life in prison without
4 parole? Could anything mitigate his sentence to 5 life in prison without parole if the State, as 6 Mr. Evans says he will, has persuaded you that the 7 crime -- and again, you will have already found
8 Mr. Flowers guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, and 9 you may, on the basis of the State's argument, agree
10 that it is a brutal crime. Could you -- if that 11 is -- could you consider anything to mitigate that 12 crime and enter -- consider a sentence of life
13 without parole if you also believed those things?

14 A Yes.

15 Q All right. Now, you understand that
16 mitigation can be his background and his behavior
17 prior to ever being arrested for this crime? Do you
18 have any problems considering factors like that?

19 A I mean, if that's brought up in the 20 trial -- I mean, yeah.

21 Q All right. And it can also include things
22 that happened after his arrest in the years he spent
23 in jail. Can you consider that, again, in support
24 of mitigation of a sentence of life without parole?

25 A Yes.

26 Q And if you -- and you understand it's your 27 individual decision?

28 A Yes. It's my decision.

29 Q And not everybody on the jury has to agree

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 either on mitigation or sentence?

2 A I understand.

3 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you.

4 BY THE COURT: You may step down,
5 Ms. Davis. And don't -- when you go out --
6 talk about what you discussed in here.

7 BY JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

8 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

9 BY THE COURT: I want to just note the 10 total inconsistency of the Defense counsel on 11 the previous two jurors. They didn't get 12 asked about mitigation, about whether they
13 could consider mitigating factors or anything
14 like that. And this one did. And there's 15 certainly nothing from Ms. Davis' response
16 that justified anymore questions than
17 Ms. Cunningham and Ms. Burnside was asked.
18 And yet, she was asked a whole bunch more
19 questions.

20 So again, I just want to note the
21 inconsistency of what the defense is doing.
22 And again, point out that, you know,
23 different jurors are being asked different
24 questions, and the only way we could have 25 consistency is to do a group voir dire. But 26 we will proceed as we're going still.

27 BY MS. STEINER: If the Court please, as I
28 think -- you know, the advocate -- you know,
29 we do not necessarily need to ask every

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 juror -- not every juror's responses have
2 been the same. The State has asked some
3 jurors questions, not others --

4 BY THE COURT: I'll back up and say your
5 entire purpose of your earlier motion was
6 because some of the jurors were not -- you
7 know, were not asked certain things. And I'm 8 just noting that these two were not -- the 9 previous two were not asked these things that 10 you objected to for the Court not getting
11 into yesterday, which I disagree with you on 12 your statement the Court didn't get into
13 them, anyway. But, you know, I -- as I say,
14 I was just wanting to note that there was 15 some great inconsistency in how it was being
16 done.

17 (To the bailiff) If you'll bring
18 Ms. Bates in next, No. 48.

19 (JUROR NO. 48, PAULA JEAN BATES, ENTERS
20 THE COURTROOM)

21 BY THE COURT:

22 Q Ms. Bates, if you'll come forward and have 23 a seat down here.

24 Ms. Bates, what we're doing now is asking
25 questions of each individual juror. This is just 26 some questions that we felt was appropriate to ask
27 outside the presence of the other jurors.

28 The first concerns the publicity, if any,
29 you might have heard about this case. Have you any

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 knowledge about this case or have you heard things
2 about the case?

3       A     Not at all.

4       Q     Have you read anything in the paper about
5 the case?

6       A     No, sir.

7       Q     I know you lived in Corinth. How long
8 have you been in Montgomery County?

9       A     Almost three years.

10       Q    Almost three years? And so you have not 11 heard any talk or read or seen anything about this
12 case?

13       A     No.

14       Q     Is that --

15       A     No, sir.

16       Q     And so as you sit here today, you don't 17 know any facts at all?

18       A     No, sir.

19       Q     The next issue involves the possibility of 20 a sentencing phase of the trial. We will only get
21 to a sentencing phase if the State of Mississippi
22 proves Mr. Flowers guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
23 We would not get into a sentencing phase if he was 24 found not guilty. So this would only be if he was 25 found guilty.

26               If he were to be found guilty, we would 27 then have a sentencing phase where the State is 28 seeking the death penalty. They would put on 29 aggravating factors, which would be facts that they

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 believe would justify the imposition of the death
2 penalty.

3 Then, the defendant would then be allowed
4 and would put on proof called mitigating factors,
5 which would show reasons why the death penalty in
6 his view would not be the appropriate sentence.

7 After that, the Court will instruct you on
8 the law. And I want to know if you could consider 9 the death penalty as a sentencing option if the 10 facts justified it and the law allowed it?

11 A Yes, sir, I can.

12 Q You can consider it?

13 A Absolutely.

14 Q Also, there -- if he was not sentenced to 15 death, life in prison without parole would be the 16 sentence. Would you also consider that as a
17 sentencing option?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q So would you listen to all the facts and,
20 after deliberation with your fellow jurors, then
21 make a determination as to what the appropriate
22 sentence should be if it got to the point where you
23 had -- were called upon to do that?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans, any questions?

26 BY MR. EVANS: No questions, Your Honor.

27 BY MS. STEINER:

28 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Bates. You've 29 indicated that you've only been here for just shy of

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 three years?

2 A Yes, ma'am.

3 Q Approximately, two years ago, there was a
4 prior proceeding in this case here at the same
5 courthouse. Do you recall -- do you read the Winona
6 Times?

7 A Not really. We don't even get it.

8 Q Okay. Do you have a newspaper you read?

9 A No, ma'am.

10 Q Do you use the Internet?

11 A No, ma'am.

12 Q All right. Your -- your husband is a
13 minister. Does he have a church here in Winona?

14 A No, ma'am.

15 Q All right. Is he retired or --

16 A No. We're somewhat missionaries.

17 Q I see.

18 A We go and come.

19 Q I see. Do you spend -- and I believe you
20 have run a children's shelter and children's home in 21 Corinth, Mississippi?

22 A I was assistant director at the children's
23 home in Corinth, Mississippi for four years.

24 Q And so -- in Arkansas?

25 A No. Mississippi. Excuse me. Corinth,
26 Mississippi.

27 Q All right. And is that through your
28 missionary work or was that a civilian job --

29 A No, ma'am. That was a county-run shelter

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 for the State of Mississippi.

2 Q All right. And did you work with law
3 enforcement people in the course of running the 4 children's shelter?

5 A Not much. More Department of Human
6 Services.

7 Q All right. If the child in the shelter
8 was either the victim of -- did you deal with 9 children who were being sheltered because of their
10 own delinquency or children --

11 A Everything. We had extreme abuse,
12 neglect, rape, you know, everything that you can
13 imagine.

14 Q And did you deal -- when law enforcement
15 were investigating a case of abuse of a child --

16 A No.

17 Q -- did you have to interface with them?

18 A No.

19 Q All right. Now, His Honor asked you
20 about -- do you agree that -- well, the State of 21 Mississippi -- His Honor has -- the legislature of 22 the State of Mississippi provides two sentences
23 equally appropriate for -- for the crime of capital
24 murder should a defendant be convicted.

25 A Uh-huh.

26 Q Life in prison without parole and if, and
27 only if, the State convenes the penalty proceeding
28 and presents evidence in aggravation, the sentence
29 of death. Do you understand that?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, ma'am.

2           Q     Do you consider both of those serious
3           punishments?

4           A     Yes, ma'am.

5           Q     Do you -- when you were answering His
6           Honor's questions and he asked if you could consider
7           the death penalty, you said absolutely.

8           A     Yes, ma'am.

9           Q     And when he asked if you could consider
10          the other equally possible sentence, life in prison
11          without parole, I believe you answered yes, sir.
12          That was a less vehement answer.

13          A     Uh-huh.

14          Q     Would it be fair to say that with a
15          capital murder that you found someone guilty of --
16          if you were getting to a penalty phase, it means Mr.
17          Flowers has been found guilty of four capital
18          murders. The State may be arguing they were brutal,
19          and there -- you will have concluded beyond a
20          reasonable doubt that he did that. Is that one of 21          the -- I mean -- is -- okay -- and that -- and they
22          will be asking you to consider the death penalty. I
23          assume you will consider it, under --

24          A     Yes, sir -- yes, ma'am.

25          Q     -- the circumstances.

26                 Now, the sentence of life in prison
27          without parole is a sentence that -- it's not merely 28          considering it. You will be guided. The Court will 29          instruct you that you must consider evidence in

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 mitigation of the sentence.

2       A     I understand.

3       Q     And do you understand that that evidence
4 may have nothing to do with the crime itself?

5       A     Yes, ma'am.

6       Q     All right. And it will have -- it might 7 have to do with things about the defendant prior to 8 his arrest?

9       A     Uh-huh.

10       Q    The people who knew him. The activities
11 he was involved in.

12       A     (Nodding head).

13       Q     And it could even include evidence of 14 matters since his arrest. Can you consider those in 15 mitigation of a crime of which you have already
16 concluded he is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt;
17 and if you have agreed with the State's
18 characterization of that crime -- it was a brutal
19 crime -- could you consider other factors unrelated
20 to the crime?

21       A     Yes, ma'am. I will be open to.

22       Q     Okay. And so that is no -- you're not 23 telling -- when you said absolutely, I -- I got the 24 sense that you really thought that was the better
25 penalty for a brutal crime?

26       A     I do.

27       Q     All right. And in fact, if he's -- if he
28 is convicted and found guilty beyond a reasonable
29 doubt of the crime of capital murder, you will walk

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 into that penalty phase already believing that the
2 better punishment would be the death penalty. Is
3 that correct?

4 A Yes, ma'am, probably so.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay. You may step down,
6 Ms. Bates. And when you go back out there,
7 don't talk about it with anyone what you've
8 discussed in here.

9 BY JUROR: All right.

10 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, before we go
11 any further --

12 BY THE COURT: Let Ms. Bates step out
13 first.

14 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

15 BY MR. EVANS: Judge, before we go any 16 further, I've got a case I would like for the 17 Court to review on the question I was asking
18 a while ago, if you don't mind.

19 BY THE COURT: I'll take it up.

20 Also, the bailiff passed me a note,
21 and I meant to note it when the person
22 finally showed in, but No. 95 finally did
23 drag in here at 9:25.

24 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

25 BY THE COURT: So Juror 95 did finally -- 26 two days in row that Juror 95 has been 27 extremely late.

28 Let's recess for a few minutes.

29 (FOLLOWING A BRIEF RECESS, PROCEEDINGS

HEARING AND PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE
JURORS, TO-WIT:)

BY THE COURT: I believe No. 50

Mr. Lester --

BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, before we do that, I have a person here that I would like to put on the stand in response to some questions that I asked one of the jurors, to make a record, if I may. It's a Ms. Crystal
Carpenter.

BY THE COURT: You may. Well, where is
she?

BY MR. HOPPER: I'll get her.

BY THE COURT: Is this Ms. Carpenter?

BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir. And she may need to be sworn.

(WITNESS IS SWORN BY THE COURT)

BY MR. EVANS: If you would, come around and have a seat up here, Ms. Carpenter.

BY MR. CARTER: What's her name, again?
Crystal Carpenter?

BY THE COURT: Correct. I mean, I'll have her state her name for the record. State your name for the record, please.

BY THE WITNESS: Crystal Carpenter.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. EVANS:

Q Ms. Carpenter, where do you work?

CARPENTER - DIRECT

1           A     Advanced Distributor Products in Grenada.

2           Q     And is that known as ADP?

3           A     It is.

4           Q     How long have you worked there?

5           A     Almost 18 years.

6           Q     And what is your job title there?

7           A     Quality control clerk.

8           Q     You work in the office?

9           A     I do.

10          Q     Did somebody from my office contact you in 11 relationship to where two individuals worked at ADP?

12          A     They did. John Johnson did this morning.

13          Q     All right. Do you know a person by the 14 name of Tashia Renee Small Cunningham?

15          A     I do.

16          Q     Where does she work?

17          A     On the Raw 2 line.

18          Q     The Raw 2 line?

19          A     Uh-huh.

20          Q     Do you know a person by the name of 21 Sherita Baskin?

22          A     I do.

23          Q     Where does she work?

24          A     On the Raw 2 line.

25          Q     How close in relationship to each other is 26 their work stations?

27          A     Probably about nine or 10 inches.

28          Q     Nine or 10 inches?

29          A     Uh-huh.

CARPENTER - DIRECT

1           Q     So they work side by side?

2           A     They do. Like I said, some days, you
3 know, if somebody's not there, they might have to
4 move up and down. But that's their regular jobs.

5           Q     And do they have to converse with each
6 other each day during -- because of their work?

7           A     Yes, sir, they do.

8           Q     And explain that if you would, briefly.

9           A     Well, I mean, we all have to communicate
10 together up there. But, I mean, with them working 11 side by side, you know, if there's a problem, like,
12 with a label or something like that, they have to 13 communicate with one another.

14                   BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your
15 Honor.

16                   BY THE COURT: Anything?

17                   BY MR. CARTER: Yes, sir.

18                   CROSS EXAMINATION

19           BY MR. CARTER:

20           Q     How long have they been working side by 21 side?

22           A     Oh, however long they've been there. I'm 23 sure most of them's been there probably about at 24 least seven or eight years at the most or maybe a
25 little bit more.

26           Q     And do they always work on the same
27 project or task, each one of them? I don't know how 28 the job operates, but I'm assuming -- it's an 29 assembly line. Is that what you're saying?

CROSS - CARPENTER

1           A     It is.

2           Q     Is there some product coming down the
3 line?

4           A     It is the same product every day.

5           Q     Each has to do something to it?

6           A     Right.

7           Q     And you've observed them -- personally
8 observed them on a daily basis?

9           A     I do. Like I said, unless, like somebody
10 might be out and, you know, they might have to move
11 another one down the line or something, but that's 12 where their regular jobs are. Because I have to go
13 by there every day.

14          Q     Are there records kept as to the 15 particular location of every person?

16          A     It is.

17          Q     On every day?

18          A     It is.

19          Q     Do you have those with you?

20          A     No. It will be found in human resource.

21          Q     Can you provide them? Can you get them
22 and provide them to substantiate your testimony?

23          A     I can.

24          Q     And would you do that for us?

25          A     I will.

26          Q     Okay. And when could we -- could that be
27 available?

28          A     I'll have to contact human resources as 29 soon as I walk out of here.

CROSS - CARPENTER

1           Q     Okay. And so your testimony is -- how
2 many people -- what did you call it -- Raw 2?

3           A     Raw 2 line.

4           Q     Raw 2 line. How many persons are on that
5 line?

6           A     It's probably anywhere from, I'd say, 25
7 to 35.

8           Q     Okay. And each person is assigned like a
9 particular spot that they have to be in? Or can 10 they be at the different place on the line?

11          A     No. They are assigned to a particular 12 spot. Like I said, if somebody is out and they're 13 running, maybe, a smaller unit or something, then
14 they can move the person down, you know, on the up
15 flow or the down flow.

16          Q     Okay. And you are sure that as of this
17 Monday, or last Friday, they were, in fact, working 18 next to each other?

19          A     Right.

20          Q     Okay. And the records reflect -- the 21 record will reflect that just as your personal
22 having observed them doing that?

23          A     Right.

24                BY MR. CARTER: Okay. One moment.

25                       (PAUSE)

26                BY MR. CARTER: No further questions, Your 27 Honor, except that we object to the district
28 attorney's office going down to -- well, I'll 29 have to do it without the --

OBJECTION - JURORS OUT

1           BY THE COURT: Ms. Carpenter, you may step
2 down, and you're free to go.

3           (WITNESS LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

4           BY MR. CARTER: Your Honor, I just want to 5 go on the record objecting to the district
6 attorney's office going to people's jobs and 7 contacting their supervisors and -- during
8 the voir dire, before voir dire is even
9 concluded. And with the intention of trying 10 to get information out in the street, out in 11 the public that certain witnesses are
12 potentially lying. And we further --

13           BY THE COURT: Juror, not witness. It's
14 juror.

15           BY MR. CARTER: Juror. I'm sorry.
16 Particular jurors are lying. And we further
17 object to any ruling being made as to whether 18 or not this juror is lying until we see some 19 records made in the ordinary course of 20 business to substantiate her personal
21 testimony.

22           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I had received
23 evidence or I had received communications
24 that this juror worked next to Ms. Baskin. I
25 asked her in front of the whole panel if she 26 worked next to her. She denied it, said she 27 worked on the far end of the line. To make
28 sure there was no misunderstanding, I
29 clarified that on individual voir dire and

OBJECTION - JURORS OUT

1 asked her if she worked next to her. She
2 flat denied it. Said that she did not. I
3 think it's my obligation to the Court instead
4 of me just asserting that I think she works
5 to her -- next to her to put on proof if that
6 is, in fact, true, which I elicited to do.

7 This juror was not contacted. She
8 had no knowledge that they were contacted. I
9 did not have the place contacted for any 10 purpose other than to ask one question, where 11 did they work in relationship to each other.
12 I would ask that this juror be brought back
13 into Court and asked again if she understands
14 the oath and if she works next to her.

15 BY THE COURT: I think this juror's
16 already said under oath what her response is,
17 and I don't see any need to go further on 18 this issue at this time.

19 BY MR. EVANS: I would ask that at this
20 point she be struck for cause.

21 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, two
22 observations. One, in respect to my prior 23 concerns expressed by the district attorney
24 having repeatedly raised in the public view
25 the specter of the D.A.'s office
26 investigating and charging with perjury on 27 the basis of there were two jurors charged in 28 open court the last time.

29 I believe this is part and parcel of

OBJECTION - JURORS OUT

1 that same effort, and we believe it is
2 improper for the reasons said and further
3 cited in support of our prior motions that
4 the State be precluded from engaging in any
5 sort of death qualification of jurors and to 6 strike the death penalty because the
7 heightened scrutiny and standards applicable
8 in the death penalty case require, for all
9 the reasons Mr. Carter says, you know,
10 scrupulous attention to lack of misconduct
11 and I believe -- interference with the 12 process by the district attorney, and I
13 believe this is -- this sort of thing is in 14 support of that prior motion as well.

15 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, and obviously,
16 the Defense doesn't want the jurors to tell
17 the truth and to find out what the truth is,
18 but the State wants truthful answers from 19 every juror that is here.

20 BY MR. CARTER: So do we.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, voir dire, I think,
22 means to speak the truth. And if I've got 23 jurors that aren't speaking the truth during 24 voir dire, then I think it's appropriate to 25 come forward and present proof of that.
26 Whether now is the time to do it or whether
27 we should have waited till conclusion of voir
28 dire is, you know, subject to question.

29 But if either of you have notion that

OBJECTION - JURORS OUT

1           somebody has not been truthful, then I
2           will -- you know, I think you've got a
3           responsibility as an officer of the court to 4           come forward with that.

5                     I don't think at this time that's
6           grounds for cause. I think certainly, you
7           know, the State can preempt orally. But I
8           mean, we've got the sworn testimony of 9           Ms. Cunningham, and we've got Ms. Carpenter's
10          sworn testimony. And at this point -- I
11          mean, I can't have collateral issues relating 12          to all the jurors. But as I say, I think
13          that would be grounds for a preemptory strike
14          if the State chooses to exercise one at some
15          point.

16                    (To the bailiff) Bobby Lester.

17                    (JUROR NO. 50, BOBBY LESTER, ENTERS THE
18                    COURTROOM)

BY THE COURT:

19
20           Q     Mr. Lester, if you'll come forward and 21           have a seat.

22                    Mr. Lester, we're now asking questions of 23           each juror outside the presence of the other jurors.
24           And I believe from previous statements you've made
25           that you maybe have some knowledge about the case or 26           have heard about the case --

27           A     Yes, sir.

28           Q     -- so if you would now, just tell us
29           what -- how you came to hear about the case and

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 things like that.

2           A     I was working in Winona at the Bank of
3 Winona when the incident occurred. Shortly -- I'd
4 say minutes after it happened, we had -- people
5 began to come into the bank, people crying, people
6 telling us that there had been an incident down
7 there, that Ms. Tardy had been murdered. And, of 8 course, that's where it all began. And community
9 talk and the local newspaper publications, just --
10 that's basically where I've heard about it.

11           Q     And have those things caused you to form
12 an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of
13 Mr. Flowers?

14           A     We have been talking about this now for 14
15 years and hearing about it, and the cases have gone
16 on and on. I suppose, you know, if I said that I
17 did not have an opinion of some kind, I'd be being
18 untruthful to you. But if the question is if I --
19 am I stuck on an opinion? My opinion is just from 20 what I've heard people say. I've never heard any --
21 any facts, I guess.

22           Q     Well, could you, if you were called as a
23 juror, lay any opinion aside that you might have 24 formed and base your decision only on the evidence
25 and on nothing else but evidence presented here in 26 this court?

27           A     Yes, sir, I could.

28           Q     And could you lay aside anything that you
29 might have read in the paper, heard about, gossip in

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 the street and anything else and base your decision
2 just on the evidence in court?

3       A     Yes, sir, I could.

4       Q     If you had read something in the past or 5 heard some gossip out in town about the case but 6 that's not proven in court, would that come into
7 your play or your consideration at all when
8 deliberating?

9       A     No, sir.

10       Q    Also, the situation is if the State of 11 Mississippi obtains a conviction on the first part
12 of the case, there would be a second phase. The 13 first phase is guilt or innocence is decided. If 14 he's found not guilty, the case ceases. It's over.
15 If he was found guilty, then we would go onto a
16 second phase. It's called the sentencing phase. At 17 that time, the jury would be called upon to make a
18 decision as to the appropriate sentence. The 19 appropriate sentence could be the death penalty or 20 life without parole. The State will be putting on 21 aggravating factors, which would show in the State's 22 mind why the death penalty would be appropriate.

23               The Defense would put on mitigating
24 factors, which would be in their minds reasons why
25 the death penalty should not be imposed or would not
26 be appropriate.

27               Could you consider -- would you listen to 28 the evidence and all the facts and the law given to 29 you by the Court and would you consider both of

1 these options?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And would you, before you hear anything,
4 be leaning toward either option?

5 A No, sir.

6 Q So you're telling me that you will keep an
7 open mind and consider both options equally prior to 8 hearing any testimony?

9 A Yes, I would.

10 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans?

11 BY MR. EVANS: No questions.

12 BY MS. STEINER:

13 Q Good morning, Mr. Lester.

14 A Morning.

15 Q I believe in response to His Honor's
16 question, you said you were working at -- this is 17 Bank of Winona?

18 A Yes, ma'am.

19 Q How -- how far from the Tardy Furniture
20 Store was Bank of Winona?

21 A Couple of blocks.

22 Q All right.

23 A Two or three blocks.

24 Q All right. But within a few minutes of 25 the incident happening there --

26 A Yes.

27 Q -- people who were so personally affected
28 by the deaths of one or more of these people, that 29 they were in tears --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes.

2           Q     -- were speaking to you personally about
3 those --

4           A     To whoever would listen to them.

5           Q     Right. And you were among them?

6           A     Yes.

7           Q     This broke your heart, I'm sure, as it did
8 these peoples.

9           A     It shocked me.

10          Q     And I believe you said you'd been friends
11 for years with Ms. Rigby's husband. Is that
12 correct?

13          A     Yes.

14          Q     So you felt his pain. I would imagine, Oh
15 my God, I want to be there to pray with Bennie when 16 he hears this?

17          A     I don't know that I felt that exactly.
18 But yes, I was concerned for all the families.

19          Q     All right. And you have that knowledge
20 from the minute of the pain of your friend
21 Mr. Bennie Rigby?

22          A     Uh-huh.

23          Q     Are you in his church?

24          A     No.

25          Q     Do you participate with his singing in any 26 of his events?

27          A     No. I have sung at events that he has 28 sung at, but I've never sung with him that I can
29 recall.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Would that include the event in Kosciusko
2 as a fund raiser for the reward fund in this case?
3 Did you perform at that one?

4           A     For what?

5           Q     A few months -- a month or two after this,
6 there was a fund raiser which Mr. Rigby's gospel
7 group performed, raising funds for a reward --

8           A     Oh, no. No.

9           Q     -- fund to assist in this investigation?

10          A     No.

11          Q     Did you attend that?

12          A     No.

13          Q     You didn't perform that? Now, I believe
14 you've said you've known the Tardy family your whole
15 life. That would include Ms. Bertha.

16          A     Yes. Knew more Roxanne. She was a year
17 older than I was in the school.

18          Q     All right. And you graduated with her
19 from school?

20          A     No. I graduated from another school, but 21 still in town.

22          Q     All right. Was that Mr. Tom Tardy? Was 23 he at your school? I'm trying to figure out who you
24 graduated with.

25          A     I'm a year younger than Roxanne.

26          Q     Okay.

27          A     I've never met Mr. Tom Tardy.

28          Q     Okay. And was Bank of Winona where 29 Tardy's Furniture did its banking?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes.

2           Q     And that Sherry -- Sharon Martin was the
3 window clerk?

4           A     That name --

5           Q     Bailey, I'm sorry. Sherry Bailey --
6 Sharon Bailey was the window clerk that morning.

7           A     No. They must have had an account at 8 another bank as well.

9           Q     All right.

10          A     Because she's never worked for us.

11          Q     All right. And did you attend Ms. Rigby's
12 funeral?

13          A     No, I did not.

14          Q     All right. Did you have bank employees
15 who you gave leave to, to attend Ms. Rigby's
16 funeral?

17          A     I don't recall. I feel like probably so,
18 yes.

19          Q     Same for Ms. Tardy's funeral and 20 Mr. Golden's funeral?

21          A     Like I -- I don't -- I do not recall that,
22 but it would be possible that I did, yes.

23          Q     All right. And that was certainly 24 something after your experience that day, you were 25 not going to say, "Sorry, I need you --

26               BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. That 27 is not proper, unless she can show there is 28 some connection with this defendant. It's 29 nothing improper about letting employees go

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 to funerals.

2 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I'm asking
3 only about the funerals of the victims and
4 his role with respect to facilitating
5 attendance.

6 BY THE COURT: Well, I'll -- ask it, but
7 I'll ask you to get to the issues that were
8 the purpose of individual voir dire,
9 because -- I'll let you wrap this line up,
10 but move on to that, because we had the 11 opportunity when we were group voir diring to 12 ask these questions.

13 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, in light of 14 the Court's admonishment that we were not to 15 go into knowledge about the events and since
16 mitigation and victim impact testimony are
17 part of the events that will be considered,
18 we felt that these were the things that the 19 Court wished us to reserve for individual
20 voir dire. And that is why we were pursuing
21 them and intend to continue pursuing them --

22 BY THE COURT: I told you to wrap it up,
23 and that he could answer this question.

24 BY MS. STEINER:

25 Q Now, Mr. Lester, you did testify that you
26 have formed an opinion on the basis of your 14 years
27 of hearing about this case; is that correct?

28 A Yes.

29 Q You've also testified that people -- it's

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 been dragging -- we want it over with. Is that
2 correct?

3       A     I'm sorry?

4       Q     Didn't you say something about the case
5 has gone on and on. I believe you said that in 6 response --

7       A     I may have said that.

8       Q     All right. So you would like it to be 9 over with. Is that correct?

10      A     I would like for it to be over with, yes.

11      Q     All right. And if you serve as a juror,
12 that desire is going to walk into the jury room with
13 you?

14               BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. That
15 has nothing to do with whether -- I think
16 everybody wants it to be over with. But that 17 has nothing to do with whether this juror can
18 be fair and impartial and base his decision
19 on the evidence. It's irrelevant.

20               BY THE COURT: I sustain the objection. I
21 mean, you can rephrase, if you would like,
22 but I....

23      BY MS. STEINER:

24      Q     If you are deliberating on this jury, your 25 desire to have -- shared with, quote, everyone as 26 Mr. Evans has said, to get this over with, will walk
27 in that jury room with you; is that correct?

28      A     To find justice and to -- to bring an end
29 to -- to this for everyone, yes.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     So if you're voting one way and 11 of your
2 fellows are voting another way, you know that if you
3 keep holding out on your one vote, it won't be over.
4 Is that correct?

5           A     I realize that.

6           Q     On guilt? Now -- and your desire to have
7 it over with will be there when you're deciding
8 whether to change your vote? Is that --

9           A     My desire to have it over with has nothing
10 to do with my desire to make sure that justice is 11 done in this case.

12          Q     And you have an opinion as to what justice
13 would be in this case; is that correct?

14          A     I have no idea, because I haven't heard
15 the facts other than what I've -- just hearsay on 16 the street.

17          Q     I thought you told His Honor both when we 18 had everybody else here --

19          A     Uh-huh.

20          Q     -- and then this morning that you had
21 formed an opinion?

22          A     I had formed an opinion, based on the 23 hearsay I've heard on the street.

24          Q     And as you walk into that jury room,
25 before you've heard any evidence, you -- that
26 opinion is one way or the other -- I'm not going to 27 ask you what it is -- and right now, you believe
28 that justice would be done if -- as far as you know,
29 nothing changes, in the way that your opinion is

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 now; is that correct?

2           A     The judge asked me if I could lay my
3 opinion aside and listen to facts and make what I
4 thought was a fair decision based on the facts that
5 I hear, and I can.

6           Q     I'm not asking you that question --

7                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he is answering
8 her question.

9           BY MS. STEINER:

10           Q     I am simply asking, as you sit here today,
11 you have an opinion, is that correct, about what
12 would be justice in this case?

13           A     I can't say about what would be justice in 14 this case. I have an opinion on -- or maybe a -- 15 over time you develop your own idea of what may have
16 happened.

17           Q     And you sat in group voir dire and several
18 people with opinions weren't here when -- when you
19 came back on Monday morning --

20           A     Uh-huh.

21           Q     -- and when you came back on Tuesday
22 morning --

23           A     Uh-huh.

24           Q     -- and you, like them, share an opinion --
25 have an opinion as you sit here now.

26           A     I have an opinion.

27           Q     All right. Now, His Honor began -- His 28 Honor inquired about your ability to consider the 29 two punishments for capital murder established by

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 the State of Mississippi.

2           A     Yes, ma'am.

3           Q     Now, on your jury questionnaire, you
4 checked the box that said you strongly favored the
5 death penalty?

6           A     For crimes that merit it.

7           Q     I -- well, absolutely. You can't impose
8 it for crimes that don't.

9                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to
10 these crazy questions. He's answered it. It
11 did not call for any extra comments.

12           BY MS. STEINER:

13           Q     His Honor will -- His Honor will be and 14 the State will ask for and we will anticipate that 15 the jury will be instructed that one of the two 16 sentences for -- that this jury may consider the 17 punishment of death -- the death penalty and the 18 punishment of life in prison without parole.

19                   Now, I believe when His Honor said as you
20 sit here, you don't favor one over the other; is 21 that -- was that your answer?

22           A     Favor -- I don't favor one over the other?

23           Q     Yes. Do you favor the -- one of those 24 punishments, as you sit here now, over the other --
25 let's assume the person has been -- you have 26 found --

27                   BY MR. EVANS: Again, Your Honor, that is 28 inappropriate questioning. It is not the 29 proper question.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           BY THE COURT: I don't think hypotheticals
2           are appropriate during voir dire, and that's
3           apparently what you're --

4           BY MS. STEINER: Well, allow me to 5           rephrase.

6           BY MS. STEINER:

7           Q     As His Honor said, we don't even get to
8           considering what the punishment has been until a
9           jury has determined unanimously, you sitting as 10          juror, will have to determine that Curtis Flowers
11          was guilty of at least one -- and in this case, you
12          could consider up to four separate capital murders;
13          you understand that?

14          A     Yes.

15          Q     You could have -- you wouldn't be 16          considering penalty unless and until you had made
17          that finding.

18          A     Yes.

19          Q     You will have made that finding, and you
20          will have arguments from the State that any capital
21          murders of which you have found beyond a reasonable
22          doubt Mr. Flowers is guilty of were brutal and you
23          have -- and you will probably hear testimony in 24          addition from people who were personally affected,
25          your friend, among others, Bennie Rigby about his 26          grief and the loss and his anger.

27                 Now, at that point, you found Mr. Flowers
28          guilty, deliberately committing what the State would 29          characterize as four brutal murders. You may have

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 heard your friend Bennie Rigby --

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object.

3 She's trying to tell him what he is going to
4 hear and have to rely on. He is going to
5 have to listen to the evidence that comes out
6 in court, listen to the Court's instructions
7 and make his determination of what's
8 appropriate at that time based upon that.
9 And for her to sit up here and try to argue
10 to him what he's going to hear is completely
11 inappropriate.

12 BY MS. STEINER: If the Court please --

13 BY MR. CARTER: That's an invalid
14 objection Mr. Evans is making. And the State
15 is trying to instruct him --

16 BY THE COURT: I think Ms. Steiner is 17 asking the questions, and she can argue the 18 objection. It's appropriate for her to make 19 the argument, not you. And I'm sure she can 20 speak for herself.

21 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I agree with 22 Mr. Carter and was opening my mouth to say I
23 believe that is an invalid objection, as the 24 State well knows. This is the evidence that 25 will be faced, and we are entitled under 26 Morgan to voir dire about how a juror will 27 deal with mitigation in light of that, and 28 these are proper questions, and --

29 BY THE COURT: I'll allow you to ask

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 questions. And I'm not -- and this is your
2 style of questioning -- and I don't mean
3 to -- I'm not admonishing you, but your
4 questions sometimes get so long that I get
5 confused, and I don't -- and I'm not saying
6 that to offend you, but --

7 BY MS. STEINER: So do I, Your Honor.

8 BY THE COURT: And you know, if you could 9 maybe shorten the length of them, it might be
10 helpful sometimes to a witness because, as I
11 say, I get confused sometimes.

12 BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I have my 13 great-great-grandfather, my great grandfather
14 and my grandfather were all preachers, and
15 they all wrote sermons, and their sentences
16 were even longer. I believe I inherited it.
17 I'm sorry. Let me step back.

18 BY MS. STEINER:

19 Q You will be in the jury room. If you are 20 even asked to consider these two penalties,
21 Mr. Flowers -- you will have found him guilty of at 22 least one capital murder. You understand that?

23 A (Nodding head).

24 Q You understand that you will, at the point
25 at which you begin thinking about what -- which of 26 those two sentences is appropriate have heard --
27 well, you will have heard aggravating factors
28 relating to the crime that -- one of which will
29 likely be a particularly brutal and heinous crime.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes.

2           Q     You will have heard your friend, Bennie
3 Rigby, testify probably -- they intend -- they put
4 him as a witness here -- probably about the grief
5 and pain he and his children have suffered. You may
6 even hear from some of his boys, who I think you
7 know. Is that correct? You know who his boys --
8 you know --

9           A     I know who they are.

10          Q     You raised your hand --

11          A     I know who they are.

12          Q     -- that you were acquainted with them. At 13 that point, after you've heard all of that,
14 Mr. Flowers will stand up and put on matters in 15 mitigation of sentence, asking you to consider the 16 life sentence without parole. And they may have 17 nothing to do with the crime. Do you understand
18 that?

19          A     Yes.

20          Q     At that point, isn't it fair to say you
21 would think the death penalty was justice in this
22 case?

23                   BY MR. EVANS: Again, I object. She's 24 trying to put forth part of the facts that 25 are there and get him to make a decision on 26 what sentence he would give at this point and 27 that is inappropriate.

28                   BY MS. STEINER: I am not asking him what 29 sentence he would give. I'm asking what

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 would be first in his mind --

2 BY MR. EVANS: She's asking for him to
3 pledge a verdict, which is improper.

4 BY MS. STEINER: I'm asking him whether he
5 could -- let me rephrase that.

6 BY MS. STEINER:

7 Q At that point, would your mind be open to 8 fully consider facts about Mr. Flowers' family and 9 his childhood there, how he was family man?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Your mind -- you could consider those?

12 A I would consider that.

13 Q You would not prefer the death penalty at 14 that point?

15 A No.

16 Q Would you prefer life -- would -- would -- 17 you would not be -- you would have an open mind with 18 respect to life without parole?

19 A I would have an open mind.

20 Q Could you vote for life without parole
21 under those circumstances?

22 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again, unless 23 the Court is going to allow us to go into 24 this line of questioning, it's improper for 25 the Defense to go into it.

26 BY MS. STEINER: I thought you had
27 submitted the Court a --

28 BY MR. EVANS: The Court hasn't ruled on 29 it yet. I don't know what the ruling is.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           BY THE COURT: Well, I think he's answered
2           the question already.

3           BY MS. STEINER: Thank you, Mr. Lester.

4           BY THE COURT: Mr. Lester, you may step
5           down. And when you go back out, don't talk
6           to anybody about what you've been asked in
7           here.

8                       (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

9           BY THE COURT: The next one will be
10          Mr. Huggins.

11                      (JUROR NO. 51, BURRELL HUGGINS, ENTERS
12          THE COURTROOM)

13          BY THE COURT:

14           Q     Come forward, Mr. Huggins, and have a seat
15          down here. Mr. Huggins, if you'll have a seat,
16          please.

17                      There are questions we're asking
18          individually outside the presence of other jurors
19          because we just felt that was the appropriate
20          procedure to follow.

21                      First concerns knowledge about the case.
22          Have you heard things about this case or facts about
23          it or read things about it or seen it on T.V.?

24           A     On T.V., since '96. I mean, like I told
25          the lawyer the other day, I work construction.

26           Q     And you're out most of the time from what
27          you said previously.

28           A     47 years, that's the total. My wife had 29          to raise the children. I've heard about it on the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 news and what have you. But like I said, as far as
2 knowing Mr. Flowers or the people involved, I don't
3 really know them.

4 Q And are -- can you lay aside anything you
5 might have heard and base your decision only on the 6 evidence as presented here in court?

7 A Sure, I can.

8 Q And do you have any opinion already about
9 the case?

10 A No, sir. Not really, no. I can be
11 honest. I was brought up to be honest.

12 Q Well, that's what we want, Mr. Huggins,
13 and I appreciate that.

14 The next question concerns the possibility
15 of the sentencing phase. What happens in a capital
16 murder is if Mr. Flowers is found not guilty,
17 there's not a second phase. If he were to be found
18 guilty of capital murder, then we would go to a
19 second phase, which would be the sentencing phase.
20 At that time, the jury would decide what the 21 appropriate punishment would be. The sentencing
22 options would be life in prison without parole or
23 the death penalty.

24 Now, in support of the death penalty, the
25 Court anticipates that the State of Mississippi
26 would put on what's called aggravating factors,
27 which would be factors they believe would justify
28 the imposition of the death penalty.

29 And Mr. Flowers -- the Court anticipates

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 his attorneys would put on mitigating facts, which
2 would be reasons why, in their view, the death
3 penalty would not be appropriate. So if the facts
4 justified it and the law allowed it, could you
5 consider the imposition of the death penalty?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q And if the facts justified it and the law
8 allowed it, could you -- and would you consider life
9 in prison without parole?

10 A I would.

11 Q And as you sit here today, will you
12 consider both of those options?

13 A Yeah, I'd consider them.

14 Q And you do not have any -- do you have any 15 fixed opinion right now --

16 A No, sir.

17 Q -- on what the sentence should be?

18 A No, sir. I haven't heard any of the 19 evidence. I don't know.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. Well, thank you,
21 Mr. Huggins.

22 Mr. Evans, have you got any
23 questions?

24 BY MR. EVANS: Very briefly, Your Honor.

25 BY MR. EVANS:

26 Q Good morning, Mr. Huggins.

27 You understand that there can be two
28 phases to the trial. The first phase deals strictly 29 with guilt. And in the first phase, you shouldn't

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 even consider what the penalty should be. Do you
2 understand that?

3 A I understand that.

4 Q And the only time you can consider and
5 think about what the appropriate penalty would be,
6 would be after both sides put on all of their
7 evidence?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q Then you would decide based upon that 10 which penalty would be appropriate.

11 A I can handle that.

12 Q And you can consider either penalty and,
13 depending on the evidence, go either way?

14 A (Nodding head).

15 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your
16 Honor.

17 BY MS. STEINER:

18 Q Morning, Mr. Huggins.

19 A Good morning.

20 Q Your Honor -- His Honor inquired about the 21 death penalty and your ability --

22 A Yeah.

23 Q -- to consider both penalties, either
24 penalty established by the legislature of the State
25 of Mississippi. Do you agree with the law that 26 makes both of those equally viable penalties?

27 A Yeah.

28 Q I can't hear --

29 A Do what now?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Do you agree with the act of the state
2 legislature that says when someone is found guilty
3 of capital murder beyond a reasonable doubt, either
4 a life penalty without parole or -- life sentence
5 without parole or the death penalty is an
6 appropriate sentence?

7           A     Yes. Right.

8           Q     Now, on your questionnaire, you checked A,
9 you strongly agreed with the death penalty. Is that 10 your opinion?

11          A     If the evidence leads to it.

12          Q     All right.

13          A     I mean, you know, eye for eye. Tooth for 14 tooth.

15          Q     Say again?

16          A     An eye for eye. Tooth for tooth.

17          Q     Eye for eye.

18          A     I'm just old fashioned with it.

19          Q     Right. An eye for an eye, a tooth for a
20 tooth --

21          A     I mean, if he's not guilty, he's not
22 guilty.

23          Q     Okay. You wouldn't give him the death
24 penalty if he wasn't guilty?

25          A     No, ma'am.

26          Q     All right. But once it comes to 27 deliberating punishment, an eye for an eye, a tooth
28 for a tooth, a life for a life. Is that your 29 philosophy?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A       (Nodding head).

2           Q       So if you found him guilty beyond a
3 reasonable doubt of -- which you will, if you're
4 considering penalty -- if you find him guilty beyond
5 a reasonable doubt of deliberately having murdered
6 Bertha Tardy or Carmen Rigby or Mr. Golden -- Robert
7 Golden or Bobo Stewart -- if you find that he 8 deliberately killed -- took the lives of those four
9 people in a capital murder, if you found him guilty
10 beyond a reasonable doubt, you would want a life for 11 a life; is that correct?

12                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. That
13 is not the proper question.

14           A       Pro life for life?

15           Q       You would want -- your -- eye for an
16 eye -- you would want a life for a life?

17                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor --

18                   BY THE COURT: I'll sustain the
19 objection --

20           A       Not necessarily. I haven't heard any of 21 the evidence.

22           BY MS. STEINER:

23           Q       Okay. But if -- I'm not talking about --

24           A       You're not trying to trick me up.

25           Q       I'm not trying to trick you. You haven't
26 decided whether or not he's guilty yet?

27           A       I haven't. No, ma'am. Like I said, I
28 haven't heard.

29           Q       Right. But I'm talking --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     I don't even know the people.

2           Q     I'm talking about the penalty phase here.

3           A     Yes, ma'am.

4           Q     Where Ms. -- excuse me.

5                         (PAUSE)

6                         BY MS. STEINER:   Thank you, Your Honor.

7           BY MS. STEINER:

8           Q     Now, mitigation -- His Honor talked about
9 mitigation. His Honor will instruct you on what can 10 be considered mitigation. And under the law, His 11 Honor will be instructing you it can be anything
12 supported by the evidence in front of you. It can 13 have to do with the crime itself, but it doesn't
14 have to. Could you -- having found him guilty,
15 could you consider matters that have nothing to do
16 with the crime in deciding what sentence to impose?

17          A     Yeah.

18          Q     Okay. Could you consider -- well, let me
19 step back. The State will have to prove aggravation
20 before you can even consider the death penalty. You
21 understand that?

22          A     I do.

23          Q     You understand that the defendant has the 24 right to put on evidence, anything he wants that he
25 thinks shows his character or his conduct or -- 26 before or after the crime. You understand -- or the 27 alleged crime, which you will have convicted him.
28 And you would be prepared, and that evidence must be
29 considered?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A       (Nodding head).

2           Q       You understand that?

3           A       I understand that.

4           Q       And that -- could you, after you found him
5 guilty, consider that evidence?

6           A       Yeah.

7                   BY MS. STEINER: Thank you, Your Honor. I
8 have no further questions.

9                   BY THE COURT: Mr. Huggins, you may step
10 down. When you go out, don't talk with your 11 fellow jurors about what was asked in here.

12                   BY JUROR: Absolutely.

13                   BY THE COURT: Next one will be Ms. Jones.

14                               (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM. JUROR NO.
15 53, FLANCIE JONES, ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

16                   BY THE COURT:

17           Q       Ms. Jones, if you'll come forward, please.
18 What we're doing now is asking questions of 19 individual jurors that we felt was appropriate to 20 ask privately instead of out in front of your fellow
21 jurors.

22                               And first, I want to know if you have any 23 knowledge about this case, if you've heard about it
24 through the years or read anything, seen it on T.V.,
25 the radio or Internet or anything?

26           A       Nothing. Nothing close because I've
27 always worked the third shift. So for 17 years,
28 I've worked at Heat Craft, which I quit in '07. But 29 during this time, I worked nights. I slept days. I

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 only got up to get my husband off to work or to
2 interact with my children off the bus.

3 Q Right.

4 A Very little. As far as conversating with
5 anybody about it, I didn't have time for that. Now
6 I do -- I am an avid gardener. So between that 7 time -- any time I had to work in my garden -- and 8 then a T.V. person -- I'm not a T.V. person. So
9 it's not a lot I heard. It's just that -- you know
10 how you hear people talking about it, but as far as 11 being interested and conversating about it, I just 12 never really conversated to anybody about it,
13 because -- it might not even sound right to you, but 14 I'm a country girl. I live on a farm. Certain
15 things do things to certain people, and that didn't
16 do it to me because I'm a -- I guess I can't say a
17 loner, but I just don't think (inaudible).

18 BY THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry. What?

19 A I'm not a -- I kind of keep to myself as 20 far as the way I live. I live on a farm, so I do
21 the things that people on a farm do. But as far as 22 going from house to house and telephoning and 23 whatever, I don't do that.

24 Q And if you did hear or the thing -- I
25 mean, you know, I don't even want you to tell us
26 what you heard. But can you lay aside anything you
27 might have heard about the case and listen to the 28 evidence here in court and base your decision only 29 on the evidence and on nothing else but the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 evidence?

2           A     Nothing else.   (Nodding head.)

3           Q     The next question concerns the possibility
4 if it got to the point where there was a sentencing
5 phase. What happens in a capital murder case is a
6 jury first decides the guilt or innocence of the 7 person that's on trial. If it got to the point
8 where the jury found that person not guilty -- not
9 guilty, it would be over. There would not be a
10 second phase.

11                   But if the jury found that person to be
12 guilty, then we would get into the second phase,
13 which is called the sentencing phase. At that time,
14 the jury would determine what the jury believed to 15 be the appropriate sentence in the case.

16                   The State of Mississippi, I understand, is 17 seeking the death penalty in this case. The 18 possible penalties, if it got to that point, would 19 be life in prison without parole or the death
20 penalty.

21                   The State of Mississippi would put on 22 aggravating factors, which are factors that they
23 believe would justify the imposition of the death
24 penalty. Then Mr. Flowers, through his attorneys,
25 would put on proof called mitigating factors which,
26 in his view, would be reasons why the jury should 27 not impose the death penalty. So will you -- will 28 you consider -- or can you consider both of those
29 sentencing options?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A       (Nodding head).

2           Q       And do you -- having heard nothing about
3 the case at all and no proof on mitigating or
4 aggravating, do you have an open mind and an equally
5 open mind as to both possibilities at this point?

6           A       I have an open mind.

7           Q       And you could consider both of those as 8 possible sentences?

9           A       I could consider both.

10                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

11           BY MR. EVANS:

12           Q       Good morning, Ms. Jones.

13           A       Good morning.

14           Q       Ms. Jones, you are related to Hazel Jones;
15 is that right?

16           A       She's my sister-in-law.

17           Q       Okay. And you are related to Angela
18 Jones?

19           A       She's my niece.

20           Q       Okay. And she is the defendant's sister?

21           A       That's something new. I didn't know that 22 till you told me yesterday.

23           Q       Okay. Knowing now that she is his sister
24 and knowing now that Hazel Jones is his aunt, would 25 that affect you? Would you be thinking about that 26 if you were picked as a juror in this case?

27           A       It would not affect me because we do not
28 have any type of relationship. We can have a family
29 reunion. They don't show up at the family reunion.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     So you could completely --

2           A     I could completely.

3           Q     -- set that aside. I noticed yesterday
4 you were about 30 minutes late. Why were you late?

5           A     Because I'm used to working nights and
6 getting up in the morning is a big deal. I'm used
7 to working nights, and my body has kind of gotten --
8 I guess you have to work nights to understand it.
9 That's the only reason I was late, because I ended
10 up staying awake at night.

11          Q     All right. And I think you've said that
12 you knew, in addition to Hazel Jones and Angela, you
13 know Archie, Sr. -- Archie Flowers, Sr.?

14          A     No, not that I know. No. I told you 15 yesterday that if you told me that's him, that's the 16 only way I would know him. I don't know him.

17          Q     Okay. Correct me if I'm wrong. I thought
18 that that was what you had said. I may have written
19 it down wrong. You stated that you knew Connie
20 Moore?

21          A     I used to work at a place where they said
22 she was getting married. And this particular guy
23 that worked there, she was -- she was going to marry
24 him. But as far as knowing her, no, I don't know
25 her.

26          Q     Okay. Nelson Forrest?

27          A     I went to school with a lot of Forrests,
28 so I don't know which one is which.

29          Q     And Danny Joe Lott?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A       Well, I went to church with -- I think
2 with his uncle when I was little. That's the only
3 reason I know his name.

4           Q       Okay. And I think on your questionnaire,
5 you said you were strongly against the death
6 penalty.

7           A       I guess I'd say anything to get off.

8           Q       Okay. Well, are you saying that you
9 didn't tell the truth?

10          A       No, that's not that. It's just that if I
11 didn't have to be here, I wouldn't want to be here.

12          Q       Well, I want to know when you put down you
13 were strongly against the death penalty --

14          A       I was trying to not be -- I -- really and 15 truly, I don't want to be here. I'll say it like
16 that.

17          Q       All right. May I finish my question?

18          A       Okay.

19          Q       When you put down that you strongly didn't 20 believe in the death penalty, were you being 21 truthful?

22          A       No. Because I was sitting up in the bed
23 that night, and I had to fill out that paper and get
24 it back to you. And I was late the first day
25 because I couldn't find the paper. And I know if 26 I'd lost it, I'd never get it back to you.

27                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I don't have 28 any further questions.

29                   BY MR. CARTER:

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     One moment, Your Honor. Ms. Jones, you
2 testified earlier that you could be fair to both
3 sides. Is that correct?

4           A     That's correct.

5           Q     And you testified that you could consider
6 both options of punishment.

7           A     Yes, I can.

8           Q     And if you got picked for a jury -- served
9 as a juror, you would make every effort to get here
10 and to be awake and to participate as full as you
11 can?

12          A     Yes. Yes.

13          Q     And there's no reason, as far as 14 transportation wise and that kind of stuff, that you
15 couldn't be here, is there?

16          A     No.

17          Q     So you could be here. And you don't have 18 any doubt that you could be fair to both sides; is
19 that correct?

20          A     I have no doubt.

21          Q     And you'd consider whatever's presented
22 from the witness stand.

23          A     I could.

24          Q     Thank you.

25          A     I'm sorry about being late. It was 26 unintentional.

27                 BY MR. CARTER: Thank you.

28                 BY THE COURT: Ms. Jones, you may step
29 down now. And when you walk out with your

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 fellow jurors, don't talk about with them
2 what was talked about in here.

3 BY JUROR: Okay. All right. Thank you.

4 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Thank you.

5 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

6 BY THE COURT: Ms. Box, No. 54.

7 (JUROR NO. 54, PATRICIA BOX, ENTERS THE
8 COURTROOM)

9 BY THE COURT:

10 Q If you'll have a seat, please, ma'am.
11 Ms. Box, what we're doing now is we're asking
12 questions outside the presence of the other jurors
13 because we just felt it would be appropriate to do
14 that.

15 And first, I want to know about knowledge
16 of the case. I know you said you lived, at one
17 time, across the street from Ms. Tardy, I believe.
18 And you know Roxanne, and you've seen -- see her
19 occasionally. So just tell us -- have you heard
20 facts about this case?

21 A Just -- just from hearing it on the news.
22 I've never sat through any of the trials.

23 Q And have you read about it in the paper
24 or --

25 A Yes.

26 Q -- or -- and seen it in the radio?

27 A Yes.

28 Q -- any T.V. or Internet?

29 A Just maybe if there was a brief report on

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 T.V. Not on the Internet.

2 Q And has anything you saw, read, or heard
3 caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt or
4 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

5 A No.

6 Q And do you have any fixed opinion about
7 this case as it stands today?

8 A No.

9 Q And can you lay aside anything that you
10 might have seen, heard or read and base your 11 decision only on the evidence as presented here in
12 court?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q And the next issue concerns the possible
15 sentencing phase. What happens in a capital murder
16 is first the jury decides guilt or innocence. If 17 they find Mr. Flowers not guilty -- if the jury
18 finds him not guilty, the proceedings conclude.
19 They're over.

20 If the jury were to find him guilty beyond
21 a reasonable doubt, then we would go to the second
22 phase. At that time, the jury would decide what the 23 jury believed to be the appropriate punishment. The 24 jury would have the option of sentencing him to 25 death. If the jury found death was not appropriate,
26 then life in prison without parole would be the
27 sentence.

28 The State will put on what's called
29 aggravating factors, which is reasons the State

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 believes the death penalty would be appropriate.

2 You understand that?

3       A       (Nodding head).

4       Q       The Defense would then put on mitigating
5 factors, which are reasons the Defense believes the 6 death penalty would not be appropriate.

7               As you sit here today, would you listen to 8 the facts and the instructions of law and consider
9 both of those options?

10       A       Yes, sir.

11       Q       So you're not going to, right now,
12 preclude the consideration of either of those; is
13 that correct?

14       A       No.

15               BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Box.

16       BY MR. EVANS:

17       Q       Good morning, Ms. Box.

18       A       Good morning.

19       Q       Do you understand that in the first phase
20 of the trial, the penalty doesn't even come into
21 question?

22       A       Yes.

23       Q       The jury should not even consider the
24 penalty?

25       A       (Nodding head).

26       Q       Are you telling us that you could come in 27 with an open mind, not consider or lean toward
28 either penalty, listen to the evidence, and base
29 your decision of guilt strictly on the evidence that

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 you hear?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And your decision of what penalty should
4 be strictly on the evidence that you hear in court
5 and nothing else?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your
8 Honor.

9 BY MS. STEINER:

10 Q Good morning, Ms. Box.

11 A Good morning.

12 Q I believe in response to one of His
13 Honor's questions you reiterated that you -- I think
14 you said this from the first -- you were 15 across-the-street neighbors of Ms. Bertha Tardy?

16 A Uh-huh.

17 Q And was that also her husband or was it
18 before he was widowed and she married him? Was
19 it --

20 A It was -- it was before they married.

21 Q All right. When she was still just the 22 manager of his store?

23 A Uh-huh.

24 Q And did you -- and I can't remember -- did
25 you talk with her in a neighborly way or --

26 A Just pretty much spoke when we saw each
27 other.

28 Q All right. And did you attend her
29 funeral?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     I did not.

2           Q     All right. I think also you said here you
3 knew Ms. Rigby?

4           A     I mean, I know who she is. I did not know
5 her personally.

6           Q     Okay. Do you recall -- you were actually
7 also a juror in the jury venire in 2008?

8           A     Right.

9           Q     And at that point, I think you testified
10 that you knew her to talk to or acquainted --
11 knew -- just like --

12          A     I just know who she is.

13          Q     And you actually had a closer -- much
14 closer personal acquaintance with Mr. Stewart's
15 brother?

16          A     Oh, I knew both of them when they were in
17 school.

18          Q     When they were in school. What was your 19 reaction when you personally learned that your 20 friend and acquaintance --

21          A     It was a horrible thing.

22          Q     Did you attend his funeral?

23          A     I did not.

24          Q     Send a condolence to his family?

25          A     I -- I'm not -- I don't remember.

26          Q     You don't remember?

27          A     I don't remember. I don't think so.

28          Q     You could have?

29          A     I don't think so.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     All right. And have you run into either
2 Bobo's brother or his father, Mr. Randy Stewart,
3 since then and expressed your condolences?

4           A     Unh-unh.

5           Q     When you read the name in the paper, do
6 you still get that sad feeling?

7           A     Of course.

8           Q     And you're going to be hearing a lot here
9 today about that. Is that -- I mean, not just --
10 you know, you've said you can set aside -- you know,
11 you'll just hear what you hear --

12          A     Right.

13          Q     -- in the courtroom. But your heart's
14 still going to break because a friend of yours and 15 the brother of another friend of yours, you're going
16 to be hearing about his death.

17          A     (Nodding head).

18          Q     You're going to be shown photographs of 19 the place he died. You understand that?

20          A     Uh-huh.

21          Q     And possibly even of him in death?

22          A     (Nodding head).

23          Q     And that feeling in your heart, that loss
24 of a personal friend, is going to happen no
25 matter -- you'll sit in that jury and you're not
26 just going to feel like a stranger seeing a crime
27 scene. That can be disturbing enough.

28          A     Uh-huh.

29          Q     But you'll be seeing a crime scene.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 You'll be seeing blood spilled by a friend of yours.
2 And you will be in that jury room with that in your
3 heart when you see those pictures -- with the jury
4 in this room; is that correct?

5 A (Nodding head).

6 Q Is that a yes?

7 A I'm sorry.

8 Q You nodded your head.

9 A Okay. I'm --

10 Q Will you be -- you'll have those feelings
11 in your heart?

12 A Oh, yes.

13 Q Now Ms. Box, you answered His Honor's
14 questions. As you sit here, you do not disagree
15 with the fact that the State of Mississippi makes
16 life without the possibility of parole an equally
17 appropriate death sentence -- sentence -- sentence
18 for the crime of capital murder --

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q -- to the death penalty?

21 A (Nodding head.)

22 Q Do you have any quarrels with that law?

23 A No.

24 Q Do you consider those punishments equally
25 severe or do you -- do you consider those both to be 26 severe punishments?

27 A I would. Yes, I would consider them both.

28 Q All right. And you said you could
29 consider either.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A       Yes.

2           Q       As you sit here today. Now, you
3 understand that at the penalty phase, you won't be
4 considering those in the abstract. You will be
5 considering that you will have found Mr. Flowers
6 guilty of the deliberate, intentional, brutal murder
7 of your friend, Bobo Stewart. You understand that?

8           A       Yes.

9           Q       If you were even considering penalty?

10          A       (Nodding head).

11          Q       You will also possibly have found him
12 guilty of up to four other -- three other people's 13 deaths, two of whom -- one of whom, your neighbor,
14 Ms. Tardy, and one of them your passing
15 acquaintance, Ms. Rigby?

16          A       (Nodding head).

17          Q       You understand that?

18          A       Yes, ma'am.

19          Q       Beyond a reasonable doubt, you will walk
20 in -- if you are considering penalty, you will
21 already have decided those things; you understand
22 that?

23          A       Yes, ma'am.

24          Q       At that point, of course, you will -- does
25 that make a difference in your -- if you hear that
26 evidence, will you have the same neutral attitude?

27          A       Yes, ma'am.

28          Q       Do you understand what mitigation is that
29 His Honor -- then -- you understand --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes.

2           Q     -- His Honor talked about mitigation? You
3 understand that can have -- you can have mitigation
4 that has nothing to do with facts of the crime which
5 the individual's been found guilty; do you
6 understand that?

7           A     (Nodding head).

8           Q     And well, I -- let me also add in here the 9 State will probably be presenting testimony from 10 your friend Bobo Stewart's father, Randy, about his 11 loss, possibly from other people who knew and loved
12 Mr. Stewart, like you cared for him.

13                   And again, isn't it fair to say that the 14 crime -- the fact that your friend had died and his 15 father and other family members have talked to you
16 about their loss, would incline you towards the 17 death --

18                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I disagree with 19 that comment. She said that she had not
20 talked to them about their loss.

21                   BY MS. STEINER: I'm talking about the 22 evidence in the courtroom may --

23                   BY MR. EVANS: But that's not what the 24 question was, and I object to the question.

25                   BY MS. STEINER: Forgive me.

26           BY MS. STEINER:

27           Q     You've said you would rely on the evidence
28 in the courtroom?

29           A     Yes, ma'am.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     We've talked about how you would react to
2 evidence, pictures of your friend, Bobo Stewart.
3 And I'm saying now, penalty phase when you are
4 considering punishment -- in addition, you will
5 possibly have heard the State has given notice it
6 intends to put on testimony from your friend Bobo
7 Stewart's father and perhaps other family members,
8 and you will have heard that. Can you -- you know,
9 at that point, would you not want to avenge your
10 friend Bobo's life with a sentence of death?

11           A     I'm -- no. No. I mean, that....

12           Q     Now you have indicated that you -- I
13 think -- you know John Johnson?

14           A     (Nodding head).

15           Q     He was -- Mr. Seals Holloway, was that 16 your father?

17           A     My grandfather.

18           Q     Your grandfather. And Mr. Johnson
19 actually -- I don't think he immediately succeeded
20 your grandfather, but he subsequently became chief
21 of police here?

22           A     Right.

23           Q     And we -- obviously, you can't talk to the 24 lawyers in this case. But I assume when you're in 25 the hallway and you see Mr. Johnson, y'all are 26 polite to each other -- and have you been -- have 27 you been chatting with him at all?

28           A     No.

29           Q     All right.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     I --

2           Q     I see all of y'all out there. I'm not
3 allowed to make eye contact. But I do know that
4 y'all just don't sit there. Y'all don't -- jurors
5 talk to each other --

6                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. This
7 is completely inappropriate.

8                   BY THE COURT: I think we need to move on.

9                   BY MS. STEINER: All right.

10           BY MS. STEINER:

11           Q     Have -- you have been chatting with other
12 jurors; is that correct?

13           A     Yes, ma'am.

14           Q     Has what's been going on in the courtroom
15 come up at all?

16           A     Not really, no.

17           Q     Not really. Tell me about that --

18           A     Just -- just seats are hard.

19           Q     Say what?

20           A     The chairs are hard out there.

21           Q     Okay. You've been complaining about how 22 hard the chairs are?

23           A     Yeah.

24           Q     Have y'all gone to lunch together,
25 anything like that or --

26           A     I haven't.

27           Q     All right. Do you know of anybody who 28 has?

29           A     Oh, I'm sure several. But I mean, I

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 don't -- I don't really know a lot of those people.

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, this is
3 completely irrelevant --

4 BY THE COURT: It is irrelevant. I mean,
5 you know, there's no prohibition about a
6 juror eating lunch with another juror. The 7 only prohibition is against discussing the
8 case, and they are sitting out there as a
9 group together. And they haven't been told,
10 like when I was in kindergarten, to play the 11 quiet game. They haven't been told that they 12 can't talk. They've just been told they 13 can't talk about the case.

14 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you, your Honor.
15 One moment.

16 (PAUSE)

17 BY MS. STEINER: That's all I have, Your
18 Honor.

19 BY THE COURT: Ms. Box, you may step down.
20 If you will, when you get out there, don't 21 talk about anything that's been asked of you
22 in here.

23 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

24 BY THE COURT: If you'll bring in 25 Mr. Scott in next.

26 (JUROR NO. 57, STEVE SCOTT, ENTERS THE
27 COURTROOM)

28 BY THE COURT:

29 Q Mr. Scott, if you'll come down and have a

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 seat, please.

2 Mr. Scott, what we're doing now is we're
3 asking questions of individual jurors just because 4 we felt it was appropriate to ask these privately
5 instead of out in front of the entire group.

6 And the first question I want to know is
7 have you heard anything about this case? Do you
8 have any knowledge of this case?

9 A Well, what was on the street, you know.

10 Q Can you speak up? You're soft spoken, and 11 I know the lawyers need to hear what you're saying.

12 A Well, out on the streets, I heard a couple
13 of things about the case.

14 Q And was that -- was that recently or was 15 that back in '96?

16 A Well, I wasn't here in '96, you know.

17 Q When did you move into the county?

18 A It was in 2000 -- I think it was 2004.

19 Q So you've been here -- you were gone for a
20 lot of time. You weren't here between '96 and '04?

21 A No, this is not my hometown.

22 Q Where did you grow up?

23 A I grew up in Alabama, but I lived in 24 Georgia.

25 Q And has anything you heard, you know, talk
26 or read or seen caused you to form any opinion as to 27 the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers.

28 A No, sir.

29 Q And if you sat on the -- as a juror on

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 this case, would you disregard anything you heard
2 and base your decision only on the evidence as
3 presented here in court?

4       A     Yes, sir.

5       Q     And on nothing else but the evidence here
6 in court?

7       A     Yes, sir.

8       Q     The next question refers to the sentencing
9 phase of the trial, if it got to a point where there
10 was a sentencing phase. What happens in a capital
11 murder case is the jury hears all the evidence of 12 the case and decides whether the person is guilty or 13 not guilty. If you found Mr. Flowers innocent, the 14 trial's over. There's not a second phase. But if 15 he was found guilty, then the next part would be a
16 sentencing phase where the jury would then be called 17 upon to decide what the jury believed to be the 18 appropriate punishment. The State of Mississippi is 19 seeking the death penalty. The State of Mississippi
20 will be putting on proof called aggravating factors
21 which, in their minds, show why the death penalty
22 should be imposed or is appropriate.

23               Then the Defense would put on mitigating
24 facts. That would be facts the Defense believes
25 would show that the death penalty is not an 26 appropriate sentence, and you would be instructed on 27 the law after you have heard all of those facts.
28 And could you listen -- or would you listen to the 29 law and the facts and then decide what the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 appropriate sentence would be?

2           A     Yes, sir.

3           Q     And can you consider both of those as
4 sentencing options?

5           A     Well, if they're going to put him on the 6 death penalty, you know, I don't want to do that.
7 But, you know, I can listen to it. But like putting
8 somebody to death, I don't want to do that one.

9           Q     Could you consider that as a sentencing
10 possibility?

11          A     No.

12          Q     And are you saying that you just could not
13 even consider that -- I mean, you're not being asked
14 to commit to any sentence, but are you saying you
15 could not even consider that as a possibility?

16          A     No, sir.

17               BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans, any questions?

18           BY MR. EVANS:

19          Q     Good morning, Mr. Scott.

20          A     Good morning.

21          Q     And even though at the first phase, you
22 wouldn't get into what the penalty was, your beliefs
23 are just so strong against the death penalty that
24 you couldn't even consider it --

25          A     Right.

26          Q     -- as a possible penalty for anything?

27          A     Right.

28               BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your
29 Honor.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1       BY MR. CARTER:

2           Q     Mr. Scott, you got a questionnaire; is
3 that correct?

4           A     Sir?

5           Q     Did you get a questionnaire that you had
6 to fill out about this trial?

7           A     Yes, I did.

8           Q     And did you answer the questions?

9           A     Yes, I did.

10          Q     And I think on the questionnaire, if I'm
11 wrong -- correct me if I'm wrong -- you said -- you
12 gave your views on the death penalty, and you said
13 you could consider the death penalty, and you could
14 consider life without possibility of parole?

15          A     Life without possibility of parole, yes.

16          Q     But on your questionnaire, I believe you
17 said you could consider the death penalty, too.
18 Now, well --

19          A     I don't -- I don't know. I don't remember
20 putting that. I might have. But I can't remember
21 what I put.

22          Q     So you might have been confused about it
23 if you said that; is that what you're saying?

24          A     Yes, sir.

25          Q     Okay. Now, you understand that the State
26 of Mississippi -- not the prosecutors, but the 27 Mississippi legislature -- has deemed life without 28 possibility of parole and the death penalty as the 29 appropriate sentences for a person convicted of

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 capital murder. And the State of Mississippi is --
2 not the prosecutor -- but the State of Mississippi
3 is satisfied with either one, satisfied if you vote
4 either way. And do you realize that whatever
5 decision you make is your decision and not anybody's
6 decision?

7           A     Right.

8           Q     And now I understand you're uncomfortable
9 about the death penalty.

10          A     Right.

11          Q     And maybe even more than discomfort. But 12 I'm at least hearing discomfort, and I'm trying to 13 be clear on what else I might hear. So you've 14 obviously said you're uncomfortable with it. But 15 what I'm trying to find out is could you, if you got 16 picked as a juror, listen to the evidence during the 17 first phase and deliberate Mr. Flowers' guilt or not
18 guilt. Could you --

19          A     I could listen to it.

20          Q     Right. And you could listen to it and 21 render a decision in the first phase. Correct?

22          A     Yes, sir.

23          Q     And also, you could go to the second
24 phase, and you could listen to the evidence --

25          A     Right.

26          Q     -- presented. And are you telling us that 27 when you listen to the evidence during the second
28 phase that no matter what Mr. Evans and his group
29 presented to you, you absolutely couldn't even

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 consider the death penalty as an option?

2 A That's right.

3 BY MR. CARTER: Okay. No further
4 questions.

5 BY THE COURT: Mr. Scott, you may step
6 down. And as you step down and go back out,
7 don't talk with your other jurors what was
8 talked about in here.

9 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

10 BY THE COURT: Ms. Branch is next, No. 58.

11 (JUROR NO. 58, EMILY BRANCH, ENTERS THE
12 COURTROOM)

13 BY THE COURT:

14 Q Ms. Branch, if you'll come forward and 15 have a seat. What we're doing now, Ms. Branch, is 16 asking a few questions outside the presence of the 17 other jurors just because we felt it appropriate to 18 ask some things privately.

19 And first of all, I want to know if you
20 have any knowledge about this case or heard anything
21 about this case?

22 A Very little. I was -- I didn't even live
23 here when it happened, and I was nine, I think, so I
24 really don't know anything.

25 Q How long have you lived now in the county?
26 Do you know?

27 A I think I moved here in '98.

28 Q And, I mean, other than the -- I guess you
29 heard that maybe it happened or that something

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 happened. But other than that, have you heard any
2 facts at all about the case?

3           A     No.

4           Q     And could you lay aside anything you might
5 have heard outside the courtroom and base your
6 decision only on the evidence that's presented here
7 in court?

8           A     Yes, sir.

9           Q     The next questions will refer to what we 10 would say is the sentencing phase. The way the 11 trial works is the jury would first decide guilt or 12 innocence of Mr. Flowers. If the jury found
13 Mr. Flowers not guilty, the proceedings would be 14 over, and we would not even get to the second phase.

15                   But if the jury found him guilty, then we 16 would have the sentencing phase. At that time, the 17 State of Mississippi would be seeking the death
18 penalty. The State would put on what's called
19 aggravating factors, which is factors that the State
20 believes would justify the imposition of the death
21 penalty.

22                   Mr. Flowers, through his attorneys, would
23 put on proof called mitigating factors, which would 24 be things that in their view would justify or would
25 show that the death penalty is not appropriate.

26                   At that time, the jury would then decide
27 what the appropriate punishment is. And if he did
28 not receive the death penalty, the sentence would be 29 life without parole. So can you consider both of

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 those as sentencing options?

2           A     Yes.

3           Q     And do you have -- do you, at this point,
4 without knowing anything, favor one of those options
5 over the other?

6           A     No.

7           Q     So you will wait till all the evidence is
8 heard and the facts and instructions of law before
9 you make that determination if you're selected?

10          A     Yes, sir.

11                   BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you.

12                   Mr. Evans?

13                   BY MR. EVANS:   No questions.

14                   BY MS. STEINER:

15           Q     Good afternoon.

16           A     Afternoon.

17           Q     Ms. Branch, His Honor has -- you've said
18 you have no quarrel with the fact that the State of 19 Mississippi gives two options, either the death
20 penalty or life without parole --

21           A     Right.

22           Q     -- as a sentence.   Do you consider both of 23 those serious punishments?

24           A     Yeah.

25           Q     Do you -- and His Honor talked about
26 mitigation.   Do you understand that the evidence
27 that you may hear on mitigation not only has to --
28 mitigation of sentence, that would be evidence that 29 you would hear in this courtroom that might make you

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 think that -- or that all -- even -- you would
2 understand you wouldn't even be hearing this
3 evidence unless you found Mr. Flowers guilty beyond
4 a reasonable doubt.

5       A     Right.

6       Q     And the evidence that you would hear in 7 mitigation might not have anything to do with the 8 actual crime?

9       A     (Nodding head).

10       Q    He would have been found guilty of a
11 murder -- a capital murder. The State would have 12 proved aggravators. And you would then be 13 considering anything that might -- to be used in 14 considering a sentence less than death, life without 15 parole. Do you understand that?

16       A     Uh-huh.

17       Q     And that might have to do with Mr. Curtis'
18 life before his arrest, his family and social
19 relationships with his family and in the community.
20 Do you understand that?

21       A     Uh-huh.

22       Q     Could you consider that --

23       A     Yeah.

24       Q     -- as evidence of mitigation? It may have
25 to do with his life after his arrest on this crime.
26 Could you consider that?

27       A     Well, I mean, like for the case --

28       Q     No, no -- his life. You know, he's been 29 here for these 16 years, and you may hear about who

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 he was while he was in prison under arrest for this.

2       A     Okay. Yeah.

3       Q     Can you consider that?

4       A     Yeah.

5       Q     All right. And His Honor will instruct 6 you also that, you know, your vote at both phases is 7 your vote?

8       A     Uh-huh.

9       Q     You don't -- in the first phase on guilt,
10 he will give you a very specific instruction that
11 you are supposed to deliberate with your fellow
12 jurors and -- and the circumstances under which you
13 can and should be -- can be persuaded and may be 14 persuaded and under which you may decline to be 15 persuaded and come to a unanimous verdict.

16               When you are considering mitigation, he
17 will give you an instruction that any mitigation
18 that you think has been put in evidence before you,
19 you may decide that all on your own. You don't have 20 to agree or -- if you feel something's mitigation,
21 you're entitled -- you don't have to get other
22 people to agree with you to think it's valid. Do
23 you understand that?

24       A     Yes, I do.

25       Q     And that if -- you respect other people in 26 the same way. If someone thinks one thing's
27 mitigation and you don't, you can respect them and 28 not -- and agree to disagree with them.

29       A     Uh-huh.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     And the decision based on what is
2 mitigation and what the sentence is your own
3 personal decision and you don't have to get other
4 people to agree with you on that decision. You
5 understand that?

6           A     I do.

7           Q     And can you do that independently?

8           A     Yes.

9           Q     And I see that you are a presently a
10 student at State; is that correct?

11          A     Well, I just finished there --

12          Q     Well, congratulations.

13          A     -- thank you. And I got accepted into OTA
14 school, so I start that in August.

15          Q     Oh, okay. Congratulations on that.

16          A     Thank you.

17          Q     And you are, I know -- I've been both a
18 teacher and a student in my life. And I know that 19 when you're sitting in the student chair -- well,
20 part of what you're doing is being respectful of 21 your teacher. And if she says something, even if 22 you disagree with it, sometimes you say, Well, I
23 disagree, but I'm not going to say anything because
24 she's my teacher. I mean, and generally --

25               BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, unless there's 26 some relevance to this, I object.

27           BY MS. STEINER:

28           Q     You've just finished being a student. You
29 understand that if you're selected for this jury,

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 you're going to have people who are your parent's
2 age, your teacher's age, people with positions that
3 ordinary you, as a young person, might be inclined
4 to give deference to.

5 Can you, even if there's someone on this
6 jury who, if you were in their classroom or at their
7 work place and they were your boss, could you stand
8 up and realize you are a complete equal and you are 9 not required to give deference to someone just 10 because in the world outside this jury room, they 11 have a position that you would be required to give 12 deference to?

13 A Yes.

14 BY MS. STEINER: All right. Thank you
15 very much.

16 BY THE COURT: Ms. Branch, you may step
17 down. And as you return out there, don't
18 talk with anyone about what was asked of you
19 in here, please.

20 BY JUROR: Okay.

21 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

22 BY THE COURT: I think we'll recess now
23 for lunch. If you'll just call all the 24 jurors in and just -- so I can announce we're
25 going to recess for lunch.

26 (THE FOLLOWING PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD IN
27 OPEN COURT WITH THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS
28 PRESENT, TO-WIT:)

29 BY THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, at

COURT RECESSES FOR LUNCH

1 this time, we're going to recess for lunch.
2 I'll ask you during this recess, like I have
3 throughout the trial, not to talk about the
4 case with anyone or among yourselves or talk
5 to any of the potential witnesses or parties
6 involved in the case. And with that, ladies
7 and gentlemen, we'll be back at one o'clock,
8 and we'll resume this individual questioning
9 at that time.

10 (FOLLOWING THE LUNCH RECESS,
11 PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED IN OPEN COURT WITH 12 THE COURT, THE COURT REPORTER, ALL
13 COUNSEL, THE DEFENDANT AND THE CIRCUIT
14 CLERK PRESENT, OUTSIDE THE HEARING AND 15 PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS,
16 TO-WIT:)

17 BY THE COURT: I believe Ms. Copper is the 18 next one, No. 62.

19 BY MR. EVANS: Is 59 already off?

20 BY THE COURT: I'm sorry. We haven't
21 talked to Ms. Nail. It's Ms. Nail. I'm 22 sorry. I looked at the wrong place on my
23 list. So No. 59, Ms. Nail.

24 (JUROR NO. 59, JULIA ANN NAIL, ENTERS
25 THE COURTROOM)

26 BY THE COURT:

27 Q Ms. Nail, what we are asking -- what we're 28 doing now is asking questions out -- you know, of 29 individual jurors that are not in the presence of

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 each other, because we just felt it was appropriate
2 to ask some without having everybody else in here.
3 The first question concerns knowledge you had about
4 the case or anything. Have you heard about the case
5 through the years?

6 A Not very much.

7 Q Did you hear about it when it first
8 happened?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q And do you remember anything much about 11 what you may have heard?

12 A No, sir, I don't.

13 Q And have you kept up with the case in the 14 newspaper or read about it?

15 A No, sir.

16 Q Internet or --

17 A Just people talking about it in general,
18 I've heard that.

19 Q And this talk that you've heard from 20 different ones, has that caused you to form an
21 opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

22 A No, sir.

23 Q And will you lay aside anything that you
24 might have heard and just base your decision
25 strictly on the evidence as presented here in open
26 court?

27 A Yes, sir.

28 Q The next issue concerns a possible
29 sentencing phase. If it got to the point -- first

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 of all, it would not get to a sentencing phase
2 unless the jury found Mr. Flowers guilty of the 3 crime. If he's found not guilty, the proceedings
4 conclude, and the case is over.

5           However, if he were to be found guilty,
6 then we would get to the sentencing phase. And, at 7 that time, the jury would decide the punishment the 8 jury deemed to be appropriate. The State would put 9 on aggravating factors, which are factors that would
10 indicate, in the State's belief, that Mr. Flowers
11 should be sentenced to death.

12           Mr. Flowers, through his attorneys, would
13 then put on proof, called mitigating proof, that 14 would be reasons why they felt the death penalty was 15 not an appropriate sentence. And at that time, the 16 jury would then decide what the appropriate sentence
17 was. If he was not sentenced to death, the sentence
18 would be life in prison without parole. So I want
19 to know if the facts justify it and the law allowed
20 it, could you impose the death sentence if you felt,
21 after the facts, that it was an appropriate
22 sentence?

23           BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, I believe the
24 question that Your Honor has been asking --
25 otherwise, is consider imposing a death
26 sentence.

27           BY THE COURT: Well, I'm sorry, I did
28 not -- if I misstated that, I certainly did
29 not intend to ask that, so I appreciate you

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 bringing that up.

2 BY THE COURT:

3 Q Could you consider the imposition of a
4 death sentence if the facts justified it and the law
5 allowed it?

6 A Yes.

7 Q So you consider it? Could you also
8 consider the imposition of life without parole?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And would -- as you sit here today,
11 without having heard any facts or know anything
12 about the case or what aggravators or mitigators
13 they might put on, will you -- are you looking at 14 those both equally right now?

15 A Yes sir.

16 Q In other words, you don't favor one
17 possible penalty over the other?

18 A No, sir.

19 BY THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Nail.

20 BY MR. EVANS:

21 Q How are you doing, Ms. Nail?

22 A All right.

23 Q I just got a couple of questions for you.

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q As the Court's told you, this could be a
26 two-phase trial. If the Defendant is convicted,
27 we'll go into a second phase. But in the first
28 phase, the jury does not even consider what penalty
29 should be appropriate; you understand that?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, sir.

2           Q     The jury would have to come in with an
3 open mind and leave both options open. Could you do
4 that?

5           A     Yes, sir.

6           Q     All right. And in the second phase, we
7 expect that the judge will instruct the jury on what
8 aggravating factors they can consider and what
9 aggravating -- what mitigating factors the jury can
10 consider. If the judge tells you what aggravating
11 factors to consider and what mitigating factors you
12 could consider, could you consider all of those?

13          A     Yes, sir.

14          Q     So you could listen to both sides, listen
15 to what the judge tells you and base your decision
16 on which penalty would be appropriate only at that
17 time; is that right?

18          A     Yes, sir.

19          Q     And you would not come into court leaning
20 one way or the other?

21          A     No, sir.

22               BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your
23 Honor.

24       BY MS. STEINER:

25          Q     Good morning, Ms. Nail.

26          A     Hello.

27          Q     I believe -- when His Honor was asking
28 you -- you said you heard people talking about this 29 case over the years; is that correct?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     That is correct.

2           Q     I believe when you were talking to the
3 judge, when everybody else was in the room and you
4 were standing up with your paddle, you said that
5 actually through your mother you knew Ms. Bertha?

6           A     My mother knew her. I had just seen her
7 once or twice. I did not know her personally.

8           Q     All right. And so none of the talk that 9 you heard was from Ms. Bertha or --

10          A     Oh, no, ma'am.

11          Q     Not Ms. Bertha. From any members of 12 Ms. Bertha's family?

13          A     No, ma'am.

14          Q     You know -- was your mother living when 15 Ms. Bertha died?

16          A     No, ma'am.

17          Q     Was the family connection such that you
18 all -- you or any of your brothers or sisters sent
19 condolence cards to Mr. Tardy?

20          A     No, ma'am.

21          Q     You didn't go to the funeral?

22          A     No, ma'am.

23          Q     If you could say, where are the places
24 around that you heard people talking?

25          A     Just at work.

26          Q     At work. Which work place was that?

27          A     At Steele -- not Steele Apparel. It was 28 B&L at that time.

29          Q     All right. And you worked on -- you

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 worked there with the --

2 A No. Out in the floor.

3 Q All right. Were you a supervisor or were
4 you --

5 A I was at one time, yes.

6 Q All right. So that was -- was that -- is
7 that factory here? I'm not from Winona.

8 A No, ma'am. They are no longer in
9 business.

10 Q All right. But they were located here in 11 Montgomery County.

12 A Yes, ma'am.

13 Q And you hear talk on the floor at the time
14 it happened?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q And how long did you stay working there?

17 A Until it closed.

18 Q Which was?

19 A I believe about eight years.

20 Q It was eight years ago it closed?

21 A No. It's been closed about 12 or so.

22 Q Okay. So it closed in '98?

23 A Somewhere along in there.

24 Q I'm not very good with arithmetic.

25 A I'm not either.

26 Q So but -- this -- as the Court has
27 informed you when everybody was in the room, this 28 happened in July of 1996. So for that first two 29 years, did that take you through the first trial

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 that was held in this matter?

2       A     Unh-unh. I didn't hear too much about it
3 then, because I moved to Grenada.

4       Q     Okay.

5       A     And I didn't see the same people.

6       Q     All right. All right. So -- but the 7 people down here in Montgomery County were pretty
8 much talking about it that whole two years?

9       A     Oh, yes, ma'am.

10       Q    Did anything they say cause you to form an 11 opinion with respect --

12       A    No, ma'am --

13       Q    -- to the facts?

14       A    -- because I did not know, you know,
15 anything about it. Just what I had heard.

16       Q    Were you -- did you -- were you aware of 17 any proceedings in this matter --

18       A    No, ma'am.

19       Q    -- that occurred prior to this one?

20       A    No, ma'am.

21       Q    Have you not read anything?

22       A    No, ma'am.

23       Q    You don't read the newspapers?

24       A    No, ma'am.

25       Q    All right. You're not an Internet junkie?

26       A    No, I'm not.

27       Q    All right. When you got an invitation
28 from the Court to be here this week, did you do
29 anything, try and find out what the case was about?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     No, ma'am.

2           Q     All right. Now, on your questionnaire,
3 His Honor's asked you about the death penalty and
4 life in prison without parole.

5           A     Yes, ma'am.

6           Q     As he's told you, the legislature of the 7 State of Mississippi has seen fit to give a jury an 8 option to impose -- I mean, it says either of these
9 sentences is appropriate for the crime of capital
10 murder. Do you have any quarrel with that?

11          A     No, ma'am.

12          Q     You -- on your questionnaire you checked
13 A, you strongly favor the death penalty.

14          A     No, I meant to mark that out. Life
15 without parole --

16          Q     Oh, okay.

17          A     -- is what I would prefer.

18          Q     But you can consider the death penalty.

19          A     Yes, ma'am.

20          Q     All right. And if the Court -- you
21 haven't heard the facts in this case?

22          A     No, ma'am.

23          Q     Now, you don't make a decision with 24 respect to sentence at all until after he has been
25 found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. You
26 understand that?

27          A     Yes.

28          Q     And at that point, you could consider the
29 death penalty?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes.

2           Q     And you could consider life in prison
3 without parole?

4           A     Yes, ma'am.

5           Q     Now, you will be instructed by the Court
6 with respect to considering very specific
7 aggravating circumstances. Can you -- and can you
8 consider those and deliberate with your jurors on 9 finding those?

10          A     Yes, ma'am.

11          Q     And with respect to mitigating
12 circumstances, which His Honor, I think, has 13 characterized as evidence that the defendant may put 14 on. It could also be any evidence that you have 15 before you in the courtroom that you think suggests
16 a death penalty might not be the most appropriate
17 sentence. And that will not necessarily have to do
18 with the actual crime or crimes, of which you would 19 have found the defendant guilty; do you understand
20 that?

21          A     Yes, ma'am.

22          Q     And it may have to do with the defendant's
23 life before this happened. It may have to do with 24 defendant's life since he's been arrested for this 25 crime. It may have to do with -- you know, you may 26 hear from family members about these things. And 27 can you keep an open mind and consider what they're
28 saying --

29          A     Yes, ma'am.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     -- before you make a decision?

2           A     Yes, ma'am.

3           Q     And you may also hear from people -- it's 4 not an aggravating factor. It's not put on by the 5 Defendant. You may hear from family members of any 6 of the four -- anybody who you've convicted -- if 7 you get to it, a family member of anybody who's 8 relative was one of the people murdered. Would 9 that -- could you hear that and keep an open mind
10 with respect to --

11          A     I doubt very seriously I would see any of 12 those people.

13          Q     I understand that. But as His Honor has 14 explained, you will have evidence here in court.

15          A     Oh, I see.

16          Q     And you may hear them testifying
17 concerning --

18          A     Oh, yes, ma'am.

19          Q     -- their loved ones. Could you still keep 20 an open mind with respect to hearing Mr. Flowers'
21 evidence --

22                BY MR. EVANS: Again, this is improper,
23 because she can't say what she would do after 24 she's heard the evidence.

25                BY MS. STEINER: I'm only asking if her
26 commitment to keep an open mind with respect
27 to both sentences, that she has given the 28 Court as she sits here today, will persist
29 after she has heard the kinds of evidence she

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 has heard which --

2 BY MR. EVANS: And it shouldn't persist at
3 that point.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, I sustain the
5 objection. Because at some point, she's
6 going to have to make a decision. And after 7 she's heard the proof, she couldn't have an 8 open mind as to both.

9 BY MS. STEINER: I understand.

10 BY MS. STEINER:

11 Q Can you up -- at -- when you walk back in 12 that jury room, follow the Court's instructions and 13 consider both penalties on the basis of what you
14 have heard?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q And you can listen to the evidence in
17 mitigation?

18 A Yes, ma'am.

19 Q And whatever evidence the State has 20 offered --

21 A Yes, ma'am.

22 Q -- either in aggravation or from the 23 victim family?

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 BY THE COURT: You may step down. And 26 when you go back out and sit down, please
27 don't talk about with anybody out there what
28 you've discussed in here.

29 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE
(JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

BY THE COURT: I need No. 62, next,
Ms. Copper.

(JUROR NO. 62, DIANE OWENS COPPER, ENTERS THE COURTROOM)

BY THE COURT:

Q Ms. Copper, if you'll come on down and
have a seat.

You look a little nervous. Don't be nervous. Have a seat, ma'am. And what we're doing is we are asking each juror certain questions that we didn't want to ask out in front of everybody.
And we're just -- you know, felt like that it would be better because people might be more comfortable speaking without a big group out there. And so there was a couple of questions that we were asking
about.

First concerning possible knowledge that you had about the case, if any. So have you read anything about the case or seen anything on the T.V.
or newspaper or radio or talked to anybody or really have any knowledge about the case?

A Well, this time?

Q Yes, ma'am. Well, I mean, at any time since it happened in 1996.

A I read a little article about it. I think that was in last week's paper or something.

Q Okay. You read it in last week's paper?

A Yeah. Kind of glanced.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Okay. And have you -- I guess, did you
2 hear about it back in '96 when it first happened?

3           A     Yes, sir.

4           Q     And have you heard any talk through the
5 years about the case or any -- seen it in the 6 newspaper and things?

7           A     Yes, sir.

8           Q     Has anything you saw, read or heard caused
9 you to form an opinion as to the guilt or innocence
10 of Mr. Flowers?

11          A     I don't -- could you --

12          Q     Repeat the question?

13          A     Right.

14          Q     Right now, you have not heard any evidence
15 at all.

16          A     Right.

17          Q     You know, you have not heard one -- you
18 know, any evidence.

19          A     Right.

20          Q     But without hearing any evidence at all,
21 right now, have you already got an opinion as to 22 whether he's guilty or not guilty?

23          A     No.

24          Q     And these things that you might have heard
25 at some point in the past, can you put those things
26 aside and not consider them but only consider the 27 evidence that's presented here in court?

28          A     Yes.

29          Q     And so you won't let anything you've heard

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 influence your decision if you're a juror?

2           A     Right.

3           Q     Okay. Next, concerns the possibility of 4 the possible sentence. If Mr. Flowers is found not
5 guilty, we do not get into anything concerning a
6 possible sentence. But if he were to be found
7 guilty, then at that time, the jury would decide
8 what the jury felt the appropriate punishment would 9 be. The options are life in prison without parole
10 and the death penalty.

11                   If the jury did not impose the death
12 penalty, then there's an automatic sentence of life
13 without parole. And I want to know if -- could you
14 consider both of those options as sentencing options
15 if you were sitting as a juror?

16           A     Yes.

17           Q     And before hearing any proof at all, have 18 you got any -- are you leaning one way or another or 19 can you just consider both of those equally as we 20 stand here today?

21           A     You're speaking of those two options?

22           Q     Right. Life in prison without parole or
23 the death penalty.

24           A     Right. Yes.

25           Q     Okay. And you understand we wouldn't even 26 get to that phase unless he was convicted of the 27 crimes for which he's charged.

28           A     Right.

29                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Evans, have you

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 got any questions?

2 BY MR. EVANS: Yes, sir.

3 BY MR. EVANS:

4 Q Good evening, Ms. Copper.

5 A Good evening.

6 Q How are you doing?

7 A Fine. A little nervous.

8 Q Well, that's -- there's nothing to be
9 nervous over. We just got a few questions to ask
10 you.

11 A Okay.

12 Q Now, I noticed that you told us the other
13 day that you lived on Harper Street at one time?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q And that you knew where Archie and Lola
16 and some of the Flowers lived over there down the 17 street from there?

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q That y'all lived on the same street.

20 A Not on the same street. Because they --
21 they live on Cade Street, and I lived on Harper
22 Street.

23 Q Don't they live at the corner of Cade and 24 Harper?

25 A Well, I guess. I'm not -- I -- you know,
26 my street is Harper and then its -- as it go
27 around -- that's where I assume it was Cade Street.
28 I'm not positive.

29 Q Okay. And you've stated that you worked

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 with the defendant's sister at Shoe World?

2           A     That's correct.

3           Q     And which sister was that?

4           A     Cora.

5           Q     How long did y'all work together?

6           A     Probably a year or two.

7           Q     Okay. You worked with the defendant's
8 father?

9           A     Yes, sir.

10          Q     How long did you work with him?

11          A     Estimating, probably -- possibly about the 12 same, one to two years.

13          Q     Okay. And I want to make sure my notes
14 are right, because we can all write down things
15 wrong. You stated that you knew his father Archie
16 Flowers.

17          A     Yes, sir.

18          Q     You know his brother, Archie, Jr.?

19          A     Yes, sir. I know his brother.

20          Q     You know his mother Lola?

21          A     Yes, sir, I do.

22          Q     You know witnesses in this case, Hazel
23 Jones?

24          A     Yes, sir, I know her.

25          Q     You know Kittery Jones, a witness in this
26 case?

27          A     Yes, sir, I know him.

28          Q     And you know Danny Joe Lott, a witness in
29 this case?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, sir.

2           Q     And I think it was yesterday and my notes
3 show that you said that the fact that you know all
4 of these people could affect you and you think it
5 could make you lean toward him because of your
6 connections to all of these people. Is that
7 correct?

8           A     It -- it's possible.

9           Q     Okay. That would be something that would
10 be entering into your mind if you were on the jury,
11 wouldn't it?

12          A     Yes, sir.

13          Q     And it would make it to where you couldn't 14 come in here and, just with an open mind, decide the 15 case, wouldn't it?

16          A     Correct.

17               BY MR. EVANS: Okay. Nothing further,
18 your Honor.

19               BY MR. CARTER: What did she say?

20               BY JUROR: Correct.

21           BY MR. CARTER:

22           Q     Ms. Copper, now you said you could put 23 aside anything that you heard about the case up
24 until now. Is that correct? In other words, any 25 information you heard in the neighborhood or from 26 the community or you might have read from an article
27 or saw on T.V., you could put all that aside because 28 you know that it's not supposed to be used on the 29 trial. Is that correct?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Correct.

2           Q     You could put that aside. Now, this --
3     you know a lot of people in this case and -- but 4     there's nothing -- is there anything about any of 5     these people that so important to you, like
6     Mr. Flowers, Cora or those other people that you
7     know, is there anything them that's so significant
8     or so strong that you would not use your own
9     judgment if -- and would be hamstrung or be -- or 10    lose your own personal judgment as a result of 11    knowing them?

12                   That's probably confusing. Is it? It
13    probably is. It's confusing to me.

14                   What I'm trying to find out is just as you
15    could put aside all the information you heard before
16    about this case, could you not also put aside the 17    fact -- if you got picked as a juror, put aside the 18    fact that you have met Mr. Flowers, that you know
19    some other people in these cases and be fair to the 20    Tardys, the Stewarts, the Goldens, and Rigbys, and 21    make whatever decision or vote that you're going to 22    make based on the evidence and the evidence only.
23    Could you do that?

24           A     I feel like I could. But, you know, it --

25           Q     Is what you're saying --

26           A     Of course, it would make me, you know,
27    feel uncomfortable. But if I had to do it, you
28    know, I got to do what I got to do.

29           Q     Okay. So you're saying that -- thank you.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 You're saying that you'll be uncomfortable. You'd
2 prefer not to -- I get the impression you're saying
3 that you'd rather not be a juror. But if you got
4 picked to be one, you would take the responsibility
5 seriously, and you would follow the law and the 6 rules that the Court give you, and you would put
7 aside anything that you are required to put aside
8 and make your evidence and make your vote based on 9 just the evidence you hear in the courtroom. Is
10 that fair to say?

11 A Yes, sir. That's correct.

12 BY MR. CARTER: Thank you. Thank you,
13 ma'am.

14 BY JUROR: You're welcome.

15 BY THE COURT:

16 Q I just got -- will you follow wherever the 17 evidence leads in this case? Will you listen to the 18 evidence and base your verdict on
19 the evidence?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 Q And if the evidence showed Mr. Flowers
22 guilty, would you find him guilty? I mean, could 23 you find him guilty if the evidence showed he was
24 guilty?

25 A Yes, sir.

26 Q And if the evidence showed or the State
27 failed to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt,
28 could you find him to be not guilty?

29 A Yes, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Then you're telling me, again, that you're
2 going to the listen to the evidence and will wait
3 and base your decision strictly on the evidence and
4 no outside factors; is that correct?

5           A     That's correct.

6           BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you.   You may
7 step down.   And when you go back out, don't 8 talk about what we talked in here about with 9 anybody out there about.

10          BY JUROR:   Yes, sir.

11          BY THE COURT:   Okay.   Thank you,
12 Ms. Copper.

13                   (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

14          BY THE COURT:   No. 63, Mr. Hargrove.

15                   (JUROR NO. 63, JAMES HARGROVE, ENTERS
16 THE COURTROOM)

17          BY THE COURT:

18           Q     If you'll come forward, Mr. Hargrove, and 19 have a seat down here.   What we're doing now is 20 asking questions of the individual jurors outside
21 the presence of the other jurors, because we just
22 feel like it was appropriate to have some questions
23 without having everybody else listening.   I see you
24 lived in Greenwood at some point?

25           A     Yes, sir.   We moved up here in 2003.

26           Q     Okay.   You've been here since 2003?

27           A     Yes, sir.

28           Q     Because that was the next question I was 29 going to ask is if you have heard anything about

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 this case or have any knowledge of the case or
2 anything?

3       A     What little bit I have seen in newspapers.
4 And I do not watch local news, so....

5       Q     And was that the Winona Times or some 6 other newspapers?

7       A     It was Common Wealth. And I have seen
8 some in Winona Times.

9       Q     And has anything that you read in the 10 paper caused you to form an opinion as to
11 Mr. Flowers' guilt or innocence?

12       A     No, sir.

13       Q     And if you were selected and served as a
14 juror in this case, would you lay aside -- could you
15 and would you lay aside anything you might have 16 heard outside of court or read, and base your 17 decision strictly on the evidence here presented in
18 court?

19       A     Yes, sir.

20       Q     Next question: If Mr. Flowers were found
21 guilty, we would have a sentencing phase. If he's 22 found not guilty, the trial is over. But if he were 23 to be found guilty, we would go to the next step,
24 which would be the sentencing phase.

25               At that time, the State of Mississippi
26 would be seeking the death penalty. The State would 27 put on aggravating factors that would show the 28 State's belief why Mr. Flowers should be sentenced 29 to death.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Mr. Flowers would put on mitigating facts
2 that would show reasons in his view why the death
3 penalty would not be an appropriate sentence. The 4 jury then would be instructed by the Court, and the 5 jury ultimately would decide the appropriate
6 punishment. So the punishment would be death or 7 life without parole. Could you consider both of
8 those as sentencing options?

9           A     Yes, sir.

10          Q     And as you sit here today, would you favor
11 one side over the other -- I mean, one option over
12 the other?

13          A     No, sir.

14          Q     So you will listen to the evidence and 15 then make that decision; is that correct?

16          A     Yes, sir.

17                 BY THE COURT: Mr. Evans?

18                 BY MR. EVANS:

19          Q     Good evening.

20          A     Yes, sir.

21          Q     In the second phase of this trial, if the 22 jury finds the Defendant guilty, both sides can put
23 on factors as the judge was telling you. The State
24 puts on aggravators. The Defense puts on mitigators
25 or things that they think would justify a sentence
26 of life. And the judge will instruct you on what 27 factors you can look at for each side, what you can
28 and can't do.

29                 Are you telling us that you could come in

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 here with a complete open mind, not make any
2 decision before you hear both sides, hear the
3 judge's law and then make a decision of which
4 sentence would be appropriate?

5 A Yes, I can.

6 BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your
7 Honor.

8 BY MS. STEINER:

9 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Hargrove.

10 A Afternoon.

11 Q You -- you -- you work at Delta
12 Distributing Company --

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q -- nearby? Is that firm up in Greenwood?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q So you commute back and forth to 17 Greenwood?

18 A Yes, ma'am, every day.

19 Q Do you -- does Delta Distributing have 20 customers down here in Montgomery County?

21 A Yes, ma'am.

22 Q As the vice president, I assume, you're an
23 executive and stay in the office. Is that correct?

24 A Yes, for the most part.

25 Q Did you rise through the ranks? Did you
26 begin as a sales person or that sort of thing?

27 A It goes back to washing trucks as a kid.
28 It's a family business.

29 Q Oh, okay. This is your family business?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, ma'am.

2           Q     And did you wash trucks -- did you ever do
3 sales calls or delivery calls on folks down here in
4 Montgomery County?

5           A     Yes, ma'am, I did. And I do realize that 6 at -- Mr. Archie Flowers?

7           Q     Uh-huh.

8           A     He used to work at Kelly's Stop & Go.

9           Q     Okay.

10          A     If that's the same one. And I was making
11 deliveries there in the late '80s, early '90s. So I
12 do know who Mr. Archie is, but we are not 13 acquainted. So yes, I did make deliveries to where 14 he did work.

15          Q     All right. So you've meet Mr. Archie
16 Flowers through a business acquaintance --

17          A     Yes, ma'am, 20 some-odd years ago.

18          Q     -- in the '80s -- before any of this ever
19 happened?

20          A     Yes, ma'am.

21          Q     And you have -- have you ever had any 22 conversations with him about this?

23          A     No, ma'am. Not since probably 1990 or so.

24          Q     Did you have -- well, in 1990, these
25 events had not happened?

26          A     No. Since then, no.

27          Q     Would any conversations you had with 28 Archie prior to these events, if -- could you put 29 any information from those conversations aside --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, ma'am.

2           Q     -- if he should be a witness in this case?

3           A     Yes, ma'am.

4           Q     -- and testify here? He has been listed
5 as a potential witness.

6           A     Well, I was not sure who he was. That was 7 so long ago. I had to make a call to find out and 8 make sure that was him, so....

9           Q     Did you -- I assume, Delta Distributing is 10 beverages?

11          A     Yes, ma'am. Mainly Anheuser Busch
12 products.

13          Q     Okay. So you wouldn't be delivering that 14 to furniture stores?

15          A     No, ma'am.

16          Q     Did you -- I don't believe any of the --
17 Robert Golden -- I -- I'm trying to remember if any 18 of the other victim -- any of the -- Mr. Flowers
19 worked -- you recall meeting him. Do you recall
20 running into Ms. Ballard, her husband or Mr. and
21 Mrs. Rigby?

22          A     Frank Ballard and I were acquainted. He
23 was the manager of Ragtime in Grenada in the late
24 '80s, early '90s. And he was bar manager, and I was 25 delivery, so that was strictly casual business
26 acquaintance.

27          Q     You were acquainted late '80s, early '90s
28 and then mid '90s -- well, 1996, I assume you read
29 that his wife had died in a shooting?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Well, I read about that, but didn't put
2 two and two together until we moved up here in 2003.
3 I did not know that that was the same family.

4           Q     How did you come to put that together in 5 2003?

6           A     We were -- we still do attend Moore
7 Memorial United Methodist.

8           Q     Oh, so you go to church with Mr. Rigby --

9           A     Well, we did. I'm more or less inactive
10 now.

11          Q     But at some point, between when you first 12 came here, you moved your church membership to 13 Greenwood down --

14          A     That's when I first became reacquainted
15 with Frank and that's when I first met Roxanne.

16          Q     In 19 --

17          A     That would have been in 2003.

18          Q     2003. And were you aware of prior 19 proceedings in this matter that happened in 2004 and 20 2008?

21          A     Well, after I moved up here, yes. I was 22 aware of that happening here but did not keep up
23 with any of the details of it.

24          Q     In the church, in fellowship, in Sunday
25 school, you were attend -- when did you become 26 inactive in the church that the Ballards attend?

27          A     Probably about a year and half ago.

28          Q     Was that before or after the 2008
29 proceeding?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Probably before. It was a little before.

2           Q     Okay. But in 2004, you were an active
3 member of the church?

4           A     Yes.

5           Q     And I'm sure the church provided
6 fellowship to Mr. and Ms. Ballard --

7                   BY MR. EVANS: Object to leading. She can
8 ask him questions.

9                   BY THE COURT: Well, this is voir dire,
10 but so....

11                   BY MS. STEINER: Your Honor, yeah, I
12 believe that the Davis case says either
13 advocate can lead. I'm just trying to get --

14           BY MS. STEINER:

15           Q     Quickly, and I don't want to put words in 16 your mouth.

17           A     Yes, ma'am.

18           Q     Do you recall at church with Mr. and 19 Ms. Ballard as it was running up to the proceeding, 20 were they seeking fellowship and support in the 21 church from the members --

22           A     I can't really speak to that, because I
23 didn't pay that close attention to relationships in 24 the church.

25           Q     You did not. Did you have any 26 conversations -- were they in your Sunday school
27 class?

28           A     No, I don't attend Sunday school. Just 29 worship services.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Okay. And did they ask for prayer? I
2 don't know if --

3           A     I don't recall any support being
4 solicited. There may have been.

5           Q     Could you set all that aside if you -- if
6 Ms. Roxanne came and testified here?

7           A     Yes, ma'am.

8           Q     All right. Would you want to give -- she 9 may be a witness in either or both phases the 10 judge's discussed. Would your church membership
11 with Ms. Roxanne make you wish to -- would it make 12 you want to be able to believe her?

13          A     No. No more credence than anyone else.

14          Q     Next Easter when your wife drags you back
15 to church or if you do choose to become more active
16 in the church, if your verdict in this case were not 17 guilty, could you go into church and greet her in 18 Christian fellowship to the same degree as if --

19          A     Absolutely. If the facts supported an 20 acquittal, then I would be very comfortable with my 21 decision.

22          Q     When you say the facts support an
23 acquittal, what do you mean by that?

24                 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. That
25 is completely inappropriate. There are no
26 facts yet, and his answer is very clear.

27                 BY THE COURT: I sustain, because I mean
28 he hadn't heard any facts so I don't think --

29                 BY JUROR: May I rephrase? If the facts

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           that are presented in court support an
2           acquittal, then I would be able to do that,
3           yes.

4       BY MS. STEINER:

5           Q     And did you hear -- you feel like some 6           facts would have to be brought forward to support an
7           acquittal --

8           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object.

9           BY THE COURT: Overruled.

10          A     As explained by the judge, the case has to 11          be presented by the State of Mississippi. The 12          burden of proof lies with them. And that's very 13          simple at what I would rely on. They have to make
14          their burden of proof.

15       BY MS. STEINER:

16          Q     I understand that. But would you want
17          facts in addition to what the State puts to support
18          an acquittal?

19          A     I'm not really sure.

20          BY MR. HILL: How would he know?

21          BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he has answered
22          this question.

23          BY MS. STEINER: If the Court please, I
24          think it's a different question.

25          BY THE COURT: Let me ask it and clear it
26          up. Would you require Mr. Flowers to put on 27          any proof at all in the case? I mean, so you
28          understand the burden of proof is at all
29          times on the State of Mississippi --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

2 BY THE COURT: -- they've got to prove him
3 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt?

4 BY JUROR: I understand that. You've
5 explained it.

6 BY THE COURT: He doesn't have to prove
7 anything.

8 BY JUROR: Correct. I understand that.

9 BY THE COURT: And so would you be
10 thinking that he ought to have to prove
11 something?

12 BY JUROR: No, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: Okay.

14 BY MS. STEINER:

15 Q Now, you had -- when you were having a
16 conversation with His Honor about being able to 17 consider the sentences of life in prison without
18 parole and the sentences of the death penalty, you
19 understand that the State -- the legislature of the 20 state of Mississippi has stated in the law that
21 either of those two sentences is an appropriate
22 sentence. Do you understand that?

23 A Yes, ma'am.

24 Q Do you -- and I'm not talking about this
25 case. I'm saying as you sit here, you checked you
26 generally favor the death penalty on your
27 questionnaire. Is that an accurate --

28 A That is what I checked.

29 Q Is that an accurate statement --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, ma'am.

2           Q     -- of where you stand about that?

3           A     Yes, ma'am.

4           Q     And you understand -- and His Honor has
5 said that, as you sit here today, obviously -- I
6 think your response was, I have no opinion one way
7 or the other as to which would be the appropriate
8 sentence in this case; is that correct?

9           A     In this case, correct.

10          Q     All right. Do you, in general, feel the 11 death penalty is probably the superior punishment
12 for a quadruple murder of four people?

13               BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, again, I
14 object --

15               BY MS. STEINER: With aggravating
16 circumstances.

17               BY MR. EVANS: That is not an appropriate
18 question.

19               BY JUROR: I'm confused.

20               BY THE COURT: Well, he said he didn't
21 understand it, and I don't either.

22               BY MS. STEINER: Okay. I apologize,
23 Judge.

24               BY MS. STEINER:

25           Q     If you are even considering penalty in 26 this matter, you will have found Mr. Flowers guilty
27 of up to four capital murders. That's deliberate,
28 intentional murder in the course of the crime of 29 robbery as charged here. You understand that?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, I do.

2           Q     And he won't be not guilty. He won't be
3 insane. There won't be anything that would have 4 made you return a different verdict than guilty of
5 capital murder. Do you understand that?

6           A     Yes, ma'am.

7           Q     And having returned that verdict and
8 having had the State characterize it as brutal, are 9 you telling me today that you would not lean towards
10 the death penalty under those circumstances?

11          A     I would have to base my decision today or 12 in this case on the facts as presented in this
13 courtroom by the State of Mississippi.

14          Q     All right. And I think His Honor
15 explained that the State will be here proving 16 aggravating factors?

17          A     Right.

18          Q     In fact, as the Court will instruct you,
19 you will have to find unanimously, beyond a
20 reasonable doubt with the other jurors, that at 21 least one aggravating factor exists. And those
22 aggravating factors that the Court will instruct you
23 on, we would expect they all have to do with the 24 actual crime with which they've charged and at the 25 point you're deliberating sentence, you've convicted
26 Mr. Flowers.

27                 Now, he's also talked about mitigating
28 evidence, evidence that would suggest that a life
29 without parole sentence -- I don't know if I asked

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 you this: You'd consider both of those serious
2 punishments?

3       A     Yes, ma'am.

4       Q     All right. In order -- one of the 5 things -- the mitigating evidence in this case can
6 include things to do with the crime. You understand
7 that?

8       A     Yes, sir.

9       Q     But it need not. And it -- could you --
10 if there's -- in the situation where you found him
11 guilty and are hearing the evidence, consider 12 mitigating evidence that did not deal with the 13 crime, but dealt instead with Mr. Flowers' life and 14 background and his family life, his life before
15 coming here, his community life before being 16 arrested. Could you consider that as mitigating
17 evidence?

18       A     I suppose I could.

19       Q     You suppose you could. You looked a
20 little doubtful.

21               BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I think that --

22       A     You're confusing on the question.

23               BY MR. EVANS: I think if the Court
24 instructs him that those are mitigators to 25 consider, he could follow the Court's
26 instructions.

27               BY THE COURT: He just said he didn't even 28 understand the question.

29               BY JUROR: I understand what he said, and

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           that would be correct.

2       BY MS. STEINER:

3           Q     You understand what --

4           A     Right.  Phrase it differently.

5           Q     -- what the district attorney said.  So
6       that's the district attorney's opinion.  I'm asking
7       you yours.

8           A     Well, I would assume you would be
9       presenting the mitigation as far as the Defense, so
10      yes, I would consider your argument in that.

11          Q     But you were just a little doubtful when I
12      said it may not have anything to do with the crime.

13          A     I'm a little confused as if it doesn't
14      have anything to do with the crime as to why it
15      would be presented in court.

16          Q     Well, the Court will instruct you on the 17      law.

18          A     Okay.  Then I can handle that.

19          Q     And I believe when the Court asked about
20      that.  But you do -- as you sat here today, you
21      just -- you could see no reason why anything like
22      that would have anything to do with this crime or 23      the sentence?

24                   BY MR. EVANS:  I object, Your Honor.

25                   BY MR. HILL:  She's asking him to make a
26      conclusion on the evidence, Your Honor.

27                   BY THE COURT:  I sustain.

28       BY MS. STEINER:

29          Q     Have you -- I believe you said --

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 similarly, things that have nothing to do with the
2 activities of this crime, but may have to do with 3 Mr. Flowers's life as he has lived it since his
4 arrest --

5       A       (Nodding head).

6       Q       -- could you consider that as mitigation
7 after you've convicted him of the crime? Again, it
8 had nothing to do with the crime.

9       A       What would you be mitigating?

10       Q       The sentence -- thank you. Mitigation
11 talks about the sentence, to make that selection
12 between life in prison without -- to mitigate the 13 death penalty, to consider life in prison without 14 parole.

15       A       Okay. I follow you. Yes.

16       Q       All right. Now, the other thing the Court
17 will instruct you on is that, although you must be 18 unanimous on finding the aggravators, if you're 19 looking at the mitigating circumstances or the death
20 penalty -- or the appropriateness of the death
21 penalty, that is left to individual conscience. If 22 nine other jurors find something a mitigator but you
23 don't, you're not required to join them. You can
24 hold your opinion. And they're entitled to hold
25 theirs. Do you understand that?

26       A       Yes, ma'am.

27       Q       Can you respect that?

28       A       Yeah.

29       Q       And conversely, if you say that mitigates

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 this crime for me, you're allowed to keep that
2 opinion and they have to respect that, too?

3       A     Yeah.

4       Q     And you can agree to disagree on that?

5       A     Yes, ma'am.

6       Q     You understand that? And respect each
7 other's opinions?

8       A     My job makes me do that on a regular 9 basis.

10       Q     Oh, is that -- I hope you're not
11 deliberating things as serious --

12       A     No, nothing such as this.

13       Q     But as the president of a distributing
14 company -- vice president.

15               BY MS. STEINER: Thank you. I have
16 nothing further.

17               BY THE COURT: You may step down. If 18 you'll just, when you go out, not talk about 19 what you've discussed in here with anyone
20 outside.

21               BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

22                       (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

23               BY THE COURT: From here on, I'm giving 24 each side five minutes to ask questions of 25 individual jurors after they have been
26 questioned by the Court. We are getting
27 repetitive with everybody that I've heard
28 today so far. To avoid repetitiveness and to 29 get directly to points that need to be made

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 or questions that need to be asked, I believe
2 five minutes will be an appropriate length of
3 time for both sides to ask questions. And so
4 that's going to be my ruling from here on.

5 (To the bailiff) You may bring
6 Ms. Woods in next. That would be No. 65.

7 (JUROR NO. 65, JUANITA WOODS, ENTERS
8 THE COURTROOM)

9 BY THE COURT:

10 Q Ms. Woods, if you'll come on down and have 11 a seat.

12 Ms. Woods, what we're doing now is asking
13 individual questions of jurors because there are 14 some questions we don't want to ask out in front of 15 all the others. And so first, we're asking if you
16 heard about the case, have any knowledge about the 17 case, read about the case or anything like that?

18 A I heard things, but I haven't really read
19 anything as far as paperwise.

20 Q Were you living here back in 1996?

21 A Unh-unh.

22 Q I know you work --

23 A In Kilmichael.

24 Q Okay. You work in Eupora?

25 A Uh-huh.

26 Q And how long have you worked there?

27 A Be a year in June.

28 Q Okay. So you -- I didn't know -- I
29 thought you might have spent all your working life

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 over in Eupora --

2       A     Unh-unh. I'm originally from Kilmichael.

3       Q     Okay. From Kilmichael. Did -- was it
4 just people out in town talking or did you read it
5 in the newspapers --

6       A     No. I don't very seldom read papers. I
7 just hear bits and pieces, you know, over the years.

8       Q     Now, has anything that you read or heard
9 caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt or
10 innocence of Mr. Flowers?

11       A     I haven't really formed an opinion.

12       Q     Okay. So you don't have any formed
13 opinion at all.

14       A     No, I don't have an opinion.

15       Q     Now, would you lay aside what you might
16 have heard outside the Court and base your decision
17 only on the evidence as presented here in Court and 18 on nothing else?

19       A     As I said before, I just -- I'm not
20 comfortable doing that.

21       Q     Yeah. I understand -- nobody -- you know,
22 nobody really wants the job. You know, it's a tough
23 job, and I understand that nobody really wants to do
24 it. But would you lay aside anything you might have 25 heard and just listen to the evidence if you were 26 selected and follow the evidence to wherever it may 27 lead and not have any decision based on things
28 you've heard outside the Court?

29       A     I could do that.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     The next question involves the possibility
2 of the sentence, if Mr. Flowers were to be
3 convicted. It would be the sentencing phase. Only
4 if Mr. Flowers was found guilty on the first part of
5 the trial would we even get to the second part. If
6 he was found not guilty, that's it. It's over.

7                     But if we were to get to the second part
8 of the trial, the jury would decide what the 9 appropriate punishment should be. The State of 10 Mississippi is seeking the death penalty. They 11 would be putting on aggravating factors or -- which 12 are facts that they believe would justify a jury
13 imposing the death penalty.

14                    Mr. Flowers, through his attorneys, would
15 be putting on mitigating facts. That's things that 16 they believe would justify the jury in not imposing
17 the death penalty. The law of this state allows the 18 imposition of the death penalty. If the death
19 penalty is not imposed, then the sentence is life in 20 prison without parole. Could you consider both of 21 those as sentencing options and possibilities?

22           A     No, sir.

23           Q     Which one could you not consider?

24           A     Well, since both of them is -- but
25 actually based on what -- what would actually happen
26 to him, I couldn't. I mean, within myself, I
27 couldn't.

28           Q     Are you saying you couldn't even 29 deliberate on a sentence -- either of the sentences?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     No, sir.

2           Q     And is -- what -- what is that thought
3 based on, just not -- I mean --

4           A     I just don't believe in that.

5           Q     Don't believe?

6           A     I don't believe in it. I mean, it's -- to 7 me, it's judging in a sense. But then taking
8 what -- being as a juror, that information, you
9 still would have to -- your say-so in a sense would
10 be affecting each outcome to me.

11          Q     Well, could you -- and are you saying --
12 could you consider life without parole?

13          A     If I was selected, I wouldn't have a 14 choice.

15          Q     Well, that's right. And I mean, the same
16 way with the death penalty. If you were selected,
17 you wouldn't have a choice but to consider it. But
18 I want to know, could you consider it?

19          A     It would be hard.

20          Q     But could you do it if you were required
21 by -- if you were sitting here and required to, could
22 you consider that as a possible sentence?

23          A     Well, I guess I wouldn't have a choice so
24 I -- yeah, I guess I could.

25                   BY THE COURT: Okay.

26           BY MR. EVANS:

27           Q     Good evening, Ms. Woods.

28           A     How are you?

29           Q     All right. And like we said the other

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 day, nobody's questioning anyone's beliefs, whether
2 it be personal beliefs or religious beliefs. But if
3 I understand what you're saying right, is it because 4 of your beliefs, you don't think you should sit in
5 judgment on anyone else?

6 A No, sir.

7 Q And if you were picked as a juror, are 8 those beliefs so strong on that that if you were 9 asked to hear the evidence and deliberate with the 10 jury, that, as I said the other day, you would 11 basically have to tell other jurors "I'm sorry, I
12 just don't think I can deliberate. I can't decide
13 whether somebody's guilty or innocent." Would that 14 be what you would have to do?

15 A Yes, sir.

16 Q Okay. And that's as far as guilt, period.
17 And as far as the death penalty, are your views so
18 strong on the death penalty that you could never
19 consider the death penalty as an appropriate --

20 A Yes, sir. It's that strong. Yes, sir.

21 BY MR. EVANS: Thank you, ma'am.

22 BY MR. CARTER:

23 Q Ms. Woods, I got the impression that you
24 answered one way when -- correct me if I'm wrong. I
25 thought you told the judge that -- I mean, it's 26 pretty obvious you're uncomfortable with this, and 27 you don't want to be a juror. And as the Court told 28 you, everybody understands that.

29 But I thought you ultimately wound up

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 saying that if you got picked, that you would
2 consider both options and that you would do the job;
3 you would deliberate, although you would be
4 uncomfortable. You would listen to the evidence,
5 and you would deliberate although you would be
6 uncomfortable. Is that what you told the Court?

7       A     Well, from what I gathered that he said,
8 if I was chosen -- to that point, if I was chosen,
9 that means I didn't have a choice.

10       Q     Right.

11       A     So as far as trying to come to a verdict,
12 I don't think I could do it, but....

13       Q     And when you're talking about come to a
14 verdict, you're talking about the first phase as to 15 innocence or guilt?

16       A     Well, as far as -- as far as I know the 17 death penalty, I couldn't do that. Not comfortable
18 with either one.

19       Q     So you're not comfortable with life or
20 death?

21       A     Not really. No, I'm not.

22       Q     Right. And are you also saying -- I want
23 to be clear -- that you're not even comfortable
24 voting guilty or not guilty?

25       A     I'm not comfortable with that, either.

26       Q     Not comfortable with that either. Okay.
27 But if you got picked, you wouldn't deliberate. You
28 wouldn't listen to the evidence, and you wouldn't 29 deliberate?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Well, I mean, if I'm in that same room, I
2 would have to listen to it.

3           Q     Okay.

4           A     But for me to just say that I could just
5 say, Well, he's guilty or he's not guilty, I
6 don't -- it's just --

7           Q     It would be difficult but --

8           A     Very. Very.

9           Q     And it would be difficult, and you're
10 saying you would do it -- you would do what you are 11 asked to do or you wouldn't do it?

12          A     I mean, everything sound so confusing.
13 But like I said again, I mean, if I was put in that 14 position where I didn't have a choice and they chose
15 me to be there, if it -- I guess if it came to that 16 point where he would get life imprisonment or death
17 or something like that and being there, I mean, I
18 guess I would sway to the point of life in prison.
19 But for me, the whole choice, I wouldn't want to do
20 it if I had a choice. I'm not comfortable.

21          Q     Okay. So you're leaning towards life,
22 you're telling me. And you wouldn't even consider
23 death. Is that what you're saying?

24          A     No, sir.

25               BY MR. CARTER: Okay.

26               BY THE COURT: Ms. Woods, if you'll step
27 down and go on back out with your fellow
28 jurors. And when you walk out, please don't 29 discuss outside with them what we've talked

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 about in here.

2 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

3 BY THE COURT: Mr. Amason next, No. 67.

4 (JUROR NO. 67, GLEN AMASON, ENTERS THE
5 COURTROOM)

6 BY THE COURT:

7 Q Come on down here, Mr. Amason, and have a
8 seat.

9 Mr. Amason, what we're doing now is we're
10 asking questions outside the presence of the other
11 jurors about particular facts that we felt like
12 wasn't appropriate to ask out in front of everybody.

13 First, we're getting into knowledge about
14 the case. Have you got any -- have you heard about 15 the case or have any knowledge about the case?

16 A No, sir. None -- not anything other than 17 news and so forth.

18 Q Do you read about it in the paper?

19 A I don't think I necessarily read about it,
20 no.

21 Q Did you see it on T.V., radio?

22 A No. At that time, I was a good bit
23 younger then and didn't really keep up with things
24 like that.

25 Q And through the years, have you heard talk
26 about it or discussed it much or at all?

27 A No, sir.

28 Q So you just generally know it happened?

29 A Yes, sir.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     And that -- can you lay -- if you're 2     selected as a juror, can you lay aside what you've
3     heard and base your decision only on the evidence
4     presented here in court?

5           A     Yes, sir.

6           Q     And would -- do you have any fixed opinion
7     right now as to the guilt or innocence of
8     Mr. Flowers?

9           A     No, sir.

10          Q     Again, will you wait till all the evidence
11     is presented and then base your decision on the 12     evidence as you hear it in this courtroom?

13          A     Yes, sir.

14          Q     The next question considers the possible
15     sentence. If Mr. Flowers is found guilty, then the 16     jury would go to the second phase, which will be the 17     sentencing phase. If he was found not guilty, we 18     would not get to that phase.

19                 If he were to be found guilty, then the 20     State would be seeking the death penalty. They 21     would be putting on aggravating factors, which is 22     reasons the State believes Mr. Flowers should be 23     sentenced to death.

24                 The Defense would then put on mitigating
25     factors, which would be reasons why they believe the 26     death penalty would not be appropriate in the 27     situation. Then, the jury would ultimately make 28     that decision. Again, if the sentence was not
29     death, it would be an automatic life without parole

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 sentence. Can you consider both of those sentencing
2 possibilities?

3           A     Yes, sir.

4           Q     And as you sit here today, having heard
5 nothing about the case from this Court, do you
6 already have some belief that one sentence should be
7 imposed over the other?

8           A     No, sir. To me that would depend on the 9 case itself.

10          Q     And so you're saying you will wait till 11 the case has been presented to you to make that
12 determination?

13          A     That's correct.

14                   BY THE COURT: Okay. Thank you,
15 Mr. Amason.

16           BY MR. EVANS:

17          Q     Good evening. As the judge told you --
18 and I want to go a little bit further -- on the 19 aggravators and the mitigators. The aggravators
20 will be the things that we introduce at that phase
21 of the trial that we will be arguing justifies the
22 death penalty.

23                   The Defense will be arguing what they call
24 mitigators, and that's reasons that they will be 25 trying to convince the jury that a life sentence is 26 appropriate.

27                   Now, my question on that is simply this:
28 Will you listen to what the Court instructs you on 29 what you should consider and only consider what the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 judge tells you to?

2           A     Yes, sir.

3           Q     And would you base your decision of which
4 penalty would be appropriate only after you have
5 heard the Court's instructions and heard both sides
6 and considered what both sides say?

7           A     Yes, sir.

8           Q     And would you openly consider what --
9 anything that the Court allows both sides to put on?

10          A     Yes, sir.

11                   BY MR. EVANS: Nothing further, Your
12 Honor.

13           BY MS. STEINER:

14          Q     Good afternoon, Mr. Amason.

15          A     How are you doing.

16          Q     You had indicated in response to His
17 Honor's questions that you heard -- well, that you
18 don't -- didn't read anything about this in the 19 newspaper at any time since it happened?

20          A     If it's been in the local paper, I scan.
21 But I can't say that I just sat and read an article
22 about it. I don't read any articles about anything.
23 I'm sorry. I'm a sports man, and I read the sport
24 section. That's about it.

25          Q     All right. Now, the Winona paper, you've 26 got to open the paper up and look at the front page
27 before you turn to the sports section --

28          A     The sports are on the back side.

29          Q     It's on the back side. Okay.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, ma'am.

2           Q     And -- but you said you had heard things
3 over the years --

4           A     I mean, just because I lived in the town.
5 That's what I've heard, you know.

6           Q     Okay. Where have you heard these things
7 in the town?

8           A     Well, ma'am, as many times that -- you
9 know, that it's come up or -- I mean, you just hear
10 people talking. I have not sat and carried on a
11 conversation about it with anybody.

12          Q     What sorts of things have you heard people
13 talking about?

14          A     Mainly, just -- I mean, just about, We're
15 fixing to do it again. I mean --

16          Q     How do you feel about fixing to do it
17 again?

18          A     I think it needs to be done right, if it
19 takes one time or ten times, ma'am.

20          Q     And do you have an opinion one way or the 21 other on what is the right way -- what is right in 22 this case in getting it done?

23          A     Well, the right way is -- in my opinion,
24 is to where both sides, no matter what side you're
25 on, everything is taken care of the first time so it
26 can be handled and -- whether it's charges or no
27 charges, it can be -- a decision can be made.
28 Everybody's done their jobs the right way, and it
29 don't have to be done again.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Okay. I appreciate that. Now, I believe
2 that you said that you go to the same church as 3 Frank and Roxanne Ballard?

4           A     I do.

5           Q     Are you active in that church?

6           A     Yes, ma'am.

7           Q     Do you go pretty much every Sunday?

8           A     Yes, ma'am.

9           Q     When you turned up at church the first
10 Sunday after you got this invitation to go to --
11 come to court this week and be a juror --

12          A     Yes, ma'am.

13          Q     -- did you let your fellow church members
14 know that you were --

15          A     No, ma'am.

16          Q     All right.

17          A     Sure didn't.

18          Q     Did anybody seem to know that?

19          A     No, ma'am.

20          Q     All right. Now, I think you said you know
21 there have been several times at your church -- does
22 your church try and give fellowship to the Ballards
23 when one of these trials comes up?

24          A     I'm not sure, ma'am. I never attended one
25 if they did.

26          Q     All right. Do you go to Sunday school
27 class with either --

28          A     No, I do not.

29          Q     All right. Do you go to a different class

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 or do you --

2           A     I'm sorry. But I don't go to Sunday
3 school. I apologize.

4           Q     But you do go to worship service?

5           A     Yes, ma'am. Lots of times, I'm an usher,
6 and my job is to greet everybody at the door and
7 speak to them.

8           Q     So you speak to Frank and Roxanne?

9           A     Yes, ma'am.

10          Q     And my husband was an usher in his church.
11 And if somebody had a bereavement or a time of
12 trial --

13                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object to 14 what she or her husband would do.

15                   BY THE COURT: I sustain.

16           BY MS. STEINER:

17           Q     In the course of being an usher, do you --
18 when you know of a bereavement or a time of trial or 19 a blessed event or something, do you comment to the 20 people about that --

21                   BY MR. EVANS: Object. It only pertains
22 to these people involved --

23                   BY THE COURT: I sustain it. It doesn't 24 matter to other people what --

25           BY MS. STEINER:

26           Q     Have you had -- you've had such
27 conversations with Frank and Roxanne?

28           A     I have never once spoke to Frank or 29 Roxanne anything to do with this.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     All right. Now I -- forgive me. I've
2     been looking at 156 faces. And when I was pulling
3     into the -- this morning, coming through the 4     security point, there were the deputy -- uniform
5     deputy?

6           A     That's correct.

7           Q     And there were several men standing around
8     next to his car. And I actually thought they were
9     plain clothes security. And I'm terrible --

10          A     Yes, ma'am. That was me.

11          Q     You were one of the men standing there?

12          A     I was.

13          Q     Are you friends with that particular
14     deputy?

15          A     I know him. Yes, I do.

16          Q     All right. Because I think you've got law
17     enforcement -- your wife is kin to the Johnsons?

18          A     Yeah. And I probably spoke to them about
19     as much as I've spoke to you today.

20          Q     All right. But you were standing there
21     next to them as they were doing security?

22          A     Yes, ma'am. Because when you come
23     through, he said, "Is that a juror I said, "No,
24     ma'am -- no, sir. I believe that's a lawyer."

25          Q     That was you?

26          A     Yes.

27          Q     I have to say I get you and one of the 28     other -- the physical presence of you and one of the 29     other jurors -- so that was -- was there anybody

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 else standing around there --

2 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object unless
3 there is some relevance to this.

4 BY THE COURT: Well, you need to wrap it
5 up because the time limits, you've already
6 passed. So you need to wrap this up with
7 this witness.

8 BY MS. STEINER:

9 Q Did -- let me -- I'd like to address --
10 I'm sorry. I did not keep my eye on that. Do you
11 know were there other people, also jurors, standing
12 around there with you?

13 A Probably so, because we parked over there,
14 and we was talking as we come back. Yes, ma'am.

15 Q All right. And they heard you say, No,
16 advising that's one of the lawyers?

17 A Well, I mean, it's -- he didn't know
18 who -- you know, I was speaking with him. He didn't 19 know who you were. He said, "Do y'all know who this 20 is?" I said, "I think that's one of the lawyers."

21 Q All right. I cut my eyes away, because I
22 wasn't supposed to have an interaction with you.

23 A Well, I mean --

24 Q Let me ask you: You have said to His
25 Honor that you can consider both life without parole
26 and the death penalty. Is that correct?

27 A I can.

28 Q Now on your questionnaire, you checked A,
29 you strongly favor the death penalty?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A       Yes, ma'am. As I told Your Honor here,
2 that when I heard -- when I would hear the case,
3 that's when my decision would be made on which
4 punishment.

5           Q       I appreciate that. Do you -- he's talked
6 to you about aggravating circumstances, and I -- I
7 just want to make clear that you won't even hear
8 about this unless Mr. Flowers -- you have already
9 found him guilty --

10           BY THE COURT: Ms. Steiner, wrap it up
11 with this witness.

12           A       I understand that.

13           BY MS. STEINER:

14           Q       -- and -- of the murder of four people?

15           A       I understand that.

16           Q       And do you understand that he can put on 17 mitigation that has nothing to do with that crime to 18 suggest that he should not receive the death
19 penalty?

20           A       You have -- you have to say that again.

21           BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, we have been 22 through this. And --

23           BY MS. STEINER:

24           Q       Can you consider matters such as his 25 family background, his life before his arrest on 26 this crime, how he has lived his life since this
27 crime?

28           A       The judgment would be based on the crime,
29 because I feel like that's what we are here for.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 Something that happened at one particular time. Not
2 something that happened beforehand or afterhand.

3 BY MS. STEINER: Thank you. I've got
4 nothing further.

5 BY THE COURT: But what I want to
6 understand is: Will you listen to all the 7 evidence as presented?

8 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

9 BY THE COURT: And during the sentencing
10 phase, will you listen to all the evidence
11 that's presented?

12 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

13 BY THE COURT: And will you wait until 14 after you have heard all that and been
15 instructed by the Court before you make a
16 determination as to the appropriate sentence?

17 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

18 BY THE COURT: You may step down. We 19 need -- and when you go back, don't talk with 20 anybody else about what's been discussed in
21 here.

22 BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

23 (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

24 BY THE COURT: We need Ms. Ray, No. 68, 25 next.

26 (JUROR NO. 68, JULIA RAY, ENTERS THE
27 COURTROOM)

28 BY THE COURT:

29 Q If you'll come on down, ma'am, please.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 Ms. Ray, we are now asking individual
2 jurors questions outside the presence of other
3 people because we just felt like some of the 4 questions needed to be asked in private and not out
5 in front of everybody.

6 A Yes, sir. But before you start --

7 Q Yes, ma'am?

8 A -- I do need to tell y'all that when you
9 asked if you knew any of the victim's families --

10 Q Yes, ma'am?

11 A -- I do know Bobo Stewart's aunt, you
12 know. I didn't know it until I saw her in the 13 courtroom yesterday.

14 Q And you know Mr. Stewart's aunt?

15 A Uh-huh.

16 Q And who is that aunt?

17 A Please don't ask me.

18 Q Or you just know her when you see her?

19 A Well, we worked at the same place, not 20 doing the same thing, but --

21 Q And how long ago was that?

22 A About 12 years ago. That's the reason I
23 didn't remember.

24 Q Well, I appreciate you bringing it to my 25 attention now. Would the fact that you know his 26 aunt in any way affect you in being a fair and
27 impartial juror?

28 A No, sir.

29 Q And if you were to find Mr. Flowers not

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 guilty in this case and were to see Mr. Stewart's
2 aunt at some point in the future, would you feel ill
3 at ease seeing her or feel you owed her an
4 explanation for how you had ruled in the case?

5           A     No.

6           Q     The next question involves knowledge of 7 the case. Have you heard anything about the case or 8 had any -- you know, read about it?

9           A     Well, just a little bit of this and that.
10 I remember when the murders happened. I was 11 managing a convenience store in Duck Hill so that 12 was 24/7. And I didn't -- I've never followed any 13 of the trials.

14           Q     And has anything that you heard about the 15 case in the past caused you to form an opinion as to
16 Mr. Flowers' guilt or innocence?

17           A     No, sir.

18           Q     And would you lay aside whatever you heard
19 outside the courtroom and base your decision
20 strictly on the evidence as presented here in court?

21           A     Yes, sir.

22           Q     And Ms. Ray, the next question concerns
23 the possibility of a sentencing phase of the trial.
24 If Mr. Flowers is found guilty, we go into a
25 sentencing phase. If he's found not guilty, it
26 stops, and we don't go any further.

27                   If he were to be found guilty, then the 28 jury would make a determination as to the 29 appropriate punishment. The State is seeking the

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 death penalty. The State would put on proof that
2 they believe would justify the imposition of the
3 death penalty, which would be called aggravating
4 factors.

5 The Defense would put on what they call
6 mitigating factors, which could be stuff like his
7 background, family history and things like that that
8 would be reasons the jury might think that the death
9 penalty should not be appropriate or would not be
10 appropriate. But the jury will ultimately decide
11 what the appropriate punishment is. And if he was 12 not given the death penalty, the penalty would be 13 life without parole. Could you consider the death
14 penalty and life without parole as proper -- as 15 sentences in the case?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q And as you sit here today, would you
18 automatically tend to favor one type punishment over
19 the other?

20 A No.

21 Q And will you wait till you're instructed
22 on the law by the Court and hear the evidence that's 23 presented at the sentencing phase, if it gets to 24 that, and base your determination on that?

25 A Yes, sir.

26 BY THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Evans.

27 BY MR. EVANS:

28 Q Good evening, Ms. Ray.

29 A Hey.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     In the first phase, are you telling us
2     that there are no outside influences that would
3     interfere with you coming in with an open mind,
4     basing your decision strictly on what you hear and
5     see in court; is that correct?

6           A     Yes, sir.

7           Q     And in the second phase, as the judge told
8     you, he will instruct you on what the law is as to 9     what the aggravating circumstances are and what the 10    mitigating circumstances are. We'll be presenting 11    the aggravating circumstances. The Defense will be 12    presenting the mitigating circumstances. And like
13    the judge told you, the mitigating may be anything
14    from his age to his life, things like that. Will 15    you come in with an open mind, consider all of a 16    what's presented to you, both aggravating and the 17    mitigating, and only determine which penalty is 18    appropriate after you've heard all of that?

19          A     Yes, sir.

20                   BY MR. EVANS:   Nothing further, Your
21                   Honor.

22                   BY MS. STEINER:

23           Q     Good afternoon. I am -- on your jury
24     questionnaire --

25           A     Yes, ma'am.

26           Q     -- when you were asked to share your
27     opinion on -- how you feel about the death
28     penalty -- and everybody's opinion is fine. But you
29     did check A, you strongly support the death penalty?

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           A     Yes, sir -- when it's deserved. When it's
2 proved to be deserved, yes, sir -- yes, ma'am.

3           Q     All right. And you were talking about --
4 Mr. Evans alluded to mitigation evidence. You
5 know -- remember -- you will only be considering the 6 sentence after you have already decided that
7 Mr. Flowers is guilty of at least one and possibly
8 four separate capital murders. Do you understand
9 that?

10          A     Yes.

11          Q     And then you will hear mitigation
12 evidence. And some of that evidence, as Mr. Evans
13 said, has nothing to do with this actual crime.

14          A     Yes, ma'am.

15          Q     You understand that?

16          A     Yes, ma'am, I understand.

17          Q     Can you consider things about his life
18 before the crime?

19          A     Yes, ma'am.

20          Q     In mitigation to consider whether or not
21 he deserves the death penalty?

22          A     Yes, ma'am.

23          Q     Can you consider things that -- his life
24 as he's lived it since these events as mitigation?

25          A     Yes, ma'am. I'm sure I could.

26          Q     Okay. You looked a little surprised that 27 that would be before you.

28                   Now, to find him -- to impose the death
29 sentence, you and everybody else in the room must

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 agree; you understand that?

2           A     Yes, ma'am.

3           Q     To find something mitigating in your own
4 heart or mind, that's -- that's your vote. You
5 don't have to agree with anybody else. If you think
6 it's mitigating, you can say that. And if you think
7 it's strong enough to suggest a life without, you
8 can say that. Do you understand that?

9           A     Yes, ma'am, I understand that.

10          Q     And everybody -- every other juror --
11 unlike with the death penalty, every juror can keep 12 his or her own opinion.

13          A     Yes, ma'am.

14          Q     You would like to have that respected by 15 other jurors, I take it?

16          A     Yes, ma'am.

17          Q     And can you respect that in other jurors?

18          A     Yes, ma'am.

19          Q     About what mitigation is and the ultimate
20 sentencing decision?

21          A     Yes, ma'am.

22               BY MS. STEINER: Thank you. That's all I
23 have.

24               BY THE COURT: Ms. Ray, you may step down.
25 And when you step out, don't discuss with 26 your other jurors what we talked about in 27 here, please.

28               BY JUROR: No, they're being real good, so
29 I will, too.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           BY THE COURT: I appreciate that. Thank
2           you.

3                       (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

4           BY THE COURT: No. 69, Billy Michael
5           Carpenter.

6                       (JUROR NO. 69, BILLY CARPENTER, ENTERS
7           THE COURTROOM)

8           BY THE COURT:

9           Q     If you'll come on down, Mr. Carpenter.
10          Mr. Carpenter, what we're doing now is asking
11          questions of the jurors outside the presence of the 12          other jurors because there are some matters we just 13          thought would be appropriate to take up in private.

14                 First, I want to know if you've got
15          knowledge about the case -- I know you had said you
16          were around the ball field when young Mr. Stewart
17          was playing ball. And so I assume that you probably 18          heard about the case during -- at back when it
19          happened. Would that be correct?

20                A     Yes, sir.

21                Q     And did you read about it in the paper or 22          T.V. or radio? How -- what ways have you heard
23          about the case?

24                A     Well, I heard it by word of mouth the day
25          it happened. And then the only thing I read was in 26          the Winona Times or what I heard on WONA radio. I
27          don't read the big newspapers or anything.

28                Q     Could you -- well, has anything you've 29          read caused you to form an opinion as to the guilt

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 or innocence of Mr. Flowers?

2           A     No, sir.

3           Q     And would you lay aside whatever you may
4 have heard and base your decision strictly on the
5 evidence presented here in court?

6           A     Yes, sir.

7           Q     And you coached Mr. Stewart in the past.
8 Would the fact that you coached him -- or that you
9 were up there around the same time --

10          A     I never coached him.

11          Q     You coached when he was around the ball
12 field --

13          A     When he was around the ball field.

14          Q     And would that be a factor in your 15 deliberations as a juror?

16          A     No, sir.

17          Q     And the next issue involves a possible
18 sentence. What happens is there could be a
19 two-phase trial if Mr. Mr. Flowers would be found
20 guilty. If he's found not guilty on the first 21 phase, there would not be a second phase. But if it
22 got to the second phase, that would mean he had been
23 found guilty. And then the jury would be 24 determining what punishment would be appropriate.

25                 The State of Mississippi is seeking the 26 death penalty in this case. They would put on 27 aggravating factors, which would be, in the State's 28 view, reasons the jury should impose the death
29 penalty.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Mr. Flowers will then put on mitigating
2 facts. That would be things that he believes would
3 show the jury that the death penalty is not
4 appropriate. It could be things like family ties or 5 things that have happened in his life in the past or 6 at any time even after the alleged offense occurred.

7           But the Court will instruct you to listen
8 to the aggravating and mitigating factors and then
9 make the determination. And if the jury did not
10 return the death sentence, then life without parole
11 would be the sentence. Can you consider both of 12 those sentencing options?

13           A     Yes, sir.

14           Q     And as you sit here today, do you have 15 any -- do you favor one over the other without 16 having heard any of the evidence?

17           A     No, sir.

18           BY THE COURT:   Okay. Thank you.

19           BY MR. EVANS:

20           Q     Good evening. On the second phase, when 21 we get into the penalty, if we -- if the jury finds
22 the defendant guilty -- not only will there be 23 aggravators and mitigators, but the judge will 24 instruct the jury on what they can consider.

25           Can you tell us with an open mind that you
26 will come in, not leaning for one penalty or the 27 other, listen to the Court's instructions and base
28 your decision of whether the penalty should be the 29 death penalty or life without parole only after

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 honestly considering what both sides say?

2           A       Yes, sir.

3                   BY MR. EVANS:   Okay.   Nothing further.

4           BY MS. STEINER:

5           Q       Good afternoon, Mr. Carpenter.   Yesterday,
6 I believe you had a coughing fit.   Is that something
7 that is likely to be occurring or distract you
8 during the trial in this matter?

9           A       Only if I try to swallow this cough drop
10 again.

11          Q       I see.

12          A       I had cough drop get hung.

13          Q       Now, you said actually heard by word of 14 mouth the day that the four people were killed at 15 Tardy.

16          A       Right.   It was.

17          Q       Was that when you learned that one of the 18 people that had been shot that day was Mr. Bobo --
19 was Bobo Stewart?

20          A       I didn't hear who it was at all that day.
21 I found out the next day.   Of course, it was 22 everywhere the next day.

23          Q       All right.   Now, you said that you had 24 coached a different team or been on the ball field,
25 knew him.   And at that time, that hit you hard, I
26 assume, to know he was fatally wounded at that time
27 but not yet dead.   Did that --

28          A       I knew him in passing.   I didn't know him
29 like I knew the kids that I coached.   I knew him in

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 passing.

2 Q But I believe you also testified that you
3 knew all the Stewarts, and Randy Stewart and you
4 were baseball dads on that field?

5 A Well, I mean, Randy and I never hung out
6 together. His sister was my age. In high school,
7 we hung out a little bit together.

8 Q All right. And when you found out that 9 Ms. Edie's nephew had been fatally wounded and 10 ultimately died, I assume you offered condolences to 11 her and Mr. Randy?

12 A I did.

13 Q Did you attend the funeral of Mr. Stewart?

14 A I believe I did. I really can't remember.

15 Q Now, in this case, in addition to hearing
16 about the death of your classmate's nephew and your 17 fellow baseball dad, Randy Stewart -- several 18 Stewarts, about the death of their loved one, you're 19 going to conceivably be shown photographs --

20 A (Nodding head).

21 Q -- of the scene where the State will be 22 proving that he was shot. And those feelings are 23 going to come back when that happens, aren't they?

24 A I've never seen those photographs.

25 Q Well, I know you haven't, but I'm just 26 giving you heads up --

27 BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, he hasn't
28 talked about any feelings yet, so I don't 29 know what feelings she's talking about are

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1 going to come back.

2 BY MS. STEINER:

3 Q Well, you had feelings of sadness, did you
4 not?

5 A As I do when any young child passes away.

6 Q And here, you knew the 16-year-old who had 7 died?

8 A Like I said, I knew him in passing. I
9 mean, we weren't close or anything like that.

10 Q But you attended his memorial service --

11 A I think I did.

12 Q -- in company with Mr. Randy Stewart, who 13 may be a witness here today?

14 A (Nodding head).

15 Q And you have not -- but you are likely to 16 be shown an -- and I assume you were a mourner at 17 that funeral. It saddened you for the loss of a
18 young life; is that correct?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q It saddened you for the loss of a loved
21 one by your classmate, Ms. Edie -- I don't know if 22 she's still a Stewart -- Ms. Edie, his aunt; is that
23 correct?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And your acquaintance, your fellow
26 baseball dad, Mr. Randy Stewart, and you mourned
27 with them and you felt their pain and sadness; is
28 that correct?

29 A I paid my respects to them, yes, I did.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     And yes. And you were -- you weren't
2 indifferent to their loss or the loss of this young
3 man. And those were feelings of sadness you had at
4 the time?

5           A     I have feelings of sadness for all the 6 families that were involved.

7           Q     I appreciate that. Now, you're going to 8 be possibly be shown pictures of certainly a place
9 where blood will be identified by various people as 10 having been blood that was shed by Mr. Stewart. You
11 understand that?

12          A     Uh-huh.

13          Q     And this is in the guilt phase. Now,
14 the -- because you -- and you say you're -- you feel
15 sorry for all the families. Your sympathy for all
16 the families -- this isn't some unknown's person's
17 blood. This is the people you know and his family
18 that you care about; is that correct? Can you look
19 at those pictures and look at it just as evidence
20 without thinking about who this is?

21          A     Absolutely.

22          Q     All right. You are -- at the penalty
23 phase, as His Honor --

24               BY MS. STEINER: And Your Honor, I am
25 going to go further but there are multiple
26 areas of inquiry here.

27               BY THE COURT: Well, there's not many 28 more, because -- you know, I'll give you an 29 additional extra minute.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           BY MS. STEINER: Well, Your Honor, I need
2           to --

3           BY THE COURT: Well, I'll give you --
4           you're wasting your time now.

5           BY MS. STEINER:

6           Q     At the penalty phase, it is likely that
7           the State will be putting on testimony as you heard
8           from Mr. Randy Stewart, your fellow baseball dad,
9           the brother of your classmate. And you're telling
10          me -- and you may hear that. And you've told His 11          Honor you could consider mitigating factors in 12          sentencing Mr. Flowers -- Mr. Flowers that would 13          militate against the death penalty in this matter.
14          You understand that?

15          A     Yes, I do.

16          Q     And you will be listening to those in the 17          context of also hearing what the State puts in 18          aggravation and impact testimony from Mr. Stewart
19          and other family members; you understand that?

20          A     I understand.

21          Q     Those mit -- and they will be talking
22          about the crime and what it did to them. Or to what
23          the loss of their loved one did. If -- now,
24          mitigating evidence can include things that has 25          nothing to do with the crime, having to do with
26          Mr. Flowers --

27                   BY THE COURT: You've used another minute.
28                   You got 30 seconds.

29          BY MS. STEINER:

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           Q     Can you consider those?

2           A     I can.

3           Q     And would you be inclined to weigh more
4 heavily what Mr. Stewart had to say as to what Mr.
5 Flowers' family would have to say?

6                   BY MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I object. He 7 can't answer that till he's heard what they
8 had to say.

9           BY MS. STEINER:

10          Q     By virtue of your acquaintance?

11          A     I'll listen to both sides.

12          Q     And can you fully consider that if you
13 find -- if you are moved by Mr. -- by the victim's
14 testimony, can you consider evidence about Mr.
15 Flowers' life before and after these events?

16          A     If I'm moved?

17          Q     If you are moved by this, can you --

18          A     I can consider both sides.

19                   BY THE COURT: Okay. That will all,
20 Mr. Carpenter. You may step down now.

21                   BY JUROR: Thank you, Judge.

22                   BY THE COURT: When you step down, don't
23 discuss the case -- don't talk about outside
24 what you discussed in here.

25                   BY JUROR: Yes, sir.

26                   BY MS. STEINER: If the Court, please, I
27 have another area of inquiry regarding his 28 conduct as a juror that I would like to 29 pursue with him.

INDIVIDUAL VOIR DIRE

1           BY THE COURT: Ms. Steiner, I'll wait till
2 he gets out.

3           (JUROR LEAVES THE COURTROOM)

4           BY THE COURT: I imposed a time limit
5 because you're continually asking questions
6 over and over and over. You've asked a
7 number of questions about things that we got
8 into specifically with him during voir dire
9 yesterday. So you're repeating yourself.

10           But not only are you repeating
11 yourself, but you're talking about --
12 stringing about ten sentences together before
13 you even get to a question --

14           BY MS. STEINER: If the Court --

15           BY THE COURT: -- and that -- that's 16 certainly -- if you choose to ask questions
17 that way, that's fine. But I'm -- I'm not
18 going to sit here and have repeated questions
19 over the same issues, and that's what you're 20 doing. Rather than interpose -- rather than 21 be rude and tell you to move on to other
22 issues, I just decided it was best to impose
23 a time limit.
